

Deeply 614

614 Pouncing on her (4)

Aunt Wu smiled and blinked her eyes at su Wanwan. I understand, young Madam.

After saying that, she picked up the big and small suitcases and went upstairs.

Su Wanwan carried Xiao Zeze and walked around the villa. In one year, the villa had changed a lot. Many new decorations were added and the layout had also changed a lot. The traces of her living here in the past had disappeared with these changes.

Su Wanwan went up to the second floor and went to the master bedroom. The moment she walked into the room, she could see the dazzling pink lace princess bed. It had been replaced with PEI Munian's usual low-key style. The gray bed frame and black bedding looked cold.

Su Wanwan put Xiao Zeze on the bed and rubbed her sore arms. She raised her eyes and looked around the bedroom. The things that were added because of her had all disappeared. This place had returned to being a single man's room. It was simple, but there was no sign of life.

PEI Munian had said that she would get people to clean up her things. So it was true, and they had even cleaned up her things so cleanly.

Su Wanwan couldn't help but feel a little stuffy in her chest. Although she was to blame, he was a big man. Wasn't he a little too heartless? She did not leave anything behind. Was she afraid that others would find out that he had an "ex-wife" like her? or was she afraid that Xi Zhiwei would be unhappy if she saw her things?

Thinking of this, su Wanwan became even more depressed.

Aunt Wu happened to come over with her suitcase. When she saw su Wanwan sitting on the bed in a daze with a face full of annoyance, she couldn't help but step forward and asked with concern, "Young Madam, what's wrong?"

He was so happy and excited just now, but now he was like a withered eggplant, dejected.

Su Wanwan lazily rolled her eyes and shook her head lightly. I'm fine, but I saw that the villa has changed a lot. It's like I've never lived here before. I'm a little embarrassed.

Su Wanwan said and shook her head. but you can't blame niannian. I was a little too much at that time.

At that time, she had thought that it was impossible between her and PEI Munian in this lifetime. Hence, she had not considered any way out. She had done what was most hurtful, and it was only right for PEI Munian to be angry.

Auntie Wu sighed.

A year ago, everyone thought that they would be fine and would be happy from now on, but they didn't expect su Wan to suddenly run away from the marriage. The pair that should have been happy became like this.

Auntie Wu didn't even want to recall how her young master had been this year. He had been like a walking corpse for a long time, and her heart ached for him.

young Madam, young master hasn't been happy this year. Since you've decided to come back, you must treat him well and don't hurt him again. If you want to leave in the future, you should leave now and don't provoke him again.

It was rare for aunt Wu to speak to su Wanwan in a heavier tone, and she also became serious.

Are you not happy?

Su Wanwan's eyes narrowed and she said in surprise: "Niannian, is he not happy? But after I left, didn't he get together with Xi Zhiwei? Why would he be unhappy?"

She left because she wanted to fulfill his wish. He was able to be with the person he loved, so how could he not be happy?

Auntie Wu was even more surprised than her. young Madam, who did you hear this from? young master got together with Miss Xi after you left? "