

Deeply 66

Chapter 66 It's just that she doesn't love me VIII

The moment he kissed her, su Wanwan couldn't help but think of the unbearable pain from the previous few times. The strength of her struggle became stronger and stronger. Even when PEI Munian's tongue was forced into her mouth, she reflexively bit down hard.

The smell of blood quickly spread between the two people's lips and teeth. PEI Munian groaned and his movements paused for a moment. Then, his black eyes seemed to be dyed with a touch of blood-red hostility. He chuckled twice and his lips left su Wan's.

It was just that su Wanwan didn't have time to breathe a sigh of relief when PEI Munian's hand had already directly grabbed the belt around her waist. With a strong tug, her nightgown spread open. Then, she pulled su Wanwan's legs apart and sank her body down mercilessly.

If it was said that PEI Munian had been merciful the last few times, this time, he was like a madman, completely out of control. With a violent murderous aura, he punished her ruthlessly.

Su Wanwan was in so much pain that cold sweat broke out on her forehead. Her hands unconsciously wanted to grab the bed sheet under her, but her hands were firmly held down by PEI Munian and she couldn't move at all.

If it was in the past, no matter how painful or sad it was, she would only close her eyes, clench her teeth, and bear it silently. But today, she did not know where she found the strength to break free from PEI Munian's hand and push him away.

The more su Wanwan resisted, the stronger PEI Munian's movements became. She couldn't push him away and was unwilling to give in. Her hands suddenly grabbed PEI Munian's shoulders, propped her up, opened her mouth, and bit his neck hard.

He had made her feel so much pain, so she wanted to make him feel pain too!

The love between the two people was more like a physical fight. They were entangled with each other, and no one gave in to the other.

Su Wanwan didn't remember how many times PEI Munian pressed on her body and did it. She only felt like a fish on a hot pot, being tossed and turned countless times. When he finished, her whole body was limp on the bed, gasping for breath. She didn't even have the strength to move her fingers.

PEI Munian jumped out of bed and strode into the bathroom. After a while, he came out and slowly put on his clothes. He looked down at su Wanwan. The anger in his heart didn't decrease but increased instead. It was still so exuberant and irritable. He took a few steps forward, picked up his phone, and dialed assistant Wu's number. In front of su Wanwan, he said word by word, "now, transfer the third sum of money to the SU group's account!

After saying that, he seemed to sneer, but it also seemed like he didn't. He turned around and left!

PEI Munian went downstairs in a rage. Auntie Wu thought that he had some instructions for her and was about to go up to ask him. However, when she saw PEI Munian's extremely dark expression, she immediately stopped and did not dare to go over.

It was only when PEI Munian walked out of the house that Auntie Wu patted her heart, which still had lingering fear. Then, she couldn't help but look up at the second floor. Why were the young master and young Madam fighting again?

PEI Munian's car had driven far away, but she was still angry. He was angry that su Wanwan treated him as a money tree. He was even angrier that if he lost this role, he wouldn't be able to keep her.

If that day, her su family rose again and her su family regained its glory, would she, su Wanwan, still look at him? It was just like that time when she had immediately turned against him after a night of intimacy!

As she thought about it, the anger in PEI Munian's heart slowly turned into a deep panic. Her hands on the steering wheel trembled uncontrollably.
