

Deeply 662

662 I don't want to owe her (8)

Su Wanwan briefly explained the ins and outs of the matter. Yu Jia listened and nodded repeatedly, "okay, I'll find a way to help you find out as soon as possible.

"Yes." Su Wanwan responded and then said, "But there's no rush. You should take care of your blind date first."

I have to take care of the blind date, but your matter is also very important. However, I can do two things at the same time today.

"What do you mean?"

Yu Jia chuckled. the person I'm going on a blind date with today is also a doctor, but we're in different departments. When Xi Zhiwei got into a car accident, although he wasn't the attending doctor, he was in the team. I might be able to find out something from him.

"This is really fate." Su Wanwan sighed.

that's right. You can rest assured and wait for my good news.

"Alright," he said.

After being stuck in traffic for half an hour, the traffic finally cleared, and Yu Jia drove to the agreed hotel.

The doctor's surname was Xu. He had just returned from studying in the UK. Although he had not been in the hospital for a long time, he was already famous. There were many rumors in the hospital that he was handsome, came from a good family, and had a gentle character. He was simply the Prince Charming of their dreams.

With Yu Jia's background, it was basically impossible for her to meet such a good man. However, these doctors were so passionate about medicine that they had never had a proper girlfriend at the age of 30. His parents were anxious, so they cast their net everywhere. It just so happened that her University professor knew Dr. Xu's mother, so after hearing what she said, he immediately promoted her to Dr. Xu. Mrs. Xu made the decision and arranged the blind date.

However, Yu Jia was skeptical about these rumors. A normal man with money, good looks, a good job, and a good family background wouldn't be worried about not having a woman and need to go on blind dates. Either those people were exaggerating, or he had some kind of problem.

She couldn't be blamed for overthinking things. She had been struggling on the path of matchmaking for so long and had seen all kinds of fake and inferior products. Often, those that were full of praise were far from reality.

She wasn't really interested in this blind date. She just didn't want to reject the professor's good intentions. However, now that Wanwan was involved, her trip here wasn't in vain.

Because of the traffic, Yu Jia arrived a little late. She walked into the restaurant and told the waiter what table it was, and the waiter led her there.

From a distance, Yu Jia saw her blind date today, Dr. Xu, sitting by the window. He turned his face and looked at the traffic outside. Yu Jia's eyes fell on the outline of his face and her eyes brightened. The outline was quite charming. It seemed like the rumors were not as exaggerated as they seemed.

Yu Jia's Black eyes couldn't help but stare at his face as she continued to walk forward. Dr. Xu seemed to feel it and turned his face around. His gentle and handsome features were immediately imprinted in Yu Jia's eyes.

Yu Jia's footsteps suddenly stopped, and his black eyes suddenly widened.

She didn't expect the rumors to be true. This Dr. Xu was actually a very handsome man. Yu Jia looked at his face and was silent for a second. Then, she suddenly turned around and rushed toward the bathroom.

"Hey, miss, where are you going?" The waiter shouted at her in confusion.

Yu Jia rushed into the bathroom, grabbed her bag, and poured out everything. Then she picked up the powder and began to put on her makeup. After applying the foundation, she unscrewed the mascara, brushed her eyelashes, and applied lipstick. Then she put down her hair that was tied up casually.
