Su Wanwan turned her head and continued to blink her big eyes. Her long, curly eyelashes flickered up and down like cattail-leaf fans, which was particularly attractive- just play once!

PEI Munian looked away. you can bring little Zeze out to play. I'll wait for you here!

"Niannian Yingluo."

"I'm definitely not playing this!"

"Niannian, let's play!"

Su Wanwan couldn't help shaking PEI Munian's arm. Xiao Zeze seemed to be amused by her appearance. He curved his eyebrows, laughed, and clapped his hands.

Su Wanwan took advantage of the situation. you see, Xiao Zeze also said the same thing. Just play with us!

"I'm definitely not playing such a childish game!"

A minute later, PEI Munian was dragged onto the merry-go-round by su Wanwan with a stiff and lifeless face. Su Wanwan excitedly picked a horse for him. niannian, do you want to ride a white horse or a pink Horse? I think a pink Horse looks better, yay yay.

PEI Munian directly sat on a Castle-style chair at the side.

Su Wanwan looked back and burst into laughter. niannian, I didn't expect you to like this. That's usually for princesses to sit on. It turns out that you're like this, niannian!

".....?" PEI Munian's cold gaze drifted over.

Su Wanwan coughed lightly. alright then, you be the Princess and I'll be the Knight. I'll protect you!

Su Wanwan handsomely mounted the pink Horse, then quickly took out her phone, raised it high, and smiled in PEI Munian's direction, " Niannian, look over here, eggplant!"

After they got off the merry-go-round, PEI Munian immediately called the person-in-charge of the amusement park. The moment the call went through, he said in a cold voice, " Don't let me see the merry-go-round in the amusement park again!"

"Ah?"

Because she had Xiao Zeze with her, she couldn't play those exciting games. After su Wanwan dragged PEI Munian to play a few gentle and extremely childish games, she saw that he really didn't look too good. She secretly laughed and didn't want to force him anymore.

However, there was a project that she had to play with. This was also the reason why she had brought PEI Munian over today.

The two of them walked to the end of the amusement park and looked at the huge Ferris wheel in front of them. Su Wanwan held PEI Munian's arm and said, "Niannian, let's go take the Ferris wheel."

PEI Munian's eyes darkened. we've been playing for almost the whole day. Xiao Zeze is tired. Let's go back.

Little ze ze had indeed fallen asleep on PEI Munian's shoulder.

riding the Ferris wheel isn't like other games. It's also a rest. Let's take the Ferris wheel before we leave.

PEI Munian immediately took out her phone and called the chauffeur. drive the car to the entrance. We're going back now.

In other words, he would not sit with her anymore, unlike the previous times when she would act coquettishly and beg him once, and he would let her do as she pleased.

PEI Munian turned around and was about to leave when su Wanwan quickly hugged his arm. niannian, we've already come this far. Let's just sit here for a while. It won't take more than five minutes to walk around. It won't waste any time.

I'm here today to play with Xiao Zeze, not you. If you want to play, you can play by yourself.

PEI Munian's voice turned cold as she glanced at her arm. let go!

Su Wanwan hugged her even tighter and stared at PEI Munian for a few seconds. Her red lips parted slightly. niannian, you've been with little Zeze for a day. Can't you give me five minutes? "

After a pause, su Wanwan pretended to provoke him: "What's wrong? You can't even stay with me for five minutes? Are you afraid I'll eat you?"
