717 Who slapped whose face (7)

Xi Zhiwei's words were light, but they hid a sharp knife. She had clearly aborted the child, but now another one had appeared. She emphasized that she did not know what had happened in the past year, and it instantly ignited the anger in Mrs. PEI's heart!

She used to like su Wanwan very much. She treated her very well and created all kinds of opportunities for her. It was fine if she didn't cherish them. A year ago, even if she was dissatisfied with her, she also endured her dissatisfaction on account of her son's true love for her and on account of her being pregnant with the PEI family's child. She accepted her and even did her best to arrange a wedding for them.

How did she repay her in the end? At such a grand wedding, she had embarrassed her son and had not cared about the PEI family's face at all. She had even cruelly aborted her grandson!

This year, every time she thought of her innocent grandson who was not meant to be, she would gnash her teeth in hatred.

It was not easy for mu Nian to let go of this woman and agree to marry Weiwei. Yet, she came back and ruined mu Nian and Weiwei's wedding without any remorse!

Mrs. PEI's hands clenched tightly and she shouted, " Butler Xi!

Butler Xi walked in and said respectfully, " "Madam, do you have any orders?"

"Get the car ready, I'm going to mu Nian's Villa!"

She wanted to see that su Wan, see that child, and ask clearly. She wanted to ask how she had the face to continue to pester her son!

Xi Zhiwei quickly stopped her. aunty, don't go and find sister Wanwan.

Madam PEI looked at Xi Zhiwei in surprise and her eyes narrowed. why? "

Xi Zhiwei stood up and walked over to Mrs. PEI. She sat him down on the chair and handed her a glass of water. Auntie, please have a glass of water to calm down.

"I don't even need to drink water! I can't help but get angry at the thought of mu Nian being played by this woman, su Wanwan. What's wrong with mu Nian? why is she so obsessed with this woman? it's been so many times, but she still doesn't know her lesson!" Mrs. PEI was getting angry as she spoke.

Auntie, you really can't blame brother mu Nian for this matter. Su Wanwan must have deceived him. He was only restrained by su Wan for the sake of the child. If you go over like this, if brother mu Nian sides with her for the child and says that we framed him, we can't help but alert the enemy and may hurt the relationship between you and your mother.

"Are we just going to let her be?"

"Of course not."

Xi Zhiwei smiled and sat down next to Mrs. PEI. Her tone was very calm. Auntie, I think the best way now is to let su Wanwan expose herself and let everyone know that the child she brought is not brother mu Nian's child at all. He's not a child of the PEI family. This way, she won't have the face to continue pestering brother mu Nian, right? She'll back off after knowing what's going to happen, and she won't hurt your relationship with brother Munian."

Mrs. PEI could not help but look up at Xi Zhiwei and nodded.

She did the right thing. Because of su Wan, there was some estrangement in her relationship with mu Nian. She was also unwilling to have a conflict with her son.

"Wei Wei, what do you think?"

I have some ideas. Auntie, you can take them as your reference.

Xi Zhiwei leaned over and whispered into Mrs. PEI's ear.

Because su Wanwan sprained her waist, she couldn't do anything these days and could only stay at home to rest.

When her phone rang, she was playing with Xiao Zeze. She took out her phone, glanced at it casually, and suddenly straightened her back.
