721 Who slapped whose face (11)

What Mrs. PEI took out from the leather bag was indeed a document, but when su Wanwan saw the words printed on the document, her heart suddenly skipped a beat and her eyes widened slightly.

A DNA report.

The black and white words were clearly presented in front of su Wanwan. She reflexively looked at Mrs. PEI and saw the slight curve of her lips. She instantly understood.

She had invited her to this banquet today not to introduce her and Xiao Zeze to the crowd, but to expose her 'conspiracy' in front of everyone. She wanted to expose that Xiao Zeze was not PEI Munian's son, not the PEI family's child!

She should have thought of it earlier, but it happened so suddenly that she was not prepared. Since Mrs. PEI had planned it, she naturally could not guard against it.

It was indeed wrong of her to make use of Xiao Zeze. She had nothing to say if Mrs. PEI was angry, but at least the child was innocent. At least she didn't have to embarrass the child in public, right?

"Madam, Zhenzhen." Su Wanwan couldn't help but speak up. She whispered in Mrs. PEI's ear with a hint of pleading, "it's better for you to give the child a gift privately.

Mrs. PEI looked at su Wanwan's flustered expression and her heart finally felt a little more comfortable. Would she also be afraid? Would he also feel embarrassed? She had been relying on mu Nian's love to do whatever she wanted all this while. She had not taken the PEI family's reputation seriously and had even caused a barrier between her and her son. She had been holding her anger in for a long time.

Originally, she didn't want to be so ruthless. After all, it was also an embarrassing thing. But Weiwei was right. If she didn't be ruthless, su Wanwan wouldn't know how to restrain herself. Only by completely exposing her evil deeds and letting everyone see her actions clearly would she know her mistake. Only then would she be too ashamed to continue to hang around mu Nian and swindle her with a bastard!

at a moment like this, of course, everyone has to witness it. It's good for the child to receive everyone's blessings.

Mrs. PEI said unhurriedly. Then, without hesitation, she raised the DNA test report high and said to everyone, a year later, I suddenly had a grandson. I think everyone has the same doubts as me. Is this child really a child of the PEI family? in order to make sure that he has a legitimate identity and not be doubted as he grows up, I did a DNA test for this child and mu Nian. Here are the results of the test.

Everyone's attention was immediately focused on what Mrs. PEI was holding.

Su Wanwan gently closed her eyes. She held the child in her arms tightly and her lips gently touched his forehead, "Xiao Zeze, I'm sorry. My selfishness has hurt you, but no matter what, I will protect you and not let anyone hurt you.

Su Wanwan's hand gently covered Xiao Zeze's face, covering his eyes and face, not allowing others to spy on him.

Mrs. PEI flipped through the pages one by one. When she reached the last page, everyone couldn't wait to see the final results. After that, they couldn't help but exclaim in surprise.

Mrs. PEI took so much effort to hold a banquet and introduce su Wanwan and her child to everyone. Everyone thought that su Wanwan would definitely be the young Madam of the PEI family and this little young master would definitely be the future heir of the PEI family. However, the results of the DNA test showed that PEI Munian and the child's DNA didn't match, eliminating the possibility of parent-child relationship.
