745 Our countdown (9)

The corners of PEI Munian's lips rose slightly. She held su Wanwan's face with both hands and kissed her on the lips like a Dragonfly skimming the water.

Su Wanwan pouted in dissatisfaction. PEI Munian, aren't you too insincere? " PEI Munian's long fingers slid su Wanwan's nose, as if she didn't hear her complaints. our wedding ceremony is considered complete, right? What else do you want to do next?"

".....?"

Although it was just a wedding, it was the best memory she could fight for. When they were separated in the future, at least she wouldn't have too many regrets.

Su Wanwan pursed her lips and replied without hesitation, "Next, of course, is the wedding night."

PEI Munian gave su Wanwan a side glance.

Su Wanwan pouted. enough, don't look at me like that. I don't want to miss you even if you miss me. I've already thought about it. There's a Leo meteor shower tonight. Let's go up the mountain to see it.

"A meteor shower?"

"Yes, I saw it when I was browsing Weibo yesterday. There will be a meteor shower at 10 pm. What time is it now?" Su Wanwan grabbed PEI Munian's hand and looked at the watch on his wrist.

it's past five o'clock now. Let's go have a meal and then drive up the mountain. It's almost time.

Su Wanwan held PEI Munian's hand and ran out. let's go, let's finish our meal quickly and go up the mountain. There will be a lot of people on the mountain at night. We have to go and reserve a good spot.

When PEI Munian and su Wanwan finished eating, it was peak traffic. The car was crawling like a snail. Su Wanwan looked at her phone from time to time. As time passed, su Wanwan furrowed her eyebrows and couldn't help but say anxiously, "Niannian, what should we do? We'll have to wait until at least eight o'clock. When we get to the mountain, there won't be any good seats."

PEI Munian placed one hand on the steering wheel and turned to look at her. She raised her other hand to rub her head and smiled. "Don't worry, no matter how late you go, there will be the best seat for you to see."

"What?"

PEI Munian smiled and did not answer. Coincidentally, the road ahead was smoother. He retracted his hand, changed gears, and stepped on the accelerator, driving the car forward.

The car drove through the most congested part of the road. It was almost nine O'clock and there was less than an hour left before the meteor shower began. At this moment, the mountain was absolutely packed with people. Su Wanwan was very suspicious of where the good spot PEI Munian mentioned was. Could it be that he had someone reserve a seat in advance?

Su Wanwan was about to ask, but PEI Munian suddenly turned the steering wheel and the car changed direction. Su Wanwan was surprised. niannian, aren't we going up the mountain? " Which way do you take to go up the mountain? why are you coming here? Did you go the wrong way?"

PEI Munian's lips curled up. I'm not at the wrong place.

"But Yingluo."

"Don't worry, I won't let you miss the meteor shower you want to see."

After driving for about half an hour, the car arrived at the foot of a mountain. PEI Munian then drove around the mountain and slowly drove up. After another ten minutes, the car reached the top of the mountain. PEI Munian stopped the car and looked at the dumbfounded woman beside her. She leaned over, her thin lips moved close to her ear, and said gently, "What are you daydreaming about? get off the car."

Su Wanwan looked at him in a daze. where is this Yueyue? " How could there be a mountain here?"

There was only one mountain in L city, right? Could she have remembered wrongly?

PEI Munian chuckled. this mountain is the one you wanted to go to previously. It's just that this is the other side. However, this side belongs to our PEI family, so not many people know about this place.
