772 Force out his true heart (12)

".....?" Secretary su, this big mouth, what kind of rumors are you spreading! Su Wanwan retorted angrily, " who, who said we're going to divorce? niannian and I are still together!

"Oh."

Shen Ziwei raised his eyebrows, his eyes full of ridicule. Wanwan, although I wasn't in the country, I only came back after I understood your situation.

Su Wanwan's face turned red at Shen Ziwei's words. She blinked and coughed lightly. alright, I admit that we've had some problems recently! However, it's really just a little bit!"

Su Wanwan emphasized and even gestured with her hands, indicating that it was really just a little bit!

but we won't get a divorce, so I can only let you down, brother Ziwei. You should give up on marriage. We can think of something else, ran ran.

"Wanwan."

Shen Ziwei's lips parted, and his voice was faint. He interrupted her and said word by word, " I think it's better for you to marry me.

"What?"

Su Wanwan went to the bathroom and turned on the tap to wash her hands. As she washed, she couldn't help but think about what Shen Ziwei said just now. However, the more she thought about it, the more confused she became. It was as if a red string was entangled in her head and she couldn't sort it out.

What he said made sense to a certain extent, but it was also very risky. If he was not careful, it was very likely that he would overreach himself.

Su Wanwan shook her head, took the water with both hands and patted it on her cheeks. Her cheeks felt a burst of coolness, but unfortunately, it was still unable to let her chaotic brain have a trace of clarity.

Su Wanwan went out of the washroom and returned to the dining room. Shen Ziwei had already paid the bill. He picked up her bag and got up. let's go.

"Yes."

The two of them walked into the dining room, and someone slowly followed behind them.

Su Wanwan was still thinking about Shen Ziwei's words and walked absent-mindedly. She didn't notice the waiter in front of her and was about to bump into him. Shen Ziwei was quick to react and quickly pulled her arm. Wanwan, be careful.

Su Wanwan was dragged along by Shen Ziwei's strength. She staggered a few times and fell into his arms.

Shen Ziwei looked at her, slightly nervous. Wanwan, are you alright? "

"I'm, I'm fine," Su Wanwan responded in a daze, but her eyes were still not focused.

Shen Ziwei did not know if he should be angry or laugh. After helping her steady herself, he flicked her forehead with his long fingers and said, " you're already an adult, but you're still as reckless as you were when you were young.

Su Wanwan smiled in embarrassment. I was thinking about something.

"You can take your time to think about our matter. There's no need to be so anxious!" Shen Ziwei consoled her and put an arm around her shoulders. forget it. I'll take you away, in case you bump into someone again.

Su Wanwan was about to say no, but her eyes inadvertently swept to the glass wall of the hotel. A familiar figure flashed quickly behind her. Su Wanwan's eyes turned cold. That wasn't Yingluo.

Su Wanwan continued to walk forward without changing her expression. Her gaze was fixed on the glass wall. Sure enough, as soon as she left, the person behind her also slowly turned around the corner, his figure imprinted in her eyes little by little.

Even if the person was wearing a hat and a mask, even if she had turned into ashes, she would still be able to recognize that she was Xi Zhiwei!

Enemies are bound to meet on a narrow road. How could he meet her everywhere?

Wait a minute, why was she taking pictures of her with her phone? No, strictly speaking, she was filming her and brother Ziwei!
