Chapter 83 Who do you think I am (3)

Su Wanwan then remembered why she came back.

However, when she looked at Su Zhenhua's sickly appearance, no matter how angry she was, it was as if a plate of cold water had been poured on her, and all her anger was extinguished.

Her lips quivered. She really wanted to ask her grandfather why he suddenly invested in a new project when the company was clearly short of funds. At the moment, the company was unable to develop two projects at the same time. If that happened, they might not be able to keep both projects in the end. By then, the company would not be able to make a comeback. It would only accelerate the speed of bankruptcy.

However, she knew very well why her grandfather had done that. It was because he was anxious to develop the company and restore it to its former glory. Anyway, as long as she coaxed PEI Munian, the PEI family would invest in the SU family, and he wouldn't have to worry about funding problems.

However, if that was the case, the SU family would have to rely on the PEI family's investments, and she would have to continue to make those dirty deals with PEI Munian, enduring his disgust, ridicule, and humiliation!

For a moment, she really wanted to say all her unwillingness, unhappiness, and embarrassment, but when she opened her mouth, she found that she couldn't make a sound.

Grandfather was sick, and whatever she said to him now would only agitate him. If anything happened to him, what would she do?

She subconsciously clenched her fists and forced a smile, saying, "I heard that you're not feeling well. That's why I came back to see you."

Su Zhenhua smiled and was very pleased. Grandpa is fine. Don't worry. I won't be able to come to the company for a while, so you have to take good care of the company, okay?"

Su Wanwan tried her best to maintain a smile. I know, Grandpa. You can rest at ease. I will look after the company.

"Good, good, good," Su Zhenhua said "good" three times in a row, then raised his hand and patted su Wanwan's shoulder. Wanwan, you're different from your sister. You've never let Grandpa down.

Su Zhenhua's hand on her shoulder actually didn't have much strength, but su Wanwan felt that the hand on her shoulder was like a huge rock, pressing on her until she almost couldn't breathe.

Grandpa always said that she had never disappointed him, but he never cared about whether she was willing or not.

Su Wanwan stayed with Su Zhenhua for a while. Su Zhenhua urged her to go back, so su Wanwan had to get up and leave.

After leaving the SU residence, su Wanwan drove the car around aimlessly on the street. She didn't know where to go or what to do.

Previously, she had thought that she would never make a deal with PEI Munian again and would never use her body to pay back money from her. But now?

One project wasn't completed, and another one came. The company was out of money. Without money, it wouldn't last for a few days. Could it be that ran ran wanted to seduce PEI Munian and sleep with him in exchange for money?

Su Wanwan's mind couldn't help but surface those painful and embarrassing scenes. Her feet suddenly stepped on the brakes and she closed her eyes in sadness.

No, she didn't want to. She didn't want to. She didn't want to!

No matter what, she never wanted to hear those vicious words from his mouth again. She also didn't want to experience those embarrassing things again. This was the last bit of pride she had left, even if it was a little ridiculous.

As for the money ...

Su Wanwan's hand grabbed the steering wheel hard. She will think of a way, she will.
