835 A strange phone call (5)

PEI Munian deliberately emphasized the words 'your brother Ziwei', enunciating each word clearly.

Su Wanwan's head shrank. I, when did I say anything about my brother Ziwei? I only said brother Ziwei, that's all.

Although she and brother Ziwei had a pure brother-sister relationship, she had once flirted with brother Ziwei on purpose to provoke him. As a result, he was now very unhappy with Shen Ziwei.

During this period, as long as Shen Ziwei appeared in the ward, PEI Munian's handsome face would be frighteningly dark and her eyes would be cold. This caused su Wanwan to not dare to mention Shen Ziwei easily.

PEI Munian didn't speak. Her black eyes stared at her. Su Wanwan swallowed her saliva, laughed dryly, and tactfully said: "Yingluo, you should stay here with me."

"So barely?"

Su Wanwan quickly said seriously: " I'm not forcing it. I'm not forcing it at all!

"Why does it sound so forced to me, huh?"

no way. I don't even know how much I wish you could stay. Su Wanwan hugged PEI Munian's waist tightly with both hands and rubbed her head against her. She smiled. I'm just afraid that you'll be busy. You get so many calls every day."

After a pause, su Wanwan continued: " niannian, is it really okay? "

"If the company can't run without me, why would I support the people in the company? It's fine, don't worry. You just have to recuperate well. We'll go back when you've recovered."

"Yes, yes."

The bottom of her heart couldn't help but surge with strands of sweetness. Su Wan propped up her body and knelt on the bed. She grabbed PEI Munian's lapels with one hand and pulled his head down a little. She raised her head and kissed him deeply.

Su Wanwan recuperated for a month. The places on her body that were frostbitten gradually recovered. Her skin color returned to its normal color, the swelling on her body also subsided, and the places on her back where she was smashed slowly healed. Fortunately, there were no scars left.

When the doctor announced that she could be discharged, su Wanwan hugged PEI Munian excitedly and shouted, " Niannian, I'm finally free!"

PEI Munian smiled and hugged her. you're so happy? "

"Of course!"

After all, she had been in the hospital for more than a month. Every day, she had been lying in bed, eating and sleeping until she was full. She was almost bored out of her mind. Occasionally, she wanted to sneak out for a walk, but before she could leave the ward, she was caught by PEI Munian and thrown back onto the bed. She was strictly ordered to get out of bed. She was so bored that she was almost moldy. PEI Munian was also impartial and incorruptible. No matter how she acted coquettishly or shamelessly, it was useless. She counted her fingers every day in anticipation of being discharged.

Su Wanwan raised her smile. I can finally escape from your evil claws. How can I not be happy? ”

PEI Munian laughed and shook her head. don't be happy too early. Even if you're discharged, you still have to pay attention to rest.

Su Wanwan stuck out her tongue and raised her head. She looked in the direction of the ward door and asked in confusion, ” “Didn't brother Ziwei say he was coming? Why haven't they arrived yet?”

“He's not coming today.”

“What?”

director Jin brought him to inspect the factory. Yes, it will take about a week.

“Such a coincidence?”

Su Wanwan looked at PEI Munian suspiciously. She knew that this CEO Jin also had a cooperative relationship with the PEI family group. Shen Ziwei had been very busy recently and almost didn't have time to come to the hospital to see her. It was simply because of someone's fake official position for personal gain, right?

“That was director Jin's arrangement.” PEI Munian's handsome face was flawless as she continued, ” “Oh right, I've booked a plane ticket back to China in three days.”
