Hearing Shen Ziwei's voice on the other end of the line, PEI Munian was rather surprised. She did not expect him to call so early.

"Mr. Shen, is there anything I can help you with?" PEI Munian asked seriously.

Shen Ziwei seemed to be in a hurry and did not bother to exchange pleasantries with him. He went straight to the point. "Is Wanwan with you?"

It was not a good experience for another man to ask about his wife's whereabouts early in the morning. After all, this man had the idea of marrying su Wan.

PEI Munian did not have a good impression of Shen Ziwei. why are you looking for her? " she asked in a flat tone.

"You guys are together?"

Shen Ziwei's tone was slightly serious. PEI Munian sensed that something was wrong and suppressed her jealousy. She replied, no, I'm at the office. Wanwan should be at home right now. Why are you asking me this? "

"She's not here."

Shen Ziwei replied, his voice sinking. she went back to the SU residence yesterday and said that she was going to take Xiao Zeze out for a walk. She didn't come back after that. I thought she went back to your place with the child, but she didn't pick up when I called her just now. When I called the villa, your Butler, Auntie Wu, said that she didn't come back last night. I thought she was either at the SU residence or at the company to look for you, but she wasn't with you.

"What?" PEI Munian's Black eyes turned cold. She suddenly remembered the text message he sent last night. Su Wanwan didn't reply. He thought that she might have fallen asleep and didn't see it. It didn't seem to be the case.

"Wait a moment."

PEI Munian first said to Shen Ziwei on the other end of the phone, then hung up the phone. He quickly dialed su Wan's phone. The beeping sound kept ringing in his ear, and no one picked up even after the call was automatically hung up.

PEI Munian's handsome face quickly darkened. He called Shen Ziwei's phone again. Once the call was picked up, he said, " something might have happened. Do you know where you took Xiao Zeze last night? "

I heard from nanny li that she seemed to have taken Xiao Zeze to the mall. By the way, she drove out by herself.

"Her car seems to have a Global Positioning System. I'll get someone to check it immediately and let you know if there's any news."

“Alright,” he said.

PEI Munian lifted the blanket and got up. After washing up casually, he put on his coat, grabbed his car keys and mobile phone, and strode out of the lounge.

Assistant Wu pushed the door open and was about to ask PEI Munian what she wanted for breakfast. When she saw him walking out, PEI Munian said coldly, “Cancel all the schedules for today.”

“Ah?” Assistant Wu didn’t react for a moment. what? ”

However, PEI Munian had already rushed out like a gust of wind and disappeared from his sight.

Su Wanwan’s car was parked in the underground parking lot of xxx mall. PEI Munian and Shen Ziwei arrived almost at the same time. The car was still in the parking lot, but the person had disappeared without a trace.

PEI Munian asked someone to pull up the surveillance video of the parking lot. There was a video of su Wanwan’s car driving into the parking lot at around 10 O ‘clock yesterday morning. It also recorded her getting out of the car with the child in her arms and walking in the direction of the elevator. But after that, when she walked into a blind spot of the camera, she waited for a long time but didn’t come out.

Then, something must have happened to the person in this blind spot.

But in such a large parking lot, there was almost no one. How did su Wanwan get into an accident?

PEI Munian furrowed her brows as she stared at the screen. Suddenly, her eyes focused on a certain spot on the screen.
