

Deeply 991

991 She's changed for the better?(7)

Su Wanwan suddenly felt extremely guilty. PEI Munian had always loved her so much. Even at the most desperate time, he never gave up on her. However, she always liked to let her imagination run wild and always doubted his heart.

What an idiot!

Su Wanwan turned around and threw herself into PEI Munian's arms. She hugged him tightly and said in a hoarse voice, "I'm sorry, niannian, I'm sorry. I shouldn't have doubted you. I didn't expect you to bear so much on your own.

"You should've told me earlier. You shouldn't have carried this Yingluo on your own."

Wanwan, you'll only be upset if I tell you these things. I might as well not let you know. I'll pay off the debt I'm carrying. In the future, no one will be able to disturb our lives.

After a pause, PEI Munian heaved a sigh of relief and continued, "But it's good to say it out loud, so that your little head won't always let your thoughts run wild and torment yourself."

He curled his finger and knocked her head lightly.

I won't. I won't let my thoughts run wild again, Wanwan. I'll believe you from now on. No matter what happens, I'll believe you.

In this world, there was probably no other man who loved her more than PEI Munian. If she did not believe him, who else could she believe?

"Is that so? You're going to believe me in the future?"

"Yes, I'll believe anything you say!"

"Alright, let's wait and see."

In the blink of an eye, Mrs. PEI was about to be discharged from the hospital. PEI Munian originally wanted to pick her up from the hospital with Su Wanwan, but she was delayed by a meeting at the last minute.

Su Wanwan looked at PEI Munian's text message. He still had about half an hour before he could end the meeting. When he got home and picked her up to the hospital, Mrs. PEI might have already left.

She could only reply to PEI Munian's text message. [niannian, I think I'll go to the hospital first. You can just go to the hospital directly after the meeting.]

PEI Munian wanted to go with her because she was worried that Mrs. PEI would make things difficult for her. However, she could not refuse to pick her up from the hospital just because she made things difficult for her. At most, she would just be mocked by her. She did not care.

Su Wanwan put away her phone, went to the changing room to change her clothes, and then took her bag and went out.

When the car arrived at the hospital, she found a parking space and parked the car. She pushed the door open and got out of the car. Looking at the time, PEI Munian's meeting should have ended by now. She took out her phone and gave him a call.

However, the beeping sound kept ringing in his ear, but no one picked up.

Su Wanwan frowned. Could it be that the meeting was delayed?

It's almost time. Mrs. PEI should be settling the discharge procedures by now!

Su Wanwan thought about it and had no choice but to go in first.

In the ward, Butler Xi and Xi Zhiwei were both there and were talking to Mrs. PEI. It was unknown what Xi Zhiwei said, but Mrs. PEI kept laughing. She couldn't help but grab Xi Zhiwei's hand and sighed. "Weiwei, how good would it be if you were my daughter-in-law? I don't know what mu Nian was thinking, why did she insist on that su Wanwan! Fortunately, she didn't come today, so I don't have to worry about her!"

At the mention of her, Mrs. PEI's smile faded.

Su Wanwan happened to walk to the door. Hearing her words, she didn't know if she should go in for a while.

However, at this moment, Xi Zhiwei looked up inadvertently and saw the figure at the door. Her eyes flashed and she smiled. "Auntie, don't say that. Since brother Munian likes sister Wanwan so much, then sister Wanwan naturally has her good points too. Didn't you like her a lot in the past?"
