Defying Fate: The Unstoppable Eileen Chapter 3

Chapter 3

Her joy after rebirth quickly faded. Then, a thought hit Eileen.

Harlan said Hubery sold her to him?

In her previous life, Harlan never admitted to this. In this life, it was probably because she stabbed Harlan with a fruit knife that he spilled the beans out of anger.

After leaving the hospital, Eileen went to a hotel.

Just as the elevator doors opened, she sped up her pace. "Hold on!"

The man in the elevator pressed the open button.

Eileen rushed over, subconsciously saying, "Thank She hadn't finished speaking when she saw a cold man in a black coat. She was taken aback.

Egbert, the first man in the world to receive nine gold award nominations, was a legend in the entertainment industry, dubbed by foreign media as a miracle of performing arts.

Eileen disguised her surprise and stood to the side of the elevator.

In her previous life, Eileen only saw Egbert on TV. She didn't expect to meet him in person so soon after her rebirth.

As the elevator slowly ascended, Eileen looked straight ahead. Suddenly, she saw the man next to her looking at her through the metallic elevator doors.

Eileen immediately looked back at him.

Their eyes met. The man slightly raised his eyebrows, while the girl's eyes were full of caution.

"What are you looking at?" Eileen said coldly.

The man was surprised for a moment before casually shifting his gaze away

What a shameless man!

The elevator doors opened, and Eileen practically bolted out, running all the way to her room. She opened the door with her code, and just as she was about to enter she saw Egbert walking towards her

She immediately closed the door

Egbert stunned in the corridor.

The room was still a mess.

As Eileen passed a full-length mirror she turned her head and saw her reflection.

Her sexy skin, beautiful hair and eyes cherry red lips, and tall figure.

She knew from a young age that her appearance attracted some greedy people

This was indeed the case.

In her previous life, this was true for her live-stream audience, and for Harlan

This might happen again in the future

Thinking about how Egbert suddenly looked at her...

Eileen's face was cold, Men, they're all no good!"

After her rebirth, she became stronger and no longer believed in any man!

Except for the kind guy who helped her call an ambulance and paid her medical bills

Who knows if she'll meet him again!

Eileen quickly packed up and returned to the Capital.

The CapitalEchoWave Building.

Her manager, Ophelia, looked at Eileen on the couch playing with her phone, then at her suitcase, "You're just in time, I have a variety show for you to participate in Sign here"

Eileen looked up, "I need to see what kind of variety show it is. If it's a low quality show, I won't sign."

"You don't want to sign? Hearing this, Ophelia sneered, "Do you think you have the right to refuse? Do you know how much PR costs are needed to deal with your previous negative news? If you weren't a bit popular, you wouldn't even have a job, let alone any choice"

Eileen was still firm, "I won't take on poor quality work"

Ophelia, somewhat annoyed, threw a contract at her, "This is an online variety show I don't know if you'll think it's good, but you have to take it"

"I won't take it" Eileen glanced at the project name on the contract and immediately rejected it

Ophelia slapped the table. "When I'm talking to you seriously, you'd better listen, Eileen if you want to fight me, things will only get worse for you" Eileen looked up and said, "Even if I agreed to participate in this variety show it wouldn't matter. It's likely to be canceled."

"How would you know?" Ophelia scoffed

Eileen knew because she knew what would happen in the future

Eileen pointed to two guest names on the contract, "These two are having an affair"

Ophelia paused and looked at the contract. The male was a well-known "good husband" middle-aged artist, while the female was a newly debuted actress "Where did you get this information? Ophelia was skeptical have my sources. The man's wife is hiring a detective to gather evidence if this news breaks during the airing of the v show it won't be a explained in history, this was what happened Because these two peoples affair was publicly exposed on Twitter, the recorded variety show was directly banned

Ophelia still doubted this and made a call to confirm. After a while, she hung up the phone, her gaze towards Eileen changing.

After a while, Ophelia said, "Alright, there's another new variety show, you can try it. I'll give you the contract later"

By evening Eileen returned the single apartment arranged by the company with some daily necessities She only had eight dollars left in her bank account

Luckily, Ophelia's assistant soon came to find her. He brought a new variety show contract

Eileen was a bit surprised when she saw the quest name on the contract.

Hubery?

The assistant immediately urged "You just need to sign at the end of the contract"

He then added This is a favel variety show with five quests time of them is the main person in charge, responsible for taking care of the living needs of the five Quests. Any issues the quests have, they will go to him. This position was originally arranged for Colin, he's strong, and could use this opportunity to increase his popularity as he's only debated for a year But he didn't want to go after seeing Hubery's name"

He didn't want to go after seeing Hubery's name?" Eileen looked up

The assistant nodded, "Hubery and Colin started their careers at the same time, but Hubery's got the connections. He's now nailing the role as the second lead in Harlow's TV series, while Colin is still a small fry in the industry. He didn't want to play servant to Hubery, so now he's hiding. We can't find him"

I get it Eileen quickly cobbled her signature on the contract, People generally don't dig Hubery"

The assistant looked at her quizzically, I thought you were a fan of Habery? Isn't he on your wallpaper?"

Eileen casually held up her phone. "You mean this?"

The assistant bent down to take a look. On the screen, Hubery's face was doodled with a giant nose, freckles all over, and a bloodcurdling grin.

The assistant, "Oh turns out you're a hater"

Eileen gave a faint smile and handed the signed contract to the assistant, Rest assured, I'll do my best to take care of our five quests, especially Hubery"

The assistant took the contract somewhat puzzled and prepared to leave. Before leaving, he suddenly remembered. The show is live recording, can you handle it?"

I can totally handle it

Live reconting?

Eileen smirked, this is going to be funt
