

Desert Heat Chapter 21 - Tips

{Allie's P.O.V.}

Dorian insisted on carrying me up the stairs, even though he was injured. Once we got to our door, he put me down and we walked in together. Before, the door closed, we heard shouting in the living room. I was about to go back down, but Dorian stopped me.

“Leave them, they need to work it out,”

“But...” he shook his head and pulled me inside. He closed the door and locked it behind us. I looked him up and down and saw that some of his injuries were already sealing closed. “Come on, let’s get you washed up, you are filthy,” he nodded his head. I led him into the bathroom and took off my clothes. Although this bathroom was smaller than the one at the packhouse, there was still plenty of room for both of us. I turned on the showerhead and let the hot water flow. Once I saw the steam filling the chamber, I pulled Dorian into the shower.

There was no bench, so I had to do my best to reach up to his neck and his shoulder to get off all the sand, dirt, and blood. Some of his wounds were still fresh, and he winced when I went over those with the lathered bath sponge. I tried my best to be gentle. I looked at Dorian’s face and he seemed agitated. I could only imagine what killing Devin that way meant to him. He was right when he said that I would see his dark side. He showed me the true Alpha, but to my surprise, I was not afraid of him.

I mean, that would not make sense. I wanted both Devin and Jessica dead. I had basically commanded Brandon and Mikey to kill her. I too had a dark side, so who was I to judge Dorian or the guys, or any of the other wolves that were here tonight.

“Dorian,”

“Hmm,” he responded but he did not look at me.

“Dorian, baby, look at me,” I said reaching up to his face. He opened his eyes, and they were so sad. “Talk to me,”

“I never wanted to show you that side of me, yes I said that you would see it one day, but not like that,” he bent down and hugged me.

"I am not afraid, Dorian. You did what I wanted. You killed Devin. You killed him just like you promised,"

"I never wanted you to see that though,"

"Babe, I wanted to see it. I mean, it was pretty gruesome, and I didn't expect to hurl, but I am okay," I grabbed his face even harder and bent him down to look me in the eyes. "We are okay,"

"But Allie,"

"No buts, maybe you didn't hear me when I told Bandit to kill that mother fvcker. Hell, I commanded Brandon and Mikey to kill Jessica. It appears I also have a dark side,"

"No! You do not have a dark side Allie!" he said while grabbing my wrists. "You can't. I will not allow you to,"

"Dorian, that is not up to you,"

"The hell it isn't! I will take it all. I will carry the darkness for the both of us. You will never have blood on your hands," he pulled into me a tight hug. Our naked bodies were rubbing against each other.

"Dorian, no. We are in this together, Alpha and Luna," Dorian pulled away and looked at me in shock.

"What did you say?"

"WE are in this together," I said wrapping my arms around his neck. "As Alpha and Luna,"

"Baby are you saying what I think you are saying?" a smile formed on his face.

"There is that amazing smile I know and love," I said while giving him a kiss on the nose.

"Allie?"

"Yes, Dorian," I pecked him on the lips. "I want to be with you, I want to be your Luna,"

"Are you sure? I mean, are you absolutely positive this is what you want?"

“There is not a single doubt in my mind that this is what I want. Dorian Shaw, I love you with everything that I have. I knew I loved you from the very beginning but was in denial. I was in denial because if I gave into what I really wanted before Devin was gone, I was afraid he could take it away. But he is dead now, and I have no doubt that you are the one I want to spend my life with,” He picked me up and spun me around in the shower.

“You’re going to slip and end up dropping me!!!” I shouted. We both laughed and he put me down. We finished in the shower, we got dressed and made our way downstairs. When we got down there, Mikey and Brandon were bloodied and on the floor.

“What the fvck happened to the two of you!?” I shouted.

“I beat the sh!t out of Brandon, that is what happened,” Mikey said.

“I gave it right back,” Brandon said spitting out blood.

“Oh my god! You have got to be kidding me. You guys survive fighting off Devin’s men, you work together to tear apart Jessica, but come back into the house just to wail on each other?”

“Look, Allie, this is how we work things out, we are good now,” Brandon said standing up. I realized that both of them were still naked. He walked over to Mikey and helped him to his feet.

“Both of you get cleaned up and then come back and clean up the mess you made,” Dorian said. Both of them nod and head upstairs.

“Wow,” is all I had to say about all of this.

“How about dinner?” He asked as if what just happened in front of us meant nothing.

“How can you be so calm about the fact your second and third in command just pummeled each other with their fists?”

“That is how they have always been,”

“Seriously?”

“Yeah, that is why I said to leave them alone when they started shouting. Both of them are fighters, they are used to having to beat the sh!t out of each other,” I had nothing to say to that. Although, I did wonder how Sin and I were going to get through this.

Dorian and I went into the kitchen and I started to rummage through the fridge. I found a few ribeye steaks that we had not eaten yet, exactly four. I pulled those out and set them on the counter to get to room temperature. I went through the pantry and found some potatoes, onions, and garlic. I went back to the fridge and found asparagus and brussels sprouts.

“Perfect, my guys deserve the best steak dinner after putting up with my sh!t like this,” I said and started to peel the potatoes and onions.

“Do you need any help?”

“I’m okay, baby, you just rest, and I will get dinner ready for you guys. How to the boys like their steaks?”

“Brandon and I like ours medium-rare, Mikey likes his medium,”

“Really? Sin likes her steak medium too,”

“What about you?”

“Medium rare, like my favorite person,” I smiled and winked at him. I diced up the potatoes nice and thin, chopped the onions very finely, and crushed the garlic and minced it. I drizzled some oil into a glass baking dish and layered everything together. Once that was done cooking, I would spread some cheese on top. I grabbed a second baking dish and added the asparagus and sprouts onto seasoning them with salt and olive oil as well. I threw those into the oven a few minutes after the potatoes. I seasoned the steaks with salt and pepper and put them onto the cast iron skillet. The steaks didn’t take too long, and all the veggies were done.

I plated Dorian’s first, then Brandon’s, mine, and then Mikey’s since his steak needed to cook a little longer than ours. By the time I finished plating everything, the guys came into the kitchen.

“Holy sh!t! That fvcking*g smells awesome!” Mikey said

“Allie is an amazing cook,” Brandon chimed in

“Did you guys clean up the living room?” Dorian asked. The boys nodded.

“Come on boys, you need this more than I do,”

“Mikey, this one is yours,” I said handing him the plate. “Medium?” he nodded and took his food to the main table. All of the other plates were identical. My steak was too big, so I gave a little more to the guys.

The guys seemed to have calmed down a lot and started chit-chatting about random sh!t. Brandon was bragging about my cooking and Mikey was going on about how hurt he was we left him out, even though he knew why already. His way of giving us a guilt trip.

“Damn, that was fvcking*g amazing!” Mikey said

“Told you. The Luna can cook!” Brandon said while picking out meat from his teeth.

“Well, it looks like my job here is done, I am going to go upstairs,” I said while getting up

“What?” Mikey and Dorian said in unison

“Oh yeah, since she cooked, we clean the dishes,” Brandon said while taking his plate the sink

“I have to do the dishes?” Dorian asked as if he had just been insulted

“Yes, it’s just a few plates, baking sheets, and utensils baby,” I said while giving him a k!ss. “Have fun boys!” I waved them off and went upstairs.

{Dorian’s P.O.V.}

I could not believe Allie made me and guys do the dishes. Brandon said that was the rule the girls had when they lived together in their condo and they always alternated. I guess it was a good system, but since I grew up in a house where we always had a staff, I had never had to do the dishes. Now that Allie decided she would take her place as the Luna of my pack; I had a feeling I would be doing more chores around the packhouse.

I got to our room and Allie was sitting in the bed reading. She loved to read. I went into the bathroom to wash my face and brush my teeth for bed. I came back out and she was still reading. She had not even noticed me.

“What are you reading?” I asked her while taking off my shirt and climbing in bed with her. “That is a big a.s.s book,”

“It is called Sleeping Beauties from Stephen King, he is one of my favorite authors,”

“What genre?”

“It’s Stephen King,”

“Baby, I don’t know who that is?”

“Don’t you read?” she asked slamming her book closed

“Not really,”

“Stephen King is one of the greatest mystery and horror writers of all time! Have you seen the movie IT?”

“Yeah, who hasn’t?”

“That movie is based on Stephen King books,” I nodded my head and she rolled her eyes. She opened her book back up and continued to read. I watched as her eyes darted back and forth. She would read for about 30 seconds before moving to the next page. She was so into it, I started to feel neglected.

“Uh, baby?” I tried to get her attention

“What?”

“Can I have some attention please?” she lifted her head from the book and smiled. She placed a bookmark on her current page and put it on the nightstand. She leaned over and kissed me. It started off soft and gentle, but slowly I started to press for more. I adjusted our position to where we were laying down and I was slightly on top of her.

I pressed my lips into hers and licked her lips for her to open her mouth. She complied and we started to taste each other. Our tongues were wrestling for control, and I was winning. I stuck my tongue deep into her mouth and she immediately started to suck on it. A growl erupted from my chest. I was hard in seconds. I got fully on top of her, and she wrapped her arms around my neck.

I k!ssed her passionately, then moved my k!sses to her jawline, to her neck, and then to her c.hest. I k!ssed her as if my life depended on it. I sat her up and removed her shirt. Allie never wore b.ras to bed, so as soon her shirt was removed, her b.reasts were out, and her n!pples were perked out. She grabbed my face and pulled into a k!ss while laying back onto the bed.

I moved my k!sses again, and this time k!ssed her in between her b.reasts. She gasped and ran her fingers through my hair. I growled again. I k!ssed the side of her b.reast and slowly took her n!pple into my mouth. She gasped again, but she didn't stop me. I slowly moved one hand and cupped the other one while gently kneading and massaging it while I continued to s.uckle the other. I removed my hand and went to work on her shorts and panties. Before she knew it, I had her completely n.aked on the bed. I had seen her n.aked plenty of times at this point, but never on the bed like this. I gently spread the l!ps of entrance and started to tease her. She m0aned at my touch. She was already soaking we.t. I easily inserted two fingers and got to work. I knew how she liked it, and where to hit perfectly to give her a quick org*asm.

"fvck, you just know, don't you?" she asked

"Yup," I started again and went faster and harder. She arched her back and was screaming from the pleasure. I knew what my Luna wanted, and I knew what she liked.

"Dorian, I want more now. Do something else,"

"Are you sure you are ready?" she nodded and bit her bottom l!p. I moved down and positioned my face between her th!ghs. This was the first time seeing her beautiful p.ussy up close, and she smelled like heaven. I l!cked and k!ssed her inner th!ghs while slowing getting closer to her sweet sp0t. I just had to get a taste. I spread her l!ps again and l!cked her from bottom to top of her slit. She flinched and gasped as the sudden warmth of my tongue. I l!cked her a few times and started to s.uck on her cl!t.

"Oh fvck!" she shouted while m0aning at the same time.

"You like that baby? Do you like having your beautiful p.ussy eaten?"

"Yes! fvck yes!" she m0aned and arched her back again. I pushed her h!ps down with my hands and put my tongue into her slit. "Dorian!"

“That’s right baby, scream my name!” I said and went back to eating her out. She was squirming and then pushed my head in further. I gladly accepted the gesture and stuck my tongue in as far I could.

“Holy sh!t! That is fvcking*g amazing! Keep doing that baby, I’m going to c.um,” she said while holding my head in place. I obliged and kept eating her like she was my last meal. I pulled out my tongue and bit down on her cl!t. She screamed and I could see her juices gush out of her slit. I l!cked and lapped it up like a hungry tiger. I could not get enough of her sweet honey.

“Mmmmmm, you taste better than the steak baby,” I finished cleaning her up and came back up to her laid next to her.

“Holy fvcking*g sh!t, so that’s what it’s like to be eaten out,” I threw my head back and laughed. “Please tell me that, that is not the only time you do that to me. I will murder you in your sleep if you don’t do that every night from now on,”

“Baby, that p.ussy is delicious, and I plan on eating you every second of every day if I can,”

“You better,”

She relaxed her body and snuggled close to me. She didn’t bother putting her clothes back and just went to sleep. Tonight, I was another step closer to fully having her, but I wanted it to be in our bed, back at our home.

Desert Heat Chapter 22 - Tips

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

We were on our way back to the packhouse. I was excited to be going home, but I was nervous about having to confront Sin.

“Baby?” Dorian’s voice pulled me out of my thoughts. “Are you okay?”

“No, I am nervous about Sin,” I replied

“Don’t worry Luna, Sin is upset, but I doubt she will stay mad,” Mikey said from the passenger seat.

"I'm not worried about her forgiving me, I am worried about what she will do first when she sees me," I knew Sin all too well. She was either going to ugly cry because I came back, or she was going to slap me for lying to her these last few weeks. Knowing her, it would end being up both. After what felt like a lifetime, I could see the packhouse, and the next I knew, we were pulling into the garage.

Dorian stepped out of the car and helped me out. We walked hand in hand to the front door, and I stopped before he could open it.

"What is it, baby?"

"How mad is the pack? I mean, I essentially abandoned them,"

"Not to worry, the pack knows the truth now. Some were upset at first, but they had to be reminded that you are human, and a lot of the sh!t that happened to you, they would never experience. That made them humble and understanding," Brandon said. I nodded my head and Dorian opened the front door. I walked in and the majority of the packhouse was full, and in the middle of the floor stood Sin. I could not even look at her. I felt horrible. I knew what I did was a necessary evil, but I still felt guilty for lying to my best friend, my sister.

I walked up to her slowly and I could see tears filling her eyes and tears were filling mine too.

"Sin, I ..." Before I could even finish, Sin slapped me across the face. Dorian stepped forward but I stopped him. Just like Brandon and Mikey, Sin and I had our ways of dealing with things. I lowered my head and just sobbed.

"You bh! How the fvck could you lie to my face like that!? Then leave the way you did!?"

"Because you s.uck at keeping secrets," I said while still sobbing trying to be funny. Sin tried to contain her laughter, but she knew it was true.

"bh,"

"Skank," we both laughed and h.ugged. We both started to ugly cry.

"I'm sorry I slapped you," she said in my ear

“I deserved it,” I said to her

“Did you fvck him yet?” I pulled away laughing

“Oh my god!!” we just laughed and ugly cried some more. Everyone was looking at us like we were insane laughing, crying, and insulting one another. Dorian came up behind me and Mikey went to Sin. Sin and I held each other’s hand and we looked over at Brandon who seemed to feel left out,

“Brandon, get in here,” I said to him. He came over and we had one big group h.ug. The packhouse erupted in cheers and applauding. After our group h.ug, we all stood in our places. Dorian in the center, me on his right. Brandon to this left, Sin to my right and Mikey to hers.

“People of the Desert Moon pack, tomorrow night, we will celebrate. The enemy is dead, our Luna is safe and has returned,” more cheers came and whistles. “Additionally, she has agreed to fully take on her role as your Luna! Her word is the law, and you will respect her, cherish her, love her, and respect her just as you would any other ranking member of this pack,”

“Yes, Alpha!” the crowd said in unison

“Furthermore, Sin has already accepted her role as the Gamma female of this pack, she is also to be respected and loved as much as Mikey,”

“Yes, Alpha!”

“You are all dismissed,” with his final word, everyone went their own ways.

“Babe, can I have a minute with Sin?”

“Of course,” he kissed my forehead and he and the guys went upstairs. I turned to Sin.

“What’s up?”

“I made up my mind,”

“About?”

“Having se.x with him, and ...”

“And?”

“Turning me into a werewolf,” her eyes were bulging out of her head. She looked at me like I was pulling her leg,

“Holy sh!t! You’re serious!” I nodded my head

“Talk to Mikey, convince him to turn you. I want us to do this together,”

“But the possibility of...”

“Dying? I don’t believe it. I believe that if it were someone else, then yes, I think they would die. But I feel that whoever put us with these crazy men knew we would be strong enough to get through it. Most people don’t go through half the sh!t we went through in their entire lives, let alone in a single day. We can do this together,” I said while holding her hands.

“I will go talk to him now,”

“Wait until tomorrow to tell me what he says, I think Dorian and I will be out of commission for a while,”

“Now who’s the skank?”

“fvck you!”

“I have Mikey for that,” she blew me a k!ss and went upstairs. I went to follow her, but I was stopped by a tiny hand. I turned to see my favorite country girl

“Casey,” I smiled

“Don’t you Casey me!” damn she was mad at me too. “I cannot believe the sh!t you pulled off Allie. I mean, seriously? Faking memory loss and running away with the Beta, you got some serious b.ra.ss balls,”

“I know it was a lot, and I am sorry,”

“I don’t you need your apologies; I need to know that your Asian a.ss going to stay for good this time around,” she said with a smile

“Yes, I promise,”

“Good! Now run along friend, I think the Alpha is getting impatient,” she giggled and walked off. I looked up the stairs, and immediately thoughts of finally making love to Dorian filled my mind. His n.aked body was engraved in my mind. I smiled to myself and quickly ran upstairs. I opened the door to our room and was surprised to see our bed completely baren.

“What the?” I was speechless. My favorite covers, sheets, and even the pillows were gone. There was literally only a mattress. I stared blankly trying to decipher what I was looking at.

“Oh, there you are,” Dorian said as he came into the room. I heard him lock the door and he wrapped his arms around me from behind and k!ssed my neck.

“Dorian?”

“Hmmm?” he kept k!ssing my neck

“What the fvck happened to my bed?”

“I had everything removed and burned,”

“What? Why!?”

“Jessica was n.aked on our bed a few days ago,”

“What the fvck!?” I turned at looked at him. “Why was she n.aked in my bed?”

“Our bed. She was trying to s.educe me while you were in hiding,”

“Seriously? That is gross,”

“Hence why I had them burned. I ordered us new ones which should arrive tomorrow,” he said and continued to k!ss my neck while feeling my body with his large hands. I started to rub my a.ss against his body, and I could feel his d!ck start to come to life. He turned me around and k!ssed me hard and deep. He wasted no time in slipping in his tongue. He reached down under my th!ghs and picked me up. I wrapped arms around his neck and my legs around his h!ps.

Dorian pushed me off of him and onto the bed. I landed flat on my back. He pulled my legs towards him and he rested his shaft between my legs. He k!ssed me again and held me close. He reached behind my back and sat me up and swiftly took off my shirt and unclasped my bra with one hand. He pushed me back on my back and tore off my shorts and panties.

“Hey, those were my favorite shorts!”

“I’ll buy you new ones,” He got on his knees and pulled me close to his face. I heard him inhale deeply. “I will never get tired of how you smell,” he said. Then I felt his tongue lick me. “Or how you taste. Your honey is like a drug, baby. I am fucking*g addicted to it. If I don’t have you at least once a day from now, I will suffer from withdrawal,” he bit my inner thigh and licked me over and over. I was moaning and breathing like I was suffocating. He was just so good. Even though I had never experienced this with anyone else, I knew Dorian was skilled. Sin always told me that guys normally sucked at eating pussy and that even a first-timer like me would know right away who was skilled and who was not. Dorian was definitely more than skilled.

“Mmmm...” his moaning vibrated against me while he sucked on my clit. His mouth was doing wonders, and then I felt him insert two fingers. He sucked on my clit while his fingers were pumping in and out at a rapid pace. I felt my walls tightening. I was gripping the mattress and started to spit out curse words in Korean. My mind was mush and I couldn’t form any words in English. Just as I about to climax, Dorian bit down on my clit and the damn broke open. I arched my back and just screamed bloody murder from the pleasure

“HOLY fuck!!! DORIAN!” my legs started to shake and my body was convulsing from the orgasm. Dorian held me down and kept working his magic. He was completely unphased by the fact I cummed all over his face. Dorian pushed me further onto the bed and he got on it. He grabbed my hips and sat on his knees bringing my pussy to his face. My back was fully off the bed, and my neck is a very uncomfortable position, but when I looked at him, his tongue was out as long as it could go, and he immediately shoved it in.

I bucked my hips from the way it felt. Dorian was tongue fucking*g me and I had a clear vantage point. It felt so amazing, and the angle he was doing it allowed him to graze my sweet spot with the tip of his tongue. I don’t know how he did it, but he put his tongue all the way in, and somehow was able to suck on my clit at the same time. My mind exploded and my legs tightened around his head. He immediately used his strong hands to pull my legs apart and kept up his attack on my inner folds.

“fuck! fuck! fuck! Oh, my fucking*g ...Ahh!” before I could finish my thought, I felt another orgasm, and I could see and hear Dorian slurping it all up. Once I finished spasming, Dorian threw my legs to the side and got on top of me. I could feel he was super hard. He k!ssed me and I could taste myself on his tongue. I pushed him off of me and put him on his back and straddled him. I made sure that my folds were right on top of his hardened member.

“Damn, that I did not expect that,” I bent down and !lck his neck and !lcked him all way to his temple. I could taste his salty goodness and it just made me want him. I !lcked him across his !lps a few times before plunging my tongue into this mouth. He s.ucked on my tongue and I realized why he enjoyed it so much when I did it to him. While he was busy with my tongue, I started to grind my h!ps on his hard d!ck that was caged like an animal in his shorts.

He pulled away from me and hissed. He grabbed my h!ps to make me stop.

“Allie, don’t tease me, not like this,” I rested my head in his neck and started to grind again, forcing my h!ps against his grasp.

“I’m not teasing you anymore, I want it. I want every last fvcking*g inch of your d!ck inside of me. I am done waiting. Devin is gone, Jessica is gone. It’s just us, right here, at this moment Dorian. I love you,” his grasp loosened, and I sped up my grinding. My juices were soaking up his shorts, and the beast was trying to get out.

“fvck Allie,” I k!ssed his neck and !lcked the sp0t I planned to mark after he turned me. I moved off of him and pulled down his shorts. His d!ck flung loose, and it was hard as a rock with prec.um oozing from the slit on the head. I positioned myself on my knees in between his legs and grabbed the monster. He hissed and slammed his eyes shut at my touch.

“Open your eyes, Dorian, I want you to watch me,” he opened his eyes and locked then with mine. I didn’t have to look down. I lowed my head and brought the tip of my mouth. Prec.um was spilling out and I k!ssed the tip. Dorian flinched and I just gave him a devilish smile. He bit his bottom !lp and continued to watch me as I k!ssed his tip again and again. I opened my mouth and s.ucked off the prec.um from the head. I swallowed while it was he was still in my mouth. I loved his taste. I lifted my head and spit on it. I used it as lubrication while I started to pull and twist the entire length. He was so big and so thick.

I lowered my head again and s.ucked on him while still using my hands to stimulate him. His h!ps were bucking, and I felt him grab my ponytail. He started to thrust his h!ps and forced the tip to hit the back of my throat. I let him throat fvck me a minute before I needed to get some air. I continued to pull and tug on it while I got back into my straddling position. I positioned his d!ck at my entrance and was about to guide it in, but Dorian fl!pped me over.

“Sorry, baby, but I am in control,” his dominance was a fvcking*g turn on. He gently guided his tip to my entrance and pushed it all the way in, in just one go. Because I wasn’t a virgin, I thought that it would not hurt, but I was wrong. Terribly fvcking*g wrong. I gripped the mattress and about scream, but Dorian crashed his h!ps into mine and muffled my scream. He stayed there for a minute and let me relax.

“fvck, I didn’t expect it to hurt,”

“I think you’re bleeding, I can smell it,”

“But I’m not a virgin, how could that be?”

“Baby, you had se.x once and it wasn’t by choice. Plus, you said it yourself, Devin had a needle d!ck,” I busted out laughing. Dorian slowly moved his h!ps and pulled out and pushed back in. With every move, the pain started to turn to pleasure. He put his arms around my head and held me close while his thrusting got faster and faster.

“Ah...mmmm...oh god... just like that, more baby,” I m0aned in his ear as he started to ravage me.

“Allie, look at me,” I forced my eyes open and his eyes went dark. “Keep looking at me, keep your eyes on me,” he started using his entire body to slam into me. His d!ck was hitting my c.ervix and I felt another org*asm.

“Oh fvck! I’m c.umming!” I took in a deep breath as my body started to shake again. My org*asm was so intense that I couldn’t breathe. Dorian never stopped through. I was suffocating from pleasure and Dorian just kept going. This man was a beast and he was a mission. Once I was able to breathe again, I wrapped my h!ps around and fl!pped him over again. I took control this time.

He reached for my h!ps, but I pushed his hands over his head. My b.reasts were hanging in his face and I just started to bounce my h!ps up and down. Dorian lifted his head and took one of my n!pples in mouth and I continued to bounce, grind, and rotate with this pole he calls a d!ck inside of me.

“fvck! Baby, I’m losing control, I think I’m going to c.um!” he shouted. I let go of his hands and wrapped my arms around his head. He lifted his knees and thrust upwards. I m0aned and screamed, it felt so fvcking*g amazing. “I’m going to c.um,” he grunted again

“Come inside me,” with those words, he grabbed my hair and pulled into a deep k!ss and trusted a few more times before m0aning into my mouth. I could feel him pumping his warm s.emen into me. I didn’t care that we weren’t using any protection. I loved him, and I wanted to have his babies. So, having him c.um inside of me was a no brainer.

We relaxed and caught our breaths.

“Wow,” I said while laying on his c.hest. He was still inside of me and I started getting up, but he stopped me.

“Where the fvck do you think you’re going?” he moved his h!ps and I felt him immediately harden.

“I thought once a guy finished that was it,” I was in shock. His c0ck was hardening inside of me and I could feel every part of it.

“Baby, I’m a werewolf and an Alpha, I stop when I want to stop,”

“Oh, sh!t,” he grabbed my h!ps and fl!pped me on back. Just like that, what I thought would be a nice first time together, turned into endless lovemaking and hardcore fvcking*g that lasted until the sunrise the next morning.

Desert Heat Chapter 23 - Tips

{Dorian’s P.O.V.}

I finally decided to let Allie sleep. She had finally given herself to me, and I wanted to get as much out of it as possible. She was a fvcking*g Rockstar too. I laid in bed and just watched Allie sleep. The sun was coming up and I knew that we had to get ready for tonight. I would officially name Allie Luna and Sin as the Gamma.

All of our parents would be there since they were finally back in town. My parents were over the moon that Allie had decided to stay and that the threat to her life was finally over. Since Allie was not the official Luna yet, my mother took over all of the planning and menu items. She definitely enjoyed doing things like this. Since this was more of an official announcement and not a ceremony, I told her not to do too much. But knowing her, she wouldn't listen.

Sweetheart,

Yes, mother?

Where is my future daughter-in-law?

Incapacitated.

Dorian Anthony Shaw, what did you do to her?

Nothing dad hasn't done to you

Dorian, she is human! You cannot be overworking her that way!

Mother, she is fine! Just tired. I'm going to let her sleep a little while longer

Gah! Fine!

I look over sat Allie who is curled up in a little ball on our baren mattress. I realized just then we had hours of se.x with nothing covering the mattress.

"sh!t," I said to myself. I guess I would have to have the mattress deep cleaned before putting on the new sheets I ordered. I figured that I would draw Allie a bath and went to the bathroom. I made sure the water was nice and hot so it could soothe her muscles. I added her lavender bath salts and bubble bath. Once the water-filled up, I went back to the room to get Allie.

"Baby,"

"Mmm,"

"Allie, baby?"

"Mmmm," she turned over and gave me a dirty look. "No more se.x,"

"Haha, nah baby, I drew you a hot bath. Come here," she rolled over and reached out. I picked her up bridal style and took her to the bathroom. I got into the tub with her and put her down. I got comfortable and helped her sit in between my legs.

“Mmm... This feels good...Wait, what this burning feeling?” I saw her look down and she turned to look at me. I raised my brows and just smiled

“How many hickeys did you give me!?” I shrugged my shoulders. “Dorian!!”

“Don’t worry, I put them places no can see unless you expose that area,”

“So, none on my neck?” I shook my head

“But I suggest wearing shirts that cover your c.hest, no sleeveless, and yoga pants,”

“Oh my god,” She said while leaning back into my c.hest. I rubbed my hands around her c.hest and massaged the side of her neck. I pushed her up and worked on her shoulders. I put brought up water in my hands and massaged into her skin. After about twenty minutes in the tub, Allie and I got up, rinsed off, and got dressed.

“Oh, you are officially going to meet my parents today,” I told her

“Let’s do it, it is long overdue,”

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

We went downstairs and people were running all over the place. It looked like a zoo in the packhouse.

“Uh, Dorian?”

“Ah, fvck,” I snickered at his response. We walked hand-in-hand through the living area where workers were putting up decorations and stuff. We went into the kitchen for breakfast, where we find Mrs. Johnson and the kitchen staff were also running around.

“What the hell?” I said out loud

“Oh, there you two are!” I heard an unfamiliar voice behind us. We turned around and this sweet lady was running towards us. She immediately gave me a h.uge h.ug. I looked at Dorian with confusion.

“Mother, you are suffocating her,” he says. Mother?

“Oh, I am sorry, I am just so happy to finally meet you, dear!” she said patting the back of my hand.

“Hi, my name is ...”

“Allie! Yes, I know! My name is Eleanor. My you are beautiful,”

“Thank you, I see where Dorian gets his eyes from,” she had his signature green eyes and she was about four inches taller than me and had short black straight hair.

“Where is dad?”

“Right here,” I hear a manly voice. I look past Eleanor and saw a tall gentle-looking man with salt and pepper hair that looked like an older version of Dorian. If Dorian looked like his dad when he got older, I would not complain. “Hello gorgeous, my name is Benjamin,” he said while kissing the back of my hand.

“It is an honor to meet you both,” I say

“Come, dear, it is time for your breakfast,” she grabbed my hand and pulled into the kitchen. She wasted no time in gathering waffles, sausage, and fresh fruit onto my plate. She dragged me to the main table, but before I could sit, Dorian came up behind me and made me sit on his lap. “Dorian, what are you doing?”

“Mine,” he replies

“Put her down and let her enjoy her breakfast!”

“She can enjoy it from right here, we do this all the time,” he says and gives me a pineapple. I shake my head at him and take it from him with my hand. He pouts at my lack of cooperation. I try to get up, but he keeps a firm grip on my hips.

“Dorian, let me up,” I say to him. He buries his face into my hair

“Mine,” he says in my ear

“Oh, for the love of the moon goddess, stop being acting like a horny teenager!” his mother yells. Just then, Sin and Mikey come in.

“Hi, Aunt Nor!” Mikey says

“Oh, Mikey and Sin! How are you my darlings?” she kisses Mikey on the cheek and hugs Sin. “Sit, I will get your breakfast for you,” she walks away. Sin immediately sits in Mikey’s lap and plays with his hair. She then takes a look at me and furrows her brows.

“What the fvck are you wearing?” she asks me

“Clothes?” I gave her a funny look

“Nah bh, you don’t wear sh!t like that,” damn I hated her for knowing my style of clothing. She glared at me and c*d her head. “You are covered in hickeys!” she shouted “Sin! This is why I don’t tell you sh!t!” I shouted at her. She just shrugged her shoulders and smiled.

“You better share details about last night,” I was about to tell her to shove it, but Dorian beat me to it,

“The details about last night stay between your Luna and I,” Dorian used his Alpha tone on Sin.

“Boo that, you two s.uck,” she says. Eleanor comes back with their breakfast. Sin takes a sip of her juice,

“So, Mikey, your mother has been wondering when you and Sin will be giving her grandbabies?” says Eleanor. Sin immediately spits out her juice and looks at Eleanor in horror. I roll over laughing at her facial expression. Sin was open to the idea, but never was one to plan for it.

“Aunt Nor, come on, things are just settling for all of us, kids are a much later topic,” Mikey responds

“Much much later,” Sin responds and drinks her juice again

“Dorian? Allie?” Eleanor looks to us

“Mom!”

“What!?! Your father and I have always wanted grandbabies, and it was k!lling us you boys took so long to find a mate. Brandon’s parents are even more nervous right now,”

“I feel bad for Brandon,” I said

“Don’t!” Brandon’s voice shouted from the kitchen as he made his to the dining hall. “I won’t deny I want what you guys have, especially since I am saving myself, but I’m okay right now. I have my best friends by my side, my Luna, and my female Gamma. I’m good,” he shows us his biggest smile. I really hoped that we found his mate soon.

“Good for you honey,” Eleanor says while k!ssing him on the cheek and bringing him a plate of food. I had not seen her even get up. She was quick.

“Anyways, back to the topic of my grandchildren,” she says while resting her chin on hands. Dorian puts his head to my shoulder and grunts. I just giggle.

“Eleanor, the topic of children is a little sensitive for both Sin and me. We both grew up without families or parents,” she gave me a confused look. She didn’t know about our past, so I looked at Sin and she gestured it was okay.

“Sin and I grew up in the foster system, not together, but at the same time in different states. I was in New Hampshire, and she was in California,”

“Oh, my goodness, you poor girls. What happened to your parents if you don’t mind my asking?”

“My parents were k!lled in a car accident when I was two years old. I was in the car but sustained little to no injuries, car seat did its job I guess,” I stated

“And my mom died from a heroin overdose when I was about four. I was in my playpen when it happened. I was told that I was found two or three days after it occurred during a social worker’s wellness check,”

“And your father?” Eleanor asked her.

“Oh, he is a three-striker serving life in prison. I doubt he even knows that I exist,”

“And neither one of you had a family to take you in?” Eleanor was on the brink of tears

“Social services could not find anyone for me,” Sin replied

“My parents’ family is all back in Korea, and no one wanted me,” I replied

“Babies are something that neither one of us thought much about, but I can say for me at least...” I turn and look at Dorian. “I am open to the idea now that I have Dorian. If anything ever happens to me, I know my children would either have a father who would love them as much as I would, a godmother who would gladly take them as her own,” I take Sin’s hand in mine and smile. “Two amazing uncles that would teach them everything there is to know on how men are supposed to treat women,” I say looking at Brandon and Mikey. “Grandparents that would spoil them rotten, and packhouse full of werewolves to protect them,” I finish while turning to Eleanor. Tears are falling down my cheeks now. “My babies would never grow up alone or unloved, not the way I did, and I am thankful for that,” Dorian turns me to face him and he gave me the softest and most r0mantic k!ss and then rested his forehead against mine.

I turn over to Sin who is crying on Mikey’s shoulders. I think it was always the same for her. The fear that if we ever had kids, they would end up like us, since we had no family and only ended up with dead beats as boyfriends. But now, we both had amazing support systems that we never thought we would have.

“So, you are open to having kids then?” Eleanor asked and I just couldn’t help but laugh. Dorian shook his head.

“I think we can circle back to the topic of potential babies, I think there is a more pressing topic Sin and I want to visit,” everyone looked at me confused, except for Sin. I gave her a look with my eyes asking if she and Mikey talked last night, and she nodded and smiled. She turned to Mikey and I turned to Dorian.

“Mikey,”

“Dorian,”

“We want you to turn us into werewolves,”

Desert Heat Chapter 24 - Tips

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

“We want you to turn us into werewolves,” we said in unison. The silence in the dining room was loud if that even made sense. Neither one of them said anything.

“Uh, Sin...”

“Girl, I think we broke them,” she said while waving her hand at Mikey

“Baby?” I said grabbing Dorian’s face. Still no response. “Oh, for fs sake,” I pulled Dorian into a k!ss. It took a second, but he finally registered it and k!ssed me back. I broke the k!ss and looked at him. I turn back to Sin and see she also k!ssed Mikey.

“Allie, did I hear you correctly?” I smiled and nodded.

“Honey?” Sin said to Mikey. He looked over at Dorian and then back at Sin and smiled.

“I am assuming that you girls want to do this together?” Dorian asked. Sin and I nod.

“Oh! This is wonderful!!!” Eleanor jumps from her seat. “I have to go tell your father! And Mikey’s parents,” she runs out of the dining room.

“When did you girls want to do this?” Mikey asked

“After the announcement tonight if that is okay with everyone?” I said. Everyone nods, except for Brandon. “Brandon?”

“Hm? What?”

“Are you okay with Sin and me turning tonight after the announcement?” I asked

“Does my opinion matter?”

“What? Of course, it does! Brandon, you mean the world to Sin and me, just as much as these knuckleheads do,”

“Really?” Poor Brandon, he was actually questioning this. I got off of Dorian’s lap and went and sat in Brandon’s. His eyes jumped out of his head and Dorian growled. “Shush!” I pointed at Dorian. “Brandon, you are very important to me. Just like Dorian and Mikey, you have been by our side since day one. Hell, you were there before either one of them to be quite honest. You came up to us to check on me at the club,”

“It was my job, as your boss at the time and knowing you were Dorian’s mate,”

“Be that as it may, I didn’t know that at the time. So, coming from a tiny human as you always say, I was more than impressed and very grateful. Sin too,” Sin nods her and smiles at Brandon. “I love Dorian, Sin loves Mikey, and we all love you. So, yes, your fvcking*g opinion matters,” I said to him k!ssing him on the cheek. I get off his lap and go to Dorian’s.

“You didn’t have to sit on his lap you know,” Dorian grumbles while sniffing my hair

“He needed to be comforted. How would you feel seeing both of your best friends happily in love, and being the only ranked member without a mate?”

“Hmph,”

“What?”

“You’re already starting to act like a Luna,” he said and pecked me on the l!ps.

The rest of the day went by fairly quickly, Eleanor refused to let me or Sin help getting things together because the day was supposed to be about us. Mikey’s mom eventually showed up and bossed around the kitchen staff making sure all of the food was in order. It was only going to be the pack members and their families, but that still meant over 400 people were going to show up.

Dorian told me that most of the hunters from the night Devin was k!lled were pack members, so I would be seeing them again, but fully clothed this time. Some were just contract workers that had a bl00d oat with his firm. I honestly could not wait to go there, Sin told me that it was right up my alley when it came to tech, surveillance, and security. Dorian promised that once I turned, he would take me. Although he had humans working there, they were far and few in between, but were humans that knew about supernaturals. He also told me that there were some vampires that worked the night shift, which kind of freaked me out.

Nighttime finally came around. Eleanor and Helena made us get a little dressed up, but nothing too fancy. It had been a while since I was actually able to wear something other than tanks, and shorts. But, since I was still covered in hickeys no thanks to Dorian and that mouth of his, I had to wear something mid sleeved with no cleavage and some nice flared jeans. I was excited to finally put on the baby blue Christian Louboutin wedges Dorian had bought of me way back when. I let my hair down and curled the ends. Sin wore something a little se.xier, but still classy. She also let her down but straightened it out.

Dorian, Mikey, and Brandon were downstairs waiting to escort us out to the backyard where the main stage was set up.

“Ladies, you two looks amazing,” Dorian said while taking me and hand pulling me into a h.ug. “Allie, I think I prefer without heels, you’re too tall for me now,”

“What? You are still a foot taller than me,” he k!ssed my cheek and took my hand. He led me out back and I was amazed at wonderful the decorations were. There were so many people. Some were in their wolf form and others in human form. I saw Casey in the crowd with baby Allison in her arms. She was standing next to a tri-colored wolf with a white patch over their left eye and her son sitting on top of the wolf. I assumed it was her husband. I smiled and waved at her. She waved back using Allison’s tiny hands. See that made my uterus hurt. It made me want a baby at that moment.

All of us got up on the stage and stood in the same order we did when I came back to the packhouse yesterday. Everyone stood their silent. All of the parents were in the front row, perpendicular to their respective sons. I could see Brandon’s parents, and saw that his pretty looks came from his mom. He was the spitting image of her, just taller and more masculine. His dad was handsome too. I realized then that the parents were standing in a mirror image of us.

“Desert Moon pack! Tonight is a night of celebration and joy. Tonight, we officially announce the Luna and female Gamma of our pack! Of our family! Although they are human, they are both strong, vigilant, and have many great qualities to a.ssist me, and the other ranked members to make our pack strong. Both of these two amazing women have suffered tragedies, turmoil, and tribulations; however, they are here before you now because they persevered and grew strong,” Dorian looked back at me and took both of my hands in his. For some dumb reason, this almost felt like a wedding rather than a simple announcement.

“I, Dorian Anthony Shaw, Alpha of the Desert Moon Pack, hereby officially announce you, Allison Park, as my mate, my partner, my love, and my Luna. Do you swear to rule by my side, respect me, the pack, and the laws that we uphold?”

“I do,” this seriously feels like a wedding. I just said I do like these some kind of wedding vows.

“Do you swear to be just, kind, caring, and fair to all those that turn to you?”

“I do,” just then, Dorian pulled out a golden blade and my eyes bulged out of their sockets.

“What the hell is that for!?” I shouted. The crowd started to laugh.

“Don’t worry, this is just a small cut on your palm,” then, Benjamin came up on stage with Eleanor. “Hold your right-hand baby,” I did was he said. Benjamin cut Dorian’s palm and handed the blade to Eleanor, who put a small cut on my mine. I winced at the pain. Dorian then placed his right palm on mine and bl00d mixed together. I felt a tiny spark. He removed his hand from mine and gave me a small towel to hold against my cut.

He then signaled for Mikey and Sin to join him center stage and went over the same dialogue he did with me, but differently since he was addressing Sin and Mikey. Just as Dorian’s parents did for us, Mikey’s parents did for them. Only Sin had to mix her bl00d with Mikey’s and Dorian’s.

“Desert Moon Pack! I announce your Luna, Allison Park, and your new Gamma, Cynthia Perez!” the crowd erupted in cheers, howls, and growls. Dorian dipped me and k!ssed me deeply. After a second of shock, I realized what he did, and I wrapped my arms around his neck and deepened the k!ss. The crowd got even louder. Dorian brought me back up and we just smiled at each other. This really did feel like a wedding, except for for the bl00dy palms. I look over and Mikey and Sin are also tongued deep in each other.

“Everyone eat and drink!” Benjamin announced and the crowd dispersed to the many tables outside and into the dining room.

“Why did that feel more like a wedding than an announcement?” I asked Dorian.

“Do you want a wedding?” I shrugged my shoulders and just watched all the people and wolves mingle. “Was that a marriage proposal?”

“No!” I said slapping his chest.

“So, you don’t want to marry me?” he said while pouting.

“I didn’t say I didn’t want to, but I also never said I was going to,”

“Okay. Well, I will always be ready in case you change your mind,” he said and kissed me cheek. We got off the stage and we around meeting people. Everyone was friendly, and I loved seeing all the children and teenagers roaming around playing. I was a little jealous to see how carefree they were being. It reminded me of the childhood I never got to have. But it also reassured me about what I said earlier that day. If anything happened to me or Dorian, our kids would be loved and protected. Dorian left me alone for a little bit, so I continued to mingle.

“Well, it’s official, you are my boss,” I heard a family country accent

“Hi, Casey,” I smiled as she passed me baby Allison. “Why hello there my little twin,” I said while kissing her chubby cheek. I look up and see the tri-colored wolf. He bowed his head and Casey’s son mimicked. I just couldn’t help but smile.

“Allie, this is my husband. His wolf’s name is Hondo, but his name is Hank,”

“It is a pleasure to meet you both,”

“He says that he would have introduced himself the other night, but he was naked and didn’t want to show that side himself to you,”

“Were you one of the hunters that came to get me?” Hondo nodded his head

“Hondo is one of the team leaders that work for the Alpha, he a skilled tracker,” Casey said with love in her eyes. I wondered if that is what I look like when I talk about Dorian. It was quite cute. Baby Allison reached over for Hondo. I leaned over, and she rubbed her drool covered face into his muzzle. Hondo gently licked her. She giggled.

“Oh my god, that has to be the cutest and sweetest thing I have ever witnessed,” I say excitedly. “It is like she knows that is her daddy,” I added

“Oh yeah! A pup is instantly drawn to their parent’s wolf. Because pups don’t turn until they are 18, we get them used seeing us in wolf form early on,”

“That is amazing, I had no idea,”

“Hank prefers to be in wolf form too. The kids enjoy his coloring, and I do too. His color actually helps him camouflage when hunting and tracking. The only time he is in human form is to shower, have se.x, or change a dirty diaper here and there,” I laughed, and Hondo just huffed. We stood around talking a little more with Casey translating for me. Then, I saw a couple walking up to me. They both looked like supermodels. The woman was easily 5’9 or 5’10, and the man she was with as tall as Dorian.

She was lean and fit and had a se.xy body. She had long fire engine red hair, was wearing black skinny jeans, strappy gold heels and a short leave white t-shirt, simple but se.xy on her. The man was wearing a dark blue b.utton-down with blue jeans and dressy shoes. He had blonde hair and blue eyes. Damn, both female and male werewolves were drop-dead se.xy. I almost felt inferior.

“Luna,” they both said while bowing their heads. I bowed in return.

“Luna, let me introduce myself, my name is Lucas, and this is my mate and my wife, Sam,”

“It is a pleasure to meet you,” I said to them shaking both of their hands

“Luna, we were both present at your rescue the other night, we apologize for not introducing ourselves before,” Sam says

“Please, do not apologize, the circumstances at the time did not allow it. Also, thank you both for risking your lives to a.ssist mine. I am sure my actions caused you both great pain,”

“Oh no, Luna...”

“Please, call me Allie,”

“Allie it is,” Sam said

"Allie, we won't lie and say we weren't disappointed, but once the Alpha explained it all, we understood why you all did what you did. We both believe that you are very brave and admire that strength," Lucas said, and Sam nodded and smiled

"Thank you, I appreciate that coming from two hunters such as yourselves," they both smiled and bowed. "Are you both team leads as well?" I asked

"Yes, we are," Sam said. "I run a team of fighters that are trained in hand to hand combat, I hold a blackbelt in Jeet Kune Do, Karate and Tae Kwon Do. All of the men and women on my team hold black belts in some form of martial arts or are trained MMA fighters," I looked at her in amazement. It is no wonder she that rocking body.

"My team are skilled sharpshooters, we do best in long-distance kills, but we are still trained in hand to hand combat and fighting as wolves,"

"Sharpshooters? As in Snipers?" I asked him. He nodded. I guess it was to be expected with Dorian running a massive security company. I looked at Sam, and I couldn't help but admire her. She had an impressive resume and was gorgeous.

"Are you two being respectful to your new Luna?" Dorian said while snaking his arms around my waist. I just had to smile. I loved his touch.

"Of course, Alpha," Lucas said bowing and Sam followed suit.

"Where did you go?"

"I went to get the hospital room ready," I made an O shape with my mouth and nodded.

"Hospital?" Sam asked

"Yes, I have asked Dorian to turn me," Sam and Lucas looked at me shocked.

"Luna that is wonderful news! We are already honored to have you in the pack, but if you become one of us, you will be able to communicate with us!" Sam said with a lot of excitement.

"Communicate, as in the mind linking?" I asked

“Yes, as the Luna of our pack, you will be able to communicate with everyone,” Lucas said

“Allie, we look forward to seeing your transformation. Will the Gamma be turning as well?”

“Yes, Sin and I will be doing it together, it only felt appropriate,” I replied

“Then we look forward to both of your transformations,” Lucas bowed. With that, they walked away.

“Are you ready for this?” Dorian asked me. I nodded. He took my hand and led me to the pack hospital where Dr. Quinn and a team were getting machines together. Sin and Mikey were already there waiting for us. Dr. Quinn handed me a hospital gown and I changed into it in the bathroom.

When I came out, Dorian helped me get on the bed next to Sin’s. The beds were far enough apart to allow all the machines, but still close to where Sin and I could hold each other’s hands.

“Luna, Gamma, are you ready?” Dr. Quinn asked. We nodded and looked at each other to reassure one another. There was no backing out. This was going to happen. Just then Brandon burst into the room.

“Sorry I am late, I had to get my parents off my back about finding a mate of my own,” “Brandon!” Sin and I shouted. He smiled and sat in one of the guest chairs in the room.

“If everyone is present, let us continue. Luna, I will let you know that your transformation will only take about 12 to 18 hours, while the Gamma’s will take 24 to 36 hours; however, your symptoms will also be twice as bad as your body attempts to fight the venom,”

“I am guessing it’s because Dorian is an Alpha,” I ask. She nods.

“Great, so I have to take longer to bake,” Sin scoffs

“Yeah, but my symptoms will be twice as bad,”

“I have to suffer longer!” Sin snapped back

“Girls!” Dorian boomed. We both giggled and held each other’s hand again.

“Alpha, Gamma, take your places,” Dr. Quinn said double checking all of the monitors.

“I love you, Allie,” Dorian whispers in my ear.

“Sin, you better survive this,” Mikey says to her. She nods. Both our guys k!ss us.

“Alpha, Gamma, whenever you are ready,”

“On the count of three Mikey?” Mikey nods.

“One...” Dorian starts

“Two...” Mikey adds to it

“Three!”

Desert Heat Chapter 25 - Tips

{Dorian’s P.O.V.}

Mikey and I bit down into our mates opposite of where their marks would go. Allie and Sin kept hanging onto each other while struggling underneath us. I could feel my venom release into Allie’s bl00dstream and she immediately started to shake. After about a minute, I retract my canines and l!cked her wound. I look up and Mikey is also l!cking Sin’s. The girls never once let go of each other’s hands.

“Now we wait,” Dr. Quinn said.

We all sat down in the chairs by the girls’ beds. Not even thirty minutes after injecting her, Allie started sweating and running a high fever. Sin was just breathing heavily but was conscious. Brandon handed me a warm towel, “Thanks,” I take it from him and start to wipe Allie’s forehead and cheeks.

“Dorian?” I heard Allie faintly

“Baby, I’m here,” I sat in her bed with her. She started shivering.

“I-I’m...fre...free...zing...”

“Brandon, go see if Dr. Quinn has an electric blanket,” Brandon ran out of the room. I went her side and laid in her bed with her. “Baby let go of Sin’s hand,” she shook her head.

“No,” she held on tighter. I knew I wasn’t going to win this. I covered Allie with my body as much as I could without hurting her. Brandon came back in with a heating blanket.

“Dr. Quinn said to put it under her,” Brandon said. I gently lifted Allie off the bed and Brandon spread out the blanket and plugged it in. “Here Mikey, this is will be for Sin,”

“Allie, let go my hand, you need to rest,” Sin said to her

“Together,” Allie responded

“We are together, it’s okay Allie babe,” Allie reluctantly let go and curled onto her side and tried to rest. I massaged her back for her to try and keep comfortable. Mikey was talking to Sin and encouraging her. Just as Dr. Quinn said, Allie’s symptoms were twice as bad and coming on quicker than Sins. After only a few hours, Allie started vomiting profusely. She would be hot one minute and then freezing the next. While Allie’s body was starting to fight off the venom, Sin was just starting to get the chills. Her symptoms were at least three hours behind Allie’s.

Allie was resting, so I went to stretch my legs in the hall and Brandon took over watching over Allie. Seeing her suffering like this was kllling me inside, but I knew that she was strong enough to handle it all. She would be an amazing Luna, hell, she already was. The pack was in love with her, and she was making friends with almost everyone. The team leads respected her immensely when she was human, I could only imagine how much more she would be respected once she was a wolf.

I sat on the bench outside their room and sunlight coming down the hallway. It was already morning. I pulled out my phone and saw that it was just past 7:00 A.M. Allie had a few hours left, and these were going to be the hard hours. I got up to go back into the room when Brandon came rushing out.

“Where are you going?” I asked

“To get Dr. Quinn! Get your a.ss in there!” I run into the room, and Mikey is holding Allie on her side. Allie is shaking uncontrollably and foaming at the mouth. Her heart rate was erratic, and her bl00d pressure was through the roof.

“What the fvck is happening to her?!” I ran over to her and helped Mikey control her seizing.

“Alpha, move!” Dr. Quinn said and pushed me out of the way. And stuck a syringe into Allie’s neck. After a few moments, Allie’s body calmed down and her vitals started to regulate.

“What the fvck happened to her?!”

“Seizures are normal, it is to be expected. It just came sooner than I thought,” Dr. Quinn said. She took a towel and wiped Allie’s mouth.

“Will she survive?” Brandon asked

“Yes, Beta, the seizure means the venom has reached its final course, which is her brain. Her wolf is being created,”

“Dorian?”

“Allie!” I took her hand and sat back in my chair. I was exhausted, but not as much as she was. She opened her eyes and looked at me. “Hey beautiful, I thought I lost you there,”

“You can’t get rid of me that easily,” I smiled and k!ssed her hand.

“Sin?”

“She’s fine. She is right on course, just like you,” I looked over at Dr. Quinn who was checking on Sin who has now started to vomit herself. Mikey looks like he about to sh!t himself.

“Get it together man!” I yell at him.

“I’m good man! I’ve just never seen her like this. I’m worried!”

“She will be fine,” Brandon said while putting his hand on Mikey’s shoulder. After a few minutes, Sin stopped vomiting and was able to relax.

“Gamma, your mate is fine. As the Alpha said she is right on course. Both of these ladies are strong, and were meant for this,” Dr. Quinn said.

“Don’t die on me skank,” Allie said as loud as she could “fvck you bh,” Sin replied. We all just laughed. Here they were, suffering and on the verge of death, and they were still insulting each other. Dr. Quinn was right, they were strong.

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

After hearing the guys laugh a little, I smiled to myself and fell asleep. I felt like utter sh!t and sleep wasn’t coming easily. I had a splitting headache, and I was kicking myself for doing this. I should have stayed human. This fvcking*g s.ucked.

Really? I shot my eyes open and sat up

“What the fvck!?” I shouted.

“Allie, baby what’s wrong?” just then I felt dizzy and laid back down. “Baby,”

“I have a fvcking*g migraine!” I grabbed my head.

Don’t fight it Allison

“Ah! Who the fvck is that!?” I shot up again.

“Who?! Baby, talk to me!” Dorian grabbed my shoulder.

“I keep hearing a girl’s voice! You don’t hear it!?” Dorian looked at me like I was crazy, and then over to Mikey and Brandon. Sin was passed out.

“Allie, listen to me,” I look at him terrified. “I think it’s your wolf trying to communicate with you,”

“My what?”

“Your wolf, babe,”

“Let me go get Dr. Quinn,” Brandon said and ran out. I just sat there confused and scared. A few minutes later, Dr. Quinn came in.

“Luna, look at me,” I look at the doctor. “Your transformation is complete, and in record time. It’s only been 11 hours. If what the beta says is true, and you are hearing voices, that is your wolf. She is the second part of you. You need to connect with her okay?” I nod my head. “Now, sit up straight, take a deep breath and concentrate,”

I sit up and cross my legs Indian style. I rest my hands on my thighs and concentrate on my breathing. Having done yoga, helped a lot. I close my eyes and breathe in and out

Hello? Are you there?

Hello, Allison

Wow, this is crazy!

It is and it is a pleasure to meet you

You have a beautiful voice

Thank you, so do you

What is your name?

My name is Mercury

Well, Mercury, I look forward to spending the rest of our life together

When I can meet Bandit?

How do you know about Bandit?

We are mates! I share your memories and all your desires. Emotionally, physically, and se.xually. I have already seen the things Dorian has done to you. I can only imagine the things Bandit can do.

Mercury! She laughs into the distance. I open my eyes and immediately blush.

“Allie?” I look at Dorian and just start giggling.

“She is naughty,” I say to him.

“Really?” Dorian smirks and raises a brow.

“Alpha, give the Luna a few hours to recuperate. Her body is still tired from the transformation,” Dr. Quinn said. I look over Sin who looks miserable.

“Come on Sin, you can do it,” I say out loud as I watch her.

“Luna,” Brandon says and walks over. He bows his head. He bends down and hugs me. “I can’t wait to see what your wolf looks like,” he says and goes back to his seat. We sit for a few hours and just wait for Sin to finishing ‘baking’ as she put it. I was also curious to see what Mercury looked like. The fact she was a horny werewolf surprised me a bit. But who was I kidding? After the night Dorian and I had, I was sure we would be a lot more of it.

Just to let you know, I expect to be let out at least once in bed. I want to see what Dorian can do too.

Mercury?! Are you always going to invade my thoughts like that?

Why not? They are my thoughts too technically. You should ask Dorian to let Bandit out in bed too... she giggled again and vanished into the back of my mind. My god, she was horny. I shook off Mercury’s dirty thoughts, Sin started to violently shake.

“Oh my god, Sin!” I jumped up and run to her while Brandon out of the room. Dorian pulls me back.

“She is fine, it’s normal!” he told me

“How is a seizure normal!?”

“Baby, you had one too!” he said making me look at him. I didn’t even remember having a seizure. A few seconds later, Dr. Quinn comes in and plunges a syringe into Sin’s neck. It takes a minute or two, but Sin finally calms down.

“It won’t be long now,” Dr. Quinn says. “Luna, Sin will also panic when she first hears her wolf, try your best to help her understand okay?” I nod my head. I look back at Sin who is breathing regularly and looks to be at peace. I let out a heavy sigh.

“She’s going to be okay baby,” Dorian says and hugs me. As soon as he touched me, I gasped. It felt like dynamite erupting all over my body, but it wasn’t painful it was sensual and warm. I looked up at Dorian, and it felt like I was looking at in high definition 4D. I hadn’t noticed it before but my god my man was sexy as hell. His green eyes seemed even more green if that made any sense. His scent, oh my god his scent. It wasn’t the cologne he wore. He smelled like lavender and fresh ocean breeze. I hugged him and inhaled deeply. His scent literally just gave me life.

“Holy fvck, you smell delicious,” he started to laugh and pulled me onto his lap. I instantly just buried my face into his neck and inhaled again. “What is this tingling feeling you are giving me? Why am I horny just by smelling you?”

“It’s the mate bond baby. Now that you’re a werewolf, it feels 10x stronger than when you were a human,”

“Is this what you felt for me when we first met? The urge to just fvck me senseless?” he threw his head and laughed.

“Now who’s the skank?” I turn and see Sin smiling at me

“Hey!” I ran over to her and take her hand.

“You good skank,” I laughed

“I’m good bh,” she smiled. I brush her hair out of her face. “Try to sleep, it will help. When you wake up, you’re going to have a splitting headache, but I will be right here,” I kissed her forehead as she relaxed.
