

Desert Heat Chapter 91 - Tips

{Dorian's P.O.V.}

When I saw Tucker shifting midair and lunging at Allie and me, Bandit took over and we stopped his attack, unfortunately, the force of our collision knocked Allie on the ground and forced us to be separated. Once Tucker and I stopped tumbling, Bandit got to his feet before Tucker did. As he was shaking it off, I took a quick glance and saw that Allie was being protected by Lucas and Andre, and she was using her ability to help them k!ll off Tucker's men.

As I turned back, I barely dodged an attack by Tucker. All the flood gates of hell had been opened and it was an all-out war. My men were surrounded, just as Leah's vision entailed, I just hoped that our allies would be here soon. Gunfire was going on, wolves were dying, humans were dying, and I could tell it was mostly Tucker's men that were lifeless, but I could sense that some of my men and women were dying too.

Tucker snarled at me and I snarled back. Tucker's wolf was large. Disgraced or not, Tucker was still an Alpha, but his coloring was off. Most Alphas are black in color, with some accented colors, but Tucker was more of a black and sh!t colored brown. We circled one another, neither one wanting to make the first move.

I knew Tucker, he was egotistical and wouldn't back down from a challenge. Just like any Alpha, I knew that Tucker was driven by pride, the one thing that pride would never allow is one to back down. I had Bandit shift us back to human form.

"Tucker! Shift back and fight me man to man! You think you're so tough and powerful, you think you can be a better Alpha than me!? Then prove it! Shift back!" he snarled at me and continued to circle me. "What? Are you not man enough to take me on in hand to hand combat!? Is that why you took so long to come after me?! Is that why you k!lled our unborn pup? Because you're not strong enough to take on a full-grown wolf, you had to go after one that wasn't even born!" he snarled again. I knew I was getting to him. "And you say you want Allie, are you even man enough to pleasure her!? Allie is a freak in bed, and she requires a lot to be pleased. I can tell just by the size of your wolf's d!ck that your human d!ck could do nothing for her!" after that, he immediately shifted into human form.

“You have a big mouth for someone that is about to die!” he shouted and charged at me. I grabbed him and flipped him over onto his back. He kicked me from underneath forcing me to the ground. He rolled over to get up, but I did a kip-up which gave me the upper hand. As soon as he was on his feet, I gave a hard right hook to his jaw. He got me back and then tackled me to the ground. He got me a few times to the face, but I was able to roll him over and get him back. That’s when I heard it, “DORIAN!” I heard Allie scream, and I could hear the terror in her voice. I looked up and saw that Hondo was about to attack her.

“ALLIE!” I got up off of Tucker and was about to run to her when I saw another black wolf come out of nowhere and takedown Hondo. Then I saw the other Yellow Moon brothers go Allie’s side. Yellow Moon had arrived. That meant the black wolf was Deacon. He saved Allie’s life. I made a mental note to thank him after this was all over.

While I was distracted with Allie being in danger, I received a mind link from Leah, Dorian duck!

I dropped to the ground just as soon I heard her voice and sure enough, Tucker landed in front of me.

Thanks, Leah!

You’re welcome!

I stood up and so did Tucker. He knew this was a losing battle for him, I was about to charge at him when I felt the earth moving beneath us. Even Tucker paused, and I saw that everyone was still. Then, I heard growls and roars from all directions, Tucker looked confused and I could sense a small bit of fear.

“It’s over Tucker! You’re outnumbered now!” I shout.

“It’s over when you’re dead Shaw!” his eyes clouded over, and two sh!t colored wolves came to his side. It had to be his brothers.

“Really? Did you call your brothers to help you? Are you that big of a p.ussy you can’t take me on your own? No wonder your dad was willing to sign away your titles so easily. He knew you were too weak to be a real Alpha,”

“HE WAS THE WEAK ONE! HE BETRAYED HIS OWN SONS!”

“WRONG! His sons betrayed him! You killed your own father because your giant ego got in the way! You take whatever you want and disregard our laws! Your father was a strong Alpha who knew he fvcked up with the three of you. He knew that neither of you could lead because you would drive his pack into the ground!”

“My father turned our pack into a bunch of good for nothing h!ppies! He knew nothing about training an army, but I did. Our pack was puny, but I grew it to four times its original size,”

“You didn’t grow it! You dismantled smaller non-violent neutral packs throughout the state and forced them to become fighters. That’s why you took you almost a year! You hid you pack away like a fvcking*g p.ussy instead of coming at me head-on! You know that you’re no match for me and my pack!”

“Look around Shaw! It’s three against one. Do you really think you have a chance?” I was about to say something when I saw two bears coming up behind them. One was Bryce, but I wasn’t sure who the other one was, but he was just as big.

“You know, it’s sad really. Your stupidity and lack of leadership is the reason why your family dies tonight,”

“What are you...” before he could finish his statement, Bryce and other bear mauled his two brothers right in front of him tearing them to shreds. “NO!” Tucker shouted seeing his brothers’ wolves lifeless on the ground. They slowly started to turn back into their human form.

Tucker looked back at me and was seething in hatred. The last of his family was dead, and little by little, you could see he was losing.

“Look around Tucker! You’re fighting a losing battle!” I held out my arms.

“They’re all pawns anyway! I don’t care about any of them! I only need myself and that delicious pint size wife of yours! As long you die tonight Shaw, I don’t care how many of my men die!”

“YOU CALL YOURSELF AN ALPHA!? Building your pack, and not caring if it crumbles as long as you get what you’re after. It’s no wonder your father was more than willing to side with me. You’re demented and perverse! Even if you succeed in k!lling me, and that’s a big if. You will never get Allie! All these allies that we have here tonight are here because of her!” I could see his tiny brain starting to think. “That’s right Tucker, Allie is the reason why all these other wolves, bounty hunters, and bears are here! They are here to protect her! So, go ahead and k!ll me! You’re going to fail anyway,” at the mention of him failing, Tucker shifted back into his wolf and pounced on me.

I didn’t have time to react and he had me on the ground. I was trying to hold him back by the throat. I was strong in human form, but not strong enough to hold him back much longer.

“fvck you, Tucker!” I punched him once and got a small whimper out of him, but it wasn’t enough to get him off of me. I kneed him in the c.hest, but still not enough. I need to get him off of me to shift into Bandit but couldn’t get an opening. I hit him once more, but he used this enormous paw and thrashed me to the side, his claws creating a gash on my h!p.

I tried to get up, but he got me again across the c.hest and knocked me into a tree. Bandit was doing his best to come out, but we needed time to shift since I was injured, and we didn’t have any. Tucker swung his paw again and jumped out of the way landing on my back.

Come on Bandit! I need you to take over!

I need more time! The wound on your h!p is making us lose a lot of bl00d!

I stood to my feet and Tucker used his back legs to kick me across the field. He came towards me again, if he got me one more time, I was done for. He towered over me and was about to stomp on my head when high pitched howl made him stop.

{Sam’s P.O.V.}

“Everyone stays quiet and stays calm okay,” I tell all the women and pups in the panic room. I mind linked my two girls to make sure they were in position. I closed the door and hid in the secret compartment right next to it. We knew if Hank went back to Tucker, he would have told them where the panic rooms were and that that's where pups were hidden.

Knowing that Tucker killed Allie's baby before it was even born, he wouldn't like the fact she gave birth to twins this time under the radar. He was going to send someone to kill her pups and I was not going to let that happen. As I was hiding out, one of my girls mind linked me,

Sam, this is Milly at room three, there's a rogue heading in your direction. He's saying that the targets are the Alpha twins.

Room two has a rogue too.

sh!t so does room three now.

Be careful and protect the other ranked member's pups. I reply.

We will give our lives to protect them.

Let's hope it doesn't come to that. I tell them.

Once I closed off the mind link, sure enough, a rogue was checking out the wall that held the doorway to the panic room. It was protected by a passcode, but more than likely, Hank gave them the codes. I saw him pull out a piece of paper. I knew it. I said to myself. I couldn't wait to get my hands on Hank. I waited until the rogue's back was fully turned and jumped out of the hiding spot tackling him to the floor.

"Sorry sh!t face, but that room is off-limits," I say to him.

"Please little girl, you think you can take me on,"

"Little girl!? That does it!" I charge at him again jumping in the air and landing a punch directly on his nose. I side kick him into the wall. He stands up immediately and charges at me.

"Time to die!" he says as he grabs my shoulders and shoves me to the ground. I land on my back and he hovers over me. Big mistake. I kick him straight in the balls making him hunch over. I use both of my legs and push myself away from him, rolling over backward and standing on my feet. I charge at him, hugging him at the waist and then kicking my foot up and over getting him straight in the face with the ball of my foot.

He stumbles backward a little. I try to hit him again, but he jabs me square in the stomach. I had to admit, that shit hurt. I fall to my knees and he kicks me in the gut again. fvcking*g a.ssh0le. He tries to kick me again, but I do a handstand and get his head between my legs. I use the leverage to pull myself up and give him full forced right hook to the face and then a left, and another right. He was completely disoriented. I fl!pped backward with everything I had, putting my hands on the ground, and fl!pping him over onto his back, with his head now between my ankles. With one strong twist of my legs, I snap his neck. I send a quick mind link to the others,

Report!

Room 2 clear! I didn't hear from room three.

Room 3? Milly, are you there!? No response. Milly! Report!

Sorry! I'm here! Room 3 clear. I had two I needed to deal with. I let out a sigh of relief. Get rid of the bodies and get back to your hiding spots!

Yes ma'am!

I grab the rogues body and shove him into the closet next to the panic room. We would have to deal with the body later. I couldn't help but worry about Lucas. I tried to mind link him, but it was blocked. I prayed to the moon goddess that Lucas came back alive.

{Hank's P.O.V.}

I wanted the Luna dead for what she did to my family. As I hovered over her, Hondo took over and we shifted.

"Hondo, please," the Luna begged. Begging wouldn't help. She was going to die. I was getting ready to pounce when she screamed for the Alpha, "DORIAN!" I was just about to leap when I was tackled. I rolled a few times with whoever it was and when I got my feet, I saw a black wolf, but with silver eyes. Who was this?

I let out a growl and so did he, that's when I realized he was an Alpha, but not Shaw. Who was this?

“LUNA!” I heard a voice and I see two men protecting the Luna.

“Apollo! Lucian! You made it!” I hear her say their names

“Just in time too,” one of them said. I look back at the Alpha wolf in front of me and we were about to charge each other when the ground started to shake. Then I heard a multitude of growls and roars and saw more than a couple of hundred wolves, humans, and bears enter the battlefield.

“Holy fvck! Where did bears come from!?” I hear of the men standing next to the Luna ask.

“They’re friends,” she replies. So, they had reinforcement. Before I could finish my thought, I was tackled again by the Alpha wolf. We danced with each other, slashing, biting, and kicking each other. He was strong and he was big. I had to be smart about this. One wrong move and I would die.

“Deacon! He’s the traitor!” I heard the Luna. The Alpha looked back at me and snarled. He charged at me full force knocking me on the ground and making Hondo hit his head on a rock. The impact put us in a daze.

Get up Hondo! We have to survive this! We have to get back to Casey!

I could feel Hondo trying to get up, but it was no use. The Alpha was standing over us and had his paw at Hondo’s neck. I could see the Luna approaching us, with the other two men.

“As Luna of the Desert Moon pack, I command you to shift back!” because I was still technically a member of the pack, Hondo had no choice. We shifted back and the other Alpha did as well. “Hank, you have some nerve showing up here trying to kill me. Did you honestly think you would succeed?” she asked

“You banished my wife and kids!”

“BECAUSE YOU KILLED MINE!” she screamed, her eyes blacker than night. “You’re going to die, Hank, there’s no doubt about that, but I will give you one last chance to say goodbye to Casey and apologize to her for ruining her life and the lives of your pups. Had you been loyal to us, they would be in the panic rooms right now, safe and sound. But no, you chose power and money over your family and loyalty,” I wanted to say something, but I couldn’t. I knew my time was up, as I felt the Alpha lift me by my throat, his claws digging into my neck. Tears filled my eyes as I mind linked Casey,

Casey

Hank! Oh my god! Is everything okay?

No, it's not. We are losing, and my time is done.

What?! Oh my god! No! I could hear the tears in her voice.

Casey, I'm sorry for everything. I was weak and I gave into temptation, not thinking about what would happen to you and our pups.

Hank! Please! Please no!

Casey, I love you with all my heart.

Hank! No!

Tell me you love me, it's the last time I will hear it.

I love you, too! Her cries filled my head and the tears in my eyes fell.

I looked back at the Luna who had tears in her eyes too.

"Luna, I'm sorry," I felt a sudden pain, and then was consumed by darkness.

{Allie's P.O.V.}

I watched Hank's eyes cloud over as Deacon held him by the throat, his claws digging into his skin. I could see the tears falling from his eyes as he said goodbye to Casey and his pups. I couldn't help the tears that formed in my eyes as well. When his eyes turned back to normal, he looked at me, and my tears fell,

"Luna, I'm sorry," he said, and Deacon snapped his neck and dropped his lifeless body. As soon as he did, I felt a sharp pain on my side.

"AH!" I fell to my knees.

"Luna what's wrong!?" Deacon asked, but I couldn't answer. I didn't know what was wrong. Then I felt another pain across my chest.

“AHH!” I scream in pain. Then I felt another against my back, and again in the abs.

“Luna! Talk to us!”

“I don’t know! I feel like I’m being beaten!!” I muster out the words. Why was I in pain?

It’s Dorian! He’s in trouble!

Without another thought, Mercury took over and we shifted. As soon as Mercury was in full form, she ran over to Venus and Jupiter. The power that I felt being next to them was nothing I had ever felt before. It was like they were feeding off of each other. All of our eyes were glowing,

It’s like Selene said, our powers are magnified in wolf form and when we are near each other. I tell Sin and Leah.

Mercury lifted her head and let out a pitched howl at the full moon in the sky. Venus and Jupiter followed. When they stopped howling, Eddie and Mitch came to their sides. I could feel the power growing between all of us. What was this?

The power of the desert moon

I looked up again, and the moon was its highest peak in the sky. It was amplifying our powers,

Not them. Just ours.

What do you mean, Mercury?

Don’t you see Allie, we are the most powerful out of the three desert wolves, but our true power comes from all of them and the full moon. The desert moon.

And Dorian?

Especially, him. He is the Desert Alpha. Our power is his power. We need to get to him now!

Mercury takes off running and is followed by Eddie and Mitch protecting her from both sides as rogues try to stop her from getting to Dorian.

Dorian! I'm coming!

Allie! His voice was weak and hoarse. Dorian was injured and getting weaker.

FASTER MERCURY!

Desert Heat Chapter 92 - Tips

{Brandon's P.O.V.}

Once Tucker charged at Dorian and Allie, sh!t got real really fast. Although my Beta instinct was to rush to Gizmo when she and Dorian got separated, I had to protect Leah. Leah's ability helped a lot of us out and thankfully, her wolf knew how to fight even if Leah didn't in human form. It was the same for Sin and her wolf. Wolves are natural born fighters when in wolf form, and I think that's why we were all so afraid to let the girls out. We didn't want them to succ.umb to having to k!ll the way us guys did.

Sam was a trained fighter, so her k!lling, seeing bl00d and gore was nothing new. But our girls were so pure, they didn't have bl00d on their hands. The closest Allie ever got to k!lling was when she ordered Mikey and me to k!ll Jessica, and when she witnessed Dorian tear Devin to shreds.

Brandon! On your left!

I heard Leah shout. Two seconds later, a rogue was on my left charging at me in wolf form, it pinned me on the ground, but Leah jumped on its back, biting into its neck. It allowed me to wiggle free and shift into Eddie. The rogue tossed Leah onto her back and turned his back to me. Rookie mistake. I clamped down on its neck and shoulder, and Leah took the opportunity to sh its throat from underneath.

Babe! Behind you!

I turned around just in time to catch a wolf in human form and rip their head off.

Thanks, Sweetcheeks, you're definitely a natural at this. I'm sorry I didn't have more faith in your ability.

I didn't have faith in it myself. It was Jupiter who had faith for both us. Now less talking and more a.ss-kicking.

{Mikey's P.O.V}

After the fighting ensued, I immediately shifted into Mitch and grabbed the first member of Tucker's pack that came at Sin and me. They were poorly trained, but I could tell that Hank spent some time with them the two weeks he had escaped. Even then, Tucker's men had only one thing going for them, quantity. That was until our other allies showed up.

Mikey! There are four rogues heading into the house! They're after Allie's pups!

Sam and her fighters will take care of them.

Mikey, these three are going to try and ambush you! Go for the one on your left first! The one on your right is going to charge first, create some distance!

Sin's ability to hear the thoughts of other wolves came in handy when fighting off multiple attackers. I charged the one to my left, as Sin said, catching him off guard. I tore into him killing him instantly.

One is going to shift! I'll grab the one that stays in human form!

I turn and the remaining two charged at me, one shifted into their wolf midair and landed on top of me as Sin said. Sin was able to grab the second one and dug her claws into their chest. I tussled with the rogue wolf and realized how small it really was. This guy was young, but I didn't realize how young until I saw his wolf. Something told me this guy was part of one of the packs Tucker absorbed.

I was hesitant on killing him because I knew that he was being forced into this. He snarled at me while I just growled. Holding him back didn't take much. He was weak and he wasn't a fighter. Poor guy. Before I could make up my mind, I heard a gunshot and the wolf dropped dead on top of me. I pushed his lifeless body off of me and turned to see a bounty hunter. I shifted back into human form,

"Aries,"

"Razor,"

"It's Mikey now, Razor is retired,"

“Either you’re losing your touch Mikey, or you hesitated for a reason,”

“I hesitated but he was only a kid. He wasn’t part of Tucker’s original pack. He was absorbed and forced into this,”

“Yeah, I don’t know what the sh!t means. I was born a rogue remember,”

“Whatever. Thanks for the a.s.sist,” I tell him. Just then, Jupiter comes to my side. “Aries, this is my girlfriend and mate, her wolf Jupiter and her human name is Cynthia, but everyone calls her Sin,” “Gamma Sin,” he bows his head.

Honey, who is this? Sin asks via mind link

“He’s a bounty hunter that was signed by Dorian,” Jupiter nods her head.

“We’ll catch up later Raz, I mean Mikey. I need four more k!lls to get half a mil,”

“Of course, you’re doing this for the money,” I say to him.

“I would rather have the ten mil off of the bounty you put on Hank, but someone else got to him,”

“WHO!?”

“Some big black dude that was with your Luna,”

“That has to be the Yellow Moon Alpha,”

“Whatever, see ya,” Aries took off running into the field to k!ll more of Tucker’s men.

Sin and I ran over to Brandon and Leah who had k!lled their fair share of Tucker’s men. We looked around and there were still quite a few, but C.J. and Bryce’s teams were already in play along with Yellow Moon’s men. We were winning, but that doesn’t we weren’t losing our own people. I saw a few bodies that were part of our pack, and it hurt to see them.

“Where’s Gizmo?” I asked. Brandon shifted back.

“I have no idea!”

“HEY!” Dani appeared out of nowhere with Andre.

“Oh fvck!” I shouted

“Sorry. Have you guys seen...” before Dani could finish her sentence, Mercury ran up to us. She stood between Sin and Leah and howled at the moon. It was high pitched but something about it made Mitch stir and he forced me into shifting. I could see Brandon doing the same.

Mitch! What’s happening?

The Luna has commanded me to shift!

I didn’t hear anything

This is different, her howl, it is compelling me.

Once we shifted, Brandon and I stood next to our mates they were standing on either side of Allie. All of their eyes were growing bright and Allie’s eyes were the brightest. Her irises swirled with red and blue, it was the craziest sh!t I had ever seen.

Dorian needs help!

Allie shouted in a mind link and immediately took off. I had never seen her run that fast.

GO WITH HER!! Sin shouted.

Brandon and I took off after her and saw that whatever was left of Tucker’s men were trying to stop her from getting to Dorian. Brandon and I stopped them dead in their tracks allowing Allie a clear path.

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

FASTER MERCURY!

I pushed her hard, I needed to get to Dorian. I didn’t realize how far Dorian was from me, but when I saw him in the clearing I could see a wolf hovering over him. It had to be Tucker. I could smell bl00d coming from Dorian, he was badly injured.

Tucker raised his paw to stomp on Dorian, but we got there just in time and rammed him off of Dorian. Being smaller in size only allowed me to push him so far,

Dorian, can you hear me?

Allie, what are you doing?

Saving my husband's life that's what!

Allie, we need to shift back. Mercury tells me.

What? Why?

Without even answering me, she gives me back control and I'm back in human form, stark n.aked kneeling next to Dorian. I bend down and lift him onto my knees and cradle his head. I can see all the wounds he has sustained, but his h!p was the worst.

"So, this what you look like up close huh?" I heard Tucker's voice. He had shifted back into human form too. Seeing him n.aked in front of me made me want to vomit. "I have to admit, pictures do you no justice,"

"Get the fvck away from me," I snap and hold Dorian tighter.

"He's dying anyway angel, just take my hand, and we can be on our way," he said while leaning down to grab my arm.

"Get off me!" I shoved his hand away. I could feel Dorian's arm holding onto me. "Dorian, baby, hang on, you're going to be okay," I tell him and caress his cheek.

"If you want time to say goodbye, be my guest," Tucker said. I ignore him and just look down at Dorian.

"Baby look at me," I tell him. His eyes are fighting to stay awake. "Dorian, don't you dare die on me. You promised,"

"I...I... don't want...to," he said as his hand touched my cheek.

"Dorian, please," I begged with tears in my eyes. "Please,"

Project your Lust Allie

What? What good will that do?

Haven't you ever wondered why Dorian is able to go so long in bed?

I just assumed it was his stamina.

He's strong, but not that strong. Allie, our ability doesn't just make him horny as you humans put it, but it gives him energy. It gives Bandit energy.

Wait, are you saying that him going for hours and making me blackout all the time is my own fault?

Yeah.

You couldn't have told me that sooner!?

Where's the fun in that? You and I both know that blacking out from pleasure is wonderful.

Dammit, Mercury!

You're wasting time. Kiss him and project in full force. We can save him.

I watched as Dorian was losing consciousness,

"No! Dorian keep your eyes open! I need you to stay awake," I tell him and bring him impossibly closer to me. He opened his eyes again, but his breathing was shallow and faint. He was running out of time, and I had to act fast. "Dorian, I love you, and I refuse to let you die," I leaned down and kissed him for a moment and then slowly projected my Lust, I was afraid of projecting it too fast.

After a moment, I could feel his breathing regulating and he started to kiss me back. His hand on my arm started firmly grasp me. I kissed him harder and projected more. His heartbeat started to pick up speed, and he grabbed the back of my head deepening our kiss. I projected in full force and my body started to erupt in dynamite of pleasure. He was coming to life, Bandit! I can feel Bandit! He's speaking to Dorian!

Good, just a little more. I projected as hard I could, and the smell of blood started to vanish. Dorian was starting to heal; I felt his body move and he took over our kiss. I smiled to myself, as let him have his way with my mouth, but before I could fully enjoy it, I felt myself being torn away from him,

“Say goodbye Shaw, your wife is mine,”

{Dorian’s P.O.V.}

“No! Dorian keep your eyes open! I need you to stay awake,” I heard Allie’s voice pleading with me to stay conscious. I forced my eyes open and could see the tears in her eyes. I didn’t want to leave her. I didn’t want to leave my pups. But Allie would be protected no matter what, so I was okay with dying. At least I was going to die having loved and been loved. “Dorian, I love you, and I refuse to let you die,” I heard her say. She was stubborn, but I loved her for it.

I felt her lips on mine. Our final kiss. I closed my eyes and waited for darkness to take over, but to my surprise, it didn’t. Her kiss was filling my lungs with oxygen, I could feel myself starting to breathe easier. Without realizing, I felt myself kissing her back, and I grabbed onto her arm. I felt a sudden burst of lust, but it wasn’t turning me on, it was giving me life. I could feel Bandit starting to stir in my head. I could feel my heart starting to race.

She kissed me harder and I felt more warmth come from her. What was this? I grabbed her head and pressed our lips deeper together. Why was Allie’s lust giving me life?

Her lust is life.

Bandit! You’re alive!

Allie’s power of lust not only turns us into horny animals, Dorian, but it also gives us energy.

Energy?

Haven’t you found it strange that when you’re having sex with her, you can go longer than you ever have with any other woman?

I assumed it was because she was our mate. Plus, I’m an Alpha.

Don't be c0cky Dorian. You're not that strong a.ssh0le. It's because of our mate and her ability. Have you noticed that once she's blacked out, we also feel drained?

Yeah, I have noticed that.

It's because we feed off of her energy. Sometimes, it can be too much for us. She's stronger than you give her credit for.

I never realized that Allie's projection of lust was basically a form of sexualized adrenaline. Damn, Allie really was my oxygen of life. She gave me life in more ways than I could ever comprehend.

I felt myself coming to life, and I could feel my wounds starting to heal. I pulled her close and kissed her for dear life. Fuck, I could feel myself getting hard, and Bandit was turning into a horny animal in my mind. Then, all of a sudden, I felt us being separated.

"Say goodbye Shaw, your wife is mine," I heard Tucker's voice. I opened my eyes and saw he had Allie over his shoulder. He was touching her while she was naked.

"LET ME GO FVCKER!" Allie squirmed. I could see her hitting him with everything she had, but I could tell she was weakened by having projected so much of her energy to me. I saw him turn to leave with her. "DORIAN! GET UP!" I heard Allie scream.

Rest Dorian, I got this. I heard Bandit say. I laid back and Bandit took over. I felt him getting us to our feet,

"TUCKER!!!" Bandit roared. Tucker stopped in his tracks and turned to face us. His eyes were in shock.

"HOW!? YOU WERE TEN SECONDS FROM DYING!" he shouted

"That was before our mate healed us," Bandit said. He was about to say something, we saw him starting to lose his balance. Allie was projecting lust onto him, just enough for him to let his guard down. He fell to his knees and Allie jumped off, stumbling to get away.

"Gizmo!" I heard Brandon and saw him run-up to her. He picked her up and carried her to safety and I got a mind link from her,

Dorian.

I'm okay, baby. Thanks to you. Let Brandon take care of you.

Bandit faced Tucker and waited for him to get his sh!t together. We could have k!lled him while he was on his knees, but that would be too easy.

"GET UP TUCKER!" Bandit shouted. "You want to prove you're the better Alpha! Get up!" we watched as he slowly gathered himself and stood to his feet.

"You're supposed to be dead!" he shouted.

"As I said, my mated healed me,"

"HOW?!"

"One thing you don't know about my mate is that she is blessed by the moon goddess. She has an ability that energizes me but weakens others. Hence why she's no longer with you, but secure with my Beta," He looked around realizing that Allie was nowhere.

"NO!!! ALL OF MY PLANNING WAS METICULOUS! I WAS SO CLOSE! I HAD HER!" he roared.

"As I said before, even if you were to succeed in k!lling me, Allie would be protected. You would never have her,"

"SHE BELONGS TO ME!" he screamed like a tantrum-throwing child.

"Look around Tucker!" I turned and saw Mikey, Lucas, and Andre. "All of your pack is either dead or captured," Mikey said. Slowly, wolves and people start to gather around me. C.J., Bryce and the other bears, the bounty hunters, and even Sin and Leah who were back in human form and covered with blankets.

"You lose Tucker," Brandon said as he brought Allie to my side. She had a blanket over her as well. Tucker was about to come forward.

"Uh uh... I wouldn't do that if I were you," Lucas said and pointed at Tucker's chest. There were over a dozen lasers pointed at his heart.

"As my Beta said, you lose," I tell him. "Last chance Tucker leave with your dignity, and say the fvck away from my wife, or die," I watched as his eyes turned black. This fvcker just wouldn't quit. He took one step forward and all of the snipers opened fire. The girls gasped and hid their faces. I cradled Allie's head to keep her from seeing this.

Having over a dozen snipers open fire at one localized target is pretty gruesome even for me. After the echo of the shots fired dissipated, Allie lifted her head and looked at Tucker's lifeless body,

"It's over," she whispered

"Yeah, it's over, baby," Allie lifted her arms and I scooped her up, holding her tight. I felt a hand on my shoulder, and it was C.J. I put Allie down and we faced everyone behind us.

"Congratulations Dorian," C.J. said.

"On behalf of the Desert Moon Pack, I want to sincerely thank each and every one of you who came and risked your lives to help us in our time of need. I give my condolences to those who were lost today. To my pack, please know if you have lost someone tonight, Allie and I will be there to support you in your time of need. Everyone lost someone today and know that their lives were not lost in vain. Their b.ravery saved their Luna, who in turn saved me,"

"Alpha Shaw," I looked to see Deacon Brown stepping towards me.

"Alpha Brown," I put my hand out and we shook. "Thank you,"

"It was our pleasure. Your Luna is definitely one of a kind. She was worth it. I look forward to working with you in the future," I nod my head. "Luna,"

"Please, call me Allie," I look down at her and she smiles. Deacon nods and turns to leave. "Deacon," Allie calls out to him and he turns back. "Whenever you and your brothers are ready, I can help you find your mates," he looked at her funny and then at me. I nod my head. Deacon smiles and bows his head and leaves with this pack.

"Allie!" we turn and see Siobhan running towards us. She and Allie embrace each other as Bryce comes forward as well with the other bears.

"Mr. Shaw,"

"Please, call me Dorian," I tell him.

“Dorian. I am glad that Allie is safe and unharmed,”

“Did you lose anyone?” I ask him.

“No, we did not. We have a few that are injured, but nothing life-threatening,”

“I’m glad to hear that. Thank you again for your assistance, even though I know it was for Allie, more than for me,”

“Dorian, you two a packaged deal. If you ever need anything, please do not hesitate to call. Be sure to let us know if you plan on coming by the club again,” I smile and nod.

“Bye girl!” Siobhan says

“Wait! Siobhan!” Allie calls out to her. Allie stares for a minute and does her signature brow lift.

“Why are you staring at me like that?” Allie just smiles and all the girls start screaming and start hugging Siobhan. “What is going on!?” Siobhan exclaims.

“Bryce, take care of my girl, and your cub,” Allie says to him.

“Cub?!” Bryce and Siobhan say at the same time.

“Siobhan! You’re pregnant!” Dani shouts. Just then all of the bears start to roar in excitement and Bryce spins her around.

“Wait, how do you guys know that I am pregnant? What the hell?”

“ALLIE’S ABILITY!!” they all scream.

“Siobhan, before you go, meet with our pack doctor so she can confirm it for you,” Allie says and gives her a hug.

“Come on, I’ll take you!” Dani says and leads Siobhan and Bryce to the pack hospital.

“I think it’s time we take off too,” C.J. says.

“Safe travels my friend, and I’m sorry for the loss of your men,”

"It's as you said, it was not in vain,"

"Let me know if you need anything," I say to him and he nods.

"Give Brittany my love," Allie says.

"Before I go, Allie, there's something I wanted to ask," he says to her. Allie looks up at him. "Will you be the godmother to Arlene?"

"EEK!! I WOULD LOVE TO!!" Allie jumps and gives him a h.ug. C.J. bids his farewell and leaves with his pack.

"Baby, how many godchildren do you have now?" I ask her.

"Uhhh...Allen, Keegan, and now Arlene, so three,"

"Siobhan isn't going to ask you is she?"

"Nah, she'll ask Dani. They've always been closer,"

"Dorian,"

"Brandon, how many did we lose?"

"19,"

"Anyone close to us?" Allie asks

"No,"

"Hank?" I ask

"Deacon killed him," Allie replies.

"I'm not paying Deacon ten million dollars," we all start laughing. "Let's gather our fallen, and send them off with honor," Brandon nods.

I look back down at Allie and she has tears in her eyes.

"What's wrong baby?"

"Dorian, I almost lost you. I could feel you dying my arms," tears streamed down her face.

“But I didn’t, because of you. You saved me,”

“I can’t help but wonder, had I not been a blessed wolf, then...” I stopped her midsentence and kissed her. She wrapped her arms around my neck, and I lifted her into my arms. After a minute or so, I pulled away slowly,

“No buts, Allie,” she smiled and crashed her lips into mine.

Nothing else mattered at that moment. I had Allie, she had me, and we had our pups. We were finally going to be able to live our lives, together and forever.

Desert Heat Chapter 93 - Tips

{Allie’s P.O.V.}

Two weeks later

“fvck!” Dorian shouted as he came inside of me. After learning that my projection is what caused him to go for hours, I started to hold back a little bit, so I didn’t constantly blackout. It’s not to say that I held back all the time though. I collapsed on top of Dorian and caught my breath.

“I pray to the higher powers that this never gets old,” I tell him as I rested my forehead against his.

“Trust me, baby, it won’t,” he said and pulled me in for a kiss. “fvck,”

“What?”

“Allie, I think I’m stuck again,” I busted out laughing. For some stupid reason, if Dorian didn’t slide out fast enough, we would get fused. He held me close and we just embraced it. It typically meant we were going to for another round, but we were soon interrupted,

“GOOD MORN...OH, MY GODDESS!!” Eleanor burst into our room.

“MOM! WHAT THE fvck!?” Dorian yelled. He quickly pulled the covers over us.

“Language!” she scolded

“Dorian, did you not lock the door!?” I shouted.

“I did! She has some weird way of getting in wherever she wants,” he replied.

“Why are you two still in bed anyway!?” she asked.

“Why wouldn’t we be?! It’s Saturday!” Dorian responded completely annoyed. Instead of leaving, Eleanor just stood there having a conversation with us.

“It’s your wedding day!” she said.

“Yeah, and your point?” he replied

“Allie, sweetheart, I have an entire day planned out for you before the ceremony,”

“What? Why?”

“You need to get you pampered, now get off of my son, and get ready. Get in the shower but don’t worry about your hair. Paula and Greg are coming by to give you a good wash,” “Uh, Eleanor, Dorian, and I need like fifteen minutes,” I tell her.

“We don’t have that kind of time dear!” she whined

“Eleanor! You don’t understand!” I shouted.

“What? That you and my son were about to have morning se.x,”

“No!, Eleanor...Dorian is...kind of stuck, right now,” I tell her gritting my teeth. Dorian closes his eyes in irritation.

“What do you mean he’s...Oh...”

“MOM GET OUT!!” Dorian screamed and Eleanor left locking the door behind her. “You have to be fvcking*g kidding me!” I just started to giggle.

“Babe, you’re going to have either make this quick or soften up,”

“There is no fvcking*g way I’m softening up Allie. We’re going in the shower,” He removed the covers and without moving me around too much, he got up and took us in the shower. Luckily, the hot water and another round made it easier for him to slide out when he was done.

After we were dressed we went downstairs for breakfast where everyone was already eating.

“Yo, I heard your mom interrupted you guys,” Brandon said as Dorian and I sat down.

“I don’t want to even think about that,” Dorian said disgustedly at what happened. I just giggled again.

“Where are the twins?” Sin asked.

“The nannies are feeding them right now,” I told her. “Never mind my kids, where are you kids at?” I ask all of them.

“Grandma,” Sin and Leah respond.

“Nannies,” Sam and Dani respond.

“When does Amber get here?” Mikey asked.

“She’s already here kiddo,” we turn around and see Amber and Ronnie in the kitchen. I jump from Dorian’s lap and run to them.

“HI!” I give them both big h.ugs.

“Amber, where are the kids?” Dorian asks.

“UNCLE DORIAN!!” I hear shrieking as five kids come running into the dining room. Four of them run to Dorian, but one of them comes to me.

“Hi, I’m Camden, you must be my Aunt Allie,” he says with a h.uge smile.

“Hi, Camden, it’s so nice to finally meet you,” he gives me a h.uge h.ug. “Oh,” I was about to cry.

“He has been dying to meet you, Allie,” Ronnie says.

“Aunt Allie, may I meet my baby cousins?” Camden asks.

“Sure. Do you know where Uncle Dorian’s room is?” he nods his head.
“They’re in the nursery three doors down to the right. The nannies are in there right now. I’ll send them a mind link to let them know you’re on your way,”

“Thanks, Aunt Allie,” he says as he runs away.

“He’s so sweet!” I tell Amber and Ronnie.

“Come on, we can introduce you to the others,” Amber said putting her arm around my shoulder. “Kids come here and say hello to your Aunt Allie,” all of them were dog-piled on top of Dorian. One by one they get up and stand in a single file line.

“Hi Aunt Allie, my name is Ca.ssius,”

“Hi Aunt Allie, my name is Christian,”

“Hi Auntie Allie,” said Amber’s twin girls in unison.

“My name is Ca.ssandra, but you can call me Ca.ssie,” I smiled at her

“And my name is Calleigh,” I bent down, and they all h.ugged me at once. My heart was so full. I loved having nieces and nephews.

“WHERE ARE MY BABIES!?” I heard Eleanor as she came in “GRANDMA!! GRANDPA!!” all of them ran past us. I just shook my head and laughed.

“Well, they’re her problem now,” Amber says, and we all go back to the dining room to finish breakfast. “So, little brother, I heard mom barged in on you guys this morning,” Amber says as an Omega brought her and Ronnie a plate.

“fvck! Does everyone know!?” Dorian shouted. I put my arms around him and we all just laughed.

“Dorian, it’s nothing to be ashamed of. Getting stuck is normal for werewolves,” Ronnie said. “Amber and I get stuck all the time,” “RONNIE!” Amber smacked on the c.hest and we all started laughing again. I look at Amber and instantly felt something.

“Hey, Amber,”

“What’s up?” she said and looked me dead in the eyes. I stared at her for a minute and c*d my head to the side. “Why are you staring at me?” I pressed my lips together to keep myself from laughing. I looked at Dorian and just scrunched my face.

“Oh fvck,” Dorian said and busted out laughing too.

“No way!!” everyone else exclaimed.

“Hey sis, I think you might want to go talk with Dr. Quinn,” Dorian told her while trying to contain his laughter.

“Why!? What the fvck you guys!” Amber was getting angry.

“Amber, you know of Allie’s abilities right?” Sin asked. Amber nods.

“Well, whenever Allie makes that face and either cs her head to the side or lifts her brow, it means that she senses someone’s soul,” Leah added on.

“Okay, what the hell does that mean?” she asks

“Amber, she’s sensing someone else’s soul, inside of you,” Brandon said.

“Inside of...” Amber’s eyes bulge out of her head. “DAMMIT RONNIE!!” She smacked on the back really hard.

“WHAT?!” he exclaimed. “I don’t get it,”

“Ronnie, Amber is pregnant,” Lucas said taking a sip of his coffee. Ronnie looked at me and I just smiled and nodded my head. Ronnie looked at the table and stared blankly. Then his eyes rolled back, and he fainted right out of his chair.

“HAHAHA!!!!” the entire table roared in laughter. Amber just rolled her eyes and shook her head.

“Well, there is another reason to go see Dr. Quinn,” Andre added.

After breakfast, Amber and Ronnie went to go see Dr. Quinn, and sure enough, she was pregnant again. They were anything but happy. The guys were put on babysitting duty and all us ladies went out to have a girl’s day.

The ceremony wasn't until 6:30 in the evening, and it was still early enough for us to get manicures, pedicures, and facials. I obviously opted for acrylic nails again. Then Eleanor took us to this spa place that she found online, and I realized that it was a modernized Korean bathhouse.

Being fluent in Korean helped a lot and we all went in. The girls were confused at first, but I explained that the bathing area is full n.ude only, which of course as werewolves we all had no problem with it. Dani was a little shy at first being a vampire hybrid, but she loosened up. I decided to get a full-body scrub. It felt so amazing. It took about 45 minutes and she even washed my hair for me and massaged my scalp.

When I came out all, everyone was staring.

"What?"

"Damn, you are glowing Allie," Sin said.

"It's the body scrub. You literally scrub away all of the dead skin on your body and leave only revitalized skin,"

"Damn, I want to glow like that," Leah said.

"Next time dear," Eleanor said. "Let's get washed up and head out for lunch, then get back to the house. Paula, Greg, and their team will meet us there to do everyone's hair and makeup," we all nod and get ready to head out.

After lunch, we headed back to the house, and soon as I walked in. I was scooped up by Paul and Greg and dragged to the house salon where they got to work.

"Luna, what does the dress look like?" Paula asked. I pulled out my phone and showed her. "Oh, that's very nice," she said, and I smiled.

"Sit back and relax Luna," Greg said and so I did. As they worked on my hair, another team worked on my makeup. I made sure that they used my personal products for everything, which they were more than happy to do.

The entire time I sat in the chair, all I could think about was Dorian in his suit and tie. Dorian always looked so handsome when he dressed up. Even though we were already married, I couldn't help but have b.utterflies. As Paula and Greg were adding the finishing touches to my hair, Sin came in all dressed and ready, “Oh, girl! You look like a million bucks!” she says, and I just smile.

“What’s up?” I ask

“Your bouquet has arrived,” she says and shows it to me. I look at it and start to get teary-eyed. “NO! DON’T CRY!” Sin shrieked.

“I’m sorry. Just seeing the lavenders in the bouquet...”

“I know babe,” I smiled and held back the tears. When Paula and Greg finished, Amber and Eleanor brought my dress from my closet along with my shoes, and Leah brought down the Tiffany jewelry.

Once I was all dressed and the jewelry was on, I turned to face the body mirror and just smiled.

“Hey, the photographer wants to get some photos of Allie and the bridesmaids,” Ronnie says. “...Wow, Allie, you look beautiful,”

“Thanks, Ronnie,”

“Hun make sure Dorian is hiding, he’s not allowed to see her yet,” Amber said. Ronnie nods and leaves.

We all go out and get our photos taken. Having the desert and mountains as the background actually made for some really beautiful pictures. The photographer even had all the groomsmen hold me sideways and took a few pictures like that. He even got one where the guys threw me in the air.

Once group pictures were one, we did a few where Dorian and I were separated by a door, and we were holding each other’s hand.

“Allie,”

“Yeah?”

“I can’t wait to see you walk down the aisle,” I smiled big and my heart was starting to race. I was so nervous but excited.

"Alright, places everyone, we are about to start!" Eleanor said pushing Dorian away and pulling me back inside.

"Oh, Allison, my you look radiant," Benjamin said taking my hand. "I know I'm not your birth father, but I want to you know that Eleanor and I think of you as our daughter and not just our daughter-in-law. I know that your father would have given everything he could to be here today,"

"Thank you," I say trying not to cry.

"Are you ready my dear?" I nod and I take his arm.

{Dorian's P.O.V.}

I was standing at the altar waiting for the ceremony to start. I was so nervous, but I couldn't understand why. Allie and I were already married, this was just a ceremony,

"Alpha, are you alright?" Elder Maxwell asked. Just like our nuptials, he was the officiant for the wedding.

"I'm nervous," I admit to him.

"It's natural,"

"But we're already married, why am I nervous. It's not like she's not going to walk down the aisle,"

"True, but it's your wedding. Getting nervous is part of it," I smile at his words.

My conversation is interrupted when the music starts to play. Brandon and Leah make their way, then Mikey and Sin, followed by Lucas and Sam, and then Andre and Dani. My nieces Cassie and Calleigh are the flower girls and they looked so cute in their little white dresses with red and orange ribbons. After everyone was in their spots, the pianist started to play the wedding march, signaling Allie was about to come out.

Everyone stood to their feet and waited. Those few moments felt like a lifetime, the French doors opened, and I swore, time froze. There was Allie in her dress. It was a simple white dress, no glitter, no lace, no veil, but she looked absolutely beautiful. Beautiful didn't even cut it, she looked perfect. I locked eyes with her, and she smiled as my dad walked her down the aisle. I couldn't help but shed a few tears the closer she got to me.

"Come on, man, you're an Alpha, no crying," Brandon whispered.

"fvck off, Brandon," I whisper back, and he puts his hand on my shoulder. After what felt like an eternity, Allie was in front of me. My dad gave me her hand, k!ssed her on the cheek, and gave me a good tap on the shoulder. I walked Allie up to the altar where Elder Maxwell stood.

"You look beautiful, baby," I tell her

"So, do you," she replied, and we just smiled at each other. Allie handed her bouquet to Leah and I took her hands in mine.

During the entire ceremony, I didn't hear a single word Elder Maxwell said. I'm sure he went about the normal sh!t officiants say at weddings. I kept my eyes on Allie the whole time and being the man that I am, I couldn't help but look at her c.hest a few times. The dress h.ugged her c.hest perfectly, and even though she gave birth a little over a month ago, her body still looked amazing in the dress.

"Alpha...Alpha..."

"Huh? What?" I looked at the Elder and everyone started to laugh, and Allie just shook her head.

"Do you Dorian, take Allison, as your lawfully wedded wife from this day forward to have and to hold, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish for as long as you both shall live?"

"I do,"

"Do you Allison, take Dorian, as your lawfully wedded husband from this day forward to have and to hold, for better, for worse, for richer, for poorer, in sickness and in health, to love and to cherish for as long as you both shall live?"

"I do,"

"I now pronounce you, man and wife! Alpha, you may..." I didn't even wait for him to finish. I pulled Allie into a kiss and wrapped my arms around her holding her tight. Allie had her arms around my neck and held me tight as well. Everyone cheered while I continued to kiss my wife.

After a minute or so, we pulled apart and walked back down the aisle hand in hand. Everyone was throwing streamers and flower petals at us. Once we got back down the aisle, I picked her up bridal style and threw her in the air a few times.

"Happy are we?" she asked.

"You have no idea,"

"Look who wants to come to say congratulations to mommy and daddy," My mom said as she and my dad brought over Daisy and Demarco.

"Come here, big man!"

"Oh, my sweet princess, you two were so well behaved. Mommy is so proud of you,"

"Everyone! Dinner will be served shortly, but please help yourself to hors d'oeuvres and drinks," My dad says. Allie and I take the twins and go sit at the main table outside for us and the wedding party. All of the girls have their pups with them too. Luckily, all of the pups were fed, napped, and changed before the ceremony, so we were all good for at least another few hours before they needed to be fed again.

{Allie's P.O.V.}

After we all ate, Dorian and I had our first dance together on the dance floor. The DJ played 'From This Moment' by Shania Twain. I wasn't a huge fan of country music, but this was a beautiful song and it fit the mood so nicely. I couldn't believe that we finally made it to this day. No more enemies, no more psychotic exes, and no more looking over our shoulders.

Five years ago, I thought my life was done. But I fought back and started over. That perseverance brought to me Las Vegas, and four years later, I met a man, a werewolf, by the name of Dorian Shaw. He showed me what true love really was and gave me something I never thought I would ever have. A family of my own.

“Allie,”

“Yes, Dorian,”

“Thank you for choosing me,”

“No, Dorian, thank you for choosing me,”

“I love you, Allie,”

“And I love you, Dorian,”

He leaned down and kissed me lovingly and passionately.

This was my happy ever after.
