

Desires DH 411

Chapter 411

The next day was sunny. A few gleams of sunshine lit up the ward. Anya woke up on the bed next to Evan's bed and looked at the sleeping man.

He looked so handsome with his distinctly outlined face.

With a domineering air, Evan was drop-dead gorgeous.

If Anya wasn't worried about her children being taken away, she might concentrate on her relationship with him. However, she couldn't fall for him now because of her scruples.

Anya kept staring at Evan's sleeping face. After some time, Evan suddenly opened his eyes, which were as beautiful as black pearls.

Anya quickly blushed. Did he know she was looking at him while he was sleeping?

Looking away in a hurry, Anya threw back the covers and leaped out of bed. She asked embarrassedly, "Are you awake, Evan?"

Evan had already noticed that she was peeping at him. She looked shy and cute, which made her very attractive to him.

Evan smiled, "Yes."

"Then I will bring you the toiletries." Anya touched her hair and kept looking away.

She felt embarrassed. After all, she stared at him brazenly just now.

If he knew what she did, he must regard her as a nymphomaniac.

“Call the personal assistant. You don’t need to do these for me,” Evan said in a gentle voice.

Anya didn’t mind taking care of Evan by herself. She wanted to focus on taking care of him to show her gratitude to him for saving her life. Therefore, she was willing to do things for him. “I am not tired. Let me take care of you.”

“Really?” Evan smiled indulgently.

Anya seemed to care about him.

He knew that Anya didn’t want to stay with him.

However, she had to take care of him.

And he felt glad that Anya did care about him now.

It was a great solace for him.

“Yes. I will fetch the toiletries for you.” Anya cast a gentle glance at Evan and went to the bathroom.

Soon there was a rustle in the bathroom.

Anya took the toiletries to Evan and asked, “Do you need my help?”

Evan smiled when he heard what Anya said, “I am not disabled. I just can’t move.” After saying that, Evan felt regret that he pushed Anya away and said in a low voice, “Anyway, thank you.”

“You don’t have to thank me.” Anya handed the electric toothbrush to him. Evan took it and gently touched her face, “You may also go to the bathroom to wash up.”

Anya nodded and went to the bathroom.

Several minutes later, Evan’s assistant came. Although Evan was glad that Anya took care of him well, there was still some work that needed to be done by a man.

When Evan got up with the help of his assistant, Anya also walked out of the bathroom. Seeing Evan standing on the ground, she felt worried. “Evan, the doctor said you couldn’t stand up right away. Otherwise, your wound will be hurt again.”

Evan said, “I know. I will try to control my leg and avoid hurting my wound.”

Evan thought that the CEO of Welton Group shouldn’t lie on the bed.

Chapter 412

“Are you feeling well?” Anya asked worriedly.

Evan kept touching her face in front of the assistant and said, “Don’t worry, I am strong.”

At that time, someone was knocking at the door.

10

Two assistants came in with a well-wrapped breakfast and said, “Mr. Welton, here is your breakfast.”

“Put it on the table,” Evan said possessively.

The assistants took out the delicate breakfast and put it on the table respectfully.

They didn't dare to bother Evan and left the ward quickly.

Only Hayden helped Evan to sit down at the table. Evan waved at Anya and asked her to sit down with him.

Anya followed him and sat down next to him. After she sat down, Evan said to Hayden, "Tell her what happened yesterday, Mr. Lang."

Anya was confused. Hayden started talking before Anya asked anything, "Ms. MacMillan, yesterday the incident at the show was planned by Mr. Marshall and Sydney. Mr. Marshall will soon come to apologize.

"As for Sydney, we haven't received any reply from her. Trust me, Ms. MacMillan. If she didn't come to apologize, the MacMillan Group would receive its punishment. She must be clear about it."

Hayden reported to her respectfully.

Anya nodded. She felt a little moved when she realized that Evan had done so much for her.

"Thank you." Anya looked at Hayden and smiled.

"That's my responsibility." Hayden didn't want to be the third wheel and bother them. She bowed to Evan and said, "I will be back soon, Mr. Welton."

Evan nodded and Hayden left quickly.

The door was closed again. Anya set the table for Evan and they began to have breakfast in harmony.

Shortly after, there was a sound of footsteps outside the ward.

And someone was knocking at the door again. Evan knew it was Zachary. He said calmly, "Come in."

The door opened.

Hayden walked into the ward in a hurry, followed by Zachary with casual wear.

They walked to Evan and Hayden stepped aside.

Zachary now stood in front of Evan and Anya. Seeing Anya here, Zachary felt extremely embarrassed.

He opened his eyes wide and clenched his fists.

His breathing became more rapid and started sweating. He thought he only had to apologize to Evan and didn't expect to see Anya here.

Zachary stared at Anya. He wanted to scold her but he didn't dare to.

"I thought you went here for apologizing." Evan looked at Zachary and said in a cold voice. Zachary became nervous and almost knelt.

But he tried to keep calm and looked at Evan in his eyes, "I am so sorry, Mr. Welton. I didn't mean to hurt you yesterday."

Evan sneered. He held the silver fork and toyed with it. Finally, he said, "Are you sure I am the only one that needs your apology?"

Zachary was silent. He didn't want to apologize to Anya. He believed that she was a total bitch. How could he apologize to a bitch?

Seeing Zachary become silent, Evan stood up, raised his hand, and directly inserted the silver fork into Zachary's thigh. He said coldly, "That is an insincere apology."

Zachary immediately cried and howled in pain.

Chapter 413

There was a scream in the quiet hospital room. Zachary's thigh was pierced by a silver knife. He cried out loud and burst into tears.

He couldn't move at all, looking desperate.

Anya was shocked by the scene and covered her mouth with her hands. Though she knew he was wrong, she still couldn't take it when seeing the blood. And hurting people was against the law.

She was worried that Evan might get into trouble so she said, "Evan, do we need to call a doctor here? If anything happens, we might be in trouble."

Hearing her words, Evan thought she was worried about her ex-boyfriend. He said in a low voice, "Why are you caring about him?"

Anya was speechless.

She didn't.

She cared about Evan instead.

"Is it possible that I care about the man who tried to hurt me? I am worried about you, idiot."

“OK...

He was wrong.

Anya nodded and explained, “I don’t want you to get into trouble or be imprisoned.”

Evan knew he misunderstood her and smiled. “He won’t die. I avoid the main artery but it’s going to be so hurt.” Evan then looked at Zachary who kept crying and said coldly, “Mr. Marshall, now you know I’m serious, right?”

Zachary was too hurt to utter a word and felt light-headed. He did know it now.

He didn’t dare to look down upon Anya anymore.

He crawled to Anya and tried to grab her foot. “Anya, I am sorry for what I’ve done yesterday... I didn’t mean it... It was your sister, Sydney, who made me do it.”

Zachary didn’t want to take the blame so he said everything, “Anya, she asked me to help her... I didn’t mean to frame you...”

Anya avoided him in disdain and said, “What you did yesterday had caused damage to my reputation so you must clarify it, or I won’t let you off.”

Zachary knew no matter how he hated her; he could never look down upon her again. He promised, “Anya, please rest assured. I will clarify everything immediately and I’ll say it was Sydney behind all this. I know she has always wanted to frame you and I won’t listen to her again.”

Anya didn’t care about what he said as long as he told the truth to the public.

As for Sydney, Anya would just wait for her to come and beg for mercy.

Anya had put up with her all this time.

With Evan's backup, she wouldn't let her off this time.

Seeing this, Evan told Hayden to take Zachary out and kept an eye on him. Hayden then followed the order.

After dragging Zachary out, Hayden came in to wash off the blood.

After he finished, Evan sat down with Anya and had a meal.

In the old villa of the Welton's.

Mdm MacMillan arrived at the villa fully dressed. She looked up at the grand villa, looking greedy.

The Welton family was the wealthiest in the city. Loads of girls would die to marry into the family.

She would be thrilled if Sydney could marry into it.

She would never worry about food and clothes. Moreover, she could help the MacMillan family, which was declining. She must let Sydney marry Evan.

Thinking of it, she felt refreshed and made up her mind to kick Anya out of her way.

Since she had talked to Mdm Welton before, it was not hard to introduce Sydney to her.

Chapter 415

“It’s something that we should be ashamed of, so we seldom let others know,” Mdm MacMillan faked a sigh, and said intermittently, “She was kicked out of the MacMillan family because she is not faithful to Evan and likes to fool around with others.

“I heard that Evan likes Anya and is dating her. I don’t want to talk too much, but I’m afraid that you may get into trouble. I come here to remind you that they two cannot be together, for Anya has ruined herself. I suggest that Evan should get tested for AIDS.”

Mdm MacMillan spoke evil of Anya. Mdm Welton’s faced changed, and her eyes were full of shock and surprise.

Anya liked to fool around, and she also got AIDS?

This was too insane.

“I don’t know if you believe me or not, but I’m telling you the truth, for I’m also afraid that Evan would get infected. Moreover, Anya is an unfilial daughter. She refused to see her dad and even asked Evan to fire Sydney, a gentle girl who worked hard in the Welton Group. Now she was mad at Sydney just because of this.

“And Sydney was forced to quit her job,” said Mdm MacMillan.

She cried deliberately with emotion again. “You need to help me. Anya is evil. She bullies us from time to time with the support of the Welton Group. Don’t be fooled by her gentle appearance. She would even hurt Evan if she gets heartless.”

Mdm Welton noticed Mdm MacMillan’s crying and wiped her tears with a tissue. “Don’t cry. We are already old, and being too emotional is not good to our health.”

Then she began to ponder over what Mdm MacMillan said.

“I can’t help crying. She keeps asking Evan to bully us, and she even forces Sydney to kneel and beg her. Isn’t she too much? Sydney is her younger sister.” Mdm MacMillan cried sadly.

Hearing this, Mdm Welton frowned, “I’ll ask her to tell me the truth.”

If Anya was really such an immoral woman and had AIDS, she would not spare Anya.

She only had one grandchild.

If Evan was infected with AIDS, the Weltons would have no offspring.

She would never leave this matter alone.

“Thank you,” said Mdm MacMillan. She then sneered in her heart, and thought, “Anya will be doomed soon.”

After a while, it suddenly occurred to Mdm MacMillan about Evan’s injury. She then made up the evil deeds of Anya with exaggeration. “By the way, I don’t know if I should tell you another thing.”

“What is it?” Mdm Welton wanted to know.

“Evan’s foot was injured by a steel bar because of Anya, and now he is staying in hospital. They didn’t dare to tell you, right? It was caused by Anya. She asked Evan to go to a fashion show with her. As a result, he got injured. I heard that he might suffer from being crippled or what. You must go visit him.”

Hearing that, Mdm Welton was in great shock. She thought, “Evan was injured, and he kept it from me? He does not respect me anymore?”

The more she thought, the more frightened Mdm Welton was. The teacup in her hand fell and hit her feet. The frying fragments startled the butler, who hurriedly came over to check whether her feet were scratched.

It was fortunate that the fragments did not hurt Mdm Welton.

The butler then squatted to pick up the fragments first.

Mdm Welton was restless and took out her phone to call Evan.

She wanted to ask what had happened to him.

Chapter 416

Soon Evan answered the phone. Mdm Welton waited anxiously for her grandson to talk first. However, Evan thought Mdm Welton had known that he was in a hospital. He said softly, "Why do you suddenly call me, Granny?"

"Where are you now, bad boy?" Mdm Welton would rather let Evan tell her about his injuries than ask him directly.

Otherwise, she would be frustrated that she was the last one to know he was injured.

Was it because of Anya?

Mdm MacMillan even regretted letting Evan pursue Anya. After all, Evan got injured for her.

"I am working in the company. What happened?" Evan asked casually.

Mdm Welton didn't believe his words, "Are you lying? You are not in the company."

"Of course not." Evan frowned seriously. He could tell that Mdm Welton was a little angry..

Did she know that he got hurt? Who told her?

"Don't lie to me. I want to hear your confession, or I will be angry." Mdm Welton raised her voice and tried to threaten her grandson.

Evan was silent for a second and decided to confess. It seemed that Mdm Welton had already known what happened. It was useless for him to tell a lie.

"Well, Granny, I am in the hospital, but I am okay, and don't worry about me."

Evan was in the hospital! Mdm Welton became a little angry about him. "Why didn't you tell me that you were injured? Which hospital are you in? I will go to visit you soon."

"I am in the private hospital of Welton Group." Evan felt worried.

However, he had to tell her because he was afraid that she would make trouble for him.

"Fine, I will be there soon." Mdm Welton hung up with a sullen look.

What Mdm MacMillan told her was true.

"Are you going to see Evan?" Mdm MacMillan heard what they talked about on the phone but she asked again.

Mdm Welton nodded.

"Then it's time for me to go." Mdm MacMillan stood up and took a piece of paper, on which was the printed online news. She handed it over to Mdm Welton and said, "I told you the truth and I hope you can help me, Mdm Welton. We cannot be humiliated by Anya or beg her."

Mdm Welton took the paper and glanced at it. She put on a serious face and said to Mdm MacMillan, "Don't worry, Mdm MacMillan."

"Thanks for your help. I should go now." Mdm MacMillan left.

Mdm Welton took the paper and found the news on it was all about what Anya did in the past and how Anya discarded her parents.

According to the news, Anya did not live a chaste life. She had slept with many men and now was dating Evan, Mdm Welton's beloved grandson. Mdm Welton felt that she had been wrong about Anya. Such a dissolute girl shouldn't be with Evan.

Mdm Welton became angrier while she was reading the news. She even wanted to tear the paper into pieces.

However, she finally calmed down and said to the housekeeper, "I will go to the private hospital of Welton Group. Arrange a car for me."

The housekeeper went to arrange a car for her.

Chapter 417

In a private hospital.

Evan hung up the phone and frowned. He could not get out of the bed if Mdm Welton came over.

Mdm Welton would make him stay in bed all the time.

No!

But he couldn't just kick her out.

Evan looked at Anya who was sorting out his materials and said, "Anya, you don't need to do this. Leave them to the assistant."

Even though he was in the hospital, but he couldn't leave behind the company.

So his assistant brought all the materials.

Anya was willing to help him sort out his files because she wanted to do something to make up for him. After finishing it, she replied, "It's not hard work. I can do it."

“Do you want to drink some water? What about a cup of water?” Anya stopped what she was doing and asked him.

“Yes.” Evan nodded and looked at her lovingly.

When Anya was pouring a cup of water for him, Evan said, “My grandma will come later.”

Hearing that Mdm Welton was coming over, Anya was a little nervous. She looked at him worriedly and said, “Will she be angry with me? All of this was because of me.”

Evan didn’t think so. He got injured because he wanted to save others. How could anyone blame her? He believed that his grandma was not that unreasonable. She couldn’t possibly blame her. He comforted her, “Don’t worry. She is very reasonable.””

“But I am still afraid that she might get mad at me.” Normally Mdm Welton would be kind to her, but t time Evan got hurt. Anya was not sure that Mdm Welton would not blame her.

“It’s okay. I’m here.” Evan wanted to squeeze her soft face so that she could relax.

The Weltons were not that frightening.

Anya looked at him and nodded. But deep inside she was still worried.

“Come here.” Evan reached out to her and signaled her to come over.

Anya was going to come to him with a cup of water in her hands when the door opened. Mdm Welton. rushed in, her expression worried and anxious.

She saw Anya with a cup of water and also Evan who lay on the bed with his one foot bandaged.

Thinking of what Mdm MacMillan had told her, Mdm Welton lost her temper immediately. She stormed towards Anya and slapped her hard without any warning.

Anya almost fell. The cup in her hand also hit the ground with a bang. The hot water spilled out instantly and splashed on her skin, making her cry out painfully.

Evan got out of the bed without hesitation though his foot was hurt. He came to Anya's side and asked, "Grandma, why did you slap her?"

"Evan, I regret encouraging you to chase her. She is a bitch and she got you hurt. I won't allow you two to be together. You let her get out or I'll see to it!" Mdm Welton looked at Anya spitefully.

All she thought about was that Anya was a bitch and that she got AIDS.

She just wanted this bitch to stay away from her grandson.

"Grandma, what are you talking about? How come she is a bitch?" Evan asked with a low voice, "Did someone told you something?"

"Just tell me was she kicked out because she screwed around?" Mdm Welton asked him angrily.

She was controlled by her anger.

"You'd better take a test for AIDS."

Hearing this, Evan's face darkened. Anya also pulled a long face.

Did Mdm Welton think that she had AIDS? It was so insulting. She had never been insulted like this in her life!

Anya pushed Evan away and said, "You guys talk. I should go." She took her bag and went out.

Evan wanted to run after her but he was stopped by Mdm Welton, "Don't you dare run after her!"

Chapter 418

Mdm Welton's shift of attitude made Evan frown but he didn't want to argue with her. He asked calmly "Grandma, did someone say something to you?"

Mdm Welton asked angrily, "You don't need to know about that. I'm asking you. Was Anya unfaithful?"

Unfaithful?

Evan didn't want to say it was his responsibility. After all, he was the one who had taken her virginity and he had been sleeping with her.

Evan answered, "No, she's been faithful to me. Don't believe the rumors."

Mdm Welton didn't believe him. She snorted and said, "I regret that I approved this relationship. I shouldn't have pushed you to get a girlfriend. Who could have thought something like this would happen?"

She continued, "And how's your leg? Will it be okay?" She then bent over to look at his leg. She was busy asking about Anya and forgot about his leg.

What if his leg wouldn't get better? Then what could she say to his parents and the relatives and friend of the Welton family?

Evan said, "It's nothing. I can walk normally again after a few days." That injury was nothing to him.

There was no need for a fuss over it..

Mdm Welton pulled him to the bed and said, "Stop standing there. Go get some rest. You just had surgery. What if your wound opens up and gets infected?"

Evan didn't move but said, "Grandma, let me say it one more time. Anya is not the girl you heard about in the rumo Do you think I can't investigate that myself? I wouldn't be with her if that's true."

Mdm Welton frowned and said, "Why are you still defending her? Why has she done with you? Why would you choose her?"

Evan said with a smile, "I think she's perfect. We get along well with each other."

Mdm Welton thought, "They get along? I need to stop this." She frowned even harder and said, "Evan, don't be silly. People are all talking about her. We can't just ignore that."

Chapter 419

"Is it true?" Mdm Welton asked. She touched her hand, which had just hit Anya. She thought, "I was so stupid. How could I hit just because I heard some rumors?"

Evan said resignedly, "Of course, it's true. How can I lie about something I did?"

Mdm Welton took a deep breath and then said in remorse, "Evan, I'm sorry I hit Anya. I was so stupid. I regret it."

"It's okay. You were misled and angry," Evan comforted her, "I'll explain to her. She'll understand. Don't worry."

Mdm Welton shook her and said in remorse, "No. I hit her. That was wrong. Call her and ask her to come back, Evan. I want to apologize to her."

Evan took out his phone and was ready to call Anya but before he dialed the number, Mdm Welton realized something, stopped him, and said, "Evan, wait. Let me do it. I was in the wrong. I should do it."

Evan said, "Yeah." He thought Mdm Welton should do it herself as well.

Therefore he put away his phone.

They sat on the couch. Mdm Welton took out her phone and started to call Anya.

But Anya didn't pick up. It was not that she didn't want to but that she was in bad mood and she didn't feel her phone buzzing in her purse when she left the hospital.

She was sitting on a bench outside the hospital. She looked up at the sky and started to think about what she should do in the future.

At the same time, Mdm Welton got worried when the call was not picked up. After her first attempt, she said, "Evan, have someone find her. I know I've misjudged her. I need to apologize to her today."

Seeing that she was so anxious about it, Evan couldn't help but laugh. Trying to comfort her, he said, "Don't worry. I'll get someone to find her."

Blaming herself, Mdm Welton sighed and said, now Ca

her away.

Evan smiled again and then took out his phone to arrange for someone to find Anya.

When that was done, Mdm Welton was still beating herself so she started calling Anya again.

And she picked up this time. The second Anya picked up, Mdm Welton said excitedly, "Where are you, Anya?"

Anya was sitting on the bench. She didn't know whether Mdm Welton called to apologize or to yell at her again, so she asked anxiously, "Hi, Mrs. Welton. What can I do for you?"

Anya had decided that she would leave if Mdm Welton asked her to.

She wouldn't even need to wait for Evan's mom to send her off that way.

But she could feel that she had feelings for Evan from her racing heartbeat.

She might have been hurt and disappointed because of the incident last time but she had recovered from that.

She fell in love with Evan again just like when she was little..

She fell head over heels for him again.

Mdm Welton said worriedly, "Nothing much, Anya. It's just... Can you come back to the ward? I have something to tell." She didn't want to apologize over the phone.

That wouldn't sincere. It had to be in person.

Anya was confused. Why would Mdm Welton want her to come back?

To humiliate her more?

Chapter 420

“Mrs. Welton, don’t worry. I no longer come to bother Evan, so you don’t have to worry about anything. won’t come back,” Anya said. She prepared to hang out.

Mdm Welton hurriedly said, “Anya, you must come back since I have something important to tell you.”

On the phone, Mdm Welton changed her attitude suddenly. Anya hesitated, thinking about how she could be suppressed by the Weltons if she didn’t show up.

She had no idea about this. So she took a deep breath and said, “I got it, Mrs. Welton.”

The call ended.

Mdm Welton hung up. She thought she had to apologize to Anya as long as she came back.

After answering this call, Anya left as soon as she finished speaking on the roadside. She stood up and took her bap return to the high-end ward of the private hospital.

She came in after knocking on the door.

Mdm Welton walked to her when she saw Anya coming in. Mdm Welton took Anya’s hand, bowing her head to admit her mistake immediately. “Anya, I am so sorry. I shouldn’t beat you.

“Anya, please don’t be mad or leave Evan. It’s all my fault if you are unhappy.”

Mdm Welton was so sincere. Her attitude made Anya startled. Anya wondered,
