Chapter 441

“Seek justice for me?” Anya was confused.

Anya was satisfied that the MacMillan Group had gone bankrupt in the end.

However, when Evan was determined to stand up for her, Anya didn't stop him.

Anya quietly sat on the couch, waiting for Cornelius to come over.

When Sydney rushed to the CEO's office, she saw Cornelius, his forehead bruised, and his face pale, supported by others.

Instantly, Sydney was stunned. She ran to Cornelius to hold his hand. “Dad, what happened?”

Cornelius glanced at Sydney and gently said, “Sydney, I'm fine. Let's go to Mr. Welton right now.”

Sydney doubted, “Dad, is it about Anya?” Cornelius couldn't walk by himself. There should be something wrong.”

“Don't talk about that now. Let's go to the CEO's office first.” Cornelius didn't want to waste time on this petty thing. Saving the MacMillan Group was the top priority for him.

Hearing that, Sydney stopped asking anything.

At that moment, Anya drunk coffee, sitting on the couch, acting as a hostess in the office. When Sydney saw Anya, she instantly got jealous, clenching her fist.

Meanwhile, Cornelius was mad silently because Evan was there.

He didn't dare to offend Evan.

Sydney and Cornelius stood there in this big and luxurious office.

At that moment, Evan lazily leaned against the armchair. He said with disdain, "Mr. MacMillan, I never welcome anyone who makes a scene in the Welton Group.

However, you just made a scene mere, which negouvely alicuiSU VIS NICIUN MILITE

it?"

Evan casually said those words in a threatening way. He warned Cornelius not to make a scene here. Hearing that, Cornelius put on a long face and tried to suppress his anger.

Cornelius flatteringly said, "Mr. Welton, it was a misunderstanding. I'm sorry."

"You don't need to apologize to me." Evan said in a faint voice, twirling a pen around his fingers. "You should apologize to Ms. MacMillan."

At that moment, Cornelius' face turned ugly. However, according to the current situation, Cornelius had to suppress his anger and came to Anya. "Anya, I'm sorry. I was too impulsive just now. Don't be mad."

"Mr. MacMillan, that's it? Don't you kneel?" Evan continued.

Cornelius was irritated, shaking with anger. However, he tried to calm down and said, "I'm her father. It's inappropriate to do that."

Anya didn't need Cornelius to do that. She said to Evan, "Evan, he doesn't have to kneel. I can't take it."

However, Evan wouldn't let Cornelius off. He glanced at Sydney and said, "In that case, Sydney can do that on behalf of Mr. MacMillan."

Hearing that, Sydney was astonished, her eyes dull. Anya drove Cornelius and Sydney into a corner with the help of Evan.

Sydney thought, "Anya, you bitch. Go to hell."

Sydney bit her lower lip, motionless. Instantly, Evan impatiently said, "If you don't do that, you should get out of here right now. If you dare to come to the Welton Group again, I'll directly throw you into jail."

Evan looked serious.

Hearing that, Cornelius promptly forced Sydney to kneel in front of Anya.

After that, Sydney said, gnashing her teeth, "Anya, I'm sorry."

"Get out of here," Anya said without looking at Sydney.

Sydney felt humiliated, clenching her fist. However, when she stood up, Sydney suddenly leaned over and said, "Anya, I'm telling you. Evan's mom will return home today."

Chapter 442

Sydney complacently looked at Anya: She expected that Anya would have a hard time soon.

She thought, "Doesn't Anya know about Evan's family? Does she expect that Evan will love her forever?"

Sydney coldly glanced at Anya. At that moment, Sydney wasn't flustered or angry anymore. Instead, she suddenly felt relaxed.

However, Cornelius was upset. He wondered if Evan could let him off this time.

Therefore, Cornelius was in no mood to comfort Sydney. He came to Evan and said, "Mr. Welton, Sydney has kneeled in front of Anya, so can you not purchase my company?"

Evan sneered and said in a husky voice, "It will depend on Anya. If she has no problem, I'll let you off."

Instantly, Cornelius's face darkened again. Cornelius said in a low voice, "Mr. Welton, do you mean we need to please Anya?"

"You need to ask Anya." Evan hated talking to Cornelius.

Evan thought it beneath his dignity to speak to Cornelius.

Cornelius didn't care about his daughter at all. What was worse, he even hurt his daughter. How could Evan be willing to have any contact with him?

Cornelius was a bastard.

Hearing that, Cornelius looked at Evan and Anya. He was reluctant to flatter Anya. Unfortunately, according to the current situation, he had to give in.

After a short hesitation, Cornelius came to Anya and humbly said, "Anya, I'll do what you say in the future. Please don't purchase the MacMillan Group."

After those words, Cornelius looked at Anya beseechingly.

Anya glanced at Cornelius!

Admittedly, Cornelius was Anya's father. Anya and Cornelius were related by blood. However, Anya was heartbroken at the thought of her mother's death.

In Anya's eyes, Cornelius was unworthy of being her father, or her forgiveness.

Hearing that, Anya casually said, "Dad, why didn't you help my mom? If my mom hadn't died, nothing would have happened.

"You're a despicable and shameless man."

When Anya mercilessly scolded Cornelius, Cornelius clenched his fist in silence. For the sake of the MacMillan Group, he had to stand it. "Anya, I'm sorry."

"I don't need your apology. Get out of here." Anya looked away from him.

"Anya, please don't be like that." Cornelius couldn't leave, for he needed to save his company.

"Mr. MacMillan, you have to leave now." Anya didn't want to talk to Cornelius anymore, so Evan warned in a low voice, "If you don't leave, I have to drive you away."

Hearing that, Cornelius gnashed his teeth silently. It was inappropriate for him to be kicked out of here. Therefore, he tried to steady himself and left with Sydney.

Anyhow, Cornelius couldn't give up his company. Meanwhile, he would remember what he suffered today.

It was not over yet.

Chapter 443

After Cornelius and Sydney walked out of Evan's office, Cornelius's gloomy expression softened and said, "It seems that we have to ask the Browns for help."

The Brown family was the Welton family's business rival.

Cornelius had to turn to Shane for help. Meanwhile, he needed to pay for that accordingly.

After all, the Browns never stood to lose without reason.

"Dad, will the Browns help us?" Sydney heard that Shane was malicious but exceptionally vigorous in work. Therefore, the Brown family was nouveau riche, but its business had been going well.

However, nobody knew if Shane would help the MacMillan Group.

"Yes, they will. Shane has always wanted our secret recipe." The MacMillan Group did a cosmetics business and had a unique cosmetics recipe.

It seemed that Cornelius had to give Shane the secret recipe for the sake of the MacMillan Group.

“Can you give it to Shane?” Sydney was astonished. After all, the secret recipe was handed down from Sydney’s departed grandfather.

Meanwhile, the cosmetics recipe was a family heirloom. If the Browns got it, how could the MacMillan family make a comeback?

“Otherwise, do you have any good idea?” Cornelius sighed.

Sydney didn’t know what to do. However, when Gina would return home today, Anya couldn’t be so arrogant. Sydney said, “Daddy, don’t worry. Anya will have a hard time soon when Gina returns home.”

Cornelius nodded. “Let’s go home now. We’ll discuss it later.”

Sydney and Cornelius came back to the MacMillan’s in the end. Evan wanted to flirt with Anya in the office, but Anya refused him, for she had design work to do.

Anya wanted to go back to JK Couture, for she was in no mood to do anything with Evan.

That was because Gina would return home.

When arriving at the JK Couture’s floor, Anya didn’t walk into the company but stand in front of a floor-to-ceiling window, looking at the traffic through the window. She was thinking about Sydney’s words.

Gina would come back home today.

When Gina came back, Anya couldn’t be with Evan anymore.

In that case, what were the kids supposed to do?

Anya was the most worried about her children. She could bear to leave Evan, but she can't live without children. What was more, Anya couldn't imagine her children had a stepmother.

Therefore, what was she supposed to do?

Anya looked out of the window, lost in thought. Anyhow, she had to figure out how to stay with her children.

The plane from Auspear to Nordeny finally landed at the airport at half past seven at night.

When Gina and Shyla arrived, Gina called Evan immediately.

Gina didn't tell anyone that she returned home today.

She expected to see how Evan would react when she saw him.

Evan quickly answered Gina's call. It never occurred to him that Gina had returned home. Evan said in a relaxed tone, "Mom, why are you calling me now?"

Gina said with a smile, "I call you because I miss you now."

"Tell me, what's the matter?" Evan said, smiling.

Gina never called Evan without reason.

"Pick me up at the airport. I've returned home," Gina gently said, smiling.

Hearing that, Evan suddenly didn't know what to say. After a while, Evan jokingly said, with a serious look on his face, "Mom, you startle me."

"What's the fuss about? I miss my son," Gina said.

Evan replied in a deep voice, "Okay, I'll be there soon."

Chapter 444

The airport waiting hall was brightly lit up.

Shyla had a rest in the airport lounge. After Gina hung up the phone, she smiled at Shyla and said, "Shyla, would you like some coffee?"

Shyla was exhausted after a long flight. She also needed coffee to refresh herself. Therefore, Shyla said, "Yes, I'd like to. I want to refresh myself."

"Let's go to a coffee shop." Gina took Shyla's arm and gently said, "Evan will pick us up later."

When Gina mentioned Evan, Shyla blushed, blinking her eyes expectantly.

Shyla met Evan two years ago at a party. At that time, Evan was a handsome and tall man.

Evan attracted everyone's attention at the party.

Shyla wondered if Evan became more charming two years later.

Shyla felt shy at the thought of Evan's good-looking face. At that moment, Gina knew Shyla was thinking about Evan..

Instantly; Gina warned, smiling, “Shyla, don’t forget the gift for Evan.”

Shyla nodded. “Don’t worry. I’ve already got that. However, I’m not sure if Evan likes my gift.”

Gina touched Shyla’s long hair and said, “Evan must like it.”

Shyla felt relieved to hear that.

After Gina and Shyla bought coffee, they came back to the lounge and had a rest there for a while. Later on, Evan arrived at the airport.

However, Evan didn’t get off. He asked his bodyguard to find Gina and Shyla.

luggage away.

Gina sat in the passenger seat, for she wanted Shyla to sit in the back seat with Evan.

Evan was unwilling to sit beside Shyla. After all, Evan had been with Anya. Therefore, other women couldn’t be close to him. However, for the sake of the relations with Shyla’s family, Evan had to stand it.

Later on, they drove away.

Gina said with an elegant air, “Evan, Shyla decides to develop her career at home. You’re well-connected here, so you should help Shyla.”

Evan said faintly, “What does she want to do?”

“Costume design and playing piano.” Gina proudly said, “Shyla is not only a famous designer but a piano master.”

“In that case, I can’t get her any good position,” Evan said casually.

At that moment, Shyla was upset when Evan treated her indifferently.

Shyla thought Evan should have a feeling for her. After all, she was a beautiful woman from a good family. Unexpectedly, Evan even didn’t look at Shyla on the way.

Suddenly, Shyla felt unhappy.

However, she wouldn’t give up pursuing Evan. When Shyla got into the car, she was attracted to Evan who was more sophisticated and charming two years later.

Shyla thought Evan radiated an attractive aura.

Shyla gently said, her heart pounding, “Evan, I don’t mind starting from scratch at home.”

“Shyla is a sweet and clever girl,” Gina cut in. “Evan, our company has purchased JK Couture. Why not get Shyla a job there? You have to help Shyla because I’ve promised to look after Shyla.”

Hearing that, Evan didn’t know how to contradict Gina. He squinted, thinking it over for a while, and then said, “Okay.”

Chapter 445

Evan planned to go to Anya after sending Gina to Mdm Welton’s house. However, Gina tried to stop Evan from leaving, for Gina hadn’t seen him for a long time and wanted to chat with him.

Gina didn’t allow Evan to leave.

In that case, Evan had to stay overnight at Mdm Welton's house.

As for Shyla, she also stayed there.

Mdm Welton knew Gina allowed Shyla to live here. However, nobody explained what the relationship was between Shyla and Evan. Mdm Welton couldn't directly drive Shyla away.

After all, Shyla's family kept on good terms with the Welton family.

Therefore, Mdm Welton didn't prevent Shyla from living here.

When Shyla and Gina unpacked upstairs, Mdm Welton immediately pulled Evan to the dining room to talk about it.

Evan got a glass of water to drink.

Mdm Welton came to Evan and said, "Do you know why your mom brought Shyla here?"

"I know," Evan casually said after drinking some water,

"You know that? What will you do?" Mdm Welton got anxious, but Evan still stayed calm. "I have to warn you that Anya has borne two kids for you."

Mdm Welton had regarded Anya as Evan's wife.

Nobody could replace Anya's place.

Evan replied, "I'll handle it."

"What are you supposed to do?" Mdm Welton was curious. "Do you want to be frank with your mom?

You should know about your mom. If you go against her will, she will teach you a lesson." Mdm Welton knew Gina very well.

After all, as a famous actress, Gina was a popular star.

Gina was a tough woman.

Although Gina respected Mdm Welton, Gina wouldn't follow her advice over some issues. Admittedly, Gina was an independent-minded woman.

Therefore, Mdm Welton worried that Gina would make a scene if she found Anya's existence.

"Grandma, don't worry. I'll take care of it." Evan didn't think it difficult to solve this problem. It was a thorny problem for the time being, but Evan could handle it.

Anyhow, Gina couldn't force Evan to marry other women.

What was more, nobody was allowed to meddle in his affairs.

"I hope you can take action soon. Anyway, just tell me if you need any help." Mdm Welton stopped asking.

Evan nodded. "You don't need to mention Anya to my mom. I'll tell her personally."

Mdm Welton said, "Don't worry. I know what to do."

Evan smiled and continued to drink water.

Gina asked a servant to unpack her stuff in her bedroom. Gina took her phone to the balcony and called her assistant.

"Slade, you help me get all information about Anya from the MacMillan family."

Slade said, "Mrs. Welton, do you need it now?"

Gina said, "Yes, right now. Can you finish it within ten minutes?" Gina believed that Slade could make it.

It was not hard to figure out all information of an ordinary person.

Slade replied, "Mrs. Welton, don't worry. I'll send it to you in ten minutes."

"Good, I gotta go," Gina said in a satisfied tone.

When Gina hung up her phone, Slade started to do her job.

However, Slade underestimated Evan.

When Slade worked on it, Evan had arranged for someone to hack into her computer system. As a result, Slade got revised fake information about Anya.

Chapter 446

Slade got all the fake information ten minutes later and faxed it to Gina immediately.

Gina started the fax machine to receive Slade's material."

Gina got three pages in total. Slade got detailed information, including Anya's birthdate, sign, hobby, job, etc.

Unexpectedly, Gina knew the information was fake.

When looking through the first page, Gina found questionable points.

According to the fake information, Anya was a thirty-year-old unmarried woman. She was a property salesperson and lived in an old apartment. In a word, Anya was an ordinary woman.

Gina felt that Anya was not like what Sydney said to her based on Anya's age and appearance.

Although Gina never met Anya before, Anya should be in her early twenties like Sydney.

How could Anya be thirty years old?

Did Slade lie to Gina?

However, Slade was a reliable private assistant, so she couldn't lie to Gina. What was going on? As a result, Gina gave up looking through the remaining two pages.

Gina directly scrunched up pages and threw them into the trash can. She called Slade again.

Slade promptly answered the call.

Slade said with a smile, "Mrs. Welton, have you you received my information?"

Gina tried to suppress her anger and asked in a low voice, "Are you out of your mind? My son is only twenty-eight. How is it possible that Evan likes an ordinary thirty-year-old woman?"

"Did you seriously do it? It seems that your working ability is not better than before."

Gina started to speak in an angry tone.

Slade was startled. She said, crossing her hands on her chest, "Mrs. Welton, not like that. I promise that I do my job seriously."

"I don't want to hear any excuse. You got me wrong information," Gina calmly said, rubbing her eyelids.

"Mrs. Welton, I'll redo it right now. I won't make a mistake again," Slade swore, holding her breath.

"That's not necessary. You can get information from Sydney." Gina figured out that someone hacked into Slade's computer system.

Probably the whole hacking thing would happen again.

However, who dare do that?

Only Evan dared to do that. When Gina asked Evan to pick her up today, Evan should know what her purpose was. However, Evan loved Anya, so he could do anything for her.

It turned out Anya was not easy to handle.

It seemed that Anya could control Evan.

When hanging up the phone, Gina frowned deeply. In any case, Anya must stay away from Evan.

Otherwise, Anya would bring trouble to the Welton family.

However, Gina couldn't handle Anya in public. She knew about her son. Evan was passionately in love with Anya. If Gina dared to hurt Anya, Evan wouldn't forgive her.

What was more, Evan was in charge of the Welton Group and did well in business. Therefore, Evan couldn't put himself at the mercy of Gina..

In that case, Gina had to take action secretly.

At the thought of this, Gina suddenly felt relieved. She called her trustworthy bodyguard and asked him to spy on Anya.

After that, Gina started to wash up and have a rest in her bedroom.

Chapter 447

Anya came back to the mansion after work.

She felt kind of upset. Sydney told her that Gina would return home today. What was Anya supposed to do?

Should Anya actively take action or passively wait for Gina? Anyhow, Anya must be with her kids.

Anya was lost in thought. At that moment, when Ellie was feeding the kids, she found that Anya looked gloomy. Ellie came to Anya and asked, "Anya, what happened to you? Are you alright?"

“I’m fine.”

Anya glanced at Ellie with a forced smile on her face.

“Really? Are you sure?” Ellie doubted. It seemed that something was weighing on Anya’s mind.

“Yes, I’m sure. By the way, I’ll talk to Cindy later. Can you help me take care of the kids?” Anya said.

Ellie suddenly realized Evan hadn’t come back yet. She couldn’t help asking, “Why hasn’t Evan come back? Is he on a business trip?”

“No, he will stay overnight at Mdm Welton’s house,” Anya said when changing her shoes.

The kids saw Anya going out again.

They ran to hold Anya and didn’t want her to leave.

Nathaniel held Anya’s arm and angrily said, “Mommy goes out...”

Eudora whined, “Mommy...”

At that moment, Anya touched the kids’ heads and gently said, “Nathaniel and Eudora, I’m going out to do something. I’ll be right back.

“Can you two be good?”

Nathaniel shook his head and insisted, “No, I can’t. I want to stay with mommy.”

Anya had to work every day, so she only could take care of her kids at night.

The kids hoped to stay with Anya all day long.

Therefore, the kids were clingy and followed Anya wherever she went.

“Nathaniel, can you be good? As a brother, you should set a good example for Eudora. I’m in the middle of something else, so I can’t accompany you two tonight.”

Nathaniel still couldn’t let Anya go. At this moment, Ellie held Nathaniel and Eudora back. “Anya, don’t worry. I’ll take care of the kids.”

Anya nodded and then quickly left.

When Anya walked out of the mansion, she looked back at her kids standing at the door. Anya wondered when she could take her kids out without scruple.

Anya had to hide her kids from the public, so the kids couldn’t play outside.

She felt sad at the thought.

However, Anya could be free unless Evan gave up her and the kids.

Anya recovered from sadness and then called Cindy.

At this moment, Cindy was doing her work outside. When she received a call from Anya, she put her work aside and decided to pick Anya up.

Later on, Anya and Cindy went for a drive along the inner-ring road and then stopped somewhere. Cindy got a glimpse of Anya and sighed, "Anya, don't be sad. Perhaps things aren't as bad as you might expect."

It was said that Gina had returned home.

After all, news traveled fast in high-society circles.

What was more, Gina brought Shyla back home. Moreover, Shyla was from a good family.

Gina wanted to set Evan up with Shyla.

However, outsiders, except Cindy, didn't know Evan was going out with Anya.

In that case, what should Anya do?

Anya didn't feel sad that Evan would have a new girlfriend. When she decided to be with Evan, Anya had already thought about that.

Even if Anya fell in love with Evan, she still tried to stay rational.

Therefore, she wouldn't badger Evan. However, she worried about her kids. "I don't feel sad. However, I'm worried about my kids."

Chapter 448

"I don't have any good idea about the kids. How about asking Jamie for advice?" Cindy was an unmarried woman. How could she know about the kids?

At that moment, she thought of Jamie first.

After all, Jamie was an elite and well-informed lawyer. Probably he should figure out good ways.

“I can’t do that. How can I bother Jamie with my private affairs? What’s more, I can’t tell him about my kids.”

Hearing that, Cindy suddenly patted her forehead and apologetically said, “Sorry, I was too anxious to forget that.”

“I’ll try to think of ways.” Anya hadn’t figured out any good idea in this period.

“Okay.” In any case, Cindy would always support Anya.

“Anya, if there’s anything I can do you, please let me know.”

Anya looked at Cindy and gratefully said, “Thank you, Cindy.”

Not at all.” Suddenly, somebody rear-ended Cindy with a bang.

Instantly, the two cars burned up the road.

At that moment, Cindy tried to steady the steering wheel. However, a stranger closely followed behind to hit the back of Cindy’s car until Cindy was forced to stop at a blind zone of the surveillance video.

Cindy and Anya were in shock. The car behind Cindy also quickly stopped. After that, someone slammed the door with a bang.

When Cindy and Anya didn't figure out what was going on, the car door opened suddenly.

Anya looked outside, and a strong and tall man directly pulled Anya out of the car. At that moment, when Anya was about to ask what was going on, the man knocked Anya out immediately.

In a second, Anya blacked out in the end.

After that, the man carried Anya to his car.

Cindy finally recovered from shock after Anya was gone. She hurriedly stopped the man. "Who are you? How dare you kidnap a person in Norden without scruple?"

Cindy promptly cried out, "Help. Somebody help..."

Unfortunately, nobody came to rescue her. Another man carried Cindy to her car and knocked her out.

Instantly, Cindy was knocked unconscious.

After half an hour, Cindy finally recovered consciousness. However, Anya had disappeared. There was nobody around Cindy's car except the people and traffic on the street.

Cindy was frightened. Had Anya been kidnapped?

However, who did that?

Cindy had no clue. In that case, she instantly called the police. After that, she thought of Evan. Only Evan could figure out who did this.

Therefore, Cindy called Evan immediately.

At that moment, Evan was taking a bath.

Unfortunately, Evan didn't promptly answer the emergency call, for Evan left his phone on the table in his bedroom.

Shyla came into Evan's bedroom, holding a glass of hot milk in her hands. At that moment, she saw Evan's phone vibrating.

Shyla subconsciously picked the phone up and looked at it.

Chapter 449

A female name, Cindy, was displayed on the phone screen.

Shyla tried to remember who Cindy was.

Actually, she knew a woman called Cindy in high-society circles.

Shyla wondered,

At the thought of this, Shyla felt upset immediately. She directly hung up the phone and deleted call records when Evan was taking a bath.

After that, she sat on the couch, waiting for Evan.

However, Cindy couldn't figure out why Evan suddenly hung up.

Evan should know Cindy was Anya's best friend.

Was it a bad time to call Evan?

Cindy guessed that Evan refused to answer the call because Gina was with him at that moment.

Therefore, Cindy continued to try calling Evan. However, the phone was hung up again. Cindy gave up phoning in the end. After all, she couldn't waste time calling anymore.

Anya was kidnapped by strangers. Sadly, nobody knew who did that.

What if something wrong happened to Anya?

Cindy worried that Anya would have an accident. She had to ask Jamie for help.

Jamie was available. He immediately drove over from his law firm after knowing about what happened to Anya and Cindy.

When he arrived, the police were already there, asking Cindy for information.

Jamie came to Cindy with a stride. "Cindy, who kidnapped Anya?"

Cindy shook her head. "I don't know. I don't know them. I was in a panic and didn't see the plate number."

That was too bad.

"What did the police say?" Jamie worriedly asked, frowning.

In fact, Jamie also liked Anya. He didn't want Anya to have an accident.

"The police will know what to do next after checking the surveillance video," Cindy said, her eyes red. She said in a broken voice, "Jamie, what should I do? If Anya has an accident, I won't forgive myself."

Although Anya asked Cindy out, Cindy drove the car.

Therefore, Cindy blamed herself after Anya was kidnapped.

"Don't cry." Jamie comforted Cindy, patting her on the shoulder. "Don't blame yourself too hard. The point is we need to know how to find Anya."

Jamie continued, "It doesn't help to blame anyone."

After Cindy tried to recover from sadness and calmed herself down, Cindy and Jamie went to the police station with the police.

If possible, kidnappers should call and demand a ransom.

What was more, Cindy could try to recall more details in the police station, which would help find Anya.

Meanwhile, Jamie started to call his friends and asked for help.

Unfortunately, an hour later, the police didn't find any information except the car brands.

Cindy started to cry again.

Jamie continued to comfort her.

Anya was brought to a remote suburb. She finally came to her senses and found herself being tied up int a dark room..

Chapter 450

It was a dark room. The sporadic moonlight poured in through the window. However, the room was still terribly dark.

It seemed that the room was empty for a long time, with terrible smells in the air.

The unpleasant smells disgusted Anya. Anya struggled to wriggle herself free when being tied up in this strange and dark environment.

Unfortunately, Anya failed to do. What was worse, she was tied up more tightly. After that, she didn't dare to move anymore.

Anya couldn't call for help with her mouth taped shut.

She had to try to calm herself down and figure out how to escape.

However, who was behind this kidnap?

Was it Sydney or Gina?

At present, only Sydney and Gina were hostile to Anya. It seemed that Sydney and Gina were determined to kill her.

After thinking for a while, Anya decided to escape first. She slowly stood up and moved to the window to look outside.

Anya struggled to stand up and jump to the window, looking outside through the space between the slats.

It was dark outside.

She found that the light came from the next house.

Anya tried to look outside, but she couldn't see anything in the next house.

After that, she had to think of other ways.

Anya was in danger, while Evan was staying with another woman.

Evan walked out of the bathroom, wearing a black robe. Evan's strong and sexy chest and abdominal muscles appeared, displaying masculine charm.

At that moment, Shyla instantly flushed, her heart pounding, and looked away.

As expected, Evan was more attractive and sophisticated. No wonder the women in high-society circles were eager to marry Evan.

Shyla was attracted to him..

However, when Evan saw Shyla in his bedroom, he suddenly sullenly said, frowning, "What are you doing here?"

Evan sounded a bit mad.

Shyla hurriedly stood up, handed Evan a glass of hot milk, and said flatteringly, "I get you some hot milk. It's good for your sleep."

"Thank you. Please leave now if there's nothing else," Evan coldly said.

Hearing that, Shyla felt kind of embarrassed.

Shyla blushed, biting her lower lip, and said, "Evan, I'll leave right now. Please don't forget to drink the milk," Shyla blandly suggested.

However, Evan didn't want to drink the milk. What was more, he tried to keep away from Shyla. Anya was Evan's girlfriend. Therefore, Evan didn't allow other women to be close to him.

When Shyla walked closer to Evan, Evan promptly reached out his hand to stop her.

Suddenly, the glass in Shyla's hands fell on the ground, broken into pieces.

When Shyla was startled and got a glimpse of Evan, she made up her mind to get Evan.

Therefore, she sprained her ankle on purpose and stepped on the broken glass.
