Chapter 481

Sydney didn't know what Zachary had meant. Why did he ask her to get ready? Get ready for what? What made him retreat?

Wasn't he going to take Anya to his villa?

Sydney wanted to know what Zachary was going to do, so she pushed open the door and got off the car. Once she stood on the ground, she saw several men in black surrounding Zachary. And the coward, Zachary was kneeling, begging for the men's mercy. "Please let me go! I didn't mean to do that! Someone forced me!

"Yeah... Sydney... She bewitched me!"

Zachary passed the buck to Sydney. What a coward! As Sydney saw this, she clenched her fist tightly and regretted making him her ally.

At this moment, he falsely accused her critic!

What a disgusting man!

Sydney glared at Zachary, while Anya got out of the car and went to the bodyguards. At the sight of Anya, the bodyguards bowed their heads as a greeting. Apparently, they had admitted her as their boss' official girlfriend.

"Ms. MacMillan, how should we deal with these people?"

"Call the police. I don't want you to break the law because of these dirty guys. It's not worth it." Anya's tone was flat.

At the sound of the “police“, Zachary crawled to Anya’s feet and begged. “Anya, it’s Sydney who asked me to do that! It’s her plan! It has nothing to do with. me!”

“Both of you will explain it in the police station.” Anya pushed him away and refused to listen to him.

Startled, Zachary trembled in fear. How could he go to the police station? By then, he would shame the Marshall family. If it was known his father, all of his credit cards would be frozen!

It was not worth it!

“Anya, forgive me! Please! I won’t plot against you again!”

Anya was unwilling to listen to him. She just wanted to know whether Evan had come, so she walked to the bodyguards’ side and looked around. But she didn’t see Evan.

She felt lost.

On the other side, to protect her, Evan didn’t come. But he knew what had happened, so he texted her, [Anya, I can’t be with you now, for someone might be aware of my presence and break my following plan. But don’t be angry. My subordinates will protect you on behalf of me.]

It was a plain explanation, but Anya understood what he meant. She was touched, tears gradually welling up in her eyes. She replied, [Okay, I’m not angry.]

Evan texted, [When I catch that mystery man, I will make our relationship go public.]

His words warmed Anya’s heart. She replied, [Okay.]

Anya and Evan sent messages to each other in a good mood. On the other side, Sydney looked at Anya who was in the mid of the bodyguards. She wondered.

Sydney's mind was in a mess. She couldn't figure out what had happened.

But was not good timing for being lost in thought. She must get out of here as soon as possible, but her car was broken by Anya, so she couldn't escape from that car. After pondering for a while, she turned about and rushed towards the other road from the gas station when the bodyguards were questioning Zachary.

Noticing this, Anya said to the bodyguards beside her, "Get her back!"

She wouldn't allow Sydney to disturb her life again.

The bodyguards nodded and followed Sydney. Afraid of being caught by Anya's subordinates, Sydney ran in her high heels with all her might. After a long while, she was exhausted. She took off her high heels in a hurry and ran barefoot.

But as time went by, she almost used up her strength. As she was about to be caught by the bodyguards, a dazzling beam was shone to her. Immediately after that, a black Mercedes appeared in front of her. The man at the back seat opened the car door and said, "Get in the car!"

Chapter 482

Sydney couldn't see the man's face clearly, but she had to accept his help because she had no other way. She didn't want to be caught by Anya. Now that Anya had decided that, she would never change her mind.

So, Sydney wouldn't go back.

She got into the black Mercedes in a hurry. After the car door was shut, Sydney panted and looked at the man sitting beside her. But as she saw the man's face, she screamed out in fear.

He wore a bizarre mask!

Who was he?

Sydney's mind became a jumble. "Is he a psycho killer?" Thinking of this, she curled up, covered her chest, looked at the stranger, and quivered with fear. "Who ... who are you? Why did you help me?"

"You don't need to know that. Do you know who those bodyguards work for?" the man asked. His tone was flat as if he had no interest in Sydney but he cared much about the men in black who had rescued Anya.

"I have no idea." Sydney was also curious about this.

"Guess," the man said.

Sydney pondered with her eyes wide open. "I... I don't know... Anya was abandoned by Evan, so those men can't work for Evan..."

"Do you want to revenge her?" Suddenly, the man sneered, his voice sounded icy cold in this freezing night.

Sydney, of course, wanted to take revenge, but the MacMillan Group had gone bankrupt. Without a strong backup, how could she manage it?

"I surely want to, but I... I can't do anything to Anya now." As Sydney spoke, she burst into tears.

If it were an ordinary man here, he should have put pity on such a tearing beauty.

But this man didn't pity Sydney at all. All he wanted was to cope with Evan and Evan's beloved woman.

Now, all the media reported the relationship between Evan and another woman.

But this man didn't believe that Evan would transfer his affection so soon.

Evan was insistent. He would never move on so soon.

This man knew Evan very well, and he hate Even's guts. The reason why he came back this time was that he wanted to avenge his younger brother, who had been killed by Evan years ago.

"I'll help you," said the man coldly.

Sydney wondered whether her ears had deceived her. A trace of shock. touched her eyes. She gazed at this man in disbelief. "Why? Why do you help me? You don't know me at all!"

"I don't need to know you. We have the same enemy."

"You mean

Anya?" Sydney was surprised. She didn't know that Anya had offended this mysterious man.

This man didn't intend to tell his own business to a pawn. Now that Sydney thought it was Anya, he didn't bother to correct her misunderstanding.

Sydn, took his silence as a tacit consent, and she became less scared of him. If this man could help her, it would be the best.

On the other side, the bodyguards didn't catch Sydney, so they could only go back to Anya. "Sorry, Ms. MacMillan, we didn't catch her. A black Mercedes took her away." The head of the bodyguards reported honestly.

Anya frowned. "Do you know whose car it is?"

The bodyguard shook his head. "No, according to its license plate, it's not a local car." The license plate might also be a fake one.

"All right, I will tell Evan about this." Anya had been increasingly dependent on Evan. Now, she would discuss everything with him.

"Ms. MacMillan, how do we deal with Mr. Marshall?" The bodyguard asked, pointing at Zachary, who was still kneeling and begging.

Anya cast a cold glance at Zachary and said, "Take him to the police."

Hearing that, Zachary moved over to Anya while kneeling, pulled her legs, and cried. "Anya, don't take me to the police. I was bewitched by your sister. She has been egging me on to deal with you. I ... I didn't mean to do that!"

Chapter 483

Pointing at his car, Anya sneered and said, "Are you sure you're not planning against me? You've prepared a lot of things for me."

Zachary explained, "No, no, that's a misunderstanding." He regretted it. He failed every time.

He thought, "Forget it. I don't want to mess with her anymore."

He thought Evan broke up with Anya but it seemed they were still together. Otherwise, why would the bodyguards be following Anya? Zachary was confused.

Could it be that they set him up?

When Zachary thought of that, he got scared. He thought, "I was so stupid. I shouldn't have listened to Sydney. And she left me here alone."

Zachary was pissed. He said, "Anya, listen to me. I can explain. It's not me. It's Sydney. She threatened me to hurt you. I had no choice."

Anya didn't believe him. She said, "What does she have on you then?" She didn't want to talk to him anymore. She turned to her guards and said, "Take me back, please. And give him to the police."

The bodyguards nodded. And one of them contained Zachary and would wait. there for the police.

The rest of them escorted Anya back to the mansion.

After about 45 minutes, Anya got there. When she got to the door, the bodyguards stopped and retreated into the surroundings to watch out for her.

When she was to about knock, a tall figure came for her from behind. She could feel the figure coming for her and she thought someone was going to attack her.

She lifted her purse and was about to attack that guy.

When she turned around, she bumped into Evan's arms. Anya froze and then

She thought she was hallucinating.

He had said that he wouldn't show up easily recently. Why did he come tonight?

Anya tried not to show that she was excited to see him. She pretended to be calm. She looked at him and said, "How come you came? What if someone finds out?"

Evan pinched her beautiful little nose and said lovingly, "Because I've missed you and worried about you after what happened tonight." After that, he pushed her against the wall and gave her a big kiss.

It was a gentle and sweet kiss.

Evan wanted her more and more. He loved her more and more.

He couldn't be away from her for one second.

But he had to for her safety.

"I'm okay. Thank you for sending the bodyguards to look after me," Anya said. She kissed him back. It was the first time that she had been so passionate. She put her arms around her waist.

Her tongue went for his.

She g him what he wanted.

Evan felt that she was passionate and gentle. He was so turned on.

He kissed her a few more times before letting her go. He then said, "Was it Zachary who took you tonight?"

"And Sydney," she answered. She put her head into his arms and rubbed it against his firm chest.

She wanted to feel him more.

She wanted to feel him more.

Thinking of those two taking Anya away, he got mad. He said, "Those two just can't keep the peace. They seriously won't settle until I destroy them?"

He really wanted to smash those two himself.

Anya said gently, "I gave Zachary to the police."

Chapter 484

Evan pinched her nose and said, "You're being soft."

She was not soft. She just didn't want Evan to cross the line. If they could bring those guys to justice, why not? She said, "I'm being soft with them. I just don't want you to get in a lawsuit. Don't remember that you're the father of my children. They can't lose you. Me neither."

The last sentence was what she wanted to say the most, although she had been trying to run away from him.

But after all that they had been through, she just couldn't let go of this man.

She wanted to stay with him for the rest of her life.

Evan could tell that she cared about him. He was moved. He touched her face and said, "I won't make you wait too long. Shall we get married after this?"

He didn't want to wait anymore. His mom refused to accept her and a lot of people disliked her. He wouldn't let her be away from him again.

He wanted her by his side for the rest of his life.

"Get married?" Anya said. She was shocked. She looked at Evan in disbelief as if she had heard it wrong.

She had never thought that Evan would propose to her.

Marriage was something that she didn't expect in the near future.

At that moment, she was shocked when she heard that Evan wanted to marry her.

She stared at him in surprise. Her eyes got red. She said, "Do you really want to marry me?"

Evan nodded and said, "Will you say yes?"

Making sure that he wanted to marry her, Anya was touched and excited but she didn't want to show it. She said, "It depends."

"It depends?" Even asked. He was really afraid that she would refuse. He pressed his body against hers and said, "We've been so intimate. Are you still thinking of not marrying me?"

That made her feel blush. She bit her lips and said, "Yeah, I need to consider it."

Evan didn't force her. He said, "Okay then. You'll want to marry me. Don't fall for other men though or I'll destroy them."

Anya chuckled and said, "You're so possessive."

He touched her face and said, "That's just how men are. I can't stay. Tell the kids I'll come to see them."

Anya nodded.

Just as he was about to leave, Anya thought of something. She said, "Did the bodyguards tell you that Sydney went into a black Merc? I'm afraid that it might be that guy's."

Evan knew about that. He turned around and said, "Don't worry. I'll take care of it."

She replied, "Okay. See you later." If he said he would take care of it, she wouldn't meddle in it.

She picked up her purse and went inside to see her babies.

When she was inside, Evan strode to a hidden corner. The bodyguards were waiti for him there.

One of the guards said to him, "Mr. Welton, we've found the Merc. It was using a fake plate, just like the BMW from last time."

So whoever picked up Sydney could be the one who kidnapped Anya last time.

Then the mystery man didn't buy the little show he pulled with Minta.

Evan thought for a while and then said, "Send a message out. I'm getting engaged."

The guard nodded.

Chapter 485

When Anya came back to the mansion, Cindy and Ellie were playing games. with the kids. Anya wore her slippers and walked toward them. As soon as the kids saw her, they put down the toys and ran to her.

“Mommy,” Nathaniel called her sweetly.

“Mommy.” Eudora’s cute voice also sounded.

Then they kissed her cheek familiarly, and of course, Anya also kissed them back. After that, Nathaniel asked, “Mommy, where is my dad?”

Chapter 486

“What? He proposed to you?” Ellie exclaimed.

How could Evan propose to her?

“Anya, is this true?” Cindy’s reaction was more normal. She had long felt that Evan liked Anya a lot, so he wanted to marry her.

After all, they had children. They were the bond between them, and they would never disappear in their lifetime.

So she wasn’t surprised by Evan’s proposal. But was this proposal too simple?

She must tell Anya that she should not say yes easily, otherwise, she would most likely be controlled by him after the wedding. This was absolutely not. acceptable. She must maintain a certain family status.

“Yes. He just told me.” Anya remembered what had just happened. Her face flushed red and her heart pounded.

Evan's kiss made her tremble.

"Did you say yes?" Cindy asked.

Anya shook her head and smiled shyly. She said sweetly, "No. How could I say yes to him so casually?"

Cindy laughed. After that, she said comfortingly, "That's right. You must be proud and do not just say yes to him. And, the proposal ceremony should also be grand' Or he's taking too much advantage of you."

Ellie was indifferent. She was even annoyed because she didn't want all this to happen. The Welton family was so honorable. Even if Evan agreed, what about those elders?

Would Evan's parents agree to their marriage? If their relationship was obstructed by the elders, their future lives would not be easy.

Ellie knew them so well, and she didn't want Anya to suffer. Her sister married into the Welton family when she had nothing, then what happened? Her husband cheated on her and the woman forced her to divorce. In the end, the bitch even killed her.

So she didn't want that to happen again.

She would not compromise no matter what. Ellie looked at Anya who was shyly chatting with Cindy about her marriage proposal and said angrily, "Anya. I won't allow you to marry Evan. If you want to marry him, we are no longer family!"

Ellie thought for a long time. It was so hard for her to say such words. After that, she went back to her bedroom from the living room and closed the door.

Anya watched Ellie walk back to her bedroom in anger. Her shyness just now instantly turned into a bubble. So, she hurriedly walked to Ellie's door and knocked, "Ellie, are you okay?"

“I didn’t accept his proposal. Ellie, don’t be angry.” Anya knew that she had always opposed her interaction with Evan.

But Ellie was enraged this time.

Anya had never seen Ellie so angry before.

But she didn’t know that it would make her angry.

“Unless you don’t marry him. Can you promise?” Ellie said from the doorway.

Anya bit her lip, and she didn’t know how to answer. She had fallen in love with Evan all over again and she would feel bad if she gave him up this time. But Ellie was her family. She couldn’t lose her.

Anya was very upset, so she didn’t say anything.

Ellie stood in the room for a long time without hearing her reply. She thought Anya didn’t agree.

So she said even more angrily, “Anya, I’ve already made up my mind. We are no longer family if you choose Evan. I’ll pack my things and leave here now.

“If you choose me, I will definitely take care of you in the future. You should know Evan’s family. So even if you marry him, can you guarantee that he will be devoted to you for the rest of his life? The Welton family will probably throw you out just like they did to your mother back then. Do you want your children to suffer this pain?”

Anya knew these words came from the bottom of Ellie’s heart.

1...” Anya looked at the closed door. She felt like her heart was stabbed by a knife. She was silent for a long time and then said sadly, “Ellie, I won’t leave you.

Chapter 487

Arva promised that she wouldn't marry Evan, an Ellie want the angry

However, Anya was in a terrible mood. She just didn't want to show it. When she returned to the sofa, Candy, who had heard everything comforted her and said. "Anya, why don't you have a good talk with Ellie? Are you sure you don't want to marry

Evan

"Ellie is very stubborn. I know she's doing it for me" Anya's felt stressed up, and she didn't know what to say. I was impatient When I was outside the door. I almost said yes

Cindy could tell that Anya was miserable and she was in love with Evan. It would be a big pity if she gave him up because of Ellie After all, they still had children

"Anya. I do suggest that you should talk with Ellie. You and Evan still have children. Are you sure he won't take your children away if you don't marry him?"

Anya had considered their children. If Evan really did that, she could only go to court. However, Cindy was right. She loved Evan and did not want to give up their relationship. "I know, I also want to talk to her, but I can't be selfish and resist her right now. Ellie has always taken care of me when I have nowhere to go. How could I pay her back?

That's why I have promised her for now, I'll talk to her when she calms down."

Cindy sighed and said. "Okay, just think about it for the sake of yourself and your children, and Evan."

Anya felt pretty confused.

The reason why she had agreed to Ellie's request so quickly was that she was unsure deep in her mind.

But once she promised, she felt extremely unhappy

She loved Evan and wanted to be with him. So, the conflict made her feel like she was stuck in a puddle of mud, unable to find direction.

“Well, think about it. If you need any help, I am always here for you. Cindy touched her hair and comforted her.

Anya nodded.

Anya was sleepless again that night. The next day, she was almost late for work. When she hurried to JK, Jake was already waiting for her at her desk. He was going to talk with a client and wanted to take Anya with him “Anya, pack up. We’ll meet a designer from Foxverse today.

Anya gasped. A designer from Foxverse?

“Well, isn’t that Mr. Welton’s arrangement? We are going to Foxverse for a design event at the end of this month. The other side sent us a Foxverse designer to discuss the cooperation, Jakeaid gently.

Anya understood. However, she realized that she lost sleep last night and was in a bad condition. “Mr. Hanson, can I go put on some makeup?” she asked, “I didn’t sleep well last night.

Jake looked at her face. From his perspective as a man, Anya looked alright. She was still pretty

However, she wanted to fix her makeup, so he wouldn’t interfere. He said, “Alright, hurry up. We have to go in a minute.”

“Okay” Anya knew they were in a rush and went to the bathroom.

Shyla happened to come over. When she saw Jake standing at Anya’s desk, she immediately walked over and said, “Mr. Hanson, I heard that I have a Foxverse client today. Can I go with you? My Foxverse is very good.

When she was a child, she had been proficient in four languages.

It was more than enough to communicate with Foxverse designers

That so Jake had planned to bring an interpreter, but he agreed to Shyla's offer "Alright, come with us"

"Te Who ele" She thought that only the senior management would be able to talk with foreign clients.

"Anya" Jake said calmly

Shyla looked displeased instantly. "She's just an ordinary designer. How could she be qualified to meet such an important designer?"

Chapter 488

Jake got a little angry after hearing these words. Ordinary designer? Anya's ability was evident to all at the last show stage

Everyone praised her talent.

"Shyla JK's philosophy has always been to cultivate designers with potential. Anya is the most talented designer I've ever seen, which is why I keep bringing her to various design events hope to develop her into a mainstay of JK

"She's just a beginner." Shyla felt upset.

senior designers.

Although she and Evan no longer had a relationship, it didn't mean that she liked Anya. She did loathe her.

"You know, all designers need a period of time to grow, Jake didn't want to talk to her anymore, but he didn't want to offend her, so he said gently, "Shyla, I've already decided when I met with the executives.

"You can give your feedback to the executives."

How could Shyla go to the president's office to find Evan over this trivial matter? So she had to say, 'Fine. I have nothing to say.

Okay. Jake shook his head.

He felt that Shyla was an unapproachable woman.

"Mr. Hanson, I'm ready Anya trotted over after putting on her makeup in the bathroom. Jake turned back to look at her. Anya's makeup was very delicate and she was now as pretty as a celebrity.

Jake kept looking at her. He was envious of Anya's "mysterious boyfriend.

What a beautiful lady she was!

"Let's go. It's better not to let him wait for us." Jake looked elsewhere. He walked ahead and Anya followed closely behind Shyla reluctantly followed them.

The designer from Foxverse was staying in the largest five-star hotel in the Nordeny. When they drove over, Jame, the Foxverse designer, was already sitting by the floor-to-ceiling window in the hotel's parlor waiting for them.

He was a tall, handsome Foxverse man. He had short blond hair turquoise blue eyes like the ocean, a high nose, and thin lips. They looked at him from afar and thought he looked a bit like a celebrity.

As he sat over there waiting, the parlor attendants thought he was a celebrity, so they came up to him for an autograph.

Jame smiledly and turned them down.

ted him to take a picture with them. When the three of them came over, Jame had been waiting for ught Jame might think they were not punctual.

ed that Jame would think that JK had a bad attitude. Fortunately, Jame was very easy-going. He didn't feel use they were late.

When he saw Anya, he smiled with great satisfaction.

He froze and kept staring at her.

He did not regain his senses until Shyla greeted him. After that started to discuss with them about going to Foxverse to talk about cooperation.

They had a good chat and reached an agreement on the cooperation. Before they left, they learned that Jame would be here for a week. He was going to visit their company.

Jake said he was welcome.

When they came out of the meeting room together, Jake and Shyla walked in front. Anya and Jame followed them.

After walking for a while, Jame suddenly handed Anya a business card. He smiled and said, "Ms. MacMillan, nice to meet "you"

Anya didn't know at the time that Jame was going to go for her. She thought he just meant to make friends, so she gladly accepted his business card.

Chapter 489

After returning from the hotel, Anya didn't think much about Jame. She just put his business card into her handbag and continued to do her own thing.

Time went by.

In the afternoon, Gina came to Welton Group to visit Minta.

After Minta became Evan's open girlfriend, he had assigned Minta to the PR department to replace Anya's original position.

After Gina arrived at the company, she didn't go to Evan's office but went straight to see Minta. She had to talk to Minta as a way to release her pent-up anger.

When Gina reached the PR department, some young newcomers stopped her from entering. Because they didn't recognize she was the movie star, and even didn't know she was Evan's mother,

The director of the PR department heard the noise and hurried there. Seeing that it was Gina, he was so scared that he immediately bowed and apologized, "Madam, what can I do for you?"

Gina wasn't in the mood to chat and said quickly, "I'm here to find Minta. Is she here?"

“Yes, I’ll call her right now.” The director nodded and bowed like a pug. Then he said, “Madam, please go to the living room to sit for a while.”

Gina nodded and elegantly walked to the living room with her expensive handbag.

After she left, the young employees came to ask the director at once, “Who is she?”

“Keep your eyes open next time. She is Mr. Welton’s mother, Mrs. Welton!”

Hearing that, those young employees all took a deep breath. They thought in anxiety. “We even stopped her just now! Look how blind we were... Will Mr. Welton fire us “Just go back to your work. Mrs. Welton is not that stingy,” the director understood their worries and said immediately.

Then he went to find Minta and the young employees hurried to work with relief.

Minta was clear that Gina would come to her sooner or later, but she didn’t expect Gina should be in such a hurry then.

So before going to meet her, Minta sent a text message to Evan, asking him to come in case that she could not cope with Gina.

Then she ran to the living room.

Gina was sitting on the sofa and drinking coffee elegantly then, but she was powerful and still made Minta feel cold “She’s not ordinary, Minta thought.

“Minta, come here,” Gina took a sip of coffee and ordered indifferently.

Minta came obediently and sat down on a sofa in front of her. “Good afternoon,” she said.

“We are considered family members anyway, so I won’t talk nonsense. Is it true that you and Evan are dating?” Gina put aside the cup and asked directly,

“Yes... It’s true.” Minta didn’t dare to look into her sharp eyes.

Even if she had experienced various harsh environments before she was still afraid of Gina.

Chapter 490

“Mom, what do you come here for?” Evan closed the door of the living room and walked to Minta with steady steps. He sat down by her, trying to be considerate.

Wherever he was, even by his sitting down, Evan’s domineering manner would force anyone to obey him.

Suddenly, Minta was relieved. Not in the mood of talking with Cana, she felt fortunate to have Evan with her.

Gina, wearing dark eyeshadow and rosy lipstick, rolled her eyes, fixing them on her son with a half-smile. She said, “I come here for Minta.

“How nice.” Evan smiled back. A battle between him and Gina started.

Gina and Evan did not have a close mother-son relationship, though Evan was indeed her blood. Gina, who used to be a well-known young actress, fell in love with Evan’s dad at her prime. Soon she was found pregnant, and the couple got married shortly after.

In the next year, she gave birth to Evan.

Gina resumed her career when Evan was less than two years old. In the next couple of years, Evan was brought up by Mdm Welton, while Evan's dad was busy expanding his business to the whole world.

As the couple focused more on their own careers, they spent less time with their son. Though Gina had more time for her son later, it was still hard for her to make up for the lost time.

It would take more time to bridge the gap between their hearts.

"Why? You think I will do something bad to dear Minta?" Gina's lip curled into a smile with her cold eyes fixing on Minta. Minta's body tensed up. "What do you think I am? A wicked witch?"

"I am just kidding, Mom," Evan kept on, "You won't oppose us, will you?"

Gina, who favored operating behind the scenes, would never oppose her son. 'Of course not.' She smiled gently. "I was just a little bit surprised that you chose to open your relationship to the public, so I came here to have some talk."

"Isn't it, Minta?" Gina turned to her.

Minta was suddenly caught between the two, but she did not want to make things difficult for Evan, so she nodded with an "of course"

"That's great, Mom! I have something for you then." Evan said with a mysterious smile.

Seeing that smile, Gina got alarmed.

She looked up. "What is that? Don't you tell me that Minta's got pregnant?"

e would never let them have the kid.

“No, I am not!” Minta, still a young girl, blushed in a second, trying to defend herself.

Though Minta kept a fit body, Evan knew that she had a pure mind. He gently pressed on her hand and stopped her next words.

Minta received his signal and shut up her mouth immediately.

“What I want to say is not the pregnant thing,” said Evan word by word, “We are planning the engagement.”

Both Minta and Gina got shocked, starring at Evan with round eyes as if he just talked nonsense.

Gina could no longer bear this. “It is impossible,” she blurted with anger. “You guys can never do this without my permission!”

Evan looked undisturbed as if he did not care about Gina’s words. After all, he was the one to decide his own marriage, including his relation with Anya. “Mom, you should know that this is my business. I won’t give in to your ideas,” he answered.
