

Desires DH 521

Chapter 521

“Ms. MacMillan, that’s how it is. What we did is to ensure that we co catch that person. Now that he was arrested, Evan and I won’t have to play a couple. You are the one that Evan loves deeply. You could still be together,” Minta said.

Anya had mixed feelings.

“Ms. MacMillan, please forgive Evan. He cares about you: Without getting any reply, Minta was worried that Anya was still angry, so she continued.

Anya said, “Did he really treat me like this for reasons of my safety?”

“Yeah, I swear!”

“You don’t have to swear. I believe you.” Anya trusted Minta, so she quickly reached out and held Minta’s hands, saying “Thank you. Minta.”

“You don’t need to say thank you to me. Evan made the greatest sacrifice,” Minta said with a smile.

Anya nodded.

“May I ask Evan to come in? I will tell him that you have forgiven him.” Minta was about to get up.

Anya took her hand and said, “No matter what, Evan lied to me, and I’ve been sad for a long time. I plan to make a fool of him?”

Minta was taken aback. She did not understand what Anya meant “Ms. MacMillan, are you going to pretend to break up with Evan

“I didn’t mean it. I just want him to know the consequences of lying to me,” Anya smiled and said, “I have a favor to ask.”

Minta understood and immediately agreed. “Well, how can I help you?”

“Tell Evan that I won’t forgive him easily and I don’t want to see him now.” Anya said.

“Is that all?” Minta was curious.

Minta thought. “It’s so easy. Evan wouldn’t leave without seeing Anya even if I told him what Anya said.”

Anya said, “If he refused to go back, you could tell him that I will be on a hunger strike.”

Minta smiled, “Ms. MacMillan, if you made a fool of Evan like this, I am afraid he would listen to you no matter what would happen in the future.”

“Don’t get me wrong, I just have been deceived by him for a long time, so I just want to do something to upset him.” Anya. didn’t want to control Evan. She was heartbroken when she was deceived by Evan

Anya decided to take it out on Evan Okay, I’ll talk to Evan,” Minta reached an agreement with Anya and went to meet Evan outside the ward.

Anya lay down, pretending to be still angry.

When Minta told Evan what Anya said, Evan's eyes darkened, and he looked quite unhappy. 'Is she still unwilling to believe me?"

back her and said, pretending to be helpless, "Well, Ms Mac Millan seems to be sy sad very

Ace Ellansee her Evan raised his hand, preparing to open the doon of the ward

him

Alta and sand, "Evan, you could go hac home Best Ms. MacMillan said she would be on alamger hunger stuke"

He was devoted to Anya. And he couldn't stand to see Anya torte herself.

Did she say that

Minta nodded. Tvan, you could leave Anya alone at this moment. After she is discharged, you could rack your brains to Chase her. May be she might forgive you and choose to be with yu again"

Evan looked at Minta with deep eyes, thinking that she was right

Ana is in the hospital and she must be in a bad mood, Evan thought. So he said to Minta, "Minta, Anya won't ask Ellie to look after her. And her family won't come to see her, I appreciate it if you could stay here to take care of Anya Don't worry, Evan. I will take good care of Anya"

Evan nodded, looked up at the door of the ward, and then left reluctantly.

When Evan got downstairs in the hospital, he said to Hayden who was following him before getting in the car, "Hayden, order 999 roses for me, and then take them to her ward soon."

Mr Welton, would you like to give something else to Ms. MacMillan? Hayden asked,

Evan thought about it, then said, "Last time I ordered a diamond ring with Minta in a jewelry store. You give it to Anya

The diamond ring Evan ordered in the jewelry store was nominally for Minta, but it was made according to the size of Anya's finger.

So the diamond ring was made for Anya.

Evan decided to give it to Anya to make up for the past, and he would order another one for her when he proposed to marry her in the future.

Of course, his top priority at this moment was to find ways to change Anya's mind!

He couldn't let Anya turn her back on him.

Chapter 522

Above a forest of this city, the midday sun hung suspended in cloudless space.

Sydney, who had hidden in the forest all night and all day, finally headed on the way out of the forest, after she was sure that Evan didn't find her. She was now totally shabby and unkempt, if a dirty, mud-covered pajama, with uncombed, straw-like hair.

Her pretty fair face now also got dirty.

Instead of the proud and graceful Ms. Macmillan of the Macmillan family, now she looked more like a homeless. Especially since she hid in the forest all night, she had not taken a shower, so she smelt stinking, which made her no different from a beggar.

She should have stayed in her room, had a scented petal bath with essential oil, and wore perfume if it wasn't for Anya. Yet right now, not only had she lost her job but also her family went bankrupt. Besides, she had to live in hiding.

For the first time forever, Sydney had tasted the desperation in her life, and Anya assumed full responsibility for all of this. And she would ask Anya to pay for that, even at the cost of her life!

Standing on the edge of the forest, with her fists clenched tightly Sydney never let you off so easily, Anya MacMillan, never!"

Rashed her teeth, cursing in her heart, "I will

After giving vent to her anger by cursing Anya to hell, Sydney walked to the road and tried to hitch a ride.

er family must be so worried about her.

She had to go home as soon as possible, for her family

a

Thinking of this, she reached out and waved her hand to the cars on the road quickly. However, none of the drivers stopped their cars when they noticed the mud on her cloth.

Luckily, there was still one car stopped and the driver agreed to take her a ride in the end, though it was a truck carrying pigs.

She was reluctant to get on the truck when she saw the smelly dirty pigs, yet after little time had elapsed, she was, however, rather embarrassed, when she realized that it would cost her all night to walk home. The fact was that she needed to go home as soon as possible, took a shower, and had some food.

Therefore, after a short hesitation, Sydney had to get on and sat in the truck with stinky pigs.

But looking at the pigs, she still couldn't help crying after she got on the truck, while the memories of being a noble wealthy lady were all coming back to her.

She blamed this all on Anya!

With a great weight of sorrow and anger inside her, Sydney cried all the way. Soon she had been carried to the city center. Because the truck was not allowed to run on the main road, Sydney was asked to get off the truck on the edge of the city center.

Fortunately, she had arrived in the city, so it was not hard for her to take a taxi.

In no time, she had successfully taken a taxi. When she was driven to the MacMillan's, she then found out that there was no penny on her. Therefore, she went into the house with the driver, asking her mom for the taxi fee. However, the MacMillan family was bankrupt.

Melissa was now sitting on the sofa in the living room and kept calling for help to find her daughter, as Sydney suddenly appeared in front of her. She was too astonished to speak for a moment.

"Sydney... .. It's you! My daughter... Melissa stammered. She could hardly believe that her daughter came back.

In tears, she asked, as the rims of her eyes were red.

“It’s me, Mom.” Sydney walked hurriedly to Melissa and hugged her. “Do you have money, Mom? I need to pay for the taxi.” Feeling the tight hug from her daughter, Melissa couldn’t help but cry out. Her dear daughter came back.

“Sure, I will pay the money.” Melissa clapped her daughter on the back gently and then went to pay for the taxi.

After the driver left, Melissa looked at her dirty-faced and emaciated daughter. She was heartbroken. “Sydney. Oh, my dear. Where have you been? How come you look so terrible?”

Melissa’s questions reminded Sydney of her suffering and hardships these days. Tears poured down her cheeks. “Mom, it’s a long story. But don’t worry, Mom. I’m back now, untouched. It’s all Anya MacMillan’s fault. She got me into this! She must pay the price! I swear, that I will never let her off easily!”

Anya! It was her again!

Immediately, Melissa thought of her husband, who was now in the prison because of Anya. A trace of malevolence showed in her eyes.

“Sydney’s right. Anya MacMillan must pay for that!” thought Melissa spitefully, in her heart.

Chapter 523

“Mom, where are dad and grandma?” Sydney wiped her eyes and asked,

She felt something was wrong when she went into the house. It was empty.

“She is ill and lived in her young sister’s home for a while. And your dad has been imprisoned for a month because of Anya,” Melissa said angrily and clenched her fists when thinking of it.

“How...” Sydney had no idea her family was destroyed when she wasn’t here.

But it didn’t matter with Anya.

fi, she believed she was given a chance to deal matter as she was back now. After she had been through so much, she believed

So she swore that she would torture Anya to death.

Sydney gritted her teeth and then went upstairs to take a shower She hadn’t showered for over a day, making her smell bad.

Melissa cooked some food for her while Sydney was taking a shower.

When Sydney went downstairs, delicious food was ready. Starving as she was, she gobbled it up.

Melissa said while Sydney was eating, “I am going to take out Anya’s mother’s inheritance and use it. We’re bankrupt now as our house, some of the savings and shares were used to pay your dad’s debt. We’re running out of money.

“Anya’s mother’s inheritance has been kept in the bank. I did the math. It’s more than 200 thousand dollars.” Melissa was planning how to use it with a wicked smile.

“Good. Mom, you go take it out. We can’t let Anya have the money.” Sydney agreed with Melissa. After all, money made the mare go.

“Of course. After you finish, we’ll talk about how to deal with her Melissa said coldly.

Sydney nodded and continued to eat.

At the hospital.

Anya had rested for more than a day. Her wound on her head almost healed and she didn’t feel dizzy. She would be discharged from the hospital this afternoon.

She got off the bed to pack up and go downstairs to check out.

However, someone knocked on her door. Anya said, “Come in.”

The door was pushed open. It was Minta and Hayden who brought a large bunch of roses, Seeing the flowers, Anya knew who sent them to her.

She smiled as he never gave her flowers before. It was right to ignore him temporarily,

If she said yes so soon, she would look like an easy girl.

Therefore, Anya pretended to be cold and unpleasant and asked “Hayden, why are you here?”

Hayden, said with a mild and gentle smile, “Mr. Welton asked me to send these roses to you, Ms. MacMillan.”

Chapter 524

Meanwhile, Anya and Minta went down in the elevator to go through the discharge formalities.

After they walked out of the elevator, they came to the hospital Hall to pay the medical fee. Minta couldn't help laughing and said, "Ms. MacMillan, I have to say, it's fortunate that Evan was not here when you said that. Otherwise, his face would darken."

Anya also smiled, "I'm not afraid of him. More importantly, I don't care. And if he was angry, he could break up with me." Even though Anya said it, she just joked about breaking up with him.

Minta was about to say something to agree with her, but it suddenly came a magnetic and overbearing male voice behind them. "Break up? Anya, are you serious? How dare you break up with me?"

Hearing the domineering words, the patients instantly gave way to them.

And Anya and Minta also looked back and saw the man behind them.

It was Evan. And when they saw him, Anya and Minta were surprised why he was in the hospital.

Anya slightly blinked her eyes and looked at the man in a white shirt and black pants standing before her. She was nervous, with her eyebrows subconsciously moving, and tried to hold back her quiver in the heart.

"Mr. Welton, is there something wrong with what I said? I have nothing to do with you!" Anya said deliberately, trying to make him angry.

"Well, you can marry me! Then we are related." Evan said in a gentle voice, stepping "Will you marry me?"

closer t

to her.

Seeing him saying these words in a serious tone, Anya was instantly stunned. But her sense told her that she couldn't forgive him so easily. Therefore, even though she was moved by what he said, she put on an angry face and said deliberately. "No, I don't care!"

After that, she turned around to go through the discharge formalities.

Hearing what she said, Evan was so pissed off that he wanted to take her away directly, but he feared she would be angry. Therefore, he held back his anger and stood there waiting for her d in he

Seeing Evan being like that, Minta felt heart.

that a man would become a fool when he met the woman he liked, It was said that a

It was the same with Evan.

"It is done. Minta, thank you for taking care of me last night." Anya walked up to Minta and thanked her after she put the hospital discharge certificate into her pocket.

Minta shook her head and said, "You are welcome, Ms. MacMillan!"

"Well, I go to get my stuff. I have to go home!"

"I'll come with you."

“Thank you!”

After that, they walked past Evan, totally ignoring him, and went straight to take the elevator.

Evan was unpleasant about that, but he couldn't do anything about it.

After all, he was wrong this time.

However, seeing Anya getting on well with Minta, Evan thought she was not mad at him. He still got the chance to ask her for forgiveness.

Thinking of that, Evan held back the anger of being ignored and followed them to go upstairs.

Back to the ward, Anya picked up the stuff she packed. And then they ignored Evan once again and left.

After they came downstairs, Anya wanted to go back home by taxi. Finally, Evan couldn't bear it anymore. He came up to her and said, “Anya, let me drive you home!”

“No, thanks, Mr. Welton. I'm good!” Anya said coldly.

Evan instantly frowned and said in a deep and hoarse voice, “Come on, Anya! Please forgive me! Just for once! Let me drive you home!”

“No, I don't want to.” Anya rejected him directly. After that, she turned around and went to hail a taxi.

Seeing her being like that, Evan thought she wanted to break up with him. At the thought of that, he instantly became upset. He walked up and stopped behind her, “Anya, I'm sorry, I apologize! I know it's my fault for keeping it from you. But the problem is solved. Could you stop being mad at me?”

“The only person I'm going to marry would be you!” Evan explained patiently in a gentle tone.

However, Anya still maintained a poker face and said nothing.

It looked like she didn't want to talk to him anymore.

Then Evan became more anxious. He stretched out his hand to hold hers and said, "Anya, come on, please! Please talk to me!"

For the first time, Evan lowered himself and begged her. He was so humble that Anya almost forgave him. Fortunately, the last shreds of her sense prevailed, and it stopped her. After all, she once told herself not to forgive him so easily this time.

If she forgave him so soon, she would look like an easy girl. And she wanted Evan to go after her through his actions, not sweet talks.

Moreover, he forced her to be with him before. She wanted him to go after her sincerely.

At the thought of it, Anya made up her mind and said with certainty, "I'm angry now! That's it!"

After that, a taxi came over, and she shook off his hand. She opened the door of the car and got in.

Then the car sped away quickly, and Evan failed to catch up with it.

Sitting in the car, Anya looked back after it drove some distance. And she couldn't help laughing when she saw Evan standing there, sad and frustrated.

Anyway, Anya felt glad when she saw him being like that. After all, it showed he cared about her.

Moreover, she wanted to test him if he really loved her. If he gave up this time, she would choose to get over with him forever. If he didn't, she would be with him.

Anya heartlessly left and Evan was in high dudgeon,

When he was pursuing Anya, he didn't take it seriously, and he gradually fell for her when they got along. However, because of such an incident, he had to start over again.

Evan didn't want to give up for he loved Anya and the kids.

He was a loyal man and would objection.

and would spend his life

his life with a woman he had an n eye on.

1. He would would never give up because of her

Thus, though he was pissed off, he had to comfort himself with the fact that he had feelings for her.

As a result, he held back and didn't mind her fury. He would have her around again.

Evan's eyes darkened and saw the taxi leaving his vision before turning around and walking to his car. Minta, who was waiting, approached him and said, "Evan, my job is done, shall I return now?"

"You don't have to. Work here in the PR department. My family can't take care of you if you work so far away." Evan had long wanted her to come back.

Minta had been working in another city for years and nobody took care of her.

Evan was worried about her.

Therefore, he kept her to take better care of her.

“Then what about the business there?” Minta was okay with working at any place. She only had the Weltons as her family and she would listen to them whatever they said.

“I will send someone to take your place. You don’t have to run around now and stay here to keep my grandmother accompanied. Moreover, be good to yourself,” said Evan gently. You are part of my family and you don’t have to see yourself as an outsider.”

Minta nodded and felt warmth in her heart. “Alright then, I will do what you said.”

“Let’s go.” Evan reached out to pat her on the shoulder.

Minta agreed and returned to the company with him.

In the afternoon, Anya was with the kids at home and Evan texted her. “Shall we eat dinner together with the kids?”

Anya saw the message and wore a smile. She deliberately replied like this: “Evan, you don’t have to text me. I have an appointment tonight.”

Evan, who was in his office, raised his brows when seeing the response. She had an appointment? Could it be the man dating her last time?

He would never allow his kids to call a strange man dad.

And he wouldn't agree Anya left with another man.

"Anya, I forbid you to date."

Anya: "Evan, just mind your business!" After this text, she blacklisted Evan's number.

He was in utter fury and wanted to go to Anya now.

never care about him. But rationality stopped him. She hadn't forgiven him and if he pushed her too hard, she would be more irritated and would Thus, he suppressed his anger, rubbed his temples, and went to Dan's company to ask for advice.

Evan was a man who would never be concerned about women,

But this time, he condescended himself to ask another man about how to pursue a woman, which astonished aj Dan was sitting in his chair with a pen. He laughed so hard that the pen poked his arm.

shed Dan

"Are you asking me how to pursue a woman? You gotta be kidding me. Dan repeated his words and laughed out loud at the same time.

Evan wanted to roll his eyes at hin

him.

However, he just rubbed his forehead. "Stop laughing. I'm serious. Anya didn't care about me.

"I can't just tie her back."

Dan continued to chuckle and his brows curved upwards. "I think it's a good idea to tie her back. Once a woman can't be comforted by gifts, the quickest way to win her heart is to have intensive sex with her."

Evan was speechless.

"You'd better be serious."

"I am. You won't condescend yourself to flatter her in normal times, will you? Why not try seducing her and serve her with great sex?"

Words failed Evan

"Is there another way?"

if you want to make it slow...

There is if you

Evan couldn't wait for that long.

He squinted and wanted to give sex a try.

But he thought that Dan was tricking him.

Chapter 526

In the mansion.

Anya didn't go to the company because she wanted to stay with her children. There were so many things that had happened that she could barely have time with them.

The babies were very happy because they could spend a long time with their mom. They took her by the hand and had a good time.

Ellie prepared some fruits and snacks for them.

Anya told a story to them when they were tired. Today's story was about a little horse finding his mother.

Anya didn't notice the plot at first until Nathaniel became depressed when she finished about one paragraph. Nathaniel said, "Mommy, will daddy be home?"

He didn't back for a long time.

e didn't come back for a lo

Their mom said that their dad was on a business trip and wouldn't be back too soon.

But he didn't even make a phone call w call when he was out. Would he come back?

They finally had a dad and Nathaniel didn't want to lose him.

Nathaniel, I told you he was out for work and would be back in the future. Anya felt sorry when she saw Nathaniel's depressed face.

She missed Evan

Evan, too. But she wanted to know whether he loved her.

So she didn't express her feelings.

"How long?" Nathaniel muttered and became more frustrated

He feared that their dad wouldn't be back.

While Eudora, next to Anya, held her arm and mumbled gently "Dad... Dad..." Eudora couldn't speak except one word, dad it didn't mean she didn't miss her dad.

didn't know how to talk. But it

She did

She wanted her dad to hug, hold, and kiss her. And she wanted him to play together.

"Eudora, dad will be back. So can you wait a little longer?" Anya put Eudora into her arms kindly.

Eudora nodded because she believed what her mom said.

Their mom said their dad would be so all she needed was to wait. S

She didn't think their dad would leave them.

be back, "Mommy... Will dad come back?" Nathaniel doubted. He was a little considerate boy.

Because it had been a long time since their

"He will, I swear," Anya promised them.

Nathaniel now believed it.

dad was left, and they never received any phone call from him.

"Well, let's go on. Anya tapped Nathaniel's head. She picked up the storybook and was ready to read.

Then the doorbell was ringing.

Anya turned around and found Ellie had opened the door. Ellic saw a courier with a bunch of red roses in his hand.

That was surprising. How could anyone send roses here?

"Hello, is it..." Ellie asked politely.

“This is for Ms. MacMillan. Is she here?” the deliveryman answered Ellie seemed a little bemused. Who would give Anya flowers?

“Who bought it?”

“Sorry, I don’t know. I’m just a deliveryman.” He took out the receipt form. Then he asked, “Is Ms. MacMillan here? I’ve got to go.

Anya came over as Ellie was about to call her. Anya knew who sent the flowers at first look. She said, please.

“Give me

the form,

She would give it back to him in the evening.

Although she didn’t think them getting back together was a good idea, she missed him so much. So she could take the chance to meet him.

Chapter 527

“Ms. MacMillan, please sign your name here. The delivery boy handed a notice to her and continued, “There is also a valuable item for you.

The

guy carefully took out a small blue box from his bag and handed it over to Anya.

It was said that the thing in the box cost millions of dollars and He didn't dare to take a look. He was afraid that it would go missing and he could never pay the compensation.

"What is it?" Anya quickly signed her name. She took the box, scrutinized it, and asked curiously.

"I don't know, either. We can't open clients' packages." The delivery boy finished his job and left.

"Ms. MacMillan, bye."

"Thank you." Anya nodded at him and opened the box. In it was a light-yellow square diamond the size of a pigeon egg

The diamond both looked and felt good.

But judging from its size, it wouldn't cost that much money.

Anya was astounded in an instant. Did Evan buy this for her?

He was good at romance.

He gave her such an expensive item the moment he wanted to flatter her. However, she wouldn't give in that easily.

Thus, she closed the box and wanted to return it to him.

"Anya, who gave this to you?" Ellie noticed that she looked strange. In the past when she received gifts, she would wear a resistant look. Nevertheless, she was different this time.

She was smiling, like a girl who had received a gift from her lover.

Ellie knew well about her.

She was afraid that Anya would be with Evan again. Did she forget that he had a fiancée?

“Anya, tell me, who gave this to you?”

Anya stuffed the ring into the box. She didn’t want to tell Ellie the truth and perfunctorily answered, “Maybe, it’s from someone who loves me. I will return it to him tonight.”

Ellie didn’t believe that and furrowed her brows. She asked with anger, “Is it from Evan?”

Ellie suspected. Anya flustered and replied, “Of course not. I have disconnected from him.”

Anya, I trust you, but I did it for your good. You have to maintain a proper distance from him. You have kids! Do you think he will marry you? What about the kids then?”

Ellie didn’t mean to mess with their relationship. She would have no objection if Evan was going to sincerely marry Anya.

She was afraid of his family.

Ellie was

She was not an old-fogey, and she just focused on the big picture.

“Ellie, I know. You don’t have to worry about me.” Anya wanted to soothe her.

When she made up with Evan, they would think of a way to persuade Ellie for Anya felt that Evan was in love with her. She knew it from what had happened.

He would do so much for her. If it were another man, she would have been abandoned.

Why wouldn't she believe that this man would love and protect her in his life?

"All I want to say is to stay away." Ellie thought that it was useless to talk too much and sighed. She went in to check the kids.

irritated. As Ellie left, Anya stood at the door, feeling helpless and anxious. If Ellie knew that she preferred Evan, she would be to see the children. Evan told her it was okay now, so she decided to come. Just after Anya put the flowers in the hallway, Mdm Welton called her. She was just outside the mansion, because she wanted

Chapter 528

It had been a long time since she saw the two cute children.

Nathaniel was just as handsome as Evan, and or was as beautiful as Any said, "Wait a moment. Let me discuss it with Ellie." The old woman told Anya excitedly why she came over the phone. Anya looked back at Ellie who was with the children and

"What? She doesn't want me here?" The old woman sensed something wrong.

They were her great-grandchildren. Why couldn't she see them?

"That's not it. Just wait for a second, okay?" Anya replied.

She guessed Ellie didn't want the Weltons to see the children, but Mdm Welton was very nice.

Besides, the children were also Weltons, so she couldn't stop them from visiting the children.

"Alright, I will wait." The old woman just wanted to see the children.

Anya told Ellie Mdm Welton was here.

As expected, Ellie was displeased and said with a stern look, "Anya, you should have turned her down. We shouldn't let the children see too much of the Weltons."

"I wanted to, but she is already at our front door. She is old, we can't chase her away, can we?" Anya said patiently.

"You are too soft-hearted. You will get yourself into trouble for it Ellie was angry.

"I will deal with that later. I will invite her in. I won't let her take the children outside, okay?" Anya continued to persuade.

Ellie frowned in silence and also thought it wasn't appropriate to drive away from an old woman. Otherwise, the Weltons wouldn't let her off.

Therefore, Ellie agreed, "Let her in"

"Okay." Anya nodded and quickly went outside to invite the old woman in.

She opened the door, and Mdm Welton walked in with a legion of servants who were carrying bags of toys, clothes, and food.

They were all for the children.

“Give these to my great-grandchildren,” the old woman smiled and ordered the maids to put the bags in front of the children.

She adored the children.

So, she gave them two thick stacks of bills.

It was about 6,000 dollars.

The children checked the money curiously. They would giggle when the old woman teased them.

Ellie was jealous of the heartwarming scene and will didn't want the Weltons to get too close to the children.

What if they decided to take them away from her one day

At the thought, she took the bags from the children and gave them back to the old man, saying “Thank you for checking on the children. But we are not short of cash, so we can't take the “Well, they are for the children to show how much I love them Mdm Welton was kind and wasn't mad at 2

“This is too much. Thank you, but I insist,” Ellie said in a dispirited tone

The old woman looked awkward and felt Ellie hated her.

Chapter 529

“Mrs. Welton, the kids are too little. Perhaps you should give them money when they grow older. Anya realized that the atmosphere was getting weird and had to say something to make it stop..

Mdm Welton was a smart lady. She dropped her beef with Ellie as soon as she heard Anya say that. She smiled and said, “Okay, I will listen to Anya and take the money back for now. I will give it to the kids when they are older.”

“Sure.” Anya nodded.

However, Ellie was still wearing a long face.

The matriarch did not really care what Ellie felt. She played with the kids for a few more minutes and then decided to go back. When she walked t of the mansion, the kids followed her and grabbed her Great-grandma, you should come and see us more.”

They sounded so adorable.

The kid’s cuteness completely melted Mdm Welton’s heart. They were the little angels who came down to bless the Weltons.

The matriarch rubbed their little one more time and got in the car.

Gina, who came to the mansion to do some cleaning work, saw the matriarch saying goodbye to the kids.

She looked serious and tried to process the information.

Were they Anya’s kids? How could she have kids that big?

Were the kids Evan’s?

Gina immediately called her assistant and asked her to look into the information about the kids.

Soon, it went dark. Ellie was cooking dinner in the kitchen while Anya was watching cartoons with the kids.

Cindy went home from work and saw a big basket of roses. She covered her mouth in excitement and said, "Wow! Anya, who gave you the roses?"

"An admirer of mine. And I am going to return them." Anya took a quick look in the direction of the kitchen and winked at Cindy.

did not want Ellie to know that the roses were from Evan aned

"Wow, it's the guy who you went on a blind date with, right? Anya took another glimpse of the kitchen and said, "No, it's one of my colleagues."

Cindy played along and said, "Beautiful lady like you always has so many admirers."

"Cindy, look after the kids for me, please. I am going to return the roses," Anya grabbed Cindy's arms and said.

Cindy had no problem with helping Anya out. However, she was curious about the sender of the roses. She lowered her voice and asked, "Are they from Evan?"

Anya nodded, "Please look after the kids for me. I will return the roses to Evan."

Cindy said, "Did you guys break up?"

Anya did not want Ellie to hear her conversation so she leaned in and whispered to Cindy's ears, "No, I am not breaking up with him. But he did piss me off a few days ago. I am giving him the silent treatment."

Cindy smiled and gave her a thumb-up. "Anya, you finally come up."

Evan

Anya knew she could go!

He was a good man who would risk everything for Anya.

Cindy waved her hands and said, "Go. I will take care of the kids for you."

"Thank you so much!" Anya pecked Cindy on the cheeks and quickly put on her shoes. To not raise suspicion, she said to the direction of the kitchen. "Ellie, I am going to return the roses to my colleague."

Ellie turned around and looked at her. She nodded without asking any questions.

Anya then left to see Evan with the roses in her arms.

not know if 1

She did had got off work or not because she had already blocked his number and had no plan to unblock it anytime soon.

She wanted to try her luck.

She rang the doorbell and a maid ca

a maid came to the do door.

“Hello, may I have your name, please?” The maid was recently hired to look after Minta and did not know who Anya was.

look at the empty living room and asked, “Is Mr. Welton home? I am here to o return the roses and the ring.

Anya took a look at the “Mr. Welton came home early today. He is working on something upstairs. Please hold on a moment.” After taking a look at Anya’s roses and ring box, the maid went up to inform Evan Anya was waiting at the door.

She thought it would take no more than 2 minutes for inutes for Evan to come down.

However, he

he showed up at the door half an hour later.

And Anya’s face blushed the very second, she saw the man appeared around the corner of the stair

Did Evan ... just take a shower or something?

She thought he was taking care of some business upstairs.

Evan was in black pajamas with wet hair. Anya could see his Adonis belt and abs through his unbuttoned pajama top.

Chapter 530

Anya was flushed and breathless to see the handsome man who deliberately dressed like that getting close to her slowly, her heart fluttering in the chest. She tried to calm down.

“I can’t be tempted this easily,” she thought to herself.

Anya looked away and pushed the rose towards him. She said with feigned indifference, “Thank you for the rose and ring. Mr. Welton. But I can’t have them.”

Evan ignored the

in?”

the rose. He lived

He fixed his black and tempting eyes on the woman. With a soft voice, he

he said, “Do you want to come

“Thanks, but no. I just come to give them back to you, “Anya put the rose in the hallway and took out the ring, “Take it back”

“I never take back back things t

Anya went that I gave out. Just throw them in the trash can if you don't want them,” said Evan gently. in a trash can.

dumbfounded. It was ridiculous to thr throw such an expensive ring in a

What a spender!

Anya held back her shock. She pretended to obey him. “Fine.”

She threw the ring box right beside his feet.

box

Then she turned around to leave.

Evan gave a glimpse at the box and suddenly became angry

Was she only satisfied when he was in rage?

Thinking of this, Evan became even angrier. Anya's steadfast leaving pissed him off. He picked up the box and caught up with her. When Anya was about to go downstairs, he grabbed her wrist and said, “I told you that don't give the gift back to me. Deal with it yourself!”

Then he stuffed the box back in her hand.

But his rage didn't frighten Anya at all. Instead, she found him very funny. His bad temper was completely unnecessary because she was just being a little unhappy with him. Why couldn't he just try to please her?

Taking back the box, Anya pretended to be frightened. "Mr. Welton, did you just yell at me?"

Evan was a little surprised but he immediately It's just I don't want softly, "You got me wrong

"Fine. I'll just throw it myself then."

realized that he indeed yelled at Anya. He held down his temper and said leave it in my house since I've already sent it out."

to e

Anya tried to leave again, but Evan blocked her with his body. He drew near to her, then lured her. "How about coming in for some rest??"

His buff body was so close to her. The pleasant and sexy smell of him was lingering around them.

Anya suddenly felt like on fire. She replied in panic, "Mr. Welton I think it's neither convenient nor appropriate. So, no.

to have some discussions o "Why? You work for me. I just want to his soft and sexy low voice.

on work with you

1. You still want to refuse me?" Evan said with