Anya smiled bitterly and said, "I don't have the nerve to be with on that wom because have kids and Fin afraid that they would be taken away"

That was one of the reasons why she turned him down.

"Right. Cindy nodded. She was on Anya's side when it came to children. "I mean, maybe you would be together earlier if you didn't have children"

"No, I wouldn't. I didn't want to be with him when I was still not good enough for him. Anya snorted

As Anya came out of the B-ultrasound room. Cindy, who was waiting outside, immediately held her hand and asked, "How was it?"

"It's only the second week, so there was only a little fetal heart rate. Everything is fine, Anya said softly. I also specially asked the doctor to take a video of the baby so I can send it to Evan"

"Right now?"

Wait a moment, he was busy this morning, and he was going on a business trip today. I will send it to him this evening

Anya estimated that Evan should settle down by tonight.

So he should have time to watch it.

Cindy nodded. "Well, then I will drive you back to the company You are now the top person to protect."

Anya laughed. "Don't be so dramatic."

"It's a must." Cindy held her by the arm.

Anya was amused by Cindy's caution.

However, she still felt so happy. It was her luck to have Evan in her life, but she didn't know what she had done to deserve a friend like Cindy

Anya would do anything for her no matter what happens in the future.

In the Welton Group.

Soon after Evan arrived at Welton Group, Hayden quickly went to the president's office with the flight ticket he had already booked.

"Mr. Welton. I have booked the ticket you want." Hayden put the ticket and the relevant documents in front of Evan in a respectful manner.

Evan picked them up and took a look. "Go to the mansion now and help me pack a few clothes."

Hayden nodded.

"You can go now." Evan sat down and started handling other businesses.

Hayden went out first.

As soon as Hayden went out, Evan flipped through a few documents and took out his cell phone to call Dan.

The phone beeped twice, and Dan picked up. "You called so early. Are you asking me to have lunch together?"

Evan twirled the pen in his hand and smiled. "Yes, I'm leaving just after lunch

"What do you mean?" Dan raised his eyebrows and asked.

"I'm leaving for Fenteon in the afternoon. Let's make an appointment for lunch," Evan said.

Dan was silent for a few seconds. After a while, he said, "What are you doing in Fenteon? You are not meeting people from

Hilary like a reward said slowly, "Evan, we are best friends, right? I don't want to watch my best friend take risks alone. Besides, if I can, I might be able to help."

Tag Evan frowned as he really didn't want him to get involved.

"Don't say a word I go with you. Don't forget that I also know some people in Fenteon." Dan said.

Evan really regretted giving him this call, otherwise, he wouldn't know about this. But he would cherish their friendship forever. "Actually, I am calling you to. When I'm in Fenteon, if anything happens, I hope you could take care of Anya and the children for me."

"I won't take care of your woman. You must take care of her yourself," Dan said calmly, "Don't worry about it. Everything will be fine."

Evan was silent for a few seconds. "Grey"

Chapter 553

Hayden came out of the CEO's office and was about to head to the mansion to help Evan with his luggage. He pressed the button leading to the hall at the bottom of the building and ran into Minta, who was just about to go up.

At first, Hayden meant to say nothing but hi. Then came the thought that he was going to Fenteon with Evan.

It might be a dangerous trip, so he plucked up his courage and said, "Ms. Hester, if I come back from Fenteon safely, will you allow me to court you?"

Minta got very surprised at Hayden's words, and she stared at him with her eyes wide open.

She didn't know what to do. After all, such things had never happened to her before, and today was the first time.

Her cheeks started to turn pink.

"I have to help Mr. Welton with his luggage. We will chat later, Ms. Hester." Hayden was about to leave.

Minta asked him in a hurry, "Why do you go to Fentcon?"

"Mr. Welton is afraid that there might be some problems left after that thing with Devin Crick," Hayden said honestly because he trusted her with all his heart.

But Minta's face froze and she started to look pensive.

She thought, "Is Evan going on an adventure?"

"I gotta go now."

"Okay."

To save time. Hayden marched out of the building.

However, Minta remained standing there, worrying sick about Evan. She thought she must do something.

But she wouldn't do anything presumptuously, because Evan already had Anya.

She would ask her first whether she could go or not.

dn't want Anya to misunderstand Evan. Therefore, in the evening, when Evan, Dan, and others were about to board e, she went to JK Couture to see Anya.

t time, people in JK Couture were preparing for closing time.

nta bypassed the front desk and went for Anya directly, "Ms. MacMillan, can we talk?"

Anya had good impressions of Minta, so she wouldn't mind a private chat with her.

Then they went to the corridor outside.

Seeing Minta looking sad, Anya asked softly, "What can I do for you, Ms. Hester?"

Minta bit her lips and there was full of worries and anxiety in her eyes, "Ms. MacMillan, Evan is going to Fenteon. I'm afraid that he might get in danger. Therefore I come here to ask for your permission to let me help him."

Anya froze the moment Minta was done saying those words. Her dainty eyebrows knitted instantly, "Why would he be in danger? Isn't it a business trip?"

"No, it's about Henry. Minta just blurted all out, not knowing whether Evan had told Anya or not.

She got regretted it very soon because she found out that Anya didn't know.

Evan must keep it secret in case she got worried.

Did she speak too much?

“When are you going? I will go with you.” No wonder he didn’t tell her.

Anya said with her lips sealed and eyebrows knitted.

Minta got very regretted. “You can’t go, Ms, MacMillan.”

“It’s alright. I won’t cause you any trouble. I will just stand aside and watch,” Anya said.

“But...” Minta still didn’t want her to take the risk.

84%

“I will go even if you don’t take me with you. Therefore, you might as well take me, for my protection.” Anya grabbed Minta’s hand and her eyes became wet.

She was very worried about Evan.

Minta stayed silent for a while and said, “Fine, prepare yourself and we will go to the airport.”

Anya nodded and tried her best to hold back her tears. She unleashed her hand and went for Jake Hanson to ask for leave.

Then she came to the mansion to pack things up with Minta.

On their way back, Anya got more and more upset. She was worried that Evan might get in trouble and that he wouldn’t know he had another child.

In those moods, she sent him the video of the baby’s beating heart which she took that morning.

Chapter 554

However, Evan had just arrived in Fenteon, so he hadn't had time to check his phone. He and Dan first headed to the Silver Blade Organization to meet his captain back then.

That captain came to Fenteon

many years ago

Anya was still in Nordeny. After she sent the video, she and Minth went back to the mansion to pack her luggage.

Ellie saw that she didn't say anything and went straight to the bedroom to pack her bags, so she curiously knocked on the door and entered the room. She asked with concern, "Anya, where are you going?"

After putting the last of her underwear into a small travel bag, Anya said, "I'm going on a business trip recently. Maybe a few days."

Ellie didn't know much about her work either. When she saw that Anya only took a few pieces of clothes, she hurriedly said, "You only need these clothes? It's not enough. You'd better pack more clothes."

"Don't worry. I'm just going on a business trip for a few days, so it's not convenient for me to take too many clothes," Anya zipped up her duffel bag. She looked at Ellie and lumped in her throat.

Ellie heard her voice was a little hoarse, so she squatted down and looked at her and said, "What happened? Are you uncomfortable?"

"No. This is my first trip and the first time I've been away from you and your babies for several days. I'm just, not feeling good." Anya tried to say calmly.

She didn't want Ellie to worry

Minta said it would be dangerous to go to Fenteon this time. She didn't know what kind of danger there would be. What if they all couldn't come back?

Anya didn't dare to think about that.

She was so worried that she wanted to cry.

If they all had accidents, what about the two children? What about Ellie?

"It's okay. You're just going on a business trip. You can video call with us every day!" Ellie said comfortingly.

Anya nodded, "Yes, of course."

"Since you're leaving soon, you should go hug the kids now," Ellie helped her stand up. She helped her take the bag and walked to the living room with her.

Nathaniel and Eudora were both playing in the living room.

Anya was sad when she saw the two children playing happily in the soft light. She wanted to cry again.

She hurriedly wiped away her tears with her fingers and went over to hug her children, "Babies, mommy is going away on a business trip for a few days. So you have to listen to Ellie during these days, okay?"

Eudora didn't know what "business trip" meant, so she looked at Anya in confusion.

Nathaniel was smarter. He realized right away that mommy would be away from them for a few days, just like Daddy. So he hugged Anya tightly and said, "Mommy... I won't let you go."

It's okay Mommy will just go out for a few days." Anya gently reassured him.

Eudora saw Nathaniel hugging Anya, so she hugged her tightly too.

"Mommy, you're just like daddy..." Nathaniel didn't know how to express himself fully yet, but Anya understood what he meant. Nathaniel was worried that she would not come back.

She said to Nathaniel. "Nathaniel, Eudora, it's okay. I'll be back really soon!"

"Mommy, will you swear to it?" Nathaniel blinked his big eyes at Anya after he let go of her. He wanted her to swear.

Anya looked at her smart son and felt touched. Sometimes she would rather Nathaniel could be an ordinary childlike Eudora. One was happiest when he didn't know anything.

He was sensible, so he would worry about his daddy and mommy

She didn't want her children to worry about her.

Anya sucked her nose. She raised her right hand and swore to Nathaniel and Eudora. "I swear I'll be back in a few days."

Nathaniel nodded. Anya hugged them again and grabbed her duffel bag and went out.

Chapter 555

Anya left the mansion, followed by Ellie. Ellie gave her a box of cookies and said, "Take care of yourself.

"Bon voyage and a safe landing."

Anya nodded. She suddenly remembered Evan. Then she asked Ellie, "Will you allow me to marry Evan?"

Ellie was surprised because she didn't imagine Anya would ask such a weird question. Evan would never marry a Cinderella. Ellie asked, "Did you meet him?"

"No, I'm just wondering whether you will agree with that. I know you said he was unreliable."

Ellie fell silent, then she said, "Anya, you don't fit each other."

Ellie worried Anya would be bullied by Evan's family members after the marriage.

So it was better to find a suitable match.

A huge class gap would lead to a failed marriage.

"I see." Anya put the cookies into her bag and made for the door.

She was determined to marry Evan even without Ellie's blessings.

She didn't want to lose him.

Neither did she want to marry another man.

Ellie looked at Anya as she left, then she realized something was wrong. Why did Anya ask the weird question?

Did they get back together?

Probably. They couldn't stay away from each other all the time, because they got two babies after all.

What if Anya married Evan and then was bullied? Ellie didn't know what to do.

How could Ellie protect her?

Ellie had lost her sister and she didn't want to lose Anya now.

Anya calmed down and waited for Minta to pick her at the door.

Minta arrived in about 5 minutes.

They immediately left for the airport, checked in, and boarded the plane.

Anya finally felt very relaxed when she sat down. But Evan didn't give her a response.

She never heard from him even after she sent him the video.

She wondered if he was in trouble.

Anya wanted to call him. But the air hostess stopped her as she picked up the phone. "Sorry, Miss. The plane is taking off. Please turn off your cell phone."

Anya had to give up.

But she was concerned about Evan. She asked Minta, "Have you got in touch with Evan? I texted him 2 hours ago but he didn't answer me."

"I just texted a greeting message. No response, Minta said.

He hadn't contacted anyone. But he should've arrived in Fenteon early. What happened? Anya was distracted and worried. She asked Minta, "Is he gonna be ok?"

“Ms. MacMillan, you don’t need to worry. Evan is a talent and he is well-connected in Fenteon.” Minta held Anya’s hand. gently.

Minta was surprised that Anya’s hands were sweating out of concern.

“I know he’s smart, but I’m still worried.” Anya was so concerned about him that she wanted to be with him together.

Anya agreed, but she still felt anxious anyway.

She would only relax when she met Evan.

Chapter 556

Soon, the plane flying to Fenteon took off.

It took several hours to arrive in Fenteon..

It would be midnight when they arrived.

Minta asked Anya to have a rest to have the energy to find Evan Anya agreed since she couldn’t contact Evan right now. Besides, the baby needed a rest.

No matter how worried she was, she had to have enough sleep.

Evan and Dan, who were in the Mavao City of Fenteon, went to visit Talan Henderson, who used to take care of Evan in the Silver Blade Organization. They met in a fancy restaurant.

As Ralph used to help Talan, he had been taking good care of Evan when he joined the organization at the age of 21.

Evan kept it in mind and was grateful for his help.

Talan would give him a royal welcome for sure.

Evan didn't want to waste time so he asked when they came in the room,

Mr. Henderson, I think you know why I come to you this time, right?"

Hearing it. Talan frowned as he felt a little awkward. "Yes. Did you put Devin Crick in prison?"

Evan nodded and said, "If I didn't do it, you would have seen me here."

Talan said resignedly, "OK. What can I do for you?"

"I want to see the boss of the Corfe Organization," Evan said directly.

"I must see him or I'll live in fear for the rest of my life," he thought.

"He hasn't shown up in public these years. It is quite hard to see him. But I'm sure he will send someone to kill you since you have put Devin Crick in jail."

Devin was the right-hand man of Dereon Shea, the boss of the Corfe Organization.

Losing Devin caused great damage to him.

“That’s why I need to see him. I don’t want to get killed.” Evan knew what he had done put his family in danger.

Talan grew silent as he was trying to work out a plan to protect them all.

Dan saw Talan hesitating and said, “Mr. Henderson, we only need you to tell us where he is. We won’t get you into trouble.

“Rest assured.”

Talan shook his head. “You misunderstood. I will help you for sure as I haven’t expressed my gratitude for Mr. Welton’s help. I’m just wondering how.

“I must protect both of you since you’re in my place.”

Talan was never afraid of death. Besides, he was a member of the Wiver Ware Organization

“Thank you then, Mr. Henderson” Dan said.

“Well, I can help you contact Dereon Shea. If he is willing to see you then let you know. Where do you our now?

“A hotel in Mavao City,” Evan said.

“Why not come over here? It might be safer”

Evan declined as he didn’t want to get him into trouble. Its finell ve got bodyguards”

“I’ll send more people to meet you there.” Talan continued.

“Thanks”

“You’re welcome, Talan smiled and said, “Wait. Have you heard anything to see him

“Yes, of course. It would be so rude if I have no gift for him.”

He brought a contract worth 40 million dollars here.

Evan always knew Dereon wanted to do some business in Cameron. But online Fennon Camere had stramarines

Those who wanted to invest in the companies of Cameron would need a background check.

Chapter 557.

It was dark outside when they came out of Talan’s apartment. The sky was deep blue and starry.

Evan and Dan walked shoulder to shoulder on the pavement.

It had been long since they took a stroll and chatted after graduating from university.

Dan said emotionally, “Evan, if you get married one day, you probably won’t think of me since you’re so busy”

Evan sneered, “You have tons of friends.

Dan smiled. "You're different

Evan said. "When you get married, I can be your best man."

Dan signed, "To be honest, I haven't met anyone who I spark with. Isn't it weird?"

Evan laughed. "Are you gay?"

"Impossible. Dan glanced at him, making him look hotter. He and Evan were both handsome.

Evan looked mature and cool while Dan was attractive and prett

"Wait then. Maybe you'll meet the one in Fenteon."

Dan smiled but didn't take it seriously.

After chatting and laughing, they were ready to leave and got into the car. Evan took out his phone and saw a video from Anya.

Evan clicked it without hesitation.

He was stunned.

It was a video of Ultrasound B.

He stared at it which looked like a heart.

It was the baby.

Evan froze, making Dan feel weird. He came close and saw the screen,

He didn't know what it was.

Evan realized and shouted happily, "I have a baby again!"

Dan raised his eyebrow and then he understood what Evan said "What... Good for you Again?"

Evan was lost for words.

"This is happening so fast... But I'm thrilled!" Evan said with excitement.

He put on a gentle smile on his face.

He had a kid again and would take good care of the baby.

"Great. Let's settle the thing here. And then you can give them a stable and happy life." Dan said.

"Let's go back to the hotel first."

Dan nodded.

As they got in the car, Evan called Anya. But her phone was switched off so he calle

Because of what happened last time, he didn't dare to wait until the next day.

Cindy answered the phone. "Anya is on a business trip."

Evan had a bad feeling and frowned. "Why?"

He then called Jake and asked him what was going on.

Jake told him everything. Anya asked for a leave of several days.

But he didn't say why.

Cindy as he was kind of worried.

Now, Evan got anxious and worried. He couldn't wait to go back home but he wouldn't feel easy if the thing wasn't solved.

Where did Anya go?

Chapter 558

"What's wrong? Can't you get through to her?" Dan asked with concern.

Evan nodded, looking worried and anxious.

"Why didn't you just stay home and rest?" he thought.

"Did you call Minta?" Dan reminded.

Evan immediately called Minta but her phone was switched off too.

Evan frowned and hurriedly called the bodyguard at home, asking him to check on Anya and Minta.

"Don't worry. They'll be fine," Dan said soothingly.

Evan nodded as he knew it was no use to worry. He couldn't get back right now.

All he could do was to wait for the bodyguard.

A Mercedes sped along the road in Fenteon.

The plane from Cameron to Fenteon finally arrived. Anya and Minta walked off the plane. When they were outside the airport, Anya turned on her phone.

She was confused.

She received a dozen of calls from Evan.

Minta got Evan's call the moment she switched on her phone.

Minta said, "Evan is calling! Is it because he couldn't reach you so he calls me?"

Anya nodded. "I'm texting him."

It was late. She didn't want to disturb him.

But at least she could tell from these calls that he was safe for now.

Safe and sound.

Anya finally rested assured.

She texted, "I just turned off my phone. I'm fine."

About 2 seconds.

He called.

He didn't sleep at all.

Anya looked at Minta and showed her the screen. "He's fine. I think."

Minta nodded.

"Evan," Anya said in a sweet voice. She missed him so much.

After that, Evan on the other line scolded her, "Where are you? Why did you turn off your phone again? Do you know how worried I am? Don't you ever switch off your phone!"

"OK." Though he was mad, she could still feel his concern.

Anya felt warm and happy.

"OK? That's all? Where are you now?" Evan was so anxious when thinking of what happened last time when he was not around.

"Well... I'm at home." Anya didn't want to tell him that she had already arrived in Fenteon.

"I asked Jake. He said you're on leave. Where are you now?" Evan asked with concern.

"Nowhere," Anya said gently, "Don't be mad or I'll feel bad."

Hearing it, Evan calmed down. He didn't want her to feel upset which was bad for the baby. He then asked in a gentle voice, "Are you... pregnant?"

“What do you think? I just sent you a video. Isn’t it clear?” Anya chuckled.

Her sweet voice made his heart soften.

“I know it. It’s the baby’s heart, right?”

He wished he could hug her right now.

“When I am home, we’ll get married as soon as possible.” Evan said in a low and gentle voice.

Anya nodded. “OK. Take care

“Of course, now that I have another baby, I’ll cherish my life more than before. It’s late. You need to rest.”

“No matter what happens, I will come back to see you,” he thought

Chapter 559

When Anya and Evan finished calling. Minta asked in a curious tone, “Ms. MacMillan, are we not going to tell Evan that we are here?”

Anya sh

nya shook her head and said, “Not now. He could handle this. We will only make it worse if we expose ourselves.”

Minta agreed with Anya. She smiled subconsciously and said, “Ms. MacMillan, I’m too reckless. All I want to do is to be there and help Evan.”

Anya held her hands, and she said to her while hailing a taxi, "No, you are brave, which is good. By the way, you can just call me Anya. We are already friends."

Minta nodded solemnly. Speaking of being brave, she thought Anya was the brave one. She only did this because she was indebted to Evan.

But Anya was not married to him and nor was she part of the Weltons, and she came here regardless of her safety. Judging by this, she was braver.

1. love

Minta didn't know what love was before, but now she did.

It was like what was between Evan and Anya.

They shared thick and thin and they never abandoned each other.

Anya, then when... when do we help them?" Minta asked.

"It depends. You know this better than me. Evan told me that you were once one of the special forces, and you should know what is the best time to help him. Anya had never been faced with such things before. Therefore, when it came to something professional, she had to count on Minta.

"Okay, I will go check the situation tomorrow, and we make plank. And... Anya, you stay at the hotel when the time comes since you don't know anything about fighting. It is too dangerous out there." Minta was also afraid that anything should happen to Anya.

And Evan would kill her by then.

Anya nodded, "Okay, I will. Let's go to the hotel and settle down.

She didn't come here to bring Evan more trouble. She just wanted to get closer to him so that she would be the first in case of danger.

"Okay,"

At the villa of the Browns.

Sitting in the fancy leather sofa and holding a glass of red wine, Shane was squinting at the guard who was reporting to him."

His

s eyes were as shrewd as those of a desert fox's.

"You say Evan Welton is in Fenteon?"

The guard nodded, "Yes, Mr. Brown. Mr. Welton is in Fenteon."

Shane let out a pensive sound and asked, "What for? Any investments?"

The guard shook his head. He didn't know whether it was investments or not, either. He only found out that he was there.

"Mr. Brown... the details are yet to be found," the guard said, timidly.

Not surprisingly, Shane burst into flame. He raised the glass and threw it on the guard's face. He gritted his teeth and howled, "You good-for-nothing, do I pay you for nothing? Can't you handle such a small thing?"

The guard dared not to speak. He stood there uprightly, with his head aching.

"Get out." Shane was a little anxious lately. He had been observing Evan recently, and he found his actions bewildering.

He dated Anya first, then he got engaged with Minta, and he canceled it afterward.

And he was in Fenteon now.

"What is he doing?" Shane couldn't figure it out.

He had always been considering Evan his biggest business rival. He could only become the King of Nordeny when Evan was

Out

So, what was Evan doing in Fenteon?

Chapter 560

Shane's brain went blank for a while, but soon, he came up with an idea.

Sydney MacMillan!

It was said that she once suffered from Anya's torture. So he guessed she might know some key information.

Shane couldn't wait anymore. Despite it was already very late, he said to the security who was just told to be out of here. "Take Sydney here. I need to talk to her."

The security nodded immediately and ran out as soon as possible so that Mr. Brown wouldn't kick his ass again.

The MacMillan's villa stood in the silence and dark of night. Only the streetlights around were glowing faintly.

Sydney was about to sleep.

But the doorbell rang not long after she lay down.

They couldn't afford a servant now and her dad was still in jail. So they must do everything

Hearing that annoying sound, Sydney got angry. "Mom, open the door! It's so noisy!"

on their own.

Melissa loved her daughter so much that she didn't care about being yelled at. She even comforted Sydney gently. "Go to sleep, baby. I'll check it out." Then she went to the door.

The villa was safely guarded. So Melissa didn't think there would be any bad guys

But she was quite curious about the comer.

She moved swiftly to the door. Through the peephole, she saw two men in a suit standing outside.

Melissa was shocked and worried if they were the debt collectors

She thought it would be better not to open the door.

But the two men kept ringing the bell. Melissa finally ran out of patience and decided to open the door. Anyway, she got no money for them.

It was her husband who borrowed money. They could only go to jail and ask him for repayment.

Thinking of this, Melissa opened the door boldly.

Before she could say anything, the two men spoke first.

"Is Sydney MacMillan home?"

Melissa went dumbfounded. Why would they ask for her daughter? She won't possibly let them hurt Sydney. "What do you want from her?" asked Melissa defensively.

"Mr. Brown wanted to talk to her," said the security with a grim face.

Melissa frowned, "Which Mr. Brown?"

The men replied, "Shane Brown."

Melissa couldn't help but laugh out of joy when she heard it was Shane the rich guy who asked for her daughter. "Wait a second. I'll get my daughter right away."

She thought Shane was quite a good choice for Sydney.

Although Shane couldn't rival Evan, he was already better than any rich men.

She would no longer be lack in money if Sydney was bond with hin

Happily, Melissa asked Sydney to go downstairs.

Sydney was quite reluctant at first when she heard it was Shane because everyone who knew Shane better than Melissa would regard him as a pervert.

He screwed with countless women.

And all those women ended up badly hurt.

So Sydney rejected instinctively. However, her certainty leaked away when her mom told her that Shane could bring her old wealthy days back.

She couldn't even afford a few luxury handbags with the money Anya's mom left.

Sydney was done with poverty. After thinking twice, she started to make up and went downstairs as soon as possible.

Then she followed the two bodyguards to the villa of the Browns
