Chapter 581

Evan stepped forward to pat the horse on the back. "I like it," said he.

"It's yours now. Wedding gift! Dan smiled.

Evan touched the nose of the horse and responded, "That's quite something! I have to think about your wedding present from now."

"It's a bit earlier in the day for me." Don shook his head.

"Don't say that, bro. I had never thought about marrying someone until I met Anya," persuaded Evan.

At the moment, Don didn't know how to respond.

Marriage wasn't something he wanted it and he got it. He even didn't have a crush on anyone.

"Trust me! Your true love is just around the corner!" Evan turned around and said to Don.

However, Don seemed a little worried the next moment. "I've got some upheaval at home. There has been a lot of gossip about me, said he.

Evan heard about the news that Dan's nephew who had been ill for a long time died on his wedding night, leaving his college fiancée alone.

There were suspicions that it was because of Don.

Now Don became a target of blame.

“I get it. If you need anything, just ask, okay?” comforted Evan.

Don nodded. He knew that someone wanted to take him down by those malicious gossips and he cared nothing about that.

The only problem was his niece-in-law. She was still in college.

It was a tricky thing to handle as she became a widow on her wedding day. Don couldn't figure out what to do with her.

Chapter 582

Meanwhile, Anya got to JK Couture.

Soon after she sat down, an internal call from Jake reached her, “Anya, come to my office now. Someone from the agency wants to see you.”

Anya said OK and went to his office as he asked.

She knocked on the door and was invited to come in.

Entering the office, she saw a young girl sitting there. It was Gina's assistant, Stella. “Is she the designer Gina asked me to look for?

“She looks so young. Is she reliable?” Stella said to herself.

“Ms. Stein, this is the designer you are looking for, Anya MacMillan.” Jake introduced Anya to Stella the moment he saw Anya coming in.

Stella smiled at Anya and held out a hand. “Ms. MacMillan, nice to meet you. I’m Gina’s personal assistant Stella Stein,” she said.

Anya stepped forward to shake hands with her and greeted, “Nice to meet you, too, Ms. Stein.”

“Have a seat, please, Jake followed and asked them to sit down.

“Ms. Stein, if you have any special requirements for the evening gown, please feel free to tell Anya. She’ll do anything she can to meet that,” he continued.

Stella smiled politely and replied, “Don’t worry. We won’t ask too much. But you have to know that the opening ceremony very important for Gina, and we want her to be elegant and stunning. After all, Gina is an award-winning actress.

“Anything too bland or too flashy won’t be our best choice!”

“That’s for sure. I will do my very best to live up to the qualities you expressed in the reference and I believe you will be impressed!” Anya promised as she wrote down all the requirements.

Although Stella had a lot of doubts about Anya’s capacity, she still tried to be nice to her. She knew that there must have been a reason for Gina to choose Anya. All she could do at that moment was to pray that Anya would do a good job.

If the dress didn’t look good, she would be in great trouble.

“I appreciate your confidence. I hope we’ll work well together,” said she.

Hearing this, Anya nodded.

Then Jake discussed some other details of the design with Stella. About half an hour later, Stella left. "All right, you got the design. I'm counting on you now. You're just gonna have to work a bit harder for it," Jake said to Anya as he saw Stella exiting.

"It's my job, after all," responded Anya.

Looking at her face, Jake became lost in thought. "I still have a chance if she wasn't Evan's girl. She's so pretty and talented.

"The only thing is I have no chance now."

That very thought made him frustrated.

But it didn't take long before he gathered his thoughts and gave up on Anya as he was clear that Evan was a tough cookie.

Then he said, "By the way, there's a vacant position recently, and it used to be Shyla's. I have faith in your capacity. If you can achieve some great accomplishments by the end of the year, I'll recommend you for promotion."

Anya was surprised at his words. The position Jake mentioned had been her dream job. It was a symbol for JK Couture.

Usually, only the top designers with five more years of experience and countless overseas awards could apply for that position.

As for Anya, she was still a new bee at this company.

She worried that she was not qualified for it.

Seeing the confused look on her face, Jake comforted, "Nothing to be worried about. You are qualified for the position. I appreciate your talent and capacity. All you have to do is working harder for it. Now, go back to your work first."

His words assured Anya. Then she walked out of his office and continued her job.

Chapter 583-

Nothing happened in the morning. At lunchtime, Evan sent her message and asked her to eat out.

Anya packed up and went downstairs to find him.

Evan was already in the car, waiting for her,

He was not in the company this morning, and he just came over from Dan's place.

After Anya got in the car, he called home first. Last night, Eudora had a fever, and he wanted to know if her body temperature is up again.

As soon as the phone got through, Evan told Anya, "I just made a phone call. Eudora is all right."

Eudora was under the weather last night. As a father, Evan was more worried than Anya.

Anya nodded. She still wanted to listen to Eudora's voice, to make sure that she was better. She continued to say a few words. to Ellie before hanging up the phone.

Evan took her hand and said, "Don't worry, Eudora has received treatment last night. Everything will be fine."

"Okay." Anya nodded, hoping that Eudora would not have a fever again.

ld her in

“Where do you want to eat?” Evan held her in his arms.

“Whatever.” Anya didn’t know what to eat.

“Then I’ll take you to a new restaurant featured by their soup.”

Anya followed his opinion, “Good.”

Evan told the driver to go to a newly opened restaurant on Westfield Street.

This restaurant is pretty luxurious, with an average consumption of 300 dollars for each person.

Anya came in, and ordered several kinds of soup randomly, which cost almost 1,500 dollars. Only people like Evan could afford to eat in such a fancy restaurant. In the past, she would not even walk into such places

“How is it? Does it taste good?” Evan took a spoon to feed her and asked.

Anya tasted it and felt good. “It tastes good.”

Evan put down the spoon and said. “If you drink more, the baby can also get the nutrition.”

Anya smiled and continued to drink her soup slowly, while Evan was sitting next to her and looking at her, feeling that watching Anya drinking was happier than eating it himself.

Evan looked at it for a while, and the company called for something.

He took his phone and went outside to answer it.

Anya sat over there, tasting the soup by herself.

Several debutantes came in with He

Hermes bags and began to talk about Dan.

“Have you heard? Tom died, and Dan seemed to have something to do with it.”

“How could it have anything to do with him? One is the actual ruler of the Bakers, while the other is only a collateral one.”

“By the way, didn’t Tom marry Judy, the adopted daughter of the Hall family? orphanage. Now she has turned into a phoenix.”

She used to be a crow, growing up in an

went to college, right? What bad luck! She became a widow before she was able to enjoy the benefits of being Mrs.

“Whatever! Dan was not the one that she married. Almost every woman in our circle wants to marry Dan and Evan.”

These debutantes talked and laughed past Anya. One of them knew Anya, since Anya and Evan were having an affair.

Later, Minta became a part of the affair with Evan, but their engagement was canceled.

Is this woman still in love with Evan now?

This lady looked at Anya, who was drinking soup with her head down, and suddenly realized something. How could such a poor woman afford to eat in such a fancy restaurant?

She must have got a lot of money for her break-up with Evan, walked to Anya's desk and began to sneer: "Well, someone got a lot break-up fee and began to puff up her face and pretend to be rich?"

This lad

As soon as she taunted, the ladies next to her laughed.

"What a poor woman."

"Even if you get a lot of money for your break-up, you are still poor in essence."

"Let me see what she ate." A debutante went over and picked up her order menu. When she saw that she had spent 1,500 dollars on a simple meal, she immediately laughed, "Well, a meal costs 1,500 dollars. You did get a lot of money after your break-up."

The debutante finished and was about to throw the list to Anya's head. Suddenly two guards came and pulled the socialite impolitely.

He sternly warned, "Don't come near Mrs. Welton, otherwise, don't blame us for being rude."

That socialite was very muddleheaded, "Mrs. Welton? Why would such a poor woman like Anya become Mrs. Welton? Are you kidding me?"

Chapter 584

“What? Lady of the Welton house? Did she hire you to call her that?” The lady gave a brittle laugh with doubt.

When she was laughing. Anya sipped her soup and said, “Can you send them out

They are so noisy

Hearing this, the lady turned hostile, pointed at Anya, and shouted, “How dare you send me out? Who do you think you are...” But before she finished, Evan came on Anya’s call.

Walking toward Anya, Evan and sat by her side and asked, “What happened?”

Putting down her spoon, Anya said, “Somebody is making too much noise. I even lose my appetite.”

“Really? I will handle them for you.” Extremely partial to Anya, Evan turned around, looked at the ladies, and said grimly, “Get out! The next time you bother my wife would be the end of our business.”

Evan’s words shocked the ladies. They stared at Evan and Anya with their eyes wide open, as if they had made a mistake.

The ladies thought,

Seeing theft didn’t move, Evan’s voice became even colder. “Apologize to my wife before you leave.”

The ladies roused themselves at once and came closer to Anya as Evan said, though reluctantly.

They faked a smile with discontent, and said, “Sorry, Ms. MacMillan. We apologize for what we have said just now. Please forgive us.”

“I will not let go that easily if it ever happens again.” Anya glared at them and said grimly.

Honestly, it was the first time that she had ever scolded arrogant ladies of this kind. Her heart beat violently.

But now she had Evan as her shield.

She would not waste this excellent chance to teach them a lesson

“Certainly, we will never do it again,” the ladies said and left without delay.

Outside the room, they tapped their chests and said, “Did you hear that? Evan married her!”

“She does have the allure to fascinate man like Evan!”

“Stop! Now she has Evan as her back, we’d better leave her alone.

The ladies left the place

d touched her head. The normal temperature slightly relieved her. Anya carried Eudora, walked "How was Eudora this afternoon?"

*She was fine and Energetic. She even ate up a bowl of congee." Ellie said and touched Eudora's little face at the same time.

"Good to hear," Anya said.

"By the way, Gina went to her friend's today. She told servants to bake some cake before she left. Let me check that," she said as she rose.

Anya put Eudora beside Nathaniel, stood up, and said. "I'll go with you."

"Okay, let them play in the living room. I have something to tell you," Ellie said.

Anya nodded.

They went to the back kitchen, leaving a maid playing with the kids.

Chapter 585

Eudora was not interested in toys. What happened yesterday left some emotional shadows on her. As long as she was not in her father's house, she would be afraid. When her mother and Ellie left, she grabbed her brother's clothes tightly, fearing that her grandmother would pinch her again when she came back.

Nathaniel was playing with toys himself. After a few minutes, there was a clack of high-heeled shoes on the ground outside the villa

Eudora was instantly startled by the sound of footsteps, which sounded like her grandmother's shoes. She hid behind her brother and trembled. Feeling that his sister was trembling, Nathaniel thought she was uncomfortable again.

He immediately turned around and hugged her, "Eudora."

Eudora threw herself into his arms.

Soon, the footsteps of high-heeled shoes were getting closer and closer. Gina really came back. As soon as she entered the living room, the maid saw her and immediately went to carry her bag, "Mrs. Welton, you're back.

Gina glanced around the living room and didn't find the matriarch. She asked coldly. "Isn't matriarch at home?"

The maid nodded. The matriarch went to visit her friend. She won't be back till later.

It turned out the matriarch went to visit her friend.

Gina looked at the two children sitting on the floor of the living room with a cold and disgusted look in her eyes.

Nathaniel looked a little better. After all, he was like her son when he was a child. She couldn't bear to abuse him. But Eudora was different. This little girl looked so much like Anya

It was disgusting to even take a look at her.

Squinting her eyes, Gina walked up to the two kids and grabbed Eudora, ready to make her stand outside.

When pulling Eudora, Gina said in a cold voice, "Get out!" Eudora was a real eyesore to her.

But Nathaniel rushed to save his sister again.

Eudora was frightened.

All of a sudden, she broke down and burst into tears. She cried so hard that she went black and fainted.

She became unconscious.

Seeing his sister fall, Nathaniel immediately began to cry and called Anya, "Mommy....

mommy...

Gina stood aside and watched coldly. Just now, the maid wanted to help Eudora, but Gina immediately scolded, "Get out of here. It's none of your business."

The maid was afraid of her. She didn't dare to make a move in an instant. Then she turned around and left.

Gina look a look and went upstairs to remove her makeup.

There were only two children left in the living room. One was ina coma, and the other was crying beside his sister.

Hearing the noise, Anya and Ellie came out of the kitchen and saw that Eudora was unconscious. They immediately asked the driver to send her to the hospital. On the way, they hurriedly called Evan and asked him to go to the hospital.

Nathaniel, what's wrong up, but she failed.

with your sister?" Anya was so anxious that she kept hugging Eudora She wanted to wake Eudora

Her daughter was completely unconscious.

Nathaniel finally managed to utter a complete sentence out of anger, "It was... grandma!"

Her mother-in-law?

"You said grandma bullied your sister?" Anya asked through gritted teeth.

Nathaniel nodded.

This time. Anya couldn't bear it and burst into anger. Gina could bully her, but not her daughter!

15 minutes later, the car finally arrived at the hospital.

Eudora was sent to the emergency room for rescue. Anya and Ellie were waiting outside. When they were waiting. Anya said to Ellie beside her, "Ellie, I'll go out for a while. Call me as soon as Eudora comes out."

"Where are you going?" Ellie asked anxiously, not knowing what Anya was going to do.

"I'll be back soon," Anya said and walked out quickly.

Then she got in the car and went back to the villa.

When she arrived at the villa, Gina had just taken a shower and removed her makeup. She went downstairs. Seeing that, Anya strode over without saying anything and stood in front of her.

Gina wasn't caring at all about Gina's anger. She sneered, "What's wrong?"

Anya raised her hand and slapped Gina heavily. She said through gritted teeth, "If anything happens to my daughter, you will die with her!

Chapter 586

All people in the villa, including Cina, were shocked at Anya's yelling.

No one had ever hurt her, no matter who in her own family or the Welton family.

But now she was beaten by the one who claimed to be her daughter-in-law.

Gina and the housemaids were all in shock.

They didn't expect that Anya dared to hit Mrs. Welton.

In the Welton family. Mdm would sometimes listen to Gina. But now, Anya had suppressed both of them.

The maids hid in corners and watched all these happening.

Gina was disgraced. Covering her check, Gina glared at Anya and yelled, "How dare you! Don't you want to be a Welton anymore?"

Anya answered bravely, "I would rather go if living here threaten my daughter's safety."

"You bitch! Just admit that you would rather stay forever! Gina knew very well about this kind of girl who had been wanting to marry a rich man. These girls wouldn't leave easily as they tried their best to get in.

Anya didn't want to waste any time with her. The slap had said very clearly about her attitude to her mother-in-law.

They were against each other.

Without saying anything, she turned and left, heading to the hospital where her daughter was lying.

Before she could leave, Gina grabbed her by the arm. "You hit me and acted as nothing happened!"

"Leave me," Anya said impatiently.

"Guards! Tie her up!" Gina raised her hand to beat her as she was calling the guards.

Gina was about to slap Anya in her face.

The time Mdm came in, she saw the scene. The old lady shouted out as she stepped forward, "What are you doing, Gina?"

"I am punishing her and teaching her the proper way to be a daughter-in-law. She shouldn't have provoked me as if I was nobody." Gina grabbed Anya, not worrying that Mdm would blame her for doing this.

Why did she pass out?” Mdm was worried.

“Grandma, we are leaving tomorrow. I can’t let Eudora stay here I am afraid that something terrible would happen again, and then we might fail to save her. Anya didn’t point the details out, but she believed that Mdm could understand.

Then, she rushed out.

Astonished as she was, the old lady paused for a while.

Chapter 587

“What is going on, Gina Mdm was confused for a while before she questioned Gina.

Gina put her hands on her chest and said indifferently as if it had nothing to do with her. “Mom, why do you trust Anya more than me? Let her move away if she wants”

“You won’t tell me, will you? I’ll make it clear myself!” Seeing that Gina didn’t say anything, Mdm was angry and began to ask the maids at home.

The maids knew the truth, but they didn’t dare to tell Mdm when they saw Gina’s fierce look.

Mdm let her anger spurt out when she saw the maids hesitating, then she yelled at the maids, “What are you thinking? Will you not even listen to me in this family? How dare you! Get out of here if you don’t tell me what happened today!”

The butler hurried over to comfort Mdm, “Don’t get angry. You are not in good health.”

“I will tell you... Mrs. Welton suddenly pulled Eudora when she came back. Eudora was frightened and then fainted,” A maid explained for fear of being driven out of the Welton family.

Gina shouted, “What are you talking about? When did I pull her

The maid lowered her head and did not dare to speak a word.

Mdm understood, so she stared fiercely at her Gina and said, “Gina, behave yourself. If there is anything wrong with Eudora, I will break off my relationship with you.”

After a while, Mdm took a breath and said to the butler next to her, “Call John and ask him to come back. There are so many things to deal with in our family”

The butler nodded.

Gina’s face suddenly changed. She clenched her fist and tried to say calmly, “Mom, do you have to ask John back? He is in the middle of the business in Selolia.”

“We’ve got a mountain to get through in our family. He should also come back to see Evan, Anya, as well as his two grandchildren,” Mdm said coldly, then she turned to say to the other maid. “You go get me a car. I’m going to the hospital.”

The maid responded hurriedly. "Yes."

Gina stayed in the living room, shaking with anger.

transferred to the VIP intensive care unit, Evan and Anya walked to the window on the side of the ward and talked about it. "What happened, Anya?"

“You should ask your mother. Anya didn’t want to be a good daughter-in-law and didn’t plan to please Gina deliberately.

She would rather give up her marriage if her daughter had to be at risk.

“My mother? Did she do it?” Evan asked with a frown.

Anya nodded. She suddenly grabbed Evan’s hands, and couldn’t help crying. “Shall we move back our home today, Evan? I’m afraid Nathaniel will also be hurt.

“Don’t cry. I will protect you and our children, and I won’t let this happen again.” Evan hugged Anya and wiped her tears.

“How about moving back to our home?”

“Okay.”

Chapter 588

Anya and Evan talked by the window, and then Mdm also hurried over.

Upon seeing Anya and Evan, Mdm asked anxiously. “How about Eudora? Is she okay? Where is she now?”

“Don’t worry. Grandma. She is all right.” Evan looked back at Mdm and said, “She has been transferred to the intensive care unit

“It’s my fault. I shouldn’t go out to the party today.” Mdm regretted that she had walked away from Eudora.

“Grandma, it has nothing to do with you, Evan comforted her.

Mdm still felt guilty, especially when she saw Anya. She walked to Anya and took her hand. “Anya, I have already called Evan’s father. I will ask him to deal with this matter and make a decision. Rest assured, you and your children will be safe here when you marry Evan.”

Anya nodded.

Take me to see Dora” After speaking. Mdm urged Evan to take her to see Eudora.

Evan said. “Okay, let’s go.”

Evan went back to the ward to see Eudora with Mdm. When he looked at his dizzy daughter, he got outraged. After keeping Mdm company in the ward for a while. Evan went back to the villa to see Gina.

Gina knew they would come to her, so she didn’t care at all.

She just sat in the living room and waited for them, smoking a cigarette while looking through the magazine.

After Evan came in. Gina glanced at him without saying anything and continued to read the magazine.

Gina knew that she was Evan’s mother no matter what she did.

And Evan dared not deal with her.

But it was really different this time. Evan didn’t want to pamper his mother. Eudora was his daughter and the apple of his eye. He would never allow anyone to bully her, including his parents.

Evan made up his mind, so he walked to Gina, took the cigarette from her mouth, and threw it into the ashtray of the coffee table.

“What are you doing? Do you want to hit me?” Gina looked up at Evan and said calmly.

“I won’t bit women, including my mother.” Evan also looked at her calmly, but the anger in his eyes showed that he was riled

“Okay, let’s move on as if it didn’t happen. You decided to move back tomorrow, didn’t you?” Cina continued to turn a page of the magazine and said indifferently.

“If it happened before, maybe I would pass over your mistakes because you are my mother. But you overplayed your hand this time. I think you are actually more suitable for living abroad, mom. And you can stay with my dad. What do you think?” Evan said slowly.

Gina looked at Evan in shock and anger when she heard what he said. He threw the magazine in her hand directly on the floor and said angrily, “Evan, I am your mother. I gave birth to you and brought you up. Are you doing fight against me for a woman?”

Evan stared at his mother without much affection. He said, “I know what you did for me, and I will take care of you as possible as I can, but I can’t turn a blind eye to your mistakes, let alone you hurt my loved ones.

“I won’t drive you away directly, and this is the last thing I could do for you.”

What Evan said riled Gina up. She thought,

“Evan, I am your mother!” Gina shouted out again through gritted teeth.

“Have you thought about how you treat your Anya and your grandchildren as my mother?” Evan said coldly and prepared to leave, but he suddenly thought of something after taking a step, so he continued, “If you never change your mind to get along well with Anya and our children, I don’t think you deserve to be my mother.”

After Evan finished speaking, he strode away.

If his children were hurt by others instead of his mother, he might have killed them.

Gina slumped on the sofa. She knew her son, and she was aware that Evan managed not to do anything terrible to her.

She might lose his son.

But Gina didn’t repent for that she did. Gina was eager to

Chapter 589

Evan frowned after he came out of the villa and took a glance at the sky. Then, he took out his phone and texted Anya. “Anya, what happened today will not happen again. I will send my mother abroad. You don’t need to please her.”

This message showed his sincerity.

The relationship between mother-in-law and daughter-in-law had always been a deadlock. Evan didn’t want Anya to be wronged to please his mother because he knew his mother very well.

No matter how well Anya did it, Gina couldn’t change her attitude.

If it was that case, it was better to keep them separate.

He didn't want Anya to live under pressure every day.

It would be deadlock unless Gina could completely change.

Evan drove back to the hospital after giving Anya this promise.

Anya was touched by the promise. She had been worried that Evan would stand by his mother's side. After all, that was the woman who gave birth to him.

But Evan chose her and their children in the end.

Evan's love touched Anya deeply.

He was indeed a good husband and father.

Eudora finally woke up after being in a coma for two hours. She opened her eyes and saw her mother, father, great grandmother, and great aunt.

There was no terrifying grandma.

Eudora felt relieved and lay on the bed for rest.

After two days in the hospital, Eudora could be discharged. Anya said to the matriarch that she would move back today. The matriarch had no objection for she would worry about the two kids safety if Eudora and Nathaniel continued to live with her. The matriarch would like a gathering after Evan's father returned.

Thus, they moved back to the mansion.

As soon as Eudora and Nathaniel went back home, they frolicked in the huge living room.

Seeing the happy scene, Anya was even more determined that she would not let the children see Gina at least until Gina changed her mind.

The matriarch couldn't help sighing when she saw the joy of the two kids.

It would be great if Gina was sensible.

One day later, after John finished dealing with the matter at hand, he hurried home.

After the incident, Evan and Anya moved back to the mansion and got closer to each other.

Eudora also almost recovered, and she had hardly experienced any symptoms of syncope again.

During the past few days before John returned, the Bakers had an acrimonious quarrel. Richard wanted to make a fuss about Tom's sudden death.

Dan was the guy who would be blamed for Tom's death.

Especially, Richard threatened that girl, Judy, who had just married into the Baker family, and wanted her to testify to prove that Dan was the murderer.

It made headlines, and even Anya knew about it.

Anya and Dan didn't have a lot of paths crossed, but she did meet with Dan several times because of Evan. She felt that Dan was very agreeable, not like the kind of person who would deliberately kill Tom.

After seeing the news. Anya immediately sent a message to her husband. [Darling, is there something wrong with Dan? Everyone in our company is talking about him.]

Evan was in the Baker family now, and the Bakers were discussing whether it was a funeral or an autopsy.

He must stay with Dan today.

After receiving the text message from his wife, Evan immediately replied. [It is fake news. Don't read it.]

Anya texted. [Well, I also don't think he is that kind of person.]

Evan replied. [I am staying with him in the Baker family. I will pick you up for dinner after getting it done.]

Anya simply replied a word. [Okay.]

Evan put down the phone and saw a pretty girl in a black dress with her head down sitting silently in the middle of other Bakers.

It seemed that the girl was Tom's newlywed wife who was coerced into slandering Dan.

Chapter 590

The Baker's was lively

Many elders in the Baker family were invited. The Bakers intended to ruin Dan's reputation and prevented him from being the successor of the Baker Group.

Many Bakers drooled over the position

However, David Baker only wanted his grandson Dan to be the president of the Baker Group. Dan was the second son of David's first son. When he retired, David told the board that he would give all of his shares to Dan. Other Bakers could inherit none of the shares but be ordinary employees in the company.

David was biased by doing so, but he didn't want the Bakers to quarrel over the shares after he died. He wanted to ensure the development of the Baker Group.

As long as the shares were given to someone, other Bakers couldn't influence the company.

However, the unfair behavior caused anger in the Baker family.

Other Bakers thought.

David presided over the big picture of the family. Dan was a business genius and enabled the Baker Group to make money and develop well. Therefore, other Bakers couldn't say against him.

However, Tom died suddenly a few days ago. Other Bakers wanted to use Tom's death to deal with Dan.

They couldn't ruin Dan's reputation without evidence.

Therefore, they wanted to exploit Judy, Tom's newlywed wife.

They designed it before Tom's funeral.

Tom's parents and other cousins invited David and other elders to be the witnesses and determined to ruin Dan's reputation.

Evan knew their plots, so he went to the Baker's to support Dan.

Dan didn't care about their schemes.

He had learned a lot from David and run the company for such a long time. He was not afraid of those Bakers,

He treated their plots as a show. Dan and Evan were sitting there and watching their performance.

"Dad, you must help us. Tom had been healthy. He died suddenly because he met Dan before his wedding day. There must be something wrong," said Richard Baker, Tom's father, while pretending to cry.

"What's wrong?" David said

He thought,
