

Desperation 123

Chapter 123

There were five judges. Every judge scored ten points!

Seeing the dazzling score, Jessica clenched her clothes tightly with her fingers hanging by both sides.

She thought, 'I had already wet Ashley's design draft with water. Why could that bitch Ashley still get such a high score!'

Jessica was so angry that her whole body was trembling. She thought, "Why? Why am I inferior to Ashley in everything?"

Seeing Ashley's score, an intelligent reporter in the audience immediately shouted excitedly.

"Ten points! Ashley's score is higher than Eric's! So Ashley defeated Eric! This time, the Zyrrinthia Team defeated the Global Team!"

The foreign designers who just thought Eric would win and sent congratulations to Eric in advance felt as if they had been slapped hard. on the face at that moment, and they were highly embarrassed.

The designers from Zyrrinthia in the audience had been despised by Eric for so long, and now they could finally feel proud.

"Well done! Ashley is awesome! Eric was very arrogant before, but now he's not qualified to be arrogant!"

"I thought Jessica was the last hope, but I didn't expect Ashley to be!"

"Oh, I looked down on Ashley before. I'm really ashamed... Jessica doesn't deserve to be a new, talented designer, but Ashley does!"

When Frankie in the crowd saw that scene, his face turned awful with anger, and his chest rose and fell violently.

He thought, 'Ashley, Ashley, Ashley again!'

Nothing made him feel more annoyed than seeing Ashley being praised!

He thought that Jessica would be appreciated by everyone and help restore the reputation of the Ramos family this time, but he didn't expect Ashley, the jinx of his family, to win!

According to the competition rules, since Ashley defeated Eric, it was the turn of the second designer of the Global Team to challenge Ashley.

The work of the second designer of the Global Teams was not as good as Eric's.

Ashley sat lazily on the chair, tapping the armrests, looking calm and leisurely. Her red lips slightly raised. "Is this the best you can do? Next."

The designer was infuriated immediately but couldn't refute it because his work was indeed not as good as Ashley's.

From the second designer to the fifth designer, all four lost to Ashley.

Seeing the familiar scene, the designers and reporters from Zyrrinthia watching the competition were so delighted.

"Oops, just now they looked down on designers from Zyrrinthia, but who are the people who lost to Ashley? Oh, it's Eric and his stupid teammates. Hahaha!"

Humiliating others with their failures was delightful.

Now, it was the turn of the sixth designer of the Global Team to challenge Ashley. His design draft was displayed and received a score of 9.3.

So far, all six designers of the Global Team had lost to Ashley.

Ashley raised her eyebrows slightly, leaned back in her chair, looked at the arrogant Eric, and echoed what he had said to despise him.

"It seems that foreign designers are just so-so."

Ashley had red lips, fair skin, and gorgeous facial features. Her eyes made no secret of her arrogance and contempt for him. She was so flamboyant and eye-catching.

The eyes of the reporters and designers in the audience twinkled when they saw Ashley's overbearing look as if she had knocked all the six designers of the Global Team to the ground.

They thought, 'She is...so cool!'

Ashley reversed the situation alone and regained all the dignity the Zyrrinthia Team had lost!

She even defeated Eric, who was arrogant and contemptuous of others, to the point where he could not fight back!

However, it was not over yet.

Ashley stood up from the chair. Her beautiful face was expressionless, and she looked at Eric indifferently.

“Since you don’t know how to respect Zyrrinthian, there is no need for everyone in the Design Exchange Competition to respect you. The exit is behind you. Get out!”

Eric was stunned for several seconds before he realized that Ashley wanted to drive them out!

He thought, There is nothing more embarrassing than being kicked out. in full view of the public...

Eric’s face suddenly turned livid, and he shouted angrily.

“The Design Exchange Competition is organized with the support of the Millein Fashion Association. Attelia is the president of the Millein. Fashion Association. She is not even present. Ashley, who do you think you are to kick us out!”

Hearing that, Ashley chuckled softly, her voice crisp and pleasant, “Jaden, come here.”

Jaden walked onto the stage with a smile. His bright eyes were icy. “Eric, Attelia has just contacted me. Attelia just wants to say two words to you. about your behavior: get out.”

Jaden was one of the founders of Glory Youveile, who was also the vice. president of the Millein Fashion Association. No one dared to question. what he said.

Jaden snapped his fingers gracefully and called the security guards at the venue.

The security guards followed Jaden’s instructions and drove Eric and his teammates out without mercy.

Seeing that scene, the reporters and designers in the audience cheered. They felt so relieved and overjoyed!

They thought, ‘Ashley...is so awe-inspiring....

‘Besides, Attelia is so cool that she lets Eric get out directly!’”

A reporter couldn't help but look at Jaden on the stage and asked, "Mr. Walter, there are rumors that Attelia will attend the Design Competition this time. Will she really come?"

Exchange

Jaden looked at Ashley beside him.

Ashley nodded slightly at him.

After receiving the signal, Jaden glanced at Frankie in the crowd with a dangerous smile and then answered the reporter.

"Yes, Attelia will attend this competition.

"Everyone, the Design Exchange Competition lasts for two days. Attelia will publicly attend the fashion dinner party tomorrow!"

As soon as Jaden finished speaking, everyone in the vast venue immediately became excited.

"Did I hear it wrong? Attelia is here and will make a public appearance at tomorrow's dinner party! Great!"

The reporters were so excited that they immediately broadcast the explosive news and what happened at today's Design

Exchange Competition online.

Attelia was really very famous.

Even netizens who didn't understand fashion design had heard of this name.

Attelia was a legend in the fashion design industry and a Zyrrinthian. She would make a public appearance tomorrow, and netizens naturally looked forward to it excitedly.

In addition, netizens were shocked when they saw Ashley defeating Eric with a water-soaked design draft.

They said: [Ashley knows how to design clothes and has superb skills. Oh My, she's such a treasure!]

Amidst the exclamations, some netizens discovered something was wrong.

[Ashley's design draft was splashed with water by Jessica. Did Jessica push the water bottle over on purpose?]
