

Devil Slave 31

Chapter 31 Extra Lifeline...

Those of the nameless crew watched. They watched as The three-headed dog fell on Lenny.

Everyone went silent. At first, it was truly thrilling to watch as he rushed underneath the beast to pierce it with his knives. However, now was a different matter.

The three-headed dog weighed a lot. Even as a half-born, there was no way Lenny was going to have survived all that weight.

E7007 watched on in silence.

This was exactly the thing he was trying to avoid, but Lenny with his stubbornness had to do what was on his mind. And now the result was his death.

After a few seconds, E7007 sighed. "Common people! we still have more to survive. However, just when he was about to look away, he saw the body of the Cerberus move.

"Ready your guard!" he ordered wildly.

And all the shields went up once more.

The flesh of the Cerberus moved again. However, it was in a weird manner. It was almost like something was wriggling inside its body.

E7007 squint his eyes a bit. He was not sure of what he was seeing.

When the first Cerberus fell, he did not see its body move in that manner.

This was the first time.

"Shit!" he cursed. Was this beast about to turn into something else? After all, this would not be the first time that was happening.

demons brought all kinds of beasts into this world.

many of them were genuine freaks of nature.

Even though the first beast did not turn into something else when it died, that did not mean that this one was going to be the same.

However, what happened next was a real surprise.

A long knife suddenly appeared at the back of the Cerberus. And then the knife dug out in a circle.

"It can't be?" E7007 muttered to himself. However, it was just as he had thought.

Slush!

Lenny came out the back of the dog with his body totally covered in blood.

The moment he surfaced, the members of the nameless crew screamed in the ecstasy of victory.

The crowd of demons also went wild with joy.

Those of the nameless crew ran up to him.

<Congratulations! Bonus points

<+1 Exp for bonus kill>

<+1 Exp for bathing in Blood>

<+5 Exp for Killing a new creature>

The alerts sounded in his head.

Lenny looked at them and did not know whether to laugh or cry.

He had gone through a lot to kill this beast and literally dig his way through the body and out the surface, and all he got in total for his hard work was 6 Exp points.

Then again, he was happy to have even survived.

If it was another person, that person would have been crushed under the weight of the Cerberus. It was his incredible knowledge of the anatomy of creatures that helped him navigate his way through the body of the beast.

The crowd of demons screamed and those from the Nameless crew climbed the body of the Cerberus as they celebrated their victory.

Some of them helped Lenny climb out of the body of the beast.

E7007 approached Lenny. He paused in front of him with a frown on his face.

And for a few seconds there, those of the nameless crew stopped shouting.

After all, there would be no celebrating if E7007 did not approve.

E7007 suddenly smiled, and then he pulled Lenny closer. Regardless of the fact that Lenny was covered totally in blood. He did not care and he embraced him, "not bad! not bad!" E7007 complimented.

<New ability unlocked: Rabid Dog> Another alert appeared.

Just then, Lenny caught a sight in the corner. By now, The other Gladiators had managed to have brought down the other Cerberus dogs except for one.

However, he could not help but watch as E666 attacked the dog rapidly. Her skills were exceptional.

She used a whip that was laced with a blade.

She was very fast and her acrobatic skills would not lose in anyway to those gymnasts in Lenny's former world.

In fact, he would say she would very much beat them.

The way she moved, reminded Lenny of a cat. The only thing that was missing, was most likely a tail.

She was so fast that there was one time that she dodged the teeth of the Cerberus after managing to even enter its mouth.

She was fast, but her strength looked like it was greatly lacking, and even though she made good hits on the beast's body, it was not so deep.

Other Gladiators also fought as they tried to bring the creature to its end.

However, it was apparent that E666 made the most hits.

Therefore, the Cerberus concentrated its attacks on her.

That was when it happened. E666 suddenly got herself trapped in a corner, and the teeth of one of the heads were about to close shut.

Immediately, she opened her mouth. To others, it looked like she was asking for help but to Lenny it was different.

<Ability in Use>

The System alerted him that she was using her ability.

Immediately, a male gladiator suddenly had his focus stolen from his eyes, and at his own fatality, he jumped and pushed E666 out of the way.

The Jaws of the Cerberus immediately shut.

However, the man did not scream as he was being chewed upon like the way a tooting toddler would do a toy.

His eyes remained in a blank state, and a slight smile remained on his face.

This had happened fast. And Lenny was left in surprise.

He could not believe what he had just seen.

It suddenly made sense why she was not only offering her body for sex with him, but even two points.

How could she not? After all, those under her spell were her extra life lines.

Lenny made a mental note not to ever by some mysterious mistake get caught up in between that girl's fingers.

Other Gladiators rushed the last beast and soon enough, it fell to the ground.

As the last Cerberus fell, Lenny got yet another alert...
