Chapter 61

“If they carried the wrong baby, then Sophie should have been taken away by someone else. Why is she in the welfare institute?” Wesley was a meticulous person and couldn’t help but feel a little puzzled.

At this point, Timothy couldn’t help but sigh. “Well, twenty years ago, many people couldn’t afford the medical fees and ran away during the fire. Together with Sophie, three baby girls were unclaimed at that time. In the end, they were sent to the welfare institute...”

Speaking of this, Timothy felt sorry for Sophie again.

When they thought about how Sophie had spent her childhood in a welfare home and how well they treated someone else’s child, they felt very stupid.

The Dawson family people also knew what happened after that.

Bianca could no longer hold back her tears. “It’s all my fault... If I hadn’t suddenly given birth to you on the way home, I wouldn’t have given birth in that hospital.”

If it was in Habourland, Bianca would definitely have someone to take care of her child. The child would also be well-guarded. Such a thing would definitely not happen..

Marcus quickly comforted her. “It’s not your fault. It’s my fault for being too worried about you at that time. I thought that it would be fine to delay for a few minutes before going to see the child...”

‘In just ten minutes, the hospital was on fire, causing my own daughter to be left outside. As a father, I am really incompetent... Marcus thought.

Seeing how sad her family was, Sophie could not help but say, “Dad, Mom, Brothers, these things are all in the past. Now that I can find my family again and not be an orphan, I’m very satisfied.”

Sophie's voice was a little choked up, making her brothers could not help but feel sorry.

'Sophie had clearly suffered a lot outside, but she still comforted us when she returned home. We are really incompetent,' they thought.

Chapter 61

"Sophie, don't worry. I will make it up to you in the future!" Benjamin was the first to make a promise, unable to suppress the guilt in his heart.

Wesley also nodded and said, "I'll treat you better as well."

Wesley could tell that Sophie was a very sensible and strong girl. Such a girl made him feel sorry for her even more.

Timothy also said from the bottom of his heart, "Sophie, no matter what happens in the future, I will protect you. I won't let anyone bully you again."

Lucas could not help but sigh. "You've already said everything. What should I say to Big Brother? Let's say something practical."

As he spoke, Lucas took out a car key and handed it to Sophie. "Sophie, I'm so happy that you finally come back home. As your older brother, I naturally can't welcome you empty-handed. When I went out with Timothy just now, I bought you a new car as a greeting gift."

They did not expect Lucas to come prepared. The other brothers immediately frowned and looked at him.

Benjamin was the first to stand up and wrap his arms around Lucas's neck. Benjamin said forcefully, "Lucas, you're good. You actually learned to make us embarrassed?"

Lucas didn't even tell them that he was preparing a gift!

Lucas raised his eyebrows coldly and said, "Did you leave me a sentence when you were promising just now? You can't blame me for this."

Timothy also shook his head helplessly. "Lucas, you're really too cunning. No wonder you mysteriously disappeared for half an hour when I was investigating the case. So you went to buy a car."

"Thank you for the compliment," Lucas said with a smile.

Lucas did not think that the word "cunning" was a derogatory term at all.

Seeing that Lucas had prepared a gift, Benjamin quickly took out a black card and said,

"Since Lucas gave you a car, I didn't prepare anything special. There's no limit to this card.

If you need anything, you can use it at any time. I'll reimburse you."

They did not expect Benjamin to be so generous. Wesley and Timothy were both stunned.

"Benjamin, I think you are the one who make us embarrassed!" Timothy said helplessly.

Cars and money were all given. Timothy had been busy running around and had not prepared anything.

Seeing that the two brothers had taken action, Kenneth said coldly, "You don't have a house to live in, right? I'll give you a seaside villa. How about that?"

"What!" As soon as Kenneth said this, Timothy, who was drinking water, spat out. "Kenneth, what did you say?"

Kenneth was the quietest in this family. He would not speak unless it was a critical moment.

Timothy did not expect that Kenneth would actually participate in giving gifts to Sophie!

“What else can I do?
It’s embarrassing to be last.” Kenneth glanced at Timothy meaningfully.

Timothy was instantly defeated.

Wesley sighed helplessly. “Timothy, don’t be anxious. I didn’t have time to prepare today.”

Only then did Timothy feel better. “Then let’s prepare another day?”

Unexpectedly, Wesley suddenly shook his head. “That won’t be necessary. Girls like clothes, shoes, and bags. I’ll get someone to send some limited editions over later.”

“What?” Timothy’s face instantly turned pale. “Didn’t you say not to be anxious? You’re making me so anxious now!”

As a criminal police officer, Timothy was usually not at home, unlike Kenneth and Benjamin who were in the company all day long and had a lot of money in their hands. Timothy did not like houses and cars. He was just a police who only knew how to investigate cases. Now, even the way to give clothes and bags as gifts had been snatched by Wesley. Timothy really did not know what to give.

Sophie was already flattered. She did not expect to receive so many gifts as soon as she returned home! She was a little uneasy for a moment. “Actually, you don’t have to spend so much money...”

Marcus said, “Don’t say that! They usually buy a lot of things for Evelyn. Although it’s not as valuable as this, it’s still a form of compensation for you. Just accept it as a token of their goodwill.”

Since Marcus had already said so, Sophie could only agree.

At this moment, Timothy seemed to have finally thought of something. “They’re giving you a car and a house. I don’t know what to give at all. Why don’t I give something to you to protect yourself?”

Sophie was stunned when she saw Timothy handing her something that looked like a flashlight. “What is this?” Sophie asked.

At this moment, Wesley could not help but widen his eyes. “Wow, isn’t this the high-tech self-defense divine artifact you carry with you?”

Timothy rolled his eyes at Wesley and said, “Its name isn’t that long. It’s called Soul Catcher.”

As he spoke, Timothy pressed the switch in front of Sophie.

An electric current immediately appeared at the front of the flashlight, startling Sophie. “What’s this...” Sophie said.

“Although this thing looks like a small flashlight, the front end is a self-defense taser. The other buttons beside it are recordings and a pinhole camera. The button on the other side can spout some anesthetic spray, which will make one’s mind blank for a short time. There’s an antidote in the middle compartment that can deal with more than 20 kinds of poisons and toxins. It has different degrees of antidote functions. Then, the Soul Catcher can be pried open from the middle and turn into a sharp dagger. There’s also an emergency laser beam hidden at the end...” Timothy explained.

This was a divine artifact that Timothy carried with him on missions. He had spent a lot of money to customize it. The price was enough to buy a car. Moreover, it could protect her. It was simply the best gift for a girl.

Sophie looked at such an expensive gift and could not help but say, “This is too expensive. Timothy, you should keep it for yourself...”

‘I should not be in danger as much as Timothy, Sophie thought.

However, Timothy said, “You’ve suffered so much in the past. I’ll definitely protect you in the future, but there are times when I’m not around. Let Soul Catcher protect you.”

Chapter 62

Timothy’s words were especially sincere. Sophie could not help but feel a little touched and could only accept his gift.

Benjamin couldn’t help but feel surprised. “Timothy, this is your most precious thing. You’re actually willing to give it to Sophie!”

Timothy didn’t seem to feel sorry at all. “It’s what I should do. I didn’t protect her well before. At least I can’t let her be bullied in the future,” he said.

Although it was expensive and he could make another one in the future, he had to give Sophie a greeting gift today. He could not lose face.

Seeing that their sons were so good to their daughter, Marcus and Bianca were especially satisfied.

After thinking for a moment, Marcus said, “Keep these gifts well. I’ll give you a big gift later.”

“Dad, thank you very much... But my brothers have given me so many gifts. I really don’t lack anything,” Sophie said.

Now that Sophie had a car, house, shoes, bags, and even a divine weapon for self-defense, she really didn’t lack anything.

“You deserve it, but now isn’t the time. I need time to prepare. I’ll announce it in public after I’ve prepared your Welcome Banquet in a few days,” Marcus said.

“Welcome Banquet?” Sophie was stunned. She did not expect the Dawson family people to prepare a banquet for her.

“Of course. You’re the daughter of the Dawson family. Now that you’re home, we must announce it to the entire city,” Marcus said.

The Dawson family was a top-notch family in Habourland. Since Sophie had returned home, they must announce it to the public.

Sophie could not help but feel touched. ‘Dad, mom, and my brothers are really thoughtful.

Chapter 62

They really wanted to accept me back into this family, she thought.

“But before that, if you’re free tomorrow, go and settle the household register with your brothers. Your surname should be changed back.” Marcus’s eyes were exceptionally serious.

Sophie nodded as well. “Alright.”

She had long wanted to leave the surname “Bourn”.

Bianca said gently, “From today onwards, your name will be Sophie Dawson.

Sophie had already returned home. Of course, her surname should be changed.

Sophie felt touched. She smiled and nodded. “Okay.”

The family was so harmonious and filled with warmth.

Roger felt that this family atmosphere was exceptionally warm.

In the Nicholls family, Roger had never experienced such a feeling.

Just as the family was talking in harmony and happiness, another person walked down from upstairs.

“Oh my god! Sophie, you’re so lucky. You’ve just returned and you’ve already received so many gifts from our brothers. This is a treatment that I haven’t received in all these years in the Dawson family,” Evelyn said meaningfully.

Ever since Evelyn returned yesterday, she had been throwing a tantrum.

She had been telling the Dawson family people that Sophie was a liar, but the Dawson family people still did a paternity test.

In fact, they had been preparing for Sophie to come back this morning. No one cared if Evelyn was still sulking or if she didn’t want Sophie to come back.

Evelyn had no choice but to take the initiative to go downstairs.

Unexpectedly, as soon as she went downstairs, she saw her brothers giving Sophie greeting gifts.

Previously, Evelyn was the Dawson family’s most favored daughter. Her brothers revolved around her and prepared many gifts for her every birthday. However, they had never given her such big gifts at all!

As soon as they met, they gave Sophie all their cars, houses, and even black cards!

Evelyn had asked Timothy for the self-defense artifact many times, but he had actually given it to Sophie!

At this moment, Evelyn finally understood that her position in their hearts had completely fallen to the bottom!

Seeing that Evelyn did not look well, Bianca felt a little sad and said helplessly, "Evelyn, Sophie has been away from home for so many years and suffered so much. It's normal for your brothers to want to compensate her."

Evelyn did not listen to Bianca at all. She only stared at Sophie with jealousy.

However, Evelyn could not say anything.

When

The scene just now made her realize that her status in the Dawson family was no longer the same as before. If she continued to be arrogant and unreasonable, she would hated.

Gritting her teeth, Evelyn could only pretend to be sad and said, "I don't care about these gifts. What I care about is that since Sophie is already back, what about me? You won't let me stay here, will you?"

Evelyn's words immediately silenced the Dawson family's people.

After all, they had lived together for 20 years. How could they bear to chase her out of the house?

Even her brothers fell silent.

Although Evelyn was arrogant and willful, it was all because they spoiled her.

With her current personality, if she left the Dawson family, they were really afraid that she would be bullied.

Timothy looked at the pitiful look on Evelyn's face and could not help but say, "Evelyn, no one would abandon you. At most, Dad and Mom will help you find your biological parents..."

"Biological parents?" Evelyn looked sad. "Since they didn't want me when I was born, what's the point of looking for them now? I've lived in the Dawson family for so many years. I've long treated you as my real family. Do you really not tolerate me?"

Evelyn's words pierced Bianca's heart and made Marcus feel upset.

After all, Evelyn was someone Marcus had raised as his biological daughter since she was young. How could Marcus not tolerate her?

"Evelyn, we have no intention of chasing you away. If your parents really don't want you anymore, you can stay in the Dawson family. This family will always be open to you," Marcus said.

After hearing Marcus's words, Evelyn heaved a sigh of relief, but she still felt uneasy.

She needed a guarantee!

Looking at Sophie, Evelyn suddenly thought of a plan. "Dad, Mom, I grew up in front of you and am already a member of this family. Even if my biological parents come looking for me, I don't want to leave you. Since the Bourn family can adopt Sophie, you can treat it as adopting me and let me continue to be your daughter. Is that okay?" Evelyn said.

No matter what, Evelyn would never leave the Dawson family!

Evelyn's words immediately put the Dawson family people in a dilemma.

Although they also loved Evelyn, they had to consider Sophie's feelings now.

Marcus looked at Sophie as if asking for her opinion.

Sophie could tell that Evelyn would never want to leave the Dawson family.

‘Forget it. I am already married and don’t have that much time to accompany Dad and Mom. If Evelyn wants to stay, so be it, Sophie thought.

“Dad, Evelyn is right. You can also go through the adoption procedures. That way, we will still be family,” Sophie said.

Seeing that Sophie had agreed, Evelyn snorted coldly.

‘At least Sophie is tactful. Otherwise, I will definitely not hesitate to fall out with her today! Evelyn thought.

However, when Evelyn thought about how she still needed Sophie’s permission to stay or leave, she felt rather upset.

At this moment, Marcus had already agreed. “Alright, you’re right. Timothy, I’ll leave this matter to you.”

“Alright.” Timothy nodded and seemed to be relieved.

Benjamin also smiled at Evelyn and said, “This is a good choice. This way, Evelyn won’t have to leave. The Dawson family will have two daughters and everyone will be happy.”

Chapter 63

“Yeah,” Wesley chimed in.

Only

Kenneth looked at Evelyn without saying a word. However, his gaze became a little dark. No one knew what he was thinking.

Evelyn seemed to be used to Kenneth’s indifference. Anyway,

she just had to think of a way to stay today. There was no rush to chase Sophie away.

After everything came to an end, Bianca led Sophie to the dining room.

Everyone took their seats and decided to have dinner together.

However, after Evelyn sat down, she realized that there was nothing on the table that she liked to eat.

At this moment, Bianca said to Sophie, “When Timothy went to the Nicholls family, he specially asked the servants about your preferences. Today, I asked them to prepare many of your favorite dishes. Do you like them?”

“Thank you, Mom.” With Bianca doting on her, Sophie felt an indescribable warmth in her heart.

At this moment, Bianca’s eyes were filled with Sophie. She had been helping Sophie pick up food.

Originally, this treatment belonged to Evelyn.

Previously, Evelyn did not even care about Bianca picking up food for her. She would always frown and say that she did not want to eat.

However, when Evelyn saw that Bianca only had Sophie in her eyes, she felt an indescribable jealousy.

'In just one day, Sophie had taken away my brothers and mother's love for me . If time passed, would there still be a place for me in this family? No! I must chase Sophie out. I will not let her return to this house all the time!' Evelyn thought.

The Dawson family people were eating happily.

Chapter 63

Sophie suddenly came back to her senses and realized that Roger was sitting beside her without moving at all.

She quickly whispered, "I almost forgot about you. I'll help you get some food."

As she spoke, she quickly helped Roger pick up a few of his favorite dishes and placed them on his plate.

Roger held his fork and smiled. "Thank you."

Then, he lowered his head and ate.

Only then did the Dawson family people suddenly remember it. Although Sophie had returned to the Dawson family, she was already married, and her husband was even blind.

For a moment, the way the Dawson family's brothers looked at Roger changed.

Even if the Nicholls family had a good background and Roger was worthy of the Dawson family, they could not help but feel indignant that their healthy sister had married a blind person.

"I heard that Mr. Roger has been blind for many years. And you have been looking for famous doctors, but there doesn't seem to be a way to treat you?" Lucas had heard some rumors, but he really didn't want it to be true.

However, Roger did not care about what Lucas said at all. Roger only nodded and said calmly, "Yes, Lucas. You are right."

Lucas looked at the other brothers speechlessly.

'Even if a normal person could not regain his sight, he should at least say that he has some hope. Why does this man seem so proud?' Lucas thought.

Sophie saw that her brothers cared about Roger's eyes and smiled. "Although he is blind, he treats me very well. He was the one who brought me away from the Dawson family. I'm actually very grateful to him," Sophie said.

Sophie's attitude was immediately understood by the Dawson family people.

It was that Sophie had already accepted this marriage.

However, Benjamin could not help but say, "Gratitude does not equate to love

These words instantly made the atmosphere a little awkward.

Sophie could not help but fall silent.

She was with Roger mostly because she was grateful.

She had almost never thought about love.

However, Roger calmly said, "Although we don't have a deep relationship yet, we already have a tacit understanding with each other. As long as we have a tacit understanding, feelings can be slowly grown."

Kenneth saw that Roger had been calm and composed, as if he did not care what others said at all. There was some admiration in his eyes. "That's right," Kenneth said.

Kenneth, who never liked to talk much, could actually talk to Roger like this.

The other brothers immediately fell silent.

Marcus thought for a moment before putting down his cup and saying, "I've also asked someone to find out. Although Sophie married into the Nicholls family, theoretically speaking, she married over instead of the Bourn family's daughter. However, Sophie is my daughter. This marriage shouldn't count."

Marcus spoke the heartfelt words of the family. The eyes of the brothers immediately lit up with hope.

No matter what, they didn't want Sophie to marry a blind man and waste her life.

At this moment, Benjamin continued, "Dad is right. Actually, the two of them haven't held a wedding until now. If you two don't make love with each other, why don't you break off the engagement and find another better one? That would be a good thing."

Upon hearing the words "make love", Sophie instantly blushed.

Bianca also hurriedly said, "Benjamin, what nonsense are you talking about? Don't mention such a private topic."

www

However, Benjamin was stubborn. "I'm doing this for Sophie, okay? Anyway, we're all adults. Why don't we just lay it out?" Benjamin said.

They had only registered their marriage for half a month, and Sophie's legs were injured. previously. Benjamin guessed that the two of them had most likely not done anything.

Seeing that Benjamin had a point, the Dawson family's brothers also looked at Sophie.

Sophie instantly felt extremely uneasy when her brothers asked her about the matters between husband and wife. She did not know how to answer.

However, at this moment, an old voice suddenly came from outside the door. "You rascals! What are you thinking? How can someone who has already registered their marriage not have sex? Shut up!"

With this loud voice, everyone looked at the entrance of the restaurant.

Unexpectedly, the butler actually pushed an old man in!

“Dad! Why are you here?” Marcus immediately stood up to welcome him.

Marcus patted the wheelchair gloomily and said, “If I hadn’t come, you would have ruined my granddaughter’s marriage!”

Sophie had already recognized this person. He was her biological grandfather , Clifford Dawson.

This was the first time she saw Clifford. Sophie was a little nervous. She quickly stood up and greeted, “Hello, Grandpa.”

The moment he saw Sophie, Clifford’s eyes lit up. “This girl looks so much like Bianca and Marcus! With this face, there’s no need for a paternity test. It’s obvious that she’s my granddaughter!”

Clifford’s words immediately made Evelyn’s expression change.

Ever since Evelyn was young, many people had said that she did not look like Marcus and Bianca.

In particular, every time Clifford saw her, he would say that she did not look like her brothers.

Chapter 63

Now that Clifford saw Sophie, he actually praised her so much.

‘Am I really that ugly?’ Evelyn thought.

At this moment, Clifford had come in front of Sophie. He said with a smile, “This is what my granddaughter looks like! Come on, quickly let me take a good look at you!”

As he spoke, he glanced at Roger again. "Roger, I haven't seen you for many years. I didn't expect you to be so handsome."

Roger smiled and said, "Clifford, you flatter me."

Unexpectedly, Clifford actually knew Roger. Marcus and the others immediately fell silent.

At this moment, Clifford said, "When Roger's father was still alive, I often went to the Dawson family. It can be said that I watched him grow up. Although I haven't seen him in a few years, I know this child. His temperament and intelligence are much better than others. My precious granddaughter knows how to pick a good husband!"

Chapter 64

Seeing that Clifford admired Roger so much, Marcus stopped talking.

This was because the Dawson family was able to develop to its current state because of Clifford's ability to choose the right people.

The person Clifford had his eyes on would never make a mistake.

Although Roger was blind, he might really be the best heir of the Nicholls family in the future.

After all, when Roger's father, Peter, was alive, others knew how Clifford supported him.

Since Clifford did not agree to break off the engagement, Marcus could not say anything.

"Dad, since you're here, let's sit down and have a meal together," Marcus said as he stood up and gave up his seat for Clifford.

Clifford sat down pleasantly and said to Marcus, "You all know how bold Peter was when he was alive and how smart Roger was when he was in school. I b believe that Roger will become better than Peter. Even if he's blind, his heart is not. In the future, with the Dawson family's support, Roger will definitely not lose to the Nicholls family's two brats."

At least in Clifford's opinion, the two brats from the Nicholls family were inferior to Roger from head to toe.

Kenneth and the others were a little surprised. Clifford never vouched for anyone, but they did not expect him to be so sure of Roger now.

Seeing that Clifford was unhappy, Marcus quickly comforted him. "Dad, we are just making a suggestion. Since you support Roger, we won't object to this marriage

Clifford had a unique vision. Marcus was very sure of this.

Seeing that Marcus was sensible, Clifford smiled slightly. "That's good. Roger can accompany Sophie back home today, which means that he has Sophie in his heart. Moreover, God has already arranged it. Then we'll accept this marriage. The two of them have already registered their marriage. There's no reason to break off the engagement,

1/5

Chapter 64

Clifford said.

Sophie listened from the side with an indescribable embarrassment on her face.

She had never thought of breaking off the engagement, but her family had indeed almost convinced her for a moment just now.

After all, gratitude was not love.

However, she did not expect Clifford to actually admire Roger. Her thoughts immediately dissipated.

'Clifford is right. Perhaps this is fate, Sophie thought.

Since

Clifford was so sure of him, Roger did not remain silent. Instead, he said in a low voice, "Clifford, please trust me. Since Sophie is married to me, I will definitely treat her well. Moreover, I will also think of a way to treat my eyes. Even if I don't think for myself, I don't want Sophie to be mocked and criticized in the future."

Roger's words were sonorous and powerful, causing the Dawson family people to fall silent.

Only then did Benjamin say in a deep voice, "That's more like it. If you're willing to be treated, we're also willing to help you find the best doctor."

They really did not want Sophie to take care of a blind person for the rest of her life.

"Alright, thank you very much, Benjamin," Roger replied to Benjamin with a smile. Seeing that Roger was so sincere, Benjamin did not object to this matter anymore.

Marcus also heard Clifford's words, but he still said solemnly, "The engagement will not be broken off, but now, you are still missing a wedding. We don't care what the previous Bourn family people did, but the rule of the Dawson family is that there must be a wedding before the real marriage can be considered. Only after the wedding can I let my daughter live with you. Please understand, Roger."

After all, they had not seen Sophie for so many years. Now that Sophie was married, they would like to let her stay at home for a while.

Chapter 64

Sophie

did not expect Marcus to talk to Roger about this. She felt a little embarrassed for a moment.

These days, she was already used to living in the Nicholls family. When she thought about moving back to the Dawson family before marriage, she actually felt a little nervous.

However, Roger thought for a moment and seemed to understand Marcus's thoughts. So he said, "It's what I should do, I owe her a wedding. This is indeed my fault. I also understand that you have just found your daughter. You must want to spend more time with her. I'll talk to my grandfather about this when I go back. I will send Sophie back to the Dawson family first. She'll move back after the wedding."

Seeing that Roger was about to send her back without any hesitation, Sophie was actually a little disappointed.

'After all, we have lived together for half a month. Although we didn't have any physical contact, we are a couple now! How could he send me back just like that?

'But then again, since I live in the Nicholls family, he could only sleep in the study. Forget it. I will be merciful and go back home for the time being.

'After all, it is good to reduce the conflict with other family members and reunite with my family,' Sophie thought.

The Dawson family's brothers were also very supportive of this suggestion. All of them were very happy that Sophie could go home.

Only one person at the table had a dark expression.

Evelyn originally thought that even if Marcus and Bianca acknowledged Sophie, she was already married and would definitely rarely go home. Evelyn would definitely have more opportunities to accompany Marcus and Bianca than Sophie. Sooner or later, they would love Evelyn again and chase Sophie out.

However, Evelyn did not expect them to bring Sophie back to stay for a while.

When Evelyn thought about how she would have to see Sophie in this house every day in the future, she felt indescribably angry.

Chapter 64

However, no one cared about what Evelyn was thinking. In fact, no one even noticed her anymore.

Clifford admired Roger very much and would talk to him from time to time.

Sophie and Roger were the focus of everyone's attention, and Evelyn had completely become the foil for this family!

Soon, the family finished eating.

The Dawson family warmly led Sophie and Roger to the living room to chat for a while. When the sun was setting in the west, Roger said, "It's getting late. I'll go back first today. I'll send someone to send Sophie's things back tomorrow."

Roger's words made it clear that he did not intend to bring Sophie back home.

Sophie's heart instantly felt empty and uncomfortable.

She actually felt that for a moment, she was like an abandoned puppy.

But when she came back to her senses, she quickly pulled herself together.

'Sophie, when do you become so dependent on others?

'Roger's eyes were still blind. How can you rely on him so much?' Sophie thought to herself.

After regaining consciousness, Sophie immediately said to Roger, "Then I'll stay in the Dawson family today. Thank you for having to send me my luggage."

To be honest, Sophie was touched that Roger was so considerate.

It was just that the thought of separating from him made her feel a little awkward.

Roger smiled gently. "It's my duty. You are welcome."

Then, as if sensing her disappointment, he leaned closer to her ear and lowered his voice. "Don't be anxious. I'll go back and prepare for the wedding. When the time comes, I'll marry you legitimately."

This sentence instantly made Sophie blush. "Who's anxious? I'm not..." Sophie said.

'I don't want to marry you at all, Sophie thought to herself.

Roger smiled. "Alright, I was anxious. Take good care of yourself these few days. Call me if you miss me."

These words made Sophie blush even more.

'Who would miss you? How pretentious!' Sophie thought to herself.

Chapter 65

However, she did not dare to say these words in front of her parents. She could only blush and remain silent.

In everyone's eyes, the two of them seemed to be flirting.

For a moment, Marcus was glad that he had listened to Clifford's words just now.

The two of them seemed to already have feelings for each other. If Marcus forced them to break off the engagement, wouldn't it be a serious crime?

Clifford smiled in satisfaction. "I'm relieved to see that you two are so close."

The brothers could not help but agree. "Yes, your relationship seems to be quite good..."

"I think so too," one of the brothers said.

Sophie was instantly embarrassed and quickly hid behind Bianca.

Bianca playfully said, "Alright, you guys are not serious. Stop joking with Sophie."

"Okay, okay." Benjamin nodded.

Seeing that the entire family had accepted Sophie, Roger relaxed.

"Then I'll leave first. I'll leave Sophie to you," Roger said.

$

"Alright, don't worry. I'll take good care of her." Bianca could tell that Roger was reluctant to part with Sophie, so Bianca quickly assured him.

Only then did Roger allow the butler to hold him. He turned around and left the Dawson family.

Sophie watched as Roger's figure gradually disappeared into the distance.

Sophie's blush turned into disappointment.

She felt lonely now...

Timothy seemed to have noticed Sophie's reluctance. He could not help but tease, "Sophie,

Chapter 65

you and Mr. Roger will only be apart for the next few days. If you miss him, you can meet him anytime. Don't be so sad."

Sophie was reminded and immediately retracted her gaze. "I, I didn't..." she said.

Although she denied it, her mind was a little out of control.

Benjamin said playfully, "Come on, don't say what you don't mean. I saw your affectionate gaze just now. Previously, I was stupid enough to want you to break off the engagement. But now, it's obvious that you have fallen in love with Mr. Roger!"

Benjamin's words were extremely straightforward. In an instant, Sophie's face blushed. "Benjamin, don't spout nonsense..." Sophie said.

'When do I fall in love with Roger? I do not even know myself. How does Benjamin know?' Sophie thought.

However, Benjamin saw through her thoughts and said, "Look, you're blushing again! Does your face blush and your heart beat faster when I mention Roger? If this isn't liking, what is?"

Sophie could not help but be stunned.

'Could this be love? Could it be that I really fell in love with Roger?' Sophie thought.

This thought stunned her.

They had only known each other for half a month, and she had never thought of this.

But now that she thought about it, her face would blush and her heart would beat at any time when she thought of Roger.

'This is so annoying! I don't want to think about it anymore!' Sophie thought.

Seeing Sophie's vexed expression, as if she couldn't figure this out, Kenneth said, "Don't listen to their nonsense. Only you know your own heart best."

Only then did Sophie regain some of her composure.

'Yes, only I know it. I haven't figured it out yet. It doesn't matter what others say, Sophie thought.

Whether or not she had fallen in love with Roger, she still had to check.

"Kenneth, you are right." Sophie nodded gratefully.

Clifford saw the few of them talking one after another and could not help but playfully say, "Alright, stop talking. It's getting late. Which one of you will bring Sophie to her bedroom and let her rest early?"

Clifford knew everything. He also knew that Sophie's leg had just recovered.

"Sophie's leg has just recovered. You can't let her get tired or hurt, understand?" Clifford.

added.

Lucas nodded at Clifford's reminder. "Got it, Grandpa. I'll bring Sophie upstairs. She lives on the same floor as Timothy and me."

Marcus immediately nodded. "Go ahead," he said.

"Okay," Lucas agreed. He turned around and winked at Sophie.

Sophie could not help but snicker. "Then I'll take my leave first," she said.

With that, she went upstairs with Lucas.

Hearing that she was actually on the same floor as Lucas and Timothy, Evelyn could not help but feel a little depressed!

Kenneth, Benjamin, and Wesley lived on the same floor. Lucas and Timothy had always been on the same floor. The brothers were boys, so the bedrooms on their floor were very big. Previously, Evelyn had wanted to move to the room next to Lucas and Timothy, but Lucas and Timothy despised her for being too noisy and rejected her several times.

Evelyn could only live alone on the top floor of the house. Although the room was also huge, she had always felt uncomfortable living on the same floor with the butler and servants.

Unexpectedly, as soon as Sophie returned, Lucas and Timothy actually agreed to let her stay in the big bedroom on the third floor!

3/5

At the thought of this, Evelyn could not help but say, “Sophie, you just came back and can live on the third floor with Lucas and Timothy. I’ve always wanted to live with them, but they refused.”

At the mention of this, Timothy’s face darkened. “Evelyn, when Lucas is composing and I am investigating the case, we need to be quiet. But you’re too noisy, that’s why we didn’t agree to let you stay with us.”

They actually doted on Evelyn a lot, but they really could not agree to this matter.

Unexpectedly, Evelyn was still brooding over it.

“Then how do you know Sophie won’t be noisy? We’re the same age, okay?” Evelyn refuted.

Evelyn’s eyes were filled with unwillingness.

Faced with Evelyn’s arrogance, Timothy was obviously unable to withstand it.

Evelyn had a bad temper since she was young. However, she was the only girl in the family. Marcus ordered the brothers to pamper her.

But now, they realized that Evelyn was not their biological sister at all.

So why did they have to endure it?

“Blood ties are very strange. Our family likes quiet. From Sophie’s attitude when she speaks and does things, I can tell that she’s definitely not a noisy person. In this family, you’re the only one who likes to be lively,” Timothy said.

In the past, they thought that it was because she was young and liked to fool around.

Only now did they realize that there was a reason why everyone said that she didn’t look like them and her personality didn’t look like them. Because she’s not their biological sister.

“Timothy, what do you mean by that?” Evelyn looked hurt after being rebuked. “Are you saying that I’ve never been the Dawson family people from the beginning to the end?”

Countless people had talked about this before, but Evelyn had ignored them.

But today, it had come true. Evelyn really couldn’t take it anymore!

Timothy immediately lost his temper after being yelled at by Evelyn. “That’s not what I said. Anyone with a discerning eye can tell,” Timothy said.

However, they were too stupid to believe this.

Evelyn was immediately pushed into a corner and said angrily, “Then why didn’t you listen to them? You should have done a paternity test with me earlier! Perhaps there would have been a result long ago! Since you hate me so much, why did you pretend to keep me in the Dawson family? Was it just to humiliate me?”

“Evelyn, how could you say such a thing?” Wesley could not bear to listen to her any longer. He could not help but reprimand her, “Dad and Mom have raised you for twenty years after all. How could they just watch you be homeless? You’re staying because they love you and can’t bear to part with you. Who would let you stay just to humiliate you?”

can't bear to part with you. W

Chapter 66

None of the Dawson family people thought that Evelyn would think that way.

Bianca was also very surprised by what Evelyn was thinking. Bianca said, “Evelyn, why would you think that way? Although we are not related by blood, we have lived together for twenty years. I have no intention of giving up on you...

Marcus was also a little disappointed, but when he saw Bianca's sad expression, he immediately said to Benjamin, “Benjamin, send Evelyn upstairs and let her calm down.”

Bianca was so happy today. Marcus did not want Evelyn to ruin her mood.

“Okay, Dad.” Benjamin nodded and braced himself to accept the mission. “Let's go, Evelyn.

You should calm down. You were too impulsive.”

At this moment, Evelyn also realized that she had been too impulsive.

However, she had been arrogant in the Dawson family for 20 years and had always gotten whatever she wanted.

Facing Timothy's words, she really couldn't stand it.

However, Evelyn could not let Bianca be disappointed in her.

After thinking about it, Evelyn forced herself to apologize. "I was indeed too impulsive. Mom, I just can't accept this matter for a while. Don't be angry with me.

Bianca sighed helplessly.

Bianca naturally knew that for Evelyn, it would be harder for her to accept this reality than for them.

"Forget it. Go upstairs and rest first." Bianca waved her hand, looking a little tired.

"Okay." Evelyn bit her lip and suppressed her anger as she followed Benjamin upstairs.

As soon as the two of them left, Clifford slowly said, "Do you still want to keep Evelyn in the Dawson family?"

A

Chapter 66

Although Clifford doted on Evelyn and treated Evelyn well, he never liked Evelyn's temper and personality. He had never understood the reason before.

Now he knew that Evelyn was not his biological granddaughter.

Marcus understood Clifford's confusion and said helplessly, "Timothy has already investigated, but we can't find Evelyn's relatives for the time being. So, let's leave her in the Dawson family for now. After all, we've lived as a family for 20 years, Bianca and I can't bear to let her leave the Dawson family to suffer."

Clifford understood how Marcus and Bianca felt, but he still said, "Since Sophie has returned, although you are a little reluctant to part with Evelyn, we are not a family after all. There will always be a gap between us. Especially since Sophie has suffered so much before, you must want to make it up to her. However, with Evelyn's fiery temper, can you stand it?”

In the past, they had been very tolerant of Evelyn, but now that they had Sophie at home, they could not tolerate Evelyn fooling around.

“Well, we...” Bianca hesitated for a moment.

At that moment, Timothy slowly said, “Dad, Mom, Grandpa is right. Although Sophie had previously agreed to let us help Evelyn with the adoption procedures, if we favor Sophie, Evelyn will inevitably feel uncomfortable over time. Why don’t we find Evelyn’s family as soon as possible and let Evelyn return to her original family? I believe that her parents will treat Evelyn well, just like how we treat Sophie.”

Timothy’s words made sense. Although Wesley could not bear to part with Evelyn, he knew Evelyn’s character too well. Wesley added, “Dad, Mom, I agree with Timothy. We can look for her family again. If we really can’t find them, we can adopt Evelyn. If we find them, we can actually visit her more often in the future. We won’t just send her back and leave her alone.*

Wesley’s words made Marcus heave a sigh of relief, but he still looked at Kenneth and asked, “Kenneth, what do you think?”

Kenneth had always been calm and objective.

After thinking for a moment, Kenneth said, “Dad, Mom, I understand how you feel, but there are laws besides favors. We should indeed try our best to find Evelyn’s parents. We should talk about the adoption later.”

2/5

Seeing that all his sons thought so, Marcus could only say to Bianca, “Bianca, this matter should indeed be considered carefully.”

Although Bianca was reluctant, Marcus and her sons both said so.

In addition, Bianca's heart had been filled with Sophie ever since Bianca saw Sophie.

Evelyn was an arrogant child. Bianca used to have found herself in a dilemma

However, Sophie was different. She was quiet, sensible, and understanding. Coupled with the fact that they were blood-related, it was impossible for Bianca not to favor Sophie at all. After all, Sophie had suffered so much.

Helpless, Bianca finally nodded. "Alright, that's it," she said.

Seeing that they had decided, Clifford felt more at ease. "Then I'll go back and rest first. Tomorrow, I'll come and see Sophie again, Clifford said.

This was the first time Clifford had seen Sophie. He liked her very much. He had to bring a gift to see her tomorrow.

"Okay, Dad. Be careful on your way back," Marcus said. Then the Dawson family people sent Clifford away.

Upstairs, Sophie, who did not know anything, had already been brought to a spacious bedroom by Lucas.

The bedroom was very big, with a large French window balcony. The view was facing the sea. Because of the high ground, the view was very good. There was a simple bed in the room, a small living room, and a television, as well as a long bookshelf and a multi-purpose desk.

What she liked the most was that the bedroom would automatically light up as soon as she entered. It would close the curtains and turn on the ventilation system. All the settings of the p family were controlled by AI. It should be the work of her brothers.

“Timothy and I have always liked to work with smart devices, so this room was decorated by the both of us. Evelyn had wanted to move in a few times, but she was too noisy and we rejected her. Now that you’re back, this room will be yours from now on,” Lucas said.

Chapter 66

This bedroom was many times better than the dark room the Bourn family had given. Sophie. For a moment, Sophie was touched.

“Thank you, Lucas. I like this room very much,” Sophie said.

‘It feels so good to be home, Sophie thought.

Being thanked by Sophie, Lucas felt a little shy. “Sophie, don’t stand on ceremony. We live on the same floor. If you need anything or don’t understand anything, you can ask Timothy and me for help at any time,” Lucas said.

‘Sophie is really different from Evelyn!

“If it is Evelyn, she would definitely think that it is reasonable. I have already been used to it.

‘However, Sophie thanked me just now! She’s so cute!

‘As expected, a younger sister needs to be cute. Only then will an older brother have a sense of accomplishment!’ Lucas thought.

In order to enjoy the feeling of being worshipped by Sophie, Lucas introduced all the functions in the room, from the smart air–conditioner and TV to the smart toilet in the bathroom.

Sophie was amused: ‘Lucas is really interesting,’ she thought.

After the introduction, Lucas smiled. "Have a good rest then. I'll take my leave first," he said.

"Alright, thank you, Lucas. Thank you for your arrangements," Sophie said.

"Not at all, not at all. Well, call me if you- anything. I'll be next door." Lucas was grinning from ear to ear after being thanked by Sophie again..

Sophie did not know why he was so happy. She waved her hand and sent him all the way to the door before returning.

Seeing the door close, Lucas took a deep breath and said to himself proudly, "It feels so good to have a cute younger sister!"

Chapter 67

'Sophie is indeed different. She is really gentle and elegant!' Lucas thought.

For a moment, Lucas even wondered how he had endured all these years of Evelyn's torture.

Lucas turned around proudly and was about to return to his room when he saw Benjamin, who had sent Evelyn back.

"Lucas, what are you so happy about? Can you share it with me?" Benjamin asked curiously.

Lucas was extremely proud. He said, "Of course, I'm very happy to send Sophie back to her room. Sophie's temper is too good. She keeps thanking me and looking at me with admiration. This feeling is really unprecedented!"

Hearing this, Benjamin could not help but feel a little envious.

"Are you serious?" Benjamin asked. He had just sent Evelyn back to her room. Evelyn's expression was ugly the entire way, and she turned a deaf ear to Benjamin's comforting words. She entered the room and closed the door with a bang. It was simply a catastrophe for Benjamin.

For a moment, Benjamin could not help but envy Lucas.

"Of course it's true. Why would I lie to you? It's also the first time I've felt that having a younger sister is really not bad. In the past, I only felt that having a younger sister was too troublesome..." Lucas said.

Before Lucas could finish his sentence, Benjamin covered his mouth and said, "Alright, keep your voice down. Evelyn is upstairs..."

Lucas blinked, indicating that he understood. The two of them sneaked downstairs together.

Little did they know that Evelyn, who was standing at the top of the stairs upstairs, had already heard everything.

1/6

Chapter 67

For a moment, Evelyn felt extremely angry.

In the past, Evelyn was the little princess in this family. They had to give her whatever she wanted.

Hence, when she was young, she would ask her brothers and parents for whatever she liked. Her personality became more and more arrogant.

Because no matter how precious and expensive the things were, they had given them all to her.

But now, Evelyn realized that Lucas actually found her troublesome!

'Damn Sophie!

"It is all because of her!

"Why is she pretending to be gentle and kind? She just wants to snatch my happiness!

"Isn't it just pretending? Just wait and see!" Evelyn thought..

In the room, Sophie felt an unprecedented sense of security. She lay on the bed and took a deep breath, enjoying her time alone.

When she was in the Bourn family, she was monitored by Geneva all day long. It was also very inconvenient to be in the same room as Roger when she was in the Nicholls family. She finally had her own room and space. It was really quiet.

For the first time, she was completely relieved. She slowly closed her eyes and actually fell asleep.

When it was completely dark, she was woken up by a knock on the door.

Sophie realized that she had slept for so long.

Coming back to her senses, she got up to open the door.

However, she realized that it was actually Evelyn outside the door.

"Sophie, are you asleep? It's almost time for dinner. I'm going downstairs. I came over to call you along," Evelyn said.

Chapter 67

“Oh, okay,” Sophie agreed, but she did not go out immediately.

“Sophie, your hair is a little messy. Do you want to comb it before going down stairs?” With a smile, Evelyn reached out to touch Sophie’s hair, but Sophie immediately dodged.

“I can do it myself. You can go downstairs first.” With that, Sophie turned around and returned to her room with a cold expression.

Towards this person who had occupied her identity for 20 years, Sophie really could not bear to be together with Evelyn. Sophie did not really want to go downstairs with Evelyn.

Unexpectedly, Evelyn followed Sophie into her room.

Although Sophie was a little conflicted, she did not say anything. She went to the dressing mirror to tidy her hair and did not plan to say anything.

Evelyn looked up at the room that had been meticulously decorated by Lucas and Timothy. Her heart was filled with extreme jealousy.

“Lucas and Timothy originally decorated this room for me in the past, but I like to stay on a higher floor, so I haven’t moved in. It’s good to give it to you now. After all, you have just returned and still need time to adapt to the environment. A room with some smart devices can save a lot of trouble,” Evelyn said.

When Sophie heard Evelyn’s words, she felt inexplicably displeased. However, she suddenly smiled and said, “Oh? In that case, I should thank you, right? However, Lucas just told me that you wanted to move in a few times. They thought that you were too noisy, so they didn’t agree. Could it be that Lucas remembered wrongly?”

As soon as Sophie said that, Evelyn’s expression changed.

Evelyn did not expect Lucas to badmouth her to Sophie! Lucas was really quick with his words!

However, Evelyn—
arrogantly refused to admit it. “Perhaps he didn’t remember wrongly. Lucas must have said that to make you happy. After all, I’m afraid that you’ll feel uncomfortable if I give you something I don’t want,” Evelyn said.

Sophie raised her eyebrows at the mirror. ‘Is she declaring her family status?

A

Chapter 67

‘These words are exactly the same as Laura’s, that angelic bitch! Does she really think that I could not tell?’ Sophie thought.

After combing her hair, Sophie smiled and said, “Is that so? Then I’ll have to ask Lucas and Timothy later. After all, I really don’t like things that others don’t want.”

As Sophie spoke, she walked to the door, looking like she was going to ask Lucas and Timothy.

Evelyn could not help but be stunned. She did not expect Sophie to have the guts to ask them!

Instantly, Evelyn panicked. She hurriedly said, “Sophie, aren’t you making Lucas and Timothy embarrassed by asking like this?”

Sophie looked back coldly. “Is that so? I don’t think it’s certain who will be embarrassed then.”

‘How dare you play such tricks on me?’

‘This is my own home. How can I be tricked like this? Bullshit!’ Sophie thought.

With a mocking smile, Sophie walked out of the room.

Seeing that she could not stop Sophie, Evelyn could only follow her hurriedly. "Sophie, why are you so calculative? After all, this room has already been given to you to stay in!" Evelyn said.

Sophie did not even look at her. "I didn't expect you to know me so well. I'm a calculative person. You have to be careful when you talk to me in the future. I'm a petty person. If anything makes me unhappy, I have to make things clear to my parents and brothers," Sophie said.

As she spoke, Sophie even quickened her pace down the stairs.

Evelyn could not take it anymore. "Sophie! What do you mean by that? Are you threatening me?" Evelyn asked angrily.

Evelyn did not want Sophie to go downstairs and question Lucas, so Evelyn could only fly into a rage in advance and find fault with Sophie.

Chapter 67

Little did Evelyn know that Wesley happened to hear her words.

"What are you two doing?" Wesley looked at the two of them at the staircase with a deep frown.

Upon seeing Wesley, Sophie's demeanor immediately changed, and she immediately turned into a soft girl. "Wesley... I don't know what I did to provoke Evelyn, she suddenly got angry at me," Sophie said.

'What?' Evelyn was dumbfounded!

'Isn't these the words I have prepared?' Evelyn thought.

Originally, Evelyn wanted to provoke Sophie and let others see Sophie's true colors!

However, Evelyn did not expect that she would fly into a rage in advance and be seen by Wesley!

As expected, when Wesley saw Evelyn throwing a tantrum, his expression immediately turned serious. "Evelyn, Kenneth, Benjamin, and I dote on you all the time. No matter how much you mess around, we'll do our best to satisfy you. But today, Sophie has just returned home. Isn't it inappropriate for you to treat her with such an attitude?" Wesley said seriously.

"Wesley! I didn't. It's her..." Evelyn still wanted to speak.

Sophie suddenly lowered her head and said with an aggrieved look on her face, "It's my fault. Just now, Evelyn said that my room should be hers. I was angry and wanted to go downstairs to ask Lucas. Evelyn got angry and it was all my fault..."

'What the hell?' Evelyn was about to explode!

'What kind of plot is this?'

'This Sophie! She is too good at pretending!' Evelyn thought.

Chapter 68

'What? She almost cries!'

'I only spoke a little louder just now. Does she have to complain like this?' Evelyn thought.

“Wesley! Don’t listen to her nonsense. I’m not angry. I’m just...” Evelyn tried to explain.

Coincidentally, Kenneth and Benjamin had also come downstairs.

The two of them had heard everything and Benjamin’s expression was a little ugly as he said, “Just what? It was just a little too loud and it was just a moment of desperation? Evelyn, we’ve really spoiled you too much in the past, to the point that you’re treating Sophie with such an attitude. You’ve really gone too far.”

The entire family was well aware of Evelyn’s fiery temper. They could indulge her in the past, but now that Sophie was back, they could not let Evelyn bully Sophie!

“I didn’t!” Evelyn said. She thought that she had only said one sentence loudly and hadn’t said anything overboard.

Kenneth did not want to listen to her explanation anymore. He said coldly, “Evelyn, you’ve lived in this family for twenty years after all. We won’t chase you away, but you have to know that we doted on you and indulged you before because we thought that you were our biological sister. But now, you have to recognize that Sophie is our biological sister. We can tolerate you for everything else, but we will never allow you to bully Sophie.”

1

Although it was cruel, Evelyn had to be aware of her status.

Evelyn was about to explode with anger.

Kenneth had never spoken so much to Evelyn before, but this time, for the sake of Sophie, Kenneth actually taught Evelyn a lesson with so many words!

It was to let Evelyn know her status!

Evelyn knew that she was no longer the real daughter of the Dawson family! She was just an adopted daughter, relying on them to make a living!

Evelyn’s status couldn’t be above Sophie’s!

Chapter 681

Previously, Evelyn was pampered only because she had the halo of a biological sister!

Now that this score belonged to Sophie, Evelyn's halo was completely gone!

"Good, very good!" Evelyn had been arrogant for the past twenty years in the Dawson family. However, on the first day that Sophie returned, Evelyn realized that twenty years of feelings were worthless in front of blood ties!

Seeing that her brothers, who had once doted on her, were now on Sophie's side, Evelyn really wanted to strangle Sophie to death!

"Sophie, you're amazing. It's only been a day, but you've already made the entire family stand on your side. I can finally see through your minds. The love you gave me previously was fake! I hate you all!" Evelyn said.

After saying that, Evelyn pushed Benjamin away gloomily and went straight upstairs!

"You!" Benjamin looked at Evelyn angrily and wanted to stop her.

However, Kenneth pulled Benjamin back and said, "Let her be. She has to accept reality."

Benjamin couldn't help but sigh. "You're right," he said.

At that moment, Wesley looked at Sophie and said, "Sophie, Evelyn has been arrogant since she was young. Don't mind her, but she is not a bad girl. She will be fine once she gets to know you better."

Sophie could not help but take a deep breath. "I hope so," she said meaningfully.

Evelyn's personality was quite similar to Laura's. Sophie did not have much hope that Evelyn would get better.

"Let's go downstairs and eat," Kenneth reminded Sophie calmly.

“That’s right. Let’s go downstairs and eat first,” Benjamin and Wesley also said.

With that, the three of them brought Sophie downstairs.

Downstairs, her parents, Lucas and Timothy were already seated. When she saw the four of them coming down, Bianca could not help but ask, “Where’s Evelyn?”

Chapter 68

Benjamin said helplessly, “She’s angry and went back to her room. I’ll send someone to send the food to her.”

Benjamin did not expose Evelyn for throwing a tantrum. Instead, he instructed the butler to deliver the food.

Knowing that her three brothers were still protective of Evelyn, Sophie did not argue further and sat down.

“Sophie, take a look. Do you like these dishes?” Bianca asked. She had already forgotten about Evelyn when she saw Sophie sitting down.

Sophie smiled and nodded. “I like all of them very much. However, these two dishes don’t seem to be made by the chef?”

The chef knew how to set up a plate, but the two plates in front of her had obviously not been set up before.

Seeing that Sophie had discovered it, Bianca immediately smiled and said, “I made them. Your brothers like them very much. I always make them for your brothers. I want you to try them too.” Moreover, it also made up for Bianca’s regret.

For twenty years, Sophie had never tasted Bianca’s cooking. Just thinking about it made Bianca sad.

Sophie was also a little flattered. She had indeed never eaten her biological mother’s dishes.

“It must be delicious.” Sophie smiled, touched. She immediately picked up her fork and took a bite impatiently.

As expected, Sophie’s eyes lit up when she tasted it. “It’s really delicious. I like it!” Sophie said.

Seeing that Sophie and her sons had the same taste, Bianca was indescribably happy. “You really like it! That’s good, that’s good...”

Bianca was indescribably excited after hearing Sophie’s words. It turned out that the tastes of a family were really the same.

Chapter 68

Previously, all her sons loved to eat it, except for Evelyn. Bianca even felt sad for a while.

However, Sophie liked to eat it so much that made Bianca feel touched.

“If you like it, then eat more. In the future, when you’re at home, Mommy will cook delicious food for you every day, okay?” Bianca looked at Sophie kindly.

Bianca’s gentle words made Sophie feel touched and she almost cried.

Thinking that she had said something wrong, Bianca hurriedly asked, “What’s wrong? Why are your eyes red?”

Sophie

could not help but shake her head. She quickly suppressed the urge to cry and said with a bitter smile, “No. I just feel like I’m dreaming now... When I was young, I had always imagined that I would be very happy if I could eat with my parents and eat the food cooked by my mother. I didn’t expect that my dream would come true. I feel so happy. I’m afraid it’s a dream.”

Unexpectedly, Sophie had returned to her biological parents more than half a month after leaving the Bourn family. This was simply a dream as if it was deliberately arranged by God.

Sophie's words were like a knife, making Bianca's heart ache to the extreme. "Oh my dear, how can this be a dream? You're really home now. Mommy will make delicious food for you every day from now on, okay? I must make up for all the time we've missed," Bianca said.

Bianca's voice was a little choked up. Even the Dawson family's sons felt touched.

Marcus suppressed his sadness and sighed. "I'll make it up to you. Sophie, tell us what you want to eat and do in the future. We will try our best to make you happy."

Feeling her family's love, Sophie nodded and said, "Okay. Thank you, Dad."

Marcus nodded. He felt that Sophie was a good child who knew how to be grateful.

Sophie continued to eat. She tasted Bianca's dishes and kept praising them.

Because Sophie was here, the atmosphere of the meal was different.

Chapter 69

Because Evelyn was not around, the meal was extremely harmonious this time.

After dinner, the family chatted and laughed in the living room for a while before going upstairs to rest.

Lucas and Timothy sent Sophie back to her room. She said goodnight to them before entering.

bio was in a very good mood when she returned to her room. Her family was very considerate, and new clothes had already been prepared in the wardrobe.

She took a shower and changed her clothes. When she came out, she felt refreshed.

'No wonder Evelyn always wanted this room. Even the bathroom is full of smart devices, Sophie thought.

There was also a Jacuzzi in it, which could automatically play music and movies.

This was really a room designed by young people.

A servant brought over some milk before bed. Sophie carried the milk to the balcony to enjoy the breeze.

"I'm finally home," Sophie said to herself. Looking at the lights at the edge of the sea in the distance, Sophie's eyes were unbelievably gentle.

All of this was thanks to Night, Night.

If it weren't for Night, Sophie wouldn't have married the Nicholls family. Even if she later found out that the Dawson family people were her family, it might be very difficult to see them.

It was all because Night had been secretly helping her investigate and plan.

However, Night had never shared the joy with Sophie and wanted her to repay him.

She was really lucky to have met such a good person in her life.

1/5

Chapter 69

After drinking the milk, Sophie returned to her room and turned on the computer.

This was her own room. She didn't need to hide anymore.

She directly entered the hacker network and happened to see that Night was also online.

In the past, she had been in contact with Night quite frequently. However, after marrying into the Nicholls family, she did not know if Night was deliberately avoiding suspicion, but the number of times he contacted her online had decreased. It had been a long time since he had shown that he was online so openly like today.

Sophie was in a good mood. She immediately greeted Night, [Night, why are you online today?]

Not long after, the other party replied, [I should ask you the same question. Why do you have time to go online today? Aren't you afraid that your husband will suspect you?]

Sophie could not help but pout and reply, [What am I afraid of? He can't see. Besides, I've already returned to the Dawson family today!]

She still could not suppress her joy and shared it with Night.

[Really? Then congratulations, you've reunited with your family.] Night's tone was still calm.

Sophie could not help but frown. [Night. You're so powerful. Did you already know it?]

Otherwise, why was he so calm?

#

Night, who sat in front of the computer screen looked at the screen with a deep gaze.

'This little girl is quite sensitive,' he thought.

[I just guessed it. No one would disown their own daughter,] Night' replied..

Sophie replied, [Alright.]

Then, Sophie continued typing on the keyboard. [I thought that I would break off the engagement with Roger today, but I didn't expect it to fail.]

Sophie didn't have anyone who could listen to her innermost thoughts, so she could only complain to Night.

Night seemed to pause for a moment before replying. [Do you really want to break off the engagement with Roger?]

Sophie hesitated for a moment before replying. [After all, we don't have any feelings for each other. I only married him for the sake of escaping from the Bourne family. Now that I'm back in my own home, it's normal to break off the engagement. After all, we didn't do anything like a couple.]

After sending this message, the other party fell silent for a long time.

Sophie thought that Night had gone offline. She looked at his profile picture and could not help but ask, [Night? Are you still there?]

Night replied, [I'm still there. You're right. It's indeed normal to break off the engagement.]

Sophie pursed her lips slightly and guessed that Night might not know how to reply to her.

She took a deep breath and replied, [But my grandfather thinks very highly of him. I also think that he's a good person. After all, his condition in the Nicholls family isn't good either. If I leave him, he and his mother will be quite pitiful. Even if I have to leave, I hope to help him live a better life. It can be considered repaying him for bringing me out of the Bourn family.]

Her words were filled with sincerity.

Her words made Night, who had been a little frustrated, gradually calm down.

“At least you have a conscience,” Roger, who was sitting in front of the computer, muttered.

Then, he sent a message, [The Nicholls family is the head of the top ten families. If Clifford wants to find a husband for you, the Nicholls family’s man is definitely the first choice. That’s why he supports it.]

Sophie sent an emoji of agreement. [That’s right. If I have to get married, the Nicholls family’s man is indeed a good choice. Anyway, I can marry anyone. At least I don’t hate Roger.]

Her calm words made Roger frown.

Although it was a good thing that she didn’t hate him, what did she mean by marrying.

anyone?

After thinking for a moment, Roger replied, [You’re easy to deal with. Most women would want to marry the person they love, right?]

Speaking of love again, Sophie thought for a moment and replied, [Night, to be honest, I’ve never loved anyone before. I don’t know what it feels like.]

When she was in the welfare institute, she felt that the dean’s kindness to her was love. When she was in the Bourn family, she had always wanted to obtain the love of Russell. However, there was nothing. All she got was hypocrisy and exploitation.

In the past ten years, she had been locked up in the Bourn family. She was already numb to it and did not have any desire for other people’s feelings. She also did not have the chance to love others.

Sophie sent, [My brother also said today that gratitude is not love, but my only feeling for Roger now is gratitude. I'm grateful that he helped me escape the Bourn family, but if this gratitude is compared to yours, I'm even more grateful to you. If it weren't for you, I might only be able to stay in the Bourn family for the rest of my life.]

She was grateful to Night from the bottom of her heart. If it weren't for him, she would definitely have fled overseas before she got married. Even if she escaped the control of the Bourn family people, it would be difficult for her to meet her family.

She would remember this kindness for the rest of her life.

However, for some reason, Night did not reply for a long time.

Sophie did not know if she had said too much that made Night feel upset. She could only send a cute emoji over. [Night, aren't you also in Habourland? Let's take the time to meet. I really want to thank you in person.]

Roger had never seen her begging so cutely.

Although his heart softened, he still felt a little uncomfortable.

He was the one who was always by her side, but she had never been so dependent on him, yet she was so close to Night.

Even her gratitude towards Night exceeded Roger's.

Thinking of this, Roger felt upset.

After typing a few simple words, he replied, [Wait for the right time.]

When Sophie saw these words, she could not help but feel a little speechless and reply, [Night, can you not speak like this at the drop of a hat? You're being so mysterious.]

Sophie did not notice that when she replied to Night, the corners of her mouth would unconsciously curl into a smile.

Night rolled his eyes and replied, [You're getting more and more impudent recently.]

Sophie teased, [You're not much older than me, right?]

Chapter 70

Sophie thought that since Night had very good computer skills, he must be a young man.

Night snorted. [I'm in my fifties. I'm an old man.]

Sophie did not believe him at all. [Your profile picture has already betrayed you. This profile picture is commonly used by people between the ages of 20 and 30.]

Roger frowned and thought, 'Since when is this girl so easily fooled?'

He helplessly replied with an emoji that meant it wasn't Sophie's business.

Realizing that Night was speechless, Sophie found it funny.

The two of them chatted for a while more before Sophie went offline.

However, when Sophie went offline, Roger felt inexplicably frustrated.

In the past, she had always been polite when she spoke to Night. Perhaps it was because of the help she received during this period that she trusted him more and became more open-minded. That was why she was more chatty recently.

However, her attitude toward him in the Nicholls family was still distant.

“Sophie Dawson... Since you don't know what it's like to love someone, I'll let you experience it.”

It was normal for a young lady who had never been in a relationship not to know what love.

was.

He would teach her slowly.

Sophie turned off the computer. The moment she lay on the bed, the warm starlight lit up.

This was the first time Sophie had seen such a beautiful scene.

She really liked this bedroom.

She covered herself with the blanket, but her mind was filled with the conversation she had.

with Night.

Chapter 70

In the past, when she spoke to Night, she was a little reserved. During this time, he had helped her a lot. She gradually opened her heart and started having fun teasing him.

Night’s reaction was adorable.

For some reason, she was actually looking forward to meeting Night.

She did not know what kind of person he was, but Sophie felt that he must be very gentlemanly and refined.

As Sophie thought about it, she fell asleep.

In her dream, she actually dreamed of Night, even though she could not see his face.

However, he could not help but approach her.

Finally, when Sophie patted Night's shoulder, he turned around and hugged her.

"Night..." she murmured, inexplicably intoxicated.

They hugged each other tightly. She liked this feeling too.

But at this moment, he reached out and lifted Sophie's chin.

She raised her head and tried to see his face clearly, but to her surprise, she realized that it was Roger Nicholls' face.

However, she was not afraid in her dream. Instead, she looked at him as he lowered his head and kissed her bit by bit.

The dream was exceptionally long.

She had such a sensual dream for the entire night.

The sun had risen.

The curtains were drawn automatically according to the time, and soft music filled the room. The window was opened, and fresh air entered the room.

Sophie instantly sobered up and slowly opened her eyes.

Artificial intelligence was really useful. It could do so many things.

At this moment, her mind slowly recalled the dream last night.

Being kissed, being touched....

At the thought that it was Night, Sophie actually felt happy.

However, in the next moment, she suddenly remembered that the face she saw was Roger.

She couldn't help but sit up.

Sophie thought, 'What the hell! How did Night become Roger?'

Sophie thought she must be crazy. She must have longed to see Night too much. Since she couldn't see clearly in her dream, she could have integrated Roger's face into her dream.

"Crazy..." Now that she was awake, Sophie felt that she was going crazy.

Not daring to think too much, she quickly went to the washroom to wash her face.

She wiped her face and looked at herself in the mirror. She suddenly realized something.

When she thought of Night, she felt an inexplicable sweetness in her heart. When she thought of Roger, she had mixed emotions.

It shouldn't be. Roger was her husband. She should accept him.

Sophie's heart was still filled with mixed feelings. She washed up, changed her clothes, and went downstairs.

The whole family had gathered downstairs. They seemed to be talking about something.

Sophie walked down and realized that Timothy was holding a birth certificate.

Seeing Sophie, Timothy immediately said, "Sophie! I've got your new birth certificate!"

Sophie's heart could not help but feel a little excited as she went forward.

She had finally gotten rid of the family name Bourn.

Chapter 70

Sophie was overjoyed. She looked at her new family name. She could not help but be overjoyed. "Thank you, Timothy!"

It was indeed convenient to have a family member who worked in the police station. Sophie could get her new birth certificate so quickly.

Timothy was also very happy. "Congratulations! From today onward, your family name will officially change to Dawson."

Benjamin smiled and said, "Sophie Dawson. What a nice name!"

"Yes, it sounds really nice," Wesley chimed in.

Kenneth said slowly, "From today onwards, you will be Sophie Dawson."

Sophie nodded subconsciously. "Yes... From today onwards, I'm Sophie Dawson. I have been reborn."

She was no longer part of the Bourn family. Her family name was Dawson.

At the Nicholls family, everyone knew that Sophie had returned to the Dawson family yesterday and had not returned.

Daisy and Jasmine started to show her displeasure after breakfast early in the morning. "Can't you manage your daughter-in-law? You can't allow her to come home as and when she feels like it. If she doesn't come home, you should ask her or tell her off!"

Daisy had long guessed that Jasmine would make things difficult for her. She replied coldly, "Jasmine, you have always been in charge of this family. If you are dissatisfied with the Dawson family's decision, you can just call and tell them. What's the use of telling me? I'm not in charge of the family. I am not Willard, and I don't have the right to speak."

"You! What do you mean?!" Jasmine was very angry. Daisy had become sharp-tongued recently! She actually got rid of all responsibility with just one sentence.

Seeing that Jasmine was anxious again, Rebecca had no choice but to say, “Daisy, although Willard answers to Jasmine, you’re also Sophie’s mother-in-law. Sophie is already a member of the Nicholls family. How can she go home and stay just like that? If outsiders find out, what will they say about us? They will think that Sophie is unhappy staying here.

That is not right!”

Daisy rolled her eyes at the two of them. She felt that they were looking for trouble.

“Rebecca, if Emily were to get married but the wedding ceremony had not been held yet, would you let her live with her groom-to-be’s family without a status? I don’t think the Dawson family’s request is too much.” Daisy spoke with a straight posture. This time, she was not afraid.

“I...” Rebecca was at a loss for words. She could not believe that she could not win Daisy in this war of words.

Daisy looked at the two of them indifferently. When her husband was alive, she was in charge of the family. The two of them had no right to interfere.

As she had been sick these few years, she did not want to have any arguments with them.

The two of them had obviously forgotten how powerful she was in the past.

“Daisy! What’s the meaning of this? Are you fine with Sophie staying away just for the sake of the Dawson family’s reputation? What about the Nicholls family’s reputation? You are clearly helping the outsiders!” Jasmine’s voice became louder and louder.

Suddenly, Damian’s voice came from behind. “Enough! Why are you shouting so loudly early in the morning?”

Jasmine was really getting out of hand lately. She knew that Norman did not like to hear them arguing or fighting, especially in the morning but yet, she continued to do it.

Seeing Norman walking behind Damian, Jasmine was startled. She quickly said, "I... I was just anxious. I didn't do it on purpose!"
