Chapter 81

“Okay.” Sophie smiled and walked into the classroom politely.

As soon as Sophie appeared, the students in the class were stunned.

“Who is this?”

“I’ve never seen her before? She doesn’t seem to be from another class.”

“But she’s so beautiful.” The male students in the class stared at Sophie.

She was a beautiful girl!

At this moment, Ms. Taylor walked in and regained some energy. “Stop discussing. This is the new transfer student in our class. Student, why don’t you introduce yourself?”

The teacher seemed to have forgotten to ask for Sophie’s name just now.

Sophie smiled and said, “My name is Sophie Dawson. I look forward to us getting along.”

“A transfer student? No way. I don’t think Habourland University has ever accepted a transfer student, right?”

“How can it be wrong if the teacher has already brought her in? Just now, I saw from the door at the back that it seemed like the Director of Academic Affairs personally sent Sophie here.”

“Huh? So awesome.”

Many people discussed animatedly.

At this moment, someone also noticed her surname. “Her surname is also Dawson? She has the same surname as

Evelyn,

Someone mentioned it, and everyone turned to look at Evelyn..

As the study committee member of the class, Evelyn was especially eye-catching.

When everyone heard that someone with the same surname had arrived, they immediately looked at Evelyn.

But at this moment, Evelyn was looking at Sophie with hatred in her eyes.

She was already angry that Sophie came to Habourland University to study!

Evelyn did not expect Sophie to be in the same class as her!

What right did Sophie have to enter Class A as someone who had never even attended high school?

dd MM

Chapter 81

Evelyn really felt uneasy just looking at her!

Sophie also saw Evelyn, but chose to ignore her. She stood on the stage and introduced herself briefly before looking at her teacher.

Ms. Taylor had no choice but to let Sophie sit down freely.

Habourland University was very free. The students found their own seats and the teachers did not arrange their seats.

But most diligent students were willing to sit in the front.

Although those who could be assigned to Class A had good results, honest students were usually in the front row. There were always a few unsociable and eccentric people in the back row.

As soon as Sophie sat down, she saw a young man napping on the table beside her.

The teacher was still taking attendance just now, but he actually fell asleep now?

How aweso

awesome.

After Sophie sat down, Ms. Taylor continued to host the class meeting.

She roughly arranged the direction of the class for the new semester. She would periodically check everyone's results and homework and urge them to write their thesis.

Sophie listened attentively.

However, Evelyn, who was in the first few rows, had a mocking expression on her face.

A person who had not participated in university life for the past three years was still pretending to know something. Sophie probably did not even know what the thesis was or how to write it, right?

The class meeting ended very quickly. Ms. Taylor let everyone move around freely.

Many people stayed behind to discuss the electives for the new semester.

The students who were very close to Evelyn immediately came over and asked, "School committee member, the counselor just said that there will be very few major courses in the future. Which elective course do you want to choose?"

"I also want to know what you choose. When the time comes, bring me along. I'll only feel more at ease with you around. Otherwise, I'm worried that I'll fail."

Evelyn was flattered by the few of them, and her face was full of pride.

After answering a few simple questions, she suddenly looked up at Sophie and said, "Sophie, as a transfer student, you have to choose another elective class. If you have anything you don't understand, you can ask me. I'll tell you."

Seeing Sophie looking at the elective class form, she thought that she could not understand it, and her face was filled with mockery.

Sophie could tell that she was up to no good. She said coldly, "There's no need, Evelyn, my dear sister. I've already learned these classes. I can just choose one."

It was just to prepare for the exam and get a graduation certificate. There was no need to be so serious.

Evelyn's face fell for a moment when Sophie mentioned that she was her sister.

Evelyn did not want to announce their relationship so quickly, but she did not expect Sophie to expose on the first day.

her identity

She decided to stop pretending and mocked coldly, "Yes, Sophie, my dear sister, you're really amazing. Then I won't worry. Just don't regret it in the future."

Seeing the two of them address each other as sisters, Evelyn's lackeys were stunned. "Evelyn, do you really know her?"

They had thought that their surnames were the same, but they did not expect them to really know each other.

Upon seeing this, Evelyn, could only put on a fake smile and introduce, "We do know each other. She's my sister. It's just that she used to live in the welfare institute. Recently, she was brought back to the Dawson family."

Her brief introduction made everyone frown.

"Welfare home?"

This was the Habourland University where the disciples of celebrities gathered, but Sophie had actually grown up

In a welfare institute?

Could she be a wild girl who had just been picked up?

“No way. She was actually brought back from the welfare institute.”

“Isn’t that the kind of place where wandering orphans or unwanted wild children go!”

“That’s right!”

The few of them looked at Sophie with different expressions.

Many people even heard their discussion and secretly looked over...

Sophie originally only wanted to read the admission information quietly.

dd MM

Chapter 81

However, she did not expect Evelyn to be so dishonest. She wanted to defame her on the first day?

Sophie would not give Evelyn this chance!

With a cold smile, Sophie put down the form and looked at Evelyn. Then, Sophie said to Evelyn’s lackeys, “There was no choice. Our places were switched since birth. Evelyn should have been sent to the welfare institute, but she actually took my place and enjoyed 20 years of bliss in the Dawson family. I suffered for her in the welfare institute for 20 years. But now, it’s fine. Everyone is back to their own places. As the saying goes, the real can’t be fake, and the fake can’t be real. Don’t you agree, Evelyn?”

Sophie looked at Evelyn and directly mocked her for being a fake heiress.

At that moment, Evelyn’s face turned green!

After these words, the surrounding students immediately understood something.

The real orphan who should have grown up in the welfare home was Evelyn!

However, Evelyn actually occupied someone else's position and enjoyed life. Meanwhile, Sophie had suffered in place of Evelyn for 20 years.

At this moment, the way everyone looked at Evelyn changed.

Evelyn could not help but hate Sophie. She hated Sophie to the core.

Sophie was really sharp-tongued!

She could actually make her speechless and unable to refute with just a few words!

Evelyn really wanted to strangle Sophie to death!

The surrounding students sensed that the atmosphere was not right and returned to their own work.

The few girls who were trying to curry favor with Evelyn were also looking at her strangely..

Evelyn glared at Sophie angrily.

However, Sophie only glanced at Evelyn coldly and did not take her seriously at all!

Who told Evelyn to be so smug? She was just reaping what she sowed!

After reading most of the information, Sophie left the classroom and decided to try out the course she wanted to choose.

As she watched Sophie leave, Evelyn's eyes turned bloodthirsty.

"Sophie, let's see how long you can live in glory!"

Chapter 82

The morning passed in the blink of an eye.

Sophie listened to an elective class and felt that it was not bad.

Previously, she did not know where her strength was. Now that she heard it, she realized that she had learned most of these things.

As Sophie did not know that universities had elective courses, she had learned all the courses that she could learn in the university previously. She had grasped all the knowledge points of the major subjects. She had actually grasped most of the other subjects, but the method and method were different from the ones used by the teachers of Habourland University.

As she pondered, Sophie walked forward. However, she bumped into a tall boy at the corner of the corridor.

Before she could open her mouth to apologize, the boy scolded, “Who are you? Don’t you have eyes when you walk? How dare you bump into our boss?”

Sophie rubbed her nose and looked up. To her surprise, she realized that the boy she had bumped into was the guy sleeping in the last row of the classroom.

Looking at the two fierce-looking lackeys on his left and right, she could not help but raise her eyebrows.

Tsk tsk, as expected, every school had scumbags. Even a school like Habourland University was no exception.

Sophie sighed and said calmly, “You and I should be classmates, right? Logically speaking, your results in Class A are not bad either. Why are you hanging out with such a person?”

Unexpectedly, Sophie did not know whether to admit her mistake and actually criticized him.

Brennan's expression was a little ugly. "Who's in the same class as you?"

He had never seen this face in his four years in class. 'How dare she try to get close to me?' he wondered.

One of his subordinates suddenly said playfully, "Boss, could this chick be relying on her looks to get close to you?"

Another boy chimed in, "Ah! She's indeed quite pretty. Which class are you from?"

Brennan's face instantly turned red from the two idiots. "You two went off topic."

After being scolded by his boss, James was stunned. "Yes, yes, we're going off topic! Girl, you bumped into our boss and you're still scolding him? Hurry up and apologize!"

"That's right. Hurry up and apologize. We can let you off just because you're pretty good-looking, Henry, who was standing beside James, chimed in.

Chapter 82

Sophie found it funny when she saw the two of them acting like they were doing crosstalk.

Moreover, James was tall and big. With a crew cut, he looked quite intimidating.

Henry's hair was permed, and he had a cigarette in his mouth.

Sophie inexplicably thought that Henry looked funny.

She could not help but burst out laughing. "The two of you match so well. You should form a team and do crosstalk together."

Unexpectedly, Sophie was not afraid of them and even laughed.

The corner of James's mouth couldn't help but twitch, "Is this little girl stupid?"

"That's right. Is there something wrong with her head? How can she still laugh?"

They were the three tyrants of the school. When the other students saw them, they would be terrified.

However, this unfamiliar little girl was actually not afraid and even mocked them for looking like they were doing crosstalk?

"You little girl, I think you need to be taught a lesson!" James said as he stretched out his hand to scare Sophie.

However, he did not expect Sophie's eyes to turn cold. She grabbed the tip of his finger and twisted it down. James's face instantly scrunched up and he screamed loudly, "Ouch! It hurts! Let go!"

Henry was dumbfounded when he saw this, thinking, 'James was very good at fighting! How could he let this little girl bully him all of a sudden? Moreover, James was 5.9 feet tall, but he was actually bullied by a girl who was only 5.2 feet. It was actually especially funny!'

'James, why do you look like you're pooping?' Henry shouted.

James's face instantly turned red from being mocked. "You're still making sarcastic remarks! Help me! My fingers are about to break!"

This little girl was too ruthless! She pinched his fingertips, and he could not move at all!

As long as James exerted a little force, he would feel even more pain.

Seeing that James's expression was not right, Henry realized the seriousness of the matter and quickly reached out to help.

However, Sophie tightened her grip on James's hand. "If you dare to touch me, his hand will be dislocated."

As soon as these words were spoken, Henry instantly stopped. Just as he was about to grab Sophie's hand, he actually stopped in the air and could not move.

Unable to think, Henry could only turn around and look at Brennan. "Boss! What should we do?"

Brennan's expression was cold as he thought, James was too useless.

However, this little girl seemed to know how to capture people. It would not be so easy for them to deal with her.

"You bumped into someone. It's only right for you to apologize. How dare you hit her?" Brennan looked at Sophie coldly and tried to shift the blame.

"He was the one who hit me just now, okay? He even hit a girl. How ungentlemanly." Sophie snorted.

When Brennan saw that she still did not let go, he raged. "Let go of him, apologize to me, and I'll let you off."

Sophie rolled her eyes at him.

"Let me go? Can't you see the situation clearly now? What right do you have to say that you'll let me go? It's more like you're begging me to let him go."

"Boss, she actually asked you to beg her?" Henry was dumbfounded. "You're Mr. Thompson's biological grandson.. No one has ever dared to speak to you like this in school! This little girl doesn't want to live anymore!"

'This brat was actually Mr. Thompson's grandson? No wonder he was so arrogant in school. However, Mr. Thompson had just helped me today, and he was the one who made an exception and accepted me. Since that was the case, I'll show mercy' as Sophie pondered, she let go of James's hand.

When Brennan saw her letting go, he immediately snorted coldly. “Weren’t you very arrogant just now? Are you afraid now that you know I’m the principal’s grandson?”

Sophie was speechless. ‘Did this brat really think that I was afraid of him?’

She had learned martial arts before she was paralyzed. When she was paralyzed, in order to have the ability to protect herself one day when she could escape, she had even learned grappling.

Now that she had recovered her body, even if the three of them attacked together, she could knock them down without any effort.

But Sophie obviously was not interested in dealing with Brennan any longer, and she just said coldly, “Yes, yes, yes. I’m afraid of you. Please stay away from me in the future. I don’t want to have any conflict with you. Let’s mind our own business, alright?”

She did not w

did not want to get into a conflict with her benefactor’s grandson, so she might as well say it directly.

But in the ears of the three of them, she was afraid of Brennan.

James stood up in pain. “Are you scared now? It’s too late! Let me tell you, we’re the three tyrants of the school! All the students have to take a detour when they see us! You’ve offended our boss! You won’t have a good time in the future!”

Seeing his tall but strange boy speak, Sophie inexplicably wanted to laugh. In order to end his stupid conversation, she pretended to be afraid and said, “I’m so scared. The three tyrants are so awesome!”

After saying that, Sophie suddenly said to James with a stunned expression, “I’m done cooperating with you to put on a show. Can I leave now?”

Such a reversal made James feel like he was choking!

little girl was actually so stubborn!

He had already threatened her like this, but she was not afraid at all?

Sophie could not be bothered with him any longer. She glanced at Brennan and said, “If you’d told me earlier that you’re Mr. Thompson’s grandson, I wouldn’t have bickered with you. I have to show him respect. Forget it. After all, I did bump into you just now, so I’ll apologize to you. Don’t report it to your grandfather when you go back. Bye bye.”

After saying that, Sophie winked at him. Then, she turned around and waved her hand.

Only the three of them were left in a daze, constantly thinking about what she had just said.

“Boss, why did she sound like she knew your grandfather?”

“Moreover, I feel like she’s talking down to us like an elder.”

“She really doesn’t seem to be afraid of us. She even said that she didn’t argue with you because of Mr. Thompson.”

The two of them echoed each other. At this moment, even Brennan felt that the two of them seemed to be doing crosstalk.

At this moment, their hairstyles inexplicably matched with each other.

Now, Brennan seemed to understand what Sophie was laughing about.

However, he was afraid that his smile would not be dignified. He could only turn around and say, 'Let's go. Don't make wild guesses.'

"Huh? Boss, are we just going to let it go like this? My, my hand still hurts!" James showed Brennan his hand gloomily.

However, Brennan could only look straight ahead because he was holding back his laughter.

When Henry saw that his boss did not care, he immediately mocked James, "You're a grown man. What's this little pain? Pretentious! Alright, hurry up and accompany our boss to class!"

"You!" James was frustrated.

However, Brennan had already started walking towards the classroom.

James could only sigh and follow.

Chapter 83

Sophie finally walked out of the school building. She planned to walk to the school gate and experience the boulevard on the way.

Unexpectedly, she had just stepped out of the school building!

Suddenly, they heard someone splashing a large basin of water down from upstairs!

In the blink of an eye, Sophie turned around and hid to the side!

She turned around and saw that the place where she was originally standing had a huge shadow splashed by a large basin of water.

One could imagine that if she had been splashed just now, she would have been drenched by now!

She subconsciously looked up to see who had done it.

However, she only saw a figure quickly disappear from the fourth floor.

Sophie's eyes were cold. She immediately took the elevator upstairs to look for him.

Unexpectedly, there was only a basin of water on the ground!

There was no one at all!

Sophie knew that the person must not have gone far. She shouted in a loud but cold voice in the corridor, "You're lucky that you didn't splash me this time. If there's a next time, I'll definitely return it tenfold!"

After the threat, Sophie saw that the person did not come out for a long time, so she was too lazy to look for him.

Her eyes darkened as she went downstairs.

Unbeknownst to them, half of Evelyn's face was secretly revealed in the corner.

said angrily, "Damn Sophie, she actually dodged quite quickly."

Evelyn wanted to make her clothes wet and embarrass her in public, but she did not expect to fail.

Sophie's leg had clearly just recovered. Why was she moving so quickly?

It seemed that next time, Evelyn had to be more accurate.

Sophie had already walked slowly across the boulevard and arrived at the school gate.

As expected, the person who came to pick her up was obviously not Kenneth, but Wesley.

Wesley was overjoyed to see Sophie. "Kenneth and Benjamin are both busy at the company. They don't have time, so I came to pick you up."

Wesley was happy, Sophie also smiled. “Thank you, Wesley!”

With that, she opened the car door and got into the car.

Wesley carefully helped her put on her seatbelt and asked gently, “How was your first day at university? Were you nervous?”

Sophie shook her head. “I wasn’t nervous. It feels good. The fourth year is easier than I expected.”

Wesley was shocked again. “Looks like you’re really a genius. I thought that the things you taught yourself might not be useful here, and you might have a difficult time.”

Sophie curled her lips. “I was bored at the Bourn family back then. All my pocket money was used to buy regular textbooks and books. I basically learned all eight subjects in university. There are only two or three subjects that still need to learn the method taught by the teacher to score during the exam, but I think I’ll be able to learn them soon.”

Sophie spoke casually.

Even Wesley, who was always curious to learn, did not have the confidence to have Sophie’s ability to reach this level through self-study.

“Let’s go

home and tell Marcus and Bianca the good news. They're also very worried that you won't be able to keep up with the class." Wesley smiled. Now, his parents could really rest assured that his sister was fine.

"Okay." Sophie nodded.

Wesley immediately started the car and set off.

He did not notice that Evelyn had just walked out of the school gate!

Evelyn saw that Wesley had already driven to the school to pick up Sophie, but he did not even wait for her!

Evelyn felt indescribable hatred in her heart. She immediately took out her phone and took a photo of her brother leaving with Sophie.

She believed that she would be able to use it in the future!

When Sophie returned home, Bianca had made a lot of delicious food. The air was filled with the fragrance of food.

Sophie could not help but ask when she entered, "Bianca! What delicious food did you make this time? It smells so good!"

Bianca, whose cooking had been despised by Evelyn all these years, was immediately overjoyed. She quickly took out the small biscuits that she had baked herself. "Sophie, you're back! Quickly try my biscuits! There will be pizza later!"

When Sophie saw such cute little bear biscuits, her eyes immediately lit up. "Wow! What cute biscuits. They look

When Marcus saw how cute his daughter was, he could not help but shake his head helplessly. “You’re eating now? Aren’t you going to wash your hands?”

Sophie chuckled. “I can’t wait, can I? I’m going to wash my hands now!”

As she spoke, she put the biscuit into her mouth.

The crispy biscuits melted in her mouth and instantly captured Sophie’s taste buds. “Blanca! It’s really delicious! I’ll wash my hands and come back immediately to eat! Don’t give it to Wesley!”

With that, she immediately rushed to wash her hands.

Wesley, who was standing at the door, looked at Sophie’s cute appearance and could not help but say, “This silly girl, who would snatch her biscuits away? I’m not that childish.”

As he spoke, he actually took a biscuit from his mother’s plate when Sophie let down her guard!

Bianca was stunned for a moment. Then, before she could react, Wesley popped the biscuit into his mouth.

After tasting it, he realized that it was really delicious. He even deliberately shouted at Sophie, who was washing her hands, “Wow! These biscuits are indeed delicious!”

Chapter 84

When Sophie heard this, she rushed back and took away Bianca’s plate. “Annoying! It’s all mine!”

Sophie was already familiar with her brothers. She could already let go of her protective nature.

After all, this was her first time eating the biscuits her mother had made for her

It was really delicious. She felt so happy.

“Sophie, I like to eat it too. Since I went to pick you up, give me another piece!” Wesley followed Sophie and begged.

Sophie pursed her lips. “Just one piece!”

“Alright, alright. Just one piece. I’ll bake more later.”

The siblings fought over the food.

Bianca could not help but laugh when she saw how childish her son had become.

Marcus had never enjoyed such a joyous occasion before. For some reason, he enjoyed this moment very much.

Previously, Evelyn had never eaten Bianca’s cooking. Every time her brothers snatched something from her, she would bawl loudly, giving everyone a headache.

Marcus had also thought about why his daughter was the only one who was so arrogant, when his sons were all so obedient.

Only now did Marcus realize that genes could be inherited.

Sophie was the same as the Dawson family members. She liked to be quiet and would not be arrogant and domineering.

It turned out that the heavens had already reminded him that Evelyn was not his daughter.

It was just that he had never suspected this.

The couple watched silently as the two children fought over the biscuits one by one.

They did not notice that behind them, Evelyn had also walked in.

“Godfather, Godmother, I’m back.”

The moment Evelyn appeared, the originally harmonious atmosphere became a little awkward.

Blanca looked back at her and said, “It’s good that you’re back. Go wash your hands and prepare to eat.”

MM

Chapter 84

Blanca was no longer as enthusiastic towards Evelyn as she used to be, and her tone was filled with politeness.

Evelyn’s eyes darkened, and she could only wash her hands. When she passed by the living room, she saw Sophie and Wesley fighting over something to eat. She immediately smiled and asked, “What are you guys eating?”

Wesley glanced at Evelyn and replied calmly, “Blanca made these biscuits.”

After saving

saying that, he continued to grab food from Sophie’s plate.

Sophie immediately patted her hand. “Wesley, you just said you’ll eat only one!”

Wesley chuckled. “It’s delicious. Give me another one, good sister.”

The two of them spoke one after another. There was exceptional love between siblings.

This wa

was a feeling that Evelyn had never experienced before.

She could not help but feel a little jealous. She walked forward and said, "Since Bianca made it, I'll try it too."

Sophie and Wesley did not expect her to come over and ask for it. They were silent for a moment.

Wesley was the first to react. "You've never eaten these cookies before. Why did you change today?"

When they were young, Bianca would often cook and bake for them. However, Evelyn always had a disdainful look on her face when she was young. She only liked the gorgeous pastries that were bought outside. She would throw away everything her mother made after taking a bite, causing her mother to often be sad.

Why was she suddenly interested in biscuits baked by Bianca now?

Being mocked, Evelyn could not help but feel a little awkward. "It should be delicious. That's why you guys fought over it, right?"

Sophie snorted in her heart.

Did Evelyn want it just because she saw them snatch it?

Previously, when her mother made it for her, Evelyn actually did not cherish it.

Sophie saw through Evelyn's thoughts and knew that she did not want to eat it at all, but was jealous."

Sophie directly rejected Evelyn and said, "Since you didn't care about eating it in the past, don't waste the ingredients. It wasn't much to begin with. Wesley and I don't even have enough to share,"

the

Evelyn's expression changed instantly. "Isn't there a whole plate of it? Can't I even have a taste? Aren't you being too overbearing?"

Sophie was too despicable!

“Bianca made this for everyone to eat. Why do you have to monopolize it?”

Marcus could not help but put down his phone when he saw that his two daughters were in conflict. “It’s just a few pieces of biscuit. Stop arguing. If Evelyn wants to eat it, I’ll get your godmother to make some more for you later.”

At the side, Bianca also said uneasily, “That’s right, that’s right. I really didn’t bake much. Sophie likes it so much, so don’t snatch it from her.”

Blanca could tell that Sophie really liked the biscuits she made, whereas Evelyn just wanted to try them. At most, she would make some more.

Seeing that her parents were defending Sophie, Evelyn knew that no one in this family would side with her anymore. She did

Dare to be arrogant anymore. She could only pretend to be aggrieved and say, “Blanca, I just want to try a piece. Sophie is too domineering and doesn’t want to give a piece to me. If you make more, won’t it be hard for you? She won’t be able to finish this plate alone. Isn’t it a waste?”

Seeing that Evelyn was pretending to be sensible, Sophie did not buy it at all. “Who said I can’t finish it? If it’s Bianca who made it, I’ll finish it all. I won’t let her down. On the other hand, Evelyn, why didn’t you eat it when Bianca made it in the past? How can a person’s taste change so suddenly? I didn’t give it to you because I was afraid that you would waste the ingredients.”

“You!” Evelyn choked. However, her parents were present, so she could only continue to act pitiful. She pretended to sob and said, “It’s a waste to give me a biscuit. Is that what you mean, Sophie?”

Seeing that Evelyn was on the verge of tears, Bianca felt a little embarrassed and quickly stepped forward to hold her back. “Evelyn, don’t say anymore. I’ll make you some more, okay?”

Evelyn did not expect Bianca to not only refuse to scold Sophie even after she had said so much, but to persuade her to stop arguing with Sophie. Evelyn immediately said indignantly, “Bianca, Sophie is so domineering at home. Don’t you care? Are you just going to let her bully me like this?”

Bianca looked back at Sophie and knew that she had gone overboard.

But when Bianca saw Sophie eating another cookie and then looking satisfied, her heart melted.

“Sophie has lived outside for so many years, but she has never eaten my food. It’s inevitable that she’s a little protective of her food. Just give in to her. Anyway, it’s not like you haven’t eaten the biscuits I made before. Didn’t you say that you don’t like this taste?”

Blanca could not help but feel disappointed when she recalled how Evelyn had vomited after eating a piece in the past.

Evelyn wanted to say something else.

But at this moment, Wesley also defended Sophie. “That’s right. Since Sophie likes it so much, why don’t you let her do whatever she wants? Don’t you like those gorgeous pastries bought outside the shop the most? You can just call them and ask them to send them over.”

Chapter 85

With that, Evelyn turned her head and went upstairs.

“Hey! Evelyn, it’s time for dinner. Where are you going?” Bianca tried to stop her.

However, Wesley said, “Bianca, just let her be. You’re the one who cooked to night. She doesn’t like to eat the food you made at all.”

Bianca immediately quieted down.

Yes, they were not a family. Their tastes were indeed different.

“Got it. I’ll get someone to send her some of her favorite food.”

With that, Bianca turned around and returned to the kitchen to prepare dinner for Sophie.

Sophie muttered as she ate the cookies, “Bianca, your cooking is so delicious. Some people really don’t know how lucky they are.”

Hearing this, Wesley was also a little helpless. “When Evelyn was young, her taste was different from ours. We didn’t know why, but now we know that we’re not family. How can we have the same taste?”

But at that time, everyone doted on her. If Evelyn did not eat, they would think of ways to make her her favorite food.

Only now did they realize that Evelyn was being unreasonable back then.

Sophie’s face darkened.

It seemed that her parents and brothers had been tormented by Evelyn.

Otherwise, they would not have been so disappointed in Evelyn after finding out that she was not their biological daughter.

After all, the more effort they made, the sadder they would be when they discovered the truth.

Marcus did not want to continue this atmosphere. He said in a low voice, “If the two of you like to eat eat more. Don’t worry about the others.”

Evelyn was always so moody. Marcus was really exhausted, both physically and mentally.

“Got it, Marcus. I’ll eat them all.” Sophie smiled happily. Her bright smile immediately swept away all the gloominess in Marcus’s heart.

His heart melted in an instant. “Alright, alright. Eat more. If you have class tomorrow, I’ll get Bianca to cook something delicious for you and bring it over.”

Chapter 85

“Sure! If we bring such delicious cookies to school, the students will probably like them,” Sophie said innocently.

These words made Marcus, Bianca, and Wesley feel that she was too gentle and kind.

In the past, Evelyn would always push Bianca’s food aside and ask who would want to eat something like that.

At this moment, Bianca’s heart seemed to have been cured. She hurriedly nodded. “Alright, I’ll make more later.

Bring it to school tomorrow.”

“Okay! Thank you, Bianca!” Sophie ate another cookie as she spoke. She felt that the cookie her mother made was really fragrant and sweet.

“There’s no need to be so polite. Eat less. We’re about to eat a real meal. You won’t be able to eat later,” Bianca reminded Sophie with a doting expression ‘Okay, I understand.” Sophie ate happily.

Bianca smiled and quickly went to prepare dinner.

Soon, Sophie’s brothers came back from work one after another

However, Benjamin was on a business trip, and Lucas had a last-minute job. Only Kenneth, Wesley, and Timothy were back

When they sat down for dinner, Kenneth said to Sophie, “Come and sit”

“Oh, okay.”

Seeing this, Wesley quickly sat on the other side of Sophie. “I’ll sit beside Sophie too.”

Timothy rolled his eyes at Wesley. “Cunning”

As he spoke, he took a fancy to the seat opposite Sophie. “The other side is not bad either. I can watch Sophie.”

“It’s better to be closer to her. I can even put food in her bowl.” Wesley looked smug.

Timothy could not help but wrinkle his nose. He could not be bothered with Wesley.

Seeing how much the three brothers doted on Sophie, Bianca could not help but laugh. “Don’t be so childish. Don’t scare Sophie.”

Wesley said, “Bianca, Sophie is very brave. She won’t be scared”

On this point, even the taciturn Kenneth echoed, “Yes.”

Sophie frowned. Kenneth actually thought so too?

Marcus seemed to have noticed something and could not help but ask, “Kenneth, did something happen when you sent Sophie to school this morning?”

Kenneth did not expect his father to be so sensitive. He replied calmly, “Yes.”

Then, the atmosphere became awkward.

Why did Kenneth stop there?

Wesley hurriedly said, “Kenneth, tell me. What happened?”

Timothy also said helplessly, “Kenneth, when it comes to our sister’s matter, can you not be so stingy with your words?”

Seeing this, Kenneth could only explain concisely, “Habourland University never recruits transfer students. The admissions teacher thought that Sophie’s admissions notice was fake and tore it off on the spot. However, Sophie was very capable and caused the admissions teacher and the daughter of the Smith family who caused trouble for Sophie to be expelled.”

“The daughter of the Smith family?” Marcus thought about it and roughly thought of someone. “Is she the daughter of the Smith Corporation?”

“Yes.” Kenneth did not say another word.

Timothy was anxious. “Why did the daughter of the Smith Corporation cause trouble for her sister? Why was the admissions teacher expelled? Tell me quickly!”

Why did Kenneth not say anything when it came to the key position? Timothy was really anxious.

Seeing that Timothy was so curious and Kenneth did not like to talk much, Sophie could only explain helplessly, “The daughter of the Smith Corporation, Lucy, is Laura’s best friend. Last time at the banquet, when I taught Laura a lesson, I also taught Lucy a lesson. When I went to report today, she happened to be there. The admissions teacher was originally just puzzled because Habourland University had never recruited a transfer student, but Lucy said that someone who forged the notice had reported in the past years, so the teacher tore off my acceptance letter.”

“Huh? He tore it up? Isn’t this teacher too much?” Timothy frowned deeply. As a police officer, his occupational habit was acting up again. “Everything should be based on evidence. How can we listen to someone’s one-sided story?”

At this moment, Wesley was extremely angry. “Lucy is too infuriating! She made the teacher tear up your acceptance letter? What will you do after that?”

At the end of the conversation, Sophie looked at her eldest brother with a smile. “Actually, I’m not that impressive. The impressive one is my eldest brother. When I was arguing with the admissions teacher, Kenneth brought the principal to the admissions meeting. With the principal supporting me, everyone came to know that my admissions notice was real.”

Upon hearing this, Marcus and Bianca could not help but heave a sigh of relief for their daughter. “Kenneth, you did well.”

At this moment, Bianca also understood. “No wonder you wanted to send your sister off this morning. You were afraid that she would be bullied, right?”

Kenneth was really considerate.

Kenneth shook his head. “I didn’t do anything. It’s just that Sophie is smart. She found out that Lucy bribed the Director of Academic Affairs to enter the school and also found out that the admissions teacher had neglected his duty. In the end, both of them were expelled by the principal.”

Wesley immediately looked at Sophie, and his eyes lit up. “Sophie, you’re amazing! You actually expelled the teacher and Lucy? Doesn’t that mean you became famous in Habourland University?”

With this, no one with eyes would dare to bully Sophie in school in the future.

Sophie scratched her head and said honestly, “I don’t know about that. Anyway, I vented my anger at that time.”

Timothy praised from the side, “That’s right, you can’t lose out no matter what.”

Chapter 86

Sophie chuckled. “Yes!”

The day she left the Bourn family, she decided that she would never be bullied again.

Therefore, the bullies in school could forget about it!

“If anyone dares to bully you in school in the future, just call me. I’ll go over immediately.” Timothy smiled at Sophie.

Sophie could not help but be stunned. She said awkwardly, “Timothy, you’re an Interpol officer. If I call you over such a small matter, you’ll scare people to death if you go to school. Forget it.”

Wesley smiled. “You’d better look for me.”

Sophie raised her eyebrows. “You think I’m easy to bully?”

Wesley immediately reacted and laughed. “Of course not.”

*Then just stay at home. If you go to school often, the others will make me send you love letters. I’ll be annoyed to death. I can protect myself, so don’t worry.” Sophie reassured her family.

For a moment, the Dawson family members looked at Sophie in a new light.

In the past, Evelyn would often ask her brothers to look for her at school or pesther them to send her off. This was to support her and prevent others from bullying her.

However, Sophie was really too understanding. She did not make them worry at all.

After saying that, Sophie seemed a little uneasy. “Kenneth has already made me stand out today. Don’t look for me at school in the future if there’s nothing serious. Other than our class, no one else knows that Evelyn and I are family. I don’t want to attract too much unnecessary attention.”

Seeing that Sophie was so low-key, the brothers liked her even more.

“Alright, I understand. I won’t go to school to cause trouble for you.” Wesley nodded and cooperated. His sister was so strong, so he naturally had to cooperate well and not cause trouble for her.

The love between siblings made his parents feel especially at ease.

They felt that after Sophie returned, the family was much more harmonious, and the atmosphere was better.

Indeed, family members were different.

After dinner, Marcus and Bianca went back to their room first. Wesley and Timothy stayed in the living room to

d d M M

watch television.

Sophie had nothing to do, so she returned to her room.

However, as soon as she reached the stairs on the third floor, she bumped into Evelyn.

Sophie could not react in time, but Evelyn seemed to have been prepared for it and bumped into her hard!

Sophie subconsciously fell backward, but in an emergency, she grabbed the handrail of the stairs! Only then did she stabilize herself!

Otherwise, she might fall down the stairs again!

The fear of being pushed down the stairs by Laura instantly enveloped Sophie. She was immediately stung. In an instant, she bounced back and pushed Evelyn fiercely!

“What are you doing?”

Evelyn did not expect Sophie to not fall and even push her hard. Before she could react, her forehead hit the corner of the wall!

“Ouch!” Evelyn let out a miserable scream. She felt her vision go black, and the intense pain on her forehead made her feel as if her head was about to split open!

She suddenly turned around and let out an ear-piercing roar. “Sophie! Are you crazy? I just accidentally bumped into you! Why did you push me?”

However, Sophie’s face was extremely dark. She immediately covered her mouth and grabbed Evelyn’s neck with her arm, pushing her against the wall!

Evelyn was not tall enough, so she could only stand on her tiptoes and hang on to her last breath!

At this moment, Sophie's eyes were filled with bloodlust. It was extremely terrifying, and it made Evelyn's heart tremble instantly!

"What are you doing?" Evelyn was almost out of breath! She could only grab her arms with both hands! Her throat could only make a weak sound. She wanted to call for help, but she realized that she could no longer make a sound!

"What am I doing? I should be asking you this!" Sophie looked at Evelyn's pale face and snorted coldly, but she tightened her grip!

"No!" Evelyn instantly felt suffocated and began to kick her legs with all her might!

Sophie's eyes were filled with killing intent, as if she had turned a deaf ear to Evelyn's struggle.

Her eyes were fixed on Evelyn's eyes, which were wide open in fear. Sophie said coldly, "Evelyn, I don't care about your petty tricks, but you actually want to push me down the stairs? Those few years in the past were hell for me. It wasn't easy for me to crawl out. If anyone wants me to go back, I'll definitely let them go to hell first!"

dd M M

Chapter 86

Sophie said the last few words so coldly that it was scary!

Evelyn was instantly terrified. As she was suffocating, her eyes quickly turned bloodshot, and tears flowed out.

Was Sophie going to kill her?

At this moment, Evelyn was really afraid!

However, Evelyn was getting weaker and weaker. She did not even have the strength to struggle.

Her vision became more and more blurry. At this moment, she was filled with regret. Because she was jealous of Sophie and wanted her to become a cripple again, Evelyn waited here for her to go downstairs.

Evelyn regretted it! She did not want to die!

However, her consciousness had already begun to dissipate. There was no oxygen in her chest and she had already lost the strength to struggle.

Just as Evelyn thought that she was really going to die, her neck suddenly loosened!

In the next second, she fell to the ground!

With a bang, her knee and elbow hit the ground hard, but she could no longer feel the pain. She could only gasp for breath with all her might.

Evelyn's rapid breathing caused her to cough. She lay on the ground and panted desperately. She was in an extremely sorry state.

Seeing that Evelyn was no longer as arrogant as before, Sophie reached out and grabbed her hair, forcing her to face her.

"Evelyn, I know what you're planning, but if you dare to complain downstairs and make my parents worry about the two of us, I'll go get a knife now and cut off your tongue!"

Sophie's gaze was as terrifying as the King of Hell, as if she would do it immediately if she said it.

It instantly made Evelyn shiver.

Sophie definitely wanted to kill her for a moment just now!

What else could such a terrifying person not do?

Evelyn could only shake her head vehemently.

Chapter 86

“I won’t! Let me go.” At this moment, Evelyn was really afraid that Sophie would take a knife and cut her tongue!

Seeing that she had finally admitted defeat, Sophie snorted and flung Evelyn’s head away. “Get lost. Don’t be an eyesore here.”

After saying that, Sophie suppressed the anger in her heart and left her to return to her room.

As she slammed the door shut, Evelyn was so frightened that her entire body trembled for a moment.

After sitting in the corridor for a long time, she finally regained her senses.

The pain in her forehead intensified.

Evelyn gritted her teeth in hatred.

Damn Sophie. She had only been home for a few days, but she actually dared to attack her.

Sophie even wanted to kill her!

Thinking of the look in her eyes just now, Evelyn felt a lingering fear.

Evelyn could not do this anymore. Her family was so biased towards Sophie. If Sophie stayed at home for too long, she would only lose her status!

At that time, she would be like a fish on a chopping board, at the mercy of others!

‘Sophie, you stole everything from me. I won’t let you have it easy!’ Evelyn thought angrily.

Chapter 87

Behind the door, Sophie leaned against the door weakly. She held her forehead in disbelief. She really wanted to kill Evelyn just now.

It was because Sophie was too afraid to return to the past.

It was not easy for Sophie to stand up again. She did not want to go back to the past!

Evelyn should never have learned from Laura!

By pushing her, Evelyn had touched Sophie's bottom line!

Sophie could not help but think of the dark days in the Bourn family. She felt cold all over.

At this moment, her phone suddenly rang.

Sophie was shocked.

She suddenly picked up the phone and realized that it was a video call from Roger.

For some reason, she felt a little relieved when she saw Roger's profile picture flashing. She could not help but press the answer button.

The next second, Roger's face appeared on the screen.

Although his eyes were still lifeless, they were so deep that they seemed to be able to absorb her soul through the screen.

For a moment, Sophie was in a daze and did not say anything..

After a moment of silence, Roger sensed that something was wrong. He immediately asked in a low voice, "Why aren't you saying anything? Did something happen?"

Sophie did not expect him to be able to sense it.

For some reason, her eyes felt a little sore.

However, she still shook her head and smiled bitterly. “No, nothing.”

Roger asked in a deep voice, “I’m your husband. No matter what happens, you can tell me. Are you unhappy at school?”

Dillon only reported to him at night. He had just found out that Sophie had been troubled by the teacher in school. He called her immediately to comfort her, but he did not expect Sophie to look so unhappy.

dd M M

Chapter 87

“No, I’m very happy in school.” Sophie realized that she sounded too disappointed and quickly perked up.

“Habourland University is very good. The principal and teachers are not bad, and I like the classes very much. It’s my first day there, and I like the feeling of being free.”

She had never been to university. During her middle school exams, she studied hard every day. She was not as free as she was in university.

nor’s eyes darkened.

Seeing that her disappointment really did not seem to have anything to do with the school, Roger’s eyes

“If it’s not because of school, then your family must have made you unhappy. Who is it? Evelyn?”

He could feel that Marcus, Bianca, and her brothers cared about Sophie very much. She had just returned home, so they would definitely dote on her.

The only person who could make Sophie unhappy was Evelyn.

Seeing that she could not hide it, Sophie could only smile helplessly. “Your guess is quite accurate.”

As she spoke, her chest relaxed a little. She returned to the bed with her phone and said, “I almost got pushed downstairs by her just now.”

Upon hearing this, Roger's eyes flashed with coldness. "Evelyn pushed you?"

How dare Evelyn touch his wife?

It seemed that the lesson he taught her last time was still not enough!

Seeing that he was agitated, Sophie quickly comforted him. "Yes, but I also pushed her. I even almost strangled her to death."

Sophie sounded a little guilty when she said the last few words.

Roger immediately sensed something, and his heart ached. He comforted her in a low voice, "I know what kind of life you used to lead. It's normal for you to want to kill her after she hurts you like this. If it were me, I wouldn't be able to tolerate it either."

Roger's words comforted Sophie a lot, but she asked hesitantly, "You aren't afraid of me? I felt that I was so scary back then. I felt that I really wanted to kill her at a certain moment."

Roger smiled. "Everyone has moments when they want to kill someone, but you're kind. You didn't really kill her. If you were really evil, you wouldn't have the time to blame yourself here."

Sophie was defeated by his logic. She could not help but frown and smile bitterly. "What you said seems to make sense. Indeed, everyone has moments of breakdown when they want to kill someone. I'm also naive and kind. I didn't actually kill her."

The depression in her heart finally relaxed at this moment.

Chapter 87

Her hands were not so cold anymore.

"You're smiling, aren't you? Smile more often. There's nothing wrong with that," Roger said calmly, as if he was an expert who had achieved enlightenment.

This serious and old-fashioned look made Sophie frown. "You're pretending to be an expert again."

Roger smiled. "I'm an accomplished person. Otherwise, I would have killed thousands of people in this house."

Sophie fell silent for a moment.

Yes, Roger was much sadder than her in that house.

At least her family loved her.

However, in the Nicholls family, it was Roger's own family who schemed against him.

"Sigh, now that you mention it, I don't even want to go back to the Nicholls family anymore. It's so comfortable to be in the Dawson family." If she had food and drinks and could go to school, how happy would she be every day?

"Then enjoy it while it lasts, because you're already mine and will be back soon," Roger said domineeringly, raising his eyebrows.

Sophie pursed her lips. "We haven't even chosen a wedding date. What's the hurry?"

Roger smiled. "Are you urging me to arrange a wedding date?"

Sophie blushed instantly. "Don't talk nonsense. I'm not rushing you!"

However, Roger smiled smugly. "Norman has already chosen a date for me to day. It's on the 22nd of the month."

"The 22nd?" Sophie calculated the time. It was only half a month away.

"Isn't this too fast?" Sophie pursed her lips.

She had not spent enough time at home.

"I'm still a student. Logically speaking, I should be staying at my parents' house."

Roger smiled. "There are more people getting married in university. Living with your husband is the way to go."

When Sophie heard the word 'husband', she was not used to it.

"We haven't had a wedding yet. You're not my husband yet!"

Roger could not help but tease Sophie when he saw her blush. "Alright, you don't have to call me your husband. I'll call you my wife then."

dd mm

Chapter 87

"Don't!" Sophie had goosebumps all over her body!

"Even if we're married, don't call me wife! Just call me by my name!" Sophie was so flustered that she could not control herself. The thought of the word wife made her feel uncomfortable.

"Alright, Sophie Nicholls." Roger deliberately said the last word in a bewitching manner.

In an instant, Sophie's hair stood on end!

Roger had clearly called her name!

But what did he call out?

Why was it so mushy?

"You'd better shut up! Don't call me!" What was going on with Roger recently?

Why was he always teasing her!

His words were so mushy that it made her heart itch!

"Why? Are you shy?" Roger smiled and continued to tease Sophie.

Sophie could not take it anymore and could only shout, "I'm not! I just feel too mushy and disgusting! I'm ignoring you! I'm going to sleep!"

With that, Sophie was about to end the video call.

Roger could only bid farewell. "Alright, have a good rest. Good night, Sophie Nicholls."

He said the last word flirtatiously again.

Sophie's nerves were instantly snapped. She grimaced and hung up the phone!

Chapter 88

"Roger is too mushy!"

Sophie threw her phone aside as if it was a hot potato.

However, although Roger was too cheesy, her mood really improved a lot

That night, Sophie could finally have a good sleep.

On the other end of the phone, Roger had a solemn expression.

Evelyn actually dared to push Sophie.

Evelyn must not be left in the family.

With a dark gaze, Roger dialed Dillon's number. Roger said coldly, "Send more people to investigate Evelyn's parents and find out where the

are. Send that girl away as soon as possible."

"Yes."

After hanging up the phone, Roger lay on the bed where Sophie used to lie with a deep gaze.

He had only lived with Sophie for more than half a month. After she left, the room actually seemed empty.

It was clearly his bed, but he felt that the bed was filled with her scent.

Roger lay down quietly and slowly closed his eyes.

In his mind, he thought about how Sophie would live here, change her clothes, pack her things, and sleep.

The corners of his lips curled up unconsciously.

Sophie had not been around for a few days. He really missed her a little.

'I'll visit her again tomorrow, Roger thought to himself.

After a good night's sleep, Sophie woke up naturally and went downstairs.

She had no classes in the morning, so she was a little free in the morning. She planned to go to school slowly.

However, when she went downstairs, she realized that the entire family was waiting for her.

What surprised her even more was that Roger was also there!

Sophie could not help but think of her phone call last night. She instantly had goosebumps all over her body. Afraid that he would say something strange in front of her parents, she hurriedly went downstairs to his side and asked awkwardly, "What are you doing here so early in the morning?"

Could it be that he was unhappy because she hung up on him last night?

Roger looked at Sophie's nervous expression and smiled subconsciously. "I missed you, so I came to see you,"

What?

This guy was indeed so mushy!

He said such strange things in front of his parents!

Sophie's face instantly turned red to the roots of her ears. She quickly covered his mouth. "Marcus and Blanca are both here. Can you stop spouting nonsense?"

This was the first time Roger had seen Sophie so red in the face. He only found it interesting.

Unknowingly, Roger reached out and grabbed Sophie's small hand that was covering his mouth. Then, he held it in his hand and said sweetly, "I know you miss me too. You're just too embarrassed to say it."

What?

Sophie's heart skipped a beat!

She suddenly felt strange all over!

Roger had been so mushy and cheesy for the past few days. It was scaring her!

Sophie really did not have the ability to resist anymore!

Looking at her petrified expression, Roger only felt comfortable in his heart.

It turned out that teasing Sophie was so interesting!

Marcus saw how loving Sophie and Roger were.

Moreover, with their tacit actions, it was almost impossible to tell that Roger was blind.

Marcus could not help but find Roger more and more pleasing to the eye. After all, Roger was also a handsome man. At this moment, Marcus began to support them. "The two of you are really loving. Very few of the married couples in the circle are as loving as you. Roger, I think highly of you."

Roger Nichols smiled. "Thank you, Marcus. Don't worry. I'll only treat Sophie better in the future."

Marcus immediately grinned from ear to ear. "Okay. I believe you."

Seeing that his father-in-law was so happy, Roger Nichols simply asked the butler to deliver the gift for him.

dd MM

Chapter 88

“I wanted to come over to see Sophie today and give you a bottle of good wine, Marcus.”

As he spoke, the butler actually brought over a bottle of expensive red wine.

Marcus looked at the code on the bottle and was immediately stunned. “This seems to be the limited red wine of France’s Neville Manor, right? There are only ten bottles of this wine brewed in the purest way in the world every year. This bottle is valued at hundreds of thousands to a million! Moreover, this wine is only for special customers. It’s not for sale, and it’s almost impossible to buy it.”

Marcus had never gotten a bottle of such expensive wine all these years. Where did Roger get such good wine?

“It’s just a gift from a friend. I don’t know how to taste wine. Why don’t I give it to you, who knows how to taste wine?” Roger replied humbly.

Marcus’s face lit up. “When it comes to wine, I’m no worse than a professional wine taster! We must taste it together later!”

“Alright, then I’ll have to trouble you to give me some pointers.” Roger had a humble expression on his face, as if he really did not know how to taste wine.

The butler smiled awkwardly.

Everyone in the family knew that Mr. Roger was the best at tasting red wine among the young masters.

He was a true top-notch wine taster, so every year, he would receive the first bottle of red wine from the wineries of various countries.

He did not expect Mr. Roger to give such expensive wine to Marcus today.

Marcus ordered someone to quickly put the wine away. His face was full of cherishment, as if he was afraid of the wine bottle breaking.

Sophie was speechless.

Roger was just here to stroll around, but he was actually so generous to take such an expensive bottle of red wine.

She did not see him earn money, but she saw him spend money recklessly all day long. She had to control him well in the future!

But her thoughts had yet to settle.

Roger actually took out a few other gifts for Kenneth, Wesley, and Timothy.

He even prepared gifts for Benjamin and Lucas, who were not home.

Moreover, every gift was worth a lot of money!

Chapter

88

Roger did not work in the company either. He only received some dividends from the company every year. How much money did he have?

He actually spent so much money!

This trip to her house had almost cost him the money for a villa!

Wesley, who had accepted the gift, smiled happily at Roger. "Thank you, my bother-in-law."

Of course, Wesley had to be sweet-tongued after taking Roger's things. He had already called Roger his brother-in-law in advance.

Sophie could not help but roll her eyes at Roger. "Roger, you really know how to spend money. You bring so many things every time you come. Are you going to spend all your money?"

Roger could tell that Sophie was unhappy.

However, he had a calm expression.

“It’s fine. I shouldn’t be able to spend all my money.”

Other than the company’s share of the profits, he still had a lot of money. He could spend it however he wanted.

With that, he took out an exquisite velvet box. “This is a gift I brought for you.”

As soon as he finished speaking, he opened the box.

In an instant, a diamond necklace appeared in front of everyone.

The huge diamond was exceptionally shiny.

Even Evelyn, who had just come downstairs, was blinded by the light reflecting off the diamond.

“What is this?” Sophie asked, stunned.

Roger was here? Why did he suddenly take out a necklace?

Roger smiled. “It’s your gift. When others have gifts, you will definitely have them top.”

As he spoke, he elegantly took out the necklace from the box and said to Sophie, “Do you like it?”

It would be a lie to say that she did not like it. Which girl did not like something that shone so brightly?

However, this necklace looked so precious!

Chapter 89

“Roger, this necklace must be very expensive, right? Why are you looking at me when you have nothing better to do? Why did you buy such an expensive thing?” Sophie really did not understand why Roger came to give gifts so early in the morning.

Roger smiled. He could tell that Sophie was a little heartbroken about the money.

He could only comfort her. “You’re the most precious gift in my heart. These things are insignificant compared to you. They’re just decorations. I just want you to be happy. Don’t you like it?”

Roger suddenly changed the topic and sounded a little disappointed.

Sophie choked on her reprimanding words.

She really wanted him to take it back, but Roger looked a little aggrieved.

Damn it.

She was really under his control!

Gritting her teeth, Sophie could only accept her fate. “Yes, I like it very much! Help me put it on!”

She was really going crazy.

Why did Roger look like he was going to wheedle? Sophie really could not stand it any more.

“Alright.” Roger’s mood instantly brightened. He said with a smile, “Turn around. I’ll help you put it on.”

Sophie had a moment of concern. If he could not see, could he help her put it on?

However, Sophie only turned around for a moment, and Roger had already put it on for her!

Sophie’s eyes were filled with disbelief. She could not help but look back at him. “So fast?”

She thought he would have to grope around for a while.

The Dawson family members also looked at Roger in surprise.

At this moment, Roger realized that his movements were too smooth.

However, he still said calmly, "I've put on a necklace for my mother before. I'll know once I touch this kind of hidden button."

"Oh." Sophie did not think too much about it.

At this moment, Evelyn walked down and could not help but say bitterly, "Sophie, you're so lucky. My brother-in-law is so good to you. He came over early in the morning to give you a gift."

When Roger heard Evelyn's voice, his expression instantly turned cold.

Sophie rolled her eyes at Evelyn.

Evelyn was so scared last night that she almost peed her pants. Now, Evelyn actually dared to be an eyesore in front of Sophie.

Evelyn really did not learn her lessons.

Wesley could tell that Evelyn's tone was not right. He could not help but fan the flames. "My brother-in-law is not only good to Sophie, but also to us. It's early in the morning, and all of us have gifts."

These words stunned Evelyn slightly.

I

'What does Wesley mean? Everyone in the family got presents? Am I the only one who did not get any gift? What about my gift? Evelyn thought to herself.

She immediately looked back at Roger expectantly.

This blind man had caused her a lot of trouble last time.

However, if he gave her an expensive gift, she would not argue with him.

However, after waiting for a few seconds, Roger did not seem to see Evelyn at all. His eyes were fixed on Marcus and Blanca.

"Marcus, Blanca, I came early and didn't have breakfast. I want to stay and eat with Sophie. Is that okay?"

Marcus and Bianca immediately smiled and welcomed Roger. "Of course. We're family now. Let's eat together."

As she spoke, Bianca stood up and brought everyone to the dining room.

Just like that, the family went to the dining room.

Only Evelyn was left on the spot.

'What does this mean? Everyone in the family has gifts, but when I went downstairs, Roger treated me like air? He actually asked them to bring him to the dining room for dinner?' Evelyn thought angrily.

At this moment, her lungs were about to explode from anger!

"Roger, how dare you humiliate me like this?"

Evelyn thought

Evelyn thought that Roger was here to ease the tension!

Chapter 59

Unexpectedly, he was here to humiliate her!

This couple was really too despicable!

Evelyn was really going to die of anger!

If this was in the past, she would have already caused a scene!

However, Evelyn had only eaten some food sent by the servants last night!

If she continued making a fuss, Marcus and Blanca would be even more disappointed in her!

Gritting her teeth, Evelyn forced herself to calm down and followed them to the dining room as if nothing had happened

However, when she arrived at the restaurant and saw the necklace around Sophie's neck, she was so jealous that she was about to go crazy.

Why did Sophie come back and snatch everything that belonged to her? How come Sophie still had such a good husband?

That necklace was worth at least 200 thousand dollars!

Although Evelyn had also received many expensive gifts from the Dawson family, they were nowhere as big as the diamond on Sophie's necklace!

The diamond almost blinded Evelyn!

Sophie seemed to have sensed that Evelyn had been looking at her necklace.

Sophie smiled coldly and deliberately flipped her hair to reveal the necklace. She reached out to touch the huge diamond.

She deliberatel turned around and said to Roger, “You have good taste. This necklace is very compatible with me. I like it very much.”

Roger could not help but be stunned. Sophie was extremely unwilling to wear it just now. It was obvious that she had no choice.

She was not an unscrupulous woman and was not attracted to these little things.

However, after noticing Evelyn’s expression, Roger raised his eyebrows slightly and immediately played along. “It’s good that you like it. In the future, you can tell me anything you want. I’ll get someone to buy it and give it to you immediately.”

Looking at the two of them acting lovey-dovey, Evelyn was so jealous that she almost turned green with envy.

Chapter 89

When the food arrived, she could only poke at the rice in her bowl gloomily.

However, this was not the end. Roger suddenly thought of something and pretended to be surprised. “Speaking of

I which, I brought gifts for you and your brothers. It seems like I forgot about someone.”

Upon being mentioned by Roger, Evelyn immediately felt humiliated.

Roger was doing it on purpose!

However, Evelyn could only smile and play along. At the same time, she was looking forward to it. She asked, “Roger, you finally remember me? What gift did you bring me?”

Roger did not expect her to be so shameless. He could not help but reply calmly, “I’m sorry. I only asked the butler to prepare a gift for Sophie and her family. I’m sorry. You’re not considered her family, so you naturally don’t have a gift.”

With just one sentence, Evelyn was excluded from the Dawson family.

Instantly, the atmosphere at the dining table became extremely awkward.

Evelyn's expression changed!

Roger was such a bastard!

He thought that not bringing her a gift was enough to humiliate her!

Unexpectedly, he still wanted to embarrass her in public!

He wanted her to lose all her face in front of her parents!

At this moment, Evelyn could no longer hold it in. Her eyes immediately turned red. She pretended to be aggrieved and said, "Roger, what do you mean by that? I know that I'm not related to my sister by blood, but I've lived in this family for 20 years. I've been in the family with my parents for 20 years. This relationship can't be cut off. Roger, if you hate me, just say it. Don't humiliate me like this!"

As soon as Evelyn cried, Marcus and Blanca were in a dilemma.

They knew that Evelyn had indeed been wronged, but Roger was a guest after all, so they could not say anything. They could not ask him why he did not prepare a gift for their adopted daughter!

Chapter 90

Roger watched Evelyn's performance coldly.

He did not sympathize with her aggrieved and pitiful look at all. Instead, he snorted coldly and said, "Did I say anything wrong? You're not her family member to begin with. You've lived in this family for 20 years, and you're just an imposter thief. How can the owner give something to a thief? On the other hand, what have you given your sister since she came back? Have you sincerely compensated her?"

Roger's words instantly turned Evelyn, who was still pretending to be weak, into a sinner.

Although Roger was blind, his mouth was actually so powerful!

He was so merciless to a little girl like Evelyn!

However, knowing that she was no match for him, Evelyn could only look back at Marcus and Blanca and continue to act pitiful. "Marcus, Bianca, I've already apologized to Sophie last time, I didn't mean to impersonate her. I'm also a victim. Why is Roger so against me?"

When she got to the emotional part, Evelyn forced herself to shed a few tears.

After all, Evelyn was once her daughter, so Blanca could not bear to see Evelyn in tears. "Roger, Evelyn did apologize to Sophie"

Roger snorted. "She hurt Sophie for 20 years, and it's over with just an apology? You've been in the Dawson family for so many years. Having stolen Sophie's identity, you must have received a lot of gifts every year, right? Shouldn't you return all these things?"

As soon as these words were spoken, the Dawson family members instantly fell silent.

Indeed, ever since she was young, Evelyn's food and necessities had always been of the highest standard.

Every year on Evelyn's birthday, her family members would send her all sorts of gifts.

However, these things should have belonged to Sophie, not Evelyn.

Today, Evelyn was actually so greedy that she wanted Roger to give her a gift. No wonder Roger was angry.

Seeing that the Dawson family members had actually quieted down despite seeing Roger bully her like this, Evelyn was really about to explode with anger!

“Roger, what do you mean? give all the gifts my parents and brothers have given me et tell me you want me t

to my sister?”

Roger had ulterior motives! No wonder he gave all of them gifts!

So he was waiting for her to return the gifts she had received!

Not only did Roger not give Evelyn anything, but he also wanted her to spit out all the gifts she had received from the Dawson family members?

Dream on!

Despite her thoughts, Evelyn still gritted her teeth and forced herself to remain calm as she said, “I’ve already used a lot of the gifts. Sophie wouldn’t want to use old things, right? Roger, you’re so considerate, why don’t you buy a new one for Sophie?”

At this moment, Evelyn no longer looked like a weeping, pitiful girl.

Roger snorted. “Of course I can buy her a new one, but if it’s not yours, you still have to return it. Even if Sophie doesn’t use it, it’s her freedom to leave it to you or throw it away.”

Evelyn almost had a mental breakdown again!

However, the Dawson family members looked at her coldly again.

Evelyn knew that she had disappointed them too much recently.

If she lost control again today, she was afraid that they would completely ignore her,

Where there was life, there was hope!

She had to find a way to stay in the Dawson family first!

In the end, Evelyn gritted her teeth and said aggrievedly, "Alright, I'll return it! I'll find everything my parents gave me for the past 20 years and return them all to Sophie! But from today onwards, I don't owe her anything!"

Evelyn did not want to be inferior to Sophie anymore. She was about to go crazy from being suppressed by the Dawson family members.

However, she was still too inexperienced in front of Roger.

Roger smiled playfully and picked up his wine glass lazily. "Even if you have returned the things, there's no way to repay the love you received from the Dawson family members with her identity for 20 years. You'll always owe her for this! I think the heavens haven't let you leave the Dawson family for the time being because they want you to make it up to her. In the future, as long as you stay in the Dawson family for a day, make it up to her. Pour water for Sophie and serve her. I don't think I'm making things difficult for you, right?"

Evelyn did not expect that Roger would not even let her go.

Even if Evelyn returned the things, she still owed Sophie.

He even wanted her to serve Sophie.

Chapter 90

This was too much.

Sophie looked at Evelyn's face, which alternated between green and white. It was obvious that she was extremely angry.

Her parents were still here. Was Roger not going overboard?

Sophie could not help but look back at Roger. “Actually, there’s no need to do this.”

Roger said calmly, ‘I know you’re kind. Of course, you don’t want to make things difficult for Evelyn, but what about her? When she wanted to push you downstairs last night, did she think about this?’

Roger’s words instantly stunned Marcus and Bianca.

Evelyn’s face turned pale in an instant.

She felt cold from head to toe.

How did Roger know what she did yesterday?

Could it be that Sophie complained to him?

Marcus looked at Roger in shock and said, “Roger, what did you just say? Who pushed who?”

Sophie did not expect Roger to talk about this in public. She immediately pulled him back and said, “Roger! Stop talking.”

Initially, Sophie did not want to tell her parents about this. After all, she had already threatened Evelyn. Sophie thought that Evelyn would never dare provoke her again.

However, Roger did not think so at all. If Evelyn had any intention of repenting just now, he would not have said it in public. However, her performance just now made him know that this person could not be carved. It was best to chase her out of the Dawson family as soon as possible.

At this moment, Bianca and the three brothers looked at Roger expectantly.

“Roger, tell us quickly. What exactly happened?”

Putting down the cup, Roger Nicolls replied with a determined look in his eyes, “Sophie was afraid that you would be worried about this matter. She didn’t want me to tell you, but she was frightened last night. I left Sophie in the Dawson family to let her experience the feeling of family reunification, not to let her be bullied. But last night, Evelyn almost pushed her down the stairs. That’s why

I deliberately tested to see if she really regretted it just now. However, she clearly did that last night, but she didn't have any intention of apologizing to her sister. Since that's the case, let's make this clear in public. I can't let Sophie suffer any grievances."

At this moment, Marcus and Bianca finally understood why someone as thorough as Roger would deliberately not prepare a gift for Evelyn and why he would go against her.

Chapter 90

It turned out that it was all because of this unfilial daughter!

Unable to bear it any longer, Marcus shot to his feet and questioned Evelyn angrily, "Evelyn! Tell me! Is what Roger said the truth? Has he wronged you?"

Evelyn was so frightened by Marcus that her entire body trembled. At this moment, her mind went blank, and she instinctively started to quibble. "Marcus, I didn't! I just happened to bump into Sophie at the staircase last night! It's true that Sophie almost lost her balance and fell down, but I was also injured! Look, my forehead hit something!"
