Chapter 1921: I don't want to let you down

The end of the year came quickly. Gong Bai and Huo die cleaned the villa together to prepare for the new year.

"It's a good thing you didn't let me spend this year alone," Gong Bai said with a smile.

Huo die swept the feather duster over him. He closed his eyes, his expression one of resignation.

The fire butterfly was stunned, but it was too embarrassed to continue sweeping his eyes.

He waited for a while, but she didn't come. He opened his eyes and couldn't help but smile. "Do you want to go to China?"

"No, no!" The fire butterfly frowned.

"Then we'll stay here."

"You're not going to ask why?" She looked at him in confusion.

"You don't have to go if you don't want to. Why are you being extra?"

Huo die couldn't help but laugh. then I'm going to ask. Why do you want to go to China? "

Gong Bai raised his eyebrows and asked, " what are you thinking? I still have relatives in China, and I want to take you to see them."

“Oh, Yingluo.” Huo die stuck out her tongue. She thought he was going to take her to see Yu Xinran.

Hmph! She would never go if her love rival was jealous of her!

“Actually, I’ve been in China all these years.” She said.

Gong Bai looked at her in surprise.

She shrugged her shoulders and said while cleaning, “I just want to go and see who the woman you can’t forget is.”

“Then, we’ll go to the place you used to live. Sometimes, it’s quite boring.”

“Did you see her, Qianqian?” Gong Bai was a little nervous.

“You mean that Xinran?”

“Yingluo, yes.”

“I see, she’s not as pretty as me.”

Gong Bai chuckled and pulled her into his arms. He rubbed her head and said, “Good, good, good. You’re the most beautiful!”

“You really don’t like her anymore?”

“He’s just an old friend. If she knew that we were together, she would give us her blessings.”

“Hmph! I don’t want the blessings of my love rival!”

sigh! Gong Bai couldn't help sighing. you're already dozens of years old, yet you're still acting like a child.

"How am I a few decades old?"

Gong Bai paused and looked at her with heartache. "Yu qinghuan told me everything. She said that you've been experimented on at the FARC, just like her. Moreover, you won't grow old."

Huo die's expression suddenly changed. She threw down her feather duster and looked at him, "What, do you think I'm a monster?"

"Where? I'm just thinking, Yingluo, you're always so young and full of energy. I can still deal with you now, but what will I do when I'm 80? Then, when I die, it won't be you who abandoned me, but me who abandoned you. Every time you leave, you will always come back. But once I leave, Yingying will never come back. I can't imagine what you'd do if you were alone. I don't want to let you down, Yingluo!"

The fire butterfly was startled.

"Don't be too sad when I die," he said as he sighed and pulled her into his arms.

When Gong Bai woke up in the morning, he found Huo die was not on his bed.

She had always loved to sleep in. Where had she gone?

Gong Bai rubbed his forehead and got up slowly. When he went downstairs, he saw the breakfast on the dining table.

He couldn't help but laugh, 'you've actually become more diligent. You finally know how to feel sorry for this old man, Yingluo!"

Gong Bai walked to the table and pulled out a chair. Just as he was about to sit down, he suddenly saw a note under the cup.

He picked it up and saw that it was Huo die's handwriting.

[I'm going to leave for a while. You have to eat on time and rest well. Otherwise, I won't come back!]

Gong Bai was flustered. He slammed his fist on the table and turned around to leave.

He searched every room in the villa, but he didn't see her. He called her, but her call didn't go through.

Chapter 1922: My wife is a foodie

Did she really leave?

He left again!

Gong Bai slumped on the sofa, his hand trembling slightly as he held the note.

He thought he had already found her, but she still hadn't? Was it just a dream?

He lowered his head to look at the note. It only said that she had left for a while, but it didn't say that she was Huo die.

In fact, he must be dreaming. The fire butterfly was dead, and this person was the Phoenix! She was always so willful.

Gong Bai didn't know exactly how long Huo die meant by "for a while," but he couldn't wait any longer. He called old K on the same day. "Huo die has left again. If you see her, please tell me."

"She won't be here to cause trouble for qinghuan, will she?" old K asked.

Gong Bai said, "master only has Yu qinghuan in his heart."

After hanging up the phone, Gong Bai went to pack his luggage, planning to find Huo die.

However, he didn't know where she had gone. How was he supposed to find her?

What if she came back right after he left?

Gong Bai sighed helplessly and stopped. He didn't know what to do.

Was waiting the only thing he could do?

After waiting for three days, he had no mood to eat or sleep.

It seemed like she had already expected this, which was why she had told him to eat on time and rest well. She even threatened him that she would not come back if he did not listen.

At the thought of this, Gong Bai suddenly broke out in a cold sweat. She couldn't be monitoring him, right? Did he eat on time and rest well these few days?

Gong Bai immediately went to the kitchen and found that there were no more ingredients, so he went out to buy some.

After buying the ingredients, he started to cook.

He picked out a few dishes with complicated processes. In order to make them well, he had to calm down and be extremely patient and careful.

He made a pot of 'Buddha Jumps Over the Wall'. When it was done, he opened the lid, and an alluring fragrance wafted out.

He couldn't help but laugh, "it seems that my cooking skills are not bad. When Huo die comes back, I can make it for her to eat, Yingluo."

"Gong Bai!" A delicate shout suddenly came from behind him.

Gong Bai turned around and was delighted to see Huo die jumping into the room. "You're back? Where are you going?"

"When I'm not around, you'll cook delicious food!" The fire butterfly roared in anger.

Gong Bai, "hehe."

"Boohoo, you don't love me anymore!" Huo die raised her hand to wipe away her tears. In her hand was a small box. She placed the small box on the counter and was unforgiving. "How could you do this?" This was too much! If I had known, I wouldn't have come back, Yingluo."

Gong Bai hugged her and couldn't help saying with joy, " "You're finally back! I thought you weren't coming back!"

"If I don't come back, I'll let you have all the food!"

With a smile, Gong Bai cupped her face and said, my wife is a foodie. If I know that you're running around, I'll cook at home and make you come back!

Huodie pouted, threw herself into his arms, and hugged him tightly.

Gong Bai looked at the small box on the counter, but he couldn't figure out what it was.

He patted her shoulder and asked, "where did you go?" Why are you running around again? I'm going crazy, you know? I thought you were going to disappear for another 20 years Yingluo. I'm already this old, so I might not have another 20 years. How could you bear with it?"

"Come with me!" The fire Butterfly released him.

She picked up the suitcase and pulled him out.

After entering the living room, the two of them sat on the sofa. While opening the box, Huo die said, "Take off your clothes!"

"Bi an?" Gong Bai asked.

Huo die glanced at him. take it off!

Gong Bai took off his clothes silently and thought, " Could it be that she missed my body after being away for a few days?

Chapter 1923: It's good for someone to call me by my name

He watched her as she took off her clothes. He found that after the box was opened, there were a few test tubes inside. The test tubes were sealed and there was some liquid inside.

This was a Kongtong medicine?

Huo die took out a disposable syringe, picked up one of the test tubes, and sucked it in. Then, she turned to look at Gong Bai.

Gong Bai had already taken off all his clothes, leaving only his undergarments."Roll up your sleeves."

Gong Bai asked while he was stroking, "What's this?" "You're going to give me an injection?"

"I'll euthanize you. Are you scared?" Huo die smiled.

Gong Bai knew that she was joking, so he said helplessly, "As long as you're happy. Don't run around anymore, I want to stay with you for a few more days."

Huo die's eyes grew hot. She took a cotton swab dipped in alcohol and applied it on his arm, then injected the liquid in the syringe into his body.

Gong Bai didn't know what it was, so he didn't ask. There were two more tubes of reagents left. After more than half a month, Huo die had also injected him with them.

He didn't feel any changes in his body, so it was probably some vaccine.

After the last shot, fire butterfly rebuked, "You're so honest. Aren't you afraid that I'll inject drugs into you?"

"I'm happy to endure the poison you put in me," Gong Bai said while holding her in his arms.

Hearing this, Huo die pulled open her clothes, revealing the tattoo on her left shoulder. "Did you know, this was originally a series of numbers, Yingluo?"

"Serial number?"

She nodded, "it's like the kind of serial number that's a combination of letters and numbers." "All the test subjects in the experiment would be tattooed with a number. After the number was tattooed, it was as if he was no longer a human, but a cat, a dog, or even a blade of grass. We're not human anymore, do you understand?"

"Now that you've left, I'm here," Gong Bai hugged her tightly.

“But Yu qinghuan is different.” She said, “those lunatics treated her as an Angel. She was an experimental subject just like everyone else, but those lunatics could not bear to destroy her perfection and leave any marks on her body! I’m jealous of her. I’m so jealous of her. Yingluo doesn’t have any marks on her body. She can pretend that nothing has happened and live a new life. But I can’t pretend!”

Huo die touched the tattoo, “it’s here, like a shadow, unwilling to leave.” I’ve removed the number, but I can’t forget it. Whenever I see it, I’ll be reminded of the past!”

Gong Bai lowered his head and planted a gentle kiss on her tattoo.

Huo die leaned on him. before I met you, I was always alone. I didn’t know anyone. I was afraid that no one would know my name even if I died, so I tattooed my name. I just thought that it’s good to have someone call me by my name in this life, I don’t want to be a number, Yingluo.”

“Fire butterfly!” Gong Bai hugged her tightly and said, “forget about those things. You’re different now. You’re my woman, and we’re together. When we die, we’ll be buried together. I’m gong Bai, and you’re Huo die. We don’t have any numbers.”

The fire butterfly hugged him and began to cry.

In the early morning, the first ray of sunlight shone into the room. Gong Bai opened his eyes and felt the body of the fire butterfly in his arms.

He sat up, looked at her young face, and thought of last night’s Xuxu.

He felt that he was a little more lively. Was it an illusion?

His body seemed to have become younger.

Gong Bai recalled what she had said last night. She had mentioned the laboratory again. Could it be that the drugs he had injected were also related to the laboratory?

Gong Bai got up and walked into the study room to call old K.

Old K quickly picked it up and asked in frustration, "Why are you so annoying?"

Chapter 1924: The secret of the fire butterfly

"I want to look for Yu qinghuan." Huo die gave me three injections. I want to ask her and see if she knows what it is," Gong Bai said.

huodie didn't come to find her. How did she know?!

"I think she should know."

"Yingluo, alright. I'll help you, but I can't guarantee that she won't care about you."

"Thank you, master." Gong Bai said with a smile.

He hung up the phone and went downstairs to make breakfast. Halfway through breakfast, Yu qinghuan called back.

"Was there anything unusual about her before she left?" Yu qinghuan asked.

"Nothing unusual." Gong Bai said, "I told her the day before that I would grow old, die, and abandon her. I thought she couldn't bear to be with an old man.

"The thing she injected into you should be her serum."

"Blood serum? Her?" what do you mean? " Gong Bai was puzzled. What's the use of that?"

“Her body is a petri dish,” Yu qinghuan said coldly. She was the only survivor of the experiment, but something might have gone wrong in the experiment and she was turned into a petri dish.”

“What do you mean?”

“It means that her body is like a container, and the container contains anti-aging drugs. The reason I’m not old is because I injected a large amount of the serum I extracted from her body. However, the laboratory was different from the current situation. In the laboratory, her petri dish had been maintained. It was not certain whether her serum was still as powerful as it was now, but it would definitely be useful. Congratulations, you have obtained eternal youth.”

Gong Bai,”hehe.”

“Oh, that’s right.” Yu qinghuan said, “ I’ve seen a few people who have undergone such experiments. I roughly know what death is like. If you start to feel uncomfortable and feel that you’re getting old, take her and hide. Because you might suddenly grow old. I’m not old yet, but that doesn’t mean I’ll live forever. When I reach the limit of human life ... I can’t be more than 150 years old, right? At that time, they would grow old in a very short time and then die. It would be too scary if anyone saw it. So when the time comes, you can just hide. I don’t know how she is.”

little white ~”Huo die’s soft voice came from behind.

Gong Bai turned around and looked at her with a complicated expression.

“Who are you flirting with so early in the morning?” she asked, displeased.

Yu qinghuan hung up the phone, and Gong Bai also put down his cell phone. He walked toward her and pulled her into his arms.

Xiaodie, Qianqian! he shouted in a choked voice.

“What?”

“We have to be together, together forever.”

okay ~”Huo die hugged him happily and whispered,” is this Qianqian’s proposal?”

Gong Bai let go of her and looked at her gently. let’s have a wedding. Would you mind the wedding dress you wore?”

The fire butterfly shook its head.

“Then let’s go register today! I’ll treat you to a meal another day.”

“Do we have guests?”

“Oh, Yingluo, if you say there’s no, then there’s no.”

“I only want you. I don’t care about anyone else,” Huo die said with a smile, hugging him.

“Alright,” he said. He hugged her tightly. I only want you too. The others are not important.

When spring came and the flowers bloomed, Gong Bai took Huo die to travel around the world and took wedding photos nonstop.

He sent a photo to Gong mo and Gong mo asked, ” “Why did you find a little girl?”

He smiled and replied, [she’s very cute.]

Chapter 1925: Yu qinghuan’s side story-start

Gong mo had no choice but to say, "as long as you're happy." I can see that you're very happy, and you'll be like this forever."

"Yes, I am. I'll bring her back to see you when I'm free."

After putting down his phone, Gong Bai turned around and kissed Huo die.

"I haven't had enough fun yet, I don't want to go back ~" Huo die said coyly.

"Alright, alright, alright! We'll go when you want to."

As soon as Gong Bai finished speaking, his phone rang. He looked at the display and saw that it was Yu qinghuan.

He glanced at Huo die, who frowned in dissatisfaction. "I hate her the most!"

Gong Bai patted her shoulder and said in a pampering tone, "Let's see what she has to say."

As he spoke, he pressed the speaker button and Yu qinghuan's hoarse voice was heard, "Gong Bai, Ling Ling"

"Yes." Gong Bai found it strange because she didn't usually speak like this. He couldn't help but feel a little uneasy.

"Your master has passed away." Yu qinghuan's voice carried a sobbing tone.

"What happened?!" Gong Bai was stunned and asked anxiously.

"It was a heart attack, and I can't do anything about it." Yu qinghuan cried, "I almost forgot. He's old, Huanhuan!"

“Where are you guys?”

“You don’t have to come. I’m just telling you.” Yu qinghuan’s voice was mixed with the sound of the wind. he said that there’s no need to hold a funeral. Dust to dust, earth to earth, whatever is fine. I’m afraid you’ll miss us, so I’m telling you not to miss us anymore.”

“You guys?”

there’s no one to keep me company, Hanhan! Yu qinghuan cried. I don’t want to go back and look for any of you, Hanhan. Tell nanxuan that if there’s a next life, I’ll protect him, Hanhan!

Her broken sobs blurred her words, and with the whistling of the wind, she hung up the phone.

On a tall mountain near the sea, Yu qinghuan knelt on the ground and hugged old K’s body.

She dropped her hand and her phone slipped.

Old K’s eyes were closed and his face was peaceful. The wind caused his hair and beard to tremble.

Yu qinghuan lowered her head, her tears falling on his face. “Thank you, Yingluo, for accompanying me for so many years, Yingluo.”

She put him down and took off her coat to cover him.

The strong wind on the top of the mountain blew her red dress up. She walked to the edge of the cliff and jumped down.

With a plop, she sank into the sea and was swept away by the turbulent undercurrent.

She opened her eyes and swam forward with all her might.

She simply didn't know how she could die!

She had lived long enough and did not want to live like a monster!

She wanted to live an ordinary life, with a man she loved, and cute children. When she reached an age, she would naturally grow old and age.

However, this was a luxury for her.

Where could the sea water take her? Could he bring it to another world?

She knew she couldn't. She had tried. She had sunk to the bottom of the sea and would wake up on the beach in the end.

She stretched out her hand and cut her wrist with her fingernail. Blood slowly spread out. She swam forward and merged her blood into the sea.

She didn't know how long she had been swimming, but a huge shark swam towards her and she couldn't help but smile.

The moment she got close to the shark, she lost all her strength and sank to the bottom.

She happily thought, 'can I die this time? Can I be free now?

Yu qinghuan opened her eyes, not knowing what day it was.

There was a white ceiling in front of her. There was a high-watt ceiling lamp on the ceiling, and the light was so bright that she could not open her eyes.

This scene was very strange, but also a little familiar.

She should have seen it somewhere before, and it existed in a distant memory.

If he didn't, why didn't she die?

She really did not want to live anymore! Why did he have to torture her like this? What did she do wrong?

Hot tears fell from the corner of her eyes, and a hand touched her and gently wiped them away.

Chapter 1926: rebirth

She looked over and saw a strange yet familiar face. Her brain instantly crashed.

"Now you're crying?" That person laughed evilly.

"Shengzhongtian!" Yu qinghuan roared in anger. Memories flooded her mind, and everything in front of her was no longer unfamiliar.

This was a nightmare that she had buried deep in her heart. She would never forget it for the rest of her life, and she was even more unwilling to think about it!

She pushed Sheng Zhongtian away and got up, looking at her surroundings.

This was the underground laboratory of shengshi medicine, and the man in front of him was shengzhong when he was young.

How did this happen? Why would she dream of that time?

Sheng Zhongtian walked over and reached out to grab her chin, lifting her face to look at him.

Yu qinghuan looked at him, her body trembling slightly. She wanted to cut him into a thousand pieces.

He lowered his head and blew on her lips suggestively. Their lips were only a few centimeters apart.

He said evilly, "you still have the strength to resist?" It's okay, there won't be any more in a moment. I'll make you cry and beg me. "

Yu qinghuan's entire body trembled as she recalled!

It was at that time!

At that time!

She was drugged and couldn't use any strength, so she could only let him ravage her while she was sober!

Later on, he often did this. She was locked up for experiments every day, and he had to bully her.

Liu Xuelan only found out about this when she was pregnant. From then on, she escaped from shengzhongtian's evil clutches, but Liu Xuelan continued to torture her on the experiment table, even the child in her stomach was not spared.

Feeling Sheng Zhongtian pressing on her body, she used all her strength to push him away and rolled out of bed.

He had not succeeded. She was still clean and innocent. She still had a chance to reject the fate that was about to come!

She had to escape!

No matter what, she had to fight!

Even if it was a dream, she didn't want to do it again. She didn't want to be defiled by this disgusting man. She didn't want to become a monster in the laboratory!

Yu qinghuan rushed to the door, pulled it open, and ran out.

Sheng Zhongtian chased after her, flustered and exasperated. He tugged on her sleeve. "Where are you running to? Do you think you can run away?"

Yu qinghuan looked at him, her body trembling in fear.

She couldn't run away.

She knew that she would soon lose all her strength and let him do whatever he wanted. But all her senses were still there, and she could clearly feel how he tortured her.

She didn't want that! She had to escape! She didn't want to experience such a terrifying thing again!

She looked at him with hatred and gritted her teeth. I am different now! No one is my match!

She flicked her sleeves and fell into his arms.

"So, you like this?" Sheng Zhongtian laughed.

Yu qinghuan's expression changed drastically.

What was going on? Why can't I use any strength? It shouldn't be. Even if Yingying was drugged, it's impossible that she couldn't use any strength, right?

I don't care! Run first!

Since she couldn't fight, she could only run.

She staggered through the corridor and ran forward. As she lost her strength, the scene in front of her was like a picture that had disappeared long ago. It appeared in her mind from nothing.

To her, all of this was both familiar and strange-strange because they had not seen each other for decades, and familiar because they all existed in her mind.

She still remembered the suffering she had suffered here and the change in her fate.

After running for a while, she helplessly stopped and looked back. Sheng Zhongtian was walking slowly towards her with an evil smile on his face, as if he was looking at a lamb waiting to be slaughtered.

She gritted her teeth and continued walking.

Chapter 1927: number one goes crazy

When she reached a fork in the road, she stopped and looked at the brightly lit corridor, not knowing where to go.

Right, where was the exit?

She had some impression of it. She had to escape along that road.

roar! a loud roar was heard.

Behind her, Sheng Zhongtian stopped and shouted, "Come over here! The wild beast has gone mad. You'll die if you go there. Don't blame me for not warning you."

Yu qinghuan turned back to look at her and laughed coldly. Then, she turned around and ran in the direction of the sound.

She was not afraid of death, but she was afraid that she would not die.

When she ran to the end, she saw a laboratory. There was a roar coming from inside, which seemed to be from a beast.

Yu qinghuan turned around and saw Sheng Zhongtian running towards her. She immediately rushed in.

The laboratory was in a mess. A group of people in white coats were shouting, "Close the door! Quickly close the door!"

Yu qinghuan saw that there was an iron door in front of them that was slowly closing, and a figure quickly rushed out.

She saw the electronic lock on the door and knew that it would be locked as soon as the door was closed.

She immediately squeezed through the gap and bumped into the person inside. Then, her whole body bounced back and fell against the door.

With a click, the door closed behind him.

"Let her out!" Sheng Zhongtian roared.

She knew that he was talking about her, so she was so scared that she dodged to the side, afraid that he would grab her back and humiliate her.

“No!” A nervous voice came from outside. No. 1 has gone crazy. You can’t open the door! It’s very dangerous!”

When Yu qinghuan heard this, she turned around and looked at the person she had just bumped into.

She sat on the ground and looked up to see that the other party was particularly tall.

He stood in front of her and lowered his head to look at her.

His hair was a little long and covered half of his face. She could see his eyes hidden behind his hair, which were as bright as poison and shining with a sinister light.

He wasn’t wearing any clothes, and he was only wearing a pair of tattered shorts. His four limbs were chained to the wall, and the veins under his skin were exposed. Hot air was coming out of his body.

“Why is he so quiet?” The person outside asked anxiously, “ did Wanwan succeed? ” argh! the man suddenly flew into a rage. He raised his head and roared outside. He clenched his fists and pulled his hands apart.

With a click, the iron chain that was binding him fell off the wall. He jumped onto the wall and used his fist to smash the door.

He was like a wild beast that had gone berserk. Yu qinghuan realized that she couldn’t exert any strength and was worried that he would hurt her. She retreated in fear, but she didn’t even have the strength to do so.

She lay on the ground and looked at him.

He knocked on the door a few times, and the door loosened. He grabbed the doorknob and pulled it open. He jumped out of the room and walked out.

“Quick!” A terrified cry came from outside. “Tranquilizer! Maximum dosage!”

“No! It’s no use!”

“Go! Hurry up and run!”

“But that woman ...”

“Don’t care about her! Quickly run!”

CAW-

CAW-

The sound of iron doors falling to the ground could be heard, followed by the sound of banging on the door.

After about half an hour, the sound stopped.

Yu qinghuan could feel the strength in her body slowly recovering.

The effect of this medicine did not last long, but shengzhongtian was very happy to use it every time. Because once the effects of the drug wore off, he would have almost ruined her. Even without the drug, the physical discomfort would make her body lose a lot of strength. At that time, the more she resisted, the more it aroused his sexual interest.

Abnormal! Yu qinghuan gritted her teeth. She had escaped today, but if she had the chance, she would definitely make him wish he was dead.

Chapter 1928: He was the first experimental subject here

At this moment, the sound of chains could be heard. Yu qinghuan was shocked. She raised her head and saw the man dragging the chains on his limbs.

She took a deep breath and looked at him with wide eyes.

It was obvious that he was also an experimental subject. However, when Yu qinghuan thought about it carefully, she couldn't remember seeing him before.

By the way, those people just said he was "number 1."

The numbers of the test subjects were arranged in order of the time they were tested.

In other words, he was the first experimental subject here.

He should have died very early, right?

Most of the experimental subjects would suddenly die in the process of experiments, or die from organ failure after many experiments.

The earlier the test subject, the earlier he would die. This was because the earlier the experiment, the more it was in the exploration stage, and almost all of it would be declared a failure. Some unlucky people died during their first experiment.

Yu qinghuan looked at him, and a voice suddenly sounded in her mind-

"No. 1! No. 1 has exploded!"

Her entire body quivered!

When did that happen? She was sure that she had heard this before.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh whoosh

The other party dragged the iron chain and walked in front of her. She saw his fair feet, and he was not wearing shoes or socks.

His skin was pale, and the blood vessels on the back of his feet were visible.

She slowly raised her head and looked at him.

Blue veins were exposed on every part of his skin, and he seemed to feel his blood flowing.

Yu qinghuan was sure that she had never seen him before, but why would she dream of him?

Dreaming was “what you think in the day, you dream at night.”

She had never seen him before, so why did she dream of him?

Even if she had heard of “No. 1”, she had never seen him in person, so it was not to the extent that she would dream of a living person!

This person was still so clear. Although his hair covered half of his face and his body was covered in scars, it did not hinder his clear image.

He bent down and looked at her, his sweat-drenched hair falling on her face.

He slowly closed his eyes and took a deep breath at her, as if he was smelling a blooming flower.

A moment later, he straightened his body and walked to the single bed at the foot of the wall. He then sat down on the bed.

Yu qinghuan heaved a sigh of relief and slowly got up, not knowing what to do.

She pinched herself hard with her nails and realized that it hurt a lot. She was instantly confused.

Wasn't this a dream?

But if it wasn't a dream, how could she have appeared in the laboratory decades ago?

Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh! Whoosh!

No. 1, who was sitting on the bed, fumbled with the iron chain in his hand, making a heart-shaking sound.

Yu qinghuan looked at him, her eyes filled with sadness and sympathy.

This person's fate was as tragic as hers, or even worse than hers.

She felt that she would be a monster if she didn't grow old and die. She didn't want such a life, but No. 1 in front of her should have died a long time ago.

When he died, he must have hoped to live a few more years, to escape from this hell, to see more of this world.

Yu qinghuan remembered, Xuxu.

She recalled when she had heard of him.

That was when she was six months pregnant. Because of her pregnancy, she had some free time. She could walk around in the corridor of the laboratory every day and do some exercise.

One day, when she woke up from her afternoon nap, she was in the middle of this activity when she suddenly saw Liu Xuelan and Sheng Zhongtian hurrying towards a certain place.

She followed him silently and heard someone shout, "No. 1! No. 1 has exploded!"

She hid behind the crowd and saw the blood and flesh on the ground. She immediately vomited.

Then, she was discovered by Liu Xuelan and Sheng Zhongtian. The two of them immediately called for people to take her away.

Chapter 1929: She won't allow it! She knew that test subject No. 1 had exploded. When she saw the bloody scene, she knew that it was a real explosion. She had exploded. How could there be an explosion? They had probably conducted some kind of experiment that resulted in this result. At that time, she couldn't help but shed tears for number one, who she had never met before. She had seen many test subjects die, and some had even had their organs removed. However, none of them had died as incomplete as No. 1. If Sheng Zhongtian and the others cleaned up the traces, even if this evil lair was made public in the future, no one would know of "his" existence, right? No one knew that he had died here, and no one knew that he had died without an intact corpse. Yu Qinghuan had never thought that she would see number one in person. No. 1 grabbed the chain on his left hand with his right hand and wrapped it around his palm. Then, he pulled the chain hard. With a crack, the chains broke and flew everywhere. A piece of metal flew towards Yu Qinghuan. Yu Qinghuan's eyes narrowed and she raised her hand to grab it. However, her movements were much slower, and the piece of metal hit her eye directly. She screamed in pain and fell to the ground. Ah!!! Yu Qinghuan covered her eyes and rolled around in pain. At this moment, she suddenly realized that everything in front of her could be real. She couldn't feel pain anymore, could she? And her reaction couldn't be so slow that she couldn't even catch a small piece of iron. She was someone who could even take a bullet! Pa! Pa- There were a few more sounds of chains breaking, and then a pair of pale feet appeared in her sight. She opened her eyes with difficulty and saw him standing in front of her. He squatted down and picked her up. He slowly walked to the single bed at the foot of the wall and put her on it. Yu Qinghuan's hands trembled slightly as she looked at him. She wanted to launch a sudden attack, but she couldn't do it. She wanted to, but she couldn't. No. 1 reached out and took her hand away. He used his pale hand to press down on the red and swollen part of her head and gently rubbed it twice. Yu Qinghuan felt his cold palm and slowly relaxed, lying flat on the bed. The sound of the door opening came from outside, and both of them froze. Number one suddenly let go of her and strode out. Yu Qinghuan looked over. She couldn't see what was going on outside, but she heard an unfamiliar voice. "He has calmed down! Continue the experiment!" Yu qinghuan gritted her teeth, her eyes red with hatred. These bastards! Do you still want to carry out those experiments and destroy countless lives? She would not allow it! If she wanted to save her, she would naturally have to stop them! Whether it was a dream or reality, she would not allow her fate to repeat itself! Yu qinghuan looked up at the ceiling. She pressed her hands on the bed, wanting to jump up. She pressed her hands down and sat up, but she could only sit up. She couldn't jump up at all. She fell back onto the bed and could not help but smile, her heart filled with joy. Before she was raped by Sheng Zhongtian, her body had been transformed. At this time, although she had accepted some experiments, she was still just an ordinary experimental body. It was only a few years later when she transferred to the SSC that she was slowly transformed into a humanoid killing machine, and it was also there that she gained eternal youth. In other words, it was completely in time now. She had the chance to change her fate, escape, and live the life of an ordinary person! Yu Qing was so happy that he cried, turning over and lying on his side, his whole body bent into a ball. Was this a dream? Even if this was a dream, she wanted to continue living it well!

Chapter 1930: He won't let me live

The sound of fighting came from outside. Yu qinghuan frowned and looked at her palm.

There was joy, and naturally, there was worry.

In her current physical condition, she could not escape on her own, let alone destroy the entire laboratory.

She sighed in her heart. What should she do now?

She got up and walked out of the room, only to see a group of people fighting with number one.

No. 1 was like a giant, and no one dared to get close to him. Everyone held tranquilizer guns, ropes, and wooden sticks to try to stop him from approaching, and at the same time try to subdue him.

A rope flew towards No. 1. No. 1 reached out and grabbed it lightly. He pulled and the person on the other end of the rope flew towards him.

ah! the man screamed in horror.

No. 1 grabbed him, lifted him over his head, and threw him into the crowd.

It was unknown who was screaming, "let's go! Hurry up! He's still going crazy!"

Everyone quickly retreated. No. 1 chased after them and shot a flying claw at his leg. He immediately stopped, and the flying claw pulled forward, directly pulling away a piece of meat from his leg.

He frowned. If he continued to walk forward, his leg would be a little lame. Those people had already escaped and locked him up.

No. 1 roared to the sky, turned around, grabbed the office desk and equipment in the room, and smashed them.

Some of the shards flew to Yu qinghuan's body. Yu qinghuan cried out in pain and immediately hid in her small room.

No. 1 stopped and limped in. He reached out and pulled her in front of him.

"Ah!" Yu qinghuan cried out in pain.

He was very strong and gently lifted her up from the ground. She felt very uncomfortable, so she grabbed his arm and struggled.

He reached out his other hand and held her hand, fiddling with a white plastic ring on her hand.

It was given to her by the laboratory, and she couldn't take it off. Her number was engraved on it.

“Seventeen.” The man glanced at her, put her down, and then limped back to the bed to sit.

Yu qinghuan leaned against the wall and took two deep breaths. She walked over and looked at the wound on his leg and asked, “Are you in pain?”

He raised his head to look at her, then closed his eyes and lay on the bed.

Yu qinghuan thought for a moment, then turned to the operation room outside. She found alcohol and gauze in the damaged debris.

She took the things back and sat in front of him, saying in a flat voice, “there’s no medicine. They don’t dare to use their medicine. You should disinfect it.

No. 1 suddenly opened his eyes and looked at her.

She looked up at the surveillance camera on the ceiling, then leaned over and whispered in his ear, “You can only escape if you’re alive,”

No. 1 lowered her eyes, her long eyelashes casting a shadow on her skin. “He won’t let me live,” he said in a low and hoarse voice.

Yu qinghuan, “Yingluo.”

He covered his eyes with his hands and turned his head to face the wall, not moving.

Yu qinghuan was stunned for a moment, then ignored him.

She turned her head to look at her surroundings, curled up into a ball, and started crying.

Was this a dream?

Would he wake up after sleeping?

She closed her eyes, but she couldn't fall asleep. Her mind was still clear. Suddenly, she heard the sound of the door closing. She jolted awake, and number one, who was beside her, also sat up.

She didn't know what had happened and just looked at him.

He got up and walked out of the room. Yu qinghuan immediately followed him and saw that the door of the operation room was closed, but there were two stainless steel lunch boxes in front of the door, and they were filled with food.

She glanced at him, and he walked over to take one of the plates and brought it back to his room to eat.

Yu qinghuan frowned and felt a little hungry. She took another serving and brought it back to her room, sitting next to him.
