Chapter 1341: Judy was killed (1)

Judy ran so fast that Yao Yiyi couldn't keep up. After a few steps, she fell to the ground and screamed.

what's wrong? " Judy turned around. what's wrong?

Yao Yiyi bit her lip and pitifully climbed up. Then, she lowered her body and fell to the ground.

She held her ankle and looked at Judy with tears in her eyes. "I twisted my foot. It hurts."

Judy helplessly walked over, pulled her up, and put her on her back. Then she walked forward quickly.

Lying on her back, Yao Yiyi's eyes glinted and her lips curled up in malice.

She hugged Judy and sobbed.

Judy stopped her, so she bit her lip and didn't dare to say anything. Judy heard the chameleon curse and asked, "What's wrong?

n-nothing much, " Yao Yiyi-no, Ishida Miyi-said from her back.

"Not you," she sighed helplessly.

Miyi Ishida immediately fell silent.

“I have an obstacle here,” Judy heard the chameleon say.

“Neo,” Judy ordered, “you go first.”

Hearing this, Miyi Ishida raised her hand and said, “My hair is loose, Yingying”

“Why do you still care about hair?” Judy shouted and ran to the front. When she saw a few people rushing over, she raised her hand and fired a few shots.

Her long hair hung loose and swayed in front of Judy.

Judy didn’t care. She raised her gun and aimed at the people in front of her.

Miyi Ishida smiled and lowered her hand. A blade appeared in her hand.

The blade had been hidden in the hair clip.

She leaned over to Judy’s ear and gently blew at it. Then she raised the knife and cut it down. With a plop, fresh blood spurted onto the wall.

ah! Judy cried out briefly, then threw her off and fell to the ground.

Judy clutched her neck and got up, looking at her in disbelief.

She also got up from the ground, her long hair fluttering in the wind, and her eyes cold.

Judy didn’t expect that after so many years in the mercenary world, she would fail so miserably today!

Who was this woman Yingluo?

Could this business be a conspiracy?

But what did she do to deserve the help of China, J country, and M country?

“Judy?” The other five’s voices came through the earpiece.

They had worked together for so many years, but this was the first time they had encountered such a situation.

Although Judy’s voice was soft, they knew that she was in trouble.

They heard the sound in her throat, like the wind blowing.

Was she scared that someone had cut her carotid artery?

Judy had difficulty speaking. She used her fingers to grab the headset and gently made a sound. She used this sound to send the Morse code and told them, “ There’s a problem with Yao Yiyi, I won’t save her!

“We’re here to save you!” Angel shouted.

no! Judy supported herself with the wall and pressed her neck as she walked forward.

Fresh blood flowed down and covered the ground.

Miyi Ishida stood in front of her and chuckled, “ Queen? What right do you have to be the Queen?”

Judys mind suddenly cleared up, and her body slowly slid to the ground.

She analyzed the situation just now-

Yao Lei wasn't fake, but why did he have a daughter? Judging from the age of this daughter, he probably had one in China. If that was the case, how could China not know?

In that case, it must have been J country who had tricked him!

Neo couldn't see her face from the surveillance camera just now, so she probably avoided it on purpose.

And Yao Lei didn't see her face just now. First, he put on a Facial Mask and then went into the bathroom.

Wait a minute!

Facial Mask!

This was the problem!

Chapter 1342: Judy was killed (2)

She didn't put on a face mask before she opened the door! Because at that time, she spoke very clearly. With a face mask on, even a single word could not be said so clearly.

...

She had put on her Facial Mask at the last minute!

At that time, she didn't know that she and the chameleon were outside the door, but she heard Yao Lei's voice.

She didn't want Yao Lei to see her face!

Because ran ran had changed her appearance at the last minute! After Yao Lei watched her leave, she went to the bathroom to change her appearance!

Then, when Yao Lei saw her, she might have revealed her true appearance. It was also possible that she had been in disguise in front of Yao Lei and removed her makeup when Yao Lei left.

Judy needed to confirm which one it was.

She felt that it should be the former.

If it was the latter, it was just to deceive Yao Lei. It was a matter that would take years, so there was no need to go through so much trouble.

If it was the former, it meant that the island had already taken precautions and even prevented her true appearance from appearing under the surveillance cameras, for fear that someone would hack into the surveillance cameras and see her.

Why? It was a face, so what was the difference if one could see it or not? She knew that she was Queen, could it be someone she knew?

The blood in Judy's body was getting less and less. She was afraid that she was going to faint, and she didn't know if Angel and the others would be able to come to her rescue in time.

When she saw that Miyi Ishida had lowered her head, she raised her hand and slapped her. She purposely scratched her face with her finger.

Miyi Ishida felt a sharp pain. She furrowed her brows and backed off.

Judy smiled. She had indeed changed her appearance.

“Kill her!” shut up! Misaka Ishida shouted and covered her face with her hands. Judy saw two people appear in her line of sight and raised her gun at her.

She pulled down her headset, but her teammates still heard the gunshot.

In her last consciousness, she heard Neo give a heavy order, “Wolf King!

Explode!”

In an instant, fireworks exploded around bewildered Fog Island.

Late at night) China received Neo’s message and immediately deployed their navy to welcome him.

On I ‘ Yao Lei the fighter planes were on standby, ready to escort them in the air.

At this moment, in the submarine, Yao Lei looked at the six people in front of him in a daze.

All five of them were in a sorry state. They had experienced a tough battle and each of them was injured to varying degrees.

Angel hugged Judy’s body and cried. The four men’s eyes were red.

No one spoke, and neither did Yao Lei.

After a long time, Angie put Judy down gently, pulled out the dagger from her leg, and turned around to jump on Yao Lei.

“Anqi!” go! neo shouted and pulled her away.

Anqi pointed at Yao Lei and angrily asked, “Who are you? Is this your doing?”

I’m sorry, I’m sorry, ” Yao Lei mumbled as he looked at Judy’s body. He then looked up at them. where’s my daughter, Yiyi?

“You’re still asking her?” Angel roared, “ she killed Judy! Are you Yao Lei or

No... Yao Lei shook his head. Yiyi, isn’t she Yiyi?

They had no idea and were all staring at him.

Yao Lei lowered his head, hugged his legs, and cried. “Liar! Another liar!” How could he not know that everything on the island was fake?

He had already calculated the latitude and longitude of the island in his mind through the sunlight and shadows. It was not the territory of China.

Later, when she saw Yang Shu, she knew why she had been caught.

Yao Yiyi’s appearance was also most likely fake. But he thought, maybe it was true? As he had been physically intimate with Zhuo ya before, Yang Shu was the only one who knew about it. It was not strange that he would go and look for his daughter..

Chapter 1343: How did he die?

However, it was also possible that Yang Shu had just taken advantage of this and made up a daughter to deceive him.

...

Hence, when Yao Lei saw Yao Yiyi, he was happy and on guard at the same time. Even though he doted on Yao Yiyi, he would never reveal anything about himself to her.

If it's not, then it's not, Yingluo.

He was used to being cheated anyway.

"What are the arrangements for Yao Lei?" Sheng nanxuan asked the president.

The president said, "let's bring him back in secret and check his physical condition." He's been there for so many years, and I don't know if his body and mind have been affected. He needs to be treated well."

Sheng nanxuan nodded. there's no hurry for anything else. It's good that he's back. The most important thing is to make him feel at ease. He's already done enough for the country, so the country shouldn't oppress him anymore."

The president nodded. I heard that he's on his guard. I think he's already frightened. I hope he'll take care of himself.

"What about the rest?" Sheng nanxuan asked.

The person reporting the situation paused for a moment and said, "Queen lost her life."

"Dead?" Sheng nanxuan frowned.

He had been a little wary of Queen before, but now he felt that it was a pity.

This woman was a talent, but now that she had died in this business, he didn't know if the remaining people would avenge her.

"They didn't enter the country. They handed Yao Lei over to us and then changed their route to Southeast Asia. We've sent people there to meet them, in case they get entangled with J country and M country. When the time comes, we'll know if something really happened."

When the president heard this, he asked Sheng nanxuan, 'what do you think we should do with J country and M country now? I wonder what they're up to now that they've joined forces."

"Ask them for compensation!" Sheng nanxuan said.

"I think so too," the president nodded. We can't just let this matter rest. Since J country is not behaving at sea, we'll start from here and have a good chat with them. M country will also find a chance to skin them alive!"

Country Y, shadow Castle.

There were many people standing on the green grass, and in the middle of them was a man and a Lion. The lion roared at the man and wanted to pounce on him. The man held the whip and looked at it coldly, waiting for its attack.

This man was the current boss of the dark shadow, known as King. He was young, handsome, and cold.

His hobby in recent years was to tame Lions so that he could compete with that woman's ability.

At this moment, a person rushed over and shouted, "BOSS-

The lion pounced on King. King cracked his whip and the lion bit it.

The person who had just spoken pulled out his gun and killed the lion.

King threw down the whip and glared at him. "You'd better have something urgent!"

The man put down his gun and walked over to him, whispering in his ear, 'Queen is dead!'

King was shocked. He couldn't believe it. How did that woman die? She could even tame a Lion!

how did he die?! He asked angrily..

Chapter 1344: King likes Queen

"I don't know. I think they went on a mission in Asia and only Five Came Back.

...

The body has been transported to France and is ready to be buried."

"Why France?

Judy was born in Emilia, was active in Africa, and was on vacation in the South Pacific. She had bought a few islands there, so she shouldn't have been buried in France.

"She probably wants to be buried next to her master." The man said in a low voice.

Owen was a France and was buried in France after his death. Judy went to pay respects to him two or three times a year.

what kind of master is that?! King laughed coldly.

The man did not dare to speak.

King strode away and said through gritted teeth, "Snatch it back!"

"A corpse!"

"Yingluo is."

King must have lost his mind. Why did he want to snatch Queen's body? Although King liked Queen, he didn't have to do this.

Yes, King liked Queen. He had always liked her. He had even gone to Emilia to find a woman who looked similar to Queen to be his substitute.

Queen's original name was Judy, and King's name was Julia. Because to him, even though she looked like her, she wasn't the real deal, so Julia wasn't qualified to be Judy.

All the old-timers in the shadow knew that Queen had escaped from the shadow. Back then, she had been selected to join the company with King, so they could be said to be childhood sweethearts.

But when they grew up, they became enemies.

Many of King's business deals had been destroyed by Queen. Although Queen had also been hired by someone, King was certain of one thing-Queen's ability was on par with his!

He wanted to conquer her.

That was why he had always been her enemy. He wanted to see her suffer in his hands!

However,

How could she have died?

He would not allow it!

Southern France, beautiful scenery.

A long wooden coffin was placed in the middle of the moving hearse.

The black wooden coffin was inlaid with gold. It was very beautiful, but no one would like this thing.

Angel, Neo, the chameleon, the wolf King, and silver Fox sat on both sides of the wooden coffin and did not speak.

The five of them were dressed in black with white flowers on their clothes. A rumbling sound came from the sky. It was a helicopter.

The five of them did not take it to heart until the hearse was hit heavily! Angel slammed the lid of the coffin, raised her head, and looked out of the window with a face full of anger.

The remaining four people also looked out and saw several off-road vehicles surrounding them.

“Who is it?” The wolf King asked.

Neo watched for a while and said at the same time as the chameleon,

Angel was furious. Judy’s dead! What else does he want?!

While they were talking, the hearse was hit again, and the five people were thrown off course, and the wooden coffins were also shifted.

Then, the hearse stopped and Angel asked angrily, "Why did it stop?" After asking, she was speechless. She knew what was going on.

The chauffeur was from the funeral parlor. How could his driving skills be better than theirs? He was most likely frightened.

"Continue!" The wolf King roared at the driver.

The driver started the car. At this moment, a motorcycle flew from behind and landed on the roof of the car.

With a bang, Silver Fox roared, "F * ck!"

The motorcycle only stopped for a moment before it left. It rushed to the road and blocked the hearse.

The hearse stopped again, and the driver did not dare to continue driving.

"I'll go get the car!" Neo stood up.

As soon as he finished speaking, the back door of the car flew away-Kings Men had pulled on the back door with a steel rope and pulled off the entire metal sheet!

Then, the other party jumped in and started fighting with the five of them..

Chapter 1345: I'll bring you back to life

Before getting on the hearse, Judy's body was in an ice coffin and had just been transported to the airport from another place.

...

The five of them were also on the plane. However, they were not allowed to bring weapons when they passed the security check, so the five of them could only fight with their bare hands.

However, the five of them had been injured during the operation a few days ago and were not as agile.

The five of them had thought that the other party would want their lives, but who knew that this wasn't the case.

The other party had the advantage in numbers. The helicopter in the sky was also theirs, but they didn't shoot. The five of them had no idea what they were planning.

As they fought, the five of them were forced to get out of the car. But they still stood in front of the hearse-she was dead, and they could not fail to protect her.

The other party wanted to get into the driver's seat of the hearse, and the five of them could tell that he was trying to snatch the body!

What was the reason?

No matter what, I can't let them have their way!

The five of them were unable to get into the hearse, so the hearse was dragged dozens of meters away by the other party!

The wolf King jumped onto the hearse. and the other Darts took some tools to cut the roof of the hearse.

The wolf King watched as the roof of the car opened and the helicopter came crashing down. The whole car fell and the wolf King flipped over with the coffin.

ahem-" the wolf King almost fainted under the coffin. boss, you want me to die with you!

Wolf King! Angel shouted.

The wolf King looked over and saw the enemy walking over.

He was shocked. He pushed the coffin open and got up, but was immediately kicked away.

The coffin was lying alone in the middle of the road. The five of them were being held back by King's Men. Then, the helicopter flew above the coffin.

Two ropes dropped from the plane. King's Men tied the coffin with the rope and lifted it up.

The five people thought, "Wanwan, you're crazy!" They really snatched the corpse!

When King's Men saw the corpse leave, they didn't bother him anymore and ran away. Even if they didn't run, Anqi and the others couldn't do anything about it. The plane had already left, so what was the point of keeping them?

The road was a mess and Neo was panting. "King, that madman! Why did he take Judy's body?" does he ... Want to ... Whip the corpse? I ' the wolf King asked in horror.

The others, "hehe."

I don't think it's a whipping," the chameleon said. I think it's a suicide mission!

Everyone glared at him.

He shrugged innocently and said, "go and get it back." Boss crushed that bastard when he was alive. We can't let her fall into the devil's claws after her death. Boss won't be happy."

In the shadow Castle, King was sitting on the sofa, slowly flicking the lighter in his hand.

The door opened, and a subordinate pushed in an ice coffin.

King stopped what he was doing, stood up and walked over.

The subordinate tactfully opened the coffin, and a burst of cold air overflowed.

Judy was lying in the middle of the coffin. Her hair and eyebrows were covered in frost, but her face was still very fresh.

Her body had been washed, and her face was covered with delicate makeup. Her hair was braided and placed on the left side of her chest. She was wearing a black velvet dress. She looked like a rich young lady who lived a comfortable life, not the number one mercenary in the world who liked to fight.

If it wasn't for the fact that she was no longer breathing, she would look beautiful.

King reached out his hand and caressed her cold face.

At this moment, she was the gentlest she was, but she was just an ice-cold corpse

He saw the hideous wound on the right side of her neck. It seemed that the wound had taken her life.

He would take revenge for her.

He bent down and kissed her on the lips. don't be afraid. I'll bring you back to life, and then we'll go kill our enemies together..

Chapter 1346: The goddess descended from the sky

Simon was a little aggrieved. There were many beautiful women at the fashion week, but unfortunately, both Shan Rong and Gong mo were there. He didn't dare to hook up with them and could only play with other things.

Now that Gambino was in Italy, he did not need to manage the affairs there. However, when Fashion Week ended and he escorted Shan Rong home, Gambino would bring Shan Rong out again. When that time came, where would he find the time to play? He could only take advantage of this moment to let loose.

They went to the casino first, lost a lot of money, and the baby was unhappy, so they went to the horse race.

She had won a lot of money from the horse racing and felt empty again, so she used the money to buy a car.

While Gong mo brought Shan Rong and Sheng shuangxue to the fashion show, he drove Sheng Yiting around in his new sports car. He asked smugly, " "What do you think of this car?

"It's alright." Sheng Yiting was not in high spirits.

“You’re too boring!” Simon called out in dissatisfaction.

Sheng Yiting snorted but did not say anything.

Simon glanced at him and said, “you can’t do this!” He would be home in two days. There were beautiful women everywhere, and it would be unreasonable not to get close to them. After mom and sis fall asleep tonight, we’ll go out and have some fun!”

“You go ahead, I’m not interested.” Sheng Yiting closed his eyes, uninterested in the scenery outside.

Simon gritted his teeth, “isn’t it just a woman?” Do you have to torture yourself like this?”

“How am I tormenting myself?” Sheng Yiting opened his eyes. can you not mention her? ‘

“Who did I mention? You’re the one who can’t forget it, I didn’t mention it to anyone!”

Sheng Yiting choked and ignored him.

He just couldn’t forget, could he? They had only broken up less than two months ago. How could he forget so quickly? Couldn’t he be given some buffer time? Wasn’t it making things difficult for him if he was forced to live a new life like nothing had happened?

Just as he was feeling depressed, he suddenly heard Simon’s curse.

Sheng Yiting was also shocked-he seemed to have seen something fall from the sky!

However, he was looking out of the window with his side profile, so he only caught a glimpse of it from the corner of his eye. He couldn’t see it very clearly.

Simon had already hit the brakes. Sheng Yiting looked forward and saw that something had fallen down. It was a living person!

The person was a few meters ahead and seemed to have been hit by a car.

Simon's face turned pale, and he hurriedly took off his seat belt.

Sheng Yiting followed them and found that the road was full of glass, as was their car.

He looked up and saw a broken floor-to-ceiling window on the second floor of a house on the left side of the road. A man stood there and glanced at it before quickly retreating.

It looked like she had jumped off a building.

Unfortunately, he and Simon had run into them!

Simon squatted on the ground and helped the person who jumped up.

It was a woman. She was thin and young. She was wearing a thin, deep V-shaped dress in the winter and looked very sexy.

However, at this moment, she was injured and blood was flowing from the bottom of her head. The Scarlet blood dripped onto her white dress, which was a shocking sight.

Simon touched her carotid artery, and Sheng Yiting quickly asked, "How is it?"

"He's still alive." Simon stood up with her in his arms and hurried to the car.

Sheng Yiting looked around. There were no surveillance cameras. Country Y's security was too poor!

“Did you bump into her?” he asked, walking quickly towards Simon.

“I’ve hit it!” Simon knew what he was worried about and said, “she’s still alive. Let’s save her first. She’s still alive.

“I’ll drive,” Sheng Yiting nodded.

He opened the back door, and Simon sat in with the girl in his arms. The blood from the girl’s head fell on the cushion like a line..

Chapter 1347: Wait for her and Julia’s Soul Exchange

Sheng Yiting fastened his seat belt, turned on the GPS, and looked for the nearest hospital. He made a call as he drove to inform the other party to prepare for emergency treatment. Then, he called his assistant and asked him to investigate the incident.

...

“Do you know her?” he asked Simon after he was done.

Simon’s reaction was a little abnormal, so he could only guess this possibility. “I’ve seen him once.” Simon looked down at the woman in his arms and felt that her pulse was getting weaker and weaker.

He remembered that her name was Xin Rong. He had met her at the airport cafe when she celebrated Sheng Yiting’s birthday.

She should be in the Chinese entertainment industry. Was she here to attend the fashion week? Why would she jump off a building?

Simon recalled the place they had just passed. It seemed to be an Art Salon, but he didn't know what it was for. She was dressed like this. She might be doing something.

Saint Maria hospital. King walked into the operating room with a group of people.

There were four people in the operating room-

An old man in a white medical coat was adjusting the equipment.

A beautiful woman with an exquisite figure was lying on the operating table with a dazed expression.

The remaining two young men in Black suits immediately lowered their heads when they saw King.
"BOSS!"

The woman on the operating table raised her head and looked at King with sparkling eyes. " King..... "

King ignored her and looked at the old man in the white coat. "Dr. Carter, how's the preparation?

don't worry, Sir," Carter said excitedly. I've been studying this experiment for decades. There won't be any mistakes!

King nodded in satisfaction and gave a look to the people behind him.

Soon, a surgery cart was pushed in and stopped beside the operating table.

Julia, who was on the operating table, gasped.

There was a woman lying on the Gurney. She looked similar to her, but Yingying looked like a dead person!

The man's skin was pale and blue. He must have been dead for a long time. His whole body was covered in frost. He must have been kept in a cold storage.

Julia shuddered and looked at King. what ... What is King Wanwan doing?

King walked over, held the back of her head, and kissed her on the forehead. "Be good, I'll dote on you in the future."

Carter was ready. He turned around and said, " Miss Judy's body can't be used anymore. We have to activate her brain first and guide her brain waves out.

King put Julia down and asked, " Then Julia's?

of course, we will. When the time comes, " Carter glanced at Julia, who was now pale, and smiled. He said to King, I'll start now. Do you want to stay here, Sir? '

"I want to see her wake up with my own eyes." King turned around and sat on a chair at the side, staring at Judy's body.

When her soul and Julia's soul exchanged, her consciousness would be reborn in Julia's body. At that time, even though she had changed her face, she would still be the fresh her.

He didn't care about her looks, he only cared about her.

Julia didn't know what they were talking about. She seemed to understand, but she also didn't. What they were talking about was too unbelievable!

She struggled to get out of bed, but King's gaze was as sharp as a sword. "You lie down properly."

my dear ... Julia cried out in fear, " did I do something wrong? Please forgive me! I will change!"

King's Men pressed her down on the operating table and tied her body to it with a belt.

She screamed, begged for mercy, cried, and questioned loudly, "You want to kill me, don't you? Let me go, demon!"

Chapter 1348: How is it possible that I failed?

"I will love you the most in the future." King looked at her, his voice cold and emotionless.

...

Julia lay on the operating table in despair. Her eyes were wide open as she stared blankly at the ceiling.

It started to rain outside the window, and the dull sound of thunder rolled in the clouds, as if it would fall at any time and explode the ground.

Sheng Yiting parked the car at the entrance of the hospital and realized that the hospital did not arrange for a stretcher. He jumped out of the car and opened the back door. "Carry him in first!"

Simon carried Xin Rong out of the car, and large raindrops fell on his body. The sky was dark. It was clearly daytime, but it seemed to be getting dark.

The two of them quickly walked into the outpatient department and shouted twice before someone pushed a stretcher over.

Simon placed Xin Rong on the stretcher and followed behind her as she entered the operating room.

The doctors began to frantically try to save Xin Rong. Suddenly, a Thunderbolt descended. It was as if the heavens and earth had been split apart. Everyone in the city jumped in shock.

The doctor was also shocked. He wiped the sweat from his forehead and picked up a defibrillator to perform emergency treatment on Xin Rong, who was on the verge of death.

After a few times, Xin Rong's heartbeat didn't return to normal. Instead, the electrocardiogram showed a straight line.

The doctor sighed and was about to announce his death when another earth-shattering Thunder boomed. He was so scared that he forgot his voice.

After the Thunder, he let out a soft breath. Just as he was about to speak, he suddenly saw the heartbeat chart jump again.

On the operating table, Xin Rong's eyes snapped open, and they were filled with killing intent. The next second, she closed her eyes and fainted.

At that moment, in the operating room upstairs-

Both Julia's and Judy's engrogies and electrocardiographs became straight lines at the same time. Carter couldn't believe it and was flustered.

what's going on?" King stood up abruptly. what's going on?

"H-how is this possible?" Carter stood in a daze between the two operating tables. it should have been successful. How is it possible? '

King rushed over and grabbed him by the collar. "What's going on?

I'm stunned. Carter looked at him blankly. I failed. How is that possible?

"Failed?" King looked at Judy's body, then at Julia-she was also dead.

The door of the operating room was suddenly kicked open. King looked over and saw Angel and the other five people rush in.

“You pervert, what are you doing?” Angel shouted and rushed towards Judy. Neo looked at Carter and narrowed his eyes. “He’s not Yingluo.”

He looked around the room and then looked at King. “What, do, you, want, to, do?”

“What do you think?” King retorted.

“You’re crazy!” Neo walked to the operating table and removed the instrument attached to Judy’s body.

Angel held Judy’s cold body and trembled.

She looked at Carter and asked, ‘you’re the bastard who presided over the SS experiment? You want to use Judy for an experiment?’

“Let’s go,” he said. Neo said.

Angel nodded and let go of Judy.

The wolf King walked over and picked up the body. When he turned around, King’s Men blocked his way.

Angel looked at King and said, “ this kind of experiment is ridiculous. Even if souls can be exchanged) it’s not something that can be done with a few wires. Are you crazy?”

“No, it’s not!” Carter screamed, “ yes! I can do it!”

“Move!” He shouted. Angel shouted at the dogs in front of her.

King looked at Julia, who was on the operating table. He closed his eyes tiredly and waved at his subordinates.

The subordinates stepped aside, and Angel and the others quickly left with Judy.

Carter rushed over, trying to stop them.. “Don’t go! There must be a problem somewhere! Let me try again!”

Chapter 1349: The lightning drew away Judy’s brainwaves

King kicked him and Carters aged body slammed into the machine.

...

“Trash!” King pulled his men over and pulled out their guns. They fired a few shots at Carter, all of them hitting him in the head.

Carter’s eyes were wide open, and he died with a grievance.

He had escaped from Nanjiang to shantagamma, and from shantagamma to country Y. In order to study Soul Exchange, he had changed his financial backer one after another. He had clearly succeeded, so there must have been a problem!

That’s right!

He knew!

It was the lightning from earlier!

The lightning had attracted Judy's brainwaves in the air. Otherwise, this experiment would have been a success.

Carter wanted to laugh, but he could not.

Outside the window, the rain stopped for a while, and the clouds cleared to reveal the sun. It was as if the wind, rain, and lightning had never appeared.

Downstairs, Sheng Yiting raised his head and looked at the ceiling in confusion. He asked Simon, who was beside him, "Did you hear the gunshot?"

"Thunder?" Simon was absent-minded as he stared at the light in the operating room.

The light suddenly went out, and he became nervous.

The door opened and the doctor walked out. He smiled and said, "She's fine.

After the examination, her head was injured and her life was not in danger. We'll have to wait for her to wake up before we can check on her other conditions."

"That's good," Simon heaved a sigh of relief. Otherwise, his life would be on his head. Wasn't he wronged?

That's right! He didn't know if his car was damaged or not!

Judy had a dream, a dream that had nothing to do with her.

She didn't know anyone in her dream, but her eyes were fixed on a girl. The girl looked to be about 20 years old, gentle and beautiful. She looked a little like her-not in appearance, but in style. She probably had Eminian blood.

A Chinese man with glasses said to the girl, "Brother Sheng has taken a fancy to you, so don't you not give him face. Otherwise, it'll be difficult for everyone! He didn't ask you to sleep with him. What's wrong with taking a photo? This will be good for your career! Otherwise, with your current experience, you've been in the industry for less than two years and you're playing extras every day. Without any experience, how can you have such fashion resources?"

The girl pursed her lips and looked rather stubborn. She knew that she should give in, but she was unwilling to compromise.

"It's precisely because of this that I feel it's inappropriate," she said in a trembling voice. I don't have any works or fame now, what right do I have to shoot a magazine with brother Sheng?"

"That's why you should seize the opportunity! Brother Sheng has taken a fancy to you, and you can easily soar to the sky with a single step. Why can't your brain open up? If you go on like this, brother Sheng will be angry and ban you.. What are you going to do? Don't you want to save your mother?"

Chapter 1350: awakening be gentler," brother Sheng said with a devilish smile. don't scare my baby.

...

The photographer immediately smiled and complimented him for a long time before starting to work.

The cameras kept flashing. Xin Rong and Judy felt dizzy.

Suddenly, Xin Rong shivered and Judy came to her senses.

Xin Rong pushed him away in fear and jumped to the side.

Everyone's expression changed, and brother Shen's face darkened. "What do you mean? Don't you know what professional ethics are?"

you bastard! Xin Rong clutched his chest and glared at him weakly and angrily.

Everyone was trembling with fear. Brother Sheng said coldly, "You guys get Everyone hurriedly dodged. He strode towards Xin Rong and pulled her into his arms. He gritted his teeth and said, "How long are you going to play hard to get? I won't keep my patience for you forever!"

"Then don't hold back!" please let me go! Xin Rong shouted.

"Let you go? It seems that I'm too gentle, so you don't know the immensity of the heavens!" The man instantly turned into a Wolf. He picked her up and pressed her down on the sofa. He smiled evilly and said, "you said it. You don't have to hold back.

Xin Rong screamed. He grabbed the lamp next to him and smashed it on his head.

He clutched his head and backed away, looking at her angrily.

She got up and rushed to the door, only to find that it was locked.

She twisted the door handle a few times, but it didn't open, so she turned and ran.

The man chased after her and said angrily, "I'll see where you can run to! You refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit!"

She pushed the camera equipment in the room and went into the changing room next door.

The changing room was filled with all sorts of artistic costumes for filming, and she hid among them.

The sound of his footsteps rang in her ears, making her feel hopeless and helpless.

He suddenly appeared behind her and almost grabbed her.

She rushed out of the changing room and was hugged by him by the waist. The two of them rolled on the ground and pulled off the background of the camera.

Behind him was a large floor-to-ceiling window. Xin Rong kept kicking the man behind him, the tips of her high heels digging into his shoulders.

He let go of her in pain, and she got up and rushed to the floor-to-ceiling window.

With a crash, the glass broke, and Judy felt like she was drunk.

She fell into a speeding car and her body bounced to the horizon. She woke up in shock. When she opened her eyes, she could smell the smell of disinfectant and saw the White ceiling.

She breathed rapidly, and a cold and impatient voice came from beside her,

“You’re awake?”

Judy looked over. It was the Chinese man with glasses in her dream. He was the one who had threatened and bribed Xin Rong to submit to that beast-like brother Sheng.

The man looked displeased. You too, 'what's that'? It would have been better if he had died, but now, he had to apologize to brother Sheng! Brother Sheng is angry. I've never seen someone as insensible as you! Brother Sheng was a double Best Actor. Who in the country could surpass him? For so many years, brother Sheng has been with dozens of newbies, but he only respects you the most. It's clear that he's truly in love with you! I've heard that you look like his dream lover, which is why he's so good to you.. But you, why can't you seize the opportunity? And you almost lost your life!"
