Chapter 1871: Gong Bai' s story-start

The two of them walked out of the hospital in silence. After walking along the wall of the hospital for a long time, Gong Bai suddenly stopped and said, 't go back. Lu Yang will be worried.

Yu Xinran looked at him and reached out to hug him. She took a deep breath and said, " "If you had come back to find me back then, I wouldn't have left with you."

He knew that she was consoling him, telling him not to think about that matter and not to ask if.

"If I had gone back, would things have been different?" He asked himself.

Actually, she didn't know either, right? Because there were no ifs in life.

He turned around, and the two of them were further away.

Perhaps they would never meet again in the future, or perhaps they would meet often like old friends and greet each other as if nothing had happened.

However, even if she had feelings for him, they were not important anymore.

They had lived their entire lives and knew that the earth- shattering love they had when they were young was just a small matter. There were many things that were more important than love, but love was the most hurtful.

Actually,

That was not an earth- shattering love.

It was just that she couldn't beat reality. The hurt he had caused her back then made him constantly worried that she was not happy. Seeing that she was doing well, he finally put down one of his worries.

After saying goodbye, Gong Bai returned to his home in M Nation. He had been living here for a long time. How many years had it been?

24 years? 25 years?

He could not remember.

When he first arrived in country M, he had to move four or five times a year, but he was not satisfied with staying there.

This place was moved to M Nation four years ago.

It was a small independent villa. At that time, he was tired of living in the same building with many people, so he took out all his savings to rent this villa and had been living in it since. When he had the money, he bought it directly.

He knew that he would stay here until he died.

He always thought that falling in love with someone else was a betrayal to Yu Xinran, so he let Wanwan down.

Gong Bai picked up the key and opened the door. He was suddenly stunned when he found that the lock had been opened by someone.

He squinted his eyes and reached into the pocket of his suit to take out a small pistol. Then he opened the door quietly and sneaked into the house like a ghost, vigilantly observing the movements in the house.

There was the sound of footsteps upstairs, accompanied by a soft humming.

He walked up the stairs slowly against the wall. Halfway there, he heard the sound of running coming from upstairs. Someone was coming down.

He snorted coldly in his heart, "this little thief is really arrogant!" Did he treat this place as his own home?

When he heard the footsteps around the corner of the stairs, he raised his gun. "Don't move!"

ah! the woman's piercing scream rang out.

Then, a watering can smashed onto his head. The lid of the watering can fell off, and water splashed all over his head.

He slowly raised his head and saw a pair of feet wearing pink sandals on the floor at the top of the stairs. The toenails of the feet were painted pink, and the legs were straight and white without any hair.

She was wearing a diamond-encrusted Fishbone necklace around her neck.

Gong Bai felt that the necklace looked a little familiar, but he couldn't remember it for a moment. Then, he looked up and saw the other party's face.

It was a young, beautiful, and energetic girl who looked less than 20 years old. Gong Bai's eyes suddenly widened, and he blurted out, "Xiaodie Qianqian"

When the girl heard this, she immediately put away the guilt and fear on her face and walked down arrogantly with her chin up.

She walked up to him and looked at the gun in his hand. She was so scared that she took a step back.

Gong Bai immediately put away his gun and grabbed her. "Little butterfly ..."

"Ah! What are you doing!" The girl shouted..

Chapter 1872: My mother is the fire butterfly

Gong Bai suddenly let go of her and muttered, "You're not Xiaodie, Xiaodie! Xiaodie can't be so young!"

The girl looked at him with dissatisfaction and rubbed her wrist. She asked fiercely, "You're Gong Bai?"

"Who are you?" Gong Bai looked at her and asked, "what's your relationship with Huo die?!"

"I'm your daughter!" She said.

"Daughter?" he was dumbfounded.

"That's right, my mother is fire butterfly, and I'm Fire Phoenix!"

Gong Bai looked at her in a daze.

She looked exactly like Huo die. He wasn't sure if she was his daughter, but she was definitely Huo die's daughter.

However, Huo die's was his, he accepted it! There was no need to do a DNA test!

"Where's your mother?" he asked anxiously.

The fire Phoenix puffed up its face and dead!" Before he died, he told me to come and find you."

Gong Bai t s body swayed.

He's dead?

The fire butterfly is dead?

How did he die?

how did he die?! he grabbed her shoulder and asked anxiously.

"Ah! What are you doing!" Phoenix cried out in pain and pushed him away. She rubbed her shoulders and said, " it hurts so much, Yingluo.

Gong Bai l s hand froze and he slowly withdrew it.

Fire butterfly Suan ni

The fire butterfly was so powerful, it wouldn't be afraid of pain. She really wasn't huodie Qianqian.

The fire Phoenix glared at him in dissatisfaction,"why do I have a father like you?" I really don't want to admit it!"

"You're my child, I have no choice but to acknowledge you." Gong Bai calmed down Quickly. He picked up the watering can and went upstairs.

The fire Phoenix's eyes turned and it hurriedly followed. how can you be so sure? Aren't you going to do a DNA test?"

“No, I trust her.’

“Then what if Yingluo had me with someone else?” the fire Phoenix was stunned.

since she asked you to come to me, you are my daughter, and you will always be.

The fire Phoenix’s expression couldn’t help but change. It pursed its lips and fell silent.

Gong Bai walked into the greenhouse on the balcony and found that the flowers in the greenhouse had been watered and were growing well.

The fire Phoenix ran over and leaned on the door, asking, “How is it? did I raise it well?”

He turned around and looked at her. How long have you been here? How did you get in?”

“What’s wrong? You can’t come in!” The fire Phoenix’s eyes were filled with guilt. She naturally knew that it was not good to break into someone else’s house, so she said, “mom said you lived here, so I came. But the door didn’t open for a few days, and I had no place to live, so I came in by myself.

Gong Bai frowned and asked with heartache, “no place to stay?” Don’t you have money?” of course! But mommy says that girls shouldn’t live outside alone.

Gong Bai paused and said helplessly, “but you can’t break into a private house,

Zhenzhen.’

“Hmph!” The fire Phoenix turned around and said angrily, “ why are you so annoying! If I had known, I wouldn’t have come to find you!’

"I'm educating you!"

"I'm already eighteen years old, who needs your education!" The fire Phoenix cried out.

Gong Bai had a headache. He didn't know what to do with his daughter, so he decided to take it slow.

He asked, "where is your mother buried?" Take me to pay my respects to her later!"

"Don't!" The fire Phoenix cried out, "I haven't acknowledged you yet, so I won't take you there! I don't want you to disturb her!"

Gong Bai's heart ached as he looked at her.

She stubbornly held her small face up, her eyes full of tears.

Gong Bai sighed and turned to walk downstairs. "The room you're staying in?"

"The one with the Pink Pig bolster."

"That's my room," Gong Bai turned around and said after a pause.

The fire Phoenix's eyes widened. you're an old man, and you're using a pink piglet pillow?!

"That was where your mother used to live. She was the one who bought the pillow."

The fire Phoenix paused. No wonder it's so old. "Then what should we do?" she asked helplessly..

Chapter 1873: You 'll be under my control from now on “It’s fine. I’ll move back to my original room.” Gong Bai took a few steps forward and said helplessly, “didn’t you notice that there are men’s clothes in the closet?”

To be able to move in like this, he was really big-hearted.

“It’s a pity that I don’t like the other rooms’ decorations!” The fire Phoenix snorted, “who knows what weird fetishes you have?”

“Forget it, you can stay. I’ll take the clothes away.”

“How long have you been living in that room?” the fire Phoenix was shocked and caught up to him.

“More than twenty years.”

“It’s been so long!” The fire Phoenix cried out, “ then I won’t stay here. Give me a new room!

Gong Bai glanced at her and said, “ I don’t have a new one for now. You can choose one first and ask someone to come here tomorrow to redesign and renovate it.

“Then I’ll take the room that mom used to live in!” The fire Phoenix said immediately.

Gong Bai was stunned.

He was reluctant to give up the room Huo die had lived in, but would it be okay to give it to him and his daughter?

He went to tidy up his clothes and then went to the kitchen to cook. He asked, “How have you been eating recently?”

“I’m calling for delivery

Gong Bai opened the refrigerator and found no vegetables or fruits in it.

“You don’t even eat fruits?” he looked at her.

“Why do I need you to care!” The fire Phoenix leaned back on the sofa and rolled its eyes at him.

“I’m your dad!” He said sternly, “from now on, you’re under my control!

“You’re already so fierce on the first day we met!” The fire Phoenix jumped up in dissatisfaction. you’re so annoying!

“I know you might not be happy with me,” Gong Bai said calmly, “maybe you still hate me because I left you and your mother behind for so many years. Ran ran, when did you know me? “When my mother was about to die.”

He nodded, his heart in pain.

How much did Huo die hate him that she would only tell her child of his existence before she died?

“Then you should hate me even more.” He said, “but this can’t be a reason for you to do whatever you want!

how did 1 do this?! The fire Phoenix cried out.

“Trespassing is the first rule. Even if I owe you a lot, I will never spoil you. If you learn the wrong things, I’ll be letting Huo die down.” ah ... the fire Phoenix cried out, “ if it wasn’t for my mother forcing me to come and find you, I wouldn’t have come!

Seeing her like this, Gong Bai was afraid that she would run away, so he sighed and said, “ alright, you can do whatever you want. If you need anything, just find me.

At most, he would clean up the mess she had caused.

He said, “just tell me what you want, as long as you’re happy.” I’ll go buy some groceries first, you can do as you please.”

The fire Phoenix was finally satisfied.

“Do you want to go with me?” Gong Bai turned around and asked when he reached the door.

“Who’s going? Buying vegetables is your old man’s job!”

“Then you stay at home and don’t run around.”

He was really worried that she would take advantage of his absence to mess around. It was fine for her to turn the house upside down, but what if she encountered danger when she went out?

He didn’t dare to go too far. He went to the nearest supermarket to pick a few ingredients and quickly returned.

After entering, he saw that she was sitting on the sofa and playing games. He heaved a sigh of relief.

It was fine as long as he didn’t run around.

He could tell her personality, so she shouldn’t be difficult to control.

He went into the kitchen to cook. Fire Phoenix looked up and smiled smugly.

An hour later, she walked to the kitchen door in dissatisfaction and asked, ‘ ‘Are you done? I’m about to starve to death!’

“We’re almost there,”

“It’s really slow!” She turned around and walked away. when you’re old, you should find a servant! If I had known, I wouldn’t have come to find you!

alright ... he said helplessly. I didn’t know what you liked to eat, so I made a few more dishes.

When fire Phoenix heard that, it ran into the kitchen and saw him taking out the grilled fish from the oven.

“What else is there?” she swallowed.

“A few Chinese dishes.” He asked, “are you willing to help?”

She paused, snorted, and turned to leave.

Gong Bai shook his head and carried the dishes out. She was already sitting at the table, rubbing her hands and waiting for him.

He slowly set the bowl and chopsticks, opened a bottle of fruit juice, and filled a glass.

“No wine?” She asked..

Chapter 1874: fire butterfly appears

Gong Bai wanted to tell her that minors shouldn't drink, but she was already an adult, so he had no choice but to say, "Drinking is bad for girls."

When the fire Phoenix heard this, it immediately reached out to hold its tender face and accepted the fruit juice.

Gong Bai sat opposite her, raised his glass, and said, "To celebrate our reunion, to celebrate our reunion."

He didn't even know how to define it.

The fire Phoenix looked at him and said, "I want to make this clear. It was mom who forced me to come to you, that's why I came! I will not acknowledge you now and in the future. Don't even think about me calling you father! Your surname is nie, so I'll call you old nie!"

Gong Bai, "hehe."

The fire Phoenix also felt that something was amiss. It coughed and said, "Let's just call him old white!"

Gong Bai looked at her in a daze. It was this face that had looked at him with a smile and said, "I'll call you little white"

26 years ago ...

Gong Bai moved to a new house again after several twists and turns.

He liked the new place very much. He used the holiday to clean up, repainted the walls, and bought a lot of flowers and plants to fill the greenhouse on the balcony.

He had finally decided to choose this place because of this greenhouse. Therefore, he didn't care about the expensive rent.

From then on, he wanted to be an idle person who grew flowers and raised grass.

He worked at a Securities Company, which was quite far from his residence. He had to take the subway to and from work.

He estimated that it would take a few years before he could afford a car. He had spent all his savings to rent this comfortable house.

However, he enjoyed this environment very much. Before he left home in the morning, he would definitely take a look at the flowers and plants he had raised.

When he came back from work at night, he would be exhausted, but he would raise his spirits and cook dinner by himself.

On the weekends, he would do some cleaning and exercise in the community or the park.

His days alone were lonely, but also fulfilling.

A month after they moved into their new home, it was the middle of summer and it was extremely hot.

When he came out of the subway station at night, he found that it was raining heavily. He took out an umbrella from his briefcase and walked home quickly with it.

When she got home, she was drenched.

The rain was so heavy that umbrellas were of no use.

Putting down the umbrella, he realized that he had forgotten to close the balcony door when he went out in the morning. The rain had drifted into the corridor and flowed down the stairs.

He threw down his briefcase and rushed to close the door without even changing his clothes.

After he closed the door, he went back to his room to change into clean clothes and went to the kitchen to cook.

When he reached the kitchen door, he was surprised to find a row of wet footprints on the ground.

Someone had barged in!

His scalp went numb, and the shivers crawled all over his back. They were most likely robbers for breaking into an empty house on a rainy night.

Looking at the footprints, it was likely that the person had not left.

Gong Bai immediately turned around, trying to find a weapon to defend himself or to call the police.

“Don’t move!” A figure suddenly jumped out from behind the refrigerator, a cold pistol pointed at him.

He looked over and saw the black Barrel of the gun.

He held his breath and could not move.

if you don’t tell anyone, I won’t take your life, ” the owner of the gun said.

Gong Bai looked over and saw a woman who was drenched in sweat and covered in blood.

She spoke with great difficulty, as if she was seriously injured.

A sudden clap of thunder flashed outside the window, and the sound of the rain became louder. If she were to shoot, the sound of the gunshot would definitely be drowned out by the rain and thunder.

Gong Bai wanted to live well, so he had to nod. "I promise you."

The woman stared at him, clearly not trusting Him.

Her lips turned white, her body suddenly swayed, and she fell straight towards him.

Startled, Gong Bai reached out his hands reflexively and hugged her.

The gun in her hand fell to the ground with a thud.

Gong Bai looked over and heaved a heavy sigh of relief. At least his life was no longer in danger.

He pushed her away. Seeing that her eyes were tightly shut, he shook her shoulders. "My lady! A lady! Are you alright?" She didn't respond, so she had obviously fainted..

Chapter 1875: He should be a killer

Gong Bai's eyes flickered. He took out his cell phone from his pocket and was about to call the police.

The rain poured outside the window, and the world resounded.

He looked at the dial keyboard in a daze, then lowered his head to look at the woman in his arms. He gritted his teeth and put away his phone. He picked her up and quickly walked upstairs.

There were a few guest rooms upstairs. He had thought that they would not be of any use, but he did not expect them to come in handy so soon.

When he reached the door of the guest room, he kicked the door open and used his elbow to press the light switch. Then, he put her on the bed and turned to go downstairs to find the first aid box.

When he went downstairs, he took out his phone and searched for ways to deal with gunshot wounds on the internet.

He walked to the kitchen door and saw the gun on the floor. He was stunned for a moment and reached out to pick it up.

In order to prevent her from threatening him with a gun again when she woke up, he locked the gun in the safe in his study and checked if she had any other weapons on her when he cleaned her wounds.

To be honest, she had a good figure. He was a little embarrassed to take off her clothes to check her wounds and weapons.

However, he did not have any evil thoughts. This was also to save her, in the hope that she would not repay her kindness with ingratitude.

He took a deep breath and carefully cut open her clothes.

When she tore her clothes from the wound, she groaned in pain and frowned.

Gong Bai wiped off the blood on her body with a towel and took off her clothes, leaving only the last three parts of her clothes.

After checking, he found that she had no other weapons on her, but there were many wounds.

Most of the wounds were caused by sharp blades. There were no gunshot wounds at all!

He found traces of a whip on her back, and two silver darts on her shoulders.

She didn't have any documents on her, so he didn't know her name or where she came from.

However, he found a tattoo on her left shoulder. The pattern of the tattoo was a colorful butterfly with two square words beside it-fire butterfly.

Fire butterfly? Could it be her name?

She had a gun, was seriously injured, and had no identification items. Was she a killer?

Or the police?

He didn't feel like a police officer. That meant he was a killer.

Gong Bai frowned. Would she bring him any trouble by leaving her behind? Moreover, these wounds couldn't be treated like this. They would most likely fester and get infected. He still had to go to the hospital for a checkup.

His eyes suddenly lit up-since there was no gunshot wound, he could be sent to the hospital!

If there was a gunshot wound, the hospital would definitely call the police, but these wounds could be covered up with an excuse.

Gong Bai immediately called for a taxi. Due to the heavy rain, the taxi took a long time to arrive. Fortunately, the rain had already subsided by the time they arrived.

He helped her put on his pajamas and carried her out of the house in a hurry.

When she got into the car, the driver turned around and saw a wound on her forehead. He looked at Gong Bai suspiciously and asked, "You hit her?"

Gong Bai, "hehe."

In fact, she shouldn't have gone to the hospital even if she didn't have a gunshot wound.

In country M, domestic violence was illegal. If everyone thought that he had hit her, even if he could prove his innocence in the end, it would still cause a lot of trouble. He still had to work tomorrow!

"Would you believe me if I said I don't know her?" He asked.

The driver looked at them again, shook his head, and drove away.

When he arrived at the hospital, the doctors and nurses asked him, "How did she get injured? Was it an attack? Have you called the police?"

"I'm not too sure. I picked it up in front of my house. I'll ask her when she wakes up."

"Then please leave your contact information.. Can you pay for her medical expenses?"

Chapter 1876: I'm your Savior

"Sure." Gong Bai paused for a moment and nodded.

He took out his credit card and sighed heavily.

He had already planned everything out and would not overdraw this month. There wouldn't be any more problems when he received his salary next month. However, such an accident happened.

He should have called the police. He still had debts in the country, so how could he waste money like this?

With this thought in mind, Gong Bai signed the contract and paid for it.

He had originally planned to take Huo die back after her wounds were treated. In the end, the doctor told him that Huo die's internal organs were seriously injured and he had to be hospitalized for observation.

Gong Bai was dumbfounded when he heard that. Hospitalized? This was setting him up to be in debt!

If he had known, he would have called the police. He didn't know if this woman would continue to take his life when she woke up.

However, he finally understood why she had fainted.

If she was really an assassin, the wounds on her body should not have made her faint. However, it was a different story if her internal organs were damaged. If she was not sent to the hospital, she might have lost her life.

Two hours later, Huo die woke up on the hospital bed.

Although her body was still very weak, her senses were sharper than ordinary people's. Before she could figure out her situation, she felt someone beside her.

Humans were extremely dangerous creatures to her. She suddenly sat up and raised her hand to hit Gong Bai.

“This is a hospital!” Gong Bai said anxiously.

Huo die was stunned. She looked at her hand and saw an IV needle inserted into the back of it. She looked up and found that she was in a hospital ward.

She lay back down slowly and stared at Gong Bai. “You sent me to the hospital?”

“What else?”

“Where are my things?”

Of course, Gong Bai knew what she was referring to, so he said, “I kept it. I’m just thinking if I should hand it over to the police.

“Don’t you dare!” The fire butterfly angrily glared at him.

He leaned closer to her and said in a low voice, “I’m your Savior. Be good and don’t bite the hand that feeds you. Otherwise, you’ll regret it.”

Huo die’s face suddenly turned red.

Gong Bai was stunned. This red-faced Yingying had never been so close to a man before?

Actually, it wasn’t close at all, okay?

Gong mo stepped back speechlessly and said seriously, “I don’t care who you are, what your status is, or how capable you are! But the condition for me saving you is that I don’t want to bring myself any trouble or danger to my life. I've done what I promised you. That's our deal. Back then, you said that you didn't want my life, and I hope you can do it. '

"Don't worry, I won't lie to you!" The fire butterfly's face turned cold.

that's good, then. Gong Bai heaved a sigh of relief.

He was an honest man, an ordinary man. He was a little afraid of people who broke into other people's homes with guns.

He tapped his fingers on his knees and thought for a moment before saying, " "When you're discharged, I'll return your things to you and we'll have nothing to do with each other from now on.'

"I'll be discharged now!" Huo die suddenly sat up.

"You're injured now! "

"I won't die.'

Gong Bai was embarrassed to ask a woman for money, so he figured that the medical and hospital expenses he had paid in advance had gone to waste. But even so, he couldn't just watch a woman risk her life.

the doctor said that your internal organs are injured, "he said. it's better to observe you for a night.

"I really can't die. I'm afraid that if I continue to stay here, the people who hurt me will catch up." The fire butterfly said.

Gong Bai's face turned pale when he heard that. If they really caught up, wouldn't he be innocent?

He had no choice but to say, "then let's get discharged!" Tell the doctor yourself, I'm not obliged to help you deal with the doctor!"

Chapter 1877: The second guest okay. Huo die got off the bed, pulled out the needle, and walked out. She was a little tired.

She settled the matter with the doctor quickly, and the taxi driver led her out of the hospital. She hailed a taxi and left.

She lowered her head and glanced at her clothes. She didn't care how she changed.

When they returned to Gong Bai's residence, he went to the study room to get the gun while she waited outside the door.

Gong mo held the gun and felt its temperature and weight. He knew how lethal it was.

Unfortunately, he didn't know how to use a gun and didn't know how to take out the bullets. It was very dangerous to return it to her like this.

He held the gun and thought for a while, then felt that it was fine.

If he died, then so be it. Anyway, ever since he broke up with Yu Xinran, he was no different from a dead man.

Walking out of the room, he handed the gun to her. I changed your clothes for you. I hope you don't mind because of Yingluo.

"It's fine." She interrupted his explanation and took out the magazine.

Gong mo choked and looked at her in confusion.

She blushed the moment he got close to her. It was strange that she didn't care at all.

"How much did it cost to go to the hospital?" She suddenly asked.

uh, hehe. Gong Bai blushed slightly. you don't have to worry about that.

"I don't want to owe you anything. You've already saved my life." She paused and laughed at herself. or spare my life. When I'm unconscious, you can call the police or shoot me with your gun."

"I'm sorry, I've never killed anyone and I don't know how to use a gun."

"You'll be fine once you get used to killing people," she suddenly smiled.

Gong Bai's scalp went numb. It seemed that she was indeed an assassin! "I'll send you a check some other day!" The fire butterfly turned and left.

"I said no need!" Gong Bai said anxiously.

"You deserve this!" Huo die went downstairs. I don't want to owe you my life!

Gong Bai followed her. When he went downstairs, he saw her disappearing at the gate.

He sighed and walked over to open the door.

The rain had completely stopped, and the air outside was fresh and cool. There were puddles of water on the ground, but she was nowhere to be seen.

He ran really fast.

Gong Bai turned around and entered the room. He rubbed his neck tiredly.

He didn't even eat after a whole night.

She had to wake up early tomorrow, so she had to eat and go to bed so that she wouldn't be late for work.

In the morning, Gong Bai placed the breakfast he had made on the dining table, sat down facing the French window, and began to eat.

As he ate, he looked at the scenery outside the house.

The glass of the floor-to-ceiling window faintly reflected the furniture behind him. Suddenly, a figure appeared on the stairs. Gong Bai, who was drinking water, was dumbfounded.

The fire butterfly is back?

He slowly turned his head. It wasn't Huo die, but a Caucasian man in his forties or fifties.

The man was wearing a light blue denim shirt, a pair of washed-out jeans, and a pair of brooch shoes. He walked down the stairs slowly, looking very energetic. He exuded a wild aura, as if he was only thirty years old. He was very charming.

Gong Bai spurted out the water in his mouth.

Didn't he live alone? Why was there always someone in the house?

The women left and the men came, the young left and the old came, what did they take his place for?

The man raised his head as if he was in his own home and asked, "Did anyone come to your place last night?"

Gong Bai's expression changed, and his eyes flickered as he sized up the other party.

Could it be that the police were here to track down the fire butterfly?

He couldn't help but feel a little angry, "how can the police break into a private house? don't they know how to knock?" "What?" The man looked at him.

"What did you say?" he played dumb..

Chapter 1878: King and Yu ginghuan

The man glanced at him indifferently, causing Gong Bai to feel a chill in his heart.

Gong Bai seemed to feel that he was saying, "I know you're lying to me."

The man took out a small flashlight and turned it on to shine on the floor. He walked straight to the kitchen and said, "The route she took, Yingluo" Gong Bai asked, "what's this high-tech thing?"

The man stopped at the place where Huo die had fainted yesterday and shone the flashlight in the direction of the refrigerator. she went there and then came back here. She didn't walk on her own. She must have fainted and been carried away.

He raised the flashlight and shone it on Gong Bai's face. "It's you?"

"I don't understand what you're talking about." Gong Bai turned his head away.

"The bloodstains on the floor have been cleaned, and you still don't understand? She doesn't have any helpers, so it can't be anyone else. It can only be you. Furthermore, her injuries would not recover quickly without treatment. Young man, don't be soft-hearted just because a girl is pretty."

"What do you want? This is my home, you trespassed on my property, I'm going to call the police!" Gong Bai said angrily.

"Did you call the police last night?" the man asked suspiciously.

Gong Bai frowned and didn't want to answer.

The man smiled, knowing that he had not called the police. He took out a black card from his pocket. call me if you see her again! After saying that, he threw the card at Gong Bai.

Gong Bai was secretly shocked.

That card was like a flying dart, bringing with it the wind, and he felt a sharp aura coming from it.

The card sank into the table with a "Chi" sound, and Gong Bai's heart trembled.

The man sneered and swaggered out of the villa.

Gong Bai finally heaved a sigh of relief, but his back was covered in cold sweat.

He was extremely furious!

Was this place a hotel? Anyone can come! Not only did they come, but they also threatened him!

If there's a next time, I'll call the police!

He reached out and pulled out the card. It felt cold to the touch, and it should be made of metal.

The card was coated with a layer of black, and there was a golden English word engraved on it-King. There was a line of numbers at the bottom, which should be a phone number.

King? Who would give it such an arrogant name?

Gong Bai turned the card over and saw a gray pattern on the back. Such a color was not conspicuous against the black background, and it needed to be looked carefully to be recognized.

It was also an English word-shadow.

Shadow. Dark shadow. Gong Bai didn't know what this meant.

King left Gong Bai's Villa and went to a luxurious six-star hotel.

There was a large casino on the second floor of the hotel. He walked into the casino, searched among the crowd, and finally walked toward a figure in red.

"You won so much?" Seeing the chips in the other person's hand, he sat down with a smile.

Yu qinghuan turned to look at him, her dark, wavy hair hanging on one shoulder. Her lips were red and her eyes were cold, making one's heart beat faster.

She picked up the cards that the dealer had dealt to her and ignored King.

King didn't mind at all. He took out a cigar and smoked.

By noon, Yu qinghuan had won a lot of money, and the banker and his opponent were unhappy.

King hurriedly urged her to leave, "enough!" If you continue to win like this, no one will be happy!"

Yu qinghuan threw a large amount of chips to the dealer and waiter as tips, and said with a smile, "I'm very happy ~"

Few people here could understand the Chinese they were speaking, so they didn't have to worry about offending anyone.

"Let's go for lunch," King said helplessly.

okay! It's my treat. She had won so much money, so she was naturally not stingy.

The two of them went to the hotel restaurant and ordered a few dishes.

Because they were sitting in the corner, no one could hear their conversation..

King couldn't help but ask, " "Why did that girl want to kill you?"

Chapter 1879: Back then, he deliberately died to escape

He had not seen Yu qinghuan for more than three years.

Three years ago, Yu qinghuan had been blown to the bottom of the sea and disappeared without a trace. Neither Sheng nanxuan nor King believed that she was dead.

She was that powerful? How could he die so easily?

King had been secretly searching for her for three years and had finally found traces of her not long ago. He chased after her without stopping and happened to run into Huo die, who was trying to assassinate her with a gun.

Naturally, he did not hesitate to save her.

Hearing his question, Yu qinghuan said leisurely, " "She might not kill me "He even took out his gun!" How could this person be so optimistic?

"But she didn't shoot.'

"If I hadn't arrived in time, she would have shot you!'

"If you didn't come, she wouldn't have been able to shoot." Yu qinghuan said confidently.

King was speechless.

Right, right, right, you're such a pervert, who can hurt you!

He could not help but ask, "how did you escape back then?" Since you're fine, why don't you go back and find Sheng nanxuan?"

Yu qinghuan's expression darkened, and she turned to look out the window.

"Why are you looking for him? He's already so big, and he doesn't need me.

Isn't it good for me to be free?"

"So, you deliberately died back then?"

Yu qinghuan didn't say anything and took a sip of her champagne.

"He seems to be looking for you too," King said.

"I know," She glanced at him. I was busy hiding from his people and didn't notice your people. Otherwise, you wouldn't have found me.

Kings face darkened, but he suddenly laughed. "Since that's the case, it means that we're fated! Where are you going? let's keep each other company, I'll protect you! You should concentrate on gambling in the future. I'll help you deal with those flies from yesterday!"

Yu qinghuan couldn't help but laugh. He was helping her? Did she need to?

"You don't want your Castle?" she asked.

"It's boring. Just give it to someone else."

Yu qinghuan smiled and said, "I do hope to have a companion." But we're just companions, nothing else."

King smacked the table. we've been close for a long time. We can't just stick to the things between a man and a woman. It's good enough that we're partners.

Was she close to him? And sublimation.

However, Yu Qinghuan was always alone, and she had no choice. If there was someone who knew about her situation and was still willing to accompany her, she would naturally not refuse.

Huo Die and King's sudden appearance and disappearance made Gong Bai think that his stagnant life was going to be lively again.

However, he didn't.

Huo Die had said that she would send him a check, but he had waited for a month without her appearing. He didn't look forward to it anymore. He didn't care about that little money anyway.

The weather gradually turned cold, and he started to feel depressed.

This was the season when he and Yu Xinran would be separated. It had been four whole years. Every time this season came, his entire person would be in chaos. Because he had completely lost her in this season.

This state would almost always last from autumn until after the Spring Festival, and reach its peak around New Year's Day.

It was already snowing before Christmas.

Gong Bai was standing in the greenhouse and watering the flowers mechanically.

Suddenly, a figure rushed up from downstairs—naturally, it was through the glass of the greenhouse.

The man was like a spider, lying on the glass.

Startled, Gong Bai's hand trembled, and the water in the flower pot splashed on his face.

He fixed his eyes on the young and beautiful girl outside, who looked a little familiar.

The girl let out a pfft, loosened her grip on the window sill, and fell down.

ah ... startled, Gong Bai threw away the flower pot and ran out in a hurry.

This was the second floor.. If she didn't fall until she was disabled, she would fall until her bones were broken!

Chapter 1880: Difficult to forget

He ran out of the greenhouse and leaned on the balcony to take a look. The girl was standing in the open space downstairs, intact. She raised her head and looked at him with a smile, waving at him.

His face sank and he went downstairs in a fluster.

She was standing at the side of the villa, which was close to the kitchen, so he went out from the back door of the kitchen.

But she had already run to the front door, and he turned back to open the door.

When he walked into the living room, he saw her pressing her face against the floor-to-ceiling window, raising her hand and knocking on the glass a few times.

Gong Bai walked over to open the door. She turned around and asked, "Do you still remember me?"

"Who are you?" He asked with a straight face.

"I'm Huo die." Huo die was stunned and said awkwardly, "I accidentally broke into your house a few months ago, and you saved me."

Gong Bai recalled Kings words and felt a headache.

He was just an ordinary person, and he didn't want to get involved in the affairs of people like them!

He closed the door helplessly, turned around, and walked into the house.

Seeing that he didn't close the door, Huo die ran in after a moment of surprise and closed the door. you remember me, right? '

"It's hard to forget." Gong Bai sat down on the sofa.

Huo die's face immediately showed a trace of joy. She ran in front of him, took out a large stack of money from the pocket of her white down jacket, and put it on the coffee table. I'll return your medical fees! I wanted to send it to you, but it's too troublesome, so I've sent it here personally."

Gong Bai looked at the pile of cash and said in a speechless manner, " "You don't need so much.'

"Then let's just treat the rest as interest!"

He wasn't a loan shark.

All of a sudden, a noise came from the kitchen. Gong Bai immediately stood up-the dish he made was ready.

The fire butterfly turned its head, and soon smelled the fragrance of food. She hurried over and stood at the kitchen door. "You're cooking?"

"Have you eaten?" Gong Bai glanced at her.

She shook her head and looked at the stewed beef with potato in his pot.

Gong Bai's scalp tingled. Any normal person could tell what she meant, but he just didn't want to invite her to dinner!

They weren't close to begin with, and they couldn't even be considered friends. How was he going to handle it when that King came back? They might even become cannon fodder for their battle!

The two of them were fighting with real swords and guns! When he was in China, even if he knew that Sheng nanxuan was not an ordinary person, he had never seen such a scene!

Moreover, he had looked up the word "Shadow" and found some gossip on thousands of websites. It was said that there was an assassin group called Shadow in the world and King was the boss of Shadow.

What if it just so happened to be the information on that card?

He didn't want to get into this kind of trouble at all. He just wanted to live his life in peace.

He pretended not to understand the look in Huo die's eyes, hoping that she would leave quickly!

Seeing that he couldn't understand her expression, the fire butterfly hesitated for a moment, then asked with eager eyes, "Since I'm giving you too much money, why don't you let me stay for a meal? I won't take back any more money."

"I'm really hungry," Huo die rubbed her belly.

Alright, Ge Ge. Gong Bai was powerless.

Of course, he didn't reject it that much.

He had been alone for four years. He was still happy that there were some ripples in his life. At the very least, he wouldn't be a pool of stagnant water. Even if he had to open the door to a new world and dance with the wolves, he would accept it.

Gong Bai added two more stir-fried dishes, and the dishes were served half an hour later.

The fire butterfly followed behind him, and he asked in confusion, "You go and sit."

"How can I accept that? I ... I want to help."

Yingluo, if you want to help, just help.. Why are you following me around?
