Chapter 471 Digging

Outside shengshi medical garden, police cars, reporter vans, and buses packed by protestors were parked everywhere, blocking the road.

...

The police, reporters, protestors, and many shengshi pharmaceutical employees ran into the medical garden.

Yu Qingliu and Yu Xinran were sitting in the car. Seeing that most of the people had arrived, they also got out of the car and followed.

The entire medical garden was noisy. The two of them were mixed in the crowd and did not attract any attention.

If Sheng nanxuan had not been so mysterious, they would not have wanted to see this farce.

It was just some animal corpses. If shengshi pharmaceuticals used animals for experiments, it wouldn't attract much attention other than causing animal lovers' adrenaline to soar. It was better to say that there were quality problems with the drugs produced by shengshi pharmaceuticals, just like the strategy used by the Wu family more than 20 years ago.

But that time, they lost Yu qinghuan. If not for this, Yu Qingliu would not have interfered in this matter.

He hoped that Yingluo

If there was a chance, he would be able to find information on Yu qinghuan.

Even though he knew that it was unlikely.

When Yu Qinghuan had just disappeared, he had come to look for her, but he had not found her.

.....

Sheng nanxuan had pointed out the location, and Yu Qingliu distributed it through the newspaper. Hence, everyone headed in that direction. When they got there, the police cordoned off the area and stopped them. Then, they started digging.

The camera quietly recorded everything.

The reporters were not excited. If it wasn't for the fact that this incident had caused such a huge commotion and became a topic of discussion, it wouldn't have had such great news value at all. Therefore, they just quietly recorded it. After the interview, they would take it back to report and their work for the day would be considered done.

Even the police were few in number. It was not a big deal, so they did not have enough manpower. More than half of them were shengshi pharmaceutical's employees.

Seeing that everyone had quieted down, the animal rights activists also quieted down.

The captain of the police team walked around in the middle of the field, watching everyone's movements.

Suddenly, a police officer who was excavating shouted, "Captain! Quickly come and take a look!"

The captain walked over and saw that the police officer was holding a bone in his hand.

Ordinary people might not be able to tell what animal these bones came from, but they were police officers. They had learned about it in Police School and had encountered it in the process of handling cases. They could tell at a glance that it was human bones!

The captain suddenly felt that things were not good.

This matter had been strange from the very beginning.

Could it be that it wasn't an animal experiment, but a Yingluo?

"Continue digging!" He shouted.

The reporters at the cordoned off area saw their movements and adjusted the aperture of their cameras to take pictures.

At that moment, an employee from shengshi pharmaceuticals suddenly screamed.

Everyone was shocked and hurriedly looked over.

ah, ah, ah-" the employee threw down the shovel in his hand and ran away.

When the police saw this, they immediately walked over.

The staff closest to him went over to take a look first, then screamed and ran away, " "Ghost! There's a ghost!"

"What nonsense are you talking about?" The captain grabbed the man and was shocked.

Under the soil that had been dug up, there was a human skull.

"Heavens!" The other police officers were shocked. What is this?!

"It's a human!" The staff who ran to the cordon shouted to everyone, " there are people buried below!

what?! everyone was dumbfounded.

The reporters were the first to react. Like vampires who had smelled blood, they pulled open the cordon and rushed over.

This was the real news to them! Big news!

Chapter 472 Serious situation

If there were people buried underneath, did that mean that shengshi medical company was using humans for their experiments?

...

This was definitely big news that would shock the world!

“Third uncle!” Yu Xinran grabbed Yu Qingliu’s arm.

Yu Qingliu remembered Sheng nanxuan’s words and pulled her in that direction. When he got closer, he saw a skull.

The police were still digging hard, and soon they dug out two more bones.

ah!!! Yu Xinran was a little scared and hid behind Yu Qingliu.

Yu Qingliu quickly glanced at it and said, “At least two people.”

what did you say?! the captain turned to look at him.

Yu Qingliu pointed at the two bones and said, "they're both right shin bones." Each person only has one, so two will belong to two people."

The captain gasped when he heard that. Suddenly, he saw everyone noisily squeezing over, so he pulled out his gun and fired a shot into the sky.

The surroundings fell silent.

The captain roared, "get out of the cordon!" Don't destroy the scene! Whoever disobeys will be charged with obstruction of justice!"

After that, he put away his gun and quickly took out his phone to call the police station. "Director! Requesting reinforcements! It was a murder case! If we're optimistic, there'll be at least two of them. If we're not optimistic, Yingluo might even have twenty of them!"

The director in the office was so shocked that he immediately brought people over.

The police stopped digging and once again set up a cordon. This time, it was directly pulled to the entrance of the herb garden, blocking the martialists, the staff who came to watch the fun, and the reporters who were interviewing outside the herb garden!

The reporters requested for an interview and there was a huge commotion. The others were frightened, but they didn't say anything. Instead, the more courageous ones began to discuss in low voices.

Yu Xinran immediately found her own reporters and asked two of them to give her their reporter passes. Then, she hung one around her neck and threw the other to Yu Qingliu.

Yu Qingliu understood what she meant.

Now that something like this had happened, the police didn't know how serious the situation was, so they definitely wouldn't want to let the reporters interview them.

However, what was the status of Qingyu media? They had a lot of people, and with one call to the Bureau chief, the Bureau chief had no choice but to let them in.

To be on the safe side, Yu Xinran instructed her reporter, "Hurry up and post the interview on the internet!"

If the news was reported, Nanjiang city would not be able to contain the news and they would have no choice but to let people interview them.

The reporter said, "Miss, don't worry. It's already been sent out. Now, the number of people following it is increasing." Glory World's staff and volunteers also took photos and I saw them posting."

"That's good." Yu Xinran heaved a sigh of relief.

Soon, the chief of Nanjiang City Police station arrived with a large number of police officers and two forensic doctors in white coats.

Yu Xinran and Yu Qingliu went up and stopped the Bureau chief to negotiate.

The chief allowed them to go in for the interview.

Yu Xinran waved her hand, and four or five reporters from Qing Yu media followed her in.

The chief saw that they were not local reporters and was afraid that they would write nonsense, so he let the reporters from Nanjiang TV station in.

The rest had no choice but to wait outside.

After entering, the police began to dig carefully under the director's instructions.

In less than half an hour, six complete sets of bones were dug out.

I'm afraid that this is not the only place where the director's wrath is coming from. The captain felt his scalp go numb.

This kind of old murder case, who knew how many decades ago, if it was investigated, it might turn the world upside down.

The director took a deep breath and said, "go get the planning map of this land over the years and see what the surrounding situation is like!" Right, send someone to arrest the shengzhongtian couple, and the other managers and people in charge of shengshi pharmaceuticals, bring them back to the police station for investigation!"

Chapter 473 Could aunt be there?

As the skeletons were dug out one by one, the director felt that there were not enough forensic doctors and transferred all the forensic doctors in the city over.

...

The people outside saw that there were more than 20 forensic doctors!

How many people were buried here?

Although no one had seen the scene and the reporters couldn't go in to interview them, it didn't stop them from posting these things on the internet.

At this moment, there was a huge uproar on the internet. Almost everyone was paying attention to this matter.

.....

At the excavation site, Yu Xinran's body swayed, and she fell onto Yu Qingliu's body.

“Xinran?” Yu Qingliu hurriedly supported her.

I can't take it anymore, Yingluo! Yu Xinran trembled as she looked at the bones. I'm afraid of Yingluo!

“Then let's go.” Yu Qingliu helped her out.

Yu Xinran sobbed in a low voice. She turned to look at the skeletons and asked, “How can there be such a terrifying thing in the world?”

“What is this? When I was a borderless doctor, I went to war-torn places. If I was unlucky, I would see corpses piled up like mountains, which was scarier than this. These are just bones, those Suan ni ”

“Don't say anymore.” Yu Xinran interrupted him. you're right. Instead of being a rich young master, you want to be a doctor Without Borders. If it wasn't a war-torn place, it would be a place ravaged by plague. It was a complete act of using one's life to do good. Wouldn't it be better for you to stay at home and find a third aunt? Grandpa and Grandma are worried about you every day!”

“Aren't I back now?” Yu Qingliu paused. actually, ran ran, I learned everything from your aunt.

“Aunt?” Yu Xinran was stunned.

She had never seen that person before. She had only heard people mention her occasionally and had seen her photos in her grandmother's photo album.

A very, very beautiful person. Even as a woman, she couldn't help but be moved.

“That's right. She wanted to be a reporter. She said she wanted to be a disaster reporter, a war reporter, and help the people there spread news. Say, why did she have to suffer like this instead of being a rich young lady? However, Yingluo had just graduated, and her first interview had gone missing. She hasn't even achieved her dream, and I can only help her accomplish half of it-to go to a place of war, to a place of disaster. Although I can't help the people there pass on information, I can more or less help them clear their minds.”

Yu Xinran started crying, "I'm sorry, ran ran."

"Why are you saying sorry?"

"Compared to you guys, I'm nothing."

sigh, it's good that you're fine. Don't learn from us! Yu Qingliu hurriedly said, "our Yu family's daughter should be a Princess. She's loved by everyone. You're not doing well enough, and you're still working. You don't have any self-awareness of being a rich young lady at all! When I have a daughter in the future, I'll definitely raise her into a real princess. I won't let her suffer even a little, but she'll enjoy it for the rest of her life!"

okay~I support you. Yu Xinran smiled with tears in her eyes.

The two of them slowly walked to the entrance of the medical garden. Yu Xinran suddenly grabbed him tightly and stopped.

"What's wrong?" Yu Qingliu asked worriedly.

I'm thinking about ran ran. Yu Xinran turned her head and looked in the direction of the hell-like place. could aunt ran ran be there? "

Yu Qingliu's hand trembled, "don't talk nonsense!" I don't want her to be there!"

"I don't want that either." Yu Xinran said in a low voice.

Yu Qingliu suddenly felt very uncomfortable, and it was hard to breathe.

Actually,

If Yu Qinghuan was there, it would be a relief to the Yu family's worries for more than 20 years.

Chapter 474 Afraid

However, if she was there, it would be too terrifying! What kind of suffering did she go through to be there?

...

So, he didn't want her to be there.

He would rather she go missing for the rest of her life, as long as she was happy in an unknown place.

.....

Yu Qingliu sent Yu Xinran back to the hotel and suggested that she rest.

"Go to sleep. Don't let your thoughts run wild and scare yourself."

Yu Xinran nodded and sat by the bed. "I'm too useless."

"It's my fault. You used to be a fashion editor, when have you ever seen something so scary? I shouldn't have let you go." Yu Qingliu picked up her phone. "I'll find you some light music. Listen to it to relax your mood."

"I'm fine. I'm just not used to it, I'll be fine in a while."

"Don't try to show off. When I was in medical school, there were still people who would throw up at corpses even after graduation. I know that those things are very scary for you girls, but what's even scarier is what happens behind your back. You can't accept it, but it's not embarrassing."

Yu Xinran bit her lip and didn't say anything.

Yu Qingliu patted her head. have a good rest. I'll call you for dinner later.

He walked out of the room and immediately called Sheng nanxuan. "Where are you?"

He wanted to hit someone right now!

Sheng nanxuan, that bastard, had tricked him into going to the scene. Now, he had scared his precious niece! If there were any side effects, he would definitely be beaten up by big brother!

Before he was beaten up by his big brother, he decided to settle the score with Sheng nanxuan! This great hoodwinker was the main culprit!

In the hospital, Sheng nanxuan was taking a walk in the garden with his baby. hospital ~"

Yu Qingliu hung up the phone and rushed to the hospital. On the way, she rolled up her sleeves. Anyway, he had decided that he would beat Sheng nanxuan's eyes the moment they met!

.....

Yu Xinran lay on the bed with her clothes on. Pure music was playing on her phone. She closed her eyes, but her mind was filled with the bones dug out from the soil.

Yu Qingliu was right. What was scary wasn't bones, but what happened behind the scenes.

She couldn't help but think, "when those bones still had flesh and blood, when those bodies of flesh and blood were alive, what happened to them?" Why were they buried there? How many years had it been buried? From undamaged to rotten, gnawed by the insects and ants in the soil, and finally turned into a pile of white bones.

f * ck ... Yu Xinran got up, covered her mouth, and ran into the bathroom. She laid on the sink and retched.

Speaking of which, her little uncle really didn't know how to comfort people. The more she spoke, the more she wanted to think about it. The more she thought, the more afraid, terrified, and disgusted she was.

She returned to her room, turned off the music on her phone, and aimlessly opened one app after another, but she didn't know what to do.

In the end, she stared at the address book in a daze and slowly slid the name list to Gong Bai's.

She and Gong Bai were more than friends but not lovers. They had been in contact all the time and often went out to eat, play basketball, and hang out together.

They would probably be in a relationship soon, right?

Before she came here, she had called him and told him that she was on a business trip.

She was too embarrassed to mention Nanjiang. This was his hometown, and she was afraid that he would think that she was doing it for him.

Although, she did want to see what his hometown was like.

She dialed Gong Bai's phone number, which was picked up quickly. He shouted in a slightly anxious tone, "Xinran!"

Gong Bai " " was curled up on the bed in a depressed mood. She felt much better when she heard the urgency in his voice.

Chapter 475 Comfort

“What’s wrong?” are you sick? ” Gong Bai asked worriedly, sensing that her voice was a little weak.

...

“No, I didn’t,” Yu Xinran said helplessly, ” I just went for an interview and encountered some bad things.

“Something bad?” Gong Bai was startled. what’s wrong with you? What did you encounter?”

Yu Xinran thought of those human bones and frowned, unable to describe the scene. Just thinking about it made her very afraid. How could she mention it again?

“I’m in Nanjiang,” she said.

“Nanjiang?” Gong Bai was shocked. He recalled the news related to Nanjiang in the past few days and immediately searched for news on the internet. are you interviewing the Sheng family? ” he asked.

“Yes,” Yu Xinran heaved a sigh of relief. Finally, there was someone to share her burden.

When Gong Bai saw the latest news, he was startled.

It was actually like this!

Was she afraid?

“Did you go to the scene just now?” he asked hurriedly.

“Yingluo, yes.”

“How can you go!” Gong Bai shouted.

Although there wasn't any concrete news on the internet and they didn't know the situation at the scene, just the fact that human bones had been dug out was scary enough!

It was not hard to imagine what shengshi medicine had done when they linked it to the news of using animals for experiments a few days ago.

I didn't think of it at that time, ” Yingluo said sadly, ” if it was just one or two skeletons, I wouldn't have been so weak. But when I left, I had already dug out almost thirty of them! That would be 30 lives! And it's just a small area, the entire herb garden is dozens of times bigger than that area. I don't dare to imagine what kind of hell that is!”

“Don't think too much!” Gong Bai said hurriedly, ” what you've seen should be the limit. I've lived in Nanjiang for so many years. If a large number of people really went missing, it's impossible that I've never heard of it!”

“30 yuan Yuan is already a very large number! They haven't finished digging, so there must be more.” Yu Xinran asked in confusion, ” you really didn't hear about it? ”

Gong Bai was stunned for a moment. He recalled his life in the past 20 years and said, ” “If I have to say it, I've heard some when I was young. It was mainly because the beggars on the streets had slowly disappeared. There were no more beggars in the entire city. No one would think much of this. Instead, they would feel that the environment was much better. Now that he thought about it, it was really abnormal. Even in such a bustling place like the capital, I still often come across people asking for money on the streets.”

“That's it, Yingluo.”

Gong Bai sighed, ”don't even think about it. Since the police have found out, they'll definitely investigate the cause and effect.” Those people would also rest in peace. You've helped them by doing the interview, so it's a good deed.”

“I just feel my scalp going numb.”

“Don’t be afraid, I’m here.” Gong Bai said gently.

Yu Xinran was stunned. She suddenly forgot about the things she was afraid of and couldn’t help but feel shy. “What’s the use of you being here? Distant water can’t put out a nearby fire!”

“Then I’ll go find you now?”

“Forget it!” Yu Xinran felt his concern and finally felt better. I’m fine. Are you still working? I’ve disturbed you for so long, Yingluo.”

“It doesn’t matter, we can catch some fish occasionally.”

“I’ve touched enough. Go to work.”

“Yes, I am. Call me if you need anything.”

Yu Xinran smiled shyly. alright! I won’t be polite.

Gong Bai’s ears turned a little red when he heard the tenderness in her tone.

After hanging up the phone, he thought for a while and called Gong mo. He said with concern, “ I saw the news about the Sheng family on the internet. Are you and nanxuan alright? ”

Chapter 476 it has to be him uh, hehe. Gong mo didn’t want him to worry, so he didn’t tell him that he was in Nanjiang. don’t worry, those things have nothing to do with him. We won’t be implicated.

...

"That's good. If anything happens, let me know."

"Alright!" Gong mo readily agreed.

He hung up the phone and looked at the door of the ward, sighing.

Gambino had not woken up yet, and she and Shan Rong would not be able to return to the capital city for a while. Gong Bai would find out about them sooner or later, right?

I don't care! It wasn't a big deal. She just didn't want him to worry and wasn't afraid of him finding out.

Just as Gong mo was about to return to his room, his phone rang again. This time, it was Yu Xinran.

She couldn't help but think, "you two are really a couple. The elder brother just finished his call, and the sister-in-law called again!"

She picked up the phone and heard Yu Xinran ask, "Gong mo, where are you now?"

"In the hospital. What's wrong?"

I have nowhere to go. I'm bored alone in the hotel. How about I come to you? "

"Alright!" Gong mo agreed, but he felt a little strange. Didn't she go with Yu Qingliu to interview the Sheng family? The interview is over?

Gong mo was about to ask, but Yu Xinran had already hung up.

She thought helplessly, "then I'll ask when he comes!"

When he entered the ward, dan Rong sat by the bed and knitted a sweater.

These were the needles and thread she had bought from the supermarket during lunch.

Gong mo walked over and sat on the other side of the bed. He glanced at Gambino, who showed no signs of waking up.

“Mom, who are you knitting this for?”

Shan Rong took a look at Gambino, lowered her head, and said as she weaved, “Before your dad left, I said I wanted to knit him a sweater. Although she had knitted it later on, she had never had the chance to wear it since he was gone. Didn’t they bury him in the soil last year? I can only knit it again now!”

Gong mo looked at her and felt a little uncomfortable for some reason.

“Mom, do you love Dad a lot?” She asked.

“I don’t really love you. She just happened to meet him at the right time! It’s enough that we’ve met once, and now we’ve met again. This is called fate!” Shan Rong couldn’t help but laugh, “it really has to be him! I really didn’t think about getting married before, but now that I’m thinking about it, he’s here! You tell me, I can’t get rid of this person, he just likes to stick to me!”

“It seems like Dad loves you more ~” Gong mo laughed.

“If you love me, then wake up!” Shan Rong grumbled softly.

“He will wake up.” Gong mo said hurriedly.

A voice came from outside. Gong mo recognized Sheng nanxuan and looked up.

As soon as he entered the door, the bodyguard at the door became alert and looked at him with an unfriendly expression.

He didn't mind and walked over with the child in his arms. He said to Gong mo, "I think I'm hungry."

ah! Gong mo was shocked. He asked softly, "how am I supposed to feed him then?"

there's a mother and baby room in the OB/GYN Department. Let's go there.

"Alright, then." Gong mo said to dan Rong, "I'll go first.

Shan Rong nodded and looked at Gambino worriedly, asking, "When will the doctor come again? Didn't you say you should wake up today?"

"I'll inform the doctor." Sheng nanxuan helped Gong mo out of the ward.

Not long after, he met Yu Qingliu walking over aggressively.

Yu Qingliu rolled up her sleeves. She wanted to punch Sheng nanxuan, but seeing that he was carrying the child, she did not dare to.

"Give the child to Gong mo!" He stopped.

"What?" Sheng nanxuan frowned.

"I want to f * cking beat you up!" Yu Qingliu waved her fist.

Gong mo hurriedly stood in front of Sheng nanxuan and roared at him, "Why did you beat him up?"

Chapter 477 How can you have such a crazy thought?

"I ..." Yu Qingliu looked-

...

Sheng nanxuan, a man, carried the child and hid in the back, while Gong mo, a woman, stood in front of him! This was the complete opposite!

He pointed at Sheng nanxuan. you let a woman protect you. Do you feel bad? "

"What's there to be embarrassed about?" Sheng nanxuan smugly said, " she's my wife! An old single dog like you will never understand this kind of happiness."

pfft-" Yu Qingliu was internally injured.

So what if he was single? Single dogs are still dogs! What right did they have to discriminate against him?

waa waa waa. little Hu Zi was hungry and protested.

"Stop it!" Gong mo hurriedly said. If you want to make a scene, go to the side and give me the child!"

"Eh." Sheng nanxuan dodged her hand. I'll go with you. Don't bother about him. Who knows what's wrong with him? "

"I've gone crazy?" Yu Qingliu followed him unhappily. Sheng nanxuan, I have something to tell you!

"Give me the child." Gong mo said.

"I'm fine." Sheng nanxuan consoled her gently and said to Yu Qingliu, "your matter can wait!

Yu Qingliu took a deep breath and followed them in a Huff.

Gong mo glanced at him and asked, "where's Xinran?" She didn't come with you?"

"She went back to the hotel to rest!"

"Ah? Didn't she say she was coming?"

"When?" Yu Qingliu was stunned.

just now, she called me and said she's looking for me at the hospital. I think she should be here soon, Yingluo.

"Then I'll go pick her up!" Yu Qingliu was afraid that something would happen to her niece, so she turned around and left.

At the entrance of the hospital, she saw Yu Xinran.

He couldn't help but ask, "Didn't I tell you to rest?" Why are you running around?"

Yu Xinran shivered and said guiltily, "I'm fine. I'm just letting my thoughts run wild by being alone, so I came over to chat with Gong mo."

Yu Qingliu sized her up with an expression that said 'I've seen through you'. Alright, alright, Yingluo, I know you've taken a fancy to her cousin. You're here to make a good impression, right? "

Yu Xinran's face turned red and she pushed him away. "You're an elder, can't you be a little more dignified?"

“How am I not dignified?”

“What’s the difference between a jokester and a dandy like Wu Di?”

“You’re comparing me to him?”

“I think you’re not even as good as him! He even has a girlfriend now, what about you? Can you stop making Grandpa and Grandma worry?”

“Ha, did your grandparents tell you to say that? In order for me to get married, you guys are really giving it your all!”

“I really don’t have any!” Yu Xinran said, I was the one who wanted to say it! I just feel that if you don’t get married when my brother and I are already married, we’ll be embarrassed!”

“What’s there to be embarrassed about?”

“Alright, then. There was nothing wrong with a junior getting married earlier than an elder! But what if the older brother’s child pops out first and yours is behind? it’ll be so awkward if the older one calls the younger one uncle!”

Yu Xinran thought about it and her face suddenly lit up. She said excitedly, “If you didn’t mention it, I wouldn’t have thought of it! It’s decided then. I want to wait until you have a child before getting married. At that time, my child will be the youngest, but the seniority will be the highest. How cool would that be!”

wuwuwuwu ” was this her little uncle? Was he still human? How could he have such a crazy thought? The children who were not born yet were innocent, okay!

The two of them walked out of the nursery. Gong mo had already fed the baby. He was carrying the baby and walking out with Sheng nanxuan.

“Alright, can we have a chat Now?” Yu Qingliu asked Sheng nanxuan.

Chapter 478 A fight

Yu Xinran glanced at them and felt that the smell of gunpowder was strong, so she didn't dare to speak.

...

Gong mo wasn't worried at all. Her husband was so powerful that even if they fought, the one at a disadvantage would be someone else.

She said to Sheng nanxuan, “ then you guys can continue chatting. Xinran and I will leave first.

Sheng nanxuan lowered his head and kissed her on the cheek, then the child's.

Yu Qingliu covered her eyes. my eyes are blinded! she exclaimed.

yes,” Sheng nanxuan said. you have dog eyes.

“I ...” Yu Qingliu exploded.

“If you say you can't win, then don't say anything!” Yu Xinran quickly pulled him back.

I ... Yu Qingliu was even angrier. He didn't expect her to destroy his confidence like this.

“Alright, I'm not going to care about you anymore!” Yu Xinran let go of him and left with Gong mo.

Yu Qingliu was furious. She glared at Sheng nanxuan and gritted her teeth. “I feel like biting you when I see you!”

“Just don’t bite me.” Sheng nanxuan turned and walked in the other direction.

“I’m biting you!”

“Then you bite!” Sheng nanxuan extended his arm to him.

He was stunned and pushed her away, “scram!” I’ll beat you up one day!”

“If you’re a man, then don’t wait. Beat him up now!” Sheng nanxuan stopped and looked at him calmly. otherwise, I’m afraid you won’t have a chance in the future.

Yu Qingliu glared at him and clenched her fists.

This was a provocation! If he didn’t lose face, where would he put it?

Yu Qingliu threw a punch!

Sheng nanxuan tilted his head and dodged it very cleverly.

Yu Qingliu continued to push Sheng nanxuan. When Sheng nanxuan retreated to the corner, he was already leaning against the wall.

Yu Qingliu saw this and thought, ‘this is great, let’s see where you can escape to!’

He threw a punch, but Sheng nanxuan bent down and escaped from under his arm. But he couldn’t stop his fist, and it smashed into the wall!

” Do you know how precious my hands are? How many lives have I saved with my hands?”

I'm precious too~" Sheng nanxuan said innocently. I've saved more lives than you.

"Save? It's good that you didn't kill them!"

This guy was so powerful in the stock market that many people would jump off buildings if the stock market fell!

tsk! I didn't do anything. I just saved them. Sheng nanxuan said, " if I was hit by you, I would definitely be unhappy. Whenever I'm unhappy, I like to play in the stock market! That's why I've been avoiding you. It's to save everyone!"

When Yu Qingliu heard this, she felt that this kind of person deserved a beating. She raised her fist and rushed over again.

Sheng nanxuan dodged again, and Yu Qingliu hit the medical equipment cart that the nurse had pushed over.

With a series of clanking sounds, some pincers and tweezers fell to the ground.

"What are you doing?!" The nurse shouted. Fight what? This is a hospital, if you want to fight, go outside!"

Yu Qingliu hurriedly picked it up and moved to the side,""Sister, take care ~"

The nurse who looked to be in her early twenties shouted, "Who are you calling sister?"

[Yu Qingliu: isn't 'darling' an honorific?]

ppft-" Sheng nanxuan laughed. take care, little girl.

When the nurse heard that, she looked at him and saw that he was young, handsome, and had an extraordinary temperament. Her face suddenly turned red and she said gently, " don't fight in the hospital! If he bullies you, you can call the police!

After the nurse finished speaking, she shyly pushed the trolley away. They were all handsome men, but why was there such a big difference between them?

Yu Qingliu gritted her teeth and said to Sheng nanxuan, " your wife just left and you're here to hook up with a little girl. Not bad~"

Chapter 479 All senses are different from ordinary people

"Cut the crap!" Sheng nanxuan frowned and turned around. didn't you want to talk? Hurry up and find a place to talk!"

...

Yu Qingliu sighed and followed after him.

The two of them bought two cans of drinks from the vending machine and sat in the hospital's garden. They chatted as they drank.

"You already knew what was down there, didn't you?" Yu Qingliu asked.

"Didn't I tell you? this is big news." Sheng nanxuan's expression was calm.

"How did you know?" Yu Qingliu asked.

Sheng nanxuan shook the liquid in the can and took a sip.

The fine rays of the sun fell from the top of his head, making his face appear blurred and unreal.

“Because of me, I was almost buried there.” His voice was a little illusionary.

Yu Qingliu’s eyes widened as she looked at him in disbelief.

why else do you think I’m going against the Sheng family? “he laughed sarcastically. why else?” You must be thinking, no matter what happens, I will always be Sheng Zhongtian’s son. I’m a little unfilial to him. Am I right?”

“I didn’t think that way. If the Father was not the Father, the son would naturally not be the son. I just can’t understand your actions.”

“Do you understand now?” Sheng nanxuan stood up and took a few steps forward, revealing his cold back. I grew up in a laboratory. I don’t understand that everyone should have parents. When the lab disappeared, they took me home and let me live a normal life.”

“You’re not their child?”

which parent do you think would use their child for an experiment? ”

Yu Qingliu was startled and nodded,”that’s true, Zhenzhen.”

“So they are not my parents.”

what do you mean by that? ” Yu Qingliu was dumbfounded.

“Shengzhongtian is my biological father.” Sheng nanxuan looked at him. my mother was also an experimental subject there.

“W-what?” Yu Qingliu was truly dumbfounded this time.

Shengzhongtian, that beast, actually touched the test subject?

“You were born in a laboratory?” he was shocked.

“Yes, Yingluo.”

they’re using pregnant women and children for experiments?! Yu Qingliu was burning with anger! What kind of heartless person would do such a thing!

they’ve done so many bad things, ” Sheng nanxuan said indifferently. it’s not like they’re short of this one.

“When did you come out of the lab?”

“Five years old. I’ve never lived in the normal world before, and people start to have memories around the age of five. In order to prevent my behavior from being abnormal and to prevent me from remembering the past, they hypnotized me and made me forget everything in the laboratory. Unfortunately, they didn’t know that I couldn’t be hypnotized because of the experiments they did. Before I was even born, they used drugs and electrocuted my mother, directly stimulating my brain. That’s why I started to have memories when I was a few months old, and all my senses were different from ordinary people.”

“They don’t know?”

“The old man in charge of recording my data found something unusual. He knew that once he reported it, I would have to accept more experiments. I had already been injected with other drugs to do other experiments. He didn’t have the heart to make my pain worse, so he didn’t report the abnormality of my brain waves. He also told me to hide my body’s feelings and not tell anyone.” Sheng nanxuan paused for a moment. by the way, Yingluo, that old man, has some conscience. In the end, I didn’t want to do any more experiments and wanted to leave. In the end, I was turned into an experimental subject.”

Yu Qingliu, ”shua shua shua shua.”

Chapter 480 leave no one alive

"I remember everything. I remember the crimes they committed. In order to keep it a secret, the people there could only enter and not leave. So I was thinking, why did they bring me home? At first, I didn't believe that they were my parents. I thought they were trying to prevent the secret of the laboratory from being leaked. Even though I don't understand why you didn't just kill me. But this way, I will definitely not develop feelings for them."

...

Yu Qingliu's grip on the can tightened, and the can was deformed.

He took a sip of his drink to ease the discomfort in his body and asked, "How many people are there?"

"I'm not sure," Sheng nanxuan said. "The test subjects all have numbers. I saw a person who came later, number 59. Other than me and him, the others are all dead. If there are only 59 test subjects, we can probably find around 50 sets of bones outside."

"What's the rest?"

"In the laboratory."

"Laboratory?"

Ka!

Sheng nanxuan crushed the bottle in his hand. "One day, they decided to destroy the laboratory and destroy all evidence. They designed an explosion in the laboratory. I got the news and escaped before the explosion. At that time, there were still a few experimental subjects in the laboratory, as well as the research staff. All of them had been killed by the explosion! Leave no evidence, no survivors!"

Yu Qingliu suddenly stood up, "they did this--"

“Isn’t that too much?” Sheng nanxuan smiled.

“It’s more than excessive!” Yu Qingliu’s anger was burning, and she threw the can in her hand on the ground.

Sheng nanxuan paused. don’t throw rubbish, ” he said. don’t throw rubbish.

Yu Qingliu was stunned and looked at him in disbelief. is this the main point?!

Right now, they were discussing the crimes of shengzhongtian and the others. What was a little bit of trash to them?

“Of course it is. It’s everyone’s responsibility to protect the environment. You’re a high-quality talent, so don’t be so uncultured.” After Sheng nanxuan finished speaking, he threw the can in his hand to his side. pick this up as well. Throw it away in the trash can.

Yu Qingliu was stunned as she watched him leave. “You have class? Don’t you also throw rubbish?”

Sheng nanxuan waved his hand, “I am younger than you.” Even God will forgive young people when they make mistakes.”

Yu Qingliu was so angry that she wanted to explode!

Why did he have to suffer so much when he met Sheng nanxuan?

Which part of him was old? Which part of him was old? He wasn’t even married! Those who were not married were all young! He was especially young! Unlike a certain someone who was already a father!

.....

Sheng nanxuan walked to Gambino's ward and saw a group of doctors examining him. He frowned and waited at the door.

After a while, Yu Qingliu arrived.

"What's wrong?" Yu Qingliu asked. What are you doing at the door?"

"I'm checking." Sheng nanxuan raised his chin.

Yu Qingliu walked in, and when the others saw her, they hurriedly called out, "Professor Yu! Quickly come and take a look!"

Yu Qingliu was shocked. She quickly walked to the side of the bed and opened Gambino's eyelids to take a look. She then did other examinations, and her expression suddenly became serious.

Gambino's men looked at him nervously.

"What's the matter?" Shan Rong asked. When is he going to wake up?"

I don't know. Yu Qingliu took a deep breath. let's observe him for a few more days.

"Still observing!" Shan Rong and Jason shouted at the same time.

"She might wake up later."

"What if he doesn't wake up in a few days?" Shan Rong asked.

"That means he's most likely in a vegetative state." Yu Qingliu answered seriously.

"A, a vegetable?"
