

Ditsy Wife 481

Chapter 481 You can come along

Yu Qingliu nodded, "Yingluo already looks like it." If he was in a vegetative state, he might wake up at any time, or he might not wake up for a lifetime. So we'll observe him for a few more days and judge according to his physical indicators. Then we'll know if he's-

...

"You quack!" Jason pounced on him and punched him to the ground.

how can you hit people?! Yu Xinran shouted and hurriedly helped her up. my uncle is the best doctor in the world!

"You're a quack if you can't cure my boss!" Another man behind Jason said.

This man was called Primo, and like Jason, he was a capable general under Gambino. However, he had been in Italy before and had just arrived today.

According to Sheng nanxuan's speculation, Gambino had left him in Italy when he was out. It was obvious that he had great trust in him. His ability was most likely above Jason's, and he could take charge of things on his own.

Primo had a cold temperament and looked more imposing than Jason.

He had just arrived and wasn't familiar with the people here. He rarely spoke, but at this moment, the moment he opened his mouth, it was loud and powerful. Everyone was choked by him and couldn't speak.

"Your boss is a God!" Yu Xinran shouted. This person was too overbearing!

Primo glanced at her with a murderous look.

Yu Xinran was shocked and hid behind Yu Qingliu.

“I told you, we should bring the BOSS back!” Primo looked at Jason. great. How are you going to explain this? ”

Jason’s lips moved, but he lowered his head and did not speak.

He was the one who didn’t protect his BOSS well, and he couldn’t absolve himself from the blame.

In addition, Primo had said from the start that he would bring Gambino back to his country. At that time, Gambino was still in danger. He had opposed it, afraid that something would happen on the way, but Primo had agreed.

In the morning, Primo had come over. Seeing that Gambino was out of danger, he said that he would take Gambino back to his country. He thought that since Gambino was out of danger, he might as well wait for him to wake up. Primo agreed again.

In the end, Primo went along with him twice, and the result was that he sent Gambino into a vegetative state!

Jason felt that this was all his fault! If he had listened to Primo in the beginning, things might not have ended up like this.

Seeing how remorseful he was, primogenitor snorted coldly and said to the others, ” “We’re bringing the BOSS back to China now!”

“You can’t!” Shan Rong shouted.

“You don’t need to care about our business!” Primogenitor looked at her with narrowed eyes.

Shan Rong was stunned. These people did not know that Gambino was her Gong hang, so they naturally would not listen to her.

“If he’s gone, what should I do?” she couldn’t help crying.

She could not bear to part with Gambino, she could not bear to part with Gong Xing.

Primo raised his eyebrows. The moment he arrived, he had seen Shan Rong here and thought that she was Gambino’s woman.

When Gambino was young, he had been a Playboy. Later, he had suffered a serious injury in China and became self-disciplined after he returned.

To be honest, everyone was worried that he had hurt his Foundation that time, which was why he didn’t get close to women or men!

However, Gambino had absolute authority, so no one dared to ask. After all, it would be better if he didn’t have a child. After he passed away, the position of boss wouldn’t be passed down to his son, and everyone would have a chance.

However,

Now that he saw Gambino with a woman, as his trusted aide, primogenitor was quite happy. Although it was a little surprising that this woman was Chinese, as long as she was a woman, it proved that Gambino’s body part was not injured, and she could still get married and have children!

Now that he heard Shan Rong’s question, he thought that she was reluctant to part with the glory and wealth that Gambino had given her, so he said, “ you can come with us. Boss needs your care too.

Chapter 482 Let’s return to the capital first

“F * ck!” Shan Rong was dumbfounded. She had never thought of going to Italy! Her daughter and grandson were all here, so why did she have to go to Italy?

Yu Qingliu asked, "back to which country?" Is your Italy medical technology as good as our Chinese medical technology?"

In this world, if China claimed to be second in medical technology, no one would dare to claim to be first! Many foreigners came to China for treatment when they were seriously ill or seriously injured. But now, they had abandoned the essentials and ran back to Italy. Italy was such a small place. How could there be any medical experts?

Hearing this, primogenitor could not help but frown.

The truth was the truth. China's medical skills were the best in the world, and Yu Qingliu's medical skills were also the best in the world. Logically speaking, Gambino should be staying here! However, now that Gambino was about to become a vegetable, it was inevitable that he would have a feeling of distrust towards the world's best!

"Why don't you transfer to another hospital first?" Sheng nanxuan suddenly said, "after all, the conditions here are not as good as those in the capital. Let's go back to the capital first.

Jason looked at primogenitor when he heard that.

what? "Primo gritted his teeth. why are you looking at me? "You're the one who's taking care of BOSS!"

Jason understood that he was not against it. He immediately said to the others, "Go and make some preparations."

"Then, Yueyue, shall we go back too?" Shan Rong asked Gong mo.

"I'm going back to the hotel to pack my things. Mother, are you going to stay here or ..." Gong mo nodded.

Shan Rong glanced at Gambino and said, "I'll be here, Yingluo."

"When are we leaving?" she asked Jason.

"My plane is here. Pack up and we'll leave together." Sheng nanxuan said.

Yu Qingliu also wanted to leave, so she called Yu Xinran, "don't worry about the interview over there. Don't stay here and get scared to death!"

Yu Xinran bit her lip and helplessly agreed.

She received a call from Gong Bai when she returned to the hotel.

"How are you doing now?" Gong Bai asked worriedly.

"It's fine, I'll be back soon."

"So fast?" Gong Bai was stunned. He thought that she would have to wait for a few days before she returned. He was just about to buy a plane ticket and return to Nanjiang to look for her.

"Yeah," Yu Xinran laughed. With professional reporters around, I won't stay and add to the mess."

"Then be careful on the road. What time is your flight? I'll pick you up."

Yu Xinran paused. It seemed that he didn't know that Gong mo was here. Should he say it?

She thought for a moment. I don't know what time it is yet. I'm taking a private plane.

Gong Bai paused for a moment. He thought it was the Yu family's private jet, but he was suddenly shocked.

Speaking of which, he was just a poor kid. She was startled and shocked, and the Yu family immediately sent a plane to pick her up. In comparison, even if he really liked her, he would not be able to pamper her like this in the future.

He restrained the bitterness in his heart and said, " "Alright, we'll talk about it when we get back."

"Yes." Yu Xinran agreed gently.

Not long after, Yu Qingliu came looking for her and called out, " "Let's go and eat!"

"Eat? Aren't we going to the airport?"

"You're not hungry?"

"I'm a little hungry, but we can't let them wait for us, can we?"

haha, "Yu Qingliu laughed coldly," who would wait for you? If you're hungry, so are the others! Sheng nanxuan was afraid that his wife would be hungry, so he asked everyone to have dinner first. Otherwise, why would I come to you?"

Yu Xinran had no choice but to go to the restaurant with him. On the way, she said enviously, " Gong mo is so blissful~"

Yu Qingliu put her hand on her shoulder and teased, " my dear niece, don't worry. You'll be as happy in the future too!

Yu Xinran blushed and flung his hand away. "You should learn from Sheng nanxuan so that you can find a wife to dote on!"

Chapter 483 I'm teasing you

"Who wants to learn from him?" Yu Qingliu said in disdain.

...

As they walked into the restaurant, they saw Gong mo and Sheng nanxuan sitting by the window. Fang Yang and the others were sitting next to them.

The two of them walked over. Yu Xinran wanted to greet them, but Yu Qingliu just sat down. She could only sit down and smile at Gong mo.

When Sheng nanxuan saw this, he said to Yu Qingliu, "There's still an empty seat next to it."

"Don't be so polite! The food will only be fragrant when everyone is eating together."

The waiter had already brought the menu over. Yu Qingliu flipped through the menu and quickly ordered.

"Sorry for the disturbance," Yu Xinran said, embarrassed.

"It's fine." Gong mo laughed. he's so busy eating that he doesn't even care about me. It's better if you're here to talk to him.

Sheng nanxuan raised his eyebrows. don't talk when you eat. Don't talk when you sleep.

Gong mo kicked him under the table. He tilted his body and looked down at the baby in the pram.

The child stomped his feet and stared at him, smiling.

He also smiled and reached out to touch his face.

“You’re awake?” Gong mo asked with a smile.

Sheng nanxuan picked her up. He held the child in one hand and ate with the other. The child was full of energy and reached out to grab the rice.

“Can I feed you?” he asked Yu Qingliu.

“Don’t do anything rash!” Gong mo hurriedly shouted.

“What did you feed him?” Yu Qingliu asked in horror.

“No!” Gong mo replied. Just drink milk!”

Yu Qingliu heaved a sigh of relief. don’t do anything stupid. This child is premature. You can’t feed her randomly. Even if you want to feed me porridge, you have to wait for two months. You are not allowed to feed me these things!”

“You think I don’t know?” Sheng nanxuan rolled his eyes.

“Then why did you ask?”

“I’m just teasing you ~”

“You ...” Yu Qingliu wanted to flip the table.

“Mind your image,” Yu Xinran coughed.

When Yu Qingliu saw the waiter bringing his and Yu Xinran’s food, she immediately sat up straight, acting like a gentleman.

After dinner, Sheng nanxuan and the others went to check on the car arrangements. Yu Xinran accompanied Gong mo back to his room and took the opportunity to ask, "Does your cousin not know you're here?"

"You've contacted him?" Gong mo asked.

"Yeah, we're friends," Yu Xinran replied awkwardly.

"Friends?" Gong mo asked with an ambiguous look.

"Ah, we're just ordinary friends!" Yu Xinran blushed. he just said that he wanted to pick me up and asked me what time my flight would be.

nine or ten O'clock. I can't tell now. We'll know when we get on the plane. Can you give him a call then?"

"I'm not talking to you anymore!" Yu Xinran ran back to her room with a red face.

She understood what Gong mo meant. He meant that she could tell Gong Bai what they had been doing here.

She called Gong Bai and explained the situation to him.

"Why are they back in Nanjiang?" Gong Bai was puzzled. Is it because of the Sheng family?"

"I'm not too sure either, but Gambino is injured. Everyone is rushing back tonight to send him to the capital."

"I see, Yingluo. When will you arrive?"

Yu Xinran heard that he didn't mention picking her up again, so she guessed that he wouldn't come. She said, "I'll hang up first, I have to go to the airport."

.....

The plane landed at nine O'clock.

Woriless hospital's ambulance had arrived a long time ago. They pushed Gambino into the ambulance and sent him to the hospital immediately. Jason and primogenitor left with their men, Yu Qingliu with the doctor, and followed the ambulance.

As for the others, they went straight home.

As soon as he entered the house, Gong mo asked the nanny to make supper and then went to settle the children.

Shan Rong followed him into the nursery room and looked at the child absent-mindedly.

don't worry, mom," Gong mo consoled. we'll visit him tomorrow.

Chapter 484 That was the news released by shengzhongtian and the others

"I'm not worried. He's no longer in danger, what do I have to worry about?" Shan Rong said uncomfortably, "I just feel that God is too much. He let him fall asleep in the blink of an eye. What if he doesn't wake up for the rest of his life? If I had known this would happen, I wouldn't have known that he was your father!"

"Then we can think from another direction: Since you know about it, he won't let you have any regrets. He'll definitely wake up."

Shan Rong paused, not wanting her to worry about her, so she continued, "You're right. He might wake up tomorrow."

that's right! Gong mo chuckled. let's go out for supper.

She walked into the living room and saw Sheng nanxuan sitting on the sofa watching the evening news.

Gong mo was about to invite him to the dining room when he heard the news about shengshi medicine on the TV.

She immediately walked over, and dan Rong followed.

Every day at 7 p.m., The National television would broadcast for half an hour, and this was the time for the replay.

To be able to make it to the news, it meant that this matter was serious to a certain extent.

as of the deadline, 33 human skeletons have been excavated at the scene. The excavation is currently in progress, "

This piece of news didn't take a long time and ended very quickly.

Gong mo picked up his phone and checked the latest news on the internet.

There were no new official figures, and everyone was condemning the Sheng family and shengshi pharmaceuticals. Many people were calling for a boycott of shengshi pharmaceuticals 'products.

However, shengshi medical company had several patented drugs and had even developed a widely used injection that had benefited many patients. He was afraid that he could not resist it. If they boycotted it, were they going to ask the patient not to treat it?

The nanny had already prepared supper. Seeing that they were all in the living room, she had no choice but to bring it to them.

After dan Rong finished eating, she went back to her room. Seeing that they still wanted to continue watching television, she instructed, "Sleep early."

Gong mo nodded. Sheng nanxuan picked up the remote control and lowered the volume of the TV.

Gong mo looked at his phone and said, " the internet said that there was an explosion 19 years ago. It must have been leaked by the locals.

"Aren't you a local too?" Sheng nanxuan laughed.

"How old was I then?" She pouted.

Sheng nanxuan placed his hand on the sofa behind her and scratched her neck.

She turned her head to look and moved to his side with a smile.

He reached out and wrapped his arms around her, pulling her into his embrace.

Gong mo shifted his body to a comfortable position so that he could also see the contents of the phone.

"I remember that when I was in primary school, it was abandoned there. Many boys went there to play, and some girls went there too. That kind of place, just thinking about it makes me feel that it's dangerous. I often hear parents scare their children, saying that there are ghosts or something." Gong mo paused for a moment and said in a low voice, " my mom even scared me. She said that there's nuclear radiation there and I'll turn into a monster if I go in.

"Nuclear radiation?" Sheng nanxuan could not help but laugh.

Gong mo looked at him with dissatisfaction and said, "what are you laughing at?" My mom doesn't understand. However, it seems that everyone thinks that there is something contagious there that can cause people to get sick and poisoned."

"That's the news that Sheng Zhongtian and the others released," Sheng nanxuan sneered.

"Why?" Gong mo asked in surprise.

"The Sheng family rented that land from the government. The government wanted to reclaim the land and sell it to the real estate developers. However, there were so many corpses buried there. If he were to sell them, they would be discovered very quickly. That was why they spread the news and scared the real estate developers. When no one was interested in that piece of land, they bought it from the government at a low price and used it to grow herbs. Two years ago, they wanted to expand their business to Beijing and leave Nanjiang, but they were also thinking about selling the land."

Chapter 485 Hypnotize me again

"They're not afraid of being discovered now?"

...

"That piece of land can't be in their hands forever. There will be a day when it will change owners. If they wanted to keep the secret, they had to think of a way. They had spent more than ten years to turn that piece of land into an ecological garden of medicinal herbs. Nowadays, most of the people who wanted that land wanted to use this advantage to do ecosystem tourism. They would definitely choose among these people. If they started ecosystem tourism, the land would not be affected for at least 10 to 20 years. As for the future? They're planning to go to Beijing now, and they might even move abroad in the future. By then, they'll be completely safe."

"This is too much!" Gong mo said in dissatisfaction.

Sheng nanxuan patted her head. don't be angry. Don't be angry at Yingluo. Anyway, their plan has been ruined.

“Good bath!”

Sheng nanxuan raised his eyebrows and said, ‘I don’t think that’s a good idea. He’s your ex-boyfriend, Yingluo!’

Gong mo froze for a moment and turned around to look at him with a guilty look. “Do you mind, Yingluo?”

“Should I not mind?”

I didn’t do it on purpose, ” Gong mo said in a low voice as he tugged at his sleeve carefully. if you didn’t make me lose my memory, I wouldn’t have fallen for someone else!

“You like it?” Sheng nanxuan’s eyes narrowed dangerously.

ah ... Gong mo was shocked and hurriedly waved his hands. no, no, -was obsessed with his money. I didn’t really like him! When he pursued me, I had never been in a relationship. Seeing that he was tall, rich, and handsome, I couldn’t help but be a little tempted. You have to know that an inexperienced little girl can’t resist a man’s pursuit! Back then, you didn’t even act cool with me, nor did you smash me with your hands. Instead, you tortured me with my homework every day, and even then, I was conquered by you!”

“You mean ... I’m not good to you, but he’s good to you?”

Gong mo was stunned and asked gloomily, “what do you want?” Then you can punish me! It’s my fault, I shouldn’t have dated other people. I regret it so much, I wish that nothing ever happened, Yingluo!”

Sheng nanxuan hugged her tightly and said in a low voice, ” “You’re not wrong, it’s my fault.”

that’s right, that’s right! Gong mo seized the opportunity. it’s all your fault!

Sheng nanxuan narrowed his eyes and nibbled on her face. “You’re insatiable, aren’t you?”

Gong mo laughed and hugged him. He kissed him on the chin and said, " don't be angry! You're not handsome when you're angry!

Sheng nanxuan rolled his eyes at her. are you shouting at a child? "

"Can you please your husband?"

Sheng nanxuan was overjoyed when he heard that, but he deliberately put on a stern face. "I'll forgive you this time!"

"There won't be a next time," Gong mo stuck out his tongue.

Sheng nanxuan was stunned. He looked at her helplessly and indulgently."You ah Yiyi"

"Why don't you hypnotize me again so that I can forget him?" Gong mo whispered.

"Are you addicted to hypnosis?" Sheng nanxuan called out.

"You've already hypnotized me several times, what right do you have to say such things? Besides, you're the one I like in my heart. If you didn't hypnotize me, why would I date someone I hate?"

"Didn't you say that your memories are your life? If I want your life, I'm afraid you'll risk your life!"

I was the one who didn't want it, "Gong mo mumbled. He suddenly asked," he did it on purpose, right? " I remember meeting him when I went to your house on your birthday."

"It's good you know. He's an ambitious man. You don't have anything, so why would he pursue you? His previous girlfriend was Ding Yuan's daughter, who could give him great help! He's wooing you to be his girlfriend so that one day, he can plot Against Me!"

Chapter 486 Diagnosis result: in a vegetative state

Sheng nanxuan was very narrow-minded. He was afraid that Sheng Dongyi would leave a mark on her heart, so he seized the opportunity to smear his reputation.

...

Gong mo naturally believed his words. He frowned and said, "It's so disgusting to think about it now! I actually went on a date with him and held his hand or something. How disgusting! I don't like him at all!"

"You didn't like him when you were dating him?"

Gong mo was taken aback. He whispered, " maybe he did like her back then, but now he doesn't like her anymore. He only hates her now. I think he was stupid back then!

"You're an idiot!"

you ... Gong mo was displeased. do you still like silly people? "

"I can't help it, I'm too smart. No matter how different your IQs are, you mortals are all the same in my eyes."

"....."

"They're all zero!"

ah! Gong mo hit him angrily.

Alright, alright, Yingluo. Sheng nanxuan grabbed her hand and turned off the TV. go back to your room and sleep!

Gong mo followed her obediently and asked, "Are you going to help her hypnotize or not?"

"I'll hypnotize you after he's dead!"

"Ah? Why?"

"In case you bump into him one day and run into him again!"

"....."

oh, oh, oh. Sheng nanxuan rubbed her head. it's my fault. You're already stupid enough. If I make you forget something, won't it make you more stupid?"

"Who are you calling stupid!" Gong mo protested in a low voice.

However, on second thought, she was indeed quite stupid.

When Sheng Dongyi had first started to pursue her, he had asked her, "Do you still remember me?"

She thought that he was trying to hit on her and didn't take it to heart. She even laughed in her heart. What an old-fashioned method.

When he introduced himself as Sheng Dongyi, he had been staring at her. He must have been waiting to see her reaction. If she had not been hypnotized by Sheng nanxuan, she would have known who he was just by hearing those two words.

After they started dating, he had mentioned Sheng nanxuan a few times and observed her reaction. However, she was completely at a loss.

Sheng Dongyi probably thought she was acting. So he played along with her?

She suddenly felt that she was very pitiful.

It was the two brothers fighting, and he didn't know what had happened.

Fortunately, nothing irredeemable happened.

Sigh, let's not think about that. It's useless to think about it. As long as she was happy now!

.....

Gong mo and dan Rong walked into the ward and saw Yu Qingliu, Jason, primogenitor, and the others gathered around the bed.

They walked over and saw that Gambino was lying on the bed with his eyes open.

"He's awake?!" Shan Rong was delighted.

"Don't touch him." Yu Qingliu said.

Shan Rong was stunned. She looked at Gambino and realized that his eyes were not focused. Although it turned a little, it did not seem to see anything.

Yu Qingliu checked for a long time before sighing. diagnosis result: he is in a vegetative state!

Shan Rong's body swayed, unable to accept it. "Didn't he wake up? How can you say that?"

“People in a vegetative state will open their eyes. but he’s unconscious. What he sees won’t enter his brain through the optic nerves, and he can’t speak. Yu Qingliu pointed at the brainwave monitor. look at his brainwaves, they’re scattered.

“Then what do we do?” Shan Rong muttered.

“Don’t despair yet! In order to enter a vegetative state, the corresponding treatment method had to be activated. The next six months would be a crucial period, especially the first three months. The further he advanced, the weaker his perception would be, and the smaller the chances of him awakening. So from now on, all you and your friends have to do is chat with him. He can hear you.”

Chapter 487 The whole world was shocked

Yu Qingliu returned home after an operation and found that the whole family was there except for him.

“What are you guys doing?” he was startled.

Was he going to force him into marriage again?

His parents, eldest brother and eldest sister-in-law were all looking at him with heavy gazes, making him feel very pressured.

Yu Xinran gave him a look, but he didn’t understand.

Yu Qingliu called for the maid to bring him food as he sat down beside Yu Xinran. He watched the TV and said, “Country x came to our place to cheat us of food and drinks again, Yingluo”

The servant brought him a bowl of noodles with a variety of side dishes. He had just taken two bites when the host on the TV changed his tone and said, “ we’ve found 49 skeletons in the shengshi medical herb garden in Nanjiang city. At present, shengshi medical company was undergoing multiple investigations, but they could not confirm that the appearance of the skeleton was due to human experiments. Sheng Zhongtian, the head of shengshi medical company, Liu Xuelan, the head of the R & d Center, and the eldest son of the two, Sheng Dongyi, are currently on the run.”

Yu Qingliu raised her head, and her gaze swept past Yu Zhengming, Wu surong, and Yu Qingping. She finally understood why everyone was waiting for her.

I knew it! How could he be that important? It wasn't like he had just decided not to get married today. Everyone was already used to it, so there was no way they would wait for him here!

The only person who could gather everyone here was his second sister.

Yu Qingliu put down her bowl and sighed, ” “I know what you're thinking.”

then why didn't you tell me when you came back yesterday?! Yu Zhengming roared.

“Because I don't want second sister to be in that pile of bones!” Yu Qingliu said sternly, ” I hope she's alive, Yingluo. Even if we can't find her, I hope she's alive!

“I hope so too,” Yu Qingping said. However, she had been missing for so many years, and the odds were against her. If she's no longer alive, we can't let her become a wandering ghost, can we?”

Wu surong sobbed,“I don't want her to be there either. If Yingluo was there, I don't dare to think about what happened to her!” But no matter what, there's a possibility that she's there, so we have to find a way to confirm it. ”

“Mom, don't cry.” Yu Qingliu advised, ” after the bones are excavated, the relevant Department will definitely do a DNA test and let their relatives claim them. Tomorrow, you and dad will go and do a DNA test. When they start the test, we'll give priority to your DNA for comparison. Regardless of whether qinghuan is there or not, the sooner we find out the truth, the sooner we can be at ease.”

The next day, the police reported that, after many investigations, the location where the bones were buried in the shengshi herb garden was the first place to be found. At present, the excavation work had been completed, and a total of 51 skeletons had been excavated. The skeleton has been handed over to the relevant Department for examination to find the cause of death to restore the truth of the “corpse pit.” DNA examination to determine the identity of the deceased.

In addition, not far from the “corpse pit” were several factory buildings that exploded in 2019. The police found a hidden laboratory under the factory. There had been an explosion in the laboratory, and there were bones inside. Judging from the shape of the skeleton, the person was still alive when the explosion occurred.

The police found a lot of evidence in the laboratory, which initially proved that shengshi medical company was indeed conducting human experiments. Most of these people were alive.

The whole world was shocked!

The foreign media also made the news headlines, and countless international media rushed into Nanjiang to investigate the truth.

Chapter 488 DNA test

Sheng nanxuan brought Gong mo into the National DNA testing center and took their blood samples.

Only through DNA comparison would they be able to find the pair that belonged to Wu Huan and Gong hang among the 51 skeletons.

how long will it take for the results to be out?” Sheng nanxuan asked after the blood was drawn.

The staff said, “ the forensic team will first clean up the bones and then determine the cause of death. The blood identification will be left for the last step. The initial estimate is that it will take at least a month.

then let me know as soon as you get the results.

“Alright,” he said.

“By the way, other than us, is there anyone else who came to do the relationship test?” Sheng nanxuan asked the person in charge of the testing center.

uh, hehe. the person in charge was stunned and looked away uncomfortably.

Sheng nanxuan’s eyes narrowed.

“You, how did you know?” The person in charge was shocked.

Sheng nanxuan did not answer. Instead, he asked, “Is it Mr. And Mrs. Yu?”

“Y-yes,” The Yu family was the richest family in China, so it was reasonable for him to keep it a secret. But the person in front of him was the night God. He thought about it and decided to take the night God first.

“When my DNA results are out, please do a comparison with Mr. And Mrs. Yu’s,” night God said.

“W-what?” The person-in-charge’s eyes widened in surprise.

Gong mo also looked at Sheng nanxuan in surprise.

To make a comparison was to do a blood relationship test. What he meant was, Yingluo

“You have to keep this a secret, okay?” Sheng nanxuan patted the person-in-charge’s shoulder. let me know immediately when the results are out!

He turned around and held Gong Mo's hand. Then, he left the laboratory Department with her.

He drove here by himself. After he got into the car, Gong mo asked, "You want to do a DNA test with Mr. And Mrs. Yu?"

Sheng nanxuan nodded. He bent down to help her fasten her seat belt, but did not start the car. "Didn't I tell you before? My mother's name is Wu Huan, and the missing daughter of the two elders of the Yu family is Yu qinghuan! Yu qinghuan had gone to Nanjiang to investigate as a reporter, but with her surname Yu and the fact that she came from the capital, it was easy for people to guess her identity, so she had most likely used a fake name. And old Madam Yu's surname is Wu. If she changed her name to Wu Huan, it's very reasonable, right?"

Gong mo nodded his head in disbelief.

and in terms of time, their appearances did not overlap.

"So you might be elder Yu's grandson?" Gong mo said in surprise.

"It's just a suspicion."

"But you've been suspecting this for a long time, right? You brought me to the Yu family's charity dinner last year and said that you found your mother's family, which might be related to the Wu family, Yingluo."

Sheng nanxuan nodded and reached out to touch her face. "I'm glad you still remember."

"How come I don't remember anything about you?" as long as you don't try to hypnotize me and make me forget! Gong mochen retorted angrily.

"I won't dare to let you forget it again, okay?"

Gong mo felt embarrassed when he heard his father's submissive tone. He held his father's hand and said gently, "if Mr. And Mrs. Yu are related to you, you'll have your own family and won't be alone anymore.

"I'm not alone now. There's you, the child, and mom." Sheng nanxuan looked at her gently.

Tears welled up in Gong Mo's eyes as he nodded.

however, if it really is the Yu family, then I've settled one thing and don't have to continue searching.

"If they knew that you're their grandson, they would be overjoyed!" Gong mo smiled.

Chapter 489 The press conference

but this means that their daughter will die a tragic death in the laboratory. Sheng nanxuan paused for a moment. and was ***** by Sheng Zhongtian. I can't imagine how many brutal things happened in between."

...

Gong mo knew that he wasn't talking about the daughter of the Yu family's two elders, but his biological mother.

If Yu qinghuan wasn't Wu Huan, it meant that she didn't have to go through such a tragic experience.

However, Wu Huan was afraid that no matter who she was, there was no way to change what had happened to her.

She held Sheng nanxuan's hand. at least she doesn't have to stay in that dark place anymore. You can bury her. We can go and pay our respects to her.

Sheng nanxuan nodded and said, "you're right." She definitely can't let go of me. She'll be at ease when she sees the happiness you've brought me."

There were many demonstrations around the world, demanding that China ban the drugs developed by shengshi medicine.

President Huo Cheng issued a comment on this: " using human bodies for research and development experiments is a serious violation of humanitarianism and relevant UN Regulations. The cause and effect of this matter must be strictly investigated. The personnel involved must be dealt with seriously. Relevant departments must be reminded to pay attention and investigate other medical pharmaceutical companies to prevent similar incidents from happening.

Congress held an emergency press conference to answer questions about this matter and said, " At present, all hospitals and pharmacies had been arranged to take down the drugs produced by shengshi pharmaceuticals. All the products would be destroyed.

Sheng nanxuan returned home after work and turned on the TV. He happened to see a reporter asking, " "Shengshi pharmaceutical's products can be taken off the shelves and destroyed, but what about the research and development results of shengshi pharmaceutical? Would the country's Scientific Research Center use it? Will the other pharmaceutical companies produce new products, repackage them, and bring them to the world?"

"The research results of shengshi medicine have been sealed! The more important drugs that glory World Medical company had developed were all at least ten years old. In the past ten years, China's medical technology has made great progress. All of shengshi Medicine's products, whether in the market or in the laboratory, have long been replaced, so the situation you're talking about won't happen." The spokesperson said.

Gong mo walked out of the nursery room with the baby in his arms.

"Did you just wake up?" he asked.

“Yup, I know. If you had come back earlier, you could have changed his diaper.” Gong mo sat down on the sofa.

“Then I’ll come back early tomorrow.” Sheng nanxuan smiled and sat beside her, hugging her.

“Hold the baby properly!” Gong mo pushed him.

“He only needs one hand.” Sheng nanxuan held the child in his right hand and kissed him on the forehead.

hehehehe, ” the child was so excited that he laughed loudly.

Sheng nanxuan put his arm around Gong Mo’s shoulder and asked proudly, ” “See, there’s no problem, right?”

Gong mo rolled his eyes at him and continued watching the TV.

At this time, another reporter asked, “Sheng Zhongtian, his wife, and Sheng Dongyi have fled for fear of punishment, but the other person of the Sheng family, Sheng nanxuan, is in the capital!” According to our sources, Sheng nanxuan is the second son of Sheng Zhongtian and his wife, and the younger brother of Sheng Dongyi. He’s also a key figure in shengshi pharmaceuticals. Has the police arrested him?”

Although many people knew that Sheng nanxuan had been kicked out of Sheng Zhongtian’s house, this reporter also knew. But in such a situation, who cared if his family was harmonious or not?

He was Sheng Zhongtian’s son, this was an undeniable fact! As long as the truth existed, he would be suspected!

Furthermore, they were chased out of the family last year, and this year, shengshi pharmaceuticals suffered the same devastating blow. Everyone had reason to suspect that the Sheng family had already anticipated today’s situation, so they deliberately expelled Sheng nanxuan so that he would not be suspected by the police, and to preserve the spark of revolution.

Chapter 490 Sheng nanxuan, control your son!

“Since you’ve asked, let’s focus on Sheng nanxuan’s question.” The spokesperson calmly and wisely answered the reporter’s question, “according to preliminary investigations, shengshi pharmaceuticals conducted experiments on human bodies before the explosion 19 years ago. The explosion caused them to stop the experiment, or it was possible that they wanted to stop the experiment, so they created the explosion. This was because the new shengshi Medical Research and Development Center no longer had any traces of human experiments.

When the explosion happened, Sheng nanxuan was only five years old. He couldn’t have been involved in the project. And according to our investigation, there was no Sheng nanxuan in the Sheng family before the explosion! Sheng nanxuan was adopted by the Sheng Zhongtian couple after the explosion. The Nanjiang police station has the document they signed when they adopted her. You can go and take a look.

Moreover, Sheng nanxuan has already submitted his DNA data to the skeleton testing center. His relatives should be in the middle of the buried bones.”

Gong mo leaned into Sheng nanxuan’s arms and held his hand tightly.

He didn’t want people to think he was a monster, so he didn’t tell the police that he had been in the lab. The police thought that he was the victim’s child, and the Sheng Zhongtian couple adopted him because of guilt or confidentiality.

On the television, the reporter continued to ask, “you just said that the new shengshi Medical Research and Development Center has no traces of human experiments!” However, according to the investigation results disclosed by the police, there are still two floors of secret laboratories under the new R & d Center. How do you explain this?”

The spokesperson was silent for a moment before he said, “they are purifying the drugs there.”

The people below were shocked, so was Gong mo.

Drugs, this was also a crime that could be shot!

The Sheng family had done too many bad things to be recorded!

Sheng nanxuan picked up the remote control and turned off the TV.

Gong mo turned around and looked at him in confusion. "Phone call."

Gong mo realized that his phone was vibrating and ringing.

"Take it out," He said.

Gong mosheng reached out his hand and pulled her clothes off. As soon as he put his hand in, he suddenly kissed her on the forehead.

Gong mo raised his head and glared at him.

He smiled ambiguously and said, "wifey, you're so proactive?."

Gong mo pulled his hand out and stuffed the phone into his hand. He glared at him and said, "I'll answer your call!"

"Keke, Keke, Keke." The child looked at them and laughed.

Gong mo carried him over and said, "what are you laughing at?" Do you understand?"

Gong mo reached out his hand. He grabbed her index finger and put it into his mouth.

“You only know how to eat.” Gong mo said in a low voice and pulled his hand back to prevent him from eating.

The child hugged her fingers and did not let go. He kept exerting strength and tried hard to put it into his mouth.

Sheng nanxuan was on the phone. Gong mo only heard him say “ okay, ” “ I got it, ” and then hung up.

She looked at him. it’s the laboratory Department, ” he said. our test data is out.

“Then can we compare Yingluo?” Gong mo couldn’t help but feel nervous.

Sheng nanxuan nodded and put his finger in the child’s other hand.

The child grabbed his hand and stuffed it into his mouth. When he saw that he didn’t object, he immediately let go of Gong Mo’s hand. Then, he held Sheng nanxuan’s hand with both hands and stuffed it into his mouth.

Sheng nanxuan felt a wet and sticky feeling on his fingertips. He looked down and ignored him.

Gong mo wanted to move his hand away, but the child suddenly kicked her in the chest!

ouch! Gong mo cried out in pain. He clutched his chest and collapsed on the sofa. Sheng nanxuan! Take care of your son!”
