

Ditsy Wife 571

Chapter 571 The president invites you

“Did I tie you up? Didn’t you walk over on your own!”

...

“Yingluo, you’re trying to tempt me!” Yu Qingliu complained.

“That’s your own will.”

“But I regret it now! If the higher-ups want to convict me, don’t blame me for betraying you!”

“Yu qinghuan.” Sheng nanxuan said coldly.

“What?” Yu Qingliu looked at him in confusion and dissatisfaction. What right did he have to say his sister’s name!

I helped you find Yu qinghuan, “Sheng nanxuan said. shouldn’t you be thanking me?”

tsk! Yu Qingliu laughed coldly. she’s not my sister!

“Yes!” Sheng nanxuan said with certainty.

“No!” Yu Qingliu firmly denied.

“Yes!”

“No!”

“.....”

“If I say no, then no! You don’t even know her, so what right do you have to say she is?”

Sheng nanxuan was silent for a moment before he said in a suppressed voice, “ “She’s my mother.”

f * ck you ... Yu Qingliu was stunned. He suddenly realized what he meant and looked at him in surprise.

The driver and Fang Yang were also shocked. The driver almost drove the car to the lawn. Fang Yang turned around and glanced at Sheng nanxuan.

Yu Qingliu grabbed Sheng nanxuan’s collar and asked fiercely, “ “What did you just say? What the f * ck did you just say?”

Sheng nanxuan reached out and grabbed his collar. Yu Qingliu shouted, “ “What do you mean by that? Speak!”

The car stopped slowly. Sheng nanxuan looked outside. Several black cars were parked outside the gate. Two tall men stood beside the leading car.

The man was wearing a three-piece black suit and sunglasses. It’s hot in the summer, yet you don’t mind it.

“It’s not a good time to talk about it now.” He said to Yu Qingliu.

“Then make it short!” Yu Qingliu gritted her teeth.

Sheng nanxuan paused. His uncle told him to cut to the chase, so he had to obey. "I'm your nephew. I've compared the data left by the two elders at the DNA Center, and they're my grandfather and grandson. As for the rest, we'll talk about it later."

Knock, knock.

A voice came from the window.

Sheng nanxuan turned around. Two secret agents were already standing outside the door. He had no choice but to get out of the car.

Yu Qingliu's face was blank. She got out of the car and looked at Sheng nanxuan in disbelief.

Mr. Sheng, Mr. Yu, " one of the agents said, " thank you for your trouble. The president has invited you in.

Sheng nanxuan chuckled. there was an earthquake just now. Instead of dealing with the disaster, the president invited a nobody like me. Don't you think that you can't distinguish the severity of the situation? "

The agent smiled without changing his expression. Mr. Sheng, you're not a nobody. The entire capital knows about the night God. He's going to surpass the president soon.

Sheng nanxuan was silent for two seconds before he walked towards the car in front.

BOSS! Fang Yang called out nervously.

"I'm fine." Sheng nanxuan got into the agent's car.

The agent then invited Yu Qingliu, who said, " "I'm a nobody!"

“Professor Yu, you’re not.” The agent smiled. professor Yu, you’ve brought glory to our country many times in the medical field. The previous president even awarded you a medal.

Yu Qingliu snorted and got into the car.

Of course, he would go. At least, he had to find out if Sheng nanxuan was telling the truth!

.....

The President’s House had red walls and yellow tiles. It was called ” chijin Palace “.

Opposite chijin Palace was the parliament building. The two buildings looked at each other from a distance, separated by the president Road.

There were soldiers standing guard on the road, and the car slowed down in this area, slowly driving to the small square in front of chijin Palace.

Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu got out of the car and walked in under the lead of the agent.

Chapter 572 Forgive me for not being able to accept this

They walked into a room on the second floor and recognized it as the president’s guest room.

On the news broadcast every day, the people often saw the president meeting foreign guests here.

Although the presidential palace was spacious, every room had a specific purpose. There was a large and a small reception room each. If the president didn't choose the large one, he would choose the small one or bring it into his office.

Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu were not allowed to enter the office, so they could only meet in this small reception room.

The two of them sat down. A beautiful female secretary served them coffee, and then they were the only ones left.

Neither of them spoke.

Yu Qingliu knew that this place was being watched. Even if he had a thousand words in his heart, he couldn't say them here.

After waiting for more than half an hour, a voice came from outside.

Yu Qingliu stood up, but Sheng nanxuan did not move.

Yu Qingliu froze for a moment, then sat back down. They were a team, so of course they had to act in unison!

Sheng nanxuan looked lazily at the door. The door was pushed open and Huo Cheng walked in, surrounded by several people.

Only then did Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu stand up.

"Have a seat." Huo Cheng said indifferently.

Sheng nanxuan sized him up and greeted him indifferently. "Hello, President."

Huo Cheng didn't answer and sat down opposite them. A few agents stood around the house.

Sheng nanxuan sat back down and crossed his legs naturally.

Yu Qingliu followed suit and crossed her legs. He didn't want to be so arrogant in front of the president, but with someone as a role model, he wouldn't be polite.

Huo Cheng frowned in displeasure.

"Do the two of you know why I've asked you to come?" Huo Cheng said coldly.

is it because of the FARC? " Sheng nanxuan laughed.

"You know?" Huo Cheng laughed. then why don't you tell me why you did it? "

"No reason. I'm just trying to save my friend."

"A foreigner. Is he your friend?" he asked. Huo Cheng looked at him with a faint smile. Sheng nanxuan. That's a military base. If you do this, I have reason to suspect you of treason!"

"I'm naturally very patriotic." Sheng nanxuan smiled.

"I can't tell." Huo Cheng looked at him with a faint smile. everything you've done is treason.

if the president is referring to the crime I published on the overseas website, I can't accept it! Sheng nanxuan said seriously, " the actions of the SSC are the real treason! Not only is he betraying his country, he's betraying all of humanity!"

Huo Cheng paused and said,"Sheng nanxuan." You're not a fool, you should know what it means for the FARC to be established in that place! You didn't even say a word before you went on a foreign website.

You've hurt the interests of the entire China! The whole world is condemning China now, what do you think you're after?"

"If I say that I have a clear conscience, are you going to laugh at me?"

As expected, Huo Cheng laughed at him and did not waste any more time. Instead, he looked at Yu Qingliu and said, Mr. Yu, you've been running around the world all these years. Do I have reason to suspect that you've joined a government organization in another country?!

Yu Qingliu's face darkened and she said coldly, "President, I can't accept this!" Everyone knows that I've only joined medical organizations overseas, and none of them are political! I've been working for the International doctors organization for so many years, and I've brought a lot of positive images to China! President, aren't you afraid that the Wanderer who's fighting for China in a foreign country will be disappointed?"

Huo Cheng took a deep breath. He was naturally unwilling to accept such suspicion and criticism. If word got out, his image in the hearts of the people would be affected.

Chapter 573 Threat

He cursed in his heart, "you refuse a toast only to drink a forfeit." He raised his watch to look at the time and coldly said, "

"Alright, I don't have time to waste with you. Let's clarify this matter publicly. Especially you, Sheng nanxuan! You're a member of the Sheng family. You had nothing to do with shengshi pharmaceuticals 'experiments, and everyone has let you off. But if you insist on letting the FARC surface, you can only take the blame!

At 6 p.m., I'll have someone announce you as the current leader of the SSC, including your identity and actions as the night God. At that time, you will need to cooperate with the police and put on a show to show that you have been arrested. But don't worry, all of this is fake. When the matter with the FARC is settled, I will give you the reward you deserve."

“How do you plan to solve this?” Sheng nanxuan looked at him coldly. you’re putting on an act to deceive the world and continue your research in another place? ”

Huo Cheng was silent for a moment before he said fiercely, ” “You have no idea how important those experiments are! That would increase the strength of China, but you made him public. You’ve already committed the crime of leaking secrets!”

I don’t think those experiments are important. Yu Qingliu said, ” I’ve already seen a lot of documents related to the experiment. Those experiments, every single one of them is against humanity!

Huo Cheng looked up at him and coldly said, ” the first person to dissect a corpse is also considered to be against humanity, but he has made the medical world develop qualitatively.

“That’s different.”

“What’s the Difference?”

“That is the truth! You’re evil!” Yu Qingliu said.

Huo Cheng left, but the agents didn’t.

Yu Qingliu couldn’t care less. She hurriedly asked Sheng nanxuan, ” “What do we do?”

Sheng nanxuan thought for a while and said,’wait until six in the afternoon? I’m not sure if lunch is provided, but I’m a little hungry.”

Yu Qingliu was speechless. Looking at the clock on the wall, it was already 12 o’clock. She couldn’t help but say, ” “I’m also hungry.”

.....

Happy Garden.

Gong mo and the others were having lunch.

Shan Rong picked up the red braised meat and placed it in Gambino's bowl. "Quickly eat! You used to love to eat this. You haven't had it for so many years, you miss it, don't you?"

"I really do." Gambino put the red braised meat into his mouth and chewed slowly, savoring the taste.

"It's even better than before," he said with a smile after he finished.

"Nonsense! I trained for another twenty years!" Shan Rong said, Momo loves to eat too! She didn't touch any other fat meat, but she could still eat a few pieces of red braised meat. What can I do? We can't let her be picky with her food, can we?"

mom ... Gong mo said in embarrassment.

Gambino hesitated for a moment before picking up a piece of red braised meat and placing it in her bowl. His hands were trembling.

Gong mo looked at him awkwardly. He was also very embarrassed and said nervously, "When I left, you still didn't know how to use chopsticks. I've never given you any food, Yingluo."

Shan Rong looked at Gong mo. Gong mo said, "what's the point of saying this? ran ran, hurry and eat."

She picked up the bowl, looked at the bright red braised meat, and slowly put it in her mouth.

After she finished eating, she gave Gambino a piece as well.

Gambino laughed and said excitedly, "I didn't treat you mother and son well in the past. I'll make up for it in the future."

Chapter 574 The ashes were broken

"She has someone who's good to her now. Why would she need you?" Shan Rong said with a smile.

Hearing this, Gong mo couldn't help but say, "you want dad to treat you well, right?" Don't worry, I won't snatch it from you."

Shan Rong's face turned red, "what nonsense are you saying?" Quickly eat!"

She said to Gambino, "don't just eat braised pork, eat some vegetables too. This bean pod was Made by Momo. She doesn't really know how to cook, but she's good at vegetarian food."

Gong mo was embarrassed, "I just didn't have the time to learn it."

Before she went to university, she had been busy with her studies. Dan Rong usually did not ask her to cook. In the kitchen, she would at most wash, cut, and wash the vegetables. Cooking was only an occasional task. Although he was studying in Nanjiang, the school was far from home. He usually stayed on campus and only went home on weekends. On the two days that she was home, dan Rong was afraid that she did not eat well in school, so she took the initiative to make good food for her. After marriage, she was immediately doted on by Sheng nanxuan.

All in all, she had no time to learn these things.

In other words, everything was fine for her, except for the fact that she had no father since she was young. Now, even her father was back.

Her father had also come back to dote on her!

“There’s no need to learn,” Gambino said. I didn’t want you to suffer from the moment you were born. At that time, I thought that I would pamper you well in the future, and when you grew up, I would carefully choose a husband who would continue to pamper you. You would be a Princess, and everything would be in your hands. If you could, you wouldn’t do any household chores.”

“I’ve been spoiled.” Gong mo couldn’t help but say.

“Of course, I want to spoil my own daughter.” Gambino sighed. it’s a pity that I didn’t do it. Thankfully, nanxuan isn’t bad. He can also spoil you.

Gong Mo’s face turned red and he didn’t know what to say.

eat! Gambino picked up some food for her. eat quickly.

Gong mo nodded. you eat too. After you’re done, we’ll feed Hu together.

“He’s eaten too?” Gambino asked curiously.

“She’s starting to feed me porridge, but she didn’t eat much.”

The three of them finished their lunch while talking and laughing. When they were feeding Hu Zi porridge, Gong Mo’s cell phone rang.

She turned around to answer the call. A warm male voice came from the other end. Mrs. Sheng? ” This is Pushan temple.”

“Ah!” what’s the matter? ” Gong mo asked in realization.

Gong hang’s ashes were now placed in Pushan temple.

“I’m sorry about something. Because of the earthquake last night, Mr. Jin’s ashes fell to the ground.”

“What?” Gong mo shouted.

“Don’t worry, because it’s wrapped in cloth, it didn’t spill out. But the bone ash box is broken, so you’d better come over and take care of it. The abbot will have a dharma assembly in the afternoon, and we can chant Scriptures for Mr. Qu and comfort his disturbed soul.”

“I got it!” when does the spiritual conference begin? ” Gong mo asked anxiously.

“Three O ‘clock,”

“Then I’ll come over immediately!”

“What’s wrong?” Shan Rong asked after she hung up.

“Wasn’t there an earthquake last night? Dad’s ashes were broken!” After Gong mo finished speaking, he was stunned and looked at Gambino.

Her father was here, but Yingying’s father was also in the urn.

Shan Rong also recalled this matter and asked Gambino, “Do you want to go?”

“Zhenzhen, go.” Gambino’s expression was very interesting. He was probably the only one in history who would do something like this.

“It won’t suck your soul away, will it?” Shan Rong was a little worried.

“What are you thinking about?” Gambino said helplessly, “ we have to believe in science!

“Your current situation is very unscientific,” Shan Rong muttered unhappily.

Gambino was speechless.

Chapter 575 Peed on grandpa’s hand

Pushan temple was located in the suburbs, in the same direction as Happy Garden. Gong mo and the others arrived there in half an hour.

...

Due to the temple’s age, the earthquake last night had damaged it greatly, and it was now closed for sightseeing.

Gong mo and the others walked in and saw that all the monks were sitting in the open air.

The young monk who came to pick them up said, “ the abbot is afraid that something will happen when the aftershock comes. He is not allowed to enter the house now. Benefactors, please forgive him.

Gong mo hurriedly put his hands together to show his understanding.

There was an incense table in front of them, on which there were oil lamps and candles. In the middle were several things wrapped in yellow cloth, all of which were left here by the visitors.

The biggest, squarish one was Gong hang’s ashes.

Gong mo hurriedly walked over. Under the guidance of the monk, he carried the ashes and followed the monk to the side.

Shan Rong and Gambino also walked over. Shan Rong carried the child while Gambino carried a new box of ashes.

His feelings were extremely complicated.

Gong mo unwrapped the yellow cloth that was wrapped around the original bone ash box. There was a crack on the outside of the box, and some bone ash was leaking out.

She carefully wrapped the ashes in a cloth, and Gambino opened the new box stiffly.

Shan Rong hurriedly said, "I'll do it!" You carry the child!"

Gambino heaved a sigh of relief and hugged Hu Zi.

When he touched his own ashes, he felt numb all over. He didn't even know if he was alive or dead.

Hu Zi wriggled in his arms, looked at his bald head under the sun, and chuckled.

Gambino walked over with his butt in his hands. He took off his shoes and walked to the back of the monk, where he sat down to meditate.

Hu Zi was babbling in his arms. He patted his head and placed him on his lap.

The surroundings were very quiet, and the sound of the Rosary turning could be heard occasionally. He thought of his own experience and used a bit of Zen.

Hu Zi leaned on him and stopped making a fuss. He started to feel drowsy.

The abbot in front opened his eyes and saw the small child. A smile appeared in his eyes.

Gong mo and dan Rong tidied up the ashes and handed them to the monk to place on the incense table. Then, they walked to Gambino's side and meditated.

Thump-

The bell in the temple rang.

The abbot struck the wooden fish, and the monks began to chant. The world was silent.

The spiritual conference ended an hour later.

The monks stood up one after another, and rustling sounds could be heard from all around.

Gambino opened his eyes and picked up the sleeping child. A warm liquid flowed onto his hand. He looked at it and smiled, "He peed on his grandfather's hand!"

"Ah!" why did he pee? " Gong mo asked in surprise. If I had known, I would have changed his diaper."

She carried the child over and asked the monk where he could wash his hands.

The monk pointed. Gong mo wanted to accompany Gambino, but he realized that dan Rong had not stood up.

"Are you alright?" She asked anxiously.

"I'm fine, just a little numb in my legs." Shan Rong waved her hand.

"Then open your legs and sit for a while." Gambino said hurriedly.

"I know. Go wash your hands, we'll be waiting for you here."

Gambino turned around and left. Jason brought his men and followed behind him.

He Yue came over with the child's belongings. Gong mo changed the child's pants into diapers.

"Be careful, it's hot," Shan Rong said.

it's okay. We're getting in the car soon. What if you pee on your body again?" Gong mo said.

He Yue packed up her things and walked away. When she turned around, she saw a large group of people walking towards her and could not help but stop.

When they came out, Gambino had brought a large group of people with him-it was purely because those people were worried about him and insisted on following him. Several of Sheng nanxuan's men also came over.

They were among this group of people, but the rest of them were wearing neat black suits.

Chapter 576 Take Gong mo away

Gong mo stood up in confusion. Dan Rong also crawled up shakily.

...

"Hello!" The person at the front took out his identification and said to Gong mo, " we are the president's special agents. The president would like to see you.

President? President? " Gong mo was shocked.

"Yes." The other party didn't give her any time to react. He stepped aside and made a gesture of invitation.

“Why is the president looking for me?” Gong mo asked.

“You’ll know when you go.”

Gong mo had a bad feeling and asked hesitantly, “Can I wait?”

“We’ve been waiting for a long time.” The other party didn’t allow any explanation.

Gong mo looked at the others.

Primogenitor and the others were foreigners and could not interfere; Sheng nanxuan’s two men were only responsible for protection. They didn’t know what to do when they encountered such a situation.

“Please,” The two secret agents walked behind Gong mo and gently pushed her.

She had to take two steps forward.

“I’ll go with you!” Shan Rong said hurriedly.

“No!” Gong mo hurriedly refused and handed the child to her. Hu Zi needs your care.

She felt that it was most likely related to the laboratory. If she went, she might not be able to come back. She couldn’t take the risk with the child.

Gong mo followed the crowd out of the temple. Shan Rong hurriedly said to Primo, “Go and get Gambino!”

“I’ve already sent someone.” Primo thought for a moment and ordered two of his men, “You guys drive and follow them.”

The two subordinates immediately left.

Then, Gambino hurried over. "What's wrong?"

Dan Rong said anxiously, "the president's secret agent took Momo away!" What's going on?"

Gambino was shocked.

In the morning, Yu Qingliu and Sheng nanxuan had already told him about the FARC. Could it be because of this? When Yu Qingliu and Sheng nanxuan left earlier, could it be that they were afraid?

"Let's go back first!" He said hurriedly.

After getting into the car, everyone tried to contact Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu, but they could not get through.

Over at the presidential palace, their cell phone signals were blocked and they had no way of contacting the outside world.

.....

The agents around them had changed.

it looks like they're changing shifts," Yu Qingliu said to Sheng nanxuan. they're eating.

Sheng nanxuan looked at his phone and realized that there was no signal.

Yu Qingliu also noticed and sighed, "what should we do?" Are we going to wait for death here?"

“He’s not that stupid to kill us here.” Sheng nanxuan said, “when we came, Fang Yang was following us. If anything happens to me, my people will make a mess of him. He couldn’t possibly kill everyone, right? Since he can’t, he can’t touch me. Not only could he not move now, but he could not move in the short term either. If anything happens to me, he’ll be the biggest suspect.”

“He won’t kill you, but he can capture you! Did you not hear that? They want you to be the scapegoat!”

“Does he think we’re all fools?” Sheng nanxuan snorted coldly.

Yu Qingliu felt that his words made sense. Thinking that her own situation was not bad, she heaved a sigh of relief. If anything happened to him, the Yu family would definitely not let it go. The Yu family was the richest family in China, and they had connections in all aspects. Huo Cheng couldn’t afford to offend them.

In fact, Huo Cheng’s behavior today was not good.

Although Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu had guessed that the People’s Party was behind the SSC, the SSC had been around for so many years and they could not be sure that Huo Cheng was involved in this matter. Even if he was sure, as long as he didn’t admit it, no one could do anything to him.

But now that he had directly shed all pretense of cordiality, it was clear at a glance.

There was a saying that in the face of absolute power, all schemes and intrigues were a joke.

As the president, Huo Cheng had absolute power. Naturally, he did not care about Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu. But he didn’t expect that the two of them wouldn’t fear his strength.

Chapter 577 She didn’t want to stay here

In this case, he did not dare to act rashly. Because Sheng nanxuan was known as the night God, he had a huge network of connections in society. The Yu family behind Yu Qingliu could not be underestimated. If they were obedient, everything would go according to his plan, and everyone would be happy. If they were disobedient, he would be bound.

Yu Qingliu approached Sheng nanxuan and whispered, "I'm afraid he has a backup plan. Be careful."

"I know," Sheng nanxuan's face was gloomy.

Unable to contact the outside world, his heart was in a mess and he had a bad feeling.

Yu Qingliu stretched lazily and loudly asked the agents around her, "Are you really not going to give us Food? We're Chinese citizens, yet we're going to go hungry at the President's House. This is too much! Don't you know what it means to be diligent and love the people?"

.....

The bodyguard pushed the door open and Gong mo walked into the room. There was no one inside.

This was a room that was only 20 square meters wide. Directly opposite the door was a floor-to-ceiling window. In front of the window was a glass coffee table and two single sofas. There were bookshelves and antique shelves on the wall, and there was a small LCD TV.

The structure of the presidential palace was no secret to the public. Although no one knew the details, they had more or less heard of it.

When Gong mo was in University, a teacher came to the presidential palace for an interview. He explained the situation to them and taught them the things to take note of when entering the presidential palace for an interview.

However, there were very few reporters who could interview at the presidential palace.

Gong mo looked around for a while and sat down on the sofa.

If she was not wrong, this room was the president's newspaper reading room.

Didn't reading newspapers require a special reading room? wasn't reading newspapers in the office more comfortable?

However, every president had his own hobby. Huo Cheng's hobby was probably to have a special newspaper reading room. When he was no longer the president, the next president would most likely change the use of this place.

Gong mo waited for a while, but no one came, so he took a newspaper to read.

The newspaper wrote that there was friction between Hua and its neighboring countries due to territorial issues. Huo Cheng would visit M next month regarding last night's earthquake and FARC.

After a while, she put down the newspaper and took out her phone.

There was no signal.

She frowned. What should he do? She had wanted to contact Sheng nanxuan.

Wait a minute!

Sheng nanxuan had left early in the morning. Could he be in a bad mood?

She shook her head and ordered herself not to let her thoughts run wild! He's at the office, he can't be here!

She stood up nervously and walked to the door to open it. The bodyguard standing outside immediately turned around and blocked her way.

She paused for a moment, closed the door, and walked back. She stood in front of the floor-to-ceiling window and looked-

There was a small patch of grass outside, surrounded by a garden. The scenery was not bad, but she did not want to stay here.

.....

Huo Cheng walked into the guest room. Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu looked at him but did not stand up to welcome him.

“So, what do you think?” he asked with a smile.

Sheng nanxuan asked in return, ‘what new way have you thought of to make me compromise? Just tell me, I can consider it. ”

Huo Cheng was stunned and laughed in a low voice. “So you haven’t changed your mind at all?”

“That will depend on your chips.”

men always like to conquer the world, while women hope to have a beautiful home.

When Sheng nanxuan heard the word “ woman “, his face darkened. He naturally thought of Gong mo. Could it be that “Do you want to ask your wife if she’s willing to let you take this risk?” Huo Cheng asked.

Chapter 578 Counter-threat

“How am I supposed to ask her?” Sheng nanxuan had already guessed it in his heart, but his expression did not change.

...

Huo Cheng gave a look to the person behind him, and the other party walked to Sheng nanxuan with a mobile phone.

Sheng nanxuan took his phone and dialed Gong Mo’s number. He knew Gong Mo’s number by heart and didn’t even need to look through his address book. Unfortunately, he couldn’t get through.

Sheng nanxuan paused. He took out his phone and dialed the landline of Happy Garden. The call went through this time.

“Where’s Madam?” He asked the servant who had picked up the phone.

“Madam isn’t back,” the maid said.

“Where did she go?”

“I don’t know. However, Mr. Gambino and the old Madam have returned. They don’t look too good.”

“Get them to answer the phone!” Sheng nanxuan’s voice sank as he glanced at Huo Cheng.

“Then what’s your answer now?” Huo Cheng was unmoved.

“My answer?” Sheng nanxuan looked at him. I’ll take responsibility for my own actions!

“Very good,” he said. Huo Cheng showed a satisfied expression.

Sheng nanxuan looked at him with a faint smile. “I’m not talking about me, I’m talking about you.”

Huo Cheng's expression changed as he looked at him in disbelief.

"If you don't touch my wife, there's still room for negotiation." Sheng nanxuan looked at him coldly. now, you can settle it yourself!

"Don't you forget!" your wife is here too! Huo Cheng shouted.

"So hand her over to me as soon as possible. Otherwise, you won't be able to afford the price."

"You dare to threaten me?" Huo Cheng sneered.

"Why can't I? You've offended the Yu family, who can control the media, and me, who can control the economy. What do you think you have left?"

Huo Cheng's expression changed as he looked at Yu Qingliu.

we've always been good people, " Yu Qingliu said innocently. we don't mess around unless we have no other choice.

"This is the last resort." Sheng nanxuan said.

Someone suddenly walked in and whispered something into Huo Cheng's ear.

Huo Cheng's expression changed. He glared at Sheng nanxuan and strode out of the room.

.....

The second floor was Huo Cheng's accommodation. He and his family lived there.

He quickly went up to the second floor and entered the living room. Madam, who still retained her charm, walked over and said anxiously, "What do we do?" He looked at the large LCD TV in the living room.

Huo Cheng's face was ashen. A group of people ran in one after another. The leader said, "I'll immediately inform the police--"

Huo Cheng raised his hand to stop him and said through gritted teeth, "Let Sheng nanxuan and the rest go."

"This is an ..."

"Let them go."

On the TV screen, a young girl was struggling. She heard the ticking of the clock and shed tears of despair.

"Do it now!" Huo Cheng closed his eyes.

Sheng nanxuan was trying to intimidate him. I can touch your daughter now, but I can also touch other people.

Huo Cheng fell back onto the sofa, feeling exhausted.

He thought that he could control everything just because he had the power. But Sheng nanxuan was not afraid of anything. He could not control it at all. She wanted to threaten him, but not only did he not compromise, but he also gave her an eye for an eye.

Such a person could not control him at all. He could only be controlled by him.

Chapter 579 A call from uncle

Huo Cheng suddenly understood that Sheng nanxuan had never thought of retreating ever since he attacked the SSC. He would not allow anyone to ruin his original plans.

...

But now, he was using Gong mo to threaten him. Not only would he stick to his original plan, but he would also go from bad to worse.

.....

Gong mo was standing by the window. She heard the door behind her open, but she didn't move.

"Mrs. Sheng." A voice came from behind.

She then turned around and looked at the person.

"Please follow me." The other party said politely.

Gong mo was puzzled. These people were so cold just now, why did they suddenly become so polite?

She followed him without any worry about any danger.

After all, this was the presidential palace. If something happened here, the entire presidential palace would be responsible. If it was light, they would be questioned by the domestic media. If it was serious, they would be questioned by the entire international community. Things could be big or small, and if it was big enough, it would be enough for Huo Cheng to take the blame and resign.

Gong mo sized up the place as he walked. The decoration of the presidential palace was not bad. There were many famous paintings hanging in the corridor, but she was not in the mood to appreciate them.

They walked to an old double door, and the bodyguard standing at the door pushed the door open.

She walked in and immediately saw Sheng nanxuan and Yu Qingliu. She ran over in surprise. nanxuan-

Sheng nanxuan pulled her into his arms and kissed her ear. He asked worriedly, "Are you alright?"

I'm fine ... Gong mo was a little confused. He looked at the people around him and asked in a low voice, "what happened?"

"I'm fine now." Sheng nanxuan chuckled. let's go back first.

"Alright!"

Gong mo wasn't worried about anything after seeing him. If there's anything, we can talk about it at home. This isn't the place.

Sheng nanxuan held her hand and walked out as if no one was around.

When he walked out of the presidential palace, he saw Fang Yang, Jason, and the rest standing on the road.

The three of them walked over. Sheng nanxuan asked Jason in confusion, "Why are you here?"

"The BOSS asked me to come." Jason took a glance at Gong mo. it's good that miss is fine. Boss is very worried.

"Let's get in the car." Sheng nanxuan asked Gong mo to go first. He said to Fang Yang, "send Dean Yu off."

"For me?" Yu Qingliu asked, "where are you sending me?"

“You’re not going home?” Sheng nanxuan had already gotten into the car. He looked up and asked him.

He put his hand on the roof of the car and asked condescendingly, “You’re not coming with me? Eldest nephew?”

“We’ll talk when we’re free. My family is worried about him. I’ll send Gong MO home first.” After Sheng nanxuan finished speaking, he asked the chauffeur to drive.

The moment the car moved, Yu Qingliu almost fell down. She waved her fist at the back of the car gloomily.

In the car.

Gong mo recounted what had happened earlier and asked Sheng nanxuan, “What are you doing here? Did they also bring you there?”

“Yes.” Sheng nanxuan held her hand.

“Then why did you bring me? He didn’t tell me to do anything, so no one’s paying attention to me Yingluo.”

“Who do you want to take care of you?” Sheng nanxuan laughed and asked, “it’s good that you’re fine.

Gong mo looked at him seriously, “I’m worried about you.”

Huo Cheng wanted me to take full responsibility for the incident with the SSC. I didn’t agree, so he used you to threaten me.

“Could it be that he was the one who arranged for Suan NI’s bone ashes?” Gong mo asked after some thought.

“It’s most likely so. ‘Why didn’t you come to me earlier or later? you came to me after the earthquake. You must have thought of this method at the last minute because of the earthquake.’ There’s been so much going on at home recently. If it wasn’t for the ashes, you wouldn’t have left the house. If you don’t leave happy Garden, he won’t be able to catch you unless he sends the Air Force.”

he’s the president! This is too much! Gong mo said.

Chapter 580 Preparing to acknowledge her family

Sheng nanxuan smiled. don’t worry. I’ll take revenge for you.

...

“How are you going to get your revenge?”

Sheng nanxuan thought for a moment. I’ll be the president? ” ” I’ll be the president? ”

Gong mo rolled his eyes and said, “come on!” You can only run for president when you’re over 30. How old are you? Although you can sign up for the election when you’re over 30, none of the Presidents in history are younger than 40!”

This was how a political career was like. If they were not old enough, even if they were capable enough, they would not be able to convince the masses. Not to mention the Congress, the citizens would not choose either. And in history, there had never been someone who was so skilled at such a young age.

However, with Sheng nanxuan’s skills, he could give it a try when he was thirty.

“You’re going into politics?” Gong mo asked curiously.

“I’m not interested,” He said without hesitation, “ it’s a mess now. If I were to take care of it, I don’t know how busy I would be. I’d better leave it to others!

The SSC alone could trigger countless events. The president was really busy every day. When Huo Cheng had just taken office, he could sleep less than five hours a day. Whoever went there would risk their lives!

Sheng nanxuan wanted more time to hold his wife and child. He did not want to play with this at all.

However,

He could command others to play.

.....

Yu Qingliu asked Fang Yang to send her to the DNA testing center.

Sheng nanxuan said that he had done a DNA test with the two elders here. The test results must still be here.

After finding the person in charge, Yu Qingliu explained the reason for her visit and wanted to get the results of the comparison.

However, Sheng nanxuan had previously ordered the other party not to reveal a single word, so the person-in-charge played dumb.

Yu Qingliu was furious. She turned around and said to Fang Yang, " "Call Sheng nanxuan and ask him to handle it!"

Fang Yang had to call Sheng nanxuan. Sheng nanxuan asked the laboratory Department to hand the things to Yu Qingliu. Before he hung up, he said to Fang Yang, " "Help me make an appointment with Deputy Mayor ding. I have something to talk to him about."

Gong mo looked at him in confusion but didn't ask further.

“Get ready, we’re going back to the Yu family to acknowledge our family!” He said to her.

“When?” Gong Mo’s eyes widened.

“I don’t know, but it’ll be soon.”

Yu Qingliu took the things and returned to the Yu family. The moment she entered, she shouted, “Is anyone there? I’m starving, hurry up and cook me a bowl of noodles!”

young master Qingliu, you’re finally back. The old master and old Madam have been talking about you for the past few days. The maid came over and asked, “are you very hungry? Did you not have lunch? There are some snacks in the kitchen, should I get some to fill my stomach first? It takes at least ten minutes to cook the noodles.”

“Then let’s have some desserts first.”

“Alright, I’ll go now.”

Yu Qingliu picked up a bunch of grapes from the coffee table and ate as she walked into the dining room.

The servant came over with fruit juice and desserts, all of which were for the ladies ‘afternoon tea.

Yu Qingliu was famished, but she didn’t care. She grabbed the desserts on the plate and gulped them down. While drinking the fruit juice, she said, “More! I don’t want fruit juice, but water or tea.”

“Okay, I’ll make you a pot of PU ‘er tea immediately.” The servant took the cup and left.

Yu Qingliu leaned back on the chair, holding the grape on her head, and opened her mouth to bite.

Suddenly, a clean face came into his line of sight, and two black grape-like eyes met his.

“I’ll go!” Yu Qingliu was so frightened that she fell to the ground, and the grapes rolled all over the ground.

Ding dang was startled, and looked at him pitifully.

what are you doing here?! he asked as he got up with his hands on his waist.

“I’m here to play with my grandma and grandma Wu.” Ding dang looked at him playfully.
