Chapter 1141: Useless Woman 4

Junyi was very satisfied by how he arranged everything.

Having said this... he threw another disdainful look at Gu Chaoyan, smiling proudly.

It was so clear which one of them was useless after all.

This stupid woman was so proud to think that she was skilled enough to do what was beyond her abilities. She was like the Crown Prince Consort, who was stupid but always wanted to get involved.

Junyi was thinking this inwardly.

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at him as she said calmly, "Madame Min is an elderly woman, who has eaten something beyond what she is able to bear, so she is suffering from a stroke. She needs to get treated immediately. The imperial doctors will be too late for her."

The Min Family, who had been feeling a bit more relaxed, panicked a little after hearing what Gu Chaoyan said.

Junyi threw a look at her. "Don't just make exaggerated speeches. Do you think you can treat her, rather than the imperial doctors?"

"Just let Chaoyan have a try." A calm voice arose. It was Mrs. Min.

When Mrs. Min said that the weight was different.

Old Master and First Ms. Min exchanged a look, hesitated, but still nodded.

Gu Chaoyan took out her silver needles and went forward.

Mrs. Min spoke to Old Master calmly, "I have also sent someone to bring Elderly Liao here, but it will take some time. He should be here very soon."

Hearing that Elderly Liao would soon be there, they all felt slightly assured.

As long as Elderly Liao was here, everything would be solved.

This young girl could perform a simple checkup on her at the moment, since they did hear about Elder Miss' medical skills and her story of treating Duke North. So they did have some trust in her medical skills, it was just that they were not very assured by her young age and experience.

Gu Chaoyan, who was totally focused, approached Madame Min, took out her needles, picked up Madame Min's hands and stung her fingertips, bringing out a drop of black blood. The Min Family was very surprised by the sight of black blood.

She did the same for the toes.

Then Gu Chaoyan started some acupuncture.

Later, Gu Chaoyan put away her silver needles, but Madame Min was still in a coma.

Madame Min did not wake up after Gu Chaoyan's treatment, which made Zhou Huailing and Junyi relaxed. They were quite happy about it, because they did not want Gu Chaoyan to cure Madame Min, so that their doctors would have no room to show their skills.

Seeing the scene, Junyi said straightforwardly, "Why is Madame Min not awake?"

"You are not skilled enough and yet you are using Madame Min as your experimental tool! You will never be able to take responsibility, if the imperial doctor says that you have done a bad job!"

When Junyi said this, both Old Master and First Ms. Min panicked a little.

For one moment, they had no idea what to do.

"Elder Miss, what is going on? Why is she still in a coma?"

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at Madame Min.

Patients who received acupuncture would need some time to wake up, even though the doctor was skillful! No one woke up directly after acupuncture.

"She will be awake in a while," Gu Chaoyan answered calmly.

"What do you mean a while? What if she stays in a coma?" Junyi asked further.

Chapter 1142: Useless Woman 5

Junyi did not know much about medical treatment, but he knew well that Madame Min would not get well just because of some needles.

He believed that she should eat some medicine before she recovered, especially since she was an elderly woman. It would take a few days before she really started to get better. He was forcing this question on that woman, because he did not want her to take advantage of this occasion.

He could tell what she wanted.

She must be thinking about making a show before the imperial doctors arrived, because in this way, the Min Family would need to thank her anyway when Madame Min woke up, since she offered to help after all. The Min Family would need to acknowledge her help no matter what, since she also put on this show in front of so many people.

Well, this woman was really tricky, but it's just tricky.

Those tricks were only useful when used during the battle among women in the yard.

Junyi looked really disdainful.

Gu Chaoyan did not answer Junyi, nor did she want to answer him. It was not he who should ask those questions. Who on earth was he, that he could interrogate her like this?!

Gu Chaoyan calmly brought out two bottles of medicine from her sleeves.

The two bottles of medicine could be eaten with medical meals, and Madame Min should be well after the acupuncture. As long as the Min Family could take good care of her health, Madame Min should have no problem living at least one more year.

When the medicine had just been prepared, Madame Min gradually woke up. The auntie next to Madame Min looked really excited at seeing her waking up. "Madame Min has woken up!"

Hearing this, both Old Master and First Ms. Min relaxed. They walked forward to the bed.

Madame Min had indeed woken up.

Everyone gathered around, ready to express their concern, but Gu Chaoyan frowned. "Please don't surround her. She has just woken up and she is quite weak. The blocked air will make her feel uncomfortable.

Gu Chaoyan was the one that saved her, so they obeyed what she told them, and all moved away.

Only Zhou Huailing and Junyi, who looked extremely annoyed, were still there.

They were the ones that did not want Madame Min to wake up, because it was Gu Chaoyan who saved Madame Min, which Junyi did not like at all.

The others were all very happy to see this. They did not really care so much about Madame Min, but it was her birthday banquet so Madame Min should not meet with any issue. They did not care what happened to Madame Min afterwards.

Elderly Liao, who was invited by Mrs. Min arrived in a hurry.

The Min Family was very glad to see Elderly Liao. Elder Miss Gu had helped her to wake up, but they would very much like to hear the words from Elderly Liao, who was prestigious and skilled.

"Elderly Liao, she has woken up, but please check her out again." Old Master said.

Elderly Liao was surprised, but he nodded and went to check up on her.

He frowned as he felt her pulse.

Seeing how Elderly Liao reacted, Junyi looked a bit expectant.

Before the Min Family asked anything, he asked, "Elderly Liao, Madame Min is alright, isn't she?"

Chapter 1143: Slap on Face 1

Seeing Elderly Liao's expression, he could tell that Elderly Liao had noticed something strange. Elderly Liao was prestigious and medically skilled. He used to work at the court, but retired and recommended his son to take over his position in the court instead. He remained at the mansion and barely came out to carry out the examination. Elderly Liao must be here because of what Mrs. Min asked him.

It would be a strike down at the woman, if he could confirm that Madame Min was not doing well.

It was not always a good thing for Madame Min to wake up. He had seen how that woman treated Madame Min – maybe Madame Min woke up because of finger pain.

Then she would have to pay for her own stupidity.

Elderly Liao looked very serious.

He glanced about and asked with a serious tone. “Who just treated Madame Min?”

Seeing how Elderly Liao looked and asked, Junyi felt even more assured.

It seemed that...

It seemed that the stupid woman had failed her plan and was in big trouble.

Junyi glanced at Gu Chaoyan, looking very disdainful.

First Ms. Min asked seriously, seeing Elderly Liao’s expression. “What is going on, Elderly Liao?”

Elderly Liao smiled. “Madame Min is doing really well, and I just want to know who has treated her. That person is so skillful that the treatment was conducted just in time. Because of her medical skills, Madame Min will not need to suffer any more in the future.”

“I would not have conducted such a great treatment, even if I had been around.”

Elderly Liao was smiling really brightly.

It was just lucky for him to meet such a skillful person in the late years of his life.

Junyi, who had been wearing a disdainful smile, stiffened. What did he mean? Was he saying that she had done a good job?

What was going on?!

Mrs. Min smiled and said, “Elderly Liao, it was Elder Miss Gu who did this.”

Oh?

Elder Miss Gu?

A woman?

Surprised, Elderly Liao followed Mrs. Min’s instruction and saw a young lady. It shocked him even more.

How could such a young lady have such great medical skill?

Elderly Liao felt as if he were dreaming!

His own son had only been able to treat some fundamental illnesses when he was as old as this girl.

However,...

Elderly Liao just did not know what to say.

He looked at Gu Chaoyan and asked, "Elder Miss Gu, what medicine do you plan to prescribe to Madame Min?"

He was very curious to know what she was going to offer, since she was so good at acupuncture.

Gu Chaoyan answered calmly, "That is very easy, but I believe that Madame Min should avoid eating too many sweet things."

Gu Chaoyan took out a medical bottle. "Some simple medical meals could be made in her daily life, and my medicine can be put inside, then she should be fine."

Elderly Liao took the bottle and smelled it, before he nodded with a smile.

That was an excellent bottle of medicine. It was better than the bitter medical drinks!

Old Master felt assured about Madame Min's health issue, but he wondered how he could return the favor. Elder Miss Gu was engaged with Lord Huai, so the Min Family would need to figure out what to do.

Chapter 1144: Slap on Face 2

Lord Huai was from the imperial family and the Crown Prince was settled to be someone else, yet you could never be certain about the throne game in the imperial family, especially when it came to Lord Huai who was born by the Queen.

The Min Family owed her a favor, which they were going to return in the future, but what mattered the most was how they were going to return the favor.

While Madame Min was still in coma, Old Master was too worried about Madame Min to think about this issue. However, now that Madame Min was recovering, they had to think about this practical issue. The Min Family was not an ordinary family, and everything had to be well-considered since the Old Master did not want to make any mistakes.

For one moment, he looked serious and embarrassed.

The Old Master looked cautious as he glanced at Gu Chaoyan, asking, "I heard that your Xinlin Clinic is different from the other clinics, and I wonder what payment you would like to receive in return, since you manage to treat Madame Min well."

The Old Master was asking the question in public. His intentions were very clear.

The Min Family owed Elder Miss Gu big, and she had her own request.

The Min Family was going to return the favor in public!

That was why he asked her right there. No matter what favor she asked in return, the Min Family would try their best to return that favor, so that everyone would know that the Min Family was not doing anything in secret.

The Old Master did not want to confront a young girl like this, but the Min Family was not an ordinary family, and the only thing they could do was to stay cautious.

Hearing what the Old Master said, Gu Chaoyan more or less understood what the Min Family was thinking. They were trying to defend themselves.

She offered the help because of Mrs. Min, not because she intended to get something from the Min Family. Therefore, she had nothing to ask in return.

However, the Old Master seemed to stay cautious against her.

So if she did not ask for anything right now, he would not feel assured. Therefore, she decided to satisfy the Min Family, and hoped that there would not be any grudge between them.

Gu Chaoyan nodded. "Xinlin Clinic does have rules, and I did not spend much effort in treating Madame Min."

The Old Master frowned.

So she did not want to ask for a favor?

"1000 liang for one bottle, and I have given you two, so I am going to charge 2000 liang for the treatment. That is the fair price offered at Xinlin Clinic, so don't think that it is overpriced." Gu Chaoyan said.

She had just finished speaking when the Old Master looked really surprised.

First Ms. Min could not help turning to Gu Chaoyan, even though she had been taking care of Madame Min.

She had been married to the Min Mansion for decades, and she had encountered numerous difficult cases and people. She had not expected that it would be solved so easily.

At least the Min Family would need to sacrifice something.

However... all Elder Miss Gu asked for was 2000 liang...

2000 liang might be a lot for ordinary families, but it was nothing for the Min Mansion.

"Only 2000 liang?" The Old Master asked in disbelief.

Chapter 1145: Slap on Face 3

"There isn't much medicine in one bottle, but it works well. I used many precious medical herbs to make it, so 2000 liang isn't that much." Gu Chaoyan answered seriously, refusing to say anything more.

Old Master's face twisted.

What he meant was that the payment might be too little whilst she worried that 2000 liang was too much. For the Min Mansion, this amount of money was nothing.

It would make everything easier, if what she wanted was the payment only. She cured Madame Min, and the Min Mansion paid her accordingly. That was all.

The Old Master was in a good mood. He smiled and asked the housekeeper to fetch the money.

They gave her the payment today and the next day, they could offer her an extra present. Then the whole deal would be settled.

For one moment, the Min Family felt really happy.

Zhou Huailing was in a good mood too.

Mrs. Min showed no expression. Elderly Liao threw a pitiful look at the Min Family.

Elderly Liao and Mrs. Min were good friends, despite their age gap. He only came to carry out the treatment because he respected Mrs. Min.

In the past, he did not understand why Mrs. Min would move out, when her husband passed away rather than move into the Min Family. Mrs. Min's husband left ages ago and they had no offspring. Therefore, she was living alone in a mansion outside the family. Elderly Liao felt concerned about her, so he asked her to move into the Min Family instead, after all, the Min Family was a century-old noble family with a firm ground in the capital, and the Min Family respected her as well. Therefore, if she could stay in the mansion, she would be sheltered. However, Mrs. Min refused to answer him every time the question was raised. She did not want to move back to the mansion.

That had always confused him, but today he suddenly realized why.

The Min Family was indeed a noble family with a long history, but the Min Mansion had become different from before. Those who were inside the mansion were not like those in the past, and the Min Family had lost their essences.

That was what he concluded just now.

The Min Family was even trying to stay cautious and defensive against a young lady who just saved Madame Min, whilst the young lady herself never had such an idea.

The Min Family was no longer as wise as before.

Mrs. Min was not an ordinary woman, and she did not like to get involved with those kinds of people.

Now he understood everything.

Mrs. Min could just live by herself. She should not return to the Min Family. She just could not accept the way the Min Family treated people.

The only person who was a match for Mrs. Min must have been the young, handsome man who passed away earlier. Mrs. Min was still young back then, otherwise they were a wonderful couple!

Elderly Liao felt gratified inside his heart, got up and said farewell. "Since Madame Min is okay, I am leaving now. My grandchild loves to stay with me, and he would be very sad if I am away for too long."

Hearing this, the Min Family did not force Elderly Liao to stay. They expressed some words of thanks before Mrs. Min saw him off at the door. Elderly Liao thus received the full respect.

The housekeeper of the Min Family got the money, gave it to Gu Chaoyan, who nodded and was about to leave with Zhou Huaijin, without saying anything more.

As she passed by Junyi, she threw a calm look at him. "So... Do you think I am useful, or are you?"

1

Chapter 1146: Slap on Face 4

Gu Chaoyan had a cold personality, and she was never concerned about anything, but she was also a person who took revenge, especially on people like Junyi.

She was very certain that when Madame Min passed out, those who surrounded her were not really concerned about her – after all, the majority of them were not related to Madame Min, so why would they care about her? They were just interest-related, for example Zhou Huailing and Junyi, who were just trying to make use of the situation for their own interests.

This man snapped at her. He was snapping at a woman like her rather than any other men. He must have thought that women were easily bullied, so he had done it subconsciously, but...

Well...

Since she was here, she was going to take revenge. She was going to make him understand that women were not easily bullied and that he had to pay for his mistake.

She was snapped at by him. What about the other women who might come across the same situation in the future?

Maybe those who bumped into the noble figures that were useful for the Crown Prince would be blamed.

He was just the same as the others, who did not have a pure purpose.

That was what Gu Chaoyan thought.

Therefore, she threw a sharp look at Junyi. Seeing that he was not answering, she continued. "I cured Madame Min, and you, a stupid man, was standing next to us and watching, right?"

"Should I call you arrogant or ignorant? Due to your ignorance, Madame Min might have gotten worse without punctual treatment. You did not help at all!" Gu Chaoyan said calmly, raising her eyebrows as she looked at him, speaking angrily.

She wasn't a talkative person, but Gu Chaoyan would very much like to talk down to Junyi at the moment.

Junyi had a very bad expression on his face.

He could not hold his anger when he was lectured by a woman, but whatever was going across his mind, he just could not counter this woman in front of him.

He was both furious and anxious.

It was the first time in his life that he was countered by a woman in this way!

Gu Chaoyan glanced at him, sneered and left.

Dressed in red clothes, she walked away in a very confident posture, so that people on the spot were attracted to her, including Zhou Huaijin.

Seeing Gu Chaoyan coming to him, Zhou Huaijin took her hands, and the couple left the Min Mansion.

Junyi behind them had turned pale.

Zhou Huailing happened to come around, so he asked Junyi in confusion. "What did Gu Chaoyan say to you just now?"

Junyi shook his head hesitantly. "It is fine. That woman just can't understand which side is good for her! I am going to teach her a lesson in the future."

Only then did he realize that the woman was Elder Miss Gu, who was engaged to Lord Huai.

Hearing what Junyi said, Zhou Huailing was very sure that Junyi would be loyal to him.

He was going to teach Gu Chaoyan a lesson.

He had an idea – when he took the throne, he was going to get Gu Chaoyan as well.

Chapter 1147: Slap on Face 5

Junyi meant that he was not going to give her an easy time?

Zhou Huailing felt uncomfortable as he unsurely smiled. "Just drop it, Junyi, you are a man and she is a woman. We can deal with Lord Huai, so she won't have an easy life either."

Hearing what Zhou Huailing said, Junyi brought himself back. He had been stupid.

What was he doing, being mad at a woman?

He could just teach Lord Huai a lesson, and she would suffer too. There would be one day, when she would regret treating him so badly.

When he finished venting his anger, he noticed that the Crown Prince was next to him, rather than keeping Madame Min company.

He asked confusedly, "Crown Prince, why are you not with Madame Min?"

Zhou Huailing snorted.

He had already expressed his concern a while ago, and he could not stay there all the time. What was he, a Crown Prince doing next to a patient? He had no time for that. So he came out of the room.

"I left the Crown Prince Consort there with them. Madame Min is a woman, so the Crown Prince Consort is more suitable to be there. I am a man, it is not okay for me to be around. With the Crown Prince Consort showing our concern, I can just have some medical supplements delivered, and that is all. I have shown my offer to the Min Mansion, and they should know what they ought to do," Zhou Huailing said confidently.

Junyi was still quite worried and hesitant.

He would not have worried about the Crown Prince Consort's presence there, if she had been a boring, plain woman, but the Crown Prince Consort was too stupid to behave properly. What if she caused some other trouble there?

Otherwise, he would not have asked the Crown Prince to show his concern personally.

There were other more elegant ladies at the Crown Prince's mansion who were more suitable to be present for such a banquet, but the Crown Prince Consort did not want them to show up.

Junyi was very concerned.

It was very important for the Min Family to support them, especially after Lord Huai's fiance cured Madame Min. The support of the Min Family became even more important.

He would like to get the whole thing to work smoothly, but the Crown Prince had apparently lost his patience.

It was such a difficult thing to deal with.

For a moment, Junyi had no idea what else he could do. However, he was a man so he could not get involved so easily.

He just hoped that no more mistakes would arise.

As Junyi was thinking this... he started to make a plan about how to bring down Lord Huai. He had not had this idea before, but at this moment, he decided to make a plan, because he was humiliated.

Gu Chaoyan and Zhou Huaijin were already on the way back in their wagon.

Zhou Huaijin had been picked on by Zhou Huailing in the front hall too, but he dodged it all. He did not interfere with Chaoyan's behavior at the Min Mansion, because he trusted that she could do it well.

Many things happened today.

Zhou Huaijin asked. "You don't seem to like Junyi, I can let my men get rid of him."

"No need," Gu Chaoyan said straightforwardly.

“Why not?” Zhou Huaijin asked.

Chapter 1148: Slap on Face 6

Junyi was too fearless.

If Chaoyan did not like him, the Shadow Door could just remove this person so that she would not see this person in the capital ever again and he could be out of sight and mind.

Gu Chaoyan smiled briefly and threw a look at Zhou Huaijin, saying sinisterly, “Junyi is exactly like how Xie Yan puts it – arrogant and looks down on women. He only bullies the weak, and fears the strong.”

“We should torment him and make him suffer. It is too easy to make him disappear directly.”

“...”

“He doesn’t like women and thinks of them as useless, then we will make him watch how he is worse than women. That would make him suffer, right?” Gu Chaoyan raised her eyebrows.

Zhou Huaijin smiled with a helpless and spoiled smile.

Xie Yan said that Chaoyan had an evil mind, and she did have it, but Chaoyan only behaved evilly to the bad guys, never to themselves. Xie Yan was smart enough to see that, but that was only half of what he could see clearly.

“Okay!” Zhou Huaijin answered softly.

“What do you think of the Min Family?” Zhou Huaijin said casually.

He could tell that Chaoyan had intended to establish a friendship with the Min Family, but what the Min Family had done made them look very calculative. Chaoyan must have gotten quite displeased by it.

In his opinion... Chaoyan did not have to establish any friendship with anyone for his sake.

He could work harder to make the Shadow Door stronger, so that he could have his own supporters rather than by gathering forces from others.

Chaoyan was his woman so she did not necessarily have to do anything like this.

Only those who were not strong enough would need women to give them shelter and think about who not to offend and who to befriend.

Chaoyan should keep her own personality and her own goal, and she could just like and dislike whomever she wanted and drop the friendship with those who she did not like.

Zhou Huaijin looked at Gu Chaoyan. “It doesn’t matter what the Min Family are thinking and who they support.”

“We just don’t need to establish any grudge with the Min Family, and that is all.” Gu Chaoyan said plainly, though the whole thing sounded like it was a pity.

“Okay.” Zhou Huaijin answered softly.

The wagon continued to head towards Xinlin Mansion.

At the Min Mansion.

Due to the sudden incident at the Min Family’s banquet, the banquet finished ahead of time. Madame Min was taken back to her own room for a break.

Madame Min was advised to take a nap, but she seemed quite energetic at the moment, though she passed out a while ago. She was feeling even better than before.

She was in a good mood.

Madame Min was very satisfied by Gu Chaoyan. She was such a skilled doctor which caused her to feel so much better. Also, she knew what she could take and what not to covet. For example, she could not make the Min Family owe her big, so she just left after asking for some money.

She was a very generous and graceful girl.

Madame Min said with a smile, “Elder Miss Gu is a really good girl, and we can hang out with her every now and then. Maybe we can offer them some help, just small things. She can even offer me treatment since her needles work so much better.”

Hearing what Madame Min said...

Mrs. Min found that Madame Min sounded extremely arrogant as she spoke.

“What? Am I wrong?” Madame Min looked at Mrs. Min.

Chapter 1149: Arrogance 1

Madame Min knew Mrs. Min well. She would have no reaction or opinions towards anything if she had no ideas about it, but when Mrs. Min showed a reaction, she might have some different opinions.

Madame Min was the oldest person in the Min Family, and the person with the largest power of discourse, but Mrs. Min was a very special being. The reason why the Min Family was still prevailing was probably because Mrs. Min remained here. So even Madame Min treated Mrs. Min with importance, and naturally cared about her opinions. So when she was still in the Min Family, she was treated politely.

Therefore, Madame Min asked Mrs. Min after hearing her chuckle.

Well...

Madame Min did not think that there was anything wrong with her ideas. She thought that Gu Chaoyan received respect, because she helped the Min Family. Anyone who could hang out with the Min Family should feel honored.

Gu Chaoyan was not yet married formally, and yet she was out of the Gu Mansion, and engaged to Lord Huai who wasn't having a good time. So it was her honor to be able to hang out with the Min Family.

She got motivated to make this decision, because she had not been feeling well until Gu Chaoyan gave her the acupuncture.

Although she was not speaking highly of Gu Chaoyan just for this, she was still thinking about letting Gu Chaoyan treat her when she had time. It was the girl's honor to hang out with the Min Family.

Mrs. Min must just be thinking about whether or not the Min Family should hang out with her.

The Min Family should never get involved with the imperial family. That was a certain thing. So nothing had to be worried about.

It was already the girl's honor to have been a friend with the family.

Madame Min looked at Mrs. Min calmly.

Mrs. Min nodded. "You have the willingness to hang out with Lady Chaoyan, but it seems that she has no intention of hanging out with us."

"..."

"The Min Family has shown such a clear attitude towards her, and Lady Chaoyan is smart enough to understand what you mean. That is why she only asked for money, and she has put down her opinion too."

"..."

"It is too late for you to hang out with Lady Chaoyan," Mrs. Min said straightforwardly.

She did not spend much time with Gu Chaoyan, but she knew what Gu Chaoyan was like. She appreciated her understanding.

She was not holding contempt to the Min Family. She was, after all, Mrs. Min. If the Min Family truly wanted to hang out with Chaoyan, then she would find that a good thing, but now... she felt differently.

Madame Min was not in the right position to hear that.

First Ms. Min wasn't pleased either.

Lady Chaoyan was just an isolated lady, and was Mrs. Min looking down at the Min Family when she said things like this?

First Ms. Min was in charge of the Min Mansion... so she was not very pleased hearing her sister-in-law saying things like this.

First Ms. Min said involuntarily, "That is not true. I think that she wants to hang out with the Min Family by sucking up to us. That is why she asked for the money. She just did not want to offend the Min Family by turning down our offer."

Chapter 1150: Arrogance 2

Hearing what First Ms. Min said...

Madame Min's mind gradually felt clearer. She believed that First Ms. Min was indeed a very qualified master of the family – she saw everything clearly and well.

She felt much more assured with such a woman in the family. However...

Madame Min did not blame Mrs. Min for saying any of this. Mrs. Min was an important figure, and the Min Family would never blame her for anything. Instead, she said gently, "Zhuxun, you have over-thought this whole thing."

"You are considering Elder Miss Gu from your point of view, but do you know that Elder Miss Gu is not liked at the Gu Mansion, and she is marrying a falling lord, so she is different from you in her growing environment and her future will be different too. You have your father that stands behind you, so everyone respects you no matter where you are. You have your own temper, true, and you are capable of having such a temper."

"..."

"But Elder Miss Gu has no one behind her, and she won't be able to stand as firmly as you are."

"..."

"Your sister-in-law Ms. Zheng is right. She knows clearly what ladies in the capital need, because they are just down-to-earth people. You are different, Zhuxun, you have been standing at the top all throughout your life, so you will never understand the ordinary women."

"..."

"Just drop it, Zhuxun," Madame Min said gently.

She was very gentle and tolerant towards her, because of her father, and because she did not leave after marrying Min Yu who passed away a while ago.

Mrs. Min felt a bit helpless.

They just did not understand what she had told them.

She made the speech from Chaoyan's point of view, not from her own, but they just did not get it.

That was why she never wanted to move back to the Min Family after so many years. She did marry Min Yu, but she and the Min Family did not belong to the same path. She would give the Min Family reminders, but she was not going to force any ideas into them.

So she decided not to say anything more.

However, Madame Min was in a good mood. She told the Auntie next to her when First Ms. Min and Mrs. Min were both there. "Go and fetch the gift from Lady Chaoyan. I want to take a look at it."

Auntie nodded and left.

She did that because she was treating Gu Chaoyan in a special way. She would use the gift if it was suitable.

First Ms. Min and Mrs. Min were both silent at the moment.

Madame Min laughed as the gift was given to her. "Come and see what it is!"

Auntie removed the package.

It was a couple of white, good-looking porcelain bottles that looked like drug bottles.

Madame Min took a sniff at it, and it smells great, but she had no idea what it was.

She was just confused about it when Auntie passed on a letter.

She opened it and read the instructions and usage.

"It is for skin care, which can make people look prettier and younger," Madame Min said, feeling interested.

First Ms. Min was interested too.

Her son Min Qing was already over 20 years old, and she was no longer young. She was suffering from wrinkles, so she got curious about how something could be used as skin care.

Everyone trusted Elder Miss Gu's medical skills.
