

Divine 1291

Chapter 1291 Meeting You

When snow fell in the capital in June, he understood that something was going on. It basically meant that the door to enchantment would open soon, and the Phoenix Girl would come into being ahead of time. At that time, Ruxue was going to be recognized as the real Phoenix Girl, who would be respected and admired by tens of thousands of people.

At that time, Ruxue would be as important as the throne, and many people would become ambitious.

Wars, or thrones, rebels, what mattered the most was that they needed to have the Phoenix Girl's support. In this way, they could keep the imperial blood.

So he should not waste any more time and needed to have a lineal child with Ruxue.

He was not very concentrated when he was in Qianqing Palace. That was because Junyi's messenger told him what happened in the court and he understood that Ruxue held his destiny, not his father.

The power of the throne was much smaller in front of heaven's destiny.

Zhou Huailing's heart was throbbing so he walked fast. He was desperate to meet Ruxue. Only in this way would his heart be assured.

He even refused to take the umbrella from Junyi as he walked towards Ruxue. He needed to feel the snowing day of June.

Something bad was happening, but for him, it was a great thing, though it was bad for the others.

Ruxue's name just fitted the situation.

When she was born and named like this, it basically meant that she was the Phoenix Girl, right?

Zhou Huailing's heart was very warm, though it was very cold here.

He smiled.

Ronghua Palace was located very close to him. It was covered by snow.

The maid at Ronghua Palace greeted him.

"Where is the Crown Prince Consort?" Zhou Huailing asked the moment he walked in.

"She is living in the side-wing of Ronghua Palace, close to Honored Princess Jing's bedroom. They are chatting now," the maid said with a smile.

Zhou Huailing nodded.

Honored Princess Jing's bedroom was very close to his so he went straight inside.

He walked towards the Honored Princess Jing's bedroom.

It was very warm inside, and Zhou Huailing noticed that.

Honored Princess Jing looked worried the moment he walked in. "Ling, it is snowing outside, why are you walking without an umbrella, you will get a cold! How can you be injured like this? Where is the imperial doctor?"

Honored Princess Jing looked very concerned and dusted away the snowflakes on Zhou Huailing's body and head, but Zhou Huailing did not care. He looked at Gu Ruxue who was standing next to her. He had never looked at Gu Ruxue like a treasure before.

He swept her into his arms and said, "Ruxue, I have missed you so badly."

Chapter 1292 Unfairness 1

Gu Ruxue felt quite shocked when she was swept into his arms.

It was the main hall of Ronghua Palace, where Honored Princess Jing lived. The Crown Prince was back so she should not be the main focus. She had intended to let the mother and son talk before saying something, but the Crown Prince seemed to be so obsessed with her that he only had eyes for her.

Gu Ruxue was chuckling inwardly. "I miss you too, Crown Prince."

Zhou Huailing tightened his arms. In his opinion, he was not holding the Crown Prince Consort, but the Phoenix Girl, someone who was going to help him to reach the throne and dominate the whole world. Of course he would like her that much.

Also, he felt assured when she was in his arms. He felt as if he was holding his future and the whole world within his arms.

Naturally, he ignored Honored Princess Jing at the moment.

Honored Princess Jing was really irritated.

She had no idea about the door to enchantment and the appearance of the Phoenix Girl, that was why she did not understand why her son ignored her and only paid his attention to a woman.

She was really displeased.

Her son was born and grew up in the imperial court, and she had spent so much effort in raising him.

However... now he ignored her directly but focused only on a woman.

She always felt that the Crown Prince Consort was not elegant and was overly-dressed all the time, but due to her identity as the Phoenix Girl, she never said a bad thing against her. However, she felt quite uncomfortable right now.

Instead of throwing her temper, she said stiffly, "You have time to talk with each other when you return to the mansion later. Crown Prince, you need to have your injuries checked on by the imperial doctor."

Only then did Zhou Huailing release Gu Ruxue.

They were alone at Ronghua Palace... so Zhou Huailing said without consideration, "It is fine, mother, those are just fake wounds. If an imperial doctor comes to check on me, it would be very difficult to explain clearly."

“...”

“People from the North Qi were very invasive. I can’t just guard Feng County, but I was at the border so I needed to be injured so that I would be able to convince my father, thus getting those places wrapped up. I am not wounded, mother, don’t worry.”

Having said this, Zhou Huailing lost his patience to remain in the court. He was only thinking about fathering a child.

So he said straightforwardly, “Mother, please work more on father.”

“...”

“Me and Ruxue haven’t seen each other for a long while, and I need to speak with her at the mansion,” Zhou Huailing said cheerfully.

Having said that, he greeted his mother with Gu Ruxue, then he hurried off, looking really anxious.

Gu Ruxue felt quite excited as well and followed him. She knew what the Crown Prince needed. When the Crown Prince spent so much time at the border, she felt quite lonely as well. She wasn’t so happy about it.

Both of them were in a very good mood, but Honored Princess Jing stood on the spot with a sunken expression, watching the couple leave.

“Ling has always been the most polite towards the senior people in the court, and he would always come to me and exchange a few words with me whenever he is in the court...”

Chapter 1293 Unfairness 2

“And normally, we would talk for more than two hours. Ling trusts and relies on me too. It has always been like this! However, now that he is more than 20 years old, he has become someone who only adores women, not me! The Crown Prince Consort is not that elegant anyway.” Honored Princess Jing stood there, looking very annoyed. She truly did not like Gu Ruxue.

Honored Princess Jing felt very unconvinced and displeased with the Phoenix Girl.

She did not have a smooth time after becoming the Princess, and the only motivation she had was her son. So she was not very used to her son being away.

The Honored Princess showed no emotions, but that was because she was truly annoyed. Auntie Hua who was next to her felt her heart skipping a bit. She was very worried that Honored Princess Jing would not understand this. So she said, “Please, Honored Princess Jing, don’t think in this way. The Crown Prince has always treated you nicely.”

“...”

“How can he change just because of one woman?”

“...”

“The Crown Prince is a man who likes women, but he knows what comes first. The Crown Prince Consort is the Phoenix Girl, so she should be of some use. That is why the Crown Prince should pay more attention to her!”

“...”

“We have spent so many years in the court, so please understand.”

“...”

“You are of course more important to him, but it is a crucial time right now, and he needs to pay some attention to her as well,” Auntie Hua said.

Auntie Hua had served Honored Princess Jing since she was little, and she had not married anyone because she was devoted to Honored Princess Jing!

In Honored Princess Jing’s heart, she was someone of great importance, so when she said something, Honored Princess Jing believed her.

Honored Princess Jing smiled and said, “Don’t worry, Auntie, I am just saying something emotional. We should focus on the general situation. I really hope that Long will take the throne!”

“...”

“I have started to feel quite distracted after spending so much time in the court. Please, do remind me when you are around.” Honored Princess Jing smiled.

Only now did Auntie Hua feel more assured. She was worried that Honored Princess Jing would lose her confidence after so many years. That would be a huge loss, so it was great that she was fine.

Great...

“Don’t worry, I will be right next to you,” Auntie Hua said as she poured Honored Princess Jing the tea.

Honored Princess Jing nodded.

***

Outside Ronghua Palace.

Zhou Huailing was holding the umbrella for Gu Ruxue and did not want any snowflakes to fall upon her. They walked together all the way to the Crown Prince’s Mansion.

Zhou Huailing carefully looked after her, though he had been quite distracted.

He helped Gu Ruxue out of the wagon and they headed towards the Crown Prince’s Mansion.

They had just reached the gate when a woman rushed to him. “The Crown Prince, you are the Crown Prince right? I have something to say to you!”

Zhou Huailing was really startled after hearing the scream. Where did the woman come from? What was she doing here? It was just a total mess for him.

Zhou Huailing’s expression sank as he turned around.

Chapter 1294 Something 1

Hearing the sound, Gu Ruxue looked at her, not very pleased that a woman came to the Crown Prince at this moment. What would a woman come to the Crown Prince for anyway, other than some affairs.

There were no other ladies arranged by the Yao Family in the mansion. Did the Crown Prince go out and find someone else? Gu Ruxue was not very happy about this. The Crown Prince had promised her that he only had eyes for her! What was this woman doing here?

She looked at the woman and pursed her lips.

The woman looked very ordinary and old. She was unlike her and had a very plain look. The Crown Prince should not have fallen for a woman like this.

Gu Ruxue snorted.

Zhou Huailing got startled and snapped at the woman. "What is this crazy woman doing here? Drag her away and hit her twenty times!"

Then he turned to Gu Ruxue and tugged at her hands, hoping that Ruxue would not get mad by this.

The woman was startled by Zhou Huailing's sudden order too. She said hurriedly, "I have something to tell the Crown Prince!"

Zhou Huailing was going to leave directly rather than hear her.

Junyi tugged at Zhou Huailing and reminded her. "Crown Prince, let's just hear what she has to say. When we hear the story, we can handle everything properly." Junyi was trying to indicate that the Crown Prince should understand what he should say to Gu Ruxue.

The Crown Prince was in too much a hurry to make such a rough decision. It would make them miss a lot of beneficial things.

This woman looked old, so she must be married. Her clothes were made of excellent materials, so she was apparently from some official family. And the colors of the clothes indicated that she was not the legal wife, so if she could run away from the back yard and come to the Crown Prince, she might have something to tell him.

And that might not have anything to do about love affairs.

He observed her and understood what was going on, but he needed to hear her out to see what she had to say, thus reminding the Crown Prince.

Junyi was chuckling inwardly, in fact. He was hoping that it was going to be some internal affairs from those noble families.

Hearing what Junyi said, Zhou Huailing showed more patience to the woman and took a closer look at her. He was sure that this woman had nothing to do with him.

He nodded.

He glanced at Gu Ruxue. "You can go inside if you feel cold here."

"I will stay and listen with you, Crown Prince." Gu Ruxue answered straightforwardly. She had no intention of leaving. She was going to find out what this woman wanted from the Crown Prince!

Zhou Huailing nodded and did not feel worried.

Junyi believed that it was an okay decision, so he heard him out.

Zhou Huailing looked at the woman calmly, "Just spit it out."

The woman let out a sigh of relief.

She was so worried that she would be beaten to death before she spilled out the secret.

She had been too anxious and hurried.

So she changed her tone and said politely, "The Crown Prince, I am General Liu's concubine. I tried to meet you but had no other way except to wait for you here at the Crown Prince's Mansion."

"..."

"I am here to tell you something."

Chapter 1295 Something 2

Hearing that she was from General Liu's mansion, Zhou Huailing smiled. If she was here for him, then it must be because something was happening at the Liu Family Family.

That was quite normal. General Liu could not have survived after he returned from the border so they should not be as strong as before. He was not going to be General Liu anymore, and the Liu Family should be dismissed very soon.

However, he had not expected that the story would come to his ears.

Zhou Huailing smiled briefly, feeling overjoyed.

The Liu Family had been so popular and now they were collapsing. It was the Liu Family's fault since they tried to fight against him. Now they were like this.

Zhou Huailing was in a very good mood, so he nodded and came to the woman who was on her knees. "Just tell me what you need. If I can offer you anything, I will."

The concubine chuckled hearing that. That was what she had wanted!

The concubine thought for a while and said, "The Crown Prince, I am going to tell you a secret, which is related to you too, but if I tell you the secret I will get hunted down by the Liu Family. I don't think that I can live on at the Liu Family any more. I don't care about myself, but I have a son and I hope..."

Zhou Huailing's face changed as he looked at this concubine.

She was trying to make a deal with him?

It had been a long time since someone tried to make a deal with him in this way, but...

He was not too angry at the moment.

Well...

She mentioned her son, who was the concubine's son at the Liu Family. As long as he remembered, General Liu's wife passed away ages ago, and Liu Qingqing was their only child. And General Liu did not get any of his concubine to take over the position of wife, so General Liu had few children. The only son must be born by this woman.

He was the only son of the Liu Family.

Zhou Huailing smiled even more brightly. That was very soon.

General Liu and Liu Qingqing were his enemies, but what he had not expected was that the concubine of the Liu Family would seek shelter from him with the only son of the Liu Family.

It seemed that people from the Liu Family knew that the Liu Family was no longer as useful as before.

It seemed that the only profits he had got from the border war was that he had reached some of his goals.

Zhou Huailing smiled happily.

Seeing the concubine, he said, "I will give him shelter, and he will definitely have a future. Don't worry about this, I have told you this and I will stick to my promise. Me and Liu Qingqing are no longer related, but you are not like her."

The concubine chuckled.

That was exactly what she expected to happen.

So without hesitation, she said, "Crown Prince, the secret is that Liu Qingqing has given birth to your child and they are at the Liu Mansion right now!"

Chapter 1296 Only You!

"The Liu Mansion has been keeping this secret, but I believe that even if Liu Qingqing is separated from you, you should know about the child. Liu Qingqing has been over the top, so I came to tell you about this," the concubine said.

Liu Qingqing was a woman who had been married, but who kept thinking about causing trouble. It should be her son, Jing, who was in charge of the affairs in the mansion rather than her, when General Liu was in coma.

Jing was born by a concubine, but he was a man! It had always been men who were in charge since ancient times!

However, Liu Qingqing already replaced her and her son with her men and she was not convinced by that.

If she was going to bring down Liu Qingqing, she had to tell the secret about the child to her enemy.

Well...

She was right. The Crown Prince detested Liu Qingqing.

The Crown Prince was going to combat Liu Qingqing for keeping the secret.

At that time, she and Jing would take over the Liu Family!

The concubine felt really excited. As long as Jing took over the Liu Family, she would not care about whether the Crown Prince offered her any benefits.

When the concubine finished telling the story, the air turned quiet and no one had any reaction for a moment.

Liu Qingqing had gotten pregnant and she had given birth to a baby!

It would have been a very cheerful thing a year ago, but right now, this child should not have been born.

Zhou Huailing's expression sank deeply.

His lineal eldest son should not be by the lady from the Liu Family, but by the Phoenix Girl!

Hearing that, Gu Ruxue became very angry. "Crown Prince! I am the Crown Prince Consort and I am the one who should give birth to a baby, not others, especially not Liu Qingqing!" Gu Ruxue screamed with a loud voice, sounding really unsatisfied. She just could not accept the truth.

The Crown Prince had promised for her to have the first child. Only her child could become the lineal, eldest son, the only heir!

Obviously, the whole thing was wrong.

Liu Qingqing had already taken up the position!

She was so unhappy that she started to throw her temper at him.

Zhou Huailing took hold of Gu Ruxue and said, "Ruxue, let's just go in and I will give you a satisfying answer, alright?"

Having said that, Zhou Huailing's expression stiffened. "Junyi, deal with it."

The words had just been spoken when he took Gu Ruxue into the mansion.

This was not something he would like to run into, so he would give Ruxue the easiest answer.

He took her into the room.

With a determined look, Zhou Huailing said to Gu Ruxue. "Ruxue, Liu Qingqing was pregnant before you married me and that was my fault, but if I made you the promise, I would stick to that."

"..."

"I will not accept Liu Qingqing's child, and he will not exist in this world!"

"..."

"I only want to have a child with you, Ruxue."

"..."

“Only you are qualified enough to have my child!”

Having said that, Zhou Huailing approached Gu Ruxue, picked her up and carried her into the inner chamber. He looked really anxious.

Chapter 1297 Only You! 2

Zhou Huailing was anxious, not because of desire. He was a very cold and rational person and his desire only turned strong when he was facing something he really wanted. He was not that interested in women.

The reason why he was so anxious was because he wanted to have a child with the Phoenix Girl. Only when a child was born by the Phoenix Girl would he feel assured.

Gu Ruxue looked very bashful. She had been separated from the Crown Prince for more than half a month, and she spent the night alone, finding it difficult to fall asleep. The Crown Prince only slept with her, and he always spent the whole night at her place. The Crown Prince was young enough to have plenty of energy even after a busy day, so she was used to having fun with the Crown Prince.

So she had been longing for him during the past 15 days.

Her face had turned red, but she let the Crown Prince untie her clothes. From the outer shirt to the underwear, and then to the only remaining apron, taking off all these obstacles, a wonderful body was presented in front of his eyes. Gu Ruxue was beautiful, there was no doubt. She had just become an adult so her body and skin were excellent. It was very hot in the room at the moment, so her skin was slightly ruddy.

Seeing her below him, Zhou Huailing felt quite attracted to this beautiful woman even though he only cared about having a child as soon as possible.

Compared to other men, he had relatively fewer women with him. He could not touch the ladies from the Yao Family, and Ruxue had been watching out for other women. And at the border, he kept himself away from women as well, so he was very motivated at the moment.

He bent down and started to move roughly.

It was still snowing outside, so people inside the room brought coals and tried not to interrupt them.

Sound constantly arose from the room, but they just pretended as if they heard nothing.

***

Junyi already settled the concubine from the Liu Family, and then he wanted to talk about these urgent matters. He had no time to take a break, so while the Crown Prince was busy in the bedroom, he headed directly to the study and waited for him.

Snow in June in the Saint Divine Land!

Junyi was feeling really glad to see the snow, which drove the others crazy.

He had given himself a goal that within three years, he was going to help the Crown Prince take the throne. He wanted nothing but the title of the King's strategist. Then he would become a hermit and go to his master, telling him that he was better than his Senior Brother Xie Yan, showing him that he was indeed a capable disciple.

His Senior Brother was just a deserter.

Junyi snorted and felt very unsatisfied by Xie Yan.

He had never believed that Xie Yan was better than him, but his master still preferred him.

He was going to prove to them!

Junyi had his teeth clenched.

It would take less than 3 years before the Crown Prince took the throne!

Junyi smiled happily.

***

In the room.

When they were done, silence dominated again.

Gu Ruxue had fallen asleep, but she was smiling. She was obviously really happy.

Zhou Huailing felt tired, but he did not go to bed, but got out of it.

Chapter 1298 Big Event 1

He took a bath, then asked the servant to dress him. Then he walked out of the room and said, "The Crown Prince Consort is tired, and she may need to have a long rest. Have warm water and snacks prepared and do not be slow in serving her! If she wakes up in the middle, tell her that I am in the study and that I will keep her company soon."

"..."

"Nothing else is important. That is all for today, you can all go serve her now!" Zhou Huailing got everything settled, so he said nothing more and left with a coat on his shoulders.

He and Junyi were in agreement. That was because he understood Junyi well.

Junyi was devoted to him, and was working very hard for him. Junyi was very kind-hearted and he did not pursue power and interest, which made him feel quite assured.

Since Junyi was very devoted, he spent almost the whole time helping him out.

At first, he worried whether Junyi would be devoted to him, so he gave him a woman, but gradually, he realized that Junyi spent almost all his time in getting his work done, so he trusted him even more.

He started to walk towards his study which was fully lit.

Zhou Huailing walked directly into the study, put down the coat and sat onto the chair.

Junyi joined him.

Zhou Huailing was in a good mood as he asked Junyi. "We are now done with all affairs. Now we can talk about important business."

"..."

"You must have waited for a long while, Junyi." Zhou Huailing said casually.

Junyi showed no expression on his face. "The Crown Prince and the Crown Prince Consort should have a child. That is what matters more than anything else."

Zhou Huailing smiled brightly.

Liu Qingqing gave birth to a child, so he knew one thing.

He was able to father a child, but Liu Qingqing was too elegant for him to indulge himself.

However, Ruxue was the Phoenix Girl and she behaved well in the chamber too. If he worked hard, and Ruxue was trapped inside the room, he would soon have a child.

Zhou Huailing felt very motivated, but he also believed that it was very difficult to deal with the born child.

He looked up at Junyi. "Junyi, what do you think that we should deal with the child?"

"It is very easy to deal with the child, because he is known to be living at the Liu Mansion. And we can have this concubine killed in anyway we want."

"..."

"What matters the most is our major business Crown Prince."

Zhou Huailing nodded.

That was true. He could do whatever he wanted with the child with just one order, but when the door to enchantment would appear mattered more.

What happened at the border mattered the most.

How he could gather his forces and take the throne was what mattered above all.

By this point...

Zhou Huailing was about to speak when his messenger came. "Crown Prince, something has just happened!"

Chapter 1299 Use

Zhou Huailing was about to speak when he heard the anxious words. He turned more serious and stopped what he was about to say. He glanced at Junyi, who nodded. Zhou Huailing looked at the approaching man and asked, "What happened?"

Junyi arranged those messengers. He had been expanding his network from when he started to work as his strategist, until this moment, when the capital was filled with his messengers. In other places in the Saint Divine Land, there were people working for him as well.

They were back from the border, but they had many messengers settled at the border too.

They would be the first person that received the news from the border, just like how the news from the court could come to them first.

Zhou Huailing had thought that this was just a waste of time and energy, but when the network was fully settled and he received the news first, he was very satisfied.

With a teacup in his hands, he looked at the person calmly.

The messenger replied. "Crown Prince, the news from the border says that the situation is not very optimistic. After Feng County was lost, Ning County was lost too. Duke North can't hold the forces and has retreated to Xinzhou. Duke North is badly injured and is receiving medical treatment in the clinic. The news will reach the King tonight, so in the morning session the next day, the King might need to find a new chief to lead the army."

Having said this, the messenger stood still.

Those messengers were all intelligent people, who were very effective in collecting all kinds of information and making predictions. For example, they were able to tell what would happen the next day through the news from the border.

Therefore, Zhou Huailing could get everything prepared for the next day without making mistakes.

Zhou Huailing nodded.

He understood what was happening, so he told the messenger to retire.

He had predicted that the border would keep on losing to the enemies. He was not shocked and he believed that it should happen like this.

Jiayu Pass was lost when General Liu was in charge. He was kind of responsible too. He lost Feng County, and he was responsible, so if Duke North held Ning County, then he as the Crown Prince would be humiliated.

So it was only reasonable that Ning County was lost.

Junyi had predicted that as long as Jiayu Pass was lost, the towns around it would be lost too. What they needed was to keep the capital as well as the Phoenix Girl safe.

So he was very confident.

He looked calm, sipped the tea and looked at Junyi. "What do you think we should do next?"

"Ning County has been lost, and the army retreated to Xinzhou, which is better than Ning County, in terms of goods and houses. We even have some troops stationed at Xinzhou as well, but compared to Ning County, Xinzhou is not as strong, so Xinzhou will be lost very soon too."

"..."

"If that is the case, we should take good advantage of North Qi!"

"How?" Zhou Huailing asked seriously.

Chapter 1300 Requires

Junyi smiled briefly.

How? That was very simple, especially since they were in the chaos of wars.

“Snow in June... that is obviously a very strange scene. According to Destiny Monk, that is because the door to enchantment is about to open, which means that there is going to be another land behind that door. So the towns in the Saint Divine Land are no longer important. If that is the case, why not take this opportunity to remove who we want to remove?”

“...”

“We have removed the Liu Family.”

“...”

“The Chu Family is not in a very steady position in the capital, so we don’t need to work hard on that.”

“...”

“And we just have a few lords left. Those lords are all useless, but they are still the King’s sons, which can potentially cause you trouble.”

“...”

“Lord Yan has been living at the border throughout his life, and he is now like a piece of trash. He can be left for the future. Lord Yu is never in the capital, and we will always have a chance to deal with him. Lord Huai is the worst of all. He is the lineal child, and although the Jiang Family is gone, he is still quite popular, especially his fiance Gu Chaoyan. She is quite capable so they may have the chance to over turn the table. She may be a threat to us.”

“...”

“Ning County is lost and Duke North is seriously injured, and someone is going to be dispatched to Xinzhou. Lord Huai is the best candidate.”

“...”

“He can be a huge comparison against you and for another thing, he can get killed through others’ hands.”

“...”

“What do you think, Crown Prince?” Junyi asked.

Junyi heard Junyi’s analyses and believed that it totally made sense.

When his father took the throne, he had his brothers removed. That was why he took the throne successfully.

Now he was almost at the edge of his goal, so if his brothers still lived it might be a huge threat for him. So he needed to remove them as well.

He had always hated his Eighth Brother, who always had what he wanted.

If that was the case... then Eighth Brother could be the first one to be removed!

What Junyi planned fit what he was thinking!

Zhou Huailing looked outside and thought for a while, saying, "Junyi, before it gets too dark, go to the officer of the Ministry of Architecture and tell him that he should make the proposal of sending Lord Huai to the border. You can promise him a lot of benefits! It is very important, so Junyi, you should do it personally so that I can be assured."

Zhou Huailing felt quite uncertain. It was not a very good day and he did not think that it was proper to send Junyi there, but he could not trust anyone else.

Junyi nodded and did not dwell on it.

His purpose was to get what he could obtain from the Crown Prince. He did not care about anything else except to reach his goal.

So Junyi left directly while Zhou Huailing went to his chambers.

He headed towards Gu Ruxue.

At that moment, Gu Ruxue had just woken up and finished taking a bath. She had been so tired that she fell asleep directly. She had just regained her energy and felt like eating.

Before she was able to say anything, Zhou Huailing picked her up and carried her to the inner chamber, shut the door and pushed Gu Ruxue to the bed.

Gu Ruxue threw a shocked look at Zhou Huailing. "Crown Prince...."