Chapter 1501 Your Deed

“Okay,” Chen Fu said with a modest sound, going away from the hall to fetch Mrs. Gu.

Gu Zhenkang was still utterly furious.

He was clutching to the booklet of bills, which almost got twisted and ruined in his hands.

Sword One wanted to remind him that the booklet of bills should not be ruined, but Gu Chaoyan shook her head to tell Sword One that it was not necessary. Gu Zhenkang had seen them and that was her purpose, so it did not matter if they were ruined.

Gu Chaoyan was smiling all this while. She had it all under her control.

However, Gu Zhenkang, on the other hand, was a mess.

In his heart, Mrs. Gu was from a small officer’s family but she was born there. And a lady from an officer’s family was always well-mannered. He had never believed that Mrs. Gu would have lied to him, and the lie started 14 years ago, the time when she just married him. It was from that time when she was running a business of her own.

She was out there running stores like those civilians! Mrs. Gu was a woman!

Honestly, no ladies or madams of any mansion would run business personally...

Oh...

The Elder Princess might have been an exception. She used to run Restaurant Jixian, but... the reason why the Elder Princess ran Restaurant Jixian was because her husband died ages ago and before her husband died, she did not run any business.

None!

However, this Mrs. Gu... How dare she do things like this?!

She was lying to him and humiliating him!

Gu Zhenkang would be so humiliated if the secret was found out.

Also... during these days... Mrs. Gu kept transferring things from Gu Mansion out to her own place.

What did that mean? Was she going to empty the Gu Mansion?

What a selfish woman!

He drove away Ms. Lin for this woman, but this woman turned out to be a bi*ch. She was even worse than Ms. Lin! Ms. Lin might not have been born well, yet the Lin Family had been supporting the Gu Family all this time. This bi*ch, however, was doing the opposite. Very well, very well!

The more Gu Zhenkang thought about this, the more he trembled in anger.

Gu Chaoyan, on the other hand, was drinking her second cup of tea.

The tea made from steamed tea cakes was very fragrant and suitable for this season.

Gu Chaoyan felt even happier drinking this delicious tea.

Mrs. Gu walked in slowly, and sat down casually in the hall. Chen Fu retired himself outside of the door, whilst Gu Chaoyan was still wearing a small smile.

At this moment...

It was very quiet in the hall.

Gu Zhenkang had not yet burst out his anger, and Gu Chaoyan had not driven away her smile, but Mrs. Gu...

She had no idea what happened. She sat down, drank the tea which was prepared by the servants from the front yard. It was not as tasty as the tea in Gu Chaoyan's hands, but Mrs. Gu never cared about the quality of the tea.

"Old Master, why did you want me here?" Mrs. Gu was confused.

"What do I want? Mrs. Gu, look at what you have done!" Gu Zhenkang smashed the papers in Mrs. Gu's face.

Chapter 1502 Your Deed

The sound was loud.

The papers all fell onto the ground into a mess, and Mrs. Gu's hair became unkempt whilst her face turned red.

For a long time, Mrs. Gu had no idea what was going on, but when she did, she went crazy as she plonked the teacup, shouting, "Are you crazy, Gu Zhenkang, what did you hit me for?"

"I am crazy?! You bi*ch, look at what you have done before you ask me anything!" Gu Zhenkang bent down to pick up the papers and again smashed them in Mrs. Gu's face like a crazy man. He almost wanted to hit her with his bare hands.

When she was smashed in the face once again, Mrs. Gu was dumbfounded.

She suddenly understood that something was wrong.

Booklets for bills?

What booklets for bills?

She found them all so familiar.

She anxiously picked them up and leafed them through, reading the contents.

June in Year 9 of the King, Caiyun Workshop, 30,000 liang. June in Year 9 of the King, Tianxiang Hostel, 80,000 liang. Year 10...Year 11...

Mrs. Gu finally understood what was going on as she read through the familiar contents.

These booklets for bills were showing her business during the past years, but why were they here?

She had never been to those stores, and no one had ever noticed anything. So why did they all appear right here?! What was going on?

Even the Zhang Family had no idea about those stores, and some of the managers did not even know that she was behind the stores.

Nothing was happening in those stores these days either...

How could that be?

"Mrs. Gu, are all of these real?" Gu Zhenkang asked with his teeth clenched, as he sized up Mrs. Gu who was panicking.

"Listen to me, Old Master, please!" Mrs. Gu panicked as she said, "I am doing this for Gu Mansion and for our Yunhe and Ruxue!"

“You were low in official rank and we were all using the Lin Family’s money. We depended on her all this time! I did not feel that was fair. The Lin Family was just a business family so why were they so rich? I believed that I could start some businesses and become better than Ms. Lin as well!”

“...”

“That was why these stores are here! I put the earnings back in Gu Mansion, and the others are stored at the bank under Ruxue and Yunhe’s name. If our mansion is falling one day, our children could at least have income!”

“I didn’t mean to hide the stores from you. I know you don’t like the smell of money, so I just left it there.”

“...”

“But I can promise that I have been using these on Yunhe and Ruxue and our mansion!” Mrs. Gu explained anxiously.

Mrs. Gu would not have been worried if it had happened a bit earlier, but this was a bad time.

The Crown Prince did not entrust Yunhe to do any missions and he had no rank in the governmental office. Ruxue was having a fight with the Crown Prince too...

Everything was getting worse and worse, and she did not want any more trouble, so she was really worried.

She had business outside the mansion, which was not a bad thing.

She did this for their children...

Also...

Chapter 1503 Mrs. Gu's Result 1

"The Lin Family are doing business because they are rich, so Ms. Lin married you and became your wife. She could get so much fortune because of the Lin Family, didn't she?"

"..."

"I could do it too!"

"..."

"Ms. Lin needed her father's help, but I didn't. I can earn money by running my own business. I am not worse than Ms. Lin!"

"..."

"I could also take out those boxes of things Ms. Lin had here!" Mrs. Gu said excitedly.

Her father was just a small officer, but it was an official family anyway, whereas Ms. Lin was just a businesswoman. The Lin Family had a lot of money, and her family did not have any, yet she could make it herself!

She was not worse than Ms. Lin at all!

She was never going to be worse than Ms. Lin.

Having said this, Mrs. Gu held her head up in the air, looking very proud and undefeatable as she turned to Gu Zhenkang.

Was it her fault? No! She was only doing this because she wanted to become better than Ms. Lin, so the Old Master would not regret choosing her over Ms. Lin.

Gu Zhenkang was listening to Mrs. Gu's speech.

He had a very complicated look on his face.

He seemed really disappointed and felt really complicated in his heart.

What on earth was Mrs. Gu doing all these years?

She opened those stories just because she wanted to prove herself to be better than Ms. Lin? Was she stupid or something?!

She was born in an official's family and her father's position, though not very high in rank, still exceeded that of business people! He did not like Ms. Lin because she was born in a business family, so he gave the best to Mrs. Gu, who in the end, was running a business just to prove that she was better than Ms. Lin!

That was such a ridiculous joke!

Gu Zhenkang let go of Ms. Lin for such a woman?

Gu Zhenkang sized up Mrs. Gu with an ironic smile. "You are worse than Ms. Lin, honestly. You are so stupid. I should not have married you and should have instead lived a peaceful life with Ms. Lin!"

"What do you mean?" Mrs. Gu's eyes went round, as she looked at Gu Zhenkang in disbelief. Had she heard something wrong? Gu Zhenkang said that she was worse than Ms. Lin?

She was worse than that business woman?!

Gu Zhenkang threw a cold look at her.

He did not even want to speak to her anymore.

He said coldly, "Mrs. Gu, you are the madame of the Gu Family, but you are not behaving like it. You secretly do business outside the mansion and you are now transferring the properties of the Gu Family. You are a very horrible woman and you have no right to remain as the madame of the Gu Family. You should be at the disposal of the governmental office, but for the sake of Yunhe and Ruxue, I decided to keep the matter within our mansion. You are not to get involved with anything happening in the Gu Family any more. Your keys to the storage room should be left to Chen Fu now. And when the current errands are done, we will assign a new administrator for the mansion."

As he was speaking... Gu Zhenkang looked at Chen Fu. "Do your job well, and you will be rewarded."

"Okay." Chen Fu answered politely.

Gu Zhenkang felt better after making the arrangement.

Mrs. Gu could not believe what was happening...

Chapter 1504 Mrs. Gu's Result

Why did it suddenly become like this?!

"Old Master!" Mrs. Gu screamed, trying to get Gu Zhenkang back. "Old Master, listen to me please. I am doing this for your sake, and for the Gu Mansion as well!"

Mrs. Gu tried to get away from the people who held her down. She wanted to explain.

Hearing her loud cries, Gu Zhenkang walked forward without turning back.

However, Gu Zhenkang was not in a good mood.

For him, he felt that the belief he had been sticking to had suddenly collapsed.

The Gu Family had been literati for generations, and her mother always told him that literati were the most noble position in the time, though they might not have much money.

He married Ms. Lin at the beginning, because the Gu Family was too poor to go on and he needed Ms. Lin's money.

He tried to suck up to Ms. Lin because he wanted to get her properties. He did not feel like doing so, but he had no choice for his family.

Even on his wedding day, he felt horrible for having married Ms. Lin who was just a humiliation.

Only when he married Mrs. Gu did he feel slightly better.

Mrs. Gu was a lady from an official family and that was the kind of lady his mother said should marry him.

Mrs. Gu was his consolation, but now...

Mrs. Gu said that she was worse than Ms. Lin, and she even wanted to do business to be better than Ms. Lin.

In that case... He should not have married Mrs. Gu to start with.

If he had not gotten Ms. Lin killed, Ms. Lin would have still been alive. Ms. Lin treated him well and took him into consideration. She did everything to cater to him. If she were alive, Gu Chaoyan would have a mother and she would have to obey his rules, not like now when everything was the opposite.

If Ms. Lin had been alive, nothing would have been so troublesome!

Ms. Lin was so gentle and she looked pretty. Everything was better than Mrs. Gu except for her identity.

He regretted so badly having made such a bad decision, but it was too late now!

Gu Zhenkang felt extremely regretful as he felt the bitterness inside his heart.

His mother was gone too, because of Mrs. Gu's mistreatment towards her. Now he had no one to help him. Ms. Lin would not have treated his mother in this way!

Gu Zhenkang was going through all of these in his mind, and he started to dislike Mrs. Gu more and more.

In the hall.

Mrs. Gu struggled for a long while, but could not get rid of their grip.

Then she looked up at Gu Chaoyan who was smiling at her.

Mrs. Gu narrowed her eyes.

She suddenly realized something.

How did all of those old bill books get to Old Master? It was this bi*ch's deed!

Years passed, and now a stupid girl knew how to bite people.

“You did it, right?” Mrs. Gu bore into Gu Chaoyan's eyes, asking in the hall. She was going to give Gu Chaoyan, the bi*ch, a hard time. She had done all of these behind her back, so she was going to make Old Master know that it was this bi*ch who planned this.

She was not going to get away with this.

Gu Chaoyan smiled as she said openly, “I did.”

Chapter 1505 Letter

“Gu Chaoyan! If you don't admit it, I will...” Mrs. Gu was snapping at her when she realized that Gu Chaoyan admitted it directly.

She was shocked, and paused whatever she was saying.

Gu Chaoyan approached her and stared into Mrs. Gu's eyes, indifferently. "My people found it out. And I intentionally did so."

"Because I am taking revenge on you. You know I did it, but so what?"

"..."

"You think the Gu Family will blame me for doing that to you? I am the Phoenix Girl, remember? Even the King doesn't dare do anything, let alone the Gu Family!"

"..."

"Also..."

"..."

"Mrs. Gu, there will be more than this coming soon," Gu Chaoyan said and smiled very brightly as she looked at Mrs. Gu.

As she finished laughing... she passed by Mrs. Gu.

Mrs. Gu's eyes were wide in disbelief. She watched Gu Chaoyan's back and was about to rush up at Gu Chaoyan, when she was taken down.

Gu Chaoyan passed by Chen Fu and said, "Chen Fu, come here, I have a few words to tell you."

Chen Fu followed her.

"Madame Gu is now gone, and your Old Master is a man who can't deal with what is happening in the mansion. I am the Elder Miss, so I will make decisions. Concubine Gu has committed a lot of bad deeds, and she should have been escorted to the governmental offices, but your Old Master isn't doing so. Instead, he has only given her some punishments. Therefore, Concubine Gu should not live in the front yard, since it is not proper. Take her to the wing-yard, the one where Madame Gu used to stay. That fits her well..."

Having said this, Gu Chaoyan said directly, "You can do it now."

"Okay." Chen Fu answered politely, without saying anything else.

Gu Chaoyan headed towards her own yard, followed by Sword One.

Before she reached Pear Yard, a maid came to pass on the message. "Elder Miss, the Crown Prince is asking for you."

"I am not feeling well, so I am not meeting him. Tell him to go back home," Gu Chaoyan said casually.

The maid hesitated, but still answered with a nod, taking her leave to pass on the message.

Back to Pear Yard...

She found a very familiar letter, which relaxed her.

She opened the letter and took out the paper inside.

The letter was not delivered by the maid from the court, but by Sword Three and Sword Four, and was directly put on the table.

The Xin County was defending against the North Qi Land, which got ambushed by the Saint Divine Land every now and then. The North Qi Land, just as she had foreseen, started to retract their military forces and started to attack the Feather Mulberry Land and the Cloud Land. The North Qi Land was not attacking the Saint Divine Land, so it was safe, but the military forces from the other two lands were not enough. If the North Qi Land took down the two countries, there would be a huge disaster for the civilians.

Huaijin and his men from the Shadow Door went to help them a few days back.

Even at the present time... she received the letter.

It showed the following words.

Chapter 1506 Letter

The war situation as well as how the other two countries were doing. The other two countries were prepared for the North Qi Land's invasion, but they still were attacked seriously. They lost many towns and people, but Zhou Huaijin and his men from the Shadow Door went up to offer help, so they were holding up against each other. In the meanwhile, the two countries' defensive abilities were raised with the Shadow Door's help.

Doing that, the Shadow Door earned respect from everyone from the Feather Mulberry Land and the Cloud Land as well as the Saint Divine Land.

The Shadow Door had always been an organization without the country's restrictions. They always kept a low-profile in the past, staying away from the court, but things are different now. The Shadow Door had gained its mysterious and powerful name among people.

After what was happening was presented, Zhou Huaijin left a note – please wait for me to return, at the end of the letter.

Gu Chaoyan finished the letter with a smile.

She was not at all worried about Zhou Huaijin at this point.

The Phoenix Girl seemed very capable in everything, but Gu Chaoyan still believed that what people did could change the destiny of heaven.

Zhou Huaijin was the man that could change the destiny of heaven.

When the North Qi's invasion started...

The King and everyone else put their hope in the so-called Phoenix Girl. Only Zhou Huaijin strengthened the Shadow Door and played it to a greater extent, rather than rely only on the so-called Phoenix Girl, who was of no help at the moment.

Gu Chaoyan put the letter back into the envelope carefully, as she said quietly, "Sword One!"

"Elder Miss." Sword One came to accept the order.

"Go and pick the Immortal Flower from the Qiong Pavilion!" Gu Chaoyan said with a smile.

"Okay!" Sword One turned around to do that.

The Immortal Flower was only seen at the Qiong Pavilion, it was planted by Ms. Lin and grew at the Qiong Pavilion all this while.

When Sword One got the flower, Gu Chaoyan put the fresh flower into the letter and gave it to Sword One. "Give it to Sword Three. He knows where to have it delivered."

Sword One nodded.

She was a little confused.

Elder Miss would always stuff something into the letter as a reply. It seemed that only Lord Huai understood what that meant.

Gu Chaoyan smiled briefly.

She trusted Zhou Huaijin about the war and the Shadow Door. Zhou Huaijin could do that well too. So she told him what she was dealing with after receiving Zhou Huaijin's news.

The Immortal Flower only grew in Qiong Pavilion, so when he returned, he would know where to find her.

And what she put in her previous letter was telling him that she missed him and that he should come back soon.

Gu Chaoyan inhaled, stood up from the table and approached the window, looking outside.

After the door to enchantment was opened, everything was flourishing. There was no more snow, and green leaves were growing on the twigs. The day was getting warmer too.

In a few days, the hand-fireplace would not need to be used any more.

And she was, step by step, taking revenge for Ms. Lin and the old Gu Chaoyan. When the evidence was all collected, she was going to take the Gu Family all the way into the governmental office.

After that...

She was going to look for the lost Golden Scrolls.

What the Golden Scrolls contained was the real secret of the door to enchantment.

Chapter 1507 The Min Family's Meeting With Her 1

The following day...

Mrs. Gu had been grounded in the wing-yard, served only by her maid and auntie. It was suddenly quiet in the Gu Mansion.

Gu Yunhe and Gu Ruxue learned about what happened to Mrs. Gu the night before, so the whole Gu Mansion was very nervous. If the Crown Prince Consort and Young Master Yunhe made a scene because of what happened to Mrs. Gu, the whole mansion would be in chaos and the servants would be the ones that suffered.

However, one night passed, and it was still very quiet the next day.

The Crown Prince Consort and Young Master Yunhe did not even walk out of the yard as if nothing had happened...

Sword One walked about in the mansion and she found the whole thing very surprising.

She hurried back and said to Gu Chaoyan in surprise. "Elder Miss, they really are quiet, as you have said. How did you know that?"

She had not believed that it would be like this when her Elder Miss told her this the day before.

Mrs. Gu was their mother and she made plans for them all the time. So when Mrs. Gu was grounded and stripped of the right to be in charge of the whole mansion, her children should seek revenge for their mother.

She was even worried that Elder Miss would be blamed.

Unexpectedly...

Things turned out to be very different.

They were very quiet, just as Elder Miss had predicted.

Sword One did not understand.

"Mrs. Gu is not a nice woman, but she has some heart. She does everything for her own children, but Gu Yunhe and Gu Ruxue don't have any conscience. They see their own interests as the most important."

"..."

"If Mrs. Gu was grounded because of other things, they might cause a scene, but Mrs. Gu was transporting things from Gu Mansion, and they were all saved under Gu Yunhe and Gu Ruxue's names. They really want to get rid of this matter, so they are keeping themselves in the dark."

"They are worried that Gu Zhenkang will think that they are accomplices if they defend Mrs. Gu, because if Gu Zhenkang loses his trust in them, they would have no future at all."

"..."

"They have to choose the side that doesn't hurt them." Gu Chaoyan analyzed. "Mrs. Gu has no future by this point."

Sword One's eyes widened when she heard Elder Miss' words.

Elder Miss seemed to see through everyone easily, and she was always able to predict the other person's reaction.

She had been by Elder Miss' side for so long, but she had not learned a thing from her.

Sword One felt a little sorry about this.

Gu Chaoyan was about to tell Sword One something in detail, when Chen Fu arrived. Chen Fu was in charge of every affair in the mansion, but he still informed her if anything happened in the front yard.

Chen Fu must be here to tell her something.

Gu Chaoyan looked up at him.

Chen Fu was still very polite as he spoke to her. His back was bent. "Elder Miss, Madame Min, First Mrs. Min and the Young Master of the Min Family are here to see you. Madame Min says that she has not seen you for a long time and would like to talk with you as an old friend."

People from the Min Family?

She almost forgot that the Min Family and the Gu Family were maritally connected at the moment.

They wanted to see her?

Chapter 1508 The Min Family's Meeting With Her 2

The King ordered the marital connection between the Min Family and Gu Yunhe. The two families did hang out with each other a few times, but as far as she remembered, after the door to enchantment was opened, and Ruxue did not turn out to be the Phoenix Girl, the Min Family had gone quiet.

Now they were suddenly at the door, saying that they wanted to talk about the martial connection between the two families and even talk about the old times...

She knew pretty well what the Min Family needed.

The Min Family was a noble family which was hundreds of years old, and they had been out of the court for years. When Gu Chaoyan treated Madame Min before, she had a good impression of the Min Family, thinking that the Min Family would stay away from the court just as they had claimed to others, despite the chaotic situation the Saint Divine Land was experiencing now.

However, after a few more times of meeting, Gu Chaoyan had seen through the Min Family.

The noble family was more pretentious than any other mansion out there.

They were here to suck up to her because she was the Phoenix Girl!

And she was going to meet them today.

Otherwise the Gu Family was going to get more profits from talking to the Min Family by using her identity.

Gu Chaoyan went to the hall with Sword One.

In the hall of the Gu Mansion.

Madame Min, Old Master, First Ms. Min, and Young Master were all seated with a worried look, especially Madame Min and First Ms. Min, who kept looking out to see if Gu Chaoyan was on the way.

Gu Zhenkang forced a smile and tried to have a casual chit chat with the Old Master of the Min Family in a very flattering way, but the Old Master was not happy at all. What they needed was the Phoenix Girl, not Gu Zhenkang. So the Old Master of the Min Family just drank his tea, looking quite distracted.

Whilst the Old Master of the Min Family was drinking the tea... Madame Min lost her patience to do so. She was waiting impatiently.

Honestly... she felt quite regretful.

They tried to suck up to the Crown Prince a while ago, and the King accepted the flattery. She believed that the Min Family already found its roots in the capital. And the King set up the martial arrangement for the families, and they were stabilized further in the capital.

That was why she asked Mrs. Min not to get involved with what was going on with the Min Family, but entrusted First Ms. Min to be in charge instead.

However, years passed... Mrs. Min was still a very stubborn woman.

She left the capital because of a few matters.

She and Gu Chaoyan were good friends, and it seemed that Gu Chaoyan liked her. If she was here today, things would be much easier. And the whole mansion would not have to be here. Zhuxun's words spoke louder than anyone else's from the mansion.

Honestly... it was her fault.

She had not thought about this before.

She ruined the whole thing just because First Mrs. Min wasn't happy.

And she had not heard from Zhuxun, so she wondered how they could get in touch with each other.

Madame Min was playing with the Buddha beads in her hands, thinking about the messy situation she had to face now.

Soon some voices arose from the hall.

She suddenly felt slightly more at ease.

Gu Chaoyan was here.

She was still willing to meet the Min Family.

Chapter 1509 The Min Family's Flattery 1

As long as she could still talk to the Min Family, the marital arrangement between Ling and Young Master Gu would add to that. So the Min Family would be considered to be hanging out with the Phoenix Girl. And they could continue to develop the relationship little by little.

The Min Family was a noble family for hundreds of years, and the Phoenix Girl would need to respect them too.

That was what Madame Min had been thinking during this period, so she looked slightly more relaxed. She showed her special smile and looked up to the door.

Gu Chaoyan was the same as they remembered. She was dressed in plain and simple white. She had a few maids behind her, which was more than the maids she had when she first came to the Min Mansion a while ago, when she looked very poor.

"Hello, Elder Miss," Madame Min said in a friendly tone.

"Greetings, Madame Min," Gu Chaoyan said, with a slight nod, as she went to the empty seat.

Well...

She was the Phoenix Girl, who was more noble than the Min Family. And the Min Family had no official rank, so she did not need to bow to them. She was just greeting Madame Min as someone younger and polite.

Madame Min's gratified feelings and hope were gone when they saw how Gu Chaoyan greeted them.

She was very cold and did not even look at the others from the Min Family. She had completely showcased that right in front of them.

It seemed that... they would need to make some efforts to repair the relationship.

Madame Min sighed, but she still wore a very affable smile.

Gu Chaoyan had just sat down and asked. "Housekeeper Chen informed me that you were here to ask for me. I wonder what you want?"

She sounded very distant. She was taking it as a business deal.

~~~~~ novel.com
She did not speak in a soft voice as she did when she was at the Min Mansion. Madame Min felt very regretful.

The Min Mansion should not have treated her like that before. No one had expected that she would be the Phoenix Girl, but she was a very skillful doctor, so she was worth hanging out with. Madame Min had been thinking about treating her nicely so that they could continue to hang out later, but everything turned out to be the opposite.

When she offered to treat her medically, she still had some gentleness.

If she had gripped that opportunity... everything would have been so different.

Madame Min was very jealous of Madame Bai, who had always been hanging out with Gu Chaoyan. She believed that the Bai Family must be receiving a lot of guests these days.

Nevertheless... it was too late for her to regret.

Madame Min was experienced and elderly enough not to show any turmoil on her face.

She smiled kindly. "The King has bestowed the martial arrangement between our Ling and Young Master Gu, but the wedding has not yet been held due to the chaotic past few days. Now the Saint Divine Land has settled down, and the Phoenix Girl is here. That is a good omen. The Min Family have a good relationship with the Gu Family so we would like to get some happiness from you, the Phoenix Girl, so that we can get the wedding date settled."

"..."

"Actually, we are destined to have a good relationship. Apart from the martial arrangement, you even saved my life before.

You are a savior to our family, so..."

Chapter 1510 The Min Family's Flattery 2

"Elder Miss, do you think you can name a wedding date for us?" Madame Min smiled as if she were speaking to her own granddaughter?

Hearing that, Gu Chaoyan started to frown.

Madame Min was indeed experienced.

Gu Zhenkang would just put it straightforwardly if he was asking for something, but Madame Min was just saying things implicitly so as to mention their history and asked her to set a wedding date for her.

However, today... if she picked a date casually, she would have to be involved with this marital arrangement all the time.

Madame Min was really setting her up.

Gu Chaoyan felt quite displeased.

She said coldly, "I treated Madame Min, because I am a doctor and I can't just ignore any patient for no reason. The Old Master paid me too afterwards. I can't be called your life savior, because you were not that seriously ill, and I accepted the payment, so I was just being a doctor. I have cured so many people every day at my own pace, so if everyone wants to have something to do with me, I don't think that I can accept it."

"However, you did save a life, and that is not about whether you can accept it." Old Master added quickly seeing that Gu Chaoyan was trying to get rid of them.

"I told you already that I treated a patient and got paid. That is just a small thing for me, you don't have to take it to heart. That was what you told me at that time, wasn't it? I have been keeping this in mind," Gu Chaoyan said coldly.

When that was said, Gu Chaoyan continued. "As for the martial connection, Madame Min, you can talk with Officer Gu. I have nothing to do with it, and I can't be of any help."

"If there is nothing more than that, I will be off now."

Having said that, Gu Chaoyan stood up and was about to leave.

The Min Family looked completely dumbfounded. They had not yet said a thing when the situation turned so awkward. The Min Family was very surprised. They had thought that even if Gu Chaoyan did not like the Min Family, she should care about the wedding of the Gu Family. That was why they decided to take it slow.

However, it seemed that they had irritated Gu Chaoyan for some reason and became her enemy.

First Ms. Min was panicking.

She was about to say something... when Gu Zhenkang stood up and said with a flattering smile. "You don't need to go back right now, what are you going to do back there? Yunhe is your half brother and his wedding is your affairs too. You can give us some advice."

If the Phoenix Girl was involved with the wedding arrangement, things would be very different. Gu Zhenkang knew that pretty well.

That was why he was very anxious.

"If you need advice, find a matchmaker," Gu Chaoyan said coldly, "Mrs. Gu is not presentable so she can't be in charge of any of these, but you should find the other concubines to do it. I am engaged to Lord Huai, but I am not married. Is that not the rules and regulations of the Saint Divine Land?"

Gu Chaoyan sounded furious.

Having said that, she left.

Gu Zhenkang was dumbfounded.

Madame Min finally understood what a huge mistake they had made.
