

Divine 1511

Chapter 1511 Understanding 1

Ever since Gu Chaoyan came back to the Gu Family, what they had been planning was to get the martial connection with the Phoenix Girl, so that the Min Family could be more deeply-rooted in the capital. They had wanted Gu Chaoyan to be involved with the wedding, but...

They forgot about one thing - Gu Chaoyan was just an unmarried girl, and according to the rules of the Saint Divine Land, unmarried girls should not be involved with the weddings. Gu Chaoyan's birth mother passed away when she was little, and no one helped her with any marital arrangement. So this made her feel very annoyed.

Moreover, they made such a stupid request.

Madame Min regretted it deeply. They were too anxious. Gu Chaoyan was living at the Gu Mansion so they should have taken it slow.

The Min Family felt extremely stricken when they received Gu Chaoyan's reaction, but Gu Zhenkang did not care about Gu Chaoyan's reaction. He was used to her temper. All they needed to do was to bear it.

Gu Zhenkang was more anxious about Gu Yunhe's wedding.

It was the Gu Family's benefit if they could have some martial connection with the Min Family.

It was something he had never dared to dream about when he was young. Even though he was not going to be the groom, he was still very happy. So they needed to fix it properly.

Gu Zhenkang looked at Madame Min. "Madame Min, since Chaoyan can't pick the date, we can find a matchmaker to find a suitable date. The Phoenix Girl can be present at the wedding. That will bring the same auspiciousness."

Madame Min looked at Gu Zhenkang.

She was not in a mood to pick any date.

"If the Phoenix Girl can't pick a date for us, then we need to select the person who can. We are not marrying off our lady casually. We need to find a suitable person to pick the date first." Madame Min said casually, "We will come and make our apology to Elder Miss sometime in the future. We will be off now. You can come to us directly if you need to talk about anything."

Having said that, the Min Family left.

Gu Zhenkang found the answer a little casual, but it did not seem to have any problem.

The Min Family was very cautious about marrying their lady away. The Min Family had not had a wedding for ten years so it was normal that they were cautious.

"I will walk you out," Gu Zhenkang said with a flattering tone.

They got into the wagon and headed off directly.

Back at the Min Mansion.

Old Master asked confusedly, "Mother, what is wrong? Why not set a date? Even if Phoenix Girl can't pick the date, she is still the lady of the Gu Family. If we establish the marriage alliance as soon as possible, we can eventually get involved with the Phoenix Girl, and our family should be safe for another 100 years."

Madame Min sighed heavily.

She looked at her own son.

Men were not in office for generations and her son was less complicated compared to those in the office.

He had not sensed anything wrong on this trip.

She said firmly, "Haven't you understood yet?"

Chapter 1512 Understanding 2

The Old Master was confused.

Madame Min continued. "You did not notice anything - when the Phoenix Girl vented her anger just now, she was not venting it on us alone. She did not even care about Gu Zhenkang! You think your children would speak to you like this?"

"The girl's mother passed away when she was little and she had been mistreated all these years by Mrs. Gu and Gu Zhenkang. And she is the Phoenix Girl now, and she is living at the Gu Mansion, but what on earth is she thinking, do you know?"

"..."

"Judging from how she treats the Gu Family, she is not taking their side. We have been making mistakes since she treated me. And we even forced Zhu Xun to leave! We need to be very careful, and we should not make any more mistakes. Although Ling has gotten the imperial order to get married, the King doesn't have much time to care about this. So we need to think about this marital arrangement. We should not continue to make any more mistakes," Madame Min said cautiously.

Having said that, she could not help but sigh.

What was going on here? They needed to work on it again.

Hearing that, Old Master glared at First Ms. Min, saying in displeasure. "You have made a mistake too. Why did you pick on Zhu Xun?"

"Her husband passed away ages ago and Zhu Xun doesn't even have a son. No one is stealing your position here. You drove her away and now everything is in a mess."

"..."

"If she is here, mother would not need to bend down to a girl out there!" The Old Master vented his anger.

He was not cursing, but he also made a very serious accusation.

First Ms. Min's eyes widened. "What do you mean, Old Master?"

She had been doing all of this for the Min Mansion and the whole family.

Now... the Old Master was defending Zhu Xun against her? And she was even addressed as Zhu Xun?

So she was worse than Zhu Xun in the end?

First Ms. Min expression twisted. She was used to being considered kind and virtuous, so she felt very wronged, even though she was not snapped at loudly.

"Mother has never done anything to her. She left because she was angry. And she has done nothing for the Min Family. She has to be asked to eat at our place. How can you blame mother for this?" Min Qing stepped forward.

"Also, the Phoenix Girl is just a narrow-minded person who easily holds a grudge against people. And she even picks on her sister! Why should we flatter her? I think we can have the wedding directly and we don't need to have her at present." Min Qing snapped angrily.

He had not wanted to say that, but his father had blamed his mother and he was just defending her.

Madame Min got startled and covered up his mouth, with her eyes wide in fright. "Qing, what are you talking about? How can you say something like that about the Phoenix Girl? Don't say such a thing in the future!"

Min Qing did not think he was wrong.

He got himself away from Madame Min.

Chapter 1513 Problem

Min Qing looked very resolute as he snapped fiercely, saying, "Am I not right? She treats her sister so badly and now she holds a grudge against us. We have been a noble family for hundreds of years, whereas she is just the Phoenix Girl! Should we just show our utter respect, but get nothing in return? Even if we do, she is just an evil woman who would continue to give us a cold shoulder."

Min Qing looked very angry and felt extremely dissatisfied.

Madame Min was quite startled when she heard what Min Qing said and saw how he reacted.

She looked at Ming Qing with uncertainty.

Min Qing was the Young Master of the whole family and the Min Family was indeed a noble family with hundreds of years. And then they had Mrs. Min who came to them.

The Min Family had been invincible in the capital, so when Min Qing was educated, he was not taught how to be sensitive and cautious.

He was still behaving according to his own intention and principles. He had no idea how to hide his sharp edges.

In the past, a Young Master from the Min Family could behave like this, but right now, it was not a good time to do so.

Madame Min looked very worried and tired, but she still said with a serious tone, "Qing, just don't comment on the Phoenix Girl any more. No matter what she is like, we are not in a position to comment on her. We may have a long family history, but that is all we have at the moment."

"If you don't like it, you can just stay out of the affair, but you are the Young Master of the Min Family and I hope that you can understand and become capable."

Madame Min tried to teach him what he ought to do.

Min Qing had no choice but to hide his anger.

Feeling dissatisfied, he said with an unconvinced air, "I am tired. I am going back to have a rest."

Seeing that, First Ms. Min tried to catch up with him, when Madame Min stopped her and said, "Just leave him alone. Qing has always been someone with his own thoughts, and he has never let us worry. He has not become used to the changing situation of this land, so he needs to be left alone to think about it."

"You can leave him alone and let him be on his own for a few more days. And I will try to have a chat with him."

"We have to find Zhu Xun, so you should think about what you should do if Zhu Xun comes back."

Having said this, Madame Min looked at her own son and said with a serious look, "Zhu Xun's departure has nothing to do with your wife, what is the point of blaming her? I made Zhu Xun leave. We are not the same as before. We would be enemies with the Phoenix Girl if we confronted her, so don't start any in-fighting."

Having said this... Madame Min felt slightly assured.

She turned around and headed towards her own yard.

She was the most worried about chaos arising at the Min Mansion.

Madame Min looked anxious as she walked.

"Noooo! Madame Min, something is wrong!" An auntie hurried towards her.

Chapter 1514 Ling's Protest

Madame Min frowned seeing the panicking servant approaching her. She glared at her with a lethal look, frightening her. She froze.

Madame Min stopped her lethal look and asked with dissatisfaction. "What is going on? You are behaving like those servants from small mansions and yards!"

The Min Family was a noble family with a long history and they were friendly, yet they were strict when it came to rules and manners.

This servant had broken the rules, so she should adjust herself to learn better in the future.

However, there were many things going on at the Min Family, and Madame Min was in a bad mood. So Madame Min could not help feeling really annoyed about it.

The servant was very frightened too.

Madame Min had never been this fierce before. She had no idea what to say at the moment.

“What are you stuttering for? What is happening?” Madame Min sounded even more harsh.

The servant was going to be punished anyway.

The servant was shocked but started speaking quickly, “Madame Min, something is happening to the lady. She heard that you went to the Gu Mansion today and she keeps making a fuss. So I am informing you.”

The lady was Ling, who was the wife’s daughter. The title lady was not given to anyone who was born by a concubine.

Madame Min sighed.

Ling had always been a very obedient person, but she kept making a fuss these days about small things. The King gave them the order for her marriage, and she was the Elder Miss, so she should know about the difficult situation the Min Mansion was in. What was the point of making a fuss?

Madame Min fretted.

She was about to head to the backyard to talk some sense into her... when she thought of something, stopped her steps and said to the auntie next to her. "Inform First Ms. Min about Ling so that she can come to talk some sense into her daughter's mind. She is in charge of the mansion too, so she should be responsible."

When that was said, Madame Min felt even more worried, but continued to go back to her own room.

What was going on every day?

Everything was fine with the Min Family before, and Qing and Ling used to be very obedient, but when something started to happen to the Min Family, they started to think only about themselves. The Min Family had not yet met many drawbacks so they were still not very experienced with it.

Hopefully, the Min Family could get through it, and the children would learn about what to do.

Madame Min also felt a bit confused about what the Min Family would be like in the future.

The Gu Mansion.

Gu Chaoyan was drinking her tea, with no expression on her face, as if she were thinking about something, or was tired.

Sword One looked really worried and concerned.

She said involuntarily, "Elder Miss, don't be sad. The Gu Family are bad people, but you have Lord Huai!"

Chapter 1515 Lord Huai's Return

Gu Chaoyan threw a very helpless look at Sword One, who was worried.

Sometimes, if you really cared about someone, you would be worried about them all the time, and wonder if they were sad because of what they had experienced. Although she told Sword One many times that she did not care how the Gu Family was treating her, Sword One would still be worried about her being sad about what the Gu Family did to her.

Gu Chaoyan felt very touched by this, but she also wanted to tell Sword One not to be so worried. She was about to explain, when a firm voice arose from outside.

"Why am I being mentioned?"

Huaijin?

Gu Chaoyan looked towards the door in surprise. There was a man in white standing at the door, looking at Gu Chaoyan with deep eyes. Zhou Huaijin was considered an exceptionally tall man in the Saint Divine Land. He usually wore the purple robe of Lord Huai's rank. He was unparalleled, but he was less approachable. Wearing a refreshing white robe today made him look full of warmth.

Gu Chaoyan asked as she stopped looking at him. "What are you doing here?"

Zhou Huaijin looked a little confused. "You aren't happy that I am back?"

Hearing that... Gu Chaoyan felt that she was misunderstood. She flushed. "I got the letter yesterday and you talked about the Cloud Land. I thought you would still be stuck in the wars there, so I am just surprised," Gu Chaoyan explained sincerely.

Zhou Huaijin looked a little helpless but amused.

Other girls would have thrown themselves into his arms, but Chaoyan was different. She was seriously explaining her reaction to him. Well, no matter how she treated him, he would never be angry. Because she was Gu Chaoyan.

Zhou Huaijin approached her and went closer to her, so that he could see her shivering eyelashes. He said with a hoarse voice, "I understand."

Sword One lowered her head and went out in silence.

Gu Chaoyan's face was already flushed, and she leaned slightly to the side, as her mind was a little confused and at a loss. After holding back for a long time, she finally choked out a sentence: "Is there anything wrong with the border?"

Zhou Huaijin's gaze was still on her face, with one hand gently stroking her black hair, he said with a slightly hoarse voice, "The North Qi has already retreated, and the border gate is safe for the time being. I left the Shadow Door people there. There is no need for me to do it personally. However, The North Qi should have some other tricks. We need to be cautious."

Gu Chaoyan was silent after hearing that.

She knew Zhou Huaijin's style. He was here because everything was settled. She just tried to come up with something to say.

She was very helpless because of his actions. She was not dodging Huaijin, but she was still not used to it.

Gu Chaoyan was speechless after her question was answered. She had no idea what comments to make on that. She leaned aside and did not dare to look straight into his eyes.

Zhou Huaijin suddenly thought of something, when he looked at this girl panicking.

Chapter 1516 Closeness

What would it be like on their wedding day? Would Chaoyan still be as shy as she was now? She didn't even dare to look into his eyes. She was like a proud and helpless kitten with wide open eyes, looking around in panic, but holding him tightly with its small paws, fearing that he would leave.

He was born in the imperial family, and he had seen through the conspiracies and tricks in the palace since he was a child. Even in the most dangerous situation, he was not afraid and always responded calmly. He had even established the Shadow Door, which could overturn the whole country and the whole continent, but in front of her...

He had many hopes and dreams, yet was still behaving so cautiously, fearing that he would hurt her somehow.

Zhou Huaijin gently stretched out his hands, and put them on Gu Chaoyan's face, so that she was facing him, and they could directly look each other in the eyes.

The sudden movement caused Gu Chaoyan to panic a little. Zhou Huaijin was afraid of scaring her, so he caressed her back, saying with a hoarse voice and asked gently, "The Min Family was here?"

The panicking Gu Chaoyan was distracted instantly upon hearing that question. She nodded seriously, without panicking any more. "Yes. They wanted to establish a good relationship with me through the lady of the Min Family's marriage with Gu Yunhe."

"And they even spoke of how I treated Madame Min before, trying to make me a savior to Madame Min."

"They even wanted me to pick a good wedding date."

"Then the meeting ended in displeasure."

Zhou Huaijin frowned as he heard what was happening.

He knew pretty well what the Min Family was doing here at the Gu Family. But he had not expected that the Min Family had no manners and would try to embarrass Chaoyan.

The Min Family had a long history and even the King and the Crown Prince wanted to have their support. And the Min Family had always been firm about rules and manners, so what were they doing the day before, anyway?

Chaoyan's birth mother passed away and the Gu Family was setting her up all the time. Without any family around, they were trying to set her, a young and sole girl on her own, up?

She was unmarried and she was asked to pick a wedding date for others?

"I don't think that the Min Family is worth the title. No manners at all. They are not at all up to their names."

"Mrs. Min has set a good example for them, but now that she is gone, the Min Family has fallen like an ordinary family."

“Sword One and the girls are too young for you. You are the Phoenix Girl and you need to communicate with people. I will get a few aunties from the Shadow Door to help you.”

Zhou Huaijin was really angry.

He was very angry that Chaoyan had no mother to help her, but still got set up.

Chaoyan could pick a date if she wanted to, but the Min Family was just bullying everyone around Chaoyan when they decided to do that in this way.

“It is fine. The Min Family can’t do anything to me,” Gu Chaoyan said.

Zhou Huaijin looked at her and could not help kissing her.

Chapter 1517 The Crown Prince

It was very sweet and soft, as sweet and sticky as biting into a glutinous rice dumpling. Zhou Huaijin didn’t dare to use force, but gently licked it like a treasure. Gu Chaoyan didn’t push him away, but put her hand on his chest subconsciously, and her body trembled slightly, whilst her lips were trembling too. Her lips were very cold, as if she had just returned from a snowstorm, Zhou Huaijin bit her cold lips.

And he was trying to gulp her down little by little.

“Close your eyes,” Zhou Huaijin said domineeringly when he saw her slightly trembling eyelashes from the corner of his eye.

Gu Chaoyan closed her eyes instantly upon hearing that, leaving herself to him.

It was a very sweet and long, but fleeting moment.

Zhou Huaijin's breathing was a little heavy, and the strength in his slender hands gradually became a little heavier, until he felt that he was about to be unable to restrain himself, then he left Gu Chaoyan's lips in a panic, and she looked elsewhere, but he still held her lightly in his long arms.

Gu Chaoyan was glancing around in panic and was completely flushed.

She had had a very strange feeling just now.

She had lived for two lives, but she had never gotten so close to someone, nor had she felt anything like that. It felt as if ants were rubbing against her heart, uncomfortable but unwilling to leave it.

She reached out for her tea.

She always likes tea and she was used to drinking it.

It seemed that only tea could calm her down when her heart was throbbing like this.

Sword One poured the tea, so it was a little cold. She never drank such cold tea, but at the moment, she could not wait for Sword One to serve her new tea, so she just drank it immediately and made herself feel much better.

“Thirsty?” Zhou Huaijin looked at her profoundly and poured tea for her.

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

Thirsty? No, she was not. She just felt like drinking tea.

“What are you thinking about?” Zhou Huaijin lowered his head and looked at her.

Gu Chaoyan could not come up with an answer. She forgot to drink her tea and was left dumbfounded.

“Afraid?” Zhou Huaijin patted her back.

Gu Chaoyan shivered again as he patted her.

Zhou Huaijin was worried that his behavior had frightened Chaoyan. He was anxious, but he could not restrain himself. They had not yet gotten married!

Gu Chaoyan was about to answer when some noise arose from outside, it calmed down after a short while.

Gu Chaoyan was about to ask what happened... when Sword One's voice arose. "Elder Miss, Chief Chen Fu says that the Crown Prince is here asking for you. He is in the hall and would you like to see him..."

Sword One was really not interested in passing on the message.

It was very chaotic in the capital and at the border, and Lord Huai and Elder Miss had not seen each other for a while, since they were very busy. Sword One really did not want to interrupt them, but she could not make a decision here. She had to pass on the message.

Hearing that it was Zhou Huailing who was here, Zhou Huaijin's expression sank instantly.

"Tell him that I am not well enough to see him." Gu Chaoyan answered briefly.

"Yes" Sword One answered and Zhou Huaijin frowned. "He has been doing this for a long time?"

Chapter 1518 The Crown Prince 2

Gu Chaoyan nodded directly.

She was the Phoenix Girl, and a profit-seeking villain man like Zhou Huailing would keep pestering her, obviously, because what he had been aiming at was to get the Phoenix Girl so as to solidify his future throne.

That was fine, because Zhou Huailing was not a match against her.

"Don't worry." Gu Chaoyan consoled Zhou Huaijin. "He can't do anything to me."

Zhou Huaijin nodded.

True, Zhou Huailing was not a match against Chaoyan, who would probably fire back at him, but he was very annoyed by his constant disturbance to Chaoyan.

It seemed that... he should ask the Shadow Door to find evidence of Gu Zhenkang and Mrs. Gu's conspiracy of killing Ms. Lin as soon as possible, so that Chaoyan didn't have to remain here for so long.

In this way, she could either go back to Xinlin Mansion or Lord Huai's Mansion, so people like Zhou Huailing would not be able to get into the door to cause her any trouble.

Zhou Huaijin turned vicious as he thought about this.

Zhou Huaijin smiled gently.

In the hall.

Gu Zhenkang was smiling flatteringly as he looked at Zhou Huailing, saying politely, "Crown Prince, it is reasonable that Gu Chaoyan should come and see you. Women always like to put on airs, but women should know what they ought to do after a few times of show. She should know whom she should see and whom she should not. Gu Chaoyan should see you this time."

Gu Zhenkang had been saying flattering words, firstly because he was worried about Gu Ruxue and secondly, because the Crown Prince did not seem very happy today.

The Crown Prince might get really annoyed and blame the Gu Mansion for everything if he did not do what the Crown Prince wanted.

That was why he had to apologize for Gu Chaoyan.

Zhou Huailing, who had been feeling distressed, looked less unhappy. He felt that way too. Normally, even if Gu Chaoyan was putting on airs, he had lowered himself to ask for her many times, so she should come and see him. He was the Crown Prince!

He had just persuaded himself when Chen Fu arrived. "Crown Prince, Officer Gu. Elder Miss said she is not meeting you because she is not feeling well."

Hearing these words... Zhou Huailing's expression sank instantly and he said with displeasure. "Not feeling well? Then I can get an imperial doctor to treat her!"

Chen Fu did not say anything as he stood next to them. That was the answer he received and the message he needed to pass on. That was all he could say.

"The servants must have not taken good care of her." Gu Zhenkang answered in a frightened tone, "Crown Prince, do you want to check on her in the backyard?"

Zhou Huailing was furious, but hearing what Gu Zhenkang said, he rolled his eyes and smiled briefly instead.

Gu Zhenkang was a very good tool to stick to. He was stupid enough to be used on crucial occasions.

"In that case, I should visit the Phoenix Girl personally. The Phoenix Girl has a precious status and if she is sick, the Saint Divine Land will be affected. I am the Crown Prince so I ought to share her care," Zhou Huailing said with a smile, as if everything was right.

Chapter 1519 The Crown Prince 3

When Gu Zhenkang made the suggestion, he was worried that the Crown Prince would blame him for Gu Chaoyan's behavior. That was why he made this suggestion. He had not expected that this suggestion would make the Crown Prince happy! He was surprised, but appeased.

The Crown Prince was right. Gu Chaoyan was the Phoenix Girl, so she was more than a lady from the Gu Family. Her physical condition should be connected with the Saint Divine Land, and the Crown Prince should show some care.

Without any more hesitation, Gu Zhenkang raised his hand, showing the Crown Prince the way to the back yard.

Gu Chaoyan was living at Pear Yard, located in the center of the Gu Mansion, near to everywhere.

Gu Zhenkang was smiling brightly as he mentioned what was going on at the Gu Mansion these days.

Hearing his speech... Zhou Huailing was heading towards Pear Garden and said, "Officer Gu, you know what is going on here. I am telling you straightforwardly. I am the Crown Prince, and I am going to take the throne, but my Crown Prince Consort has to be the Phoenix Girl. So I will be visiting Gu Mansion constantly."

"I don't mind that Ruxue slept with someone else before she married me, but when she will be able to return to the Crown Prince's Mansion depends on when the Phoenix Girl is willing to join me back at the Crown Prince's Mansion."

"She and the Phoenix Girl are sisters, so as long as my wish is realized, I will still treat Ruxue well."

"So you have to work with me for a connection with the Crown Prince and the Phoenix Girl, Officer Gu!"

"She is feeling unwell, so I am going to check on her now. And you should also try to say some good things about me to her in daily life, got it?" Zhou Huailing said straightforwardly.

He had already expressed his intention when he made Gu Zhenkang take Gu Chaoyan home to the Gu Family, but the Gu Family were too stupid to understand what he meant. They always asked him to get Gu Ruxue back to the Crown Prince's Mansion. If she was back at the mansion, she would continue to be the Crown Prince Consort, which was not going to be possible.

He had not intended to say such things here, but when he saw that Gu Zhenkang was behaving unexpectedly well today, he put it straightforwardly.

In case he had to spare extra energy in trying to figure out what Gu Zhenkang was doing, whilst he might even not be able to help him with anything!

Gu Zhenkang was just in the middle of telling him what was going on at the Gu Mansion when he stiffened upon hearing what the Crown Prince said.

His original plan was to keep Ruxue as the Crown Prince Consort, who would become the Queen in the future, whilst the Phoenix Girl, Gu Chaoyan, would be able to help him. In this way, Ruxue would stay in the same position as she was now, and the Gu Mansion would become related to the imperial family whilst maritally connected with the Min Family. In this way, the Gu Mansion would become a top-level family in the capital, though it was not as old as the Min Family.

Well...

So what the Crown Prince meant was that Ruxue was going to lose the position as the Crown Prince Consort whilst the Phoenix Girl was going to take it over?

...

That would not work!

Ruxue would not accept it!

"Crown Prince..."

Chapter 1520 Low-Class Servant 1

Gu Zhenkang had a very bad look on his face. He had wanted to have a good discussion with the Crown Prince. He did not think that Ruxue would be happy about it. He could not leave it like that.

Zhou Huailing was very angry upon seeing that Gu Zhenkang was not willing to accept it. Did this man think that the Crown Prince was not good enough to marry the Phoenix Girl so he wanted to offer some instruction?

"I am not negotiating with you. I am just informing you. If you can be of some help, I can promise you some honors and awards. If not, you can just think what you were like without me." Zhou Huailing snapped coldly.

Gu Zhenkang shut his mouth.

He knew what the Crown Prince was like. Anyone who irritated him would suffer badly.

He had to accept it, even though he did not like it.

He needed to figure out how to tell Ruxue. If she moved in with the Crown Prince's Mansion together with Gu Chaoyan, he might need to tell Gu Chaoyan to take care of her sister. Ruxue was suffering badly, and she needed to be taken care of.

The best situation was that Ruxue could keep her position as the Crown Prince Consort. They were sisters, weren't they? They could share.

Gu Zhenkang was just thinking about that when they reached Pear Yard.

Before Gu Zhenkang could go in, Zhou Huailing had already stepped into Pear Yard and headed directly to Gu Chaoyan's room.

He had just reached the gate when Sword One stopped him.

Her Elder Miss had answered to him that she was not well enough to meet the Crown Prince, but he was so thick-skinned that he came to Pear Yard directly and despite the rules of etiquette, he was heading towards Elder Miss' room directly! Lord Huai and Elder Miss were both in the room right now, so without Elder Miss' order, she could not let him in. The same went for the King, let alone the Crown Prince.

"Crown Prince, I haven't passed on the message. You can't go in," Sword One said stiffly.

"How dare you stop me, you low-class servant!" Zhou Huailing was furious. He would have had a nice talk with this servant if she had put it in a nicer way, but this servant really irritated him. Every servant in the court feared him, but this servant did not respect him at all. That really irritated him.

Sword One did not have the intention of moving even after hearing the shout.

Zhou Huailing sneered and was about to kick Sword One.

"You low-class servant!".

However, he staggered forward instead, looking messy. The kick should have landed on Sword One, like it used to land on other ordinary servants, but Sword One moved away. So when Zhou Huailing's kick was about to land on her, she dodged, and Zhou Huailing was not prepared for that, so he looked really messy.

When he was helped up by the guards, Zhou Huailing got so annoyed as he shouted. "Grab that servant and beat her to death!"

Hearing that, the guards went up to surround her.

They needed to follow his orders, otherwise the Crown Prince would torment them.

"Who is to be beaten to death?" Gu Chaoyan's voice arose.
