Chapter 1521 Low-class Servant 2

Gu Chaoyan's voice was so indifferent that there was no trace of warmth, and even a bit of irritation. Pear Yard had always been peaceful, and she had never punished servants at will. When she was inside, she heard Zhou Huailing's noisy voice outside, and she was already very displeased. She thought that Sword One would be able to dismiss him, but within a short while, he even started to punish people working for her!

She could not leave it.

She came out with Zhou Huaijin and saw this scene.

She was very angry. In her heart, there was no so-called distinction between superiority and inferiority. Besides, Sword One was like her own sister. How could others do anything to her as they wanted to? Even if it had been other servants who were working for her and got punished, she would still step forward and defend them.

!!

"What did Sword One do for you to punish her without my permission at my place?" Gu Chaoyan sounded very angry and strict. She stretched out her hand to Sword One, telling her to come to her side.

Sword One looked calm and showed no fear. She walked straight behind Gu Chaoyan in disbelief.

Sword One was working for Gu Chaoyan, which was known to everyone, but even if she was working for her, she was just a maid, who would not have a good result after offending the Crown Prince. They had almost predicted what Sword One's end would be.

However, unexpectedly... Elder Miss was defending this maid against the Crown Prince, and even sheltered her!

Most of the people could not understand what was going on, but they were also very jealous of Sword One, who could serve someone like Gu Chaoyan. She was treated with such respect.

Hearing Gu Chaoyan's blame... Zhou Huailing was even more furious.

He pointed at Sword One, shouting loudly, "This low-class servant stood in my way. It is reasonable for me to punish her!"

"..."

"Lady Chaoyan, this has nothing to do with you. I am just punishing a servant. She is going to be your barrier if she continues to work for you. If I kill her today, I can get you better ones!" Zhou Huailing said confidently.

Seeing the maid standing next to Gu Chaoyan, he felt even more furious. He was definitely going to punish her, this rude maid!

"She is my maid and she works according to my orders. And I will be the one that punishes her, not you, Crown Prince."

“...”

“Also, this is Pear Yard. If you have nothing to do, please leave,” Gu Chaoyan said expressionlessly. She did not like Zhou Huailing being here.

She was about to walk in with Sword One.

Zhou Huailing’s eyes widened.

That was just a low-class servant. How could she confront him for a low-class servant!

Zhou Huailing was so furious and was about to curse at Gu Chaoyan when Junyi next to him gave him a low reminder.

Chapter 1522 Understanding 1

Zhou Huailing pressed down his anger instantly.

He looked annoyed, but did nothing more.

He was the Crown Prince, the son of the King, who was respected and flattered by so many people both in and out of the court. Even those people from the noble family would not dare speak to him loudly. Even when he was just a disgraced Lord Ling in the past, no servants dared to treat him like this. This was the first time for him to be treated in this way by a servant and it was here at the Pear Yard!

That was why he was so angry. He wished that he could chop the maid into pieces, but what Junyi reminded him of woke him up. He was angry but he could not irritate the Phoenix Girl because of such a tiny matter.

What he needed to do right now was to win the Phoenix Girl's heart. When he took the throne, he could do anything to this low-class servant. He did not have to do this right now, since it might cause him more losses.

So he was much calmer now.

He forced a stiff smile, saying, "Lady Chaoyan, I was too impulsive. I was thinking that this servant was disrespecting me, the Crown Prince, so she will cause you too much trouble in the future. I wanted to get her away for your sake, but that is out of my concern right now. You can do whatever you want with her, and I will stay out of it."

"..."

"Sorry for my misbehavior."

"..."

"I heard from the housekeeper that you are not feeling well. So I am here to check on you, and I..." Zhou Huailing said with a smile, flattering her constantly.

Before he was able to finish his words... the inner chamber door of the Pear Yard was opened and Zhou Huaijin, dressed in a white robe walked out, frowning and saying, "Chaoyan, what is going on out there for you to be away for so long."

Having asked Gu Chaoyan about that, Zhou Huaijin lowered his head and nodded at Zhou Huailing. "Crown Prince, hi."

That was his way of greeting him.

Zhou Huailing's eyes widened when he saw Zhou Huaijin's silhouette. His face sank.

He was here to visit the girl and yet his Eighth Brother was walking out of the inner chamber?

Zhou Huailing felt that his girl had been stolen away, so he asked in a very annoyed tone, "What are you doing here?"

He sounded as if Zhou Huaijin had invaded the Crown Prince's Mansion.

"Chaoyan is not feeling well, so I am here to visit her. We heard some noise from the inner chamber, but didn't expect that it was you." Zhou Huaijin answered briefly.

"I will get imperial doctors to check on her, what are you here for?!" Zhou Huailing interrogated as if Zhou Huaijin had done something he should not have.

Zhou Huaijin frowned too. He threw a cold look at him. "Chaoyan is engaged to me, and I of course should come and visit her. What is wrong with that, Crown Prince?"

They glared into each other's eyes, looking really vicious.

Zhou Huailing sneered.

Engaged to him? He would have forgotten about this if not for his reminder.

His Eighth Brother was really stupid, wasn't he?

Gu Chaoyan was the Phoenix Girl and in their father's eyes, she should marry him, the Crown Prince!

Chapter 1523 Understanding 2

Judging from how their father reacted and the situation of the land, smart people should know that the Phoenix Girl was definitely going to become the Crown Prince Consort. His Eighth Brother should step out of the way as soon as possible, then maybe he, as the Crown Prince, would think about rewarding him for that.

What a pity. It seemed that his Eighth Brother had no shame, and even dreamed about marrying the Phoenix Girl!

Marrying the Phoenix Girl? He did not deserve to marry the Phoenix Girl!

Zhou Huailing threw a very disdainful look at Zhou Huaijin as if he were staring at an idiot.

"Your future Princess Consort? You are not yet married, and we are not sure about the future right? And even if you are married, we can still not be sure about the future either. Eighth Brother, you grew up in the court, and you should know what the rules are about many things. You should learn to think, sometimes, okay?" Zhou Huailing seemed to be teaching Zhou Huaijin a lesson.

That made him feel better.

Ignoring Zhou Huaijin, he turned to Gu Chaoyan. "Lady Chaoyan, if you are not feeling unwell, come with me to the court. Father has something to talk to you about. I was going to tell you about it personally, but it seems that you aren't doing well. So come with me to the court, so that the imperial doctors can check you up too."

The King had intended to let Zhou Huailing spend more time with the Phoenix Girl. And that was what he was here for, but so many accidents had happened, and Zhou Huailing had no other way but to separate Gu Chaoyan and Zhou Huaijin.

If she could follow him into the court... that would be great.

Gu Zhenkang was totally useless, in his opinion.

He should have stopped Zhou Huaijin when he was here.

He felt regretful that he ever laid his hope in this man. He had thought that he could be of some help, but this man was slowing him down!

He needed to think about his future plan.

Zhou Huailing glanced at Gu Zhenkang, who shivered, feeling that something was wrong.

He added. "Gu Chaoyan, don't waste any more time here, if you have been summoned to the court. Just follow the Crown Prince!"

The Crown Prince had the say about the Gu Mansion's future, so Gu Zhenkang needed to keep the Crown Prince happy.

Gu Chaoyan frowned slightly.

"What does the King want?" Gu Chaoyan sounded indifferent. She was getting very impatient.

She was showing that she really did not want to be in the court right now.

Junyi next to Zhou Huailing said clearly, "The North Qi Land started to attack other countries and our borders, together with the Cloud Land's were all attacked, but the message from the border came and said that the Shadow Door removed the North Qi Land and the North Qi Land had retreated. So there should be no wars within a short period of time."

"..."

"The Shadow Door is a powerful force and we can't really ignore it. The King expects the Phoenix Girl to join us for the discussion about how to get the Shadow Door to serve the Saint Divine Land."

Chapter 1524 Shadow Door 1

Junyi did not continue.

The Phoenix Girl was a girl, but after spending some time with her, Junyi believed that she would not be stupid enough to not understand what was going on. What was more, Lord Huai and the Gu Family should be kept out of the secret, since it was related to the country.

The Shadow Door?

Gu Chaoyan looked contemplative, smiling.

The King wanted to get the Shadow Door to work for him? How interesting!

They had not realized who the head of the Shadow Door was, had they?

She had not intended to think about this, but since the Shadow Door was involved, she would like to know what they wanted.

She nodded. "Since it is related to the country, we should not be delayed. I am not feeling well, but I am strong enough to go into the court."

Gu Chaoyan had made up her mind to visit the court.

Junyi let out a sigh of relief.

Zhou Huailing smiled proudly too.

He turned around and decided to accompany Gu Chaoyan into the court.

Gu Zhenkang escorted them out of the mansion.

When they came to the gate, Zhou Huailing asked Gu Chaoyan to go into the wagon to head towards the court, whilst Zhou Huaijin was riding the horse next to Gu Chaoyan's wagon.

Zhou Huailing's face sank. He said with displeasure, "We are heading into the court to have some serious discussions with father. What are you doing here?"

Zhou Huailing looked disdainfully at him, and sneered. "You think you can be of help to get the Shadow Door to work for us?"

Zhou Huailing looked imposing.

Zhou Huaijin did not care. He shrugged indifferently. "I won't be able to."

"Then stay in your mansion, don't cause any trouble." Zhou Huailing knew that Zhou Huaijin would be of no help. So he said that.

Sword One and Fu Bao as well as the others were all looking at Zhou Huailing with a sneer.

Gu Chaoyan blinked at Zhou Huaijin happily, while she was in the wagon.

She knew who the head of the Shadow Door was and she was amused upon hearing what Zhou Huailing said.

Zhou Huaijin smiled brightly at seeing her happy smile.

Gu Chaoyan mouthed. "Wait for me."

Zhou Huaijin nodded obediently, turning to Zhou Huailing. "Then I will go back to my own mansion."

Then he left with Fu Bao.

Zhou Huailing felt very good. He ordered that the servants should take good care of Lady Chaoyan before he went into his own wagon.

The whole team headed towards the court.

The imperial banners were opening the way for them.

They were taken directly into the court and as they reached the place before the hall, they got out of the wagon and walked there.

It was a long path before they reached the gate.

The snow had stopped and spring was showing.

Gu Chaoyan had no expression on her face as she walked.

Zhou Huailing constantly turned around to look at Gu Chaoyan.

Zhou Huailing always preferred her over Ruxue. She was beautiful and had a graceful air. More importantly, Gu Chaoyan was a pure jade, compared to Gu Ruxue, but...

He felt that there was one thing that had not been solved.

Chapter 1525 Shadow Door 2

Gu Chaoyan had lost weight, and her skin had become extremely fair. Even if she was placed among young ladies from aristocratic families in the capital, she could still be considered good-looking. The only regrettable thing was the blood-red birthmark on her face. It was really an eyesore, without this, she could be said to be perfect, no matter in terms of identity or appearance. She was a perfect fit for Zhou Huailing.

As far as he remembered, she painted a flower on her birthmark at the banquet of the Min Family, which covered up the imperfection of her blood-red birthmark, showing some interesting characteristics.

Many ladies and madames from the capital learned from her by painting different flowers on their faces.

At that time, he also believed that Gu Chaoyan was strikingly beautiful, but...

That was just for one moment. It could not last for too long.

Without the decoration, the birthmark looked ugly. Also, he was the Crown Prince and he was not going to allow his woman to have these paintings on her. That would make her look less graceful.

Therefore... he was going to help her remove the birthmark before the Phoenix Girl married him.

Zhou Huailing had been going through a lot of things in his mind on this short walk. He kept sizing up Gu Chaoyan without concealing his greed.

Gu Chaoyan frowned deeply and she looked quite unhappy.

She had been staring forward, rather than glancing at Zhou Huailing, but she could still sense Zhou Huailing's bold gaze on her, which made her feel disgusted. If they were not in the court, she would have slapped him.

Gu Chaoyan walked faster and passed him. She hoped to get rid of what she had to face now.

Zhou Huailing found that Gu Chaoyan hurried up, so he caught up with her and stood closer to her side, sizing her up and saying straightforwardly. “You are defending my Eighth Brother, but he is a man who can’t defend you.”

“The Phoenix Girl is a very excellent identity, in the Saint Divine Land and in the other four countries it is very noble as well! Lady Chaoyan, I feel that you should realize who you are, so that you can make the correct choice!”

“...”

“I am the Crown Prince, who is an important son for the King and the whole country stands by my side.”

“...”

“You have not gotten married, so you still have the choice. You are a smart person and you have the chance to choose what suits you best. You are the Phoenix Girl and I am sure that you are smart enough to make the right choice.”

“...”

“As long as you think it through and make the right choice, me and the King will arrange it for you.”

“...”

“What do you think, Lady Chaoyan?”

Zhou Huailing threw a very proud look at Gu Chaoyan, seemingly confident. She was here today and she saw how useless his Eighth Brother was in front of him. That man was not suitable to marry the Phoenix Girl at all!

If she looked carefully, she would know what choices to make.

Hearing what he said, Gu Chaoyan turned coldly to Zhou Huailing.

Chapter 1526 Shadow Door 3

Gu Chaoyan looked very clear, but seemed to be very cold, as if she were staring at nothing. “So what?”

Having said that, Gu Chaoyan did not even want to spend one more second on him. She turned around and walked away.

Hearing that, Zhou Huailing got confused, wondering what she meant. He turned to Junyi and realized what was going on.

Zhou Huailing just did not believe it.

So she meant that she did not care what position his Eighth Brother was and still wanted to marry him?

That was insane!

“Lady Chaoyan, don’t you understand? My Eighth Brother can’t help you at all. And I can give you everything.” Zhou Huailing looked at Gu Chaoyan as if he were staring at a stupid woman.

Having said this, he suddenly realized something.

Could it be because Ruxue was still there?

In that case... she must have thought it over.

Honestly... It was his fault as well. He had not thought it through carefully. Ruxue still had the title as the Crown Prince Consort, and he did not divorce her because he wanted to act as if he were not that ruthless, but that made Lady Chaoyan hesitate...

She was just worried that she could not be the real wife, whilst she could be Eighth Brother’s real wife...

That was a piece of cake.

When they were done with this business, he was going to tell his father about divorcing Ruxue.

When the Crown Prince Consort position was empty, he would talk to Lady Chaoyan about this again.

The Shadow Door was the most important thing at the moment.

Shadow Door had spread the news into the court and they had thought about removing it, but people from the Shadow Door were always very fickle and they from the court had to accept it.

He was very aware of the excellent killers from the Shadow Door, but he had not expected that they could confront the North Qi.

Actually... they were even more excellent than the troops from the Saint Divine Land.

They could not be removed, because that was not going to be realistic, and that it could be very bad for the court as well.

So what they needed to do was to get the Shadow Door to become servants for the court, and for Zhou Huailing.

When the Shadow Door became his, he was going to marry the Phoenix Girl.

Then everything would be settled and he would have nothing else to worry about.

He felt very motivated. He felt as if he were going to reach his goal at this very moment.

Zhou Huailing suddenly became very happy. Confronted with Gu Chaoyan's cold face, he even felt like smiling. He did not insist on his suggestion but said, "Qianqing Palace is in front of us. Lady Chaoyan, we are there again."

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at Zhou Huailing. She had already expressed what she wanted.

She thought that Zhou Huailing would make a fuss, but he suddenly got really excited.

She shook her head and did not understand what was going on, but she did not want to spend any more time on Zhou Huailing.

She turned around and said nothing, walking into Qianqing Palace.

Zhou Huailing was in a good mood too. He followed her and headed towards Qianqing Palace as well. He did not say anything more, instead walking in silence.

When they came to the Qianqing Palace, the King saw Zhou Huailing and Gu Chaoyan in front of him, so he looked very surprised.

Chapter 1527 Shadow Door 4

The Crown Prince had been told about the Shadow Door since they had just talked about this in the court. The King intended to get the Shadow Door to work for the Saint Divine Land, so they would definitely be stronger. Although that was the court's matter, the Phoenix Girl should be involved with the discussion as well.

The King did not think that the Phoenix Girl would be of any help with it, but he intended to let the Crown Prince bring the Phoenix Girl here so that they could hang out with each other and build an emotional connection.

When Gu Chaoyan did not have any extra identity, Lord Huai could marry her if he wanted, but now, Gu Chaoyan was the Phoenix Girl, so Lord Huai could not marry her.

Lord Huai was from the Jiang Family. Most people from the Jiang Family were already dead so he did not expect that anything would happen.

Therefore... the Phoenix Girl should marry the Crown Prince, and he could give a noble lady to Lord Huai as compensation.

That was how it was arranged, and was why the Crown Prince was at the Gu Mansion.

However, the Phoenix Girl was in the court again? What on earth happened?

The King just could not figure it out. He threw a look at his son.

The Crown Prince was very embarrassed.

He had no idea how to tell his father about what happened at the Gu Mansion.

He pursed his lips and said straightforwardly, "Father, I have already told Lady Chaoyan about the Shadow Door. What should we do next?"

The King sized up Gu Chaoyan and Junyi behind the Crown Prince.

He finally understood what was going on.

Things have become very annoying now.

He should have made all the ladies from the Gu Family marry the Crown Prince just in case. So that such accidents would not be happening right now.

However, the Phoenix Girl was not as noble as the imperial family.

They could just force her to obey him.

Lord Huai had nothing. He had fewer guards and he had to accept the truth even if he didn't want to, then he could be promised some benefits.

He could not go through the Phoenix Girl, but he could make Lord Huai do whatever his order was. So that she would have no choice but to pick the Crown Prince.

She was just a girl, after all, she was easy to deal with.

The King stopped thinking about it. He was going to ask Lord Huai to join him tomorrow and they could talk about this.

The King looked at Gu Chaoyan.

He sipped the tea and said, "When the North Qi Land received some extra help, they became stronger than the other countries. The Saint Divine Land can defend ourselves against the land, but the other two can't. The Shadow Door helped before the two countries fell. I had been aware of the Shadow Door before, but it was too small for me to take it to heart. However, it has become tremendously huge now."

"..."

"Since the Shadow Door is part of our country, they should step forward and serve us."

"..."

"But the Shadow Door is very difficult to summon and find. And we can't find the head of it."

"..."

"What do you think we should do, Lady Chaoyan?"

Chapter 1528 Forces 1

The King looked at Gu Chaoyan, hoping to get an answer.

He did not want to admit that Gu Chaoyan was smart, but he still believed that Gu Chaoyan was a tricky and smart woman.

He disliked her, but he kept coming to her for help. And she dodged them all. The King did not want to mention anything like this in the past, but such things did exist.

He asked this question, because he wanted to hear the answer from her as the Phoenix Girl.

Gu Chaoyan kept a cold expression, but when the Shadow Door was mentioned, she smiled briefly.

The King wanted to gather the Shadow Door to his side because he was worried that the Shadow Door would work with the other two countries. And he really admired the Shadow Door as well.

However... he would never dream what the truth was.

The powerful head of the Shadow Door might seem mysterious, but... they had seen and known this guy.

The day when the King learned the truth, he would be extremely surprised.

He would never expect that a useless son in his eyes was the powerful head of the Shadow Door.

However, he was not in the position to know the truth right now.

He was going to find people related to the Shadow Door?

Then he could do that.

Gu Chaoyan patted the table subconsciously, saying calmly, "It is very easy to get close to the Shadow Door."

"..."

"It was just an organization of killers. They take orders to kill people."

"..."

"You can take some money and give orders to the Shadow Door, so that you could get close to them, but it would take a while before you find the Head."

“...”

“The Shadow Door didn’t appear when the Saint Divine Land was in misery, but when the other two countries fell into trouble, the Shadow Door helped. If you want to get the Shadow Door to your side, you would need to show some sincerity, and make it fast. Otherwise, the other two countries might do something against our interests,” Gu Chaoyan said calmly.

The King’s face was twisted when he heard what Gu Chaoyan said.

He had not realized this before.

He had thought that the Shadow Door was just a random organization. He had not expected that the Shadow Door would betray them.

His expression sank. “Crown Prince, do not delay. Go and send orders to the Shadow Door. I want to see people from the Shadow Door as soon as possible!”

“Yes.” Zhou Huailing answered without hesitation.

He needed to deal with the Shadow Door personally.

If the Shadow Door could work for him alone, that would be great.

Gu Chaoyan smiled briefly as she looked at them.

When that was settled... the King felt much more assured.

He added. "Also, Destiny Monk came to me today and he said that he had a new sign on the fortune-telling."

"...."

"The door to enchantment has opened and forces from different places would gradually invade us, because the Phoenix Girl is in our country."

"..."

"Destiny Monk did not see any change on the horoscope, but today, he is sure that forces from outside the door to enchantment are now approaching the Saint Divine Land."

"..."

"They are here to get Golden Rolls, as Destiny Monk says. You should be prepared."

"..."

“What do you think, Phoenix Girl?”

Chapter 1529 Forces 2

The King would just call her Lady Chaoyan if everything was fine. And he would always keep his distance from her. After all, Gu Chaoyan was the last person he expected to be the Phoenix Girl.

However, now the King still called her the Phoenix Girl in a serious tone.

Because he was very nervous about what Destiny Monk said. He had no idea what to do.

The door to enchantment was opened...

And there were forces outside the four lands that still existed. That was something the King had never expected. Otherwise he would have believed that with the Phoenix Girl in the Saint Divine Land, he would become the King of the whole world.

Destiny Monk had just left Qianqing Palace before Gu Chaoyan came, and that was what he told the King.

Gu Chaoyan was nervous too, but she was not as confused as the King.

Long before that... Huang Fu already told her what Golden Roll was and how the world outside the door to enchantment was like.

There would be one day when things came, but it was faster than Gu Chaoyan expected.

They had not found the Golden Roll.

“When did Destiny Monk say that they would arrive?” Gu Chaoyan asked seriously.

“Not sure.” The King answered.

Gu Chaoyan nodded, not too surprised.

She had spent some time with Destiny Monk, and she knew what he was capable of. He could do some things, but he did not really know the future.

“Then we can talk when it arrives,” Gu Chaoyan said coldly. She did not think that there was any more reason to stay in the court. She got up and said, “If there is nothing else, I will go back to the Gu Mansion.”

The King stopped as he saw Gu Chaoyan leaving, “You can just stay in the court since that is more convenient.”

Judging from how the Crown Prince reacted, he knew clearly that Gu Mansion could be of no help even if the Phoenix Girl stayed at the Gu Mansion.

If that was the case... she could stay in the court, under his control. It would be much easier for him to do other things.

And Gu Mansion...

Well, they should start to think if they could be of any help.

They had not achieved anything after being given so many opportunities.

Gu Chaoyan did not even think before turning him down. "I will go back to the Gu Mansion. You said that I should stay at the Gu Mansion. I don't think that the court is a better place for me. People might think that Gu Mansion has done something wrong."

"Then the Crown Prince will accompany you home." The King added, telling the Crown Prince to escort her.

"Yes." Zhou Huailing answered.

Gu Chaoyan frowned.

The King and Zhou Huailing had all of their plans right in the open. Gu Chaoyan could see through them completely.

She felt disgusted by them.

“The Shadow Door is very difficult to get in touch with. Crown Prince, you better give the order as soon as possible,” Gu Chaoyan said quietly.

Then she turned around and walked out of Qianqing Palace.

The King’s expression sank, feeling very displeased by how Gu Chaoyan behaved towards him. She might be the Phoenix Girl, but he was the King!

“Don’t worry. She is just a woman,” yhe King said with displeasure. Then he turned to De Fu.
“Make sure Lord Huai stays away from the Phoenix Girl, and...”

Chapter 1530 Meeting Huang Fu 1

“And, give Lord Huai’s Mansion the imperial order and let Lord Huai come to see me tomorrow. I have some things to discuss with him,” the King said unkindly.

“Yes.” De Fu answered and hurried off.

He owed Gu Chaoyan a favor, but not Lord Huai. De Fu left without hesitation.

Zhou Huailing was not as angry as the King. He smiled briefly. “You are right, father. Phoenix Girl is just a woman.”

!!

“She is hard to get close to, because I have a Crown Prince Consort, whom she dislikes.”

“...”

“Father, you can give an imperial order and remove the title of the Crown Prince Consort. Then I can speak with her and everything will be fine.”

“...”

“The Phoenix Girl is right. I should work on the Shadow Door right now,” Zhou Huailing said confidently.

Hearing what the Crown Prince said, the King felt that it made sense.

The Phoenix Girl was just a woman and all she required was a small space in the backyard, she was easy to deal with.

He patted the Crown Prince’s shoulders, telling him to get down to his mission.

It was quiet in the Qianqing Palace.

The Gu Mansion.

Gu Chaoyan rushed directly to Pear Yard after leaving the court. She asked Sword One to guard the door. She needed to meet Huang Fu as soon as possible.

Only Huang Fu would know what was happening outside the door to enchantment.

Even Destiny Monk had only a vague knowledge about it.

Gu Chaoyan went straight into her space.

Then she went into the room to meet Huang Fu, who was there.

He was still dressed in the red robe, but the peonies had been changed into a different pattern. Gu Chaoyan would have thought that he had not changed his clothes if not for a closer look.

“Forces out of the door to enchantment are on the way to the Saint Divine Land, for the Golden Rolls. Do you know what the world is like outside the door to enchantment?” Gu Chaoyan asked straightforwardly after she took a seat.

It was strange. She had just met Huang Fu once, but she had a hunch that he knew everything.

Huang Fu stared right at Gu Chaoyan after hearing her question.

She was right. He knew very well what was outside the door to enchantment, but... he was not going to answer her straightforwardly.

Days had passed since she saw him last time and the fruits in the space were all harvested and so were the herbs and yet she never intended to come and visit him... Didn't she miss him?

Now, she was here today... Only because she needed something.

And she asked him what she wanted to hear the moment she sat down.

How ruthless.

He was not going to tell her what he knew.

Huang Fu turned around, took up a book and started to read it as if Gu Chaoyan had not said a thing.

Gu Chaoyan was confused.

What was going on?

She put down the teacup, got up and came to Huang Fu. “You have no idea either? Then I will be off.”

“Of course I do.” Huang Fu answered hearing that she was leaving. “You want to know the truth?”

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

“Then kiss me.”
