

Divine 1601

Chapter 1601 Not Found 1

Gu Chaoyan was sweating heavily as well.

The poison inside her was very strange. It was inside her, but there were different kinds. And they were not moving about in Lingyun's body, but stayed at one spot. In this way, she had different poison in different places, and Gu Chaoyan needed to focus on where to put more needles, and where to put fewer.

There were silver needles and poison all over Lingyun's body. She suffered so badly that she passed out, but she still clenched her teeth and frowned deeply.

Sword One was helping Gu Chaoyan wipe off her sweat and pass her tea.

She even felt a little sorry for Lingyun. She kept her head slightly turned.

Gu Chaoyan was quite calm. She put effort into the needles and said, "She will get better and better. Today is the first day, and the pain will be the worst. Soon the pain will be gone, and everything will be fine."

Sword One nodded.

It was not until noon, when Gu Chaoyan removed the needles, Lingyun had passed out completely.

Li Qing had gotten a medical bath ready, so Gu Chaoyan asked Sword One to carry Lingyun into the bathtub.

Li Qing was summoned overnight. Sword One and Qing could help her, but they were not doctors, so they might make some mistakes. Lingyun was very seriously poisoned so Li Qing was helping alongside.

For one thing, Lingyun would be taken care of and for another, Li Qing would learn something as well.

He had not seen many poisoned patients in the hospital.

When Qing got the clean clothes and walked in, Lingyun let out a low groan. She was suffering.

Qing felt concerned and was about to step forward, but Gu Chaoyan grabbed hold of her. "Don't approach her."

Lingyun was a person who had high pain tolerance. So in this case, she must have reached her limit.

Gu Chaoyan could do nothing but turn around.

She was deeply poisoned and this was the only way to detoxify her, so she had to go through this period.

The following days she went through the same process, but Lingyun was definitely getting better within these few days.

The black spots on her skin were fading and the condition on her face was getting better. Gu Chaoyan took a look at her face, and believed that by putting on more cream and washing herself with magical water, she could almost recover her original look.

Gu Chaoyan felt extremely glad for this achievement.

She asked Sword One to get the snow stored from the blizzard a while back, and asked Lingyun to drink some tea. So under the Immortal Flower tree, they chit chatted whilst having a nice tea.

Just a few days ago, Lingyun had never expected that she would live a life like this.

Gu Chaoyan must be the brightest thing in her life.

***

In the court.

Elder Qianji sat in the room, his expression deeply sunk. He impatiently asked the guards. "Is there no one at Huaishi?!"

The guards were scared, as they answered with a shivering voice. "No, Elder Qianji."

Nothing?

Elder Qianji took a deep breath.

Where did she go?! She needed upper-grade pills for her poison so she could not have possibly left the Saint Divine Land.

She had never met Zhao Dier before either.

Chapter 1602 Not Found 2

She did not know that Zhao Dier was part of Piaomiao Pavilion. So what was she running away for?

Elder Qianji was furious.

Nothing was working out.

He failed to see the Golden Rolls. And he even lost Lingyun!

Wuxing would soon be here, but that woman was not found. What was going on here!?

He had never had such difficulty in making things happen.

"Go and find her! And go out of Huaishi to seek for her. Try to search in the hostels and see if we can find her," Elder Qianji said seriously.

There was one reason why Lingyun was not around - her poison exploded and she was under therapy, so she could not go out, but they had no time to wait for Lingyun.

Hearing Elder Qianji's order, Zhao Dier went crazy.

She almost collapsed! She had eaten so many upper-grade pills, but they did not work on the wound on her neck. She has not changed at all.

At first... she trusted Elder Qianji would be able to get the antidote soon, but even now, they could not find a way out. And today... they still could not find that woman!

"Elder Qianji, can you do anything or not? Didn't you say that it is very easy to get the antidote?" Zhao Dier glared at Elder Qianji, blaming him for everything.

If not for his promise, she would not have trusted him so deeply and missed her own plan.

What should they do now? Elder Qianji was annoyed.

He felt even more annoyed at seeing this unreasonable Elder Miss!

He had not wanted the whole thing to become like this either.

Also, he did not drug her, nor was it because his men irritated Lingyun that she got drugged. He was so angry having to take the blame.

As they were arguing, Zhou Huailing came in.

Hearing what Zhao Dier said Zhou Huailing rolled his eyes and suggested. "Lady Dier, what about asking Phoenix Girl to take a look at you? For one thing, she is a Phoenix Girl, and for another, she is really capable. Many dying people have been brought back to life by her. You have been poisoned so she should have a way out."

Hearing that the Phoenix Girl was mentioned, Zhao Dier felt even more annoyed.

The Phoenix Girl was also present at Huaishi, but they did not ask her for help until today. It made her feel so humiliated.

"No!" Zhao Dier turned it down without hesitation.

"Bring the Phoenix Girl here." Elder Qianji answered after Zhao Dier turned down the suggestion.

The Head of Piaomiao Pavilion had told him to take good care of Elder Miss, but Lingyun could not be found so the antidote could not be found either. The Phoenix Girl might help, so she should be called to do some work.

Elder Miss was again throwing temper.

He did not care if they were at Piaomiao Pavilion, but they were outside the territory, so he was going to watch her steps.

If Elder Miss was hurt when she got back, he could be humiliated as well.

"Elder Miss is young and has a wild temper. She is just throwing a tantrum. Don't listen to her, Crown Prince, get the Phoenix Girl to come check her out. The most important thing is to get the Elder Miss detoxified. Nothing else matters," Elder Qianji said.

Zhou Huailing believed so as well.

Lady Dier did not say anything to counter Elder Qianji.

So he sent his men to fetch Gu Chaoyan as soon as possible.

At Xinlin Mansion.

Chapter 1603 Benefits 1

The messenger Zhou Huailing sent had already arrived, telling Gu Chaoyan that the Crown Prince was asking her to go into the court quickly.

The messenger did not tell her the real reason why she was asked to go into the court, other than that she was asked to go into the court soon. The messenger knew some of the details, but he just passed on what Zhou Huailing asked him to.

However, even though the messenger eunuch did not reveal anything, Gu Chaoyan more or less understood what she was called into the court for.

Zhao Dier had been poisoned for days.

Lingyun had never returned to Huaishi since she moved in, so they could obviously not get an antidote, but the pills from Piaomiao Pavilion were not drugs, and Piaomiao Pavilion would never be able to detoxify anyone. Piaomiao Pavilion did have some upper-grade pills, but none of them worked for this drug.

Zhao Dier had not come to her for days, and she must have become deeply tied to the poison on her neck.

Zhao Dier must have lost her patience.

That was why Zhou Huailing would have the idea of getting her to go into the court, since she was a skilled doctor. The reason why she was not informed about why she was asked to go into the court was because she and Zhao Dier were not friends, and they did not get along well with each other.

It was a good plan.

While Gu Chaoyan was thinking about the reason, Sword One was thinking something as well.

Elder Miss had once taught her not to use only brute force but also brains. She could calculate people's hearts, or heaven's plan. People should think before acting.

That was why she started to think about what was going on here.

She did not think that her Elder Miss would want to detoxify that rude Elder Miss in the court.

After all, it was Zhao Dier's own fault.

She looked down at the drug, and tried to kick over the store. Huaishi was not Piaomiao Pavilion and people from Huaishi were not the members from Piaomiao Pavilion, who could be bullied easily.

That was her own retribution.

Elder Miss was a woman who had her own principles, so she would never agree with it.

The next second... Gu Chaoyan replied quietly, "Okay then, we can go into the court."

Sword One was confident about her own guesses, but then she heard Gu Chaoyan's reply. Startled, she almost dropped her sword.

Why did Elder Miss say yes to that request?

Sword One was very confused.

Gu Chaoyan smiled briefly.

Sword One was too young to understand her fully. Of course she would agree to the request.

When Lingyun drugged her, she was sparing her, so she only got drugged on her neck, with the lightest kind of poison. When the move was made, Lingyun had already taken her revenge.

Lingyun was someone who took revenge, but she was a kind person.

Zhao Dier offended her so she drugged her back, but that drug would only keep her neck that way for ten days and by that time, the poison would be gone, and the black mark would disappear.

In fact, after a few days, the poison would be gone of its own accord.

Since Zhao Dier had no patience, she could not stand it any more.

Okay then... she would have a look at her, but she was going to get some benefits from her as well.

Chapter 1604 Benefits 2

That would be such a great deal!

What an easy grab.

The people from Piaomiao Pavilion had many interesting things.

Xiu Jie should be interested in them, and she would like to study them as well.

That was why she agreed to it directly.

Sword One had understood it, but she had no idea of poison or medicine, thus not understanding what the good point within the whole process was. That was why she was surprised that she would be willing to agree with it.

However, she was in a good mood after seeing Sword One's reaction.

They went into the court with the wagon, and she was led to the palace where the people from Piaomiao Pavilion were accommodated under the arrangement of the King.

She was prepared, thus following the routine.

When they were in the court Zhou Huailing was really surprised.

He started to brag about Gu Chaoyan's skills as a doctor.

Zhou Huailing said to Gu Chaoyan, "Lady Chaoyan, you can take a look at Lady Dier's wound. Can you cure it? That woman was too horrible back at Huaishi, so she was drugged. Lady Dier could not cure it even after using so many upper-grade pills."

"Piaomiao Pavilion is capable, but Lady Dier did not come with too many people. None of them are able to understand anything related to medicine. So we have no choice but to turn to you."

"..."

"Rumor goes that you can bring the dead back to life. I am sure that you can deal with this issue." Zhou Huailing tried to suck up to her.

Gu Chaoyan made a thorough observation.

After checking it, she showed a very relaxed expression. "Of course I can cure it."

"Then do it now."

"Then cure me now!"

Both of them snapped out at the same time, in a different tone.

Zhou Huailing sounded flattering.

Zhao Dier was as annoying as usual - always arrogant.

Gu Chaoyan understood what Zhao Dier was like. So she did not care about her tone.

Also... she would not cure her for free.

Gu Chaoyan shrugged, as she said innocently, "You heard the rumor, but that is not a rumor. It is the truth... But..."

"..."

"You failed to hear the whole story. I can bring the dead back to life, because I have a rule. I only treat dying people."

"..."

"That is the rule. Lady Dier, you are not dying, so you can find someone else."

Zhou Huailing was shocked.

He never noticed that there was a rule like this. How could this be?

Clearly Lady Dier was not dying. What should they do?

"Then what do you want for you to break the rule?" Elder Qianji asked.

He was more than 100 years old. He could tell that there was a deal to be made here.

She stressed that she could cure it before she brought out the rule.

If that had not been said, he would not have understood what was happening here, but she stressed that, so she was clearly making a deal.

He wanted to deal with Zhao Dier as soon as possible. It was okay if they sacrificed something.

Hearing the question... Gu Chaoyan smiled and said, "That is easy. You talked about how many good things from your place are back at Ronghua Palace, so bring some to me and I will pick some as my payment."

Elder Qianji was very displeased.

So... she wanted to get things from Piaomiao Pavilion.

These things...

Well, he had planned to use them to make an exchange with the Golden Rolls.

Chapter 1605 Benefits 3

If those were used to cure Zhao Dier, it would be such a waste, but...

If they were not used for Zhao Dier, she would continue to be annoying. He could handle that, but if Wuxing was here, her continuous bad temper would make things worse.

If she could be treated right now, a few things could be used.

Elder Qianji thought for a while.

He said with a serious look on his face. "Upper-grade pills and middle-grade weapons, you can only choose one of the two, nothing more."

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at Elder Qianji.

She understood what he wanted. There was no way to bargain any more.

In that case, she did not want to say anything else.

She would definitely choose middle-grade weapons compared to the pills.

She almost knew what pills from Piaomiao Pavilion were like after seeing the Fanghua Pill.

"Middle-grade weapons," Gu Chaoyan said sharply.

Eldee Qianji was about to fetch the weapons for her when he had one idea - it should not be like this. She did not seem to want to give them the Golden Rolls, because the condition was not tempting enough. If he could offer her something good from Piaomiao Pavilion, then she would know what Piaomiao Pavilion had and would give the Golden Rolls in exchange for better things.

When she decided to use that as the exchange condition, it basically meant that she liked those things.

"Get all the middle-grade weapons out for the Phoenix Girl to pick from," Elder Qianji said.

"Elder Qianji!" Zhao Dier wasn't very happy about this decision.

Elder Qianji stopped her, telling her not to talk. He did not want her to ruin the plan again.

Zhao Dier had to purse her lips in displeasure.

When the magical weapons were all presented in front of Gu Chaoyan, everything seemed very peculiar. The charms were inside as well. So Gu Chaoyan glanced about and picked the charms.

She felt that Xiu Jie should like this and this one could be used on any occasion.

Honestly... she was very disappointed by those weapons.

They were not as powerful as she had expected.

After sating her curiosity, she took the things and brought out a pill, passing it to Zhao Dier. "Eat this, and you will recover tomorrow."

Zhao Dier threw it directly into her mouth.

Elder Qianji did not care about this. He asked curiously, "Are you interested in the weapons? These are just middle-grade weapons. We still have upper-grade weapons, which are definitely better."

"..."

"If you are willing to give the Golden Rolls to us, we can give you three upper-grade weapons and all of these middle-grade weapons!" Elder Qianji said with a tempting tone.

Gu Chaoyan smiled.

Elder Qianji was indeed experienced.

He was definitely trying to tempt her.

What a pity.

She was indeed a little tempted by his condition, but... she did not have the Golden Rolls either. So it did not matter if she was tempted or not.

Gu Chaoyan shook her head, turning him down. "That is not going to work!"

Having said that, Gu Chaoyan left.

Elder Qianji looked a little annoyed.

This Phoenix Girl was too difficult to deal with.

"The Golden Rolls... we can just rob her of it, why beg her all this time?" Zhao Dier said impatiently.

Elder Qianji glared at Zhao Dier.

He said seriously, "When the door to enchantment was opened, not only us, but the monster race, witch race could all go about, only the Phoenix Girl is able to keep them away. If we become an enemy of Phoenix Girl because of the Golden Rolls, then it would be us who loses everything!"

Chapter 1606 Wuxing 1

When they first arrived at the Saint Divine Land, Zhao Dier had tried to give the Phoenix Girl a warning, and Elder Qianji said nothing, because he wanted to see if Piaomiao Pavilion would be able to override the Phoenix Girl.

No one from the Saint Divine Land cultivated so if people from Piaomiao Pavilion could threaten them, then they would be able to get hold of the Golden Rolls very easily. They would even make the short-sighted Phoenix Girl work for them instead. That had been their "good plan" from the start.

He thought that Zhao Dier would think as thoroughly as he did, and that she would know how to take control of the situation, but upon hearing her tone, he believed that she did not even know what they should do and what they should not do. She even thought that they were totally invincible.

Elder Qianji did not like it.

He hoped that Zhao Dier was not going to ruin the whole plan.

They should not give the Phoenix Girl any more problems. They had to flatter her, because the Cangyan Door was already here, and people from the Snow Territory would be here soon. If Piaomiao Pavilion continued to behave like this, the Phoenix Girl would dislike them directly and Piaomiao Pavilion would have no chance to befriend her, then she might turn to the Cangyan Door and the Snow Territory instead.

"Lady Dier, recall what you have just said, and no longer say such things. You need to treat the Phoenix Girl politely. That will only do good for us!" Elder Qianji reminded her seriously. "You don't want the Cangyan Door to take advantage of this situation, do you?"

Zhao Dier said nothing else.

Of course she understood what the situation looked like.

She snapped because she felt humiliated when the Phoenix Girl offered the antidote in exchange for things from Piaomiao Pavilion.

She might have burst out in saying such things, but she would not truly dare do so. Otherwise her father would blame her.

She had to accept the lesson Elder Qianji taught her.

Seeing that she was not arguing, Elder Qianji felt less worried.

He was worried that this Elder Miss would ruin his plan.

"Elder, Guardian Wuxing is here." A guard reminded him in a small whisper.

Wuxing?

Zhao Dier's distress was gone. She looked very happy. "Senior Brother is here!" she exclaimed and rushed out, wanting to meet him.

However, Zhao Dier suddenly thought of something when she reached the door.

Her expression sank and she retreated backwards, hesitantly saying. "Elder Qianji, you can go and greet him. I am too tired to receive him at the door. I need to have a nap."

Having said that, she returned to her own palace.

She would very much like to meet Senior Brother, but the stain on her neck made her look ugly. She did not want Senior Brother to see that. This antidote would not work until tomorrow, so she would have to wait until tomorrow to meet her Senior Brother. After all, she hoped to look perfect in front of him.

Elder Qianji saw how she behaved... and understood what she was thinking. He had lived for more than 100 years, after all, so he was not worried about her at all.

He went to greet Wuxing personally.

Wuxing was from Piaomiao Pavilion, but it was the first time for him to visit the court, so he needed to go through a complicated process, so Elder Qianji went to bring him in directly.

Wuxing looked beyond him, feeling dissatisfied and frowning. "Where is Elder Miss, isn't she in?"

The Elder Miss had always been passionate towards him, so how she reacted to him today seemed weird.

Chapter 1607 Wuxing 2

"She got drugged by Lingyun and she has taken the antidote, which will detoxify her tomorrow. Girls always like to stay pretty in front of the guy she likes, so she is avoiding you. It's nothing serious," Elder Qianji said quietly.

He was happy that Zhao Dier was away. So no one would disturb them here.

Wuxing nodded and asked nothing more.

"Where is Lingyun? I want to see her!" Wuxing asked seriously.

It had been three years since Lingyun suddenly left. He had not had a very smooth time without Lingyun around. No one else was able to produce what he needed. Now the door to enchantment was opened, and he needed Lingyun's help desperately. So Lingyun was very important to him right now.

He had been careless years back.

He thought that Lingyun loved him deeply so she would tolerate some unpleasantness. Besides, he was busy with many affairs at Piaomiao Pavilion and had no spare energy to take care of her. So Lingyun suddenly felt annoyed and left.

This time when they met... he was going to give her a thorough explanation and try to pamper her.

He did not think that Lingyun would be bitter as long as she met him.

He knew how to console Lingyun after spending so much time with her.

"She has not appeared since that day. People were sent out to find her. She must have been deeply poisoned. It will not be easy to find someone like her," Elder Qianji said confidently.

"I can meet the Elder Miss first. As for Lingyun... I will go and seek her tomorrow personally. I know her well, and I know what kinds of places she would choose to stay in," Wuxing said, sounding unworried.

Normally, Lingyun would not want to meet people when she was poisoned. And sometimes she would have a weird emotional reaction, so she always kept to herself.

Since he received the letter that told him that she tried to get upper-grade pills for her poisoning, it meant that she would live close to Huaishi, somewhere very remote.

So the scope was quite limited.

He was sure that he could find her within two days.

So... he needed to take care of Lady Dier first.

Elder Qianji felt very assured after hearing his speech.

Wuxing was the most capable young man among the younger generation. He should not make mistakes in his planning. He should also be of some help with the Golden Rolls.

He pointed at the palace not faraway. "That is where Zhao Dier lives. You can go see her there."

***

At Xinlin Mansion.

Gu Chaoyan just returned to the mansion.

Xiu Jie came to greet her and Gu Chaoyan gave the charms to Xiu Jie. "You should like it."

Having said this, she told Sword One how to use the charms and she went to find Lingyun.

Lingyun was a very skillful poison maker, but she could be of some help in drying the herbs. So she was in charge of the herbs around where she lived, and she knew when to bring out the herbs for sun drying and when to put them away. Lingyun was better at this than Li Qing.

At that moment, Li Qing was not only learning medical skills from Gu Chaoyan. Lingyun was more like his master as well.

However, Li Qing had no idea that Lingyun was not a doctor, but someone who made serious drugs. Gu Chaoyan would naturally not tell Li Qing directly.

"Lingyun, come here. I have something to tell you," Gu Chaoyan sat down on the stone chair, smiling happily.

Chapter 1608 Wuxing 3

Lingyun put down the herbs and came to her.

She was still dressed in black, with a hat over her face. She looked as if she were living in a shadow.

Days passed and Lingyun was almost totally detoxified.

Her face was almost recovered, but Lingyun still did not believe it herself. She did not dare look at herself, so every time she washed her face, she never looked at herself. She always put on the hat when she was done.

When she got there Gu Chaoyan adjusted the hat for her and said, "I was in the court because Elder Miss Zhao Dire needed to be detoxified. I gave her the antidote and even got some good things from Piaomiao Pavilion, for Xiu Jie to play with. Her problem could be solved within a few days, but it is always good to trick Piaomiao Pavilion to give us something. You drugged her to punish her, so I came to tell you what is going on."

Lingyun was extremely shocked, as she stared at Gu Chaoyan.

She was really shocked from head to foot.

She was shocked that Gu Chaoyan knew that the drug would only be visible for three more days.

And she was shocked and surprised that Gu Chaoyan would trick Piaomiao Pavilion to get something good, and that she would narrate the story as if everything was normal. How fun!

And she was shocked because Gu Chaoyan was respecting her. She detoxified her and asked her to serve her for five years. That meant that she was her servant, and she could do anything to her or about her, but she told her what was going on clearly. Even when she was the most valuable tool for Wuxing, he did not respect her like this.

Maybe... kindness came from someone's bones.

Lingyun felt that she failed to meet good people throughout her life, but when she was about to die, she met someone who could be the sunshine of her life...

That should be her luck.

As she was thinking about this, Gu Chaoyan took out a bronze mirror and placed it in front of her. She asked thoughtfully, "You really don't want to see what my medical skills have brought you?"

She did not care about her image. She really did not.

She had thought that her disfigured image would displease Wuxing, but at this moment, nothing mattered.

She was wearing the hat, not because she cared about what she looked like, she just did not want to frighten passers-by.

Of course, she trusted Gu Chaoyan's medical skills, so she removed the hat directly.

Lingyun was shocked when she saw herself in the bronze mirror.

What?! That was her?

Li Qing, who had been sundrying the herbs, was shocked too.

Dressed in black, Lingyun looked very beautiful. She was reflecting an aura as if a blade was radiating sweetness.

Lingyun felt shocked. She was not very pretty before, just an ordinary person, and her facial features were not changed, yet her skin was so white and pure that it lifted up her ordinariness and made her look very radiant.

"How did this happen?" Lingyun mumbled.

She thought that she would become slightly better compared to before she got poisoned, but...

The air in the yard suddenly turned stiff, but at that moment, Sword One rushed in and said loudly, "Elder Miss, the order from the court says that there will be a banquet in the court soon and you need to attend it in three days."

Chapter 1609 Lingyun 1

Banquet?

Why another banquet?

"What is the occasion?" Gu Chaoyan asked Sword One.

"The eunuch said that there are guests from Piaomiao Pavilion, the Cangyan Door and the head of Snow Territory is here as well. The Saint Divine Land is hosting the banquet to greet them. You are the Phoenix Girl so you have to be present." Sword One repeated the order.

However, the excuse was just on the surface.

Sword One knew pretty well that Elder Miss was present not because she was the Phoenix Girl, but because everyone was there for her sake.

Gu Chaoyan nodded and understood what was going on.

The King was hosting the banquet and she would be present as requested.

"Elder Miss, should I get your banquet dress ready?" Sword One asked.

Qing had been in charge of the Xinlin Clinic and the mansion, so Sword One was in charge of Gu Chaoyan now. Though Sword One was from the Shadow Door, after spending time with Qing, she learned a lot from her and believed that Elder Miss should be well-dressed so as to stand out.

Gu Chaoyan frowned slightly.

She was quite bothered by this.

In the past, Qing focused a lot on dresses, and she kept nagging about this. Now it was Sword One who nagged.

She shook her head slightly. "No need, daily dresses should be enough."

She was not focused on this point.

She was slightly worried.

All of the schools were at the Saint Divine Land for one purpose - the Golden Rolls!

She would need to announce the truth.

She was going to tell them what was happening with the Golden Rolls.

However, should she tell the truth!

That was a choice Gu Chaoyan could not make right now, so she was feeling a little confused.

Lingyun was also contemplating.

A long while later, Lingyun followed her heart and asked. "Elder Miss, can I keep you company on the banquet day?"

Lingyun's words brought her back.

She looked at Lingyun quietly.

She was about to say something when Lingyun suddenly said with hesitation. "Forget it."

Wuxing was from Piaomiao Pavilion, and he, as the Senior Brother, would definitely keep Zhao Dier company since she was here personally.

Therefore, she knew that if she wanted to get close to people from Piaomiao Pavilion, then she only needed to keep Elder Miss company to the court, where she would meet Wuxing directly.

And that was where her misfortune started - from Wuxing.

She wanted to take revenge, so she needed to interrogate Wuxing. That was why she wanted to keep Elder Miss company, but that was just a momentary impulse. She soon stopped being reckless.

Elder Miss was a kind person and treated her nicely, so she should not bring her own trouble to Elder Miss, so she was troubled. Lingyun believed that she should depend on herself to make it happen.

"You can," Gu Chaoyan said warmly.

Chapter 1610 Lingyun 2

"You are working for me now, so you are with me on all occasions. Qing is mostly in charge of the mansion, but Sword One is too busy to handle everything alone. If you can stay by my side, that would be great."

"..."

"Also, you are working for me, but you are not a puppet. You can do whatever you want, as long as you don't betray me."

"..."

"If you need my help, I can help you within my abilities. I asked you to work for me for five years, so I will treat you as my sister during these five years," Gu Chaoyan said to Lingyun.

There were many reasons why she treated Lingyun in this way.

For one thing, she appreciated her abilities. For another, she felt concerned about her. She felt as if she had seen an old version of herself.

Since she asked her to work for herself, then she should not be treated differently from Sword One, Qing and Xiu Jie.

Lingyun was startled as she looked at Gu Chaoyan.

She was not a person without a history. Wuxing did not kill her, but she hated him most. That was why she burst out with the unreasonable request, but she had not expected that Gu Chaoyan would treat her so trustingly.

She felt like sharing the secret hidden in her heart.

Lingyun sat down on her chair and smiled bitterly.

Gu Chaoyan was next to her.

Sword One took Li Qing away from this place.

Only Gu Chaoyan and Lingyun were in the empty yard, and the herbs in the sunshine were giving off a light smell.

"The older Brother from Piaomiao Pavilion Wuxing used to be my partner. Human races outside the enchantment are different from people from the Saint Divine Land. We have no strict rules and etiquette. We are more like free people and when we are able to cultivate, we can make decisions for our partners and marriage."

"Me and Wuxing were partners because we decided to be together, but we did not get married, so I should not have been considered as his wife."

"..."

"He is one of the few cultivating disciples who have fire and water energy inside him. That is why he is the Senior Brother of Piaomiao Pavilion, but I am an ordinary woman without any qualification for cultivation."

"..."

"When he found out that I could not cultivate, he treated me coldly. At that time, I felt so little of myself, because I knew that I would never be able to stand by his side like this. Therefore, I started to work on drugs."

"..."

"I could not cultivate, but I was very skillful with drug making. After knowing about that, he started to treat me nicely again."

"..."

"Years passed, and I gave him the drugs I made and the herbs I had. He said that it was very useful for him."

"..."

"Later, he told me that he needed a very complicated drug and asked me to make it. I made it within half a year. Unexpectedly, I was drugged by someone. I could not find the antidote so the poison traveled inside my body, starting from the inside then moving to the face. Soon, I was disfigured."

"..."

"At that time..."
