Chapter 1621 Helping 3

When he realized what a mistake he had made, and tried to get Lingyun back, she was already gone.

He truly had no other countermeasures.

He regretted it terribly as well. He should not have been so impulsive as to drive her out directly.

Sure enough... Lingyun did not like it. That was why she could remember it to the present day. However...

Since that was what made Lingyun unhappy, then things were easier than he had expected.

She was angry about that, meaning that she cared about that problem. And the reason why she kept saying this in front of him was because she wanted to get justice from him.

Wuxing let out a sigh of relief, after making a short analysis.

He took a step forward and came closer to Lingyun.

With his head slightly lowered, he explained to Lingyun carefully, "Lingyun, you misunderstood me! I had never wanted to drive you out years back. I made you move for your sake. You were poisoned, and the poison was hurting you. There were many people coming back and forth in the mansion, and I was worried that you would be affected. So I decided to give you a new environment to make you feel more relaxed.”

“When I helped you move out, I had been sorting out everything in the mansion. I was even building a new house for you. I even asked for a nice day so I could get everything ready for our wedding.”

“...”

“On the day when I found out about our auspicious wedding day, I came to the hostel but did not see you.”

“...”

“I waited in the hostel for three days, hoping that you would see me as soon as you returned, but you did not come back at all.”

“...”

“Then I even arranged for my men to search for you, but still could not find you anywhere.”
Wuxing said as he started to sob.

He seemed so sad as if he were back to the time when he was grieving.

Lingyun looked at him in surprise.

In fact, what he said did move her a little. And even a while ago, she felt a little bit drawn by his speech, but... when he said that he waited in the hostel for three days...

She instantly realized what was happening here.

He was lying. It was a very thorough lie.

What he did not know was that after she left the hostel, she did not leave the place.

She would go to see the hostel every day just to see if anything would ask for her there.

Half a year passed, there had never been a time when he was waiting for her three days in a row...

Sure enough... everything was a lie.

Lingyun sneered. "Are you sure about what you said?"

She must have been stupid to have almost gotten convinced by his speech.

Lingyun shook her head. “Everything is over, Wuxing.” Then she left...

When Wuxing finished his speech, he thought that Lingyun would truly believe his words and feel moved, but she was still leaving him.

That made him panic.

He was about to reply to Lingyun, but she was gone.

Wuxing stomped his feet and looked at Lingyun furiously.

Why was she not moved after his speech? So troublesome!

It was already a great honor for a man like him to want to marry her! What rights did she have to go against him?

“How did it go?” Gu Chaoyan asked Lingyun, who just climbed into the wagon.

Chapter 1622 Helping 4

Then she told the coachman to drive on.

Lingyun had been feeling quite distressed, but as she came into the coach and heard Gu Chaoyan's cold voice, she somehow relaxed.

She sneered. "He was trying to make some other lies for me. He again said that he wanted to marry me, and then explained why he treated me like that before. He was trying to make me stay by his side and work for him."

"He must be used to making me do this and that. He can't change it."

"..."

"I ran away previously, so today I was telling him goodbye. From this day on, I am going to take revenge."

"..."

"The person who set me up was a maid working for Wuxing. She had been serving Wuxing and was trying to squeeze me out of Wuxing's bed, so she framed me."

"..."

“However, Wuxing did not believe what I said.”

“...”

“And he never punished her either.”

“...”

“I didn’t see her today. A maid probably couldn’t be attending the banquet, but I am sure that she is with him.”

“...”

“If I see her again, I will definitely sort this out,” Lingyun said.

Hearing Lingyun’s narration... Gu Chaoyan fell into contemplation.

Lingyun might be someone who made the most dangerous poisons, but she was straightforward and naive.

She believed that the maid was setting her up because she drooled for Wuxing, but...

In her opinion... that might not have been the full story.

Everyone could tell what relationship Lingyun and Wuxing had. Wuxing was just using her, not treating her with a heart. A maid should have witnessed that and she did not have to take the risk to frame Lingyun.

She even believed that Lingyun got poisoned because of something else.

However, she could not say clearly how that happened after just hearing a few words from Lingyun.

She was going to make a judgment when she got in touch with the maid.

Gu Chaoyan did not ask anything more despite the confusion.

She took her hands, asking, "But how are you feeling now?"

"Very relieved." Lingyun smiled, and looked happy. "I was always thinking about how to marry him and my world was full of him. Now I have recovered and I have many things to deal with."

Gu Chaoyan smiled.

She patted the back of her hands, knowing that she was truly relieved.

The wagon was heading towards Xinlin Mansion.

Wuxing, who was standing outside the gate, returned without any achievements.

He had full access to go about in the court, because the King gave them authority tokens.

After he returned to the palace....

He went directly into Elder Qianji's room.

Elder Qianji was just bothered by what the Head of the Snow Territory told him, so when he saw Wuxing entering, he smiled brightly, thinking that he was here with some good news.

"How did it go?" Elder Qianji asked.

"Not well. She was still mad at me and could not take in my words. I still need to work on her more. Women are always like that, they need sweet words. It is good that she is serving the Phoenix Girl now, that will always be a benefit for us." Wuxing was furious, but still spoke so confidently.

"Well..." Elder Qianji was about to say something when he heard footsteps outside.

Chapter 1623 - Zhao Dier's Plan

Elder Qianji shut up cautiously, without saying anything more.

Few people knew about Lingyun even at Piaomiao Pavilion. They should not reveal anything right now. Lingyun was serving as their spy since she was with the Phoenix Girl. The people in the court were from the Cangyan Door and the Snow Territory, so they could not be sure who might be at the doorstep. If the news was spread, they might suffer a huge loss.

They exchanged a look among themselves and turned vicious. They were not happy that someone stepped in.

They tiptoed to the door and were about to catch the person outside.

They were just about to open the door... when the door opened itself.

It was Zhao Dier who was outside. She came in and sat down.

Wuxing withdrew his vicious look and exchanged a look with Elder Qianji. They nodded at each other, and let out a sigh of relief.

It must have been Zhao Dier who was outside.

Zhao Dier was at a high cultivation level, so no guards from Piaomiao Pavilion were able to stop her. She would also notice if people from the Cangyan Door and the Snow Territory were around.

If she had not noticed anyone around, then there was no one around.

They were relieved to find that it had been Zhao Dier outside, but they were furious about her showing up at this hour.

Especially Elder Qianji. He sat down next to Wuxing, ignoring Zhao Dier.

Wuxing stopped his anger.

He looked at Zhao Dier, asking gently, “Elder Miss, what are you doing here?”

Zhao Dier nodded instantly.

She asked confusedly, “Is the Head of the Snow Territory not here for the Golden Rolls? Then what is he doing here? Can’t we just go and ask him what he wants?”

“Also, Elder Qianji, can you write a letter and ask my father if the Head of the Snow Territory has a wife, and if there is any need to work with the Snow Territory through marriage? We are already excellent enough, but the door to enchantment has been opened, and the world will become chaotic soon. If we have the Snow Territory with us, we will definitely benefit.”

“...”

“I can’t ask that myself, so you have to ask him,” Zhao Dier said to Elder Qianji straightforwardly.

Their Elder Miss... well, she had fallen for the Head of the Snow Territory.

Elder Qianji threw a look at Wuxing.

Wuxing was the most gifted person among everyone at Piaomiao Pavilion.

Piaomiao Pavilion almost believed that he would marry Elder Miss. Zhao Dier seemed to think so too, but someone else showed up halfway.

He could not follow Zhao Dier's order.

Instead, he should see what Wuxing thought.

However, Elder Qianji still nodded kindly, "I will write the letter, but we can't just force the Head of the Snow Territory to do what he doesn't want to. We can wait and see what he wants after a few days."

"..."

"Even if the Snow Territory doesn't want the Golden Rolls, we have to get the Golden Rolls. As for the King..."

Chapter 1624 Identity

“The King should be ready to follow our orders after eating so many pills from us.”

“...”

“The King has always had the supreme power in the country. The King is nothing for us to deal with, but the Phoenix Girl can be a little tricky. She will always obey the King’s order, won’t she? Give him more pills!” Elder Qianji said impatiently.

“Got it,” Zhao Dier said casually.

It was just a matter of more pills. That was very easy for her to do.

She did not even care about what happened to the King.

She had been thinking about the Head of the Snow Territory.

Since Elder Qianji already agreed to write the letter, she was more assured now, so she left happily.

After she was gone... Elder Qianji and Wuxing exchanged a few words between themselves.

“In fact...” Elder Qianji whispered to Wuxing.

At Xinlin Mansion.

After doing acupuncture on Lingyun, Gu Chaoyan asked her to take a good break before going back to her own room.

She had been bothered by an unsolved puzzle.

It was about how the Head of the Snow Territory addressed her in the same way Huang Fu addressed her.

After a long hesitation... she went into space.

Huang Fu was always waiting for her by the magical water when he was still in the form of a phoenix, or walking in the field. After he became a human, he was reading in his study or his own room.

Well...

Gu Chaoyan had no idea where his own room was.

That must be the strange and magical part about the space... Gu Chaoyan was confused, and felt that she wasn't the only owner of the space.

However, they had arguments before so Gu Chaoyan found it difficult to summon Huang Fu.

She calmed herself down and picked up a book and started to read.

She was just fascinated by the content... when her forehead was hit by something.

At that time, she knew that Huang Fu was here.

Huang Fu had just tossed a tomato at her. The tomato was growing in the space, surrounded by the magical air. So the tomatoes were all bigger than those outside. And she felt pain on her forehead.

Gu Chaoyan ignored the pain directly.

She looked up at Huang Fu.

Huang Fu stopped looking at her but was lying on the same spot.

He thought that it would be much longer before he could see this woman again, but here she was. That surprised him. This woman might not even want to speak with him, but he felt a little heart broken whenever he thought of her attitude.

He was very angry so he wanted that woman to feel the pain, but seeing her reddened forehead, he felt heart broken again. He was about to ask her if she was hurt, but stopped himself.

He could only try to cover his anxiety and unease with a sinister smile.

Huang Fu did not say a thing, so it was quiet in the room.

Gu Chaoyan turned to him. She closed the book and then picked up the tomato on the floor, putting it onto the table.

After that... she asked Huang Fu seriously, "Who am I?"

Chapter 1625 Woman!

Huang Fu looked at her in surprise.

Seeing that she was not joking, he took another look at her again.

"Who are you?" Huang Fu asked confusedly. What was wrong with this woman who did not even know who she was.

"Who is Feng Le?" Gu Chaoyan continued.

Huang Fu frowned.

!!

So he was here? Yeah, he was definitely here.

“You are Feng Le, the Phoenix Girl. The name of the Phoenix Girl is Feng Le,” Huang Fu said with a strong tone.

Gu Chaoyan looked at him quietly.

He was right, but Gu Chaoyan believed that there was something more than that.

She did not spend much time with Huang Fu, but Huang Fu would always tease her before telling her truth, so when he said this so straightforwardly, it meant that he was lying.

“You met Ouyang Mingjing already, did you? I suggest you stay away from him. He is not a good man.” Huang Fu suddenly seemed very serious.

He knew the Head of the Snow Territory?

And they seemed to know each other well... otherwise, why did he say that he was not a good man?

“What is going on? What is wrong with him?” Gu Chaoyan asked subconsciously.

“You want to know the answer?”

“Okay.”

“I won’t tell you anything without any conditions. You disliked me and ignored me. Now you want to learn things from me? It is too late!” Huang Fu said annoyedly, “You did not even try to speak with me last time I returned.”

Gu Chaoyan was silent.

She and Huang Fu did have a row last time.

That was because they regarded things differently.

Huang Fu obviously minded that, but she could only know the truth from Huang Fu.

If that was the case... she had to make a deal with Huang Fu.

Huang Fu only expected her to speak to him nicely, but she... she was making a deal with him?

It seemed that everything was like before. He had done so much just to please her, but she was already prepared to make a deal.

Everything was a deal in her eyes.

Like now. She did not remember who she was, but she was still the same as before. What on earth had he owed her?

“You help me? Just leave me! I don’t want to see you. You make me annoyed!” Huang Fu tried to drive her away irritably.

Seeing the way he behaved... Gu Chaoyan truly had no way to make a deal now.

She had to leave and make him calm down for a while, before he would be willing to make a deal with her.

Then she nodded and left.

Huang Fu was dumbfounded.

This woman! Was so annoying!

She used to be cold, but she would at least try to stay, but she would leave now as soon as she was asked to!

She was so irritating!

Gu Chaoyan walked out, without knowing a thing.

Sword One was knocking outside excitedly.

“What is it?” Gu Chaoyan asked.

Sword One walked in happily. “Elder Miss, there is a variety show outside in the capital, Qing would like to have a look at it. She asked me to ask if you want to join us?”

Variety show?

Chapter 1626 - Variety Show

The Saint Divine Land was the most powerful land among the four countries. That was why the Saint Divine Land was open and flourishing all this while.

There were all kinds of stands on the streets of the capital. Variety shows would happen every now and then.

Qing did not seem too interested in such shows.

They passed by such shows before, but she was not interested in them. She only went for the food.

What suddenly made her so interested in variety shows? She seemed to be very well-dressed as well.

Could the variety shows in the capital turn out to be something different?

Gu Chaoyan was very confused.

Sword One understood what her Elder Miss was thinking. She explained. “Elder Miss, there is a new variety show class in the capital. They seem to have come from the South. They don’t reside here, they are just staying here for a few days. They are going somewhere else. They have been staying in the capital for just two days, and they will soon be leaving. That is why Qing wants to see the show now.”

“The servants from the kitchen saw the show and told Qing about it. The class is very skillful. They put on shows that we have never seen before!”

“...”

“Qing likes to be in bustling places. She wanted me to keep her company. I was thinking that you have not been out for a while, so I was wondering if you want to join us,” Sword One explained with a smile.

That was how they always hung out with Gu Chaoyan at Xinlin Mansion. They might be the Miss and the Maid, but they were more like sisters.

Gu Chaoyan thought for a while, then she nodded.

Qing had had a bitter life with her before they moved out. Now things were much better for them, but Qing never had time to do things she liked, since she was always busy with affairs at Xinlin Mansion.

She was a very young girl and would have an interest in seeing lively shows. That was very normal. So she could keep her company.

“Get Lingyun too. She has been in the capital for a long time, and yet she has not traveled in the city. And if the maids from the court are free, take them as well. We can all go to see the show,” Gu Chaoyan said.

Sword One smiled and went out.

The maids from the court were given by the King. Gu Chaoyan accepted them since she could not turn them down.

She barely spoke with them personally. Sword One was in charge of the girls.

However, Gu Chaoyan still offered them equally good treatment even though their names were not known to her.

They had been working the court and then the mansion, and they barely went out, so she decided to take them out of the mansion for fun. People like them might not have such a chance in the future.

One hour later... the arrangements were done and they went out in a wagon.

Qing was very happy. So were the servants. They developed deeper affection and gratitude towards Gu Chaoyan.

They were most jealous of Qing and Sword One, who had such an Elder Miss to serve. They were just so lucky.

The wagon went onwards slowly. However, it did not move as it reached the market.

“What is it, Mr. Coachman?”

Chapter 1627 - Lingyun's Reaction 1

Sword One's voice arose.

The coachman said with a worried tone, “Miss. Sword One, there are too many civilians on the street. They won't make space for our wagon. We will need time to get in.”

Hearing that, Gu Chaoyan lifted the curtain and looked out. There were many people heading towards one direction on the street.

Their wagon could not ask people to open the road just like those noble people's. The civilians would not make space for them.

She thought for a while, then Gu Chaoyan said, “Let’s get off the wagon and walk, otherwise we will never make it through.”

They all became even more excited upon hearing that they were going off the wagon.

They all headed towards the crowded street.

She had arranged Sword Two to keep them company, otherwise she would be quite distracted about the girls’ safety.

Lingyun and Sword One kept her company, whilst the others would go out and play, under the protection of Sword Two.

“It is just ahead of us,” Sword One said as she pointed in one direction. “Whenever the variety show class are here, people would crowd up to watch them.”

“But we have booked an elegant room in a high spot at Linjiang Restaurant, so we can watch the show freely!” Sword One said.

Gu Chaoyan threw her a look.

It was a very last minute decision for them to come and watch the show, yet they could even get an elegant room here among the crowd.

Sword One smiled and said with a smile, “Lord Huai did it.”

Gu Chaoyan withdrew her look.

Yeah, if he did it, then that was very normal.

They passed through the crowd and went to Linjiang Restaurant.

Those girls already had many things in their hands. They passed by the stands and bought all of the interesting and novel things.

They had two elegant rooms.

It offered the best view. They could clearly see the variety show when they looked down.

Qing was exceptionally excited. She said, “It is starting soon. I heard from Auntie Liu from the kitchen that those actors are very skillful. There are animals we have never seen that are smarter than mankind. They can do anything!”

Qing spoke as she looked down with sparkling eyes.

Gu Chaoyan found that something was wrong, after hearing what Qing said.

Animals they had never seen? What could they be?

No wonder Qing would want to come and see the show.

She did not think that things were so easy, but for some reason, she became quite interested in what was coming towards them. She wanted to see it clearly.

Soon the sound of drums and gongs arose.

The show was about to start.

The actors had drums and gongs in their hands, and collected a lot of money from the civilians. They did not start until the drums and gongs were all filled up.

Now the show started.

The actors led out something with a rope.

Gu Chaoyan narrowed her eyes and found that something was wrong.

Lingyun burst out loudly, "That is from the monster race!"

Gu Chaoyan's guess was confirmed by Lingyun's exclaim. Something wasn't right.

"Lingyun, what is it?" Gu Chaoyan asked.

Chapter 1628 - Lingyun's Reaction 2

Qing, who had been excited, quieted down as well.

She did not have much knowledge of it, but she knew that something was wrong.

Auntie Liu from the kitchen talked about the variety show class vividly, but it could have been something beyond imagination.

Lingyun glanced at the elegant room cautiously.

"I will go outside and guard," Qing said with a serious look on her face.

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

Linjiang Restaurant might have ears on the wall. They should be cautious about everything around them.

After it was settled, Lingyun started. “The variety show class is not using harmless animals like monkeys or something. They are monsters. That is why they can do so many things. Monsters are more tricky than human beings.”

“Those are just low-class monsters that have yet to become grownups. They are almost as innocent as human beings that are yet to start cultivation.”

“...”

“However, when they grow up, the variety show actors and the audience are all done. Those low-class monsters are more capable than uncultivated humans.”

“...”

“That is definitely what is going to happen now that the door to enchantment is opened, but it is starting a bit too fast. Monsters are already among human beings!”

“...”

“Phoenix Girl, you have to think of a solution, otherwise the Saint Divine Land will be doomed!”

“...”

“Human beings have never been united. Like Piaomiao Pavilion, and the Cangyan Door, they are all thinking about their own interests. They can never defend us!”

“...”

“That is all I know. I know some low-class monsters because there are some small monsters trapped at Piaomiao Pavilion for practice, but I have never seen any monsters from medial-class and upper-class, so I have no idea what they would be like,” Lingyun said, worriedly.

Things were not heading towards the right situation.

No wonder Piaomiao Pavilion and the Cangyan Door would want the Golden Rolls so badly. They wanted the Golden Rolls to protect themselves in the chaos.

If she had the Golden Rolls, that would be great, but the thing was that she did not have the Golden Rolls.

What should they do?

Destiny Monk had told her that the world would become chaotic when the Phoenix Girl appeared. They had thought that it would just be chaos between the four countries, whilst the truth was that it was chaos across the whole universe.

Gu Chaoyan wasn't feeling very well.

She had just thought of a person – Zhou Huaijin.

She needed to speak with Zhou Huaijin about some things.

“Sword Two can keep them company here, let’s head to Lord Huai’s Mansion now,” Gu Chaoyan said coldly, as she led them out of the elegant room.

Sword One and Lingyun followed suit. Qing went with them.

More and more people were there to watch the show. Everyone was interested and curious about those things they had never seen before.

Gu Chaoyan passed by them and said, “The variety show should not be here. If something bursts out, the civilians would be hurt.”

“Monsters hate their enemies.” Lingyun reminded her.

The gang passed by the crowd.

“It is him.” Gu Chaoyan saw a person not faraway.

Chapter 1629 - Lingyun’s Reaction 3

The moment Gu Chaoyan finished her words...

Lingyun, who was thinking about the monsters, turned in that direction. It was Wuxing who was among the crowd.

Wuxing was with a few of his maids and guards.

They should have turned around directly, but at that moment, Lingyun saw the maid next to Wuxing. Wuxing had many maids, and she never observed them carefully, but she was never going to forget the very one that framed her.

“It is her!” Lingyun’s voice became excited. She almost wanted to rush up to that girl.

Gu Chaoyan instantly realized what Lingyun wanted.

It must have been Lingyun’s enemy who excited her.

She stopped Lingyun, telling her not to be reckless.

Lingyun knew that it was her enemy, and she could take revenge, but not in this way.

It had been ages since the incident took place.

Lingyun needed justice, but she also needed evidence, otherwise Lingyun, who was set up, might lose the justice in the end.

Wuxing also noticed the two ladies.

He got very excited – how could he be so lucky as to run into them here. And they had even ceased walking. Were they waiting for him?

Wuxing went to them quickly, as if he would be considered impolite to have slowed them down.

As he came to their side, he greeted Gu Chaoyan politely, “I am Wuxing from Piaomiao Pavilion. Greetings, Phoenix Girl!”

Gu Chaoyan nodded but did not respond to his greetings.

There were manners in the Saint Divine Land, and Piaomiao Pavilion had their rules too, but Wuxing and Gu Chaoyan could not follow the regular rules of their origins. They were almost as old as each other and their greetings did not need to be so formal. Wuxing was just slightly older than her.

However, Gu Chaoyan did not accept him, so she did not reply to the greetings.

Wuxing looked a little embarrassed. He said nothing, but smiled, then he turned to Lingyun next to her. “Lingyun, are you here to see the variety show?”

“The variety show here is so interesting. I wonder what it is about, but there are many people here, and we can barely see them. Have you seen it?” Wuxing talked as if he were their old friend.

Having said this, he turned to Gu Chaoyan with a tone of apology, “Sorry, Phoenix Girl, me and Lingyun are old friends, so I could not help but chit chat with her.”

The Phoenix Girl did not reply to his greeting, probably because Lingyun never mentioned him in front of her. So she treated him coldly.

Well then, he could explain it himself.

The Phoenix Girl would weigh her position here.

He knew what Lingyun was like. Lingyun would always help him when he presented their relationship in this way.

Gu Chaoyan sized up Wuxing in front of her.

She did find one merit about Wuxing. He really had no shame on him, but that was probably because Lingyun used to be too soft-hearted.

Chapter 1630 - Lingyun's Reaction 4

That was why he was fearless.

He was going to let others know about their relationship without trying to conceal it. She could see through his purpose directly.

“Then you can talk,” Gu Chaoyan said coldly, took a step aside and kept a distance from Wuxing. She showed no interest in speaking with him.

Wuxing felt very helpless. He had not expected that it would be so difficult to speak with the Phoenix Girl.

So he had to put his hope on Lingyun. He flattered and looked at Lingyun in a pretentious tone, “Will you talk with me, Lingyun?”

Lingyun glanced at him coldly, “Take care.”

Having said this, she was about to leave.

Wuxing panicked. He grabbed her. “What on earth is going on? You can tell me what you are angry at me for!”

He already showed his relationship with Lingyun in front of Phoenix Girl, who should know that he and Lingyun had a special relationship. He was also betting that Lingyun was concerned about him. She would not humiliate him even if she was angry.

However...

Lingyun was beyond his control now. She was not thinking about him at all.

He did not want this to happen.

He wanted his plan to work out properly.

Lingyun flung his hands away, then she glanced at him, then at the maid next to him.

“I am not happy. I was poisoned because she set me up, so I am not happy seeing my enemy, got it?” Lingyun said straightforwardly.

Wuxing was shocked.

He turned to the maid Lingyun pointed at.

How could that be possible? How could she know about it? He always believed that she had no idea.

No wonder she never wanted to speak with him, no matter what he did.

That was the case.

“She poisoned you at the mansion?” Wuxing asked seriously. Then he turned lethal. “I will not keep an evil woman like this!”

“...”

“If you don’t like her. I will have her killed, as long as you are happy!” Without a moment of hesitation, Wuxing grabbed a hidden weapon and tossed it directly at the maid, accurately hitting the maid’s throat. The maid’s eyes widened in disbelief. She fell backwards.

The civilians passing by were all shocked too. They screamed and rushed away.

Lingyun was shocked too.

To her knowledge, this maid should be important to him, otherwise she would not have set her up before.

She had been thinking about killing her as long as she was detoxified all these years, but she had not expected that the revenge would be taken so quickly, after she said a few words.

Gu Chaoyan clearly had not expected this.

She told Sword One to carry away the body and told Lingyun to leave the scene first.

Lingyun was still quite distracted, but she was soon taken away.

Within a short moment, only Wuxing and a few of his guards remained, together with some blood traces on the floor.

The other maids were shocked too. They had not expected that their master would kill one of them so easily.

Wuxing wiped his hands with his handkerchief.

He moved forward with a deep look on his face, saying displeased, “Too many people are here. Pave the way and get rid of everyone in the way.”

The maids and the guards followed the order.

At Xinlin Mansion.

Gu Chaoyan fed the maid a lot of magical water. She could not swallow any pills due to the weapon on her throat.

The magical water could keep her alive for a short while.
