

Divine 1651

Chapter 1651 Monsters 1

The people from the clinics were all shocked upon hearing her order. The monsters had hurt many people and they were very badly injured too. The clinics could not promise to cure them, and if the patients died at their places, the names would be ruined.

"Listen to the Phoenix Girl!" Some anxious civilians shouted.

The people from the clinics had to transfer everyone out.

Gu Chaoyan started to prepare the medicine and cream.

20 people were transferred to her place. Gu Chaoyan put on the medicine and fed them pills based on their wounds. A few hours passed, and those people were stabilized.

Gu Chaoyan let out a sigh of relief.

"Change their cream and feed them soup according to my arrangement, the wounded should be fine soon," Gu Chaoyan said seriously.

At this point, everyone let out a sigh of relief.

Gu Chaoyan turned to a few who were slightly injured, asking, "Where did you get injured by the monsters? What did they look like?"

The variety show class was already closed down by the Shadow Door, so they should not have been the sources.

If not, where did they come from?

It seemed that the situation was worse than they had expected.

Monsters appeared everywhere in the country and soon, the situation would become worse.

"On the street not far from here, it was not on the avenue, but many people were there. They were tricky and they rushed away where they came from. We did not see them carefully, but Phoenix Girl, I am sure they are monsters, because they are ugly and they don't walk on their feet like us." The wounded man got very excited as he spoke. It was good that he was very far away, so he was just slightly injured. One step closer and he would have lost his life. So scary!

However, the monsters were not caught and now they were out there hurting people. Since he was wounded, he would stay at home and not come out, otherwise he might lose his life.

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

She more or less understood what was going on here.

Those civilians were ordinary people, and they were not like those from Piaomiao Pavilion, who were cultivators and able to defend themselves against ordinary monsters.

That was why they were so easily wounded.

What should they do when monsters are everywhere?

Gu Chaoyan felt a little bothered in the clinic.

She looked outside.

Gu Chaoyan frowned and noticed that something was weird. She glanced outside the clinic. People who were injured by monsters were all located here, and she had been informed about this hours ago... why didn't anyone from the court come to ask about this?

Gu Chaoyan was confused...

So was Wuxing who was in the court.

He asked Elder Qianji, heart twisting. "Will that really work? Monsters are everywhere, and the capital will be gone."

Elder Qianji said casually, "Those useless people have no cultivation and they are alive today, but they may get killed by monsters sooner or later, so, why not just..."

Chapter 1652 Monsters 2

"Why not just make use of them now, for our benefit," Elder Qianji said reasonably. "The court won't help them, so in a few days, there will be more people who are hurt by the monsters. The Phoenix Girl will have no solution, and will lose her reputation among the civilians who might even want to get her away from this place. By that time, the Phoenix Girl will have no choice but to make a deal with us using the Golden Rolls!"

"..."

"Wuxing, you are too young and soft-hearted. That is not good. We will be affected, Piaomiao Pavilion and our interests will both be affected," Elder Qianji said, unhappily.

Obviously, Elder Qianji was not happy about Wuxing's suspicion.

Wuxing nodded and said nothing more. He had been concerned, because he was human and if the capital was occupied by monsters, it would not be good for them, but what the Elder said made sense.

They might not be able to get the Golden Rolls at this moment if they stepped forward now. So they had to wait.

The court never asked about the wounded civilians, nor was there anyone who stepped forward to help.

In the meanwhile... the Phoenix Girl was claimed to be false. It was just a conspiracy between her and the Monk from the temple. Otherwise she would never have become top of the world when she was a disgraced lady from the Gu Mansion.

If she were a Phoenix Girl, she would have protected the civilians from the Saint Divine Land, but after the Phoenix Girl appeared, things constantly happened to the Saint Divine Land.

The rumor spread everywhere in the capital.

Many people started to believe the rumor, when they thought of the monsters' attack the day before.

After all, the Phoenix Girl had been a very holy being in their heart, and they were not convinced that they were denied like this.

Moreover, part of the rumor was not wrong, so people started to talk vividly and excitedly about this.

On the way from Xinlin Mansion to the clinic, people outside the wagon talked about this. Soon, Gu Chaoyan realized what was going on.

"Elder Miss, how can they do that?!" Sword One was very angry.

Elder Miss was forced to be the Phoenix Girl, to open the door to enchantment, and to give them blessings. The court did not care about the incident, yet the civilians did not blame the court, they blamed Elder Miss instead.

And they were saying that it was Elder Miss' conspiracy.

Elder Miss had not taken a good rest since the day before, because she was worried about the monsters' appearance.

"It is fine. It was bound to happen. We are all weak in front of monsters, and they hope the Phoenix Girl can solve everything that comes at them. That is why they are angry. What we need to do is to solve the monster issue. When we solve it, we will break the rumor. Come with me to the clinic, then we will go into the court and inform the King about the monsters," Gu Chaoyan said seriously.

Sword One quieted down.

At the clinic, many people were gathering there, and pointed at Gu Chaoyan when she got out, whispering among themselves.

Gu Chaoyan ignored them and went into the clinic...

She felt better when she saw that the wounded were all doing well.

Gu Chaoyan was about to go into the court when some other news arrived.

Chapter 1653 Elder Qianji's Plan 1

The calm was gone again. Things became very chaotic. Sword Two rushed in through the crowd and went to Gu Chaoyan's side, whispering anxiously, "Elder Miss, something is wrong, monsters hurt people again!"

Gu Chaoyan stiffened and turned pale. Monsters were constantly hurting people in the capital as she had predicted. The court had made no arrangements, and things would become even worse.

She needed to speak to the King about this.

He kept thinking about his world, but if he did not deal with it now, the capital would be overrun and the court would be lost. She wondered what kept the King indoors.

"Where are the wounded? How many are there?" Gu Chaoyan asked Sword Two.

"On the avenue, soon they will be transferred here. We arrived too late to catch the monsters. We don't know where they are. They are coming out to hurt people and yet the court is sending no one out. No one is patrolling on the street. We already told the civilians not to go out in case they get injured," Sword Two said.

Well...

The Shadow Door also made some arrangements, but Sword Two did not speak of that. He just told her what he was supposed to.

Gu Chaoyan's face sank.

Just as she had predicted, many wounded people covered in blood were carried in. Some were alive, some were not. Outside the clinic, civilians kept asking Gu Chaoyan why she could not give them blessings as the Phoenix Girl, but was instead giving them so much trouble.

Sword One and Sword Two stopped those civilians.

Many people were injured and the chaos would slow her down.

Monsters had no conscience. They tore apart people whenever they saw some. Those wounded people were crippled, and Gu Chaoyan could do nothing but save their lives.

A few hours later, those who could survive lived on, but Gu Chaoyan felt really tired.

This was not going to work.

Almost every civilian in the capital would be injured, since monsters kept hurting people in this way. And she would have to save every one of them.

The court needed to arrange forces to defend against the monsters.

Gu Chaoyan walked out of the clinic, with a very cold expression on her face. She ignored those interrogating civilians, and climbed into the wagon directly. Those people stopped themselves from approaching her, upon seeing her cold gaze.

The wagon headed directly into the court.

The most bustling street in the capital was empty. It used to hold many people and wagons could not get through, but today, the street was empty. Soon, she came to the gate of the court.

The King already gave her a special order so she could come into the court without an authority token or summoning order. That was very convenient for Gu Chaoyan.

She had just passed the gate... when Gu Chaoyan saw a very familiar figure.

Chapter 1654 Elder Qianji's Plan 2

It was Elder Qianji, the Elder from Piaomiao Pavilion.

At this time, she really did not want to waste time on this tricky old man. She walked past him, and decided to head inwards, directly to the King.

Elder Qianji laughed.

He knew what she wanted, and that was why he was mocking her.

He knew pretty well what Gu Chaoyan wanted. The monsters were hurting people from the capital, and she was threatened as the Phoenix Girl. She needed to find a way to stop the monsters, so she was turning to the King for help, but that was not going to work. She had no idea who was in charge of the King now anyway.

"Monsters seemed to have hurt many people in the capital?" Elder Qianji said quietly as he stood behind Gu Chaoyan, as if it did not matter to him.

Gu Chaoyan stopped but said nothing.

She was going to see what Elder Qianji wanted to say.

Many people already knew about the monsters' attacks, which was nothing new. He must be here for something that he needs this time.

Elder Qianji did not care about her silence, but continued. "It is chaotic in the capital, and soon the whole city will be drowned, if monsters are not controlled. When the whole city is drowned, the whole land will fall. Soon, monsters will take over the Saint Divine Land, and you will become the most hated figure among the civilians."

"..."

"You fall badly if you stand too high!"

"..."

"We from Piaomiao Pavilion are different from people from the Saint Divine Land. We are cultivators, and monsters are a piece of cake for us. If you can give your Golden Rolls to us and work with us, we will solve them for you, leaving no trace behind."

"..."

"We can even work together for a long time, as long as you don't treat us badly."

"..."

"What do you think?" Elder Qianji looked at Gu Chaoyan confidently.

Gu Chaoyan looked at him seriously. She was almost sure that Piaomiao Pavilion must have worsened the situation. They did not care about people or monsters. They just wanted to get what they wanted.

It was so selfish!

Gu Chaoyan frowned and said unhappily, "The door to enchantment has opened, and monsters and witches can walk about casually. We are the weakest among them all. You should unite with us, to keep yourselves safe. Have you ever thought about whether you can keep yourself safe, if Piaomiao Pavilion is the only one that remains."

Elder Qianji laughed and laughed even more loudly.

He looked at Gu Chaoyan as if she was an idiot. She was trying to make Piaomiao Pavilion help her directly?

"Are you accepting the deal, Phoenix Girl?" Elder Qianji said straightforwardly.

Gu Chaoyan turned around and headed directly into the court.

Elder Qianji did not care that she was leaving. He said at her back, "I will be waiting for you here after your meeting at Qianqing Palace!"

Chapter 1655 Elder Qianji's Plan 3

She was still so fearless, because she thought the King would help her, but the King might have helped her before, not now. She was not going to get anything good out of it.

Anyway... he only needed to have some patience to deal with an immature girl like this. After she got into trouble everywhere, she would turn to him for help.

Elder Qianji waited patiently at the gate.

Gu Chaoyan went in the opposite direction, directly into the court.

It was still very quiet in the room, as if nothing that happened outside affected what was inside the court.

At the Qianqing Palace.

De Fu was waiting outside the palace, rather than in front of the King. Gu Chaoyan felt confused. The King trusted De Fu deeply and he would always be by his side, and would take over all the missions that needed to be done. Now it seemed that De Fu could not approach him, just like the other eunuchs.

Gu Chaoyan threw a contemplative look at De Fu, who looked helpless and said, "Elder Miss, I will pass on the message for you."

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

De Fu went inside and passed on the message.

Soon De Fu walked out and greeted her.

Just as before, the King had just finished reading the petitions and was waiting for her to approach, looking tired.

Gu Chaoyan came to his table, saying quietly, "Many civilians are being hurt by monsters, have you received petitions about it? If not, I will speak with you in detail."

"..."

"Monsters are hurting people everywhere. If the court doesn't arrange any soldiers, soon the capital will be overrun by monsters. You will not be in a safe position either if monsters take over the capital."

Gu Chaoyan sounded very angry, as she thought of how civilians were hurt because of the King's silence.

The King looked at Gu Chaoyan, saying unhappily, "Gu Chaoyan, you are the Phoenix Girl, why aren't you greeting me? Is this how you behave as a Phoenix Girl? I will deal with it, but it is not your turn to give me instructions. Do you know nothing about the rules?"

"..."

"I will forgive you, but do this again, and I will punish you!"

"..."

"Get lost now!" The King shouted furiously.

Gu Chaoyan narrowed her eyes, saying confusedly, "King?"

"Someone, take her out!" The King did not want to speak with her, so gave orders to his men.

The guards outside were shocked - was the King trying to drive out the Phoenix Girl?!

They could not believe that, but listened to the order quietly.

Gu Chaoyan did not resist, but walked out of the Qianqing Palace quietly. When she passed by De Fu, she looked at him confusedly. De Fu approached her and stuffed a note into Gu Chaoyan's hands, then he showed a very frank face.

Gu Chaoyan took it and left directly.

So strange. The King was so strange. What happened?

Elder Qianji was still waiting for her at the gate.

Chapter 1656 Elder Qianji's Plan 4

Gu Chaoyan was about to pass by him, but Elder Qianji stopped her. He looked as if he had known what would happen. He said to Gu Chaoyan, confidently, "Phoenix Girl, what is your plan?"

"..."

"Make a deal with me, so that you won't be bothered. Now you can only work with us, or you will lose a great deal," Elder Qianji said confidently.

The King would definitely not agree with her, and she would not get any support. In the end, she would be put in a dilemma.

He was willing to make the deal with her, and he was like a saving straw. He did not think that the Phoenix Girl would turn him down.

Gu Chaoyan sized him up carefully.

It seemed that he knew clearly what might happen, and he was sure that she would say yes to his request.

It seemed that he had predicted what the King would say to her... Why?

However...

Well... he was not going to get what he wanted.

Because he kept wanting her to bring out the Golden Rolls, she was sure that she was not going to say a word about the Golden Rolls to people from Piaomiao Pavilion.

The Golden Rolls were missing, but few people knew that.

She had hesitated whether she should talk to those schools about the Golden Rolls.

However... it seemed that she was not going to do things like this.

Gu Chaoyan looked at Elder Qianji, shaking her head. "Elder Qianji, please go back to your court and have a rest. Stop wasting time here with me. I am not going to make a deal with you."

"..."

"Please," Gu Chaoyan said coldly.

Elder Qianji had almost burst out that they were going to have a deal, when he heard Gu Chaoyan's words. He was in total disbelief.

She was not willing to do so even at this point?

That was impossible!

When Elder Qianji was about to confirm, Gu Chaoyan was already gone.

Elder Qianji was surprised.

She was too young, after all. She had no idea what was good for her.

He was going to see how much longer she could hold.

Nothing would change with the King, and the Cangyan Door had reached a deal with Piaomiao Pavilion about reading the Golden Rolls together rather than contacting the Phoenix Girl separately. He did not need to worry about the Snow Territory, because what he wanted was to marry the Phoenix Girl, and she could be taken away when she was at her lowest.

The situation was settled, and it was clear how things were going to go.

She would have no way out.

It would just take a few more days before she changed her mind.

Elder Qianji flung his sleeves and wondered how much longer she was going to hold on.

He returned to the court, displeased.

***

Gu Chaoyan went onto the wagon and was about to head back to Xinlin Mansion, when a voice arose behind her back. "Feng Le!"

Him again!

Gu Chaoyan knew who it was when she heard the voice. Only two people called her Feng Le, and one of them was outside the court.

Gu Chaoyan did not want to have anything to do with him since what happened last time.

"Feng Le, hey!" Ouyang Mingjing shouted again, as he approached Gu Chaoyan.

Chapter 1657 Monsters' Death 1

Gu Chaoyan did not answer him, but Ouyang Mingjing did not force her to answer him either.

As he approached her, he said of his own accord. "I heard that monsters are hurting people here in the capital, so I ordered an investigation."

"..."

"Those monsters going about in the capital are just low-class ones, nothing to fear, but they can definitely hurt innocent people. For us, they are nothing. They will come out and hurt people again tomorrow."

"..."

"Later, if you arrange everything well, nothing like this will happen. The door to enchantment has opened, but monsters would rarely come out, unless they are controlled. They would rather eat trees in the mountains to get nutrients than people without cultivation."

"..."

"Those who sneak into the capital might be more likely to be witches," Ouyang Mingjing said to her carefully.

Gu Chaoyan listened to Ouyang Mingjing's words carefully.

He had said everything clearly, though the speech wasn't long.

He was implying that someone was releasing the monsters on purpose to hurt people in the capital.

Who might that person be?

It must be Elder Qianji.

Also, he even told her the truth.

Monsters did not come down to the towns where human beings lived, but witches would. So that was what they should watch out for later.

Gu Chaoyan suddenly felt relieved, but then again, not that relieved.

Witches were not easy to deal with either.

She turned around and saw Ouyang Mingjing, who was standing where he was, and asked in confusion. "Why?"

Ouyang Mingjing showed confusion.

"Why did you help me and tell me all of this?" Gu Chaoyan asked.

After all... she already told him what she thought.

Ouyang Mingjing smiled. "Maybe because I don't want to become your enemy?"

"..."

"I understand what you meant, but I still want to help you, because I want you to owe me something, so that in the future, you can help me back and return the favor."

Ouyang Mingjing sounded very sincere, totally different from the imposing attitude he used the other day.

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

His proposal wasn't over the top. If she could be of any help, she would definitely do it, but marrying him was impossible.

Hearing that, Gu Chaoyan took a step backwards, saying, "Of course."

Ouyang Mingjing smiled brightly.

He gestured to Gu Chaoyan, indicating that she could leave.

Gu Chaoyan greeted him back, turned around and walked into the wagon.

***

The following day, the empty street was filled with people again. Civilians were out. They heard that the monsters had been killed, and the bodies were all carried to Xinlin Mansion.

Many people felt quite guilty for having accused the Phoenix Girl of not helping them. They were all going to Xinlin Mansion to apologize.

Ouyang Mingjing did not care about those civilians. Standing among the dead monster corpses, he came to Xinlin Mansion, smiling brightly.

Chapter 1658 Monsters' Death 2

Compared to the twisted bodies and blood, he looked gentle and friendly, not fitting the crowd of bodies, but Ouyang Mingjing did not find it strange. He was totally straightforward about it.

He saw Gu Chaoyan as he walked into Xinlin Mansion.

He was still portraying a friendly image, showing the bodies to Gu Chaoyan. He made the introduction as he showed her around. "Monsters have strong vitality. They can hurt people as long as their brain is not dead. They can even heal themselves. So when my people tried to kill them, they cut off the limbs so that they would be completely dead."

"..."

"These monsters are fast in movement and understand people's orders, yet they aren't very skillful, because they have been trapped and trained for too long."

"..."

"There are no other monsters for the time being, but you still need to be careful. I am not sure if those who release the monsters will continue, or if the witches will blend themselves in and sneak here," Ouyang Mingjing said carefully, as he stood by the pile of monsters' bodies.

Gu Chaoyan observed the bodies carefully.

The servants at Xinlin Mansion were already very far away.

Guards from Xinlin Mansion still felt frightened. They felt like vomiting when smelling the blood.

Sword One noticed that Elder Miss was observing the monsters' bodies as if she were observing jewelry, which was a strange scene for her, yet it did not seem to be a huge problem.

So she shook her head, and went to prepare the tea.

After careful observation, Gu Chaoyan went out of the piles.

To thank Ouyang Mingjing for what he did, she asked Ouyang Mingjing to drink some tea in the yard, according to etiquette.

Ouyang Mingjing seemed quite amused.

He started to tell Gu Chaoyan many things about the monsters and witches.

Two hours passed, and Ouyang Mingjing almost understood what she liked - she liked tea and the pastries on the table.

It was very difficult to get Acacia beans in the teacup, because she might not be able to eat them. So Ouyang Mingjing chose to put Acacia beans in the pastry. He observed that she did not like wasting time, so she was definitely going to finish the pastry. And she liked them, which made his plan much smoother.

Ouyang Mingjing chose to leave after he placed the Acacia beans properly.

Ouyang Mingjing helped her a great deal, so Gu Chaoyan walked Ouyang Mingjing out of the mansion, as the mistress of this place.

They greeted each other politely. Ouyang Mingjing learned this greeting from the servants in the court.

When Ouyang Mingjing headed back to the court, she returned to the mansion.

There were no guests in the mansion, so Sword One and Qing shared the table with Gu Chaoyan.

"The pastry is very tasty today, try some." Gu Chaoyan said as she sat down.

Qing took the pastry and started to eat. She was starving! The monsters' bodies were very scary, and she had just puked all of her food out, so she felt like eating.

Soon, Qing ate all of the pastry.

Gu Chaoyan and Sword One were smiling. They were spoiling Qing!

***

On the street... inside the wagon of the Snow Territory.

Ouyang Mingjing asked seriously, "Elder, how long does it take before the Acacia beans start to work?"

Chapter 1659 The Head Of Shadow Door

The Elder was smiling. He was obviously in a good mood. Ouyang Mingjing had accepted the Acacia beans more easily than he had imagined, and he conducted his plan within a short time as well. That made him feel assured.

Now that the Acacia beans were eaten, the Phoenix Girl would soon want to return to the Snow Territory with the Head, which would bring Snow Territory many years of peace. That made him even more assured.

He spoke to the Head as if he were telling a story to a grandchild, "Head, Acacia beans are rare. They will grow inside the couple's heart, and soon the emotions will be out of control. As long as she eats the Acacia beans, she will not be able to control her affection towards you and it will work by tomorrow, when you meet her again."

Ouyang Mingjing smiled brightly, after hearing that.

He had already put Acacia beans in the pastry, so soon she would eat them. By that time, they would have a connection.

The Phoenix Girl was pure-looking and the cold, distant air around her made him feel extremely satisfied.

The wagon was moving forward, when Ouyang Mingjing started to smile brightly.

***

At Xinlin Mansion.

When Qing finished the pastry, Zhou Huaijin came. Gu Chaoyan asked them to eat the pastry somewhere else. Lord Huai did not need to be served.

Gu Chaoyan's eyes were sparkling. "Why are you dressed like this?"

Zhou Huaijin was dressed in a black robe, with patterns made of golden thread. Concise and attractive, he looked very noble. A silver mask also covered his handsome face.

It was a costume that she had never seen Zhou Huaijin wear before.

Zhou Huaijin removed the silver mask from his face and placed it on the table.

"That is what the Head of Shadow Door is like. I am out in the costume for the first time, but I will have it on me constantly. After all, Lord Huai can't appear in the public's eyes, but the Head can."

"..."

"Monsters are everywhere in the capital, but the court does nothing. The Shadow Door has to defend the city, but we want to leave our name this time. Everyone is going to know how important Shadow Door is."

"..."

"He has betrayed the civilians, so it is reasonable of me to do so." Zhou Huaijin said with determination, "We have people from Shadow Door everywhere, and whenever monsters show up, the Shadow Door will be at the frontline."

As he was speaking, Zhou Huaijin showed a look of concern at this skinny woman in front of him. "Monsters are going about and you are being forced to take the blame. Those civilians can't think on their own. How can they blame it on you?"

"..."

"When all of this is settled, I will give up this throne and live as a hermit with you, so that you won't be blamed for anything."

Gu Chaoyan looked up at him abruptly.

He had just told her that he needed to take over the throne so that the civilians could have a peaceful life, yet he was giving up the throne now? Could that be because of the rumor?

Gu Chaoyan was about to counter him, when Zhou Huaijin lowered his head and silenced her with his lips.

Chapter 1660 Acacia Beans' Connection 1

Gu Chaoyan swallowed her words, and stared at this man in front of her with wide eyes. She subconsciously wanted to push him away, but did not feel like doing it now. Flowers rained over her head, and one landed on Gu Chaoyan's eyelashes, closing her eyes.

It was very sweet on the warm days of July.

Sword One was carrying tea and Qing snacks, as they walked in. Seeing the scene, Qing almost screamed, but Sword One gagged her and dragged her away from this place.

***

The following day.

Ouyang Mingjing felt very excited, and came to Xinlin Mansion early in the morning, with many monsters' bodies.

The Phoenix Girl had eaten the Acacia bean... and the Elder said that when they met again, their hearts would be connected until they died.

He remembered that when he became the Head at ten, he was not at all excited.

She must have gotten up at this hour, wouldn't she?

Ouyang Mingjing walked into the mansion and waited in the yard.

Some flowers were in the yard and as the breeze passed by, petals fell.

Sword One asked, "Head, do you want to change to a waiting room?"

"No need." Ouyang Mingjing seemed rather impatient towards Sword One. He really wanted to see Feng Le, and didn't want to speak with anyone else.

Sword One retired.

Gu Chaoyan still seemed quite drowsy, when she met Ouyang Mingjing who came very early.

She sat down casually.

Ouyang Mingjing said, "Monsters are out hurting people again, but they were killed by us. Someone released the monsters here on purpose, so they should be out very often these days."

"Thanks, Head, what can I do to return your favor?" Gu Chaoyan asked.

Ouyang Mingjing finally met her eyes.

The Phoenix Girl's eyes were still giving out coldness, rather than any touches of warmth. Ouyang Mingjing shook his head slightly, wondering what was going on?

"Nothing really," Ouyang Mingjing said, sizing up Gu Chaoyan.

According to the Elder... people who ate Acacia beans would soon establish a connection between each other. From that moment on, the Phoenix Girl would only have eyes for him, but...

Why did it seem different from what the Elder said?

Had she changed towards him? Could it be too early for it to have worked?

Ouyang Mingjing was very confused.

Gu Chaoyan said, "I can be of any help if you need me, except for the marriage alliance. Anything else will do."

Gu Chaoyan stressed.

Ouyang Mingjing was dumbfounded.

Why... Why was she still trying to get rid of him?

"Impossible." Ouyang Mingjing mumbled.

"What?" Gu Chaoyan asked curiously, "What are you talking about, Head?"

Ouyang Mingjing forced a smile. "Nothing... nothing really."

Gu Chaoyan threw a very skeptical look at him.

Qing's voice arose. "Elder Miss, should we arrange the breakfast here or in the room?"

Hearing Qing's voice, Ouyang Mingjing felt his heart skipping a beat.