Chapter 1681 Qing's Weird Reaction 2

"Qing was distant from me just now. Maybe she believes that I am her Miss after all, but when you talked with her like that, you were not interrogating her."

"..."

"Has there been anything strange about Qing these days?" Gu Chaoyan asked Xiu Jie.

Xiu Jie nodded without hesitation, and told Gu Chaoyan about how Qing behaved these days.

Gu Chaoyan let out a sigh of relief.

She just felt that it was a pity.

Xiu Jie was a very down-to-earth man, whilst Qing was a gentle and kind girl. Xiu Jie treated Qing very well, and she was thinking about setting them up after everything was settled, but Qing was distracted, and she wondered if she was going to miss Xiu Jie.

She really did not want Qing to walk the wrong way.

"Sword One, let Sword Two follow Qing these days and see where she will be going," Gu Chaoyan said.

"Okay, Elder Miss," Sword One said, sounding serious.

Then... Sword One asked further.

"Elder Miss, what do you plan to do next?"

"If she really likes him, I will respect her and ask him what he thinks about Qing. If he can give Qing a good future, then we can follow Qing's intention. If his answer isn't satisfying, I will keep Qing. If that is not what she is thinking, we will see what happens. I am going to safeguard Qing no matter what," Gu Chaoyan said with resolution.

Sword One felt assured.

Xiu Jie had no idea what they were referring to, but he more or less understood what Elder Miss meant. So he was assured as well.

Gu Chaoyan did want to tell Xiu Jie the truth, but it was not yet the right time, since the truth was not yet found out.

She told Xiu Jie a few more things, before returning to her own room.

Qing's behavior made her feel quite worried about her staying at Xinlin Clinic alone.

The following day...

In the court.

The King's eyes were bloodshot, and he had a terrible look on his face as if he had not slept for the whole night. However, he had not been to the morning session, as he was waiting for the guards to bring news.

Seeing the guard arrive, he asked nervously, "Where is he?"

The guard answered anxiously, "No..."

He was so frightened.

The King was ill-tempered and he ordered the death sentence casually, without any judgment on whether or not the order was right. The people who came to Qianqing Palace felt that they were lingering at the edge of death.

Especially when the news was bad.

However, the King did not get anxious after hearing the answer. He quieted down.

There was only one thing for sure now that the man was at large - he ran away by himself, with a premed plan, or he was rescued by someone.

Who would have rescued him?

Prime Minister Chu and General Liu were definitely not the right choices.

The Jiang Family's old soldiers might have done that.

Seeing Lord Huai grounded, they could not stand it any more and came to rescue him.

The Jiang Family claimed to be full of justice and ethics, but in fact, they were doing things behind his back.

He was going to use some methods to get that man out.

He was going to use the Jiang Family to lure him out.

Would he use old soldiers of the Jiang Family?

"Go and bring Madame Jiang here, as well as the people on the list." The King tossed a booklet to the guard.

Chapter 1682 The Jiang Family 1

"Bring them all to the court!" the King said fiercely.

The booklet showed the old soldiers from the Jiang Family, namely General Jiang's disciples, or some who always visited Madame Jiang.

He had made a list of all of them, and was thinking about getting rid of them until today.

It was the best excuse to get them out of this place.

Together with Lord Huai.

The Jiang Family and anyone who was related to the Jiang Family would be out of this place forever, and he would finally be totally assured.

Thinking about this, the King felt his eyes popping out in excitement.

"De Fu, serve me the tea," the King said, but it stayed quiet in Qianqing Palace.

De Fu was in and the other eunuch did not move.

After a long while, the King suddenly remembered that De Fu was gone.

"Serve me the tea!" He said expressionlessly.

Only then did the servants come to serve the tea.

The King still sat in his chair silently.

Two hours later.

The guards were back.

"My King, Madame Jiang wasn't in the mansion, but all the officers on the list are here."

"Madame Jiang is missing?" The King was displeased, but it was okay, those people were already enough. The King continued. "Take them all to the gate and release the news that they helped Lord Huai escape, so they will be beheaded every fourth hour, until Lord Huai appears," the King said without showing any emotions.

The guards were shocked.

Some of the officers were their friends.

They had never made any mistakes. Instead, most of them were devoted to the civilians and the country.

Why must they be beheaded because of Lord Huai?

Why was Lord Huai's absence their fault?

"Do it now!" The King shouted furiously.

The guards got up and hurried away, but even if they were confused, they could not change the King's order.

The news was spread all over the capital, and the civilians were already making a fuss out of it, but it was very quiet in the court.

No one dared to interrogate the King, in case they were beheaded as well.

The Jiang Family was already gone, and they did not want to get involved.

Gu Chaoyan heard the news very fast as well.

How ridiculous!

Gu Chaoyan burst out I'm anger.

The King was just ridiculous!

"Sword One, Lingyun, follow me to the court," Gu Chaoyan said, as she was about to get into the court.

In the court.

There was a loud moaning at the door.

Many people were calling out for being misjudged! They were not the Jiang Family's friends, and they had never gotten close to the Jiang Family, but now, they were dying because of the Jiang Family!

However, their cries reached no one.

Soon, one guard said, "It will be two hours soon, one head down..."

Chapter 1683 The Jiang Family 2

The guard was speaking in a relatively loud tone, intending to tell the executor, and the ministers who were awaiting to be beheaded. They were easily startled. The small voice passed through them and their lives were at the hands of others!

Hearing that the execution was soon to be done, they took steps backwards, fearing to be beheaded like this.

Soon, chaos arose at the gate, but they were all scholars who could not fight back, so soon they were pressed down, unable to move.

However... those in front panicked completely. When the time of beheading came, they would be the first ones to suffer. They did not even have time to appeal! They would die after being wrongly convicted.

People started to shout. "Help us, help us!"

"I have nothing to do with the Jiang Family! I just paid a few visits to General Jiang when he was alive, but that was totally normal socializing! Why does it matter when they commit sins!?"

Many people echoed him.

They visited General Jiang because they wanted to take benefits from General Jiang when they were alive, but the Jiang Family were all very smart people and they never gave them any benefits. However, now that the Jiang Family was down, those who had something to do with the Jiang Family were being forced to lose their lives for their sake. They were not at all convinced.

"Behead the disciples! Not us who are innocent!" Someone shouted loudly.

Many people echoed.

Among all of those people, only a small portion of people were working for the Jiang Family. They had benefited a lot from the Jiang Family when General Jiang and the Queen were alive. They should be the first ones to be beheaded.

Soon chaos arose at the gate.

Some disciples of the Jiang Family stepped out straightforwardly. "Behead us first then! I was working for the Jiang Family, behead me if you want to!"

"..."

"Don't you feel that you are innocent! You were trying very hard to suck up to the Jiang Family when they were in power!" That disciple sneered, then he said to the executor. "Behead me first!"

The executor and the guards all turned to the officer with admiration. Few people could be so brave when taken to the gate.

No wonder they used to work for the Jiang Family!

General Jiang was a capable general, and he knew how to train his disciples.

However, who should be beheaded first did not depend on them, but on the King.

They were closest to the Jiang Family, so they should be beheaded later. Those who were beheaded first were unimportant people for the Jiang Family, who would be used as a way to frighten the rest.

Those officers simply did not know anything!

The Executor looked at them calmly, without answering as he saw them arguing between themselves.

The King came to the gate after seeing that it was time, then he heard the heated arguments.

He asked with a frown. "What are they arguing for?"

"My King, it is very hard to get rid of the Jiang Family. They are arguing to be beheaded later as the time approaches."

Chapter 1684 The Jiang Family 3

The King sneered.

Tring to get rid of the Jiang Family? It was too late.

What was the point of arguing about the turns. They would be beheaded sooner or later. They would not escape the punishment even if Lord Huai showed up, because Lord Huai was going to be beheaded as well.

What was the point of arguing now?

Anyway, he was not going to stop them. He was going to let them argue since they were dying anyway.

However...

"Behead them as I said," the King said, quietly.

"Yes"

Standing not far from the gate, he was in a very good mood.

Those people who were related to the Jiang Family would soon disappear within these few days.

That excited him a great deal.

However, his smile stiffened, as he saw a person he really did not want to see.

"King, what are you doing here? Lord Huai is gone and yet you don't search for him, you are killing innocent people instead. With how brutal you are, aren't you afraid the capital will become chaotic?"

"The Jiang Family has helped Lord Huai escape. They have to pay for what they have done. He is hiding behind all of this, and the innocent people will end up being buried because of him! That is not brutal of me. It is brutal of Lord Huai!" the King said reasonably as he confronted Gu Chaoyan.

"The Jiang Family helped him? Do you have any evidence of that?" Gu Chaoyan interrogated.

She had never seen anyone so narrow-minded. General Jiang scolded him but still let his only daughter marry him and helped him take the throne. Even if General Jiang might have offended him once, he still made use of the Jiang Family after all, but now, he was trying to get rid of the Jiang Family completely.

The Jiang Family... was the Jiang Family still active right now? Couldn't he discover them even after so many years?

General Jiang was a man of justice. He never cultivated anyone in secret.

However, the King always believed that such people existed.

"Evidence? That is totally unnecessary for a thing like this." The King stared at Gu Chaoyan. "You can't be this unreasonable, can you, Phoenix Girl? Well, if you want me to drop this, the easiest thing you can do is to give the Golden Rolls to me, then I can leave all of them alone."

Gu Chaoyan sneered.

Even if she had the Golden Rolls, she would not show it to people like him.

"Impossible," Gu Chaoyan said straightforwardly.

"Okay then," the King said to the guards furiously, "Behead them now! I want to see how hard-hearted Lord Huai is!"

Gu Chaoyan squinted.

The King seemed very cheerful upon seeing the executors getting ready.

Hearing the order, the executors lifted their blades and were about to drop it...

Everyone was staring at the blade, and the prisoners were all cursing the Jiang Family loudly.

Everyone closed their eyes as the blade was coming down.

Then... the sound of blades dropping on the ground arose.

What was going on?

While everyone was confused, chaos arose at the gate, then came the sound of blades colliding with each other. Two groups of people were fighting against each other, with one being the imperial army and the other hidden guards from the Shadow Door.

"They are from the Shadow Door! What are they doing here?!" The King shouted unhappily.

Chapter 1685 End Of The Throne 1

Why?

That was because Lord Huai whom he wanted to kill was the Head of the Shadow Door. That was why people from the Shadow Door were here.

Gu Chaoyan knew that clearly, but she had no intention of telling the King this.

"Catch those people from Shadow Door!" The King shouted.

The Deputy General from the imperial army hurried in. "My King, please, let me escort you back to Qianqing Palace!"

They also wanted to catch those hidden guards, but soon, they realized that the imperial soldiers were not good enough to fight against the people in black. They were all well-trained and highly-skilled. They were not only not wounded, but they were also able to save the prisoners.

It was already lucky for the King not to be wounded.

The King felt quite frightened as well, but he nodded after hearing the Deputy General's order, and hurried back to Qianqing Palace.

Gu Chaoyan followed behind him, leisurely.

The Shadow Door would surely save them all, so there was nothing to worry about.

As they left the gate, the King slowed down. "Go and arrange as many guards for me as possible. The assassins are now in the court, and we are not safe!"

Having said this... he shivered in fright.

Gu Chaoyan said, "I am the King! You are the Phoenix Girl! We have assassins in the court, so you should guard me, that is your responsibility!"

"I don't think that is my responsibility. Not to mention that you have been threatening me all the time. Why should I guard you?" Gu Chaoyan interrogated, without listening to the King's orders.

"Gu Chaoyan!" The King shouted furiously.

"If you didn't try to kill the innocent, the assassins would never have come. It is your fault. Lord Huai escaped, but he has never made any mistakes. You grounded him because he is engaged to me!" Gu Chaoyan sneered as she looked at the King. "Just think about it yourself, King. I already gave you a chance."

Having said that, Gu Chaoyan turned around and left.

The King was totally unsaveable.

She had just come to persuade the King to release those innocent people, but it was the last chance she would give him.

The King looked at her with bulging eyes, and was about to get people to stop her, when people from Piaomiao Pavilion passed by. The King suddenly thought of something. "Elder Qianji!"

Elder Qianji looked at the King, saying, "I have other affairs to deal with and I need to get back to the court first. We can talk about other things after this."

He had truly lost his patience to speak with the King, so he left with Wuxing.

The King cursed behind his back, hurrying back to Qianqing Palace.

"Elder, what is going on? Why didn't you speak with the King?" Wuxing asked confusedly as they left him.

Elder Qianji sneered.

He had no interest in spending any time on things that were useless.

They had picked the wrong target to waste so much energy on.

Elder Qianji looked at Wuxing. "Do you believe that the King will lose his throne soon? Why must I spend effort on him?"

"Why?"

Chapter 1686 - End of the Throne 2

"Haven't you noticed? The Shadow Door is able to wander freely in the court and save people as they wish, whilst the King can do nothing about it. He is trying to keep himself safe first!"

"..."

"The Phoenix Girl doesn't care about him, as you have seen."

"..."

"As far as I can tell, the Saint Divine Land will have a new King. This one is arrogant but has no competence. He is not able to keep the throne!"

"..."

"The Head of the Shadow Door is Lord Huai, and Lord Huai is engaged to the Phoenix Girl. We can't attack them directly, or we will never be able to get the Golden Rolls."

“...”

“We have to work on other methods.”

“...”

“Wuxing, you have to spend more time on Lingyun. Maybe we will need her help to reach our goal,” Elder Qianji said emotionally.

Piaomiao Pavilion was not in a good position to do anything right now which rarely happened to them.

They were not going to spend any more time with the King. They were going to think of other ways to continue.

Well...

He did not care who took the throne of the Saint Divine Land. Piaomiao Pavilion did not need the Saint Divine Land.

As they were talking, a guard from Piaomiao Pavilion came and said, “Elder Qianji, Guardian Wuxing, the prisoners were all saved by people from the Shadow Door and they were not hurt.”

“Got it.” Elder Qianji answered as he said to Wuxing. “See, just as I predicted.”

Wuxing nodded.

He felt somehow distressed.

On the way here, they ran into the Phoenix Girl and her servants, but Lingyun did not even look at him. He gave Lingyun a hint, but Lingyun did not answer him. He seemed to be missing from her eyes.

He felt very bothered.

He was sure that Lingyun would do anything for his sake, but right now, he has become quite uncertain.

He felt his heart falling into confusion as the Elder mentioned this again.

“What is it, Wuxing?” Elder Qianji noticed Wuxing’s strange expression.

“Nothing.” Wuxing forced a smile, thinking that he should find a better time to speak with Lingyun once again.

Elder Qianji did not suspect anything so far. He nodded and didn't say anything else, after hearing the positive answer from Wuxing.

He firmly believed that Wuxing would be able to manipulate Lingyun. She would not only whisper into the Phoenix Girl's ears, but would also sacrifice her whole life for him.

She was the easiest woman to use and deal with, but she was in a low position, otherwise Wuxing could definitely marry her.

That was what Elder Qianji thought, but he didn't say it. Wuxing was a smart guy and he should have already thought of that, there was no need to remind him.

At Xinlin Mansion.

Gu Chaoyan saw Sword Two coming to her when she returned from the palace gate.

That only meant one thing – something new happened with Qing.

Gu Chaoyan massaged her temples, saying, "Go on."

Chapter 1687 - Begging 1

Qing must have snuck out again, which Sword Two noticed, otherwise Sword Two would not have come to her.

Qing had always been a very obedient and righteous girl, and she never did anything like this, but recently, something was making Qing give up her principles and rules, which wasn't a good thing.

Sword Two whispered to her. "Elder Miss, early in the morning, Miss Qing snuck out of the clinic. Miss Qing is very familiar with the time table of everyone there, so she went out when no one was around."

"After she left the clinic, she went into the court. Miss Qing seemed to be trying to find the Head of the Snow Territory using your name."

"..."

"You might not have told Miss Qing about this, so..."

Gu Chaoyan took a deep breath, and exhaled again.

Sure enough, that was what she had guessed.

Qing was doing this for Ouyang Mingjing's sake.

What on earth was she involved in? It was as if the heavens were trying to test Qing.

“Is she back now?” Gu Chaoyan asked.

“She is back, maybe she feared causing you trouble. She is at the clinic,” Sword Two said.

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

She went to the clinic with Sword One and the others.

Gu Chaoyan knew pretty well that it was impossible to stop Qing right now. The only thing she could do was to help her.

She had never thought that Qing would do something like this.

This was the most tricky thing she had to face these days.

Even Sword One was very silent behind her.

Gu Chaoyan sat down in the lobby of the clinic, as she asked Sword One to fetch Qing.

Qing hesitated when she came. She wanted to dodge Gu Chaoyan. “Elder Miss... please, what do you want from me...?”

Qing’s voice shivered and she sounded guilty.

It seemed that the news had reached Elder Miss.

What should she say to Elder Miss if she knew about this.

Qing became very confused.

“Qing, what are you thinking?” Gu Chaoyan asked straightforwardly, “You have been with me for years and you have gone through much bitterness with me. In my heart, you are just like my sister. If you need something, tell me, and I will help you get it.”

Qing was very surprised as she stared up at her Elder Miss.

Elder Miss definitely knew about this.

She felt her heart fill with different emotions.

She had no idea how to put it. She felt a bit guilty because she was doing something behind her Elder Miss’ back, but she just could not control her emotions even though she had tried. She failed each time she tried to control it.

Qing kneeled down in front of Gu Chaoyan, saying, “Elder Miss, please, I really want to be with Head Ouyang, as his servant or anything, I just want to be with him. I can only repay you for your kindness to me in my next life. Elder Miss!”

“Elder Miss, I...”

Chapter 1688 Begging 2

Qing looked at Gu Chaoyan with a look of guilt. She wanted to say something, but she could not utter a word. She was somehow feeling more anticipation than guilt.

Her parents were born in the Lin Family, and the Lin Family had treated her parents well. That was why she could serve Madame Lin at a young age and then the Elder Miss. That was an honor few servants were able to have.

Because of what the Lin Family did for her, Qing took care of her Elder Miss so well. On the other hand, her contract was in the charge of Elder Miss, and she could only serve Elder Miss throughout her life.

Elder Miss was a nice lady and did not treat her as a maid, but as her sister. She even gave her freedom.

Because of that, she should never betray Elder Miss, but... but she could not control herself. Even though she had been telling herself what she should do, she could not control herself physically.

She had to betray Elder Miss in this life of hers.

In her next life, she was going to serve Elder Miss again.

Qing looked at Gu Chaoyan bitterly. "Elder Miss, I... I am sorry!"

Having said that, Qing kept kowtowing until she had blood on her forehead, but she did not seem to notice it. It seemed as if only in this way, could she feel better.

Next to her was Sword One. She wanted to help her up, but she could not do a thing, except take a step aside and look away.

This was something happening between Qing and Elder Miss. Something only they could solve together.

After that, there should be a settlement.

Gu Chaoyan went forward and placed a compassionate hand on Qing's forehead. Qing stopped herself, and saw blood on Gu Chaoyan's hands. It was wet and sticky, but she did not care.

Gu Chaoyan took out her handkerchief and dabbed Qing's forehead. Then she took out cream from her sleeves and put it on for her, saying gently. "Qing, don't be sorry. You have done so much for me at the Gu Mansion. If you like him, go with him then. I have Sword One and others, all I want for you is that you can get what you want."

As Gu Chaoyan spoke, she put the cream on for Qing and adjusted her clothes, taking a deep breath. "Get ready, I will take you into the court and we will talk to him."

Having said this, Gu Chaoyan thought of how Sword Two told her that she tried to get into the court with her name but failed. She said eventually, "If you can't think of anything in the future or fail, tell me. I will help you no matter what. Don't stay alone and work so hard, got it?"

Qing nodded with tears in her eyes.

She understood. She understood what her Elder Miss was saying.

Only Elder Miss treated her this well in her life.

Elder Miss was not a talkative person, but she still told her so much, as if she were a mother marrying her daughter off.

It was her fault. She should not have fallen for that man.

"Let's go." Gu Chaoyan urged as she saw Qing's changing expression.

Chapter 1689 Begging 3

Qing was different from Sword One.

Qing was always very hesitant, so Gu Chaoyan did not want her to stay indoors and reflect on what she had done. She had made the choice, so she should either go for it straightforwardly, and learn the result as soon as possible.

Hearing her urging, Qing brought herself out from her chaotic contemplation. She sorted through the arrangements, and felt both cheerful and glad.

Gu Chaoyan glanced back at Qing and saw the look on her face, realizing what choice she would eventually make.

The wagon from Xinlin Mansion went into the court, passed the gate and stopped. Then they headed directly inside.

The King and Gu Chaoyan did not like each other, but he did not stop Gu Chaoyan from coming into the court, so Gu Chaoyan had access to everywhere.

After the gate, Gu Chaoyan took Qianqing Palace and the others to pass by Qianqing Palace and headed into the palace that Ouyang Mingjing lived in.

The guards in front of the palace showed a look of surprise when they saw Gu Chaoyan. Then they turned around and went into the palace to pass on her message.

Gu Chaoyan was very obedient. She waited for them outside the gate until the guards came out, greeted her and took her in.

Ouyang Mingjing was seated in the yard, and had water prepared to make the tea, as if he knew that Gu Chaoyan was coming.

However, after he saw who was with her, he was startled.

He was very surprised to see Qing.

His guard told her that this maid wanted to see him, but he turned her down no matter what the reason was.

The Elder told him not to keep this woman, but he had never gotten the courage to kill her.

So he decided to stay away from her.

Unexpectedly... destiny played a joke on him.

She was right in front of him and she was staring earnestly at him.

Ouyang Mingjing stopped looking at them, but continued to work on his own business. He played with the tea whilst saying to Gu Chaoyan with a lowered head. "Feng Le, have a seat, please. The tea will be ready soon. I brought the snow from the Snow Territory, and the tea is a snow lotus flower from the Snow Territory. I noticed that you love tea, so I had a few prepared for you. The tea is very precious, and you must taste it. If you like it, you may be willing to visit us in the Snow Territory."

Ouyang Mingjing sounded as if he were a young man who was full of expectation, despite his composure.

Gu Chaoyan was still looking at Qing's fingers which were twisting the handkerchief.

Gu Chaoyan did not answer Ouyang Mingjing's speech. He was still in the middle of brewing the tea, despite them ignoring him.

When the tea was ready, it gave out an excellent scent, through which, the outline of the Snow Territory seemed to be reflected clearly.

"Feng Le, please." Ouyang Mingjing served Gu Chaoyan the tea personally, looking at her with a very sweet glance.

Gu Chaoyan did taste the tea Ouyang Mingjing gave to her earnestly, either out of her interest in tea or due to etiquette.

The first sip gave out a cold feeling. The second sip led to the scent of snow lotus flower. The third sip made her taste the freshness, and after the fourth sip, Gu Chaoyan put down the teacup.

Ouyang Mingjing also stopped staring at her, but still kept a small smile.

"Head. I am here to discuss something with you," Gu Chaoyan said to him seriously.

"Oh, what do you need from me? Ask me anything, I will surely help you, as long as I am able to!"

Ouyang Mingjing was looking at Gu Chaoyan with a pair of clear eyes.

Qing's fingers which were twisting the handkerchief moved nervously and uneasily.

Gu Chaoyan slightly closed her eyes. Then she opened her eyes and said to Ouyang Mingjing. "My maid Qing wants to be with you."

"..."

"In whichever position she can get, is that okay?" Gu Chaoyan asked.

This was the first and last time for Gu Chaoyan to do something like this.

Hearing Gu Chaoyan's words, Ouyang Mingjing moved his gaze from Gu Chaoyan to Qing, showing a look of disdain.

Then he stopped staring at her, indifferently, "Feng Le."

"..."

"She is just a maid. I am the Head of the Snow Territory, so I can't allow her to be with me. Even my concubines would need to be from a noble family, and my maids are always properly selected, and excellent in every aspect. She is not at all qualified."

"..."

"However, if you insist, Feng Le, I can only accept her to serve my servants," Ouyang Mingjing said reasonably.

Well...

He said all of this on purpose.

He had not expected that the acacia beans had driven the maid crazy to this degree. Because of that, he needed to remove the idea from her head.

He was not going to marry this maid in any way. Never!

He was the Head and his wife could only be the Phoenix Girl, no one else.

He was going to cut down this affection and make her understand who she really was.

Ouyang Mingjing sounded really mean, but Gu Chaoyan did not counter him, because what Ouyang Mingjing said was true. Because of this, she had wanted to drive Qing away so that she could be kept away from Ouyang Mingjing. When Ouyang Mingjing was gone, she would hopefully cut off the thought.

She was asking someone for a favor.

Ouyang Mingjing turned down the favor, so she wondered what Qing would say.

Gu Chaoyan turned to Qing, and at this moment, Qing threw herself down on her knees, begging with tears in her eyes. "Head, please, let me serve you. I don't want anyone else. I can do anything, and I can learn anything. I can definitely serve you well. You can even bring me to the Snow Territory and I will pass the test myself!"

Qing kowtowed constantly.

Ouyang Mingjing did not want to see her. He turned around to look somewhere else.

Gu Chaoyan felt tears forming in her eyes.

Qing only begged people like this when she was bullied by people back at Gu Mansion years back. She had not done anything like this for a long while.

Qing really liked him, thus saying this.

She truly had no idea whether what she was doing right now was going to lead to something good or bad.

In her heart, she felt so sorry for this girl.

Gu Chaoyan got up and wanted to help Qing up.

Ouyang Mingjing waved Gu Chaoyan off and told his guards to help her up, saying to Gu Chaoyan. "Since I am involved with this, I will solve this problem myself. Can I speak with her alone?"

Qing nodded constantly.

Gu Chaoyan agreed and left the room with Sword One.

Ouyang Mingjing looked at Qing.
