Chapter 201: The Prescription

"I went to the Jiang Mansion yesterday. Madame Jiang was not feeling well, so I used the prescription from my mother and cured her. And it worked." Gu Chaoyan said carefully.

Madame Gu nodded. So it was Mrs. Lin's prescription!

As the prescription was mentioned, she found that it was pitiful that Mrs. Lin did not mention them. If she had known that she had them, she could have given those to Zhenkang who might have been promoted to a high position by this time.

When she thought about this, Madame Gu could not help but start to blame Mrs. Lin. However, she was gone now anyway, so Madame Gu started to use Chaoyan instead. Those prescriptions, which seemed to be very practical, should not remain in Chaoyan's hands. So she said involuntarily, "Chaoyan, how many prescriptions did your mother leave to you?"

"Many." Gu Chaoyan answered nonchalantly as she asked Sword One and other servants to carry the stuff to the Qiong Pavilion.

Hearing this Madame Gu showed a bright smile.

Those prescriptions were wonderful stuff. They not only saved the Young Master of the Wang Family, but also Madame Jiang from the Jiang Mansion! If the Gu Mansion could use them well, they were definitely going to get tons of profits.

Both Zhenkang and Ruxue were in need of them. Chaoyan did not need to keep them.

As she thought about this, Madame Gu said, "Chaoyan, you are the lady of the Gu Mansion, and you should be connected with the Gu Mansion in shame and honor."

"If you offer the prescriptions to the public, we will be able to gain great benefits from them."

"..."

"When the Gu Mansion is doing well, you will be doing well too."

"..."

"Are you willing to offer those prescriptions?" Madame Gu spoke with a tone of inquiry, but she was actually being very intimidating.

Chaoyan threw a look at Madame Gu, seeing the greed inside her eyes.

They had thought that it was her luck to have saved the Young Master of the Wang Family, but when she managed to treat Madame Jiang, the Gu Mansion could not help but try to steal stuff from her.

How naive they were! No one was able to cure someone with just one paper prescription. However, Madame Gu believed that it was possible.

Anyway... If they wanted them, she would just give the prescriptions to them.

Gu Chaoyan nodded. "Okay."

Madame Gu let out a sigh of relief. It was great that Chaoyan was willing to be obedient enough to listen to her words.

"I will get Sword One to deliver the prescriptions." Gu Chaoyan said coldly.

"Okay!" Madame Gu did not notice the strange tone in Gu Chaoyan's voice, as Madam Gu heard her approval of giving away the prescription. She nodded.

***

At Begonia Yard.

Gu Ruxue looked so distressed that even her maid felt scared. Every time the Second Lady showed such an expression, the servants of Begonia Yard would have to suffer.

Mrs. Gu noticed that something was wrong when she walked in. She asked, "What is it?"

Gu Ruxue struck the table heavily. "It is all the ugly girl's fault!"

"..."

"For some reason, she flattered the Jiang Mansion and received lots of presents from them!" Gu Ruxue said angrily, thinking that she should be the flattered one, since she was marrying Lord Ling!

Gu Ruxue had apparently forgotten that the Jiang Mansion did not need to flatter anyone, let alone someone who was not even a Princess Consort.

Mrs. Gu's expression sank. "Damn the girl! Ruxue, don't get mad, it is pretty easy to deal with her!"

Chapter 202: Ruining Her Innocence

Hearing what Mrs. Gu said, Gu Ruxue asked slowly as her expression changed. "What do you have in mind?"

Mrs. Gu smiled briefly. She had been making preparations to hire some teachers for Ruxue to teach her some basic skills, so she could get into Saint College. However, within a few days' time, that bitchy girl had made such a fuss and she was not going to let her have a peaceful life.

It was very easy to deal with her.

"If Princess Gu and Madam Gu can make her marry the son of an officer of the Ministry of Revenue, we can also make her marry a man of our own..."

"..."

"She is divorced, and the new husband-to-be is dead too. She is not going to marry anyone good. So we can just get her to marry someone from our family, and then she is going to be at our mercy. She won't be able to do anything else." Mrs. Gu looked very proud. Mrs. Lin's daughter was definitely going to be stomped under her feet.

Hearing these words Gu Ruxue smiled as well. Why did she need to get so anxious? She was going to marry Lord Ling. It was so easy to deal with a deserted woman.

She did not have to get angry today. She could just be proud for a few days before she fell.

“Don’t get her any good family. It would be better if she is the concubine. She doesn’t deserve any better position.” Gu Ruxue said disdainfully. That ugly woman would not get anyone good to marry her.

That made Mrs. Gu embarrassed. She was willing to make that bitchy girl become a concubine. She called her Mrs. Concubine every day, so she wanted her to taste the same feeling of being addressed by the same name.

However, Madame Gu would not approve of that. She was the Lady of the Gu Mansion. A position of concubine would ruin the Gu Mansion’s face.

Judging from her knowledge of Madame Gu, she would rather let this bitchy girl stay single for the rest of her life than make her become a concubine instead. It was not a very easy thing to do.

Mrs. Gu hesitated.

Gu Ruxue was displeased. “What are you afraid of, Mom? She can just become a concubine!”

“I am worried about Madame Gu’s opinion.” Mrs. Gu said. She was thinking about getting her a marital family who did not need her that much. By that time, her dowries and restaurant would all become her own, but if she became a concubine...

Gu Ruxue snorted. She was not pleased by how her mother was behaving. She did not know that her mother had Mrs. Lin killed previously. She looked so stupid at the moment. She needed to think properly.

She squinted and said, “Why worry about Madame Gu? She wants to keep her reputation, so ruin it, then she will approve of it.”

“Are you saying?”

“Get that ugly girl to lose her innocence, then concubine will be the best position for her.” Gu Ruxue snapped disdainfully.

Mrs. Gu’s eyes brightened.

True... That was a great idea!

When that bitch lost her innocence, she was going to do whatever was prepared for her, even though she had Lord Huai and Madame Jiang behind her. By that time, those people would stay away from her and no one would be willing to help her.

Without innocence, the girl was going to lose her entire reputation and get ruined directly.

Gu Ruxue was satisfied with that.

Mrs. Gu had thought that Ruxue would not be competent enough to deal with other women since she was born in such a small mansion, but now she could be assured that her daughter would make it.

“Alright, your advice is taken. Let’s go back to the Zhang Mansion to get someone here.”

Chapter 203: The False Influence

Mrs. Gu’s parents belonged to the Zhang Mansion, which was owned by a governor.

The governor might not be a very powerful official title, yet they did have actual power. That was why Gu Zhenkang looked down at Mrs. Lin for being the daughter of a business family and married Mrs. Gu instead. The governor was still, after all, an official title, and Mrs. Gu was still a lady of an official family.

At The Zhang Mansion.

Mrs. Gu had been praised by the entire Zhang Mansion every time she went there in the past, but this time, she was sneered at.

Mrs. Gu used to hire her men to run those stores, but when the incidents happened to the stores, those employees ran away. Since those stores were running out of money because of her, Mrs. Gu was no longer welcomed among her family. No one was at the door greeting her.

Only the daughter-in-law Mrs. Jinzhang and Madame Zhang said hello to her, since she was her own daughter.

Mrs. Jinzhang looked down at Mrs. Gu directly. She had been flattering her in the past since The Zhang Mansion needed her help. However, now, she no longer needed to do so. She said, “Oh isn’t this my sister? What are you doing here at the mansion? Maybe you are thinking about hiring someone for the store?”

“Sister, you have been the wife of the Gu Family for so many years, but you aren’t even able to deal with the stores! Or are you trying to get us all out of your range?”

Mrs. Jinzhang was never polite. Especially because she did not like it when the Zhang Family was forced to help her out. Even Madame Zhang was not very pleased with the situation.

The Zhang Family was her parents’ home, so they were definitely supporting her. However, if she did not get her own family members to run the stores, she would not get any help from them when she needed it.

What was more. It was her parents’ family, so of course they were offering help.

Madame Zhang was not very pleased when reminded by Mrs. Jinzhang. She said with a cold face, “Cailian, honestly, if you get us to run the stores, we won’t cause you any trouble at all!”

Mrs. Gu glared at Mrs. Jinzhang.

She was not very pleased. She used to get the people from the Zhang Family to run the stores, but Madame Gu stopped her from running the stores and there was nothing she could do about it. She was already wronged, and now she was still blamed!

Especially Mrs. Jinzhang. She was so annoying! Seeing that she could not take advantage of her, that woman started to bad mouth her!

Unfortunately, Mrs. Gu was not that easy to be squeezed away.

The stores were gone, but she still had Ruxue.

Happily, she said with a small smile. "Honestly, mom, sister, don't be so narrow-minded. Those stores are nothing!"

"..."

"Ruxue is soon marrying Lord Ling, and the whole Gu Mansion is busy helping her to get into Saint College these days. So we are not paying any attention to the stores." Mrs. Gu said with a face of pride. She gazed at Mrs. Jinzhang's face. Honestly, she was able to get her daughter to marry Lord Ling, whilst Mrs. Jinzhang had nothing to compete with her.

This sentence silenced Mrs. Jinzhang and Madame Zhang.

Marrying Lord Ling? Then the Gu Mansion was going to be maritaly related to Lord Ling?!

There were quite many young masters and ladies ready to get married at The Zhang Mansion, maybe...

Mrs. Jinzhang stopped her mean tone and showed a smile, asking courteously, "Sister, is that true? If that is true, Ruxue will be guaranteed complete happiness."

"..."

"Meixiang is not a young child any more. Can't you get Ruxue to speak with Lord Ling so that she can marry a good family too?"

Chapter 204: Mrs. Gu's Plan

Mrs. Gu enjoyed seeing Mrs. Jinzhang's flattering face.

Mrs. Jinzhang waved at the maid in the room, ordering her to serve the tea. She had meant to cause Mrs. Gu trouble, but now she did not dare to. That was why she asked her maid to serve the tea directly.

Mrs. Gu started to drink the tea slowly. After putting down the teacup, she said calmly, "Calm down about Meixiang..."

"..."

"I am here to talk about something else, which is even better."

"..."

"Is there anybody from the Zhang Family who can marry that bitch girl? Chenyi seems to be at a proper age?" Mrs. Gu said with teeth clenched.

Hearing that it was about the ugly girl Mrs. Jinzhang looked very disappointed.

She had thought that there was something even better, but that girl... that girl had been divorced and she was very ugly. Chenyi was at a proper age of getting married, but he was not going to marry someone like that!

Mrs. Jinzhang did not utter a word because she was totally against the idea.

Seeing Mrs. Jinzhang's expression, Mrs. Gu understood what she was thinking. "If you don't want Chenyi to marry her, then pick someone else, maybe the son of a concubine, from the family to marry her."

"..."

"Honestly, you are earning big by marrying her."

Mrs. Jinzhang pursed her lips. She was totally against the idea. They were going to be totally humiliated if they married her.

With her eyes upon Mrs. Jinzhang, Mrs. Gu looked arrogant. "Mom, get someone to marry her, it's best if it's the son of a concubine. The son is going to get many wives and concubines anyway. So the marriage wouldn't hurt. She has a lot of dowries and she is running stores with Lord Huai. She is earning a great deal, at least she is related to Lord Huai! Maybe the son is going to be hired directly. What a nice deal?"

"What?!" Mrs. Jinzhang asked with a look of surprise.

She did not like the girl because she was ugly and divorced, but if the whole family could get such great profits by taking her as a concubine, she was not going to let the son of the concubine take it.

If the son of a concubine became highly promoted because of the relationship with Lord Huai. What would Chenyi do? She had to get Chenyi to take this opportunity!

"Sister, don't ask so many questions. You are not offering your Chenyi anyway." Then she turned to Madame Zhang. "Mom, get a concubine here, so I can speak with you about the details. If she approves, I can get it done as soon as possible."

Mrs. Jinzhang panicked, tugging at Madame Zhang. "Madame Zhang, if she is here for the concubine, Chenyi can do it. Chenyi is the lineal son."

Madame Zhang nodded with approval assuring Mrs. Jinzhang. However, Madame Gu was a very smart lady. "Will Madame Gu approve?"

Mrs. Gu laughed.

"We can do it first before telling her the news, then she will have no way to turn the table." Mrs. Gu whispered in Mrs. Jinzhang's ears. When the plan was done, she mentioned. "Get Meixiang to the imperial banquet. She may not be able to marry Lord Ling, but she may still find someone with a great background."

Mrs. Jinzhang nodded. The Zhang Mansion was never able to get into the imperial court, so she showed courtesy. "You are so capable, Aunt."

Mrs. Gu smiled with satisfaction. She loved it when people tried to flatter her, because that made everything easy.

When Ruxue married Lord Ling in the future, there would be more and more people who tried to flatter her. She was going to teach those who used to bully her a very deep lesson at that time.

Chapter 205: Gu Chaoyan with Ideas

The day that Gu Chaoyan's restaurant was opened turned out to be very bright.

The restaurant was called Yellow Crane, and was named personally by Gu Chaoyan. She liked the name, so Zhou Huaijin wrote the calligraphy for her. He did it because they opened the restaurant together.

As they walked into Yellow Crane, the manager came to greet them with courtesy. He bowed to Gu Chaoyan and said, "Greetings, Lady Chaoyan."

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

Zhou Huaijin had wanted to give up this manager who did not help Gu Chaoyan when she was bullied by County Princess Anxi. However, Gu Chaoyan kept him, because he trusted her and she would very much like to have him with her.

And now, it seemed that this manager was wholeheartedly there to work for her.

However, it seemed that the business of Yellow Crane looked very bleak. Few people visited the place and they all ordered very ordinary dishes.

Gu Chaoyan frowned slightly. "Has it been like this today? No one ordered Hot-Pot?"

Manager Song shook his head looking very embarrassed. As far as he knew, it was not a very excellent position to open a restaurant. Restaurant Jixian was situated in front of them and behind them was Restaurant Tianxiang which was almost 100 years old. No one would choose to eat at Yellow Crane, which was newly opened, let alone try the brand-new dish of hot-pots.

So... even though the restaurant was opened... no one was here eating at their place.

Manager Song had no idea of what to do either, so he said, "It has been like this... those few people who come to eat at our place would not choose to order our brand-new hot-pot."

As they were talking, Manager Song guided Gu Chaoyan to the elegant room on the second floor, where Zhou Huaijin was already drinking tea. Seeing Gu Chaoyan approaching them, he waved his hand. "What are you talking about?"

Manager answered honestly. "We were just talking about the few guests that we had at Yellow Crane."

Zhou Huaijin tilted his head and looked at Gu Chaoyan, whose eyes were already twinkling with a sinister look.

This girl was always able to bring surprise to people. Zhou Huaijin looked at her with expectation. "You got any ideas?"

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

Those guests were unwilling to eat at their restaurant, just because they were afraid of trying something new. They were unwilling to try something new, just because they had never seen the new thing before.

Hot-pot smelt so great, so as long as they caught sight and smell of the hot-pot, they would very much like to give it a try.

Gu Chaoyan glanced about and saw Fu Bao, Sword One, Sword Two and Qing. There were also some free waiters on the way to the elegant room. They all came in handy.

Gu Chaoyan smiled with satisfaction. "Oh well..."

"Manager Song, get some people to place two sets of tables and chairs under the willow by the doorstep, put up two sets of hot-pot. Look at those free men, go and try your best to eat up everything!" Gu Chaoyan looked at the gang in front of her.

Manager Song's eyes brightened. He still remembered that the great smell of hot-pot attracted him from faraway the first time Lady Chaoyan cooked hot-pots. So if some people were eating at the gate... those who caught the smell would come and have a try for sure.

That was a great idea! Why didn't it strike their mind! Lady Chaoyan was so smart!

"I am on it!" Manager Song looked very excited instead of distressed.

"We will do that now!" Fu Bao said with a smile. "Lady Chaoyan, don't worry, I will try my best!"

Chapter 206: Mrs. Gu at the Restaurant 1

Gu Chaoyan nodded.

Fu Bao started to eat with Sword One and the others.

Zhou Huaijin rubbed her head and said with a spoiling smile, "You do have many ideas."

He was thinking about getting Fu Bao to bring some people from Shadow Door to eat the food, so the girl could be happy, but she came up with such a wonderful idea herself.

"That's how I am helping you to make money." Gu Chaoyan squinted and looked very sinister.

"Then I am very happy to open this restaurant with you." Zhou Huaijin smiled.

Gu Chaoyan was startled. Staring at Zhou Huaijin, she felt a little moved.

He was the noble Lord Huai, the son of the king, but he had never thought about doing his own business. In this time of period, business people had the lowest social position, even Gu Zhenkang and his whole family looked down upon Mrs. Lin who was born in a business family, and upon her who was the daughter of such a family.

Why was he so nice? Why was he treating her so nicely? He was probably the nicest person that she had ever met after being a woman for two lives.

"What is it? Yan, are you amazed by my handsome face?" Zhou Huaijin mocked.

Gu Chaoyan was brought back to herself. She rolled her eyes. "Of course not, I am thinking about something."

How cheeky he was! Gu Chaoyan thought inwardly.

“What are you thinking? I am right in front of you!” Zhou Huaijin asked, leaning towards Gu Chaoyan. He looked at Gu Chaoyan’s crystal eyes from a very close distance.

Faced with Zhou Huaijin’s sudden approach, Gu Chaoyan got a bit nervous. Her eyes turned red. She was an idiot in the aspect of a love relationship. She had been with a scumbag in her previous life, yet they barely did anything intimate.

Zhou Huaijin found her extremely lovely, and had the intention of kissing her.

He was about to kiss her, when Manager Song’s excited voice arose from outside. “Lady Chaoyan, Lady Chaoyan, people are coming!”

Zhou Huaijin gave a brief cough and went back to his own position.

Gu Chaoyan flushed and took up the teacup from the table awkwardly. The tea spilled out because she was not holding it steadily. It’s good that the tea was not boiling, and the heat did not hurt her.

She let out an embarrassed smile.

Zhou Huaijin took over her hand and asked quickly, “Are you hurt?”

“Nope.” Gu Chaoyan said calmly.

When Manager Song walked in, he found the atmosphere weird, but he did not realize that it was her problem. Instead, he said with a cheerful tone, “Greetings, Lord. And Lady Chaoyan, your method worked!”

“Guests keep coming in when they see Fu Bao eating.”

“...”

“Now the restaurant is full of people, the business is rising!” Manager Song said cheerfully. He had been the manager at Shadow Door, yet he had never witnessed such a table-saving day!

Now he realized that Lady Chaoyan was a smart piece of treasure! Maybe Yellow Crane was going to become the top restaurant!

He got excited as he thought about the development of the future. Everything was worth it, if he could make one single thing!

He was just in a cheerful mood when noise arose from outside and a very sharp woman’s voice greeted their ears.

“What is it?”

“Miss, Second Lady and Mrs. Gu are here. They want the guests to spare seats for them!” Sword One said angrily!

Chapter 207: Mrs. Gu at the Restaurant 2

When they were outside eating the hot-pot, she had spotted those two people checking the place out. There was no one in Yellow Crane back then, and they would have been very welcomed to come and eat here, but they were laughing at them from a short distance away. However, now that Yellow Crane became popular, they came here forcing the guests to spare seats for them just because they were the Miss's family members, now that the seats were not available. How ridiculous!

So she rushed in and told Miss about it.

When the waiters heard that the guests were Miss's family members, they did not dare to give them trouble and tried to appease them.

When Manager Song heard that, he tried to find a proper method to deal with the situation.

"Lady Chaoyan, let me go and check it out and see if we have a place for them to sit." Manager Song asked. He had made up his mind to work for Lady Chaoyan, so he had to behave well. However, Gu Chaoyan shook her head directly.

Mrs. Gu and Gu Ruxue were so troublesome. What were they doing here? Had they forgotten that Lord Huai was one of the shareholders of this restaurant too?

She sneered. "They are all guests who try to find a seat at the restaurant. They can just come by when there are seats available. It is totally unreasonable of them to force others to spare seats for their sake!"

"..."

"Don't be friendly, just toss them out directly!"

"..."

"We are all guests at Yellow Crane no matter what our social statuses are. We are not supposed to spare seats for anyone!"

"..."

"Go and deal with it." Gu Chaoyan said.

Manager Song's eyes widened — tossing them out? Weren't they people from the Gu Mansion?

"Go and do it now!" Zhou Huaijin said with a cold expression. Those employees were all from Shadow Door, but since they were now Chaoyan's staff, they had to obey her orders.

He had been very displeased about Manager Song trying to test Yan, and now he was suspecting Yan's decision! It made Zhou Huaijin want to replace them directly.

Manager Song did not expect that his friendly intention had led to such trouble. Bellowed at by Lord Huai, he finally realized what was going on here. So he set off to do the work directly.

Mrs. Gu was still shouting loudly at the restaurant.

The waiters did not dare to do anything since they were all people from the Gu Mansion.

Seeing Manager Song coming downstairs, they turned to him directly. "Manager Song, what are we supposed to do."

Here came the Manager.

There was one table where ordinary-looking people were seated. They got a little bit worried seeing the situation. After all, the two women were related to the owner of the restaurant, whilst they themselves were just people without power. They had better give the seats to them. That was what they were normally doing at Restaurant Jixian.

They thought it through and then looked at each other and said, "Manager, we can move."

Manager Song might appear very soft in front of Gu Chaoyan, but when facing such an intense situation, he was quite intimidating. With a flat and serious look on his face, he said, "What is going on?"

Mrs. Gu was very satisfied with the guests who were about to leave. Seeing their expression, she looked even more arrogant. She threw a very disdainful look at Manager Song, whom she was not at all scared of. She snapped, "I am your owner's mother, get me a seat!"

She said this as she threw a disgusted look at the guests in the restaurant, then at the guests who were moving away. "I am not eating here with those people, get me a very nice elegant room."

Those people who were eating did not feel comfortable about what they heard. Why were they looked down on? They were not filthy people! However, there was nothing they could do.

The two guests were related to the owner and soon they were going to be led to an elegant room.

Chapter 208: Mrs. Gu at the Restaurant 3

They were angry, but they did not dare to say a thing.

Those people got very furious hearing what she said, but they did not counter and instead focused on the food in the pot. The food at Yellow Crane was so delicious! They had never eaten anything served in this way and they had never been happier over the table food either. They did not care about this arrogant woman. She was going into an elegant room anyway.

"Sorry, the elegant rooms are occupied." Manager Song said with a flat look on the face.

Mrs. Gu had thought that she would be invited into the elegant room, but the answer turned out to be the opposite!

So what? She was the bitch's mother by name. She had to spare some space for her even if the whole restaurant was occupied, or she was not behaving like a proper daughter.

Mrs. Gu snorted and said with chin up. "Then empty a space for me!"

"..."

"I am your owner's mother. Is she going to drive me out?" Mrs. Gu stressed. She did not have to eat the food today, but she would humiliate that bitch girl, so that she could spread rumors about her business. In this way, she was never going to marry anyone in the future.

She was an unmarried maid who was running a business and who did not respect her mother. These rumors were enough to insult that bitch and make Mrs. Gu laugh.

Seeing how Mrs. Gu was behaving, Manager Song finally understood why Lady Chaoyan ordered her to get out of the restaurant. Even he had the intention of driving her out now.

Sword Two was all ready to get this woman out.

However, Manager Song suddenly had no intention of doing so. There were many ways to humiliate this woman, and getting her out was way too easy.

He smiled. "If that is the case, Madame Gu and Second Lady, come with me please."

Hearing these words, Mrs. Gu showed a very satisfied smile.

It seemed that she did have a high position. Even the manager of Yellow Crane was showing her some respect.

Suddenly, she lifted her chin and showed her pride among those eyes of jealousy.

They came to the second floor where the elegant rooms were situated.

Sword One was getting very anxious.

Her Miss was ordering to get her out, but Manager Song was trying to flatter Mrs. Gu? He could not have been so rotten, could he?

"Manager Song." Sword One mumbled with a small voice. Manager Song waved his hands and gave her a look of assurance. Then they stopped in front of one elegant room.

Manager Song said to Mrs. Gu courteously, "Please hold on, I will speak to the guests inside."

Mrs. Gu nodded with satisfaction.

She was waiting to scare the guests inside the room so that they could leave.

She believed that she would have to deal with more of such situations, especially when Ruxue married Lord Ling. All those ladies in the capital would have to respect her. This was going to be a start.

Manager Song knocked at the door of the elegant room.

Inside the room was Mrs. Zheng, the wife of the chief of the Ministry of Personnel.

Mrs. Zheng was not a bad person, but she did have a terrible temper.

The moment he entered the room, Manager Song showed an embarrassed face. "Mrs. Zheng, there is one Mrs. Gu outside the room who wants you to spare the seat for her. She has been making a lot of noise downstairs for a long while, and I don't know what to do. So I am here asking you about it."

Mrs. Zheng was just in the middle of eating the delicious food when she heard that someone was trying to get her out of here.

She had been living in the capital city for many years and she had been to many restaurants, but none had dared to ask her to empty the seat! And she had never done it before either.

Mrs. Gu?

“Which Mrs. Gu?!” She said as she stood up abruptly, looking extremely furious.

Chapter 209: Mrs. Zheng Was Irritated 1

She walked out of the room and her maids as well as the guards followed her out as well.

Furious, she pushed the door open, only to see a very strange face in front of her. She got even more furious. How dare such a minor woman come to the elegant room of Yellow Crane and try to drive her out? Did she think that she could be bullied easily?

“Someone, slap her!” Mrs. Zheng showed no courtesy.

Seeing the scene, Mrs. Gu got dumbfounded. She had expected to see someone coming here apologizing to her, but the situation seemed totally different from what she had expected.

She took a closer look at the woman and realized that she did have an impression of her. That was the wife of the chief of the Ministry of Personnel!

She was about to explain something when Mrs. Zheng’s maid wasted no time in slapping her right on the face, making her totally dizzy.

Gu Ruxue was not pleased. She was going to marry Lord Ling in the future. How could her mother get slapped by a stranger at this small restaurant?

“How dare you, who are you?! Why did you beat my mother!” Gu Ruxue snapped with her sharp voice, looking extremely displeased.

“Who am I?” Mrs. Zheng laughed out of anger. What happened to everyone here in the capital city? What was everyone doing here making trouble? “I am Zheng Jieli, the wife of the chief of the Ministry of Personnel! So I can’t hit you? I can accuse you of anything in front of the King. What do you think you are doing trying to drive me out of the elegant room!”

Mrs. Zheng had a very hot temper, but she was never unreasonable. She hated this kind of person as well.

And it was the first time for her to run into such people, so she had to teach them a proper lesson.

Hearing the lady’s identity, Gu Ruxue instantly turned dumb. She should not irritate her. No wonder this lady looked very familiar. She was the wife of the chief of the Minister of Personnel! She was a girl who was going to marry Lord Ling, so she should never irritate anyone with such social statuses. What if they gossiped something about her and the marriage was canceled!

Mrs. Gu was slapped on the face, yet she still showed a smile. “Mrs. Zheng, we have a misunderstanding here... I did not know you were in the room.”

As she was talking, Mrs. Gu glared at Manager Song fiercely.

What she needed was just an elegant room, she had no intention of driving Mrs. Zheng out!

Did he do it on purpose? Did the bitch girl order him to do that? Mrs. Gu got so furious as she thought about this. She snapped. “Manager Song, what do you think you are doing? I just asked you to spare one elegant room, what are you doing here driving Mrs. Zheng out?”

She was talking so fiercely because she needed to move Mrs. Zheng's dissatisfaction to somewhere else.

Manager Song looked embarrassed. "We only have two elegant rooms here at Yellow Crane. If you don't want Mrs. Zheng to spare the seat, then you can take this one instead."

Manager Song pointed at the elegant room with the closed door.

Mrs. Gu nodded with satisfaction.

Now everything was clear. In this way, Mrs. Zheng did not have to spare the seat and what she needed to do was to make an apology.

There was still one more room here, wasn't there? She and Ruxue could just eat here.

She had caught the smell downstairs. The food seemed very delicious, and she just could not wait to have a taste of it.

Displeased, she said to Manager Song. "You are such a stupid manager. You should not have nagged at Mrs. Zheng. It is so simple to get the guest inside this room out, isn't it?"

Chapter 210: Mrs. Zheng Was Irritated 2

With her gaze upon Mrs. Zheng, she said with a flattering tone, "Mrs. Zheng, sorry to have disturbed you. It is our fault. We will get another room for ourselves."

Mrs. Zheng looked at her with a flat expression. She hated this kind of person. They always bullied the weak and feared the strong.

Seeing that she was not to be offended, they turned somewhere else instead.

She stayed silent. She did not have the intention of letting go of this woman. Instead, she was very curious to see what on earth this manager of Yellow Crane would like to do. She had been too anxious to think it through, but as she calmed down, she found that she might have been used.

She stood silently.

Manager Song said, "Mrs. Gu, I will go and knock at the door now, but I don't think that Lord Huai is willing to spare his space. He is never in a good mood."

He said and was about to knock at the door.

Mrs. Gu's eyes widened – what? Lord Huai was there?!

That gave her all the reason not to knock at the door.

She did not even have the time to tell her maid what to do before she gripped Manager Song's clothes.

"Hang on, Manager Song!"

"..."

"We can just leave him alone..." Mrs. Gu said with a false smile.

Her heart was still pounding. Oh god! She would never dare irritate Lord Huai!

Lord Huai chopped the arms of the daughter of some important minister. What was he going to do with her! Maybe she was going to be killed because she irritated Lord Huai! She did not have to waste her life for just a dish!

Mrs. Gu showed a very flattering smile. Manager Song, on the other hand, still had the same flat expression.

Mrs. Zheng, however, was startled. She had suspected that she was used, but if Lord Huai was in the other elegant room, then it was totally reasonable that she was asked first. She was not used at all, she just had a lower rank.

Mrs. Gu felt embarrassed. She was busy trying to come up with some other ideas.

Then she said casually, "Since the elegant rooms are full, we can eat downstairs. Manager Song, please, empty one table for us."

Manager Song still showed a flat expression.

Zheng Jieli could not stand it any more. "Mrs. Gu, you are indeed smart, aren't you? When you don't dare offend me or Lord Huai, you are trying to bully the commoners instead?"

"..."

"Anyway, since Manager Song can't do anything with you, I will do something instead." She turned to her guards. "Guys, get this annoying Mrs. Gu out of here now."

The guards got the order and started to do it directly. They did not care about anything at all.

They gripped Mrs. Gu and tossed her out of the restaurant.

Mrs. Gu's scream filled the entire Yellow Crane.

The guests who were in the middle of eating hot-pot chuckled at the sight of the scene. So the annoying woman ran into someone who was even more influential than she was! That served her right!

As Mrs. Gu was thrown out, Gu Ruxue could not stand there any more. She hurried off with her maid.

Manager Song bowed to Mrs. Zheng and said, "Thanks, Mrs. Zheng. Lord Huai doesn't like to be disturbed when he is eating, so we did have difficulty in asking him what to do with that unreasonable lady. Sorry to have disturbed you, Mrs. Zheng. From this day on, you have all the priority of booking this elegant room here at our restaurant."

Zheng Jieli was startled. So the manager was saying that Lord Huai owned the restaurant? Then it was completely worth it. "You are welcome."

In the other elegant room, Gu Chaoyan was all ears for what was happening outside.
