

Divine 2071

Chapter 2071: Danger 6

The inner sect Elder of the Beastmaster Sect cast a disdainful look at Zhuo Yuanbai and Chang Yuanqing. While they might have been fearful of the dangerous situation, the Elder disapproved of their actions in kicking others when they were already down.

Zhuo Yuanbai felt a tinge of guilt when he noticed the Elder's disapproving gaze. He couldn't help but harbor some resentment towards Gu Chaoyan, believing that if it weren't for her involvement, he wouldn't have earned the Beastmaster Sect Elder's dislike.

Chang Yuanqing, on the other hand, understood that Zhuo Yuanbai had manipulated the situation to his disadvantage. He knew that if Zhuo Yuanbai had not intervened, he would have been able to confront the demon crocodile successfully without encountering any harm.

Chang Yuanqing threw a glare at Zhuo Yuanbai and hurried to Gu Chaoyan.

She explained. "Lady Chaoyan, listen to my explanation. I did not offer any help because Zhuo Yuanbai tried to drive a wedge between us."

Gu Chaoyan did not even look at him.

Compared to Zhuo Yuanbai, Chang Yuanqing was totally different, but still evil.

She did not want to waste any time with such a person.

"The examination of the Beastmaster Sect has concluded. The Elder Council of our sect will assess your performance and assign scores accordingly," the inner sect Elder of the Beastmaster Sect announced. "You may now return and rest. Tomorrow, the Medicine Sect's examination will take place, and the official list of outer sect disciples will be announced."

The inner Elder of the Beast-controlling Sect asked them to leave.

And the Beastmaster Sect needed to deal with the funeral.

Gu Chaoyan and Yan Wuji left together.

Yan Wuji was slightly injured, but the mucus of the demon crocodile were poisonous. She was afraid that it would affect Yan Wuji, so she decided to go back and check his wounds first.

During this period, when Chang Yuanqing tried to approach her, Gu Chaoyan ignored him.

She took Yan Wuji home directly.

Upon returning home, they carefully examined Yan Wuji's injuries and realized that he was not seriously hurt. As Gu Chaoyan applied ointment to his wounds,

Yan Wuji spoke, "Thanks to you, not only has my spiritual root been repaired, but I also feel much better after using those items you provided. I can now heal myself whenever I get injured. Despite being attacked by demons, Fey, and demonic spirits earlier, I'm already almost fully healed."

Gu Chaoyan understood that it was the effect of the water in her space.

She had not expected that Yan Wuji could absorb it so easily.

Gu Chaoyan would frequently offer Yan Wuji some Holy Spirit Water, which proved to be more effective than other pills in aiding his recovery.

"Elder Brother, make sure to get plenty of rest. The Medicine Sect's examination is tomorrow," Gu Chaoyan advised as she tenderly cleaned his wound.

After the incident at the Beastmaster Sect, Gu Chaoyan grasped the significance that success in the Medicine Sect's examination held. Those disciples who passed the examination would have the opportunity to stay and become outer sect disciples of the esteemed Supreme Sect.

Firstly, the accident that happened to the Supreme Sect could not be revealed to the public.

Secondly, it was compensation for the disciples who were fine.

But for Gu Chaoyan, her real purpose was not just to join Supreme Sect.

Therefore, she was not very happy about this. She did not plan to tell Yan Wuji to relax. She just needed to face the examination of the Medicine Sect. "You too." Yan Wuji was stuck with words in front of Gu Chaoyan.

He did not know how to express his concern..

Chapter 2072: Continuation 1

Gu Chaoyan nodded and did not care about that. She left and was about to go back to her own room to take a break.

Back in the room.

Unexpectedly, Gu Chaoyan saw someone else in the same room.

Just one look.

Gu Chaoyan could tell that. They were one of the few people she had saved from the clutches of the demon crocodile. However, to her dismay, they didn't offer any help or support when she herself was rescued. Instead, they kept running away in fear of another attack by the demon crocodile. Their apparent indifference towards Gu Chaoyan's well-being left her feeling abandoned and uncared for.

But for what she said later, they would not have come to help if they did not help.

Such a person.

That was normal.

But Gu Chaoyan did not want to have any contact with them.

Who knew when they would continue to do so in order to protect themselves.

Gu Chaoyan glanced at her and returned to her own bed, ready to get ready for bed.

The woman was very displeased seeing how Gu Chaoyan ignored her.

She wanted to have a chat with them, but did not come. She stomped her feet and left.

Gu Chaoyan did not care.

When she was gone, quietness dominated the place where she stayed.

Apart from the Medicine Sect, which she had not yet come into contact with, she had come into contact with almost all of the other sects.

The sect she liked the most was the Beastmaster Sect.

She was going to have more opportunities at the Beastmaster Sect.

The Fist Sect proved unsuitable for her, and both the Weapon Refining Sect and the Array Sect didn't meet her needs, especially since her main focus was obtaining the One Origin Grass for revenge.

The Medicine Sect was not on her list of considerations either.

However, a glimmer of hope arose as she pondered the possibility of joining the inner sect of the Beastmaster Sect.

These thoughts weighed heavily on the tired Gu Chaoyan as she drifted into a restless sleep. When she finally woke up, it was already the arrival of dawn.

Under the guidance of the disciple, she went to the Medicine Sect for the examination.

Gu Chaoyan slept for a long while, so when she arrived at the Medicine Sect, most of the disciples were already here.

Today, the disciples of the Supreme Sect and the disciples of the examination all calmed down, as if nothing had happened the day before.

When Gu Chaoyan arrived, Yan Wuji moved closer to Gu Chaoyan.

The moment he came, Yan Zhengchu came with a smile.

Therefore...

One second ago, Gu Chaoyan was smiling, but the next second, she turned cold when she saw Yan Zhengchu.

Yan Zhengchu did not mind at all. He was still smiling here.

Zhuo Yuanbai did not bother her any more.

Of course, Zhuo Yuanbai was not here today, mainly because he was not outstanding in medicinal materials and alchemy.

So he did not have anything against Gu Chaoyan.

The examination of the Medicine Sect was going on smoothly.

The first stage of the Medicine Sect's examination appeared deceptively simple. The outer sect disciples of the sect had set up a trial where various medicinal herbs were scattered throughout the herb field. Each participant was shown a set of herbs, and they were required to identify and locate them as quickly as possible.

To Gu Chaoyan's surprise, she recognized the herbs at first glance, effortlessly recalling their appearances.

Confident in her knowledge, she ventured into the field to pick the herbs. Unlike the others who struggled to recall the herbs, Gu Chaoyan remained composed and focused.

Within a short time, Gu Chaoyan successfully located all the required herbs..

Chapter 2073: Continuation 2

When the ingredients were delivered to the outer sect disciples of the Medicine Sect, they carefully examined what Gu Chaoyan had provided and checked the time, only to be taken aback by what they saw. The disciples couldn't help but express their surprise at the situation. However, they politely asked Gu

Chaoyan to complete the examination and patiently wait for the next one.

Once Gu Chaoyan finished his part, it took the other disciples about half an hour to deliver their herbs. Regrettably, not only did they take a considerable amount of time, but some of the medicinal herbs they brought were also incorrect.

Fortunately, the Medicine Sect did not strictly adhere to rigid rules, allowing for some flexibility in the evaluation process. Even though the other disciples might still pass the examination, it was evident that Gu Chaoyan's exceptional performance made their efforts seem insignificant in comparison. When everyone handed in the result of the first round of the examination, The second stage of the examination started, namely, the alchemy.

Refining pills, especially the introductory ones, was a straightforward task. The outer sect Elder provided them with the refining method, and they followed the steps accordingly.

To pass the examination, they needed to produce pills that were at least half the required amount. With a success rate of one-third, passing was achievable.

For Gu Chaoyan, pill-making was a breeze, particularly when it came to such introductory medicinal pills that didn't demand excessive heat. She found it to be a piece of cake.

Her proficiency in alchemy was evident, and she didn't shy away from showcasing her talent, unlike the other disciples who were there for the examination.

Gu Chaoyan didn't fear being outstanding. In fact, she was afraid of not being impressive enough in the eyes of the elders.

Her ultimate goal was to join the Supreme Sect, advance to the inner sect, and ultimately obtain the One Origin Grass, while also seeking to claim the spiritual root of that woman for herself!

Upon completing the pill refinement, Gu Chaoyan promptly handed over the pills to her Senior Brother, who was responsible for overseeing the examination. With confidence, she awaited the results.

Impressively, Gu Chaoyan achieved a flawless success rate of 100%.

Her performance in the intermediate examination stood out among the rest, making her one of the most outstanding candidates.

The Senior Brother overseeing the examination was so amazed by her proficiency that he couldn't help but promptly report her remarkable accomplishment to the outer sect Elder.

The outer sect Elder was very satisfied too.

Normally, such a disciple could be directly trained in the outer sect of the Medicine Sect, and in time, he could bring him to the inner sect personally.

However....

What a pity.

Someone asked for her before he did.

The inner sect Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect expressed his desire for this disciple to become a member of the Weapon Refining Sect. Having already given his word and agreed to this arrangement, he could not retract his decision now.

He could only sigh regretfully.

“Let’s go first.” The Elder of the Medicine Sect said.

The disciple said nothing more.

Soon, the other participants were done with the examination.

With a remarkable 100% success rate, Gu Chaoyan stood out as the exceptional candidate in the group. In contrast, almost everyone else had a mere 50% success rate, with the majority achieving only a 1/3 success rate, significantly lower than Gu Chaoyan’s outstanding performance. The examination of the Medicine Sect was over.

Most of them passed the examination.

After the examination at the Medicine Sect ended.

The disciples who came for the examination were required to gather at the Spiritual Altar and reveal their spiritual roots.

However, this was an unprecedented practice.

In the past, all the disciples who passed the examination were not subjected to a spiritual root inspection. They would directly enter the outer sect and undergo subsequent layers of examination to identify the most exceptional candidates for entry into the inner sect or to become disciples under the guidance of the elders..

Chapter 2074: Continuation 3

“Have you heard? It seems the Supreme Sect has made an unprecedented decision to recruit a batch of inner sect disciples in advance this year, and we are among the candidates they can choose from,” whispered someone, discussing the upcoming spirit platform test.

Interestingly, most of the disciples who were aware of this development had close ties to their own families within the Supreme Sect. Through these connections, they had received some general news about the situation.

It was clear that those who had outstanding results and possessed good spiritual roots would be granted the opportunity to enter the inner sect for further studies. This news was met with excitement and joy by the disciples, as it presented an excellent opportunity.

The advantage of being chosen in advance was that they wouldn't have to wait for the regular examination scheduled three months later. Moreover, they might even have the privilege of becoming disciples under the guidance of an Elder,

Hearing the news, many people were very excited, thinking that they would be able to get the news.

Even Gu Chaoyan was not surprised – she was very excited.

She needed to become an inner disciple as soon as possible!

There was no need to take the examination. It was best to enter now!

But...

She only had real spiritual roots at the moment, and she had several spiritual roots of different attributes, which were very messy. They were not good spiritual roots.

Gu Chaoyan was quite worried about this.

They arrived at the testing platform.

Some inner sect Elders were in charge of the test.

They only needed to reveal their spiritual roots, and the elders who were interested would accept them as inner sect disciples. Those who did not would be accepted as outer sect disciples.

Zhuo Yuanbai was very confident about revealing the spiritual roots.

His spiritual root was a rare mutated heavenly spiritual root. The term “mutated heavenly spiritual root” referred to a singular spiritual root that had undergone a special transformation. In his case, he possessed the extraordinary Lightning Spiritual Root within this unique spiritual core in the Sublime Country.

Upon ascending to the Spirit Platform, he proudly unveiled his Spiritual Roots, which turned out to be the coveted mutated Thunder Spiritual Roots.

The Elders were taken aback by this unexpected revelation. They had not anticipated that one of their disciples would possess such rare and powerful Thunder Spiritual Roots.

This person....

Was known to them all.

On the day of the Beastmaster Sect’s examination, what they saw through the Heavenstone Mirror was that he was selfish and had a dark heart.

This man.....

The Elders had already decided that. Even if he entered the Supreme Sect, he would only be an outer sect disciple, not an inner sect disciple.

Therefore...

They were surprised but also felt that it was a pity.

Zhuo Yuanbai was a little worried seeing the Elders’ expressions.

On the other side.

The inner Elder of the Fist Faction could not stand that any more.

This disciple was very suitable for the Fist Sect, just from the previous examination.

He did not want this disciple after the accident at the Beastmaster Sect. That was his original plan.

But...

But things were different now.

He had a mutated Thunder Spiritual Roots, which was most suitable for the Fist Faction.

If he were to be accepted into the inner sect of the Fist Sect, it would infuse much-needed vitality and new talent into the sect, reinvigorating it.

However...

The inner Elder of the Fist Sect could no longer tolerate the situation. He spoke bluntly, "We must have him in the Fist Sect."

"Elder Lin!" The inner sect Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect was taken aback, finding it hard to believe. He reminded her, "Remember our agreement."

"That is not our concern. The inner sect of the Fist Faction must have this individual!" The inner sect Elder asserted firmly.

Since he had made the plan, he was not going to listen to anyone's advice.

The Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect was very displeased with the Elder of the Fist Sect.

There was something wrong with this disciple.

Something would happen when she joined the inner sect of the sect.

Sure enough...

Zhuo Yuanbai glanced at the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect..

Chapter 2075: Continuation 4

It was this stern old man who obstructed his direct entry into the inner sect.

No wonder he found the situation perplexing. Possessing both a rare mutated heavenly spirit root and Thunder Spiritual Roots, he couldn't fathom why the Elders wore such bewildered expressions. Now, it dawned on him that they had already discerned the uniqueness of his spiritual gifts. The other inner sect Elders did not stop him, but he did!

Zhuo Yuanbai was going to bear that in mind.

The other Elders had no choice but to accept the Elder of the Fist Faction.

Slowly, more and more people came.

Most of them were True Spiritual Roots and Heaven Spiritual Root.

Most people who could come to the Shenyou Continent for the examination had these two spiritual roots.

It was Yan Wuji's turn.

He also revealed the Heaven Spiritual Root.

The Elder didn't ask him to leave but made it clear that becoming an inner sect disciple was not on the table for Yan Wuji. Initially, Yan Wuji held high hopes, but eventually, a tinge of disappointment settled in. Nevertheless, he accepted the outcome gracefully.

As he descended, Zhuo Yuanbai wore a scornful sneer directed at him, trying to provoke a reaction.

Yan Wuji chose to ignore him, not letting the taunts get to him.

Zhuo Yuanbai had successfully secured a place in the inner sect, and now he harbored intentions of seeking revenge against Yan Wuji and Gu Chaoyan, who were merely outer sect disciples and seen as easy targets for bullying.

Many people passed by one after another.

Few inner sect Elders would think highly of them.

Until Gu Chaoyan's turn.

The inner sect Elders were all looking forward to it.

Gu Chaoyan was outstanding no matter which sect she was from. Those who were better than others must have had spiritual roots.

If a cultivator had good spiritual roots, they would be able to cultivate faster.

Gu Chaoyan reached out her hands and stared at her hands.

Zhuo Yuanbai had mutated Heaven Spiritual Roots, and Gu Chaoyan should have better ones than him.

That was why people were looking forward to it.

The Elders all had their own plans.

When Gu Chaoyan's spiritual roots were revealed, the Elders got totally dumbfounded.

What?

What?

True spiritual roots?

True Spiritual Root, only?

The True Spiritual Root that almost all disciples had?

That was even worse than a Heavenly Spiritual Root.

Her Spiritual Root was a unique True Spiritual Root formed by a combination of several disparate and chaotic Spiritual Roots.

Only a handful of disciples possessing the True Spiritual Root had the privilege of entering the inner sect. Most of them had spent an extended period in the outer sect, where they painstakingly accumulated enough strength to barely qualify for the inner sect. However, once inside, they faced a challenging cultivation journey due to their slow comprehension abilities. Consequently, this sluggish progress became a burden for the inner sect.

No disciple with a True Spiritual Root could surpass a disciple with a Heaven Spiritual Root.

The Elders, who had been looking forward to it, turned gloomy.

They had no intention of accepting them, even if they did well in the examination.

They were not as good as disciples with good spiritual roots.

The Elders were silent.

Zhuo Yuanbai snorted. "Just the True Spiritual Root?" That meant...

She was not qualified to become an inner disciple, or ever.

And he, who was going to become an inner disciple, was going to torment her and Yan Wuji within three months!

He was determined to seek revenge at the earliest opportunity.

Among the disciples, numerous discussions were buzzing around.

The majority of them seemed content and contented individuals.

Meanwhile, the inner sect Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect carefully pondered the advantages and disadvantages of the situation.

He stood up and said, "Girl, you can join us at the Weapon Refining Sect.."

Chapter 2076: The Beastmaster Sect 1

The moment the Elder from the inner sect of the Weapon Refining Sect made that announcement, all discussions came to a halt. Envy and surprise were evident among the crowd of disciples.

Was it just because of a True Spiritual Root?

She got accepted into the inner sect directly?

The other Elders were puzzled by the decision made by the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect.

As for Zhuo Yuanbai, he shot a malevolent glare at the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect. He was the one who opposed the Elder of the Fist Sect and was adamant about accepting Gu Chaoyan into the inner sect.

He was going against him.

And the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect who was seen as the enemy.

The decision to accept Gu Chaoyan had been carefully considered.

Unlike many other sects, the Weapon Refining Sect didn't impose rigid criteria on the disciples they accepted for training. While reaching a high level of cultivation was essential for forging superior-grade and magical weapons in the later stages, Gu Chaoyan possessed a rare dual talent.

Not only was she naturally gifted in her overall cultivation, but she also displayed remarkable talent in the art of weapon forging.

On the day of the examination, the metal black iron swords she forged were the same.

If she was accepted into the inner sect, the Weapon Refining Sect would only have good things, never bad.

That was why he asked.

Elder Lin weighed for half a day and decided to have this disciple.

But Gu Chaoyan had mixed feelings too.

She had no intention of joining the Weapon Refining Sect.

While Gu Chaoyan's talent in weapon forging was admired by the Elder of the Equipment Refining Sect, it wasn't her true goal. Her main objective was to enhance her cultivation and acquire the elusive One Origin Grass, which could be found in the Beastmaster Sect.

Respectfully considering the situation, she mustered the courage to express her feelings to Elder Lin. "Elder Lin, I appreciate the opportunity, but I have no desire to join the Weapon Refining Sect. Forging weapons doesn't resonate with me, and it's not where my passion lies."

As she was speaking...

Gu Chaoyan said straightforwardly to the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect. "I want to join the sect. Although my Spiritual Root is True Spiritual Root, but I don't think that I am worse than anyone else, so I won't be a burden in the sect." Gu Chaoyan was not trying to humiliate the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect. But her target was indeed the Beastmaster Sect.

Only the Beastmaster Sect could go into the mountains often and improve their cultivation and fighting skills.

She did not have much time.

Huaijin was still lying on Longmai Mountain, and she needed to save him as soon as possible.

Gu Chaoyan was the first person in Supreme Sect who could do something like this.

The other disciples who came to the Supreme Sect for the examination were delighted to be accepted into the outer sect. However, Gu Chaoyan chose to decline the Elder's invitation, standing firm in her decision to join another sect instead.

This move seemed risky, as it had the potential to offend the Elder of the chosen sect. Many onlookers shook their heads in disapproval at Gu Chaoyan's boldness.

Yet, amid the disapproval, an air of anticipation lingered. People were intrigued by the unfolding drama, secretly hoping that Gu Chaoyan's actions would cause conflict with the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect and lead to her disfavor in the eyes of the Elder from the Beastmaster Sect, leaving her with no viable options.

Gu Chaoyan fell into deep contemplation.

The Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect and the Elder of the Beast-controlling Sect were both surprised.

This disciple displayed an astonishing level of boldness.

Yet, her audacity did not backfire, for it seemed to intrigue rather than displease Elder Lin of the Weapon Refining Sect. He regarded her with keen interest.

As she stood there, she even dared to elbow the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect playfully. “Did you hear that? They are choosing to join your esteemed sect..

What are your thoughts on this?”

Chapter 2077: The Beastmaster Sect 2

In terms of spiritual roots...

She was not qualified to join the Beastmaster Sect.

But the accident at the Beastmaster Sect was overturned because of her, or something terrible would have happened.

And she did behave well the other day.

She was already a Level 1 or 2 Martial Saint, more advanced than the disciples. But...

The Beastmaster Sect would not accept a disciple with only the True Spiritual

Root.

But...

However, despite her exceptional performance, it was unfortunate that she hadn't been accepted into the sect.

“You possess a True Spiritual Root, and the lowest-ranked inner sect disciple of the Beastmaster Sect holds at least a Heaven Spiritual Root. Accepting you as an inner sect disciple might present some challenges due to this disparity. However, your remarkable performance during the examination has caught our attention, and for that reason, the Beastmaster Sect is willing to offer you this opportunity.”

“Supreme Sect has a bounty pavilion. If you can complete three missions, the Beastmaster Sect will accept you.”

“We don’t impose any specific criteria on you; all you need to do is accomplish three missions,” the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect stated.

Upon hearing that there was a glimmer of hope, Gu Chaoyan promptly made up her mind to accept the challenge.

However, Elder Lin of the Weapon Refining Sect wore a skeptical expression as he glanced at the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect. “You are merely toying with us. Completing three missions might not be as simple as it sounds.” “Only three missions,” the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect reaffirmed with unwavering determination.

Elder Lin recognized that persuading her otherwise would be futile.

The three missions assigned by the Bounty Pavilion were relatively manageable for inner sect disciples, but for those who had not yet entered the inner sect, they posed a significant challenge.

Gu Chaoyan, at her current level of cultivation, lacked the necessary strength to complete the missions alone.

For disciples who hadn’t attained the required level of cultivation, forming a team was the only option. However, few would be willing to team up with non-inner sect disciples, making it even more difficult for Gu Chaoyan to find suitable companions.

Therefore, the examination of the Beastmaster Sect was indeed very difficult for her.

But Gu Chaoyan answered straightforwardly, “Three it is!”

If she went to the pavilion for missions, she could train herself and join the Beastmaster Sect.

That was the best of both worlds.

After all...

Even after the examination three months later, she would still have the True Spiritual Root.

Her power of inheritance could help her nourish the spiritual root, but she needed enough time to nourish the spiritual root to a higher level.

Three months was not enough.

That was the best solution.

No one had expected that things would turn out like this.

Those who were gloating continued to watch the show.

Zhuo Yuanbai glared at Gu Chaoyan and Elder Lin.

Then she left with the Elder of the Fist Faction.

The other disciples who were not selected into the inner sect went to report to the outer sect.

Yan Zhengchu also joined the inner sect, but he joined the Array Sect. Yan Wuji was at the outer gate.

But he came and asked worriedly, "Chaoyan, do you need my help with the mission?"

"I can help too." Yan Zhengchu came up and offered.

“No need, just do what you need to do. I will take care of the mission myself,”

Gu Chaoyan turned down the offer directly.

Afterward, they were asked to part ways.

Gu Chaoyan headed towards the pavilion.

There, she diligently studied the available missions, carefully selecting the three that she believed she could complete successfully..

Chapter 2078: Three Missions 1

The Bounty Pavilion stood prominently at the center of the major sects, adjacent to the Armament Pavilion, where disciples could freely purchase and exchange weapons.

The place was bustling with a constant flow of people. Some were eager to take on missions, while others came to report the completion of their assigned tasks.

Despite not being categorized as a super sect, the Supreme Sect had a long-standing history and a robust infrastructure, making it highly comprehensive in its offerings.

Spirit Stones served as the primary currency within the Supreme Sect, owing to their ability to store and contain spiritual energy.

Well...

In addition to Spirit Stones, certain disciples held a preference for golden knives, despite them not being in common circulation.

The sect also had a variety of pills available for exchange. While pills were more sought after than Spirit Stones and golden knives, disciples seldom displayed their pills casually, reserving them for specific situations or special circumstances. As a result, sightings of pills were relatively rare.

Within the Bounty Pavilion, completing missions provided the opportunity to acquire additional rewards, such as extra Spirit Stones, golden knives, or pills. Various missions offered distinct sets of rewards, enticing disciples with different preferences and needs.

As some disciples spent an extended period within the sect, the fixed share provided by the sect alone became insufficient to meet their requirements. Consequently, they sought to supplement their resources by taking on missions that offered valuable rewards.

Therefore, there were many people coming and going at the Bounty Pavilion.

When Gu Chaoyan went into the Bounty Pavilion, she attracted a lot of attention.

They had heard about this a long time ago, because the whole thing was going on.

“That is her?” Someone whispered.

“She is right. I heard that she turned down Elder Lin’s offer to accept her into the Weapon.

Refining Sect and went to the Beastmaster Sect on her own accord. She even accepted three missions from the Elder of the Beastmaster Sect, thinking that she would be able to complete them.” Someone else said disdainfully, apparently displeased by Gu Chaoyan’s arrogant personality.

If she had a good Spiritual Root, she would have the confidence to do so. He could accept that.

But a True Spiritual Root was so bold as to look down at everyone else.

He would not like it.

Continuing his criticism, the man added, “She believes that as a newly-recruited disciple, she can easily complete the missions. However, when we accepted our first mission, we had to do it with the help of Senior Brothers from the inner sect, and the rewards were only meager. As we gained more experience, we could handle simpler missions alone or continue to follow the Senior Brothers for more challenging tasks.”

“She is just dreaming that she could complete three missions.” Also, he did not think that his Senior Brother would bring her along. No one would want to bring her along.

He said.

The others all looked as if they were watching a show. They even sniggered from time to time.

The people at the Bounty Pavilion were also talking about Gu Chaoyan.

Gu Chaoyan could hear everything clearly.

However....

She did not care about this.

They could talk if they wanted to.

She had no time to argue with these people.

She was focused on the missions.

Honestly...

The missions available at the Bounty Pavilion were undoubtedly challenging, particularly for Gu Chaoyan at her current stage of cultivation.

The simpler tasks, like capturing the Paragon and Martial King demonic beasts at Penglai Mountain, offered tempting rewards of 2,000 Spirit Stones and 10 bottles of pills.

Other missions involved hunting down evil individuals from the Shenyou Continent. Although apprehending the culprits was relatively straightforward, locating them presented a formidable difficulty..

Chapter 2079: Three Missions 2

Gu Chaoyan surveyed her surroundings, trying to recall the specific missions assigned by the renowned Bounty Pavilion. The majority of these missions involved dealing with formidable high-level demonic beasts.

Completing the assigned tasks, Gu Chaoyan pondered for a moment before deciding to depart. There was no rush for her to take on more tasks immediately.

With three missions under her belt, Gu Chaoyan contemplated returning home to devise a well-thought-out plan. Accepting new missions right away was not a necessity at this moment.

Also...

Feeling the need to make adequate preparations, Gu Chaoyan stepped out of the Bounty Pavilion.

Onlookers, who were eagerly waiting to see which missions she would undertake, couldn't help but sigh in disappointment as they noticed her departure.

However, amidst the crowd, a few individuals chuckled, confessing, "After assessing the available missions, we realized none were suitable for us.

Perhaps we should approach the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect instead."

Regardless of the accuracy of this man's statement, it resonated with those present, making it a fitting sentiment for their current situation.

They all sneered.

After assessing their own missions, the group continued searching for suitable teams to join. Meanwhile, Gu Chaoyan, who initially planned to approach the Elder of the Weapon Refining Sect, changed her mind and headed to the Weaponry Pavilion instead.

With the white jade sword in her possession, Gu Chaoyan had no need to purchase additional weapons. Nonetheless, she wanted to explore and find something suitable that could aid her in future missions.

Browsing through the Weaponry Pavilion, she invested in some hidden weapons using Spirit Stones, but nothing else caught her eye. The majority of items available were high-level weapons and Dharma artifacts, enchanted armaments, which were not on her shopping list.

After pondering for a while, she decided to make her way to the Trading Pavilion.

Unlike the Weaponry Pavilion, the Trading Pavilion proved to be more welcoming and approachable. This was due to the presence of disciples from the Supreme Sect who were engaged in selling or trading their personal items.

In the Supreme Sect, many disciples often preferred to focus on their respective specialized sects. For instance, those belonging to the Weapon Refining Sect required specific materials like black iron and other items essential for forging weapons. If they happened to come across valuable herbs, they would readily trade them for more suitable resources, regardless of the herbs' inherent value.

so...

That was why Gu Chaoyan saw so many good things the moment she walked in.

There were many things that she did not need at the moment, so she did not read them.

She walked for a long while.

She finally had her eyes on a piece of beast skin.

Despite the apparent usefulness of certain resources in the Trading Pavilion, the reality was that most disciples didn't pay much attention to them.

The Medicine Faction disciples had no use for those materials, and the Refining Faction disciples found them of limited value as well. The Array Faction disciples didn't require them either, while the Fist Faction disciples could use them but found the effort hardly worth it.

As a result, an awkward scene unfolded in the Trading Pavilion, where these valuable materials remained largely ignored.

However, this situation played perfectly into Gu Chaoyan's hands. She recalled a specific mission posted at the Bounty Pavilion, which involved capturing mutated beasts in a volcano. These creatures had undergone transformations due to the unique environment of the volcano.

The existence of these mutated beasts posed a significant threat to humanity if they multiplied in number. As a result, this mission was classified as the highest-level, and the rewards for its successful completion were exceedingly generous. For Gu Chaoyan, this mission offered a perfect opportunity to make good use of the neglected resources, securing her a considerable advantage.

Gu Chaoyan had not thought about this mission.

But...

Now that she had the beast skin, she could think about it.

Gu Chaoyan asked about the price.

She had 10,000 Spirit Stones.

That was worth the price.

But...

The Spirit Stones in Gu Chaoyan's hands were all left behind by the Dragonman's father..

Chapter 2080: Three Missions 3

The Spirit Stones, gold, silver, and jewelry left behind by her father were probably intended for Gu Chaoyan's future, but she had no intentions of using them. This realization struck her just then.

In the midst of her contemplation, the dragon man she had encountered suddenly bit her, causing Gu Chaoyan's face to darken with annoyance. It was the first time she had been mistrusted, and it truly infuriated her.

However, she knew that she needed the power of inheritance, or else she wouldn't have bothered with the dragon man at all.

Still displeased, Gu Chaoyan's face remained stern. The disciple selling the beast skin might have assumed that she found the price too high, but that wasn't the case.

After giving it some thought, she decided to make a counteroffer. "The beast skin is undoubtedly valuable. In normal circumstances, it should be priced at 10,000 Spirit Stones. However, there's a limited demand for it. If you're genuinely interested, I can sell it to you for 8,000 Spirit Stones."

8,000 Spirit Stones was a huge step back for him.

But...

Gu Chaoyan did not even have this much.

That was the first time she realized how poor she was.

"I don't have any Spirit Stones, but I have a few bottles of pills here, see if they are worth the price." Gu Chaoyan took out the medicine bottle.

That man's hopeful eyes dimmed.

Sure enough, she had none to deal.

The reason why he offered this was because he was about to make a breakthrough, but he kept running into bottlenecks.

He needed pills.

But how could she have the pills he needed?

She did not even seem to be part of the sect judging from her dresses.

It was possible for outer sect disciples to have Spirit Stones and pills.

He was able to buy the pills because he knew someone from the Medicine Sect.

“Just take a look, maybe you need it.” Gu Chaoyan added. She could tell that he was judging a book by its cover.

The disciple looked at them half-heartedly.

He saw what was there...

He was shocked.

What..

He could immediately sense that the elixir Gu Chaoyan offered was of superior quality compared to the ones he had received from the Senior Brother of the Medicine Sect. The excitement within him surged, but a sense of curiosity took hold as he pondered what kind of pill it was.

Realizing the potential of this elixir, he believed that with just a few bottles of it, he could undoubtedly make a breakthrough in his cultivation.

“How many bottles do you have!” he eagerly inquired.

“Five bottles.” Gu Chaoyan had only planned to offer three bottles, but the beast skin was good, and he was going to make a breakthrough, so she offered five bottles.

“Deal.” The man seemed to be worried that Gu Chaoyan would change her mind. He stuffed the beast skin into her hands and asked for the other four

UULLICD.

Gu Chaoyan gave the pills to him.

Then she left with the beast skin.

That was a very perfected trip.

Gu Chaoyan was in a good mood.

As she returned to her own yard...

She was living alone in the room.

The other two were allocated to the outer sect disciples' dormitory.

She was alone, which was even better.

As we went back home....

Then she started to make the beast's skin.

It looked like a small vest. She was wearing it under the clothes, and no one could tell.

The vest was ready.

So she decided to accept the mutated beast's mission directly.

Mutated beasts were considered high-level missions, and completing this task successfully would make the next two missions much more manageable. Well...

If she had the necessary capabilities, others would be more than willing to team up with her. There was no need for her to take on the risk alone..