

Divine 2081

Chapter 2081: Three Missions 4

She had made her decision.

Gu Chaoyan took the time to prepare additional poisons, explosives, and suitable clothing, getting herself ready for the journey ahead.

However, just before departing, she remembered the dragon in her arms. Taking it out gently, she spoke seriously, “I’m heading to the volcano to complete the mission. I’ll be facing a mutated beast, and the environment might get quite hot. So, be prepared.”

“I am not going! Return my gold, silver, and jewelry to me. If you want to die, go and die yourself, don’t drag me down!” The Dragonman retorted angrily.

Gu Chaoyan looked helpless.

She knew that...

That must have been the result.

“Your father entrusted you to me, so you have to follow me. You have no choice but to follow me wherever I am!” Gu Chaoyan called out to her when she saw the little ghost.

Having said this...

She stuffed it into her arms.

She did not want to say anything more to it.

The little dragon was so angry in her arms.

It did not struggle but continued to lie in her arms obediently.

It was very angry just now.

She packed her stuff and decided to go out, so he stayed in peace, because he believed that she would definitely take it with her.

But...

It was very saddened when it was suddenly dragged out. It thought that she was going to keep it.

But not keeping it to the end.

But the Dragonman couldn't help but feel emotional despite its initial outburst. It believed Gu Chaoyan shouldn't have mentioned this mission to it in the first place. After all, its father had entrusted it to her care, and she should always consider its well-being.

After uttering those strong words, Gu Chaoyan started to worry that she had been too harsh. Seeking to clarify her intentions, she explained, "I'm not trying to abandon you at the Supreme Sect. Facing the mutated beast is a dangerous task, but I possess the power of inheritance, giving me the confidence to deal with it. The volcano might be hot, but with the qilin vest, you will be protected from the harsh environment while in my arms."

"I am asking you because I think that we are equals, and I need to talk about this with you."

"But not with you. Sorry, no." Gu Chaoyan said gently. The Dragonman in her arms felt a bit uncomfortable.

But it felt better too. It said listlessly, "I got it."

Gu Chaoyan chuckled.

Then she took the Dragonman to the Bounty Pavilion.

She already had a plan, so she did not want to waste any more time.

She went directly to the mutated beast mission. “I want to accept this mission.”

The person in charge of the mission was startled. Then he smiled. “Are you sure?”

“Okay.”

“Take this.” The person in charge of the mission gave her the authority token.

They were in charge of the mission, not dissuading them.

Gu Chaoyan took the authority token and the map and decided to head there directly.

Many people sighed seeing Gu Chaoyan’s choice.

How dare she accept this mission?

It seemed unlikely that she would be able to complete the mission when compared to the Senior Brother from the inner sect of the Beastmaster Sect, who had a team of 10 skilled individuals ready to take on the challenge. The odds were stacked against her.

Everyone could see that she wouldn’t stand a chance, while the Senior Brothers would surely succeed.

However...

It might be for the best if she couldn’t make it.

She should focus on taking the examination and becoming an inner sect disciple. It was unreasonable to think she could reach the top in one leap, showing such arrogance.

As Gu Chaoyan stood outside the Bounty Pavilion, a kind-hearted Senior Brother approached her and spoke gently, “Senior Brother, are you planning to accept this mission? I advise you to reconsider and give it up..”

Chapter 2082: Mutated Beast

Lv Zhengyang wore a gentle expression as he conveyed his advice to Gu Chaoyan. He genuinely had her best interests at heart, and he possessed some knowledge about this Junior Sister of his.

He knew that Gu Chaoyan aspired to become an inner disciple of the Beastmaster Sect. To achieve this goal, she had declined the Elder’s offer and insisted on joining the sect through the ordinary process. Moreover, she had taken on three missions assigned by the Elder.

In contrast, Lv Zhengyang was different from others. He didn’t know if she would be accepted as an inner disciple of the Beastmaster Sect; that depended on her own abilities. Regardless, he accepted the mission himself, not out of fear that she might steal it, but because by accepting the mission, he gained some insights into its difficulty.

Mutated demonic beasts were high-level creatures, and their caves were exceedingly intricate. Even Lv Zhengyang required a team of ten experienced inner sect disciples to tackle such a mission, and he couldn’t be certain of its success.

Gu Chaoyan was just a young girl, merely at Level 1 or 2 Martial Saint, lacking any substantial experience. How could she possibly manage such a challenging mission?

The danger was apparent; they might even face the risk of death.

“Consider trying other missions. There are numerous tasks in the Bounty Pavilion that can’t be accomplished alone,” Lv Zhengyang advised with genuine concern. “You can also find a suitable team to join, ensuring that the mission can be completed successfully.”

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at him.

He did not mean any harm.

But she could not accept his proposal for the time being.

She was definitely going to get the mutated beast.

“Thank you, Senior Brother, but no thanks.” Gu Chaoyan bowed and thanked him.

Then she insisted on leaving the Bounty Pavilion with her stuff.

Seeing her attitude, Lv Zhengyang knew that she was definitely going.

He shook his head slightly.

Despite his best efforts, Lv Zhengyang couldn't dissuade Di Hongyun from his harsh judgment.

“Senior Brother Zhengyang, why do you care? That woman is so arrogant. She turned down Elder Lin and joined the Beastmaster Sect on her own accord. She acts as if she can do whatever she pleases. Why bother with her? She deserves to be taught a lesson for her arrogance!” Di Hongyun expressed his disdain with evident disgust.

Gu Chaoyan did not offend him.

But he disliked Gu Chaoyan just like everyone else.

Well...

She was too arrogant.

She should be more modest.

The others present nodded in agreement, concurring with Di Hongyun's sentiment.

Fu Xinde remained composed, offering his perspective. “Zhengyang, don’t dwell on it too much. You’ve already given her your advice. I believe she knows what’s at stake and what’s important. Perhaps she can surprise us and complete the mission after all.” He expressed a level of trust in Gu Chaoyan’s capabilities, showing a more optimistic outlook.

Haha.

Fu Xinde’s words were heard.

They all looked as if they had heard a joke.

“Xinde, we are all teaming up, and she is alone? Her cultivation is lower than ours, and you think she can make it?” Di Hongyun laughed.

Fu Xinde did not think that was wrong.

She was the one who stabilized the Beastmaster Sect’s examination.

Gu Chaoyan wouldn’t have taken on the mission if she lacked the necessary capabilities.

Also, he did not think that everyone wanted the same thing – to take the examination slowly and enter the inner sect, so as to become an outstanding disciple. Elders from the sect should be grateful to them.

She seemed like a nice person.

She could even choose the sect according to her own will..

Chapter 2083: Mutated Beast 2

She felt that she could do whatever she wanted.

Even if she could not do that.

So what? At least she believed that she could make it. There were not many people who were so passionate.

Those who cultivated.

Should have this kind of spirit.

Fu Xinde thought inwardly.

But he said nothing more.

Apart from Zhengyang, everyone else would think that he was a fiend.

He shook his head slightly and continued to get ready for the mission.

When they were still preparing, Gu Chaoyan was already heading towards the volcano.

The authority token and mission map from the Supreme Sect were very considerate. Apart from the map of how to get there, there was also a detailed description of this mutated beast and the specific situation in the cave.

In this way, they could avoid unnecessary things.

Gu Chaoyan found that very considerate.

However, even with these reminders, when she arrived at the volcano and the entrance of the mutated beast cave, she still carefully set up a barrier at the entrance of the cave and then meditated inside.

She did not plan to go in directly. Instead, she decided to observe the situation first.

There was no scent of other demonic beasts near the cave of the mutated demonic beast. Even some birds passed by occasionally, but they all left in a hurry.

Gu Chaoyan speculated that it must have something to do with the environment around the cave.

It was much hotter here than in other places.

It was very uncomfortable to be here.

But the mutated beasts seemed to like this kind of environment.

That was why it had mutated.

She thought for a while...

Gu Chaoyan took out a magical weapon.

It was a small paper crane.

That was what Gu Chaoyan got when they were in the mountains.

The paper crane possessed godly power, capable of guiding the way. After some contemplation, Gu Chaoyan decided to place the paper crane into the cave.

If the paper crane managed to return unharmed, Gu Chaoyan would sense how many demon beasts were present inside. However, if it failed to come back, it would imply encountering danger where its powers couldn't protect it, indicating the presence of demon beasts.

In this way, she would be very cautious when she went in.

She had just put the paper crane inside.

Gu Chaoyan sensed the presence of others.

She did not panic, knowing that some disciples from the Supreme Sect had accepted the mission as well.

Sure enough.

Soon....

Ten disciples of the Supreme Sect came into sight.

When Gu Chaoyan saw them, they also noticed her standing outside the cave instead of going inside the mutated beast's lair.

They laughed at her, as she appeared confident when she left but now seemed hesitant to enter.

Lv Zhengyang was on the verge of saying a few words to Gu Chaoyan, but Di Hongyun intervened, pulling him away, and reminding him firmly, "The mission takes precedence over everything else."

Lv Zhengyang left with them.

They did not stay for long, but went directly into the cave.

They were well-versed in dealing with mutated beasts.

As a result, they had prepared the necessary tools and devised their strategies beforehand.

As they walked in, Gu Chaoyan patiently awaited the message from the paper crane.

After an hour, Gu Chaoyan sensed that the paper crane's magical power had vanished.

This indicated that the paper crane was in peril.

"Let's go!" Gu Chaoyan exclaimed, determined to take action.

She ventured further into the deep cave, knowing she could trace the scent left by the paper crane.

On the way.....

Chapter 2084: Mutated Beast 3

It was remarkably peaceful, and there were no other beasts around.

She had not encountered the other disciples during her walk. However, it was understandable since they had left early, not expecting to run into each other.

However....

After an hour of walking, Gu Chaoyan discovered that the cave was surprisingly vast.

It was so expansive that it had several diverging paths.

Each path carried the lingering aura of people passing through them.

Gu Chaoyan guessed that they must have noticed that there were many paths here, so they split up.

But Gu Chaoyan did not have many people with her, so they could not leave separately.

She followed the path the paper crane took.

Soon...

She could smell blood not far away from the Dao Seeking.

There were bloodstains on the ground, as well as the bodies of bats.

What?

Gu Chaoyan quickened her pace and pressed on.

While walking inside, she was suddenly confronted by numerous black objects flying toward her. Gu Chaoyan promptly retrieved torches from her storage space, and upon seeing the torches, the black objects promptly dispersed, showing no intention of approaching her.

The torches had been preplanned and carried for such situations.

She had anticipated encountering many other smaller beasts deep within the cave.

Her foresight proved useful, and Gu Chaoyan was pleased with her preparations. Before facing the mutated beasts, she refrained from using her spiritual energy unless absolutely necessary.

She continued to walk smoothly.

As she progressed, she noticed some small bloodstains along the way. If her assumptions were correct, one of the demon beasts must have sustained an injury.

In this environment, bleeding was a grave taboo. These small demon beasts were bloodthirsty creatures that roamed in darkness year-round, and they would likely be drawn towards the scent of blood.

And the paper crane did not encounter any danger here.

It had no human scent, and the bats did not harm it.

Gu Chaoyan continued walking forward, accompanied by the others.

Finally, they arrived at a brightly illuminated area where the bats did not follow them.

However, Gu Chaoyan was not convinced that this place was safe.

Because...

It was at this very spot that the paper crane lost all of its godly power.

Gu Chaoyan carefully observed the surroundings.

The place seemed eerily quiet, devoid of any sound or movement.

Yet, Gu Chaoyan couldn't shake the feeling that something was watching her, even though there was no visible living thing nearby.

At most, there were two stone pillars standing in the area.

Gu Chaoyan scrutinized the stone pillars closely.

They appeared to be ordinary stone pillars.

Thinking of leaving, Gu Chaoyan suddenly had a hunch and decided to use her spiritual energy to strike one of the stone pillars directly. Surprisingly, the stone pillar shattered upon impact, revealing a pool of blood within.

What?

What the hell?

She felt an odd sensation about the stone pillar, prompting her to investigate further.

Why was the pillar bleeding?

Just as she was contemplating this strange occurrence, a fiery red monster charged towards her aggressively.

To her surprise, the beast seemed to have originated from a rock.

It suddenly dawned on Gu Chaoyan what was happening.

There were likely two mutated beasts in this area.

They must have killed the people who came to hunt them and used some kind of pills to disguise themselves. Gu Chaoyan also possessed such pills, and it appeared they had disguised themselves as the surrounding objects.

With this realization, Gu Chaoyan braced herself as the fiery red monster lunged at her with intense heat as well..

Chapter 2085: Mutated Beast 4

When the mutated beast reverted to its original form, it emerged as a massive creature covered in fiery red skin. As it charged forward, Gu Chaoyan could feel the surrounding temperature rising rapidly.

Fortunately, she had the foresight to don the armor made from the very same beast's skin, protecting her from the scorching heat of the demonic creature.

With lightning speed, Gu Chaoyan raised her white jade sword and attempted to pierce the beast, but to her dismay, the creature's hide was impenetrable. Her strongest strikes couldn't even scratch it.

At that moment, she couldn't help but feel relieved that she had already managed to vanquish one of these beasts before. Otherwise, she would have found herself utterly helpless and unable to escape.

Though the mutated demonic beast was a terrifying adversary, its massive size caused it to move with clumsiness, proving to be its sole weakness.

Fortunately, during her rigorous training, Gu Chaoyan had mastered a special footwork technique, allowing her to evade the creature's attacks with ease.

As Gu Chaoyan continued to dodge the creature's attacks, the mutated beast grew increasingly agitated. It charged at her with even greater force, and from its gaping maw, flames spewed out threatening to engulf the surroundings.

Fearing that the cave's vegetation might catch fire, Gu Chaoyan realized the urgency of the situation. This creature seemed more driven by vengeance for its fallen companion than any instinct for self-preservation.

In her arms, the Dragonman calmly advised her, "Stab its eyes."

The suggestion triggered a realization in Gu Chaoyan. Without hesitation, she raised her sword and aimed for the mutated beast's eyes.

The creature, driven by rage and the desire to harm her, didn't anticipate the attack. As her sword found its mark, the beast howled in pain, momentarily distracted from its aggressive assault.

The mutated beast let out a blood-curdling scream as Gu Chaoyan seized the opportunity to strike. Amidst the chaos, she noticed a vulnerable spot that could potentially harm the creature.

Swiftly, she wielded her white jade sword, channeling the power of her inheritance to drive the blade into the creature's throat with incredible speed. The mutated beast's miserable scream intensified, and soon after, it ceased its movements, blood gushing from its mouth.

Despite the apparent victory, Gu Chaoyan hesitated to approach the fallen beast. Uncertain of its true state, she couldn't determine if the creature was truly dead or merely feigning stillness.

"Just go." The Dragonman said impatiently, "You are so girly."

Only now did Gu Chaoyan walk towards it. The mutated beast was not moving. It should be dead.

She kicked the mutated beast, but it still did not move.

Only now was she completely sure.

The mutated beast died just like that.

That was not a good death.

However....

Compared to the mutated beast, Gu Chaoyan was looking at the Dragonman seriously.

Girly?

She...

“I am a girl, okay?” Gu Chaoyan clarified.

“Okay.” The Dragonman ignored her, rolled his eyes and continued to sleep in her arms.

Gu Chaoyan did not want to argue with the Dragonman any more.

Instead, she put the mutated beast’s body into the space.

This mutated demonic beast was a demon. It was very easy to deal with, but...

Gu Chaoyan looked at the stone pillar that was broken in half.

She was wearing a very conflicted expression on her face.

But it was the difficult part to deal with.

When it died, it was still in the shape of a stone pillar..

Chapter 2086: Mutated Beast 5

No one would have believed her if she had brought back just one mutated beast to the Bounty Pavilion. Thankfully, she had managed to capture two of them, making the trip worthwhile and saving her from being doubted.

Now, the question arose: what should be done with these creatures? Should she take both of them along?

Contemplating the options, Gu Chaoyan couldn't help but be aware of the incredulity she might face if anyone witnessed what she was about to do next. With determination, she carefully stowed the bleeding stone pillars into her spatial storage, hidden from plain sight.

As she completed the task, a sense of relief washed over her. The mission had been executed more swiftly than she had anticipated, despite it being an incredibly high-level assignment.

However....

At the same time, Gu Chaoyan acknowledged the role that luck had played in her success, along with the invaluable assistance from Little Dragon.

The stroke of luck came from her ability to discern the weakness of the stone pillars ahead of time. This realization infuriated the other mutated beast, causing it to lose some of its composure and act recklessly.

Little Dragon's guidance, on the other hand, proved to be a crucial factor. It had advised her to target the creature's eyes, a vulnerable spot devoid of protective flesh, where her white jade sword could deliver a stinging blow. Striking the eyes caused the beast to open its mouth in pain, exposing its vulnerable throat —where its life truly lay. Gu Chaoyan hesitated.

She was in a good mood.

The first mission was completed so fast.

It seemed that she was going to join the Beastmaster Sect soon.

Since the mission was completed, she decided to return to Supreme Sect directly.

As for the others, she did not care. The mutated beast was already dead, and they were not in much danger.

But...

Amidst the conflicting thoughts, Gu Chaoyan contemplated whether she should inform the others that the mutated beasts had already been dealt with, to prevent them from lingering needlessly.

As she wrestled with her decision, her attention was abruptly drawn to the sounds of battle that echoed in the distance, followed by hushed voices engaged in conversation.

Some were familiar, and some were not.

Those who were familiar with it were from Lv Zhengyang's team, not Gu

Chaoyan.

Something happened?

That was what Gu Chaoyan believed subconsciously.

Although they spoke harshly to her, but they were all disciples of the Supreme

Sect, and she could not just leave them alone.

Gu Chaoyan did not hesitate any more. Instead, she headed towards the direction of the sound.

The moment she just arrived...

Her eyes widened in shock as she witnessed the dire situation unfolding before her. Reacting swiftly, she gripped her white jade sword tightly and rushed to intervene. Seeing Fu Xinde injured, she wasted no time in prying open the sword on his body, providing some relief to his condition. However, when it came to the person responsible, she made sure to act with restraint, inflicting a non-lethal wound to his shoulder, causing blood to flow.

In defense of Di Hongyun, she raised her sword to strike at the other man. But he was prepared and skillfully dodged her attack, displaying a clear advantage in power compared to Gu Chaoyan.

Undeterred, he retaliated fiercely with a surge of spiritual energy aimed at her. The encounter seemed to have escalated into a dangerous confrontation, and Gu Chaoyan braced herself for the upcoming clash.

In a flash, Gu Chaoyan came up with a plan and swiftly threw the explosives at the man. Instinctively, he shielded himself, and the explosives detonated, enveloping him in a cloud of dust. Although the explosion didn't harm him physically, the dust left him feeling uncomfortably itchy.

A mischievous grin appeared on Gu Chaoyan's face as she reveled in her successful strategy. Those explosives had been specially prepared before her departure, containing various poisons left behind by Lingyun. However, she refrained from using the most severe ones, opting instead for those that caused irritation and discomfort.

With the two adversaries dealt with, Gu Chaoyan turned her attention to Fu Xinde, going over to assist him to his feet..

Chapter 2087: Meeting the Grand Unity Sect 1

Amidst the tense situation, Di Hongyun, nursing his injuries, had the man who caused the itching at his mercy, with his sword pressed against the man's neck. Hatred burned in his eyes, as if he were on the brink of ending the man's life right then and there. However, he held back when he witnessed Gu Chaoyan's swift retaliation. staying his hand.

Di Hongyun and Xinde had set out together, headed in this direction with a plan in mind. They had agreed that whoever first encountered the mutated beast would signal the others, and they would converge at that point. To their surprise, instead of facing the mutated beasts, they encountered these two individuals from the formidable Extreme Celestial Sect. This sect was about to ascend to the status of a super sect, surpassing their own Supreme Sect in strength. Furthermore, these two individuals were inner sect disciples of Extreme Celestial Sect, and it was evident that their cultivation levels exceeded that of Di Hongyun and Xinde.

Supreme Sect and Grand Unity Sect had never been on good terms, which was evident when the disciples from the two factions, upon spotting Di Hongyun and Hind injured by the bats, took the opportunity to humiliate them. They mockingly demanded that the two of them kneel before them.

As disciples of the Supreme Sect, it was not something they could do casually and indifferently. The animosity between the sects ran deep, and kneeling before their rivals was a bitter pill to swallow.

They really did not want to.

They had been fighting and dodging all the time.

All the way here.

They were no match for these two people.

They threatened them with Xinde's life so they would kneel down.

He was arrogant, but he could not bet with Xinde's life, so he chose to kneel down.

At that moment.

Gu Chaoyan rushed out.

He had wanted to tell her that she had a death wish, but unexpectedly...

She managed to subdue these two people.

They were going to turn the tables.

Di Hongyun had mixed feelings.

He had hated this woman ever since he learned about her. She was arrogant and only had a True Spiritual Root.

But right now...

She saved him and Xinde.

If it had not been for her, he would have kneeled down to the Grand Unity Sect. But these two people spent so much time catching and humiliating them, and they were not going to let them go easily.

He did not like her before, but she was from the Supreme Sect after all.

Well...

That was still a good thing, anyway.

Seeing Gu Chaoyan helping Xinde up, Di Hongyun asked. "What should we do with them?"

He was asking Gu Chaoyan.

Gu Chaoyan threw a look at them.

One of them was injured, and the other was in Di Hongyun's hands.

Just as she was making a guess...

The other injured man said arrogantly, "How should we deal with it? We are inner sect disciples of Extreme Celestial Sect. You've injured us and refuse to let us go. Beware that the Grand Unity Sect will seek revenge for our injuries. They will decide what happens to me today. You should contemplate how you'll explain this to them when you return!"

He said fearlessly.

After this year, the Grand Unity Sect would become a super sect.

How dare Supreme Sect offend them like this!

How ungrateful!

Gu Chaoyan frowned, exclaiming, “You hurt my Senior Brothers first, and now you demand an explanation from us?”

“So what? If we are displeased, you must answer for your actions. Just wait and see, the Grand Unity Sect will definitely send someone to exact revenge for today’s events.” The person remained unyielding.

“In that case...”

“Lower your sword!” The man shouted at Di Hongyun, reacting to Gu Chaoyan’s statement..

Chapter 2088: Meeting the Grand Unity Sect 2

Di Hongyun hesitated.

Yet, deep down, he also harbored the intention of lowering the sword, as he had initially suggested.

The looming rise of the Grand Unity Sect as a super sect made it clear that the Supreme Sect couldn’t afford to offend such a powerful faction. Any antagonism might lead to severe repercussions for their own sect.

Observing Di Hongyun’s conflicted demeanor, the man sneered, confident that the Supreme Sect’s disciples wouldn’t dare to act against those from the Grand Unity Sect. He already looked forward to returning to his own sect and teaching the disciples of the Supreme Sect a harsh lesson.

As he thought about this, he reached out to help the other man up and take him away.

By this hour...

Gu Chaoyan finished what she was about to say. “In that case, we will kill them directly.”

“They are dead, and they can’t talk. How could they possibly go to the Grand Unity Sect and report us? Besides, with mutated beasts lurking in this area, the sect’s members would naturally assume they fell prey to these creatures,” Gu Chaoyan remarked casually, breaking into a light-hearted laughter. However....

Her words combined with her smile made her look really scary.

The man's face stiffened, and he turned expressionless.

Di Hongyun was trying to see if what Gu Chaoyan said was true.

At this moment.

Gu Chaoyan had already struck out with the sword, killing the man with one strike.

The man's eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

He was very surprised and unwilling to accept this.

"Hongyun, what are you waiting for?" Fu Xinde reminded him.

Only now did Di Hongyun draw his sword.

The two disciples of the Grand Unity Sect died here.

Di Hongyun's hands were still shivering.

He killed someone, a disciple of the Grand Unity Sect.

But it seemed that it felt so nice.

He humiliated them and even threatened them.

"These two individuals were utterly ruthless. Had I not intervened, they wouldn't have spared you so easily. If I had aided them, they might have caused trouble for the Supreme Sect. However, now that they're deceased, the matter can be put to rest. Even if the Grand Unity Sect investigates, they won't be able to hold us responsible. It's for the best that they're no longer a concern. If you're apprehensive, you can shift the blame to me,” Gu Chaoyan said as she removed the interspatial rings from their lifeless hands.

Typically, cultivators store some of their belongings within their interspatial rings for easy access.

Considering their affiliation with the Grand Unity Sect, these two individuals likely possessed valuable items within their interspatial rings.

What an easy grab here.

Even if the interspatial ring could not be taken out, the things inside could be used.

Di Hongyun looked at this junior sister of his.

Fierce.

That was so fierce.

And she was even in the mood to take the interspatial ring.

No wonder she accepted the mission.

Di Hongyun’s animosity towards her had dissipated, and Fu Xinde responded with a smile.

Fu Xinde found her junior sister quite intriguing, and Gu Chaoyan was completely unaware of their thoughts. Nevertheless, she felt content and upbeat.

Indeed, both of them bore the appearance of esteemed disciples from the Grand Unity Sect, evident from the abundance of Spirit Stones and pills within their interspatial rings—far more than the typical disciples’ 500-meter limit.

As Gu Chaoyan examined their belongings, she noticed an array of high-level medicinal pills and array talismans. Moreover, the crystals they possessed were of exceptional quality, small yet exquisite.

Upon finishing her inspection, she noticed Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun observing her with interest..

Chapter 2089: Meeting the Grand Unity Sect 3

She felt a bit embarrassed. She did kill them, but they had helped her before, though it was just a small favor. Also, there was a saying in the martial world that required sharing half of the profits with everyone.

Share half? That was not possible. Gu Chaoyan did not want to part with it because the things inside were so useful. But if she did not offer any, it would seem that she was too greedy, just like the dragonman.

Therefore, Gu Chaoyan smiled at them and then pretended to be magnanimous, saying, “There are not many things inside, so I will take the rest. There are a few bottles of pills, and you happen to be injured, so you can use them directly.” She then gave the pills to them.

She was going to drive them away. Gu Chaoyan did not need pills. She could make her own pills, and she could make whatever she wanted.

Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun turned to Gu Chaoyan and could not help but laugh. Apart from being arrogant and conceited, this junior sister of hers was also greedy. Although these two things did not seem to be good, which contradicted their belief.

But...

They found Gu Chaoyan very adorable. There was no longer any disgust or dislike like before.

“Okay, I will take some pills, and you can keep the rest. We have many things in the inner sect, ” Fu Xinde smiled, accepting the pills graciously.

Di Hongyun had the same idea, but he was too embarrassed to say a thing. After all, he had been so mean before. Gu Chaoyan found it amusing, and her laughter filled the air.

Then she proceeded to bandage their wounds with care, making sure they were well-treated.

After taking care of the corpses of the two disciples from the Grand Unity Sect, they were about to leave. Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun knew well that there were no mutated beasts in this area, so they decided to explore somewhere else.

Grateful for Gu Chaoyan's help, and wanting to take credit for hunting the mutated beasts, they thought it best to bring her along. Gu Chaoyan was already their savior, and they were happy to have her join their quest. "Where are you going, Senior Brothers?" Gu Chaoyan asked with curiosity in her eyes.

"Continue to find the mutated beasts. Junior Sister, don't worry, we will take you with us, and we will give you the credit too," Di Hongyun said as if he were the Elder Brother.

"A mutated beast..." Gu Chaoyan was about to say that she had already killed it. Di Hongyun did not give her a chance to speak. He said directly, "Don't worry, no matter how strong the mutated beasts are, we have many people, and we will definitely be able to catch them. When the mission is completed, it will be your turn."

"Mutated beasts..."

"We are already well-prepared when we are out. We will definitely be able to hunt mutated demon beasts, so we can all complete the mission."

"The mutated beast..."

"Junior Sister, just follow us. We have not seen the mutated beast, nor have we received any signals from others, which means that we have not found it yet.

Let's keep looking."

"The mutated beast..."

"Senior Brother Zhengyang!" Di Hongyun shouted excitedly when he saw Lv Zhengyang and the others.

The others were all here.

The paths in the cave led to the same place, which was where they were now.

“How did you get hurt?”

Chapter 2090 - Meeting the Grand Unity Sect 4

Lv Zhengyang’s concern deepened as he observed the bloodstains on their bodies. Despite not encountering any immediate danger or mutated beasts, the group had sustained injuries and lost their communication signal. This lack of information made him increasingly worried and clueless about their current situation.

Di Hongyun was on the verge of revealing a secret about the disciples of the Grand Unity Sect when Gu Chaoyan quickly silenced him. The realization of his recklessness startled Di Hongyun, causing him to pause and refrain from saying anything further.

To cover up the truth, Fu Xinde explained that they encountered troublesome monsters, resulting in injuries, and they refrained from using the signal since they hadn’t encountered any mutated monsters. Lv Zhengyang chose to trust Fu Xinde’s explanation, but others in the group disagreed. They believed the injuries were sustained while rescuing a damsel in distress and didn’t seem concerned about the truth.

The disagreement continued as some argued to leave Gu Chaoyan behind to avoid being burdened while searching for mutated beasts. However, Di Hongyun insisted that they give her the mission involving mutated beasts without expecting any extra compensation, emphasizing their indebtedness to her for the help she provided earlier.

Amidst the ongoing argument, Gu Chaoyan grew increasingly frustrated with the situation.

Gu Chaoyan had been eager to reveal the secret about the mutated beast, but Di Hongyun intervened, preventing her from doing so. Now, amidst the ongoing argument, she could sense that both Di Hongyun and Fu Xinde were attempting to help her in some way.

However, Gu Chaoyan couldn’t hide the truth any longer. She had already acquired the mutated beast’s remains and had them in her possession. Despite the prolonged arguing, she finally found an opportunity to speak up. Firmly, she stated, “I’ve already killed the mutated beast, and I’m heading home now. If you wish to accompany me, let’s go together. If not, I’ll return to the county alone.”

“Junior Sister, don’t worry, we...” Di Hongyun was about to say something more, when he suddenly came back to himself.

Killed?

The mutated beast was dead?

Well...

When did that happen?

Gu Chaoyan exhibited her intelligence by revealing the mutated beast’s body to her companions briefly before carefully stowing it away, concerned that someone might try to steal it. The creature’s lifeless form confirmed that it was, without a doubt, the corpse of a mutated demon beast.

When the group had initially accepted the mission, it included a mutated demon beast on the list, and it turned out that the one they encountered was precisely that very creature.

She got mutated beasts alone?

She was only a Martial Saint.

They were all in disbelief.

Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun were very surprised too. “When did that happen?”

“We ran into you before we ran into you, so we killed you. We were heading home, but we heard some noise.” Gu Chaoyan explained briefly. “Why didn’t you tell me earlier?” Di Hongyun started to talk.

Gu Chaoyan looked helpless.

She did not know what to say about Di Hongyun's personality.

"You have been stopping me from saying what I wanted to say just now." Gu

Chaoyan countered.

Di Hongyun recalled what happened just now.

As if...

That seemed to be true..