

Divine 2101

Chapter 2101: Mission 4

She was a junior sister who had recently joined the sect.

Despite being new to the sect, she showed remarkable success in dealing with mutated beasts. On the other hand, Lv Zhengyang had extensive experience in teaming up for missions, with an impressive 90% completion rate in the past one or two years.

He had a carefree attitude and often spoke without much concern.

Lv Zhengyang had always been gentle, even when not in a good mood, and no one else could easily discern his true emotions.

Gu Chaoyan led the way, sensing the increasing spiritual energy as they approached the cliff. Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun followed her, with Lv Zhengyang behind them.

As they delved deeper, the intensity of the spiritual energy grew, indicating their proximity to the cliff.

Gu Chaoyan took out a bottle of pills from her space, consumed one herself, and offered some to the others. She explained that these pills could temporarily conceal their auras, preventing discovery. She suggested observing the situation first.

“Junior Sister, you have such a thing?” Di Hongyun, who had been feeling tired, exclaimed enthusiastically.

Gu Chaoyan’s face revealed a sense of helplessness, and she contemplated silencing him. “Please lower your voice. We mustn’t use the pills carelessly. Your loud voice could attract unwanted attention, and the potential loss would outweigh any gain.”

Di Hongyun looked aggrieved.

His voice?

No one had ever said anything about him being loud, so why did his junior sister call him loud?

Fu Xinde chuckled.

Junior Sister's description was very accurate.

Di Hongyun was indeed a very loud person.

However, in the face of his cultivation level, everyone remained silent. Only his Junior Sister, Gu Chaoyan, dared to speak her mind so openly.

Despite not liking the situation, the three of them were in good spirits.

Lv Zhengyang consumed the pill without any change in expression. He wanted to verify for himself if the person ahead was truly a disciple of the Supreme Sect.

As they continued their journey, the group took cover behind a tree to observe the surroundings. They could see a cliff in front of them, but no other individuals were in sight.

Could they have reached the half cliff already? Did they manage to find the Green Sun Grass?

However, this didn't seem to be the case. If they intended to take the Green Sun Grass, they would have done so directly, without wasting so much time at the cliff.

"Let's proceed cautiously," Lv Zhengyang suggested eagerly. He couldn't wait to confirm his suspicions.

Gu Chaoyan carefully surveyed the area. The precipice was quite spacious, but going there directly could expose them to the people below.

Directly using the face-changing pill was an option, but the memory of the mutated beast transforming into a stone pillar made her shiver, causing her to abandon the idea.

“Let’s find a hiding spot,” she suggested.

“We are here to complete the mission, what is the point of hiding?” Lv Zhengyang countered.

Gu Chaoyan furrowed her brow, sensing something amiss in Lv Zhengyang’s reaction, but she decided not to dwell on it.

“Senior Brother Zhengyang, why the sudden arrogance? It’s like you’ve swapped personalities with Junior Sister!” Di Hongyun complained.

“Just shut up.”

“Just shut up.”

Fu Xinde and Gu Chaoyan said in unison..

Chapter 2102: Mission 5

Ever since Gu Chaoyan mentioned Di Hongyun’s loud voice, Fu Xinde couldn’t help but acknowledge that it was indeed quite prominent. Among all the people around, Di Hongyun’s voice stood out and easily caught everyone’s attention. Di Hongyun felt so aggrieved after being lectured by the two of them.

But he argued nothing back.

He did not notice that they were speaking with a low voice, so he spoke directly.

So, he promptly sealed his lips.

The four of them proceeded cautiously toward the cliff, aware of its potential danger.

Initially, they had believed the bottom of the cliff to be an unfathomable abyss. However, upon reaching the edge and peering down, they were relieved to discover that it was not as terrifying as they had imagined.

Instead, they found several ledges scattered along the cliff's surface, breaking the fall. If they descended, they could safely land on one of these ledges. To their delight, they observed a lush green expanse adorning half of the cliff's surface. which seemed to be the perfect habitat for the coveted Green Sun

Grass they sought.

However....

Green Sun Grass grew in different directions.

There were some on one half cliff and some on the other half.

"Let's go there." Gu Chaoyan pointed at a cliff.

There were many trees and rocks in that place. If they were there, they could hide behind the rocks.

"Okay." Fu Xinde answered.

Lv Zhengyang was disappointed.

He had been looking for a suitable place for them to stay, but when he was still observing them, Gu Chaoyan found the best spot and was one step ahead of him.

That made him feel very uncomfortable.

But the feeling was gone.

The moment they landed, Gu Chaoyan told them to be careful.

They had not seen those people at the cliff, but they could see them clearly from this position.

“They are from the Grand Unity Sect.” Fu Xinde said, “And they are all inner sect disciples of the sect.”

Members of the sect donned distinct clothes bearing the sect’s emblem, while the disciples within the sect wore their own unique attire.

Being familiar with the Grand Unity Sect, Fu Xinde explained the situation to the others, shedding light on the current scenario.

Lv Zhengyang found himself slightly taken aback as he hadn’t anticipated that the Grand Unity Sect would be the first to arrive. He realized he had been too careless in his assumptions.

“It’s her!” Gu Chaoyan exclaimed in surprise, recognizing one of the individuals from the Grand Unity Sect. She was the Elder she sensed.

Unexpectedly...

She was already a Paragon Martial Immortal at such a young age.

And she was just a Martial Saint.

If she wanted to take revenge.

She had a long way to go.

Despite the blow, Gu Chaoyan was still very confident.

“You know her too?” Di Hongyun asked curiously.

Gu Chaoyan nodded and shook her head. “Yes, but no.”

“She is the daughter of the Sect Master of the Grand Unity Sect. Her name is Pei Yueling, and she possesses a rare chaotic spiritual root. Not only does she cultivate thousands of times faster than us, but even the obstacles we will encounter to break through are nothing to her; she can overcome them effortlessly. As a result, at the same age as us, she has already comprehended the cultivation of a Paragon. I didn't expect that she is also interested in these Green Sun Grass. If she wants them, we really have nothing to do with them," Fu Xinde candidly stated, presenting the reality of the situation.

The disparity in their cultivation levels was already significant compared to Pei Yueling's, not to mention the numerous inner sect disciples from the Grand Unity Sect accompanying her.

Lv Zhengyang and Di Hongyun nodded in agreement, acknowledging the challenge they faced.

However, Gu Chaoyan's demeanor suddenly turned cold. That woman took Huaijin's life. That woman had to die.

"I don't care about her advantages.. Green Sun Grass must be ours!" Gu

Chaoyan declared firmly.

Chapter 2103: Mission 6

"Junior Sister, please don't act recklessly. You don't have to risk your life for this mission. Even the four of us together can't afford to offend that woman. Let's keep our distance from her or see if there are alternative missions. We don't want to put our lives in jeopardy, nor do we want to provoke such a dangerous individual," Di Hongyun retorted in frustration, trying to reason with Gu Chaoyan.

He was genuinely concerned that Gu Chaoyan's impulsive actions might lead her to confront the formidable woman due to the mutated beast incident. Adding to his worries, Di Hongyun continued, "That woman is just like the other members of the Grand Unity Sect—she's not one to reason with but rather extremely ruthless. If she encounters people from other sects at a higher level, she'd simply seize the treasure and disregard us. But if she encounters fellow sect members or her allies, she won't hesitate to resort to violence. She despises others coveting what belongs to her." Di Hongyun said with a scared look on his face.

He kept shaking his head.

Apparently, he was afraid of her.

Gu Chaoyan clenched her fists.

She couldn't help but recall the image of Huaijin, injured by her own actions, lying alone on Longmai Mountain. Wanting to erase the painful memory, she closed her eyes and tried to push the thoughts away.

Then, in a composed tone, she said, "Didn't you hear what they said? That woman mentioned that the Green Sun Grass is not yet at the most suitable time for harvesting. She doesn't want anyone from the Grand Unity Sect to take any action, just have a few people guard it."

"If she's not around, we might have a chance to take action!"

"We are in a disadvantageous position, unlike those arrogant people from the Grand Unity Sect. We can't afford to be choosy. Getting the Green Sun Grass at any stage is already a significant achievement. We don't need to wait for it to reach its peak."

"We will do it when the woman is gone." Gu Chaoyan said seriously. She had concealed her hatred and returned to her normal self.

Di Hongyun had a very scary look on his face.

Hearing what Gu Chaoyan said, he calmed himself down.

Junior Sister was right.

When the woman was gone, the Grand Unity Sect would stand a chance.

Sure enough...

Soon after Gu Chaoyan finished her words, the woman left with some people on Sword Kinesis Flight.

"See." Gu Chaoyan showed an expression as if she already knew what was going on.

“Junior Sister, you are so considerate. But for you, we would have missed you!” Di Hongyun said with a flattering look.

Gu Chaoyan ignored his flattery.

She pondered her options, well aware that though the woman had left, the inner sect disciples of the Grand Unity Sect were formidable opponents.

Given their small group of four, they had to be cautious not just of the Grand Unity Sect members but also other sects in the vicinity, making the task incredibly challenging.

“I’m not so sure about that. Even if we manage to obtain the Green Sun Grass, the disciples of the Grand Unity Sect will undoubtedly report it to their higher-ups. That woman holds grudges, and if we harm any of them, she will seek revenge and make us pay dearly with our lives,” Lv Zhengyang objected, expressing his concerns.

“Then we won’t let them pass on the message!” Gu Chaoyan asserted determinedly.

She had already laid eyes on the Green Sun Grass and recognized its immense value for alchemy. Using it for alchemy could significantly enhance one’s cultivation in a short period.

If she could obtain it.

She was steadily approaching the level of a Martial God.

She knew that only by reaching the Martial God Realm would she stand a chance to break through to the Paragon Realm.

She wasn’t certain if the Medicine Sect could handle the Green Sun Grass properly, but she believed she could..

Chapter 2104 - Mission 7

Even if she could get rid of the soil and enter her space to water it with the Holy Spirit Water, it would grow better than here.

Therefore...

They had to get the Green Sun Grass.

Gu Chaoyan made a plan inwardly.

“Junior Sister, what should we do?” Di Hongyun asked.

“I don’t know.” Gu Chaoyan said calmly.

Di Hongyun, filled with excitement, found himself at a loss for words. He had assumed his junior sister had a brilliant plan to handle the mutated beasts, but her casual statement dashed his hopes. Although he had thought of a substantial strategy, it appeared that none existed, and her nonchalant response was disheartening.

Fu Xinde chuckled at the situation.

Despite her serious and haughty demeanor, the Junior Sister had a peculiar charm that made their team more intriguing ever since she joined. Somehow, she always managed to leave Di Hongyun feeling helpless.

“There are six disciples from the Extreme Celestial Sect guarding the Green Sun

Grass – three of them are Martial Emperors, and the remaining three are Martial Saints. They are on par with our level of cultivation. It appears that the woman believes the Grand Unity Sect is too perilous to approach, which is why no disciples with higher cultivation levels are stationed here,” Gu Chaoyan analyzed.

Her analysis silenced Di Hongyun, who was on the verge of complaining, prompting him to listen attentively.

“But there are four of us and six of them. If we can’t eliminate them instantly, they will quickly signal the Grand Unity Sect, putting us in grave danger,” Gu Chaoyan warned.

Di Hongyun, who had initially been enthusiastic, suddenly felt drained.

Despite their fatigue, they managed to take care of all six of them in an instant.

It seemed impossible!

Gu Chaoyan still possessed one stream of superpower in her space, which belonged to the Elder of the Grand Unity Sect. If all went smoothly, that particular superpower should be sufficient for their plan.

How could she bring the adversaries together?

Gu Chaoyan glanced at Di Hongyun. So if...

Upon seeing her expression, Di Hongyun's smile froze. "I can't do that. My cultivation isn't strong enough to handle anything like that." "Then, we should avoid provoking them," Gu Chaoyan concluded.

Di Hongyun's face displayed mixed emotions.

From the outset, he had warned that they couldn't afford to offend these individuals, but his Junior Sister hadn't believed him. She was determined to obtain the Green Sun Grass and even claimed to have a way to do it. Now, she echoed the very words he had spoken long ago!

He felt that...

His junior sister was just teasing him!

"Junior Sister, are you mocking me?" Di Hongyun asked directly.

"Let's steal them directly!" Gu Chaoyan said.

"Where?" Di Hongyun inquired, turning to Dao Seeking for guidance.

Gu Chaoyan directed her finger towards the lower half of the cliff, where numerous small cliffs adorned with Green Sun Grass could be seen. However, some of the Green Sun Grass seemed to be missing, and both their team and the disciples from the Grand Unity Sect had overlooked the fact that there were more down there.

“I think you’re right,” Di Hongyun agreed.

With that settled...

Di Hongyun spoke softly, “Let’s head to the half cliff together, and they can take the other half.’

“Okay,” Gu Chaoyan acknowledged and departed.

Di Hongyun suggested that they go to the opposite side.

Once they reached the cliff where Gu Chaoyan stood, Di Hongyun whispered, “Junior Sister, let’s secretly collect some Green Sun Grass and store it in our space. But don’t let anyone else know about it.”

Gu Chaoyan glanced at him and suddenly grasped his intentions..

Chapter 2105 - Mission 8

It was his idea to hide some Green Sun Grass, and that was the only thing he told her.

No wonder he was the only one who came to him for this mission, and when he met Lv Zhengyang and Fu Xinde, they said the same thing.

But...

That was his idea.

However....

As long as she could obtain the Green Sun Grass, Gu Chaoyan didn't want to argue with Di Hongyun about the details.

To secure the Green Sun Grass, they had to uproot it, which took quite some time.

Once the task was accomplished, they exchanged smiles and discreetly made their way back to the Supreme Sect on Sword Kinesis Flight.

During the journey, Di Hongyun couldn't help but express his emotions. "Junior Sister, it's a pleasure working with you. You make completing missions so much easier."

Indeed, by working together, they not only obtained the Green Sun Grass but also earned valuable mission rewards, which were substantial for this particular task.

However....

Di Hongyun could not reveal that he could get the Green Sun Grass.

He smiled stupidly.

Gu Chaoyan chose to ignore Di Hongyun's comment.

Though they hadn't interacted much, Gu Chaoyan had a good sense of Di Hongyun's character — he was a genuine and cheerful person. She trusted him when it came to matters concerning the Green Sun Grass, so she felt no need to explain further.

Today, she had an encounter with that woman.

And now she understood what was going on with her.

She felt even worse.

The woman had the backing of the Grand Unity Sect, and her cultivation level far surpassed Gu Chaoyan's.

Gu Chaoyan couldn't help but ponder when she could seek revenge and wake up Huaijin.

Fully aware of her current predicament, she knew time was of the essence. Gu Chaoyan couldn't afford to waste any moment; she had to enhance her cultivation and obtain the One Origin Grass as soon as possible. Lost in her thoughts, Gu Chaoyan continued contemplating.

Before long, they arrived at the Supreme Sect.

Their next destination was the Bounty Pavilion, where they needed to submit the completed mission.

As they had tackled the mission together, all four of them went to deliver it jointly.

"Completed?" The mission supervisor at the Bounty Pavilion asked incredulously, well aware of the intense competition surrounding the Green Sun Grass.

Numerous sects had their sights set on obtaining it, and the Medicine Sect was no exception. They merely took a chance to see if any of their disciples could succeed, never expecting someone to achieve it.

Moreover, the amount they gathered was considerable.

"This is your reward," the supervisor said, handing over the promised bounty before hurrying off to deliver the Green Sun Grass to the Medicine Sect.

The four of them divided the rewards evenly and swiftly concluded their affairs.

Di Hongyun, in high spirits, suggested, "Shall we go and celebrate?"

"I have something to attend to, so I'm going," Gu Chaoyan replied coldly, showing no interest in the celebration.

"Junior Sister, as a disciple of the Supreme Sect, you need to learn to balance work and leisure," Di Hongyun advised.

Ignoring his words, Gu Chaoyan left without further ado.

Di Hongyun was in the middle of his sentence when he noticed Gu Chaoyan's absence. Seeing she had already left, he decided to abandon his idea of celebration.

"Xinde, Zhengyang, let's head out!" Di Hongyun called out to his companions.

"I have some matters to attend to. I'll go home first," Lv Zhengyang replied solemnly.

"Let's go."

Being a disciple of the Medicine Sect, Fu Xinde had already secured the Green Sun Grass. His priority now was to return to the Medicine Sect and focus on planting it. He had no time to spare for celebrations.

Di Hongyun sighed.

What was wrong with them all?

They were not celebrating such a good thing.

He sighed.

So he went home.

Gu Chaoyan returned to her own room and went into the space to plant the Green Sun Grass..

Chapter 2106 - Too Cold 1

She had invested considerable effort into filling her space with Green Sun Grass, a process that took her quite some time to complete.

Once the planting was finally finished, Gu Chaoyan made the decision to absorb the crystals and pills. This time, the crystals she received were no ordinary ones; they were Qi Cultivation crystals, abundant in potent energy.

With successful cultivation, her goal was to ascend to the level of Martial God.

As she pondered the possibilities, Gu Chaoyan slowly opened her hands, revealing the spiritual roots within.

To her delight, her Spiritual Root not only became much purer but also displayed a unique complexity. Unlike many existing Spiritual Roots with only one attribute remaining, her Spiritual Root had undergone significant nourishment, possibly evolving into a Heaven Spiritual Root.

If Gu Chaoyan possessed a Heaven Spiritual Root, her cultivation speed would undoubtedly accelerate significantly.

Upon her return from Longdi Mountain, Gu Chaoyan was in exceptionally high spirits.

Determined to make the most of her time, she chose to absorb the Spiritual Energy stored within the Spirit Stones before beginning her cultivation. For this particular cultivation session, she knew she wouldn't be able to leave her place for at least half a month, as her focus would be entirely on refining her techniques. The upcoming mission would require ample preparation and dedication, and she was ready to invest the necessary time.

However....

But she did not mind.

She had nothing more to ask for. She just wanted to improve her cultivation as soon as possible.

Gu Chaoyan was just about to absorb the Spirit Stones.

Suddenly, there was a knock on the door.

And she kept knocking on the door without stopping.

Gu Chaoyan frowned.

She opened the door.

Then she saw three familiar faces outside.

It was Lv Zhengyang, Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun.

"I am not taking any missions these days. You can go alone," Gu Chaoyan stated firmly, her tone icy.

As soon as she spoke, Gu Chaoyan shut the door, trying to signal her determination. However, Di Hongyun was not so easily deterred; he positioned himself in front of the door and peeked inside.

"Junior Sister, it's not just any mission. The sect itself assigned this task to us," he clarified earnestly. "The Elder of the sect explained that the disciples who went to Longdi Mountain before us have not returned yet. Since we are back, they are concerned about their safety and want us to go and find them."

Di Hongyun provided a clear and logical explanation for the urgency of the situation.

Listening to his words, Gu Chaoyan's brow furrowed. She had learned from Fu Xinde that there were indeed two groups from the sect that embarked on this mission, one day ahead of them.

They didn't encounter them on the road, and there's been no sign of their return.

"That is the sect's responsibility, and I am not going. I need to focus on my cultivation during this time. After completing my cultivation, I plan to visit the Bounty Pavilion and take on my third mission. You should go now," Gu Chaoyan declared.

"Junior Sister?" Di Hongyun was taken aback by Gu Chaoyan's response. He hadn't expected her to be so dismissive and seemingly uncaring about his concerns or the other disciples' safety. This behavior disappointed him, especially considering how cute she had been recently. He couldn't understand why she was acting this way again, and it hurt him.

Gu Chaoyan continued to frown, fully aware of the limited time she had to progress in her cultivation. While that woman had already achieved the ranks of a Paragon and a Martial Immortal, she couldn't help but wonder about her own progress and potential.

The longer she was here, the more Huaijin would have to lie there alone.

There were so many disciples from Supreme Sect, and this mission was not necessary for her.

That was why she turned him down.

Instead of responding to Di Hongyun, Gu Chaoyan chose to close the door once again.

However, Di Hongyun persisted and barged into the room. He addressed her, "Junior Sister, you can't just turn a blind eye to your fellow disciples like this. You have to go!"

"If you refuse to go, not only will the other disciples criticize you, but the Elders of the Beastmaster Sect might also have doubts about your dedication, "

Di Hongyun asserted..

Chapter 2107 - Too Cold 2

Gu Chaoyan frowned. "I don't have time."

"Junior Sister, are you going or not? If not, I will keep pestering you here." Di Hongyun followed her into the room.

Ignoring him, Gu Chaoyan continued to absorb the Spirit Stones and decided to cultivate.

Di Hongyun made a fuss and refused to leave.

But there was nothing they could do about Gu Chaoyan.

In the end, Di Hongyun threw a look at Gu Chaoyan, feeling really disappointed.

“Let’s go.” Gu Chaoyan said coldly.

Di Hongyun was startled.

He had thought that she would not want to go there.

Unexpectedly, his junior sister was willing to join them.

Junior Sister was not the kind of person she thought she was.

Di Hongyun smiled happily. “Junior Sister, let’s go and find them along the way. I know you are a kind person, and you won’t leave us to die.”

Then, his smile turned into a dumbfounded expression.

“I don’t know what sins I have committed to have met someone like you. Don’t come to me again, we will pretend that we never met,” Gu Chaoyan said.

Di Hongyun was startled.

Nevertheless, she continued to smile.

His junior sister was stubborn but soft-hearted. She was not going to pretend that she did not know him.

At that moment, he decided he would have to be shameless.

Di Hongyun made up his mind.

They continued to walk happily.

The four of them went on their way again.

Fu Xinde found an opportunity to stand next to Gu Chaoyan and asked curiously, “What are you doing here all of a sudden? I thought that you were not coming.”

Fu Xinde understood her personality.

She did not lie about her intention.

But what surprised her was that she allowed Hongyun to do whatever he wanted.

“He is very innocent and trusts me. I want to protect his innocence,” Gu Chaoyan said calmly, “I am not a kind person.”

She was not kind.

That was the case in her previous life.

It was the same after what happened to Huaijin.

Fu Xinde was still smiling as usual.

He chuckled at Gu Chaoyan and ignored what she said. He was emphasizing himself as if he were tolerating a child’s nonsense.

Fu Xinde did not say anything more, and Gu Chaoyan had no intention of saying anything more.

Fu Xinde and Di Hongyun were totally different people.

One never gave up, and the other always knew when to stop.

Gu Chaoyan liked spending time with people like Fu Xinde.

After stopping the conversation, Gu Chaoyan started to look for them wholeheartedly.

To Longdi Mountain, from Supreme Sect to Longdi Mountain, it was the shortest path. They just needed to follow this path. The four of them were separated as well.

They went in different directions to find more.

Apart from finding them herself, Gu Chaoyan also released some paper cranes.

Soon, the paper crane went out, and there was news.

Gu Chaoyan led them forward.

Only now did they see that most of the disciples of the Supreme Sect were injured, and they were being chased by people from other sects.

“It is Moon Sect!” Di Hongyun said angrily, “They are bullying us with numbers! We have no grudge with them!”

Having said the words, he went down.

They decided to seek justice for the disciples of the Supreme Sect.

“Senior Brother!” The disciples of Supreme Sect looked at Di Hongyun as if they had seen their savior..

Chapter 2108 - Disciple Missing 1

Seeing that they were only blocked by the other sects, Gu Chaoyan felt slightly assured.

Once she was done dealing with the Moon Sect, she could finally complete her mission and return home to focus on cultivation.

While contemplating this, Gu Chaoyan descended as well.

Upon witnessing the arrival of helpers from the Supreme Sect, the members of the Moon Sect remained arrogant and displayed no signs of fear. Instead, they chose to confront the representatives from the Supreme Sect.

“So what if your Senior Brother is here? You hurt our disciples first, so you have to answer to us!” The disciple leading the Moon Sect confidently proclaimed to the members of the Supreme Sect.

The people from the Moon Sect accused the Supreme Sect of being the first to hurt others.

Di Hongyun remained composed and refrained from acting impulsively. “What happened?” Lv Zhengyang directed a stern gaze at the disciples, demanding an explanation.

It was puzzling why such an incident occurred without any apparent reason.

As it turned out, the disciples of the Supreme Sect were responsible for initiating the conflict by harming the others first.

The Supreme Sect had a strict rule against causing trouble while outside, especially injuring others. If this accusation was true, the Supreme Sect would have no valid reason for such behavior.

In such situations, an apology from the offending party was expected.

Observing Lv Zhengyang scolding the members of the Supreme Sect, the people from the Moon Sect wore smug smiles and glanced disdainfully at their counterparts. “Your Senior Brother has reprimanded you, so apologize now!”

“It was your people from the Supreme Sect who made the first move. I did not wrong you!” The leader of Moon Sect said.

Seeing the unwavering confidence in Lv Zhengyang's expression, he was almost certain that they were not lying.

"Did you instigate the conflict?" Lv Zhengyang inquired sharply.

The disciples of the Supreme Sect exchanged uncertain glances, unsure of how to respond.

"We did start it, but..." Before the leader of the Supreme Sect's team could finish his sentence, Lv Zhengyang interrupted him. "You started it, so apologize to them. What did our sect's teachings tell you? We should never harm anyone when we are outside."

"Did you hear that? Apologize, kneel down and apologize!" The people from the Moon Sect stated with pride.

The disciples of the Supreme Sect felt unjustly accused.

They did initiate the incident, but they believed they were not entirely in the wrong.

"Kneel down?" Lv Zhengyang sensed that something was amiss. "We are all disciples of the sect; isn't it a bit excessive to ask for kneeling?"

Lv Zhengyang furrowed his brow, expressing his displeasure with the demand for kneeling.

"Hmph, your Supreme Sect started the trouble first, and you think a simple apology is enough? You must kneel down to receive our forgiveness, or we will report this to the sect." The people from the Moon Sect arrogantly declared.

Gu Chaoyan initially hesitated about getting involved further, but ultimately decided to step forward.

"Since it was the Supreme Sect who initiated the confrontation, there must have been some disagreement or argument between the two sides. They wouldn't just act without reason, right? Why did you hurt them?" Gu Chaoyan questioned the disciples.

The inner sect disciples were all dressed in the distinctive attire of the inner sect, while Gu Chaoyan wore the outer sect disciples' clothing.

Even when approached by an outer sect disciple from the Supreme Sect, the disciples nodded and responded, "They provoked Yi Qing first. Yi Qing is a female disciple of the Supreme Sect, and we felt the need to defend her, so we engaged in the altercation."

"I see." Gu Chaoyan turned her gaze towards the people from the Moon Sect..

Chapter 2109 - Disciple Missing 2

She was a disciple of the esteemed Supreme Sect, albeit only as an outer sect member. Her position within the sect was not one to be underestimated, as she had three devoted inner sect disciples under her guidance: Lv Zhengyang, Fu Xinde, and Di Hongyun, who were expected to handle important sect matters.

In this particular situation, it would have been ideal for Lv Zhengyang to step forward and handle things tactfully. However, despite his generally gentle nature, he seemed to have an inherent trust in the people from the Xuan Yue Sect. As a result, he immediately scolded the disciples of the Supreme Sect without giving them a chance to explain their side of the story, demanding an immediate apology.

Gu Chaoyan found it increasingly difficult to witness this unfair treatment and thus decided to inquire about the situation. However, she realized that something was amiss with her question. The disciples of the Supreme Sect seemed genuinely distressed and wronged while admitting the truth, leading Gu Chaoyan to suspect that there might be more to the story.

And indeed, there was a reason behind their actions. Apparently, the disciples had resorted to such behavior because they couldn't tolerate any form of teasing directed at a female disciple of the Supreme Sect. Gu Chaoyan perceived this as a threat to the reputation of their esteemed sect.

Lv Zhengyang's handling of the situation seemed impulsive and arbitrary, as he acted based solely on his intuition. Thankfully, Gu Chaoyan intervened and sought an explanation, preventing the disciples of the Supreme Sect from feeling further unjustly treated. It turned out that the Moon Sect was planning to go to extreme lengths, forcing the disciples of the Supreme Sect to kneel down and apologize, which was far from a favorable outcome.

Upon learning the truth, Lv Zhengyang's expression grew serious. He turned to the disciples, reproaching them, "Why did you not inform us of this earlier?"

The sect consisted of both male and female disciples, although the majority were males. Most disciples were engrossed in their own cultivation, and that was also true for him. However, he was aware that there were exceptions within the sect. Nevertheless, he had never been involved in such matters, and it never occurred to him to consider these possibilities subconsciously.

To his surprise, during the heated argument between the two sects, such a sensitive issue came to light.

Given the situation, it became clear that the Supreme Sect could not afford to apologize. If this information were to spread, it could lead to serious consequences.

He couldn't help but feel frustrated that the disciples involved had not explained the reason earlier. Had they done so, he might not have made the wrong judgment. The thought of such a misunderstanding being made public and facing potential punishment upon returning to the sect was humiliating and unsettling.

Lv Zhengyang's mood was adversely affected by this revelation. As one of the inner sect disciples, he had built up a reputation among his peers.

"Senior Brother Zhengyang, what we were trying to convey earlier was that you didn't give us a chance to explain. You asked us to apologize directly to the members of the Profound Moon Sect," the disciples responded in defense.

Feeling misunderstood and aggrieved, they naturally echoed his sentiments.

But for this Senior Sister, what would they have done in the future?

Lv Zhengyang was just trying to save himself some face, but he was countered directly.

His face sank even more.

For a moment, she was speechless. She had no idea what to say.

“We can talk about our own sects when we are home. Let’s talk about our Supreme Sect and Moon Sect first.” Gu Chaoyan reminded.

The disciples of the Profound Moon Sect did not seem to care, but the disciples of the Supreme Sect started to argue among themselves. That was so ridiculous!

Lv Zhengyang coughed.

The other disciples said nothing more.

“Senior Sister, please help us!” The disciples said..

Chapter 2110: Disciple Missing 3

Since Gu Chaoyan had been personally approached about the matter, she found herself becoming involved with the Moon Sect. However, a minor annoyance bothered her deeply; the inner sect disciples referred to her as “Senior Sister,” which left her feeling rather embarrassed. Nevertheless, that wasn’t the main issue at hand.

As Gu Chaoyan observed the few individuals from the Moon Sect, she addressed them calmly, “My disciples don’t engage in reckless troublemaking. Whenever they act, there’s a valid reason behind it. You’ve already heard why my disciples confronted you. It was because your disciples were involved in some wrongdoing. Now, I demand an explanation for your disciples’ actions of bullying ours.”

Despite the situation, Gu Chaoyan maintained a friendly demeanor. She understood the importance of avoiding unnecessary conflicts between sects. The Supreme Sect and the Grand Unity Sect already had their share of grievances, and she saw no reason to escalate tensions further by adding another enemy in the form of the Moon Sect.

However, there were certain matters that required careful consideration and calculation.

The leader of the Moon Sect’s disciples responded arrogantly, “Bullying your sect’s disciples? It was your disciple who approached us first. This matter has nothing to do with us!”

This statement incensed Yi Lu, who couldn't bear the false accusations any longer. Fueled by anger, she retorted, "You're spewing nonsense! Your disciple instigated the conflict! It's your responsibility!" Her eyes blazed with emotion as she defended herself and her sect.

She had no interest in engaging in shameless behavior; all she wanted was to focus on her cultivation.

"You were the one who approached us," the man leading the group retorted, a lecherous grin on his face. Seeing Yi Qing remain silent, he grew even more arrogant and continued, "You came running here because you saw that we are inner sect disciples of the Mystic Moon Sect..."

Before he could finish his sentence, his face contorted as Yi Qing's fist connected with it, causing him to scream in pain, unable to utter another word. "You struck me!" the Moon Sect man exclaimed, his face swollen and angered.

His fellow sect members were ready to step in, but the disciples from the Wushang Sect were not about to stand idly by, and both sides seemed ready to engage in a fight.

Dismissing the situation calmly, Gu Chaoyan asserted, "Slandering a disciple of my sect warrants only a light punishment." As she gazed at the man's distorted face, disdain flickered in her eyes. "A female disciple from my sect would never be interested in someone from your sect. Do you lack mirrors or are you simply blind? Take a good look at your pig-headed faces! Even the most ordinary women in my Supreme Sect wouldn't find you appealing, let alone Yi Qing. Senior Brother Xinde, Senior Brother Zhengyang, Senior Brother Hongyun, and all these Senior Brothers here are handsome men unlike you. Just look at your troll-like appearance!"

"Hahahaha," Di Hongyun burst into laughter upon hearing Gu Chaoyan's words. "She's right. You can fabricate all the lies you want, but just take a look at yourselves! No female disciple would ever be attracted to you!"

"I don't need a mirror to know that I'm far better-looking than you," Di Hongyun retorted smugly. "Junior Sister Yi Lu would never waste her thoughts on fools like you. You Xuan Yue Sect members must be living in a delusional world."

Before the leader could respond, Gu Chaoyan delivered another resounding slap to his face..