Chapter 761: Busy With

So judging from what this young girl was saying, she was not going to do anything according to their suggestion? And she sounded very confident that she was able to cure dying people

Doctor Wang suddenly became very furious.

He had received a lot of respect from doctors in the capital, but this young girl dared to counter him so boldly leaving him totally humiliated.

Very well. Very well.

Doctor Wang looked at Gu Chaoyan. "So you mean that you are able to cure dying people?"

"Of course." Gu Chaoyan answered peacefully.

Doctor Wang nodded. He did not continue to argue with Gu Chaoyan, but turned to the other doctors as he said confidently, "Since she thinks that we are causing her trouble, then we will wait and see if she is able to cure dying people. If she fails, then we will have to do something about her!"

The other doctors had a discussion among themselves, then they nodded at what Doctor Wang said. They believed that it was a good idea.

Those visiting doctors could just send their patients who they were not able to cure to the Xinlin Clinic.

When that moment came, it would be more than about arguments.

Doctor Wang went away with the gang and silence dominated the Xinlin Clinic again.

As Xiu Jie saw these people going away, he asked worriedly, "What are we going to do, Elder Miss?"

"No worries." Gu Chaoyan answered briefly. She did not attach much importance to these people at all, but Xiu Jie was still very worried.

He did not think that Doctor Wang was a man with integrity. He was a doctor with a terrible look in his eyes and he might use some filthy tricks to win the bet.

Sword One patted Xiu Jie's shoulders seeing his worried look. "Aren't you confident in Elder Miss' medical skills?"

Xiu Jie nodded.

Well He did not have to worry about anything. Elder Miss was a very capable person.

Gu Chaoyan glanced at the clinic, then she nodded in satisfaction.

Xiu jie looked like a tough man, but he was very careful in his tasks.

The Xinlin Clinic wasn't very large in size, but Xiu Jie had very carefully decorated it. They were not specialized in selling medicine, so the Xinlin Clinic looked a bit concise inside, but the Xinlin Clinic set up shelves in the clinic, where some medical books were placed neatly.

That must have been prepared by Xiu Jie for her, when he noticed that she loved reading books.

After the examination, Gu Chaoyan had intended to take a walk around when someone came to the clinic.

Gu Chaoyan was very surprised to see the visitor, who turned out to be Madame Wang!

A look of delight and surprise appeared on her face.

Madame Wang's grandson was the first person she cured, and she had taken good care of her, but Madame Wang barely went outdoors, so they almost never ran into each other. Unexpectedly, she was at the clinic now.

"Madame Wang" Gu Chaoyan went up to greet her politely.

Madame Wang was in a good mood. "Theard that you opened a clinic, so I am here to check up on you. You are selling medical pills, right? Officer Wang has been very busy these days, and he barely has time to take a break, so I would like to buy some medical pills for him to be healthy. I am very assured about your medical skills, so I am very assured about your medical pills too."

Gu Chaoyan was very surprised. Nothing special was going on in the court. So, what kept Officer Wang so busy?

“What is Officer Wang busy with? Gu Chaoyan asked subconsciously..

Chapter 762: Hint

Hearing what Gu Chaoyan asked, Madame Wang showed a very complicated look on her face, but soon it was gone. Then Madame Wang answered with a smile, “No one knows what is going on in the court.” Gu Chaoyan nodded and asked nothing more.

Madame Wang would not reveal anything about what happened in the court, even though she might have some idea about it.

It was her mistake to have asked her about this.

Gu Chaoyan asked Xiu Jie to fetch the medicine. She gave one bottle to Madame Wang and said carefully, “This is for a supplement. If you have time, you can make some other supplementary stuff and cook it with the medical pills. If you don’t have the time for that, just eat them by themselves. You don’t have to eat the pills every single day, one every few days will do. There are 30 pills in the bottle, Madame Wang, so I will give you just one bottle to start with.”

Madame Wang took a sniff of the bottle.

It gave out a very good scent, and she was sure that it was a wonderful bottle of medicine. So she asked her servants to pay for it.

Gu Chaoyan did not turn down the cash. She was following the rules as the owner of a medical clinic.

Anyway... If she had something for the Wang Family, she could just visit them directly.

Madame Wang left for home after the purchase, so Gu Chaoyan saw her off at the door.

‘That Madame Wang was here today and passed on the message did not seem like a simple matter. Madame Wang was experienced enough to be cautious. She would not have mentioned about Officer Wang’s business without a reason.

So... Madame Wang was here for a purpose?

Currently, it was known to the public that the officers were all busy with the selection of new girls, but that was an open thing.

So what was the King busy with, which was not supposed to be revealed?

Gu Chaoyan could not understand. However, since there was no other business going on in the clinic, Gu Chaoyan left with Sword One.

‘They came with the wagon, but Gu Chaoyan suddenly did not feel like taking the wagon. Instead, she decided to take a walk, then she could think the whole thing through.

If Madame Wang was leaking the message on purpose, then it basically meant that Zhou Huaijin and herself were involved. Could it have anything to do with Xunyang?

However, it did not sound like that. If it was related to Xunyang, Madame Wang should have understood that Zhou Huaijin would be totally aware of the whole business.

If it was not related to Xunyang, then it would be about something else, something that was more like the King's private plan that was granted to Officer Wang who was responsible for it. So Madame Wang might be giving her a hint, since she could not possibly say anything.

Gu Chaoyan almost bumped into some passer-by as she was so immersed in the whole thing. Only then did she manage to bring herself back, but... Gu Chaoyan heard some whispering among the crowd.

"Are you sure? Lady Chaoyan's flute called out the phoenix?"

"Someone saw it with their own eyes?"

"What does Lady Chaoyan have as a background? She was able to call out a phoenix, honestly, a phoenix should be..."

'When she heard the sound of discussion as well as what they were talking about, Gu Chaoyan was startled.

Sword One also found the whole thing strange.. She said with a small voice, "Elder Miss?"

Chapter 763: Look

Gu Chaoyan looked at Sword One and showed a serious look on her face too.

There was still a long way to go before they could arrive home, so she pointed at the wagon and said, "Let's take the wagon."

Sword One nodded.

They then got onto the wagon.

Gu Chaoyan was still wearing a very serious look as they were seated in the wagon. What happened at the Spring Hunt was that she attracted the phoenix with her flute and the phoenix stood by her side. However, all those who were present were from the imperial family or ministers in the court, and the King also passed on the order that what happened was never to be revealed.

Unexpectedly, everyone in the capital already heard of the news. Honestly... Someone must have revealed the news on purpose.

No one from Lord Ling's side would have done that, because they wished that no one would hear of this. The same went for the King. However, neither she nor Zhou Huaijin had done anything either. Although she expected to balance the news about Phoenix Girl with the phoenix, she had no intention of making use of the civilians. So who had revealed the story?

'That was a very important question.

Gu Chaoyan massaged her temple, and felt her head ache.

‘There were too many unanswered questions.

Seeing how Elder Miss behaved, Sword One came to give her a massage. “Elder Miss, don’t worry, we from Shadow Door will definitely be able to find a solution.”

Gu Chaoyan nodded slightly and took a nap.

The story of the phoenix went about, and finally, it reached Lord Ling’s Mansion.

Zhou Huailing had a terrible look on his face.

However, it was good that he already got the music.

Zhou Huailing asked his man to bring Gu Ruxue to him.

“This is the music bought from Gu Chaoyan, so Ruxue, hurry up and master it! Nowadays people always talk about how the phoenix lingered by her side, and she is going to steal your show! You have to master the music as soon as possible, so that you can bring the phoenix to your side and make the whole thing pass!” Zhou Huailing stressed.

Gu Ruxue pressed the flute with force. She was so angry that her face was twisted. Damn Gu Chaoyan, that horrible bi*ch!

She called herself the lineal daughter since childhood and now she was bringing endless trouble for her! She was going to teach her a lesson!

She took the music, then she read through the paper.

“Twill learn it right now,” Gu Ruxue said.

Zhou Huailing nodded, but he was still not very happy despite what Gu Ruxue said. He would be very troubled, until Gu Ruxue was able to bring the phoenix to her side for real.

At this moment, Xuan Lin arrived.

Zhou Huailing asked Gu Ruxue to learn the music by herself. He needed to visit Xuan Lin.

‘The moment he met Xuan Lin, Zhou Huailing said straightforwardly, “Prince of North Qi, I asked you to join me because I would like to ask if you can sell the magical monsters to me privately. I can try my best to satisfy your conditions.”

Those magical monsters were wonderful things. He believed that he could form an army out of it.

“No.” Xuan Lin answered with a brief smile.

He could not sell the magical monsters just to let him deal with them. Xuan Lin was not stupid. He might be a bit impulsive every now and then, yet it was never over the top.

Zhou Huailing’s expression sank. He was about to narrate his conditions for the deal, when a sound of noise arose from outside.

His pageboy was crying outside.. “Lord, come out and see!”

Chapter 764: Phoenix Out!

Translator: Henyee Translations Editor: Henyee Translations

The pageboy had been extremely surprised and anxious so that he almost forgot about knocking and passing on the message first. He already started to shout loudly at the doorstep, but things became chaotic too at Lord Ling's Mansion because of what they had seen.

Zhou Huailing had been focusing upon discussing the deal of the magical monsters with Xuan Lin, when he heard the pageboy. He rushed out, wondering what was happening.

He gave the pageboy a kick and glared at him furiously. "Where are your manners! You are at Lord Ling's Mansion!"

The pageboy looked very wronged. He behaved like that only because the mansion had become chaotic. However, hearing how Lord Ling scolded him, he did not dare to say a thing. He pointed to the sky timidly.

Zhou Huailing subconsciously looked into the direction and gasped.

That was... that was a very beautiful phoenix bathed in the golden glim of the sun! The phoenix was spinning somewhere close to the mansion, and when Zhou Huailing looked there from where he was standing, he could hear the catchy sound of the phoenix as well as the wonderful sound from the flute. The sky happened to look blue at the moment, and he believed that was the most beautiful scene he had ever seen.

As far as he remembered, that was exactly where Ruxue was practicing the flute. So it must be Ruxue's song that had attracted the phoenix!

Zhou Huailing, who had been surprised, had now become extremely delighted. He lost his fury and stopped blaming the pageboy. Instead, he looked at the scene excitedly. "Look, that is the phoenix!" Having said these words, he looked at the pageboy who had been kicked away. "When did this happen?"

"Just a moment ago, I called you because I saw that!" The pageboy answered politely, fearing that he would say something wrong by mistake.

"You get a bonus!" Zhou Huailing said happily.

He continued to look in the direction where the phoenix was soaring.

Next to him stood Xuan Lin, who had found the whole thing incredible. He had underestimated the Saint Divine Land, and should have known that the reason why the Saint Divine Land became a superpower was because they had the right to be one. For example, Magical Monsters existed in the North Qi Land, and they were controlled because of the drug made by the Imperial Master.

However, the phoenix in the Saint Divine Land was different. It came when the flute was played. He had seen such a scene at the pitch of Spring Hunt not too long ago. Unexpectedly, he had the chance to witness the same thing once again.

Lord Huai was a tough man to deal with. He always turned him down when he tried to make a deal with him, and Lord Huai did not seem to have any interest. On the other hand, Xuan Lin felt that he could make a deal with Lord Ling, After all, he was able to bring the phoenix out too!

At that moment, the sound of the flute not farway ceased. The moment the sound of the flute ceased, the phoenix left.

However, even though the sound ceased, Zhou Huailing was still not anxious. He was assured now.

Xuan Lin patted Zhou Huailing's shoulders. "Lord Ling, I believe that you can make any deal with me, anything will do."

Zhou Huailing threw a look at Xuan Lin, looking very satisfied.

That was a very well spent 1 million yuan. He could tell that Xuan Lin had already had a very obvious change in attitude with him after seeing the phoenix, but

He was not going to embarrass Xuan Lin because of this small conflict. He needed to get the magical monsters too. He and Xuan Lin should have a very good talk with each other.

"Prince, what is your plan?" Zhou Huailing asked straightforwardly, after he asked Xuan Lin to take a seat in the room..

Chapter 765: The Deal

Hearing what Zhou Huailing said, Xuan Lin, who had been a bit worried, was now assured.

Lord Ling asked him about that, only because he was very interested. Then the possibility of reaching a deal was very high, and the only thing he needed to do was to make a big payment.

However, Xuan Lin believed that it was all worthwhile.

Xuan Lin sipped some tea and said calmly, "Lord Ling, you are interested in our magical monsters, then I can offer you some, but I also have my condition. I need to know how to bring the phoenix to my side."

The reason why Xuan Lin asked for the method instead of for the phoenix, was because he had made an observation.

On the pitch of Spring Hunt, Lady Chaoyan played the flute and then the phoenix arrived. And today, he witnessed the same scene when he saw the phoenix.

It was a problem whether or not he could get a phoenix, and he could not just cage the phoenix. So if that was the case, all he needed was what drew out the phoenix. And with that in hand, he might be able to get more phoenix. That was what Xuan Lin was thinking.

Having said what he required, he looked at Zhou Huailing.

Zhou Huailing had a very twisted expression on his face.

Xuan Lin changed his mind, only because of the phoenix. He could probably make the deal, but it was Gu Chaoyan rather than Gu Ruxue who brought out the phoenix, so the phoenix did not seem that precious after all.

So since the phoenix was no longer that precious at the moment, Zhou Huailing believed that he was making a very reasonable deal to ask for something practical. Something like magical monsters.

Zhou Huailing nodded. "Fine, but I want ten magical monsters if I offer you the method."

He got twice more than what his father asked for.

Zhou Huailing was worried that Xuan Lin would disapprove of the proposal, but he had to get ten.

He already had two for this mansion, but because of the Spring Hunt that had taken place, they chose the magical monsters that were for riding. What he needed was ten magical monsters which were not just for riding, but which were powerful enough to defeat soldiers led by General Liu. That would be great.

He sneaked a look at Xuan Lin.

Xuan Lin had no expression on his face, but he seemed to be weighing the deal too.

He clenched his hands. He had to stabilize himself. Ten magical monsters, just ten!

A short while later

Xuan Lin nodded. "Deal."

Zhou Huailing let out a sigh of relief.

Good that he said yes. He had been worried that Xuan Lin would not say yes under the current circumstance.

"I'll write a letter home and I will bring the magical monsters to you personally. When I bring the magical monsters here, it will be time for you to give me the music," Xuan Lin said.

Zhou Huailing nodded.

They had come to a compromise.

'When the deal was reached, Xuan Lin did not linger, but returned to North Qi. He had much work to do, and could not waste time idling about.

Zhou Huailing walked him out.

ee

At Gu Ruxue's side.

'When she saw the phoenix, she was both surprised and glad. She did not come back to herself until a while later. She was not worse than Gu Chaoyan! As long as she was able to master the music, she was able to bring the phoenix out! It was just a matter of music, not Gu Chaoyan's own characteristics that brought out the phoenix.

She knew that Gu Chaoyan was never as excellent as she was.

"Ming, come here, I have a job for you to do.."

Chapter 766: Practice

Gu Ruxue looked extremely arrogant. She had been immersed in an air of arrogance.

She had been anxious and furious about what was going to happen today, but after seeing that she was able to bring the phoenix out, she had lost all of her fury and anxiety.

She had thought that a phoenix was a rare thing, but the bird came because of one single song.

Well, Gu Chaoyan did not have to be so proud anyway, right?

She even spread the news so that those civilians would all believe that there was something special about her.

Gu Ruxue laughed disdainfully, then she said, "Ming, make some arrangement, bring those noble ladies to Lord Ling's mansion for some tea. They should come and check out the blooming begonias at Lord Ling's Mansion."

Speaking of begonias

Gu Ruxue had been wearing a very proud expression on her face.

She liked begonias, but the begonias were all removed because of the allergy.

However, after she came to Lord Ling's Mansion, which was big enough for her to open a small garden, where begonias were planted after Lord Ling heard that she loved begonias. So she could just take a look at the begonias when they were blooming, whilst avoiding getting close to the flowers personally.

That was what she was proud of, so she wanted others to have a look at them.

And she was also going to make them see that not only Gu Chaoyan could bring the phoenix out. She could even say that Gu Chaoyan stole the trick from her to be able to call the phoenix.

That was something to be arranged. Gu Ruxue was not in a hurry. She just asked Ming to arrange the banquet.

"Also, you should also spread what happened at Lord Ling's Mansion today, as widely as possible," Gu Ruxue said.

Hearing her words Ming nodded. She showed a very discreet expression on her face. "Princess Consort, don't worry, I will do that now."

Gu Ruxue nodded, put away the flute and nodded as she sat down.

'When Zhou Huailing arrived, he ran into Ming and understood that she was leaving for an errand, so he sat down in front of Gu Ruxue.

He looked very gentle.

Zhou Huailing was always so gentle when he was in a good mood. He looked like a gentleman.

Seeing that Gu Ruxue was eating pastry, he even said in a flattering tone, "If you like pastry so much, I can ask Xie Yan to get a good cook from the South. We don't need to buy pastries any more, The cook can make whatever you want for you."

Gu Ruxue's eyes brightened. She was not that much into pastry.

The Gu Family were not from the capital originally, so they did not care much about pastry, so they did not make efforts in pastry, but she had been to the court before, and those beautiful-looking pastries were offered to the noble people whereas she, as the lady from the Gu Family, just could not have. Therefore, she had always liked those beautiful-looking pastries.

She hoped that one day, she would be able to offer endless pastry. Now she was the Princess Consort and she was able to have anything she wanted either in the court or in the mansion, but Lord's new offer was different.

"Thank you, Lord," Gu Ruxue said as she tugged at Zhou Huailing's sleeves. She looked very pleased and bashful.

Zhou Huailing was glad too. He took hold of Gu Ruxue's hands. "One more thing, I need to borrow your music for something."

"For what?" Gu Ruxue asked cautiously..

Chapter 767: Dying Men

Although Lord Ling bought the music, the music was in Gu Ruxue's hands and she took it as her own. Also, this music had called out the phoenix and so was a very precious thing.

Hearing that the music was going to be used for something else, Gu Ruxue subconsciously had no intention of offering it and became alarmed.

She was in possession of the music, and Zhou Huailing had predicted that would happen, so he tried to sound very seductive. "I have reached a deal with Prince of the North Qi, and he is offering us ten magical monsters for this music."

"Ruxue, it is a great piece of music that calls out the phoenix, but did you even notice that Gu Chaoyan called the phoenix out first, and you second, so a phoenix is not a rare thing anymore, and it won't be very useful. In this case, why not just use it to get ten magical monsters instead."

"Ten magical monsters can be as powerful as a military troop"

"Now the General of Jiayu Pass has already taken my side, but Jiayu Pass is too far away and right now in the capital, Duke North has not taken my side and General Liu may not want to take my side either. If I am going to take the throne in the future, I will have to have an army of my own. Ten magical monsters are the fastest and the surest method."

"Only when I take the throne, will you be able to be the Queen of the whole world. You have to understand what matters more." Zhou Huailing looked at Gu Ruxue.

Gu Ruxue was very displeased, but what Zhou Huailing had said was quite seductive and he was right.

'What they needed to do was to get the biggest profits for themselves.

Gu Ruxue pursed her lips as Zhou Huailing took hold of her hands.

She nodded unwillingly. "Alright, if that is the case, it is okay, but I have asked several noble ladies to our place so that they can see that I can call the phoenix out too. Before that, you aren't allowed to give the music to the prince, but after that, you can."

"Sure." Zhou Huailing agreed sharply.

It would take at least more than ten days before Xuan Lin's magical monsters arrived, and Ruxue's banquet would take place within a few days. So of course that was fine.

Gu Ruxue felt slightly assured.

ee

At Xinlin Clinic.

Doctor Wang was leading the way and came to Xinlin Clinic with several people.

This girl from Xinlin Clinic claimed that she could save dying people. So when he ran into a case at his own clinic today, he took that patient to Xinlin Clinic for her to check out.

As the bustling crowd gathered around, Xiu Jie looked at them. He saw a man covered in blood lying on the stretcher.

That man resembled his case, and was even worse, it seemed. The man was covered with wounds, which were all rotten flesh. He was at the edge of dying.

Doctor Wang said arrogantly, "Where is your visiting doctor? Isn't she only healing dying people? Here is one!"

The family of the patient saw that it was the Xinlin Clinic and rejected it directly.

"Doctor Wang, we are just an ordinary family, we can't afford the payment!" That man shouted and wanted to leave.

Doctor Wang was worried that the family would leave, so he said, "Please let the doctor try, if she succeeds, I can pay the fee, if not, then it is not me to blame."

The family member nodded and looked at Xiu Jie. "Please, heal my brother."

Xiu Jie looked at the man covered in blood. "I will bring my Elder Miss here.."

Chapter 768: Wang Tianren's Plan

Before Xiu Jie went to call his Elder Miss, he fed the injured man a pill. That pill was sold at Xinlin Clinic at the price of 1,000 for one bottle. The medical pills were made of the best material, with a lot of magical water added in. It helped people to heal at the highest speed. Gu Chaoyan had told him to feed any dying person one pill, if someone came.

After Xiu Jie fed the patient the pill, he asked the pageboy to take good care of him before hurrying away to fetch Gu Chaoyan.

'When Doctor Wang saw Xiu Jie leaving

He looked very strange on the face. Xiu Jie fed that man a pill, so the man had no reason to turn down the treatment.

Then Xinlin Clinic must be responsible for the patient.

However, he had checked that badly-injured man himself. He was terribly-injured and his inner organs were all damaged, and even his external injury would not be able to heal.

Since he was so badly injured, Wang Tianren was not able to cure him. Wang Tianren did not think that other doctors would be able to cure that man either, let alone that young girl at Xinlin Clinic.

Wang Tianren smiled brightly. He would very much like to see how that young girl was going to solve the problem.

Wang Tianren had told her not to scam, but she turned him down. Well, people just could not scam so easily in the vast land of the Saint Divine Land. He had already foreseen what would happen to that young girl.

‘When the family member saw that the doctor of Xinlin Clinic had not arrived after such a long while, he said anxiously, “Doctor Wang, the doctor of this clinic has not arrived, could you please help my brother first? He is dying!”

They were all famers. They were not able to afford the fees, so he had planned to not treat his brother, but when Doctor Wang said that he was willing to pay for the high fees.... If that was the case

Then he thought that Doctor Wang was a person that was willing to offer help, thus asking him for help. He hoped that his brother would get well, so that he could help with the farm work in the future. If his brother was disabled, then no one was going to take care of his family.

Well

Doctor Wang glanced at this man and said arrogantly, “We have rules as doctors. Your brother is so badly injured and I am not able to cure him, but the doctor at Xinlin Clinic claims that she is able to cure dying people, that is why I brought you all here. Since Xinlin Clinic has already accepted you, then the doctors from this clinic should be responsible. I don’t know how she is going to conduct the treatment, but I am not touching the patient, what if something unexpected happens?”

Wang Tianren was very displeased.

That man found what Doctor Wang said made sense, but something did not make sense either. He just had no idea what to do.

They were not able to afford any clinic, so he would have left it, but his mother forced him to get his brother treated, and he could not reject her.

Whatever. His mother was going to take responsibility for any failure.

That man fell silent and Xiu Jie arrived with Gu Chaoyan at that moment..

Chapter 769: Bloody Man

Wang Tianren’s heart calmed down.

Gu Chaoyan first of all checked the man that was badly injured. He was extremely injured, but he did not continue to bleed, and his face had become slightly better, so Gu Chaoyan felt a bit relieved.

The medical pills she kept in the store worked well and it quickly healed people.

‘When she made sure that the man was stabilized, Gu Chaoyan came calmly and said coldly, “I only cure dying people, but I need 10,000 yuan as payment, who will cover the fees?”

Wang Tianren noticed that Gu Chaoyan kept mentioning the money instead of starting the treatment, so he stepped out directly. “They can’t pay, but I guarantee that if you are able to cure him, I will cover the fees. However, if you fail, then we are going to have a serious talk with each other.”

Wang Tianren showed a very proud expression on his face. He behaved as if he were definitely going to win the bet against Gu Chaoyan.

Gu Chaoyan did not look at him, but answered coldly, “You will pay right?”

“Yes.” Wang Tianren answered.

Hearing what he said, Gu Chaoyan went to that badly-injured man rather than speaking further, and Wang Tianren had to stop what he was about to say.

Gu Chaoyan did not check that man out. Instead, she said to Xiu Jie. “Carry him into the inner chamber.”

She looked at the pageboy. “Stay here, no one is allowed to come in.”

Having said this, Gu Chaoyan walked into the inner chamber directly.

Wang Tianren was very surprised to see that Gu Chaoyan was about to start the treatment. He subconsciously wanted to follow, but got stopped by the pageboy instead.

Wang Tianren frowned and looked really displeased. He glared at the pageboy. “I am a doctor too, what are you stopping me for? If anything happens, are you going to take responsibility?”

Hearing these words, the pageboy got startled. He was not as tough as he was a minute ago, but he did not move, and still blocked Wang Tianren.

He was paid well here, and did not have much work either. Brother Xiu Jie spoke to him when he came to this place, telling him to do only one thing – obeying orders.

That was what Elder Miss ordered him to do, so he had to obey her.

Wang Tianren got really pissed and shouted, “Are you going to take any responsibility for any accidents?”

Xiu Jie, who had finished the chores in the room, walked out. He heard what Wang Tianren said, so he replied expressionlessly, “It seems that you claimed that we would fail the treatment, and you even say that Xinlin Clinic should be responsible for everyone who is here. So you are not involved with this patient at all. Are you going to take some responsibility?”

Xiu Jie stared at Wang Tianren.

Wang Tianren had a terrible look on his face. He had not expected that what he had babbled was all returned by this man intactly. So he did not dare to take a step forward again.

His purpose was to make sure that an accident happened at Xinlin Clinic, but what if he had to take half of the responsibility?

He was just a bit surprised, but it seemed that the young girl had some knowledge of medicine and what he wanted was to have a look at what was going on.

If that was the case, then he could just leave them alone.

He was going to wait outside the room for the result. He was going to make sure that the clinic was closed and bankrupted.

ee

In the inner chamber.

Gu Chaoyan looked at the man who was covered in blood..

Chapter 770: Impossible!

She did not panic, nor did she start to do anything. Instead, she felt the man's pulse first.

Apart from the terrible external wound, he was badly injured internally as well. However, Xiu Jie fed him some pills at an early stage, so his internal wounds were healing gradually.

Gu Chaoyan thought for a while and fed him nothing more. Instead, she took out a cup of magical water and fed him with it.

The magical water worked really well. His life was stabilized after he finished the first cup, and step by step, his inner wounds started healing.

'When everything was settled, she started to observe the external wounds on the man.

'The wounds were not hurt by a knife or a sharp blade, but by some animals' paws, just like the wounds Xiu Jie got before. However, they turned out to be slightly different. So they were different animals. And obviously this man was injured much worse than Xiu Jie.

Xiu Jie was hurt when he was struggling and escaping. This man was different. He seemed to have been totally helpless and got hurt by that animal little by little. That thing had no intention of eating him or killing him. It had been trying to torment him.

What on earth was it that was so cruel and understood human behaviour?

Gu Chaoyan had been frowning all this time. She remembered when she and Zhou Huaijin had run into a wild boar, and then Xiu Jie who was injured by an ape as well as the giant serpent and now the man in front of them who was injured to such a degree.

Gu Chaoyan was pretty aware that even if the King had done nothing yet, the Saint Divine Land was already in chaos.

It had happened to just a few people right now, but similar cases would occur more and more frequently.

'They would not be able to control the situation, when the cases grew too many.

Gu Chaoyan's expression sank and she sighed. It was not yet time to think about any of this. She had to pay attention to this injured man first.

Xiu Jie had already gotten the clean water ready.

Gu Chaoyan wiped off the blood traces on his body first. Then she put the magical water as well as herbs onto the wounds that were so open that bones could be seen. He was injured on many spots, most of which were on his arms and legs. That thing was obviously very cruel. It tormented the man until his bones were exposed, yet did not kill him directly, and instead kept hurting him in the least fatal areas.

That was indeed a kind of cruel torment!

Gu Chaoyan was still frowning as she was dealing with the wounds.

"Xiu Jie, come inside." Gu Chaoyan sounded calm whilst washing her hands off inside the other basin.

'When Xiu Jie walked in, Gu Chaoyan was in the middle of washing hands. She looked up at Xiu Jie. "Just clean these up, that man is out of danger, but he needs to spend some more time at the clinic."

'When Xiu Jie heard the order, he carried out the stuff.

The whole inner chamber was filled with the smell of blood, since the blood was in the water and on the used clothes.

'When Xiu Jie was done cleaning, the smell of blood got slightly better.

When everything was sorted out, Gu Chaoyan went out of the inner chamber with Xiu Jie.

'The moment Gu Chaoyan came out, she looked at Wang Tianren and said coldly, "He is fine now, Doctor Wang, time to pay the 10,000 yuan."

Wang Tianren, who had been wearing a look of pride, was about to snap at Gu Chaoyan at the sight of her, but when he heard what she said Wang Tianren shouted in disbelief.. "That is impossible!"
