Chapter 1491: The difficult road to finding a wife

"Then how... How did you find me later?" Ru Yu carefully looked at the man who was staring at her. Then, she quickly stood up because she heard the water in the kettle gurgling. The water must have boiled.

"Hey, where are you going?" Lei Zhenyu saw her turn around and walk towards the kitchen. He could not help but stand up and follow her. He quickly reached out to grab her wrist from behind. "where do you want to go?"

"where else can I go?" Ru Yu was really exasperated by him. She pointed at the lid of the pot that was about to pop out from the boiling water. She glared at him and said, "I'm going to turn off the fire. I want to pour you a cup of water. I don't have a water dispenser here. I usually boil water myself to drink."

"Can't I just do these things?" Lei Zhenyu hurriedly took a step forward and immediately reached out to turn off the fire. When he turned around, he saw that she was still following him. He could not help but shout unhappily, "you can just sit on the sofa in the living room. From now on, let me do all these menial tasks. All you need to do is to eat, put on clothes, and stretch out your hand."

Ru Yu stared at him with wide eyes. Alright, wasn't Lei Zhenyu always a gentle and elegant man? How did he suddenly become a hot-tempered man?

She sighed softly. This man had been looking for her for three months. It was not easy for him to find her. He was probably very angry. She should be more obedient and not add more fuel to the fire. Otherwise, the fire would burn even more and eventually burn her.

Lei Zhenyu poured two cups of boiling water and one cup for Ru Yu and himself. The boiling water was still a little hot, so of course it was cold. Seeing that she was lying lazily on the SOFA, he asked nervously, "Ru Yu, do you feel uncomfortable there?"

"No, it's very comfortable," Ru Yu said snappily. "The only discomfort is that you're walking in front of me. If you disappear in front of me, I'll be even more comfortable."

Lei Zhenyu didn't know whether to laugh or cry. He couldn't help but sigh and say, "Ru Yu, I searched for three months before I found you. How could I disappear in front of you? From now on, I'll definitely keep walking in front of you until —"

Lei Zhenyu stopped at this point. Ru Yu was listening attentively. Seeing that he didn't say anything, she couldn't help but ask after a while, "until what? The one who says half a sentence isn't a good child!"

"So the person who sneakily escaped from the hospital's bathroom window is a good child?" Lei Zhenyu immediately scoffed at her words and reminded her that she was the one who was not a good child.

"I was never a good child to begin with. Ru Yu shrugged her shoulders indifferently and glanced at him. "I never said that I wanted to be a good child, did I? Please don't lecture me. I don't like to listen."

Lei Zhenyu saw her saying this and swallowed back his words. Then he went to the Sofa and squeezed her to sit down. He reached out to pull her up from the SOFA and hugged her in his arms He said in a low voice, “ru Yu, there are some things that I know you don’t like to hear. However, I want to tell you that to me, no life is more precious than your life. Therefore, if someone is going to hurt your life and endanger your life, then I don’t care who that person is. I won’t... “.

“What are you going to do?” Ru Yu immediately became nervous She stared at him with wide eyes and said, “Lei Zhenyu, let me tell you. To me, no one’s life is more important than my child’s life. If anyone dares to target my child, I will not spare him. I will fight with him to the death. At worst, we will perish together.”

Chapter 1492: The difficult road to finding a wife

Lei Zhenyu’s heart was bleeding when he heard her words. Ru Yu was such a smart woman. Why couldn’t she be a little more rational She clearly knew how dangerous her pregnancy was to her. Moreover, taking a step back was like taking a step back. Why was she so stubborn? Why was she unwilling to take this step back?

He wanted to persuade her to have an abortion. No, she was already five months pregnant. Even if she had to do it, it would definitely be an induced abortion.

However, he still wanted to get rid of the baby. The baby was like a time bomb in her stomach. Who knew if it would explode one day?

Of course, he knew his own limits. He was sure that he would not be able to convince her. If he could convince her, she would not have escaped in Seoul. If she had listened to everyone’s advice, her stomach would not have gotten so big.

He searched for her in the small town of Heilongjiang for half a month. Finally, he managed to find out that she had gone to Harbin because the attendant and driver of a long-distance bus had seen her.

The attendant said that at that time, she had asked about the train route in Harbin. She reckoned that she had gone to take the train. Therefore, he rushed to the railway station in Harbin without stopping.

To be honest, there were so many people coming and going every day at the railway station. Moreover, he wanted to inquire about the people from one or two months ago. This was simply a fantasy. Moreover, the railway station did not purchase tickets under real names. This was a far cry from searching for people at the airport There was simply no way to find out.

There were so many trains going to various parts of China every day. Who knew which train she had taken? Who knew where her next station was Maybe she only took two stations Maybe she was still in Heilongjiang.

Maybe she just went to the train station to take a walk, or even never came. Of course, it was also possible that she took the furthest train and went to the ends of the earth?

Although she had arrived at Harbin's train station, it was still like looking for a needle in a haystack. Moreover, Lei Zhenyu was Korean, so he was not familiar with the people at the train station. It was impossible for them to use surveillance videos to search for ru Yu.

The key was that even if they used surveillance videos to search for him, it would still be a huge project. Because he could not tell which month, which day, and which time, Che Ru Yu had come to Harbin's railway station. In fact, he was not even sure that Che ru Yu had definitely come to this railway station.

In the end, of course, they could not find him at the railway station because the people at the railway station's surveillance department said that the surveillance videos had to be executed by the public security department. Moreover, it had to be linked to certain cases. For someone like him who had disappeared in Korea.. If they could not even provide evidence that Che ru Yu had come to Harbin, the Public Security Bureau could not even file a case. How could they investigate the surveillance videos?

Lei Zhenyu had stayed in Harbin for more than twenty days in order to find Che ru Yu. He went to the railway station every day, hoping that the Public Security Department at the railway station could pass the procedures to view the surveillance video as soon as possible This was because the people from the Public Security Department had been saying that they had already submitted the procedures and were only waiting for the approval of the higher-ups.

However, before he could wait for the Public Security Department's approval to view the surveillance video, one night, he suddenly saw a blog called "temporary obstetrics and gynecology on the train" on the Internet. At that time, he clicked on it purely out of curiosity.

The blog was written by a nurse student at school. She described how she delivered an elderly woman on the train in a temporary obstetrics and gynecology department, which consisted of a veterinarian and emergency doctors on the train.

Chapter 1493 the difficult road to finding a wife

The little girl's blog was very affectionate and touching. It not only wrote about her first time on the train to participate in rescue work and nervous fluster, but also wrote about the value of life and veterinary due diligence.

Of course, she also wrote about the enthusiasm of the passengers on the train, care, solidarity, and so on. Finally, she wrote about the mother and her husband after getting off the train she was lucky to be invited to a hard-seat sleeper by the conductor for free.

In the last few sentences, she wrote about a sister named little feather who got out of bed across from her. She said that the sister was very good. She had been helping them shout when they were in the temporary obstetrics and gynecology department. She had been handing them things like this and that She had also donated the new towels, cotton clothes, and new towels that she had bought herself.

In the last sentence, she wrote affectionately: little feather sister, you said that you were pregnant too. You said that you were also a special pregnant woman. You said that you would definitely overcome your illness and give birth to the child!

Little feather sister, after experiencing this incident on the train, I have matured a lot. I am also very touched. Now that I have returned to school, I will continue to study. I will tell my classmates and teachers about the incident on the train. I will tell them about the veterinarian uncle I will tell them about your determination. The teachers and students we use will pray that God will bless you and your mother's life to be smooth and bless you and your son to be safe!"!

In this blog, there were only three places mentioned about little feather. However, Lei Zhenyu's heart was beating fast. He did not know why, but he had a feeling That the little feather mentioned in this blog post was very likely his wife, ru Yu.

Therefore, he immediately left a message to the author of this blog, saying that he was a man looking for his wife, and his wife's nickname was little feather He wondered if she could accurately describe to him what the little feather sister on the train looked like?

Lei Zhenyu's message was only replied to a week later. The nurse girl described to him the appearance and height of the little feather sister on the train, and finally asked if he had a photo. If he did, he could send one to her to confirm Because she was busy delivering the baby at that time, she forgot to take a photo of the sister. In fact, the sister was very beautiful, and she also liked that sister very much.

Therefore, Lei Zhenyu sent a photo of Ru Yu. This time, he received a reply that night. The nurse student at school told him with certainty The little feather sister she saw looked exactly like his wife, ru Yu. She should be the one she met.

Lei Zhenyu quickly asked her if she knew where little feather got off the train. The nurse at school told him that she got off the train in Xiamen. Because she was also going back to school in Xiamen at that time, she walked out of the train station with her.

Of course, the school nurse only knew so much. As for where little feather went after they broke up at the train station, she didn't know. After all, they didn't leave each other a phone number, and they went their separate ways after they walked out of the station.

Lei Zhenyu thanked the school nurse again and again for the name. He said that he was very satisfied when he knew that she had arrived in Xiamen. He would slowly search for the rest. After all, Xiamen was not a big city. He believed that he would definitely be able to find her.

He immediately flew to Xiamen from Harbin. First, he went to all the major hotels to find the hotel where ru Yu stayed. Because he thought that she had to find a place to stay in Xiamen, right As for hotel rooms, they had to be registered, so it was easy to find her information.

Chapter 1494: Who can convince who

However, after a week, he had checked all the major hotels and hotels in Xiamen, and there was no information about ru Yu. He was almost stunned.

Later, in the phone call with Che Qixuan, Che Qixuan faintly reminded him that ru yu would rent a room as soon as she arrived in Xiamen Perhaps, she had never stayed in a hotel or hotel?

It was really a sentence that woke him up from his dream. Lei Zhenyu immediately went to look for an intermediary company, thinking that no matter what, he should still look for an intermediary to rent a room?

This time, he finally did not use much more time. It only took him three short days to finally find her tracks in an agency. Under his strong and even threatening request, the agency finally told him that.. Che Ru Yu was staying in this apartment building near the hospital.

Huang Tian was not convinced by someone with a heart. He finally spent a lot of effort to find her. However, she refused to talk to him properly. Once he mentioned the child in her belly, she would be anxious with him. She was not rational at all.

Ru Yu was indeed irrational. She was bent on giving birth to this child. She thought that any mother who loved her child would not be rational when faced with such a situation. Moreover, she loved this child very, very much.

However, she could not explain these words clearly to Lei Zhenyu. Lei Zhenyu was a man who was stubborn. He only listened to the doctor now. The doctor said that she could not give birth, so he firmly refused to let her give birth.

“Ru Yu, you have to be obedient.” Lei Zhenyu hugged her in his arms and said gently to her, “you are already 28 years old. You can’t always be so willful. There are some things that you can not do as you wish, and it is not something that you can do as long as you persevere.”

Ru Yu only felt uncomfortable. She knew that it was not possible to persevere, and not all perseverance could succeed!

But the key was that she knew that it might not necessarily succeed, but she was unwilling to give up. After all, the child was already more than five months old. How cruel was it to give up?

Hence, she held Lei Zhenyu’s hand She called out coquettishly, “Lei Zhenyu, I’m hungry. I just bought dumplings, meat, and LEEKS. Can you help me make some dumplings for me to eat first? Can we discuss other things tomorrow? It’s already evening today.”

Lei Zhenyu wanted to persuade her, but when he looked up, he found that the clock on the wall was already past six in the afternoon. Well, at this time, it was indeed time to prepare dinner. Moreover, the one at home was pregnant and had two bodies.

So he nodded, stood up, and walked to the kitchen. It was so late today. It was impossible for him to get her to abort the child. It was better to wait for tomorrow. He would take her to the hospital tomorrow.

The dumplings that ru Yu bought were very thin. They were actually wonton skins. The meat was thin and weak, and the leeks were still very fresh. He immediately rolled up his sleeves and started to wash and cut them.

Ru Yu Lay on the sofa in the living room and read a book because she was afraid of the radiation. She rarely watched TV, but she couldn’t really read today’s book. The sound of meat being chopped came from the kitchen.

She knew what he was thinking. It was nothing more than how to kill the child in her stomach, and she definitely wouldn't give him such a chance.

However, now that he had found her, it was impossible for her to escape again. He definitely wouldn't give her such a chance.

Since she couldn't escape, then the only thing left to do was to think of a way to convince Lei Zhenyu to stand on the same side as her to welcome the arrival of this child.

However, how could she convince Lei Zhenyu This was indeed a huge project!

Chapter 1495 edible pregnant women

Lei Zhenyu's dumplings were not very beautiful. In fact, they did not look very good. However, there was quite a lot of meat stuffing in them, so when he took a bite, it was all meat and vegetables. There was also a lot of juice, so it was very fragrant.

A large plate of dumplings was almost all eaten by ru Yu. She had two bodies now, and she was especially good at eating. So after eating the dumplings, she went to get a fruit knife to peel the apple. After the meal, she ate fruit to help digest and absorb.

Lei Zhenyu saw that she was holding a shiny fruit knife in her hand. He quickly sat down without eating the dumplings. He took the apple and fruit knife from her hand and quickly peeled the apple for her.

The apple that ru Yu bought was very big. Lei Zhenyu was still wondering if she could finish it all by herself and if he should share some with her. In the end, she took it over and finished the apple in a few minutes. She didn't even leave him a little bit.

After eating the apple, ru Yu stood up and moved around in the living room. Then she went to get some yogurt. Lei Zhenyu was scared by her appetite, but he didn't dare to say anything.

When he came out of the kitchen, ru Yu was ready to go downstairs for a walk. Seeing that she was wearing loose maternity clothes and that her belly was already protruding, Lei Zhenyu walked over carefully.

He squatted down in front of her and touched her protruding belly with his hand He said carefully, "Ru Yu, I know what you're thinking and I understand your feelings. However, ru Yu, there are some things you can't take risks, especially blindly taking risks..."

Ru Yu's good mood after drinking the yogurt was instantly ruined when she heard this. The smile on her face instantly became righteous Hence, she glared at Lei Zhenyu coldly and said, "Lei Zhenyu, I've said it before. My head can be cut off and blood can flow. It's impossible for me to give up the child in my belly unless you kill me first."

"Ru Yu, how can I let you die?" Lei Zhenyu's voice was trembling when he said the word 'death' . He said in a low voice, "Ru Yu, listen to me. I just want to..."

"Don't think about anything." Ru Yu glared at him coldly and placed her hands on her waist With an overbearing manner, she said, "Lei Zhenyu, let me tell you. If you go through so much trouble to find me, your goal is to let me kill the child in my stomach. Then, I'll go to the kitchen to get a kitchen knife and chop you to death right now. You heartless man, this heartless man. The tiger is vicious and eats its own child. Don't tell me you want to compete with the tiger? "

Lei Zhenyu was indeed frightened by ru Yu's shrew look. He looked at the woman who had her hands on her hips and was ready to fight with him at any moment. Finally, he gave in and sighed.

Lei Zhenyu was once a lawyer. He had always thought that his eloquence was very good and that it was easy to convince someone. However, he did not expect that it would be so difficult to convince his wife.

Of course, he could not convince ru Yu, and ru Yu could not convince him either. Therefore, he took the initiative to stay and watch over her. In fact, he was mainly worried that ru Yu's brain would fall asleep and the little bean would wake up one day.

However, ru Yu didn't like how powerful he was. In fact, she had been thinking about chasing him away. However, after thinking about it carefully, Lei Zhenyu probably wouldn't be able to chase him away easily. Moreover, even if she chased him away at the last minute, it wouldn't be convenient for her to escape now. Moreover.. Where would she escape to?

Chapter 1496: Nothing is more important than you

Lei Zhenyu did not leave when he came. She rented a room and a living room, but ru yu did not allow him to stay in the room. Instead, he slept on the floor and slept on the living room floor every night. This frightened ru Yu.

On the third night, after dinner, the two of them went downstairs for a walk in the small garden Ru Yu racked her brain for a long time before she finally asked, "Um, Zhenyu, don't you need to manage the Lei family in Seoul, Korea? Aren't you afraid that the Lei family will go bankrupt if you stay here all day? "

"So what if they go bankrupt? How is the company more important than you? " Lei Zhenyu held her hand and stared at her deeply He said earnestly, "Ru Yu, to me, there is no one and nothing in this world that is more important than you. Really, what is the Lei family? What is the child... "

"Shut up with me. If you say any more, I will seal your mouth with tape! " Ru Yu immediately interrupted him Then, she put her hands on her hips and glared at him angrily. "Yes, the child is nothing I think what you mean by 'nothing' is that my child is nothing, right Do you want Song Yuxi's child You keep persuading me to have an abortion, but your goal is still to have that child of hers, right?"

Lei Zhenyu did not know whether to laugh or cry when he heard her words. He could not help but let out a long sigh Then, he said a little angrily, "Ru Yu, Song Yuxi's child was aborted at the hospital by herself. As for whether that child is mine or not, there's no way to determine. In short, that child no longer exists. "

"Oh, that child is no longer there? " Ru Yu deliberately sighed in surprise. Then she looked at him and said, "then do you feel very regretful now? If I had known earlier... "

"I can't be bothered with you." Lei Zhenyu was so angry that his face turned green. He pulled her hand and walked towards the apartment. He said in a muffled voice, "we're going home. We're obviously talking, but it's like an argument. We might as well not talk."

"were you talking to me just now?" Ru Yu widened her eyes and looked at the man who was holding her hand. She asked in puzzlement, "Lei Zhenyu, do you know the meaning of the word 'talk'?"

Lei Zhenyu rolled his eyes at her and directly ignored her question that had no nutrition. He just held her hand and slowly walked towards the apartment she rented with her.

"Oh right, Lei Zhenyu, tell me, what method did you use to find me?" Ru Yu went back to lie on the SOFA. Lei Zhenyu was cutting cantaloupes and giving them to her with a toothpick.

Lei Zhenyu had been here for three days. He was in front of her every day, but she only cared about getting angry with him and actually forgot about it. In fact, she had long thought that it would not be easy for him to find her. After all.. Her escape this time was so 'successful'.

She felt that she seemed to have become stupid recently. Her reaction was always a little slow. She did not know if it was caused by the small bean in her stomach or the small bean in her brain. In short.. It was only after Lei Zhenyu had been here for three days that she thought of asking him this question.

"I used..." Lei Zhenyu stopped after saying three words. Then, he rolled his eyes at her and said snappily, "why should I tell you? If I tell you, wouldn't you be planning to escape again?"

Ru Yu was stunned when she heard this. Then, she stuffed a mouthful of cantaloupe into her mouth and chewed it fiercely. It was fine if she didn't tell her. Anyway, she didn't plan to escape again.

Chapter 1497: A man willing to sleep on the floor

Besides, even if she really wanted to escape again, she definitely wouldn't use the same method as before. If she used the same method twice, even if she was slow now, she wouldn't be stupid, right?

After eating the cantaloupe, she went to the bathroom to wash up and walked to the bedroom with her stomach puffed out. When she saw the two pillows on the bed, she couldn't help but shout angrily, "Lei Zhenyu, what do you mean by this? Didn't I tell you to sleep on the floor?"

"The floor is too hard," he said as if he was trying to please her. Then, he smiled and said, "besides, honey, I haven't slept next to you for months. Just let me suffer a little."

"It's okay to sleep next to me." Ru Yu nodded seriously. Lei Zhenyu did not have the time to laugh. Then, he heard her say, "but, let me get this straight. If you want to sleep next to me, you have to sleep next to my child because the child is in my stomach. You have accepted this child. If you dare to say anything about me sleeping next to you..."

"okay, okay, okay. I'll sleep on the floor." Lei Zhenyu quickly picked up the pillow and quilt and walked out of the bedroom before she finished her sentence. He did not want to compromise with her just because he wanted to sleep next to her.

Moreover, her bed was not big enough. It was 1.5 meters. Initially, it was enough for two people to sleep together. However, she was a pregnant woman. If she slept with three people at once, he was really worried that he would not be able to control himself if he slept next to her. That would be... ..

Ru Yu did not know how Lei Zhenyu found her. However, since he did not say anything, she was too lazy to continue asking. Fortunately, Lei Zhenyu had been here for a week in the blink of an eye. Her parents did not rush over either. She could not help but feel relieved in her heart.

She could deal with Lei Zhenyu alone, but if she had to deal with a group of people at the same time, it would probably be a little difficult. Moreover, she might not be able to handle it.

Today was the day for her prenatal checkup. Because she was a special pregnant woman, five months later, the obstetrician and gynaecologist asked her to have a prenatal checkup every half a month.

In the morning, Lei Zhenyu gave her a fried bun and freshly ground soy milk. She bit the Fried Bun in her mouth and drank a mouthful of soy milk. Then, she said with a Lisp, "Zhenyu, I'm going to have a prenatal checkup today. Come with me, so that I won't be criticized every time I have a prenatal checkup. They will say behind my back that my child doesn't have a father."

"Who's criticizing you? Who said that your child doesn't have a father?" Lei Zhenyu raised his thick eyebrows when he heard this. His face darkened as he looked at Ru Yu. "WHO said that?"

"Who says that?" Ru Yu rolled her eyes at him. She couldn't be bothered with him. "Other people go to the prenatal checkup with their husbands. I'm the only one who goes alone every time. I've become a unique sight in the waiting room. How can people not talk about me behind my back?"

Lei Zhenyu didn't say a word when he heard this. He had never accompanied anyone to the obstetrics and gynecology department, let alone to the prenatal checkup. Therefore, he listened to what Ru Yu said. He couldn't comment on things that he didn't know.

Ru Yu's apartment was next to this general hospital. An ordinary person would arrive within five to six minutes. However, Ru Yu was pregnant, so she walked a little slower. It only took her about ten minutes.

There were always many people waiting for a checkup in the obstetrics and gynecology department. Ru Yu was already experienced and was close to the hospital. Therefore, when she arrived, there were only two to three people in front of her. However, while she was waiting, there were many people behind her.

Chapter 1498 the sorrow of Koreans in China

There were a lot of people who had gone for a Prenatal check-up on the same day as her. Some of them had met her before. This time, when they saw her bringing a handsome man for a prenatal check-up, they could not help but ask, "is this your husband? Why does he look like a Korean?"

Ru Yu laughed and said softly, "what do you mean he looks like a Korean? He's a Korean himself."

"Ah, you married a Korean?"

"How do you know a handsome Korean?"

“Oh right, it’s said that Koreans only eat Kimchi and not pork. Did your husband ask you to do the same?”

“By the way, have you ever been to Korea? Is the pork there especially expensive?”

“I heard that ribs are cheap there, and even bones are cheap. I’m really envious. Our bones are more expensive than meat, but their meat is more expensive than bones.”

Ru Yu patiently explained to everyone, “Koreans eat Kimchi as a habit. They have to have Kimchi for all three meals. In fact, Kimchi is not the main dish. It’s just like how southerners in China must have vegetables on the table. It’s also not the main dish. It’s just that they don’t feel like there’s anything missing without that dish.”

“Korean pork is expensive. It’s not that Koreans don’t like to eat pork bones, it’s just that the way Koreans eat pork is different from us. We like to stir-fry it and eat it, but they like to roast it and eat it. As for barbecued meat, it’s not realistic to eat it after the bones are roasted.”

“As for how I met Korean handsome guys, it’s actually very simple. That’s because I’m also Korean. I’ve lived in Korea since I was young.”

As soon as ru Yu finished speaking, the pregnant women around her immediately exclaimed in unison. So she was Korean No wonder she’s so beautiful Your nose and eyes are plastic surgery, right And that mouth and chin, why are they so beautiful Is it fake?

Although these people didn’t say these words in front of Ru Yu, the look in their eyes was enough to reveal it.

Alright, ru Yu could only sigh in resignation. She didn’t think that saying she was Korean would actually cause people to doubt her appearance. This was probably due to the fact that the Korean plastic surgery industry was too developed, right?

It was a fact that Korean women loved plastic surgery, but she had never gone anywhere to get it, okay If she had to say that she had undergone plastic surgery, it was probably the braces that she had worn for two years when she was young. It hurt like hell.

Lei Zhenyu sat at the side and looked at ru Yu’s embarrassed face. He was a little speechless at the group of women just now. Seriously, he had envied her for marrying a Korean in the beginning. Later, when he found out that she was also a Korean, he suspected that her face was fake. What kind of people were these?

Ru Yu did not bother with these people. Instead, she was in a good mood. After all, she did not come for a prenatal examination alone today. Compared to the envious, jealous, and suspicious gazes from others.. She felt much better than the gazes that questioned the origins of the child in her stomach.

The women who came here for the prenatal checkup usually had their husbands accompanying them when their bellies were big. As long as they had their husbands accompanying them, the smile on their faces would be brighter.

Ru Yu came very early and it was her turn very soon. Today’s checkup was relatively simple. As she was 22 weeks pregnant, the main task was to perform a three-dimensional color doppler ultrasound, which was recommended by every pregnant woman. Of course, there were also some pregnant women who felt that the color doppler ultrasound was too expensive to marry, so they chose not to do it. However, ru Yu chose to do it. The price of a few hundred yuan was nothing to her.

The family members of the 3D color doppler ultrasound could accompany them to the hospital. At the same time, the hospital also provided a more considerate service, which was to help record the movements of the baby in the stomach into a CD and bring it back.

Chapter 1499: face-to-face with the Child

This was Lei Zhenyu's first time accompanying ru Yu for a prenatal checkup. Of course, he was also dragged into the ultrasound room by ru Yu. He only felt that his palms were sweating. To be honest, he was even more nervous than ru Yu.

The doctor who helped ru Yu with the ultrasound was a female doctor in her forties. She was obviously at the level of a mother, so her attitude and temper toward pregnant women were especially good. She had an amiable look on her face.

There was a large display screen hanging in the three-dimensional ultrasound room. This was specially provided for the pregnant women and their families because the doctor himself was looking at the small display screen on her work table.

The child at 22 weeks had already taken shape. The child's appearance could be seen on the large screen. The doctor used the mouse to point at every part of the child. Then, he introduced softly, "this is the child's head, this is the child's eyes, this is the ear, nose, mouth, Chin, hands, and feet. The child is very naughty. His hands are playing with the umbilical cord..."

"The child's overall grandfather is fine from what we saw today." The doctor smiled and said to ru Yu and Lei Zhenyu. Then, he continued, "now, let's listen to the child's heartbeat."

As soon as Doctor Cai Chao finished speaking, he turned on the Stereo. Then, the sound of the child's heartbeat could be heard. It was like the sound of a horse's hooves running on the prairie, striking straight at a person's heart.

Ever since the child's shape was displayed on the big screen, Lei Zhenyu seemed to be completely dumbfounded. He stared blankly at the big screen without blinking, as if he was afraid that if he blinked, he wouldn't be able to see anything.

Especially the child's heartbeat. It was so strong that it hit the softest part of her heart directly. He only felt that his strong heart was disintegrating bit by bit.

Ru Yu looked at Lei Zhenyu's silly look and could not help but feel happy in her heart. It seemed that this trick was very effective. Let him see the child personally, let him know the child's real existence, let the child face him face to face.. This was even more effective than the logic that she had told him a hundred times.

Actually, three months ago, she had done an ultrasound. At that time, the child had already taken human form. She had also seen it under the guidance of the ultrasound doctor. However, the feeling was indeed different from this time's three-dimensional ultrasound.

When the ultrasound ended, Lei Zhenyu was still staring at the screen in a daze. The ultrasound doctor said that he had already helped them burn the CD and had them bring it back. They could look at it on the computer however they wanted, and he even asked them to keep it well. He said that he could also show it to the child when he was older in the future.

Lei Zhenyu mechanically took the CD that the ultrasound doctor handed to him. It was a CD that recorded the life scenes of his child in his mother's womb. After he took it, he immediately held it in his hand carefully as if it was a treasure. For a moment, he forgot to put it in his bag.

Ru Yu looked at his silly look and could not help but laugh. She pulled his hand and asked softly, "Zhenyu, do you still want me to abort this child now?"

"This..." Lei Zhenyu looked at the results of the Cai Chao in her hand. He then looked at Ru Yu's bulging belly and the CD in his hand. After a long while, he said with difficulty, "Ru Yu, I know that this child is very good-looking. I love this child too, but I still hate and worry..."

"I'm worried that the child won't be born until the day it is born because no one can guarantee this to us. I'm also worried that after the child is born, it won't even have time to cry before... I'm more worried about you..."

Chapter 1500 visiting the neonatology department

He was worried about her, very worried about her. What if the little bean in her brain woke up and she couldn't hear the child's crying?

She knew what he was worried about her for, but one couldn't always stop moving forward because of worry or fear, right? If everyone retreated because of fear, then this society would probably not be able to move forward.

"Zhenyu-kun, come with me." Ru Yu pulled his hand and walked towards another building. Because the neonatology department was not in this building, but on the third floor of another building.

The neonatal department was completely closed. It was not something that anyone could enter and visit just because they wanted to. Usually, it was only when a child was hospitalized in the neonatal department that their family members could enter and visit.

The hospital's neonatal department was open three days a week. It was open once every three to five days in the morning and once in the afternoon. In the morning, it was from 11 to 11:30. It was only for half an hour.

Ru Yu had gone in to see a woman in her thirties the last time. At that time, the woman had heard from her that the baby in her stomach would also be in the neonatal department when it was born, so she had specially said that her younger sister had brought her in.

Today, when she came here, she did not meet that sister. She was feeling melancholic when the nurse opened the door. All the family members stood up. She pulled Lei Zhenyu's hand and followed behind an old Auntie who was in her fifties. She actually managed to sneak in just like that.. The nurse must have taken her as some relative of the old Auntie.

The children in the neonatal department had already been placed by the nurse near the large glass windows. There was a child living in each of the incubators, and the incubators were all glass. Standing outside the glass windows, one could see everything clearly.

There were quite a number of children in the incubators, one by one, arranged neatly. There were children of all sizes, the big ones were more than three thousand grams, and the small ones were less than one thousand grams.

Some of the children were sleeping, some were crying, some were rolling over, some were yawning, and some were waving their fists... ..

Lei Zhenyu looked at these children, and his heart could not help but tremble, especially the smallest one, which was less than one thousand grams. He stood there and watched for a long, long time.

"Zhenyu, I've already asked the doctor in the neonatal department and the specialist in obstetrics and gynecology. The youngest child here was born at 26 weeks, and they have also saved the child. The doctor in the Neonatal Department said that as long as the child is alive at the moment of birth, then they will generally do their best to save the Child. Our child is already 22 weeks old, and the little bean in my brain has been sleeping peacefully. I think that as long as I can hold on for more than four weeks, of course, the longer the better. In short, at least four weeks. After our child is born, we can put it in this incubator. That way... ". "..."

Lei Zhenyu clenched ru Yu's hand tightly. He could feel the sweat on his palms. He understood what Ru Yu was saying. He liked this child too, so of course, he couldn't bear to part with her.

But the key was that there were still four to five weeks left. Who could guarantee that these four to five weeks would pass peacefully Who could guarantee that the little bean in her brain wouldn't wake up in these four to five weeks?

Moreover, as her pregnancy increased, the chances of the little bean in her brain waking up also increased. This meant that the danger she was in was also increasing day by day.
