

Divorce 1651

Chapter 1651 nature of work

When she arrived, she had already mentally prepared herself. After all, she had already become a peddler at the entrance of the Royal Lord's Manor, let alone a high-class and mysterious place like the daughter's pavilion?

However, the lady boss had circled her twice just now, completely using her eyes to select items. She still felt goosebumps in her heart and could not help but tremble all over.

"If you are still a virgin," The lady boss spoke faintly again. The elite gaze once again landed firmly on Fang Xiao's face. "The daughter's Pavilion's virginity is the most valuable. The virginity is also the flower bud, the Flower Bud. The starting price for the Flower Bud's opening fee is more than 100,000 yuan. With your beauty and figure, I think it should be no problem for me to ask for 200,000 yuan."

The lady boss paused at this point, her face already showing a slight smile. "Miss, may I ask, are you still a virgin?"

Fang Xiao lowered her head. After a long while, she raised her head again and looked at the lady boss. Finally, she gritted her teeth and said, "I'm not."

Fang Xiao thought to herself, two months ago, she was still a virgin. But two months ago, at the Windsor Hotel, she fell for du Caiwei's trap, and then a strange man broke her virginity.

What a miserable life. The woman in the daughter's pavilion could earn 100,000 to 200,000 yuan on her first night, but on her first night, she didn't even take a single cent. Moreover, because of this, she had a label of a ruined woman on her back.

"Well, at least you're honest." The lady boss was very satisfied with her honesty. Then, she said, "our daughter's pavilion is famous for not bullying customers in Binhai. Since you're not, then, at your current age, you can barely be considered a virgin. The price for that night is between 10,000 to 100,000 yuan. Of course, the starting price is 10,000 yuan. As for the higher price, it depends on your performance in bed and how much customers like you." "..."

This lady boss was a very practical person. She told Fang Xiao about the rules of the daughter's pavilion. Finally, she said to Fang Xiao, "my daughter's pavilion doesn't usually accept girls over the age of 18. In fact, most of them are taken in under the age of 15 to begin training. Once they reach the age of 17, we have to let them be flower buds and wait for the customers to pay for them to open their buds."

The lady boss paused for a moment, carefully sizing up Fang Xiao. After a long while, she said, "alright, your conditions are really good. Even with this clear broth noodle soup, you're still beautiful and elegant. I believe that many customers will like you, so I'll break the rules for you once, but you'll have to go through half a month of training."

"training?" Fang Xiao stared at the lady boss with her Eyes Wide Open. For a moment, she didn't know what training she was talking about.

“That is to learn, and then ask the instructor here to teach you some professional skills.” When the lady boss said this, it was as if she was saying that the dishes today were not bad. “first, you have to watch some movies when you come in. In addition, you have to hide in a small window to watch how the sisters serve the customers. Then, we’ll give you a simulated inflatable man, and the instructor will tell you in detail where the sensitive parts of the man are. At the same time, you’re no longer a virgin, so you’ll probably have to use some emulators or something to find the best and most comfortable way for yourself. “...”

The lady boss smiled when she saw Fang Xiao’s Pale face when she said this Then, she said indifferently, “of course, it is indeed a little hard to train. Actually, it isn’t that hard to deal with customers. To put it bluntly, as long as a woman is willing to do this, she will still be enjoying herself most of the time. Moreover, you can earn money, right?”

Chapter 1652: She could not wait for Chapter 1652

“Of course, when men come here, they are just looking for pleasure. Your task is to serve those stinky men well. When they are happy, they will naturally throw a lot of money to you. ”

Fang Xiao clenched her fists tightly. She used all her willpower to stabilize her body. She was really afraid that she would accidentally fall to the ground.

When she was studying in university, she had read about it in a magazine. It seemed that some rich man spent hundreds of thousands on maintaining his mistress every year. Similarly, there were gossip people in the dormitory, and they would occasionally talk about social matters It was said that some men could spend hundreds of thousands of yuan on a high-class sex scene.

However, when she really arrived at this mysterious high-class sex scene, she realized that the real woman who could make a man spend more than 100,000 yuan a night was the original virgin, but she had already lost the capital to make a man spend thousands of yuan.

She met a stranger on the eve of the wedding. On the day of the wedding, Huicheng daily even published a photo of her. Even if this matter wasn’t published in Binhai’s newspaper, she believed that such a big event.. It was impossible for all the people in Binhai to not know about it.

Moreover, it depended on that layer of film. If that layer of film no longer existed, then it would be impossible to fake it.

In this so-called open era, many bold and unconstrained women boasted shamelessly that this was the era when women slept with men and not men sleeping with women. In fact.. The ancient and feudal thoughts were still deeply ingrained in men’s minds. They still cared very much about that layer of film of women.

If a young woman was in a place of debauchery, once she lost that layer of membrane, she would only have a lower price. Moreover, the price would probably fall by more than half.

Fang Xiao stood there and patiently listened to the lady boss’s speech. Finally, she mustered all her courage and asked, “lady boss, if I come here to work, can you pay me 500,000 in advance?”

When the lady boss heard her words, she could not help but laugh. “The moment you entered, I could tell that you came to this place because you lacked money. It’s just that you outsiders think this place is too simple. Do you think this place can pick up gold?”

When the lady boss said this, she shook her head and said, “Miss, 500,000 is not a small amount. Of course, I can’t say that you can’t earn 500,000 from me. If you are diligent, have a good temper, and can win the favor of your customers, you might be able to earn 500,000 in less than a year. But the premise is that I have to make a risk budget. What if you take the money and leave? What if something happens to you before you receive two customers here? Then wouldn’t the 500,000 that I gave you in advance be like a meat bun beating a dog?”

Fang Xiao immediately understood after hearing the lady boss’s words. The daughter’s pavilion, the most mysterious and expensive place in Bincheng, still needed to slowly pick up customers to earn money. It was impossible for the lady boss to give you hundreds of thousands of dollars as soon as you entered.

Moreover, The lady boss of the daughter’s pavilion was so smart that it was impossible for her to give her money in advance.

Of course, in the lady boss’s words, as long as she was willing to work here, as long as she sincerely went to learn from the girls here, 500,000 dollars could still be earned back. However, the key point was that her father, Fang Anbang, could no longer wait.

Let alone a year, even half a year, or even half a month, could not afford to wait.

Chapter 1653 didn’t have a choice

Let alone a year, even half a year, or even half a month, wouldn’t be enough.

Walking out of the seemingly elegant teahouse in the daughter’s pavilion, it was actually a nightclub. It was already around midnight. At this time of night, it was very quiet, but in the daughter’s pavilion, there was another scene of blooming flowers.

The street at midnight was a little deserted, but it just so happened that it started to drizzle. The entire Binhai was shrouded in rain and fog, and even the constantly flashing neon lights seemed particularly hazy.

She stood by the roadside, shivering as she waited for a taxi. Fortunately, this was the downtown of Binhai City, and it was a bustling area. The taxi arrived in a few minutes, and she immediately got into the car.

The taxi driver, perhaps because he was lonely, turned on the car radio alone. After Fang Xiao got into the car, the radio was still ringing, and the voice of the midnight hostess of Binhai Radio Station was particularly emotional and seductive. She was using her incomparably sexy voice to describe the sadness, helplessness, and sadness between men and women.

Fang Xiao, who had been exhausted all day, was not in the mood to listen to the midnight channel. She only hoped that the taxi would arrive at the third hospital earlier and that it would arrive early tomorrow.

Of course, 500,000 was not a small amount. In her current situation, other than Xi Lingheng who hated her to the core, who would be willing to pay such a price to buy her?

Not only that, she also thought that if Xi Lingheng knew that she was no longer a virgin, she did not know if he would still spend 500,000 to buy her?

As for her, should she tell him the truth? ? ?

Fang Xiao woke up the next morning with a headache. She knew that it was because she was caught in the rain last night. It had been half an hour's walk from the West Mountain Villa to the bus stop, and it had been raining the whole time. She did not have an umbrella yet, so she walked through the rain.

In fact, she should rest under such circumstances, but she could not rest because her father could not wait. She had to buy the kidney supply today.

Therefore, after serving her father breakfast, she contacted the secretary on the business card. She had just reported her name, and the other party already knew her.

"Miss Fang, if you go to the Yunxiao Pavilion Hotel now, where will our president go?" The secretary's voice was polite and formal.

The Yunxiao Pavilion Hotel was the only six-star hotel in Binhai. It was a hotel owned by the Dongfang Group that had just opened last year. It was said that it was the new masterpiece of Dongfang Mo's eldest son, Dongfang Yunheng.

When she arrived at the Yunxiao Pavilion Hotel, the person who came to pick her up was the secretary Lin Shanshan who had spoken to her on the phone.

Lin Shanshan's hair was tied up with a net-like clip at the back. There was not even a fringe on her forehead, which gave people a sense of efficiency. After introducing herself to Fang Xiao, she led her to the VIP elevator.

"It's on the 39th floor, the top floor of the Yunxiao pavilion." Lin Shanshan pressed the button on the 39th floor and gave a simple explanation to Fang Xiao. Her eyes secretly sized up the woman in front of her, Fang Xiao.

Dongfang Yunheng's real girlfriend was Gu Chenchen, the daughter-in-law of the Dongfang family. In the past two years, it seemed that Dongfang Yunheng had never found another woman other than Gu Chenchen.

The Dongfang family had always been very strict with their upbringing, especially Mrs. Dongfang, Xi Muru. It was said that she disliked it the most when men were out partying, so no matter how the Dongfang brothers were abroad or how they were in other places, at least in Binhai.. They had always been the role models of the wealthy three generations, the favored son of Heaven that everyone praised.

Chapter 1654 wealth lies in heaven

This was the first time Dongfang Yunheng had ever found a woman in Bincheng. Therefore, when she heard Dongfang Yunheng's instructions yesterday, she could not help but guess how beautiful this woman was. Only then could she seduce a man like Dongfang Yunheng, who was 'never touched by a flower', to break ranks for her.

However, the woman in front of her, who was called Fang Xiao, indeed made her somewhat disappointed. This was because this woman was obviously not as beautiful as Gu Chenchen, and her figure was not as good as Gu Chenchen's.

As for skin, they were not on the same level.

With such a woman, what did she use to attract Dongfang Yunheng to stomp his feet for her? To break through the ranks for her and look at her in a different light?

Fang Xiao only knew that Lin Shanshan was quietly sizing her up, but she did not know that Lin Shanshan was curious about her. She also did not know that Lin Shanshan was comparing her to Dongfang Yunheng's real girlfriend.

The VIP elevator was very fast in the 39-story high-rise building. There were no passengers in the middle, so they arrived in a few minutes.

The 39th-floor high-rise building had a large suite at the end. Outside the bright floor-to-ceiling windows was a vast expanse of green mountains and rivers. Standing in front of the floor-to-ceiling windows, one suddenly felt as if they were in the depths of the clouds.

It was indeed the Yunxiao pavilion. The name really lived up to its name!

Fang Xiao followed Lin Shanshan into the luxurious suite. Her gaze swept the surroundings, but she did not see Xi Lingheng.

"Miss Fang, our president came over after he had something to deal with. He asked you to wait for him here first."

"Oh," Fang Xiao replied.

"Miss Fang, the president asked you to shower and change first," Lin Shanshan said as she walked into the cloakroom and took out a piece of unwrapped clothing. "This is the pajamas I prepared for you. You can change into it after you shower."

The pajamas were made of white silk. It was as thin as a CICADA's wings and the quality was top-notch. One did not even need to touch it to know that it was top-quality.

The design of the pajamas looked very conservative. It was modest but too thin. It was almost transparent, but it just so happened to expose its sexy and revealing side.

Fang Xiao frowned almost instinctively. She never thought that one day, Xi Lingheng would let her wear such a nightdress. She still remembered that he was the most conservative. He did not allow her to wear a suspenders skirt or hot pants in the past.

It had only been five years, but time had changed. The idiom “things change” had been vividly reflected on her and him.

The meaning he conveyed to her through the thin nightdress was very clear to her. For a moment, she froze and did not move. Her teeth bit the corner of her lips, and her hands could not help but curl her fingers under her sleeves.

Lin Shanshan glanced at her and reminded her lightly, “our CEO said that if Miss Fang can’t wait, you can leave first. He never forces anyone.”

Fang Xiao took a deep breath. Her curled fingers were already clenched into fists, but the teeth that were biting the corner of her lips had already loosened. She said softly, “I can wait for him. I’m free today.”

She picked up the perfectly packaged nightdress box with her hand and walked toward the bathroom with a smile. Since she was already here, she could not go back.

What was the saying again?

Life and death are determined by FATE AND WEALTH ARE DETERMINED BY HEAVEN She could not help but laugh at the thought. It seemed that this was another famous saying.

Five years ago, she never dreamed that one day, she and the poor boy Xi Lingheng, who had no food to eat, would be reversed. He was an eagle flying high in the sky, while she was a mud loach rolling in the mud.

Chapter 1655 what was her biggest wish

The bathroom of a six-star hotel was many times better than the hotel she had stayed in before or the bathroom she had used at the Fang family’s house. The bathroom was decorated to the point of being resplendent, not to mention other things Even the sprinkling of the shower head was gold-plated. The edge of the sink was inlaid with jade, which corresponded to the gold of the shower head. It was really a contrast to the idiom that said there was a room full of gold and jade.

She closed the bathroom door and quietly took off her clothes. Then, she went to the bathtub and filled it with water. She pressed a lot of shower gel into it, and the entire bathtub was full of bubbles. Meanwhile, she drowned her exhausted body in the bubble bathtub.

She still remembered that when they were in the United States, they rented a small one-bedroom apartment with him. At that time, they were really poor. They were so poor that it could be described as having no meals.

But at that time, they were very happy. Even the simplest and cheapest food could taste happiness.

At that time, the broken apartment was very cold. The bathroom was very small, and she could not turn it off even after taking a shower. Especially when she squatted on the floor while washing her clothes. If he had to go to the bathroom, she had to come out of the bathroom before he could get in.

At that time, he asked her, “Xiaoxiao, what is your biggest wish?”

At that time, she sat on the stool and rubbed her clothes, which were full of bubbles, in deep thought for a long time. Then, she told him with a serious face, "I want to have a very, very big bathtub. I want to take a bubble bath like the princess in the TV series. I want to soak myself in a bubble bath so that my whole body will be fragrant."

He smiled at her big wish. Then, he bent down behind her, his face touching her shoulder, rubbing against her face. His mouth was blowing hot air into her ears, making her neck itchy.

She pushed him with her hand and tilted her head slightly to avoid his head, but his thin lips were imprinted on her pink lips like that.

She panicked and threw away the wet clothes in her hand. Her hands were full of bubbles, and then she hung them around his neck. The two of them were at the bathroom door, kissing passionately.

Those days were a long, long time ago. It was so long ago that if she did not see Xi Lingheng again, she would not be able to remember it. Or, she did not plan to remember it anymore.

Fang Xiao did not remember how long it had been since she had taken a good shower. To be precise, it should have been after the divorce with Qiu Yitang. No, it should have been after the family crisis.

After the family crisis, she had been busy with the bankruptcy of the Fang Corporation, her father's lawsuit, and her mother's funeral. During that time, she might not even remember washing her face every day, let alone taking a shower.

Usually, she stayed in the hospital. That Ward was the most common single ward. This did not mean that she had the money to ask for a single ward for her father, but because her father was uremic, no other patients were willing to share a ward with him. Therefore, the hospital had no choice but to give him the cheapest single ward.

Of course, there was no so-called bathroom in that ward. In fact, there was only a narrow bathroom with hot water in it. She usually used a bucket of hot water to wash herself with a towel.

Therefore, when she threw herself completely into the bubble bath, the comfort that she had not enjoyed for more than three months overwhelmed her already exhausted body, making her feel so comfortable that she immediately narrowed her eyes.

Chapter 1656 was not worth anything

Xi Lingheng should not have come so soon, she thought. Didn't Secretary Lin say that he was still taking care of things?

Since he would not come so soon, then she would stay here and soak herself in the bubbles, so that he would not find her dirty later.

I'll just take a nap, she thought. Little did she know that this nap actually happened an hour later.

Dongfang Yunheng received a call from Lin Shanshan. When he knew that she had already reached the 39th floor of the Heavenly Cloud pavilion, he deliberately found something to dawdle about for almost an hour before he drove over.

In fact, he was very shocked to see her at the entrance of the Royal Junjue hotel that night. It was no less than seeing her being ravaged by three vagrants in the VIP room of the Windsor Hotel in Huicheng a month and a half ago.

That night, after sending her away, he immediately asked his assistant, Wu Jianping, to check her information. Only then did he know that she was the daughter of the Fang family in Huicheng. Only then did he know that the Fang family had actually gone bankrupt a month and a half ago, and she.. Had actually caused a scandal on the wedding day.

That night a month and a half ago, he did not stay in Huicheng. Instead, after leaving her room, he went downstairs to check out, and then drove straight back to Bincheng.

The next morning, he happened to have something to do in Hong Kong, so he flew to Hong Kong early in the morning. He only sent Gu Chenchen a text message saying that he had an urgent matter and could not accompany her to her cousin's wedding, so he let her go alone.

He stayed in Hong Kong for three days, and then went to Melbourne, Australia. By the time he returned from a trip abroad, it was already ten days later.

He thought that Gu Chenchen would be angry at him for leaving without saying goodbye. He had already asked Lin Shanshan to buy a gift for her. Who knew that when Gu Chenchen received the gift from him, he would say, "My cousin's wedding was not held. It was canceled on the same day. "

He was not familiar with Gu Chenchen's relatives, so he did not take her cousin's wedding to heart. It was not until yesterday that he found out that the bride Gu Chenchen's cousin was going to marry was Fang Xiao, the daughter of the Fang family.

He gave Fang Xiao a business card that night, thinking that she would call Lin Shanshan the next day, but she did not call the next day. He thought that she would not call again.

Who knew that this morning, as soon as he arrived at the company, Lin Shanshan told him that the girl named Fang Xiao had already called her, and she had already taken her to his private suite on the 39th floor of the Cloud Sky Pavilion according to his instructions yesterday.

Fang Xiao, the woman who had abandoned him in order to marry into a rich family, the woman who loved vanity, the woman who refused to stay no matter how much he begged her.

But now, she had to kneel under his trousers for a mere 500,000, and crawl into his bed for a mere 500,000 Let him humiliate her, let him trample on her!

This was clearly something that he had longed for for a long time. This was clearly something that he should be extremely happy and fortunate about. Why did his heart hurt so much when he thought of what was about to happen?

"Damn it! " He could not help but curse softly in his heart when he swiped his card to open the door. Who was she, Fang Xiao Was she worth his heartache?

No, she was not worth it. A woman who had abandoned her love for the sake of marrying into a wealthy family, a woman who had once trampled on his dignity in the mud. Such a woman was only worth being humiliated, raped, and humiliated by him. Other than that.. She was not worth anything.

Chapter 1657 sleeping woman

As he thought of this, the pain in his heart had already flown into the clouds. He closed the door behind him and walked straight into the bedroom. In his mind, he thought about how seductive she looked in that thin nightgown WHAT KIND OF LOW-CLASS WOMAN!

However, when he stepped into the bedroom and looked at the luxurious bed, it was empty. There was not even a single piece of clothing on it, let alone a person.

What was going on Didn't Lin Shanshan say an hour ago that she had taken her pajamas and walked into the bathroom Could it be that she could not wait, or did her last bit of backbone make her retreat?

Alright, she was already at this stage, but she still had a bit of backbone. Did he think highly of her?

As he thought of this, he could not help but feel a sense of disappointment. He turned around and went to the wine cabinet to get a glass and a bottle of wine. He then poured himself a glass and drank it in a slightly irritated manner.

It was only when he felt that his throat was a little spicy that he reacted. He picked up the bottle of wine in his hand and took a look. Oh, damn it. He clearly remembered that he had taken a bottle of LAFITE. Why was he holding a bottle of whiskey in his hand now?

Forget it. It was meaningless to drink alone. He had attended a banquet too late last night. Now he felt a little tired, so he instinctively got up and walked to the bathroom, thinking of a simple rush to cheer himself up and return to the company.

However, when he pushed open the bathroom door, he found that the bathtub was filled with bubbles. On the other side of the bathtub head, a black satin-like thing was scattered over the sparkling white ceramic bathtub, looking exceptionally enchanting.

Sh * T, he could not help but curse in his heart. He had clearly asked her to sell her body, but she had come to his place to enjoy herself. Moreover, it looked like she had actually fallen asleep in the bathtub.

He was extremely dissatisfied with her, but in the end, he still came to the side of the bathtub. He lowered his head to look at the woman in the bathtub and frowned slightly.

"Hey, Fang Xiao, wake up!" He bent down and used his hand to shake her head, wanting to wake her up.

He was her financier. He wanted to spend 500,000 yuan to buy her. Since he was already here, wouldn't a prostitute like her quickly get up and serve her financier?

However, the woman in the bathtub did not wake up, she was still sleeping soundly. Yun Heng's face darkened slightly He could not help but use his hand to grab her hair and lightly pull it as he shouted, "Fang Xiao, did you hear me? Quickly get up, I will give you five minutes to prepare. I will go to the bed and wait for you. If I don't wait for you, don't blame me if I don't buy you."

If Fang Xiao did not need money urgently, she would not have gone to the Royal Junjue hotel to sell her body. If she did not have nowhere else to go, she would not have called his secretary.

He wanted to use this to threaten her. This woman would definitely get up obediently for the 500,000 yuan. What, he could only give her 500,000 yuan now, right?

However, the facts proved that Yun Heng's idea was wrong. Fang Xiao, who was in the bathtub, was pulled back by something. She was still lying there without moving. She was completely indifferent to his threat just now. It was as if she didn't hear him.

Her long hair hung down from the edge of the bathtub. It was pitch-black like a waterfall. Her pale little face was slightly flushed. The water in the bathtub was almost out of heat, and her face was still flushed. This faintly revealed a bit of strangeness.

Chapter 1658: the Smell of Fang Xiao

"Fang Xiao, get up, do you hear me? Are you pretending to be dead?" Yun Heng was furious. This damn woman could fall asleep even after taking a bubble bath. Had she never taken a bubble bath before?

Fang Xiao was still lying in the bathtub, motionless. Her face was red, so strange that Yun Heng's eyelids could not help but twitch. He immediately squatted down and reached out to grab her shoulder, pulling her out of the bathtub without any hesitation.

The originally pale face was now suffused with a strange pink color. The heat of the skin on his body was so hot that it could burn people's hands. It turned out that this woman had not fallen asleep, but had fainted.

Yun Heng's heart was filled with melancholy. A sense of panic that he had not felt for a long time faintly emerged from the depths of his heart. It was like a thin hacksaw gently drawing across his heart. The pain was clearly not obvious.. But it was so clear that it was suffocating.

"Damn it, I don't even know that I'm sick." He immediately bent down and picked up the woman who was about to fall into the bathtub. He pulled a towel over and wrapped it around her, then quickly ran to the bedroom.

He took out his phone and found a number. He quickly pressed the dial button, and after two rings, he was picked up. He did not wait for the other party to say 'hello' and coldly said, "Liu Yanzheng, I don't care where you are right now, even if you're on a woman's bed. Get up quickly and get your ass to my suite at the Heavenly Cloud pavilion. You have to be there in twenty minutes, not a minute more. Bring your simple first aid kit."

After he finished speaking, he did not wait for the other party to reply and immediately put away the line. He lowered his head and looked at the woman who was still wrapped in the towel on the big bed. He frowned slightly. In the end, he used the towel to simply wipe her, then pulled over the silk blanket and covered her.

Damn it, he didn't even have a woman's clothes here, and the thin pajamas were obviously not for her to wear. He had no choice but to walk into the bathroom again.

Fortunately, the clothes she had just changed into were still there. Fortunately, they were placed on the shelf next to her and were not wet by the water, so he quickly took them and walked into the bedroom again.

He threw his coat aside, put on the cloths and the little cutie for her, and also put on the undershirt for her. After everything was done, he used his hand to probe her forehead. It was still frighteningly hot, burning his palm.

Damn woman, she was already so sick that she didn't even know to find a doctor to treat her before coming over. Could it be that she didn't care about her dignity and even her life for 500,000 yuan?

If he didn't go to the bathroom just now and just turned around and left, wouldn't it be very difficult for others to find her in the bathroom Then, would she die in the bathtub just like that?

In the end, he didn't even look at her and made a crime of rape and murder?

Yun Heng was shocked by his ridiculous idea. He couldn't help but reach out to touch her face, which was flushed due to the fever. His fingertips finally stopped on her thin lips.

He remembered that five years ago, he liked kissing her slightly thick lips the most. He liked her soft lips the most, especially after she ate ice cream. He couldn't help but kiss her He liked the taste of strawberry or chocolate saliva mixed in her mouth.

Whether it was strawberry or chocolate, under the dilution of her saliva, it could suddenly become another unique taste, a taste that was unique in this world, Fang Xiao's taste.

Chapter 1659: Special Patient

Liu Yanzheng arrived 15 minutes later. He sprinted into the suite at a speed of almost 100 meters. He thought that something had happened to Dongfang Yunheng.

However, when he found a pale and haggard woman lying on his bed, he was so shocked that his eyeballs almost fell out. For a moment, he actually forgot what he was here for and just stared blankly.

"I asked you to treat her." Yun Heng reached out and knocked on his head. "I didn't ask you to be in a daze. Why aren't you examining her?"

"Oh." Only then did Liu Yanzheng react. He quickly put down the first-aid kit he had brought over and handed the thermometer to the man beside him. He took the earpiece to listen to his heart and lungs.

"Her fever is at 40 degrees. She must have caught a cold." Liu Yanzheng put down the thermometer and pulled the earpiece out of his ear. He looked sideways at the man standing by the bed. "Do you want to hang an IV drip? Do you want to send her to the hospital or do you want to hang it here?"

"Hang it here. What hospital?" Dongfang Yunheng's face was dark. "Aren't you a godly doctor? Doo you need a nurse to help you with a needle?"

"I'm not a nurse," Liu Yanzheng instinctively defended himself. "I'm not familiar with needles to begin with. I can hang an IV for her, but let me get this straight. Don't blame me if the needle bleeds or if it's bruised or swollen."

"So what if it's bruised or swollen? Even if it's stabbed to death, isn't that a medical accident caused by you?" Dongfang Yunheng's tone was so cold that Liu Yanzheng did not dare to casually guess the relationship between the woman in bed and him.

Therefore, he quickly took out medicine, glucose, and saline from the medicine box he brought with him and began to prepare the medicine. A doctor's duty was to save lives and protect the injured. Life was above all else. He did not care about the relationship between this woman and Dongfang Yunheng.

"I'll leave her in your hands. Call me when she wakes up. I'm going to work." Dongfang Yunheng saw that Liu Yanzheng had already helped Fang Xiao with the drip, so he turned around and walked toward the hall outside.

"Hey, what if she needs to go to the toilet later?" Liu Yanzheng quickly turned around and called out to Dongfang Yunheng, who had already walked to the door. "I don't know how to take care of people, especially such a special patient?"

"Even if you want to take care of me, I won't give you this opportunity." Dongfang Yunheng threw him a sentence without turning his head. "I'll get Lin Shanshan to come over. You just need to be in charge of treating her."

Liu Yanzheng was so angry that he blew his beard and glared at him, but there was nothing he could do. He turned around and could not help but look at the woman who had gotten out of bed. This was the first time he knew that Dongfang Yunheng actually had a woman other than Gu Chenchen.

When Fang Xiao opened her eyes, it was already halfway through the first drip. Lin Shanshan was sitting beside her bed, along with a young man who was about thirty years old.

"Miss Fang, you're awake." Lin Shanshan looked at her with a polite and formal smile. "Do you feel better now?"

Fang Xiao nodded. She glanced at the needle on the back of her left hand and the transparent soft tube hanging on it, as well as the fluid drips that were measured in seconds. She vaguely understood what was going on.

When she left the house in the morning, she felt that her head was heavy and her feet were light. She vaguely felt that she must have caught a cold. She thought that with her good health, she should be able to survive a little cold, so she insisted on coming here.

Chapter 1660-500,000 a year

However, she did not expect that she would actually collapse in Xi Lingheng's suite. She had really lost face. He must be looking down on her even more, right?

Thinking of this, she could not help but mock herself in her heart. She had already come this far. In front of him, she was already a person who had lost all her dignity. How could she lose face?

Lin Shanshan went out to make a phone call. The young man took a thermometer and let her clamp it under her armpit. It looked like he was the doctor who gave her an IV drip.

She obediently took care of it. When she was young, she was sick. When her mother took her to the hospital, she taught her that sick babies had to listen to the doctor. Sick babies who did not listen to the doctor would be captured by the devil, and that Devil's name was the devil.

People were young and had a good body. After the two bottles of IV drip were injected, the fever subsided and her head did not feel dizzy. However, her body was still soft, but it was no longer a big deal.

The young male doctor saw that she was fine, so he gave her a few simple instructions and left with a big medical box.

"The president will be here after work in the afternoon." Lin Shanshan looked at her and politely said, "Miss Fang can rest here for a while. It's about time for the president to get off work."

The secretary, Lin Shanshan, raised her wrist and looked at her watch. "There's less than half an hour left."

"Okay, thank you." Fang Xiao softly thanked the secretary. Looking at her capable and calm expression, she could not help but think that if she went to look for a job in the future, she would also be a secretary. She did not know if she could be as capable as Lin Shanshan.

"Then I'll be leaving first." Lin Shanshan saw that she was already fine, so she turned around and walked out of the door. When she reached the door, she turned back and said, "you lie down and rest for a while."

Fang Xiao did not lie down anymore. She went to the bathroom to use the toilet. Then, she briefly distanced herself from the mirror and used his shallow-toothed comb with buffalo horns.

In fact, his bathroom and bathroom were filled with the aura of a single man. There was not even a hint of femininity in it. Even the Shampoo and shower gel were used exclusively by men.

In the mirror, she had just recovered from a serious illness. Her skinny little face was getting Paler and Paler. She could not help but rub her face a few times, trying to make it blush. However, the more she rubbed, the Paler it became.

"Even if you rub off a layer of skin on your face, I don't think you can have a face as beautiful as a peach blossom," a cold voice sounded from the bathroom door. In fact, she did not need to raise her head to know that it was him who had come over.

Didn't Lin Shanshan say that there was still half an hour before she got off work It had only been fifteen minutes, but he had already arrived. It seemed that the CEO was different. He did not even have to follow the working hours.

"I always overestimate myself." She walked out of the bathroom, forgetting to wipe the water off her hands. She followed him to the hall outside.

He sat down on the Long Sofa and reached for a leather briefcase beside him. He unzipped it and took out a few thin pieces of paper and a cheque book.

“500,000. I’ll buy you for a year!” Along with the cheque, there was a contract for selling her body. “sign it and we’ll be even after a year!”

She used her trembling hands to pick up the A4 paper in front of her. The words ‘contract for selling her body’ stung her eyes so much that she could barely open them. Five years ago, she had never dreamed that such a day would come.
