Chapter 1681 Charity Auction

There were a lot of things in the daily necessities bag. There were Napkins, cosmetics, maintenance products, tissue paper, Feminine Privacy Items, and even underwear.

When she saw a pair of lace-edged briefs, Fang Xiao could not help but blush. She could not help but secretly admire Lin Shanshan. Being the CEO's secretary was not an easy task. Not only did she have to prepare things for him to use at any time.. She also had to prepare daily necessities and things for his girlfriend to use in emergencies.

The Charity Party was an auction of items donated by many companies. Dongfang Group donated a string of pure natural pearls from Nanhai. The pearls on this string of pearls were evenly distributed and naturally shiny. It was definitely a top-grade Pearl.

Before the string of pearls from Dongfang Group, there were also some items donated by other companies, such as antiques, Jingdezhen Porcelain, Wu Zhonggui's paintings, and so on.

When the string of pearls from Dongfang Group was brought up, Fang Xiao found that the eyes of all the animals in the venue that were called women were shining. Everyone's desire for this string of pearls was fully expressed.

However, she only took a casual glance at it and did not pay much attention to it. In any case, this party had nothing to do with her. She was just a personal secretary who was ready to serve people at any time. In fact, she was just a servant.

Her gaze secretly swept in the direction of Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen. She discovered that Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen were lowering their heads and talking about something. His face was full of affection and focus On the other hand, Gu Chenchen's face had a slightly shy and happy expression.

Her heart twitched slightly. A trace of pain drilled out from the deepest part of her heart uncontrollably. She immediately averted her gaze from them and looked at the auctioneer on the stage She quickly suppressed the untraceable pain with great force.

The auctioneer was introducing the origin of this string of pearls. Of course, he was trying to put it in a good way. Then, he began the auction of this string of pearls. The starting bid was 1,000,000.

1,000,000 When Fang Xiao heard this number, she was shocked. It was just a string of pearls. How could it be so expensive Weren't the pearls sold in the mall only worth tens of thousands of dollars per string?

However, what made her even more dumbfounded was that the desire of these people for this string of pearls quickly soared to 2,600,000 after raising their hands a few times.

"2.6 million, any additional bids?" The auctioneer raised the auction hammer on the stage and asked the bosses of these large companies below the stage.

Fang Xiao's gaze instinctively turned towards Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen. She saw Gu Chenchen whisper something in Dongfang Yunheng's ear, and Dongfang Yunheng nodded.

Then, Dongfang Yunheng raised his hand and very naturally and straightforwardly reported a number, "three million!"

"President Dongfang has given three million!" The auctioneer shouted loudly from above, "any additional bids?"

The audience looked at each other and whispered, but no one raised their hands again. Thus, the auctioneer shouted, "three million going once, three million going twice, three million going thrice!"

As the hammer fell, the Pearl necklace finally returned to its original owner after Dongfang Yunheng threw out three million and returned to Dongfang Group's hands.

Everyone stood up and applauded. Dongfang Yunheng went to get the Pearl Necklace. The host obviously would not let go of such a chance to gossip. He quickly took the microphone and blocked in front of Dongfang Yunheng.

Chapter 1682 is because she's my woman

"President Dongfang, May I ask who you're going to give this Pearl Necklace to?" When the host asked this question, her gaze had already swept over to Gu Chenchen in the VIP seats.

Dongfang Yunheng looked at Gu Chenchen in the VIP seats with a smile and called out softly, "Chenchen, come up. I'll help you put it on!"

Fang Xiao watched Gu Chenchen carefully walk up to the stage in her high heels. She looked at the Pearl Necklace in Dongfang Yunheng's hand, and her thoughts uncontrollably flew back to that Christmas Eve five years ago.

That was when she had been dating Xi Lingheng for almost two months. In Xi Lingheng's words, she had already chased him down and forced him to become her man.

Every time she heard this, she did not know whether to laugh or cry. However, she could not be bothered to argue with this Ruffian man. After being kissed and bitten by him, she still obediently became his girlfriend.

Actually, when she became Xi Lingheng's girlfriend, it was not that time when he took her away from the bar and brought her to his pitifully small apartment on a bicycle.

That night, she did not stay in Xi Lingheng's apartment. Instead, she insisted on going back to the school dormitory. In the end, Xi Lingheng had no choice but to allow her to wash the clothes. Then, he took her fitting clothes and went upstairs to borrow a dryer to dry them for her. After she changed into her own clothes, he finally sent her back to school.

In the next few days, she did not go to Xi Lingheng, and Xi Lingheng did not come to her either, perhaps because he was busy looking for a new job.

A week later, she was blocked by Mike at the school gate. At that time, Mike brought a group of people over and forced her to agree to be his girlfriend. He even said that if she did not agree, he would not give her face.

She was a girl who went abroad, and she was surrounded by so many men. She was so anxious that she almost cried. For a moment, she did not know what to do.

She did not like Mike. Although Mike had been wooing her for a long time, and he had been sending her flowers almost every day recently, she would throw them away every time.

However, the current situation was that if she did not agree to Mike's request, she would obviously not be able to escape. If she agreed to Mike's request, she would undoubtedly be jumping into a fire pit. Many people said that Mike was not serious when he was out, and his female friends would usually not last more than three months. They would kick him away when they got tired of him, and some would even be sold to sex venues by him.

Just as she was forced into a corner and did not know what to do, Xi Lingheng suddenly dragged a chair and rushed over. Seeing Mike directly throw the chair at him, and behind Xi Lingheng. There were actually more than a dozen boys dragging chairs.

That was the first time she had seen a group fight between boys. Xi Lingheng's men quickly fought with Mike's men, and Xi Lingheng and Mike struggled together. For the first time, she realized that Xi Lingheng's Kung Fu was very good, and it did not take long for him to beat Mike to the ground.

The group fight caused by her ended in about ten minutes, and the reason for the end was that the winner and loser had been decided, and the other reason was that the security guards from the University of New Jersey had rushed over.

In the end, both parties were punished. They wrote reviews and demerits. Xi Lingheng was even punished to clean the auditorium for a week. His professor was so angry that he almost kicked him.

"Why are you so impulsive?" The professor lectured him with a dark face. "Don't you know that demerits are a stain on your life?"

"because that's my woman!" Xi Lingheng answered confidently. "My woman doesn't allow others to bully her. A stain in your life is nothing compared to your own woman."

Chapter 1683: Wasn't chapter 1683 for you

Fang Xiao was hiding outside Professor Xi Lingheng's office at the time. She was moved to tears when she heard his reply. Meng ran suddenly felt that this poor guy was actually very good. He was completely qualified to be her man.

That day, Xi Lingheng came out of the professor's office and caught her who was still hiding outside. He immediately pulled her hand and ran to the court. There were many people playing basketball on the court at the moment.

The outdoor table tennis court was between the Basketball Court and the football court. He stepped on a table with one foot and pulled her up with his hand. He wrapped his arm around her waist and announced loudly to everyone “from today onwards, the Black Girl Fang Xiao is your girlfriend. Whoever dares to harass her again will be going against me, Xi Lingheng!”

At that moment, the basketball court and the football court quieted down. After a moment of shock, there was a round of applause. She was hugged tightly by Xi Lingheng and her face instantly turned red.

Later on, Jenny and Ruth asked her, do you think you’ll be happy with a poor boy like Xi Lingheng Or do you think he’ll bring you happiness in the future?

She always smiled and answered, “I believe we’ll be happy because true happiness has little to do with money. The most important thing is whether the two of them have the same mind and heart, and whether they put each other in their hearts.”

She believed that she and Xi Lingheng would be happy, and she also believed that Xi Lingheng would make her happy. So, ever since Xi Lingheng publicly announced that she was his girlfriend, the two of them started to walk together openly.

Of course, she still stayed in the school dormitory, but after class every day, she would accompany Xi Lingheng to work. Xi Lingheng’s new job was to be a waiter in a restaurant, and his job was to be a waiter.

As for her, she went to the restaurant to be a receptionist, which meant that when the guests came, she would help prepare the tea and help with the paperwork. The two of them went to work together, and after work, they would ride his broken bicycle back together.

The restaurant’s business was good. They only got off work at nine o’clock every night, and when they left the restaurant, it was usually 9:30, so the two of them rode the broken bicycle to his small apartment together.

It was winter, and the wind was strong at night. She always hugged his strong waist from behind. Meanwhile, he was pedaling his bicycle while singing the desolate version of “I want to go to Guilin.” “I want to make a lot of money. I want to make a lot of money. When I have money, I will marry Fang Xiao!”

She was giggling behind him. She put her face on his back and whispered to him, “stop singing. The stinky socks in your apartment haven’t been washed yet. They stink.”

“Didn’t I leave them for you?” He was not ashamed at all. He said with conviction, “do you think that everyone can help me wash the stinky socks?”

She immediately laughed and hit his back with her hand, scolding him, “I’ve seen people with thick skin, but I’ve never seen anyone with thicker skin than you. Who would be willing to help you wash your stinky socks?”

“Then where would you be willing to help me wash them?” He stopped his bicycle in front of the apartment, then put his mouth close to her ear and teased, “why don’t we cook dinner tonight, and I’ll let you help me wash that place?”

She immediately kicked him fiercely and angrily said, “in your dreams!”

After scolding him, she immediately walked upstairs to his apartment, while he locked his bicycle at the back and laughed out loud. He seemed to be in a very good mood.

These days seemed to be very dull but they were also very happy. Fang Xiao gradually stopped teaching Jenny and Ruth Chinese. Instead, she spent every day with Xi Lingheng. The two of them were like a piece of gum, except for class and sleeping. The rest of the time, they were practically glued together.

Chapter 1684

At that time, Xi Lingheng often said to her, "Fang Xiao, when we get paid, I'll give you a gift."

They got paid two days before Christmas, so on Christmas Eve, Xi Lingheng said mysteriously that he wanted to give her a gift so that she could guess what kind of gift he had prepared for her.

Of course, she couldn't guess, but she remembered that they had been working at that restaurant every night for the past month, and they still had classes from Monday to Friday during the day. Only on Saturdays and Sundays during the day, the two of them would ride their bikes around the neighborhood.

"It's a pair of chopsticks," she said tentatively.

He could not help but laugh out loud. He picked up a piece of meat and put it into her bowl. "Don't we already have chopsticks?"

Yes, she remembered now. This place used knives and forks to eat, and it was the same in his apartment. One day, she had a sudden urge to eat chopsticks, so the two of them went to a nearby store to look for them, but they still could not find them.

In the end, they went to buy a few big skewers of Turkey Barbecue. The skewers were very thick, so Xi Lingheng used a fruit knife to cut the bamboo skewer and made two pairs of chopsticks.

"Is it a hairpin?" She asked tentatively again.

He rolled his eyes at her. "Don't you have a hairpin? Besides, wouldn't your hair look better if it's naturally loose? What hairpin do you need?"

Hence, she could not guess because he was so poor and had a bad temper. He was determined not to accept the money she gave him. Every time they went out to play, he would not let her pay for it. He insisted on doing it himself. He was so stubborn that he had to suffer.

"I'm your man. It's only right for me to earn money for you to spend!" This was what he often said.

Therefore, after she fell in love with him, not only did she not ease his burden, but she also indirectly increased the burden of his life. As a result, she became more and more uncomfortable and went to work with him.

However, she was a rich lady. Not only did she not do any work at home, but she also had servants at home. Therefore, when she first went to work at the restaurant, not only did she not earn money, but she also spilled tea on the customers' clothes and broke the dishes when she was cleaning up. Because when she walked, she knocked over the tray in the waiter's hand and so on.

In short, after a month, he did receive some salary, and she also received some. However, after deducting that, there was only ninety-nine yuan left.

Therefore, she did not dare to think too much about his gift. It was just a little money. Moreover, it was new year's here, and the restaurant was on vacation. She had to save that little money, otherwise it would not be enough for the two of them.

In the past two days, she had learned a lot. In the morning, she had breakfast at school before coming over. She deliberately bought a set of meals, but she could not finish it. Therefore, in the spirit of shame and waste, she came over to make breakfast for him. Otherwise, he would not eat breakfast again.

When the two of them were together at noon, they inevitably had to eat, but they could not afford to go out to eat, so she learned to cook. She bought discounted dishes from the nearby supermarket and learned to cook according to the recipe.

In the end, his cooking was better than hers. She was always the one who actively went to buy ingredients, and in the end, he was the one who busied himself with the dishes in the kitchen. The two of them sat in front of the short table and ate happily.

At that time, Xi Lingheng's favorite saying was, "I want to make a lot of money. I want to make a lot of money so that I can marry Fang Xiao as my wife! "

She could not guess that he would send her a gift, so she eventually shook her head to show that her imagination was lacking. At most, she could only think of chopsticks and hairpins.

He smiled proudly and ate his dinner with her. Then, he went behind her, picked her up, and sat her on his lap. He told her to close her eyes and said that he was going to send her a gift.

Chapter 1685 you're an idiot

She sat on his lap, which was slightly open, and the heat from his body seeped through the fabric, making her shiver involuntarily.

At that moment, a frightening thought came to her mind: he wouldn't give himself to her as a gift, would he?

She was struck by this thought, and instinctively wanted to struggle down from his lap, while he grabbed her shoulder with one hand and whispered, "don't move, it's almost done. "

It'll be done soon She was curious again. They were both dressed like Friday kings, and they hadn't even taken off their clothes yet. How could it be done immediately?

Could it be that his thing had the ability to pierce through the fabric on the two of them Or was the gift he gave not himself?

Just as Fang Xiao's thoughts were running wild, Meng ran suddenly felt a slightly cold object on her neck. That object gave people the feeling that it was wooden and hard, but it did not have the texture of metal.

"It's done," Xi Lingheng's voice said, and she slowly opened her eyes.

Opposite her was the wardrobe with a mirror. She was only a few feet away from them. She looked at herself in the mirror and there was a necklace around her neck.

It was a string of pearls, but each pearl had a different shape and color. They were connected by a transparent string and looked very nice on her neck.

Of course, such a Pearl Necklace was not considered good. It could almost be said to be made from the lowest quality and most inconspicuous pearls. The cheapest pearls on the market were more than ten times prettier than this.

"where did you get the money to buy the pearls?" She immediately turned around and asked him.

The reason why she asked was because she knew that he probably wore the necklace by hand, because the necklaces sold could not be strung together with such a variety of pearls.

He smiled and hugged her even tighter. He put his head on her neck and looked at the two of them in the mirror. His thin lips exhaled a warm breath between her cheeks.

"I won't tell you." He deliberately kept her in suspense. In the end, his thin lips stuck to her cheek and kissed her heavily before he asked, "Xiaoxiao, aren't you going to give me a Christmas Eve gift?"

His tone was full of ambiguity and his eyes were full of expectation. He even unconsciously held her body tighter and let her stay close to his body.

However, she immediately turned around. Perhaps it was because he held her too tightly and made it difficult for her to breathe, so she couldn't help but push him away with her hand and said, "of course there is. Didn't I just get 99 yuan?"

She accompanied him to work as a part-time worker in the restaurant for a month. In the end, after deducting all the losses, she only had nine yuan left, and she used this 99 yuan to buy him a lighter.

He did not like smoking, but occasionally he smoked one or two. She saw that he usually used that kind of disposable lighter, and sometimes he ran out of gas and did not buy a new one. If he wanted to smoke, he had to turn on the gas stove to start a fire.

So, she bought him the cheapest lighter, which could be lit with gasoline. The lighter was originally 139 yuan, but she had to wring her tongue for a long time for the uncle who sold the lighter. Finally, she bought it back for ninety-nine yuan.

When she took out the lighter, he was stunned for a moment. Then he opened his mouth and hugged her in his arms. After a long while, he said excitedly to her, "you are a fool!"

Chapter 1686: Assistant Secretary

She giggled and gave him a heavy kiss on the cheek, feeling that he was purely complimenting her.

So be it. He wasn't the first one to say that about her. All the boys and girls in school, who wouldn't say that she was a fool?

"Hurry up and get up. Accompany Chenchen to the bathroom." Dongfang Yunheng's slightly dissatisfied voice pulled her back from her memories.

At this moment, he and Gu Chenchen had already walked up to her arm in arm. On Gu Chenchen's neck, the string of three million Pearl Necklace was glowing with the light of love.

She stood up hastily and smiled at Gu Chenchen with slight embarrassment. "I'm sorry, I was too entranced by you just now. You look so beautiful with this necklace on!"

Gu Chenchen revealed a gentle smile and walked towards the bathroom with her. Because Gu Chenchen's high heels were a little high, she had no choice but to use her hand to support her, afraid that she would fall.

Fortunately, there was no danger and they arrived at the bathroom door without any obstruction. She quickly opened her daily necessities bag and asked her in a low voice what she needed.

"A small packet of tissues will do." Gu Chenchen glanced at her daily necessities bag and could not help but laugh when she saw the sanitary pads. "My period is at the beginning of the month. It's only the end of the month now. You're really thoughtful."

Fang Xiao blushed. This bag was prepared by Lin Shanshan, so she said a little awkwardly, "about that, I was afraid that you would suddenly come early, right?"

"Yes, yes," Gu Chenchen replied. He had already used his hand to support the wall and walked into the barrier, while Fang Xiao stood outside the barrier and waited patiently for her.

Actually, the toilet was very smelly. She did not know which stall owner was pooping. She really wanted to walk out of the toilet. However, when she thought of Gu Chenchen's terrifyingly high heels, she immediately dismissed this idea.

Luo Qili used to say that the toilet was where the female lead acted weak. Falling down was one of the best ways. Although some of the floors were really too slippery, some of them were deliberately falling down.

However, no matter what kind of fall Gu Chenchen was going to fall down, she could not bear the responsibility. If she bumped into something and Dongfang Yunheng was determined to break the agreement and ask her to immediately return 500,000 yuan to him, then she would be in trouble.

Fang Xiao did not know if Gu Chenchen's dress was too complicated, but Fang Xiao waited outside for more than ten minutes before she came out. Fortunately, the people blocking her thought that she was in line, so they did not think that it was inappropriate for her to stand in the toilet.

She helped Gu Chenchen out of the toilet with her hand. Gu Chenchen washed his hands by the sink. She quickly opened the daily necessities bag and unzipped the makeup bag inside and handed it to her.

The female lead would usually touch up her makeup appropriately after going to the toilet. This was often written in melodramatic sayings. In the past, when her father took her out to participate in some so-called business activities, those socialites also often touched up their makeup by the sink.

Sure enough, Gu Chenchen took out two powder cakes from her makeup bag. She saw them and wiped them on her face twice. Then, she took some lipstick and lightly applied it on her lips. After that, she was done.

After all, she was born with a natural beauty. This was the simplest way to touch up her make-up that she had ever seen. This was because the socialites and socialites that she had seen before seemed to have to struggle for a long time to touch up their make-up.

“Is Miss Fang short-sighted?” Gu Chenchen walked towards the venue with her. When she turned her face to look at the black-rimmed glasses on the bridge of her nose, she could not help but ask curiously.

Chapter 1687 Pearl Necklace

“Yes, a little bit,” she answered casually.

Actually, she was not short-sighted. Her eyesight had always been very good. The black-rimmed glasses on her nose bridge were actually plain glasses. The purpose of wearing these glasses was just to make herself look more old-fashioned.

The Charity Party finally ended. Her first day of work as a personal secretary had finally come to a successful end. Gu Chenchen was very satisfied with her, and Dongfang Yunheng did not seem to blame her.

When she got into the car, she was still thinking that if every day of work could be as smooth as today, then a year would not be too hard to endure.

Wu Jianping Drove Dongfang Mo and Gu Chenchen back first. Fang Xiao only knew that they had entered a villa community. As for whether the villa belonged to Dongfang Yunheng or the Dongfang family, she did not know.

After sending Dongfang Yunheng and Gu Chenchen back, Wu Jianping drove her back. When she asked Wu Jianping to stop at the entrance of the city village, Wu Jianping could not help but nag, “why did you rent this place? How inconvenient is it to work here?”

“There’s a bus near Dongfang Group,” she explained plainly. She thought to herself, I didn’t know that Xi Lingheng was Dongfang Yunheng before I rented the House Moreover, I didn’t think about going to work at Dongfang Group at that time. All I wanted was to work at the Sun Department Store.

When she returned to her small rented house, it was already past 11 pm. She quickly took her clothes and went to the bathroom to take a shower. Before she was done, her phone rang desperately.

She ended the shower in a flurry and pulled a towel to wrap herself up. Then, she quickly ran out and her phone had stopped ringing.

She let out a long sigh of relief and was about to go to the bathroom to find a towel to wipe her freshly washed hair when her phone rang again. She had no choice but to sit down on the SOFA and use her hand to take out her phone from her bag.

It was an unfamiliar number. She hesitated for a moment before pressing the answer button. Before she could speak, Dongfang Yunheng's cold voice sounded, "why did you take so long to answer the call?"

"I was just taking a shower," she instinctively explained, then quickly asked, "are you still busy tonight?"

There was a long silence on the phone. Just as she thought that he had hung up, a seductive voice suddenly came from the phone, "Yun Heng, do you want to take a shower?"

Her heart twitched instinctively, and the phone was already ringing.

She threw the phone to the side, got up, and walked to the bathroom. She stood by the sink and looked at herself in the mirror. Her hair that she had just washed was messy and scattered on her shoulders. Crystal clear water droplets dripped down one by one and wet her towel. It also wet her heart.

He called her just to tell her that at this moment, he was with another woman. He just wanted to show off to her that he was living well without her!

He was indeed living well. Needless to say, his career was almost at its peak. But what about love? Looking at the interaction between him and Gu Chenchen, one could tell how deep their love was.

She closed her eyes slightly. At this time, she was too lazy to even wipe her hair. She quickly ran out of the bathroom, bent down to pull out the slightly worn suitcase under the bed, quickly opened it, and then quickly began to rummage through it.

After rummaging through it for a long time, she finally found the necklace, the Pearl Necklace. Each Pearl was different in shape, size, and uneven, but it was also incomparably beautiful.

Chapter 1688 eating dinner with him

Five years ago, when he gave her this necklace, he said, "This is the only unique Pearl Necklace in the world. I gave it to the only, unique woman."

The only, unique?

Thinking of this, her tears finally rolled down uncontrollably. At that time, he loved to hug her and sing, "Oh baby, you are my one and only!"

She is his one and only. At that time, they were so young. Even the promise was so easy. Little did they know that the only thing was never possible!

How could such a string of pearls compare to the necklace that was worth three million on Gu Chenchen's neck tonight?

The difference between love and not love could actually be measured by money!

After that day, for a few days, Dongfang Yunheng did not attend any more banquets. In the past few days, he had been eating business packages at the company for lunch. After work in the afternoon, he would drive straight back to the Dongfang House, so Fang Xiao did not have to go with him. Her work was much easier.

However, making coffee was her hard injury. She had already brewed instant coffee for him for a few days. She did not know if he had not drunk it or if he was too busy to notice, but this matter would be exposed sooner or later.

Therefore, she bought a book on how to make coffee and studied it. Then, she learned step by step from the machines in the pantry. Finally, she spent three days to brew the First Cup of Coffee, but it was so bitter that she did not dare to drink it.

Just as she was hesitating whether she should pour the cup of coffee, Xiao Tian ran in and called her, "Fang Xiao, the president is asking about his coffee. Why didn't he bring it in after a long time?"

"Oh, it's almost done," she replied. She immediately put the Cup of coffee that she had taken a sip on the tray and used a small plate to hold the sugar and milk. Only then did she carefully carry it to his office.

He was reading the documents when he saw her slowly bring the coffee in. He said impatiently, "can't you do things more quickly? A Cup of coffee has been brewing for almost an hour. With your work efficiency, are you worthy of the salary offered by the Oriental Group?"

"I'm sorry," she answered truthfully. She lowered her head and did not look at him. Instead, she directly pleaded, "So, I think president, you should change to a better life secretary."

He was slightly stunned. Then, with a cold face, he waved his hand impatiently. "Go down first. Go out with me for lunch. I'm tired of the business set meal every day."

"Yes," she replied politely and quickly turned to leave, but she forgot to ask him, where do you want to eat lunch at noon. Do you want to eat western food or Chinese food?

She only thought of this question when she picked up her phone and was about to book a seat. When she wanted to ask him again, he was no longer in the office for a meeting. Therefore, she had no choice but to force herself to make the decision and book a coffee shop near the company.

At noon, he was indeed not busy. He wanted to go downstairs for lunch. She was his personal secretary, so she could only help him grab his bag and carefully follow behind him, just like a follower in ancient times.

"where are you going for lunch?" He started the car from the driver's seat, his face cold without even looking at her.

"Huamu West Cafe," she answered with a smile while putting on her seatbelt, "I've already booked a seat."

"WHO said you want to eat western food?" Dongfang Yunheng's tone was very bad in the driver's seat. His face, which had been gentle just now, was now cold as if he had borrowed his rice from someone to return his chaff.

Chapter 1689: I'll make you lose your appetite

"Didn't you say that you've gotten tired of the business plan in the past few days?" She carefully explained, "the business plan in the past few days is all Chinese food."

The corner of Dongfang Yunheng's mouth twitched, but he didn't say anything else. He just stepped on the gas pedal, and the car seemed to fly up in an instant.

Fortunately, she had already fastened her seatbelt, so his car flying up only gave her a scare. However, it was a close call, and they arrived in five minutes.

She did not know if Dongfang Yunheng had a grudge against Huamuxi coffee shop, but his face had been dark throughout the meal. It was as if her sitting across from him made him lose his appetite.

Actually, she did not have any appetite sitting across from him, so when they were eating, she kept her head down and buried her head in hard work. She kept urging herself to finish the meal quickly and go out. The air was not so oppressive when she was away from him.

She was not afraid of Xi Lingheng in the past. In the past, the two of them would often fight, but she would always bully him when she was free. He would scream in anger, "a man is a slave before marriage, and an emperor after marriage. I want to marry you as soon as possible and end the life of a slave!"

At that time, she would laugh out loud and run in front of him while teasing him. She would yell, "then hurry up and make money. Marry me after you make money, but if you become the emperor, I will also be the empress. I will never be a slave!"

At that time, The Sun in New Jersey was scorching hot, and the scenery on the beach was beautiful. He and she were chasing and laughing on the beach. They never thought that one day, they might be separated!

In just five years, he had become the emperor without getting married, and she would never have the chance to be his empress. Now, she was already his slave.

"I let you eat so much?" A cold voice was obviously filled with dissatisfaction.

"Oh." She looked up in panic and saw his cold face. She quickly shook her head and explained, "I ate a little too much this morning. I'm not that hungry now."

As she spoke, she put down the knife and fork in her hand. To be honest, after five years, she didn't know how to use the knife and fork anymore.

"I even made you lose your appetite?" He saw that she didn't eat at all and became even more dissatisfied. He could not help but snort coldly. "Don't you know that resources are public? You've only eaten less than one-third of the food, and you're not only wasting money, but it's also a waste of the public resources of society."

She immediately fell silent. She silently picked up her knife and fork and continued to eat the steak on the plate, because he had just said that to her five years ago.

That time was her first time learning how to make dumplings. She spent a lot of effort, making her eyes and nose full of flour, and finally made a pile of dumplings that did not look like dumplings. Dumplings did not look like Buns, and pies did not look like pies.

This was not the worst part. The worst part was that she did not know how to cook the dumplings. Therefore, the dumplings that were finally cooked were filled with the stuffing and the skin.

Although he was poor, he was still very picky. He did not want to eat the dumplings that day after only a few bites. In the end, she used that sentence to scold him. Then, of course, he obediently ate the pot with her.

Therefore, when he said this sentence, she could not find a reason to refute. Even if she could not taste the steak, she still forced herself to stuff the plate of steak rice into her stomach.

Chapter 1690 Love You hate you ask if you know

On the way to dinner, he received a phone call. She heard him say in a gentle voice, “Chenchen, I’ve already eaten. I ate at the Huamuxi coffee shop that we used to come to...”

Fang Xiao finally understood why he was unhappy to come to Huamuxi coffee shop with her. It turned out that this was the place where he and Gu Chenchen dated. He probably did not want to come with other women, especially her.

At night, Dongfang Yunheng did not participate in any business activities. He could have gotten off work earlier, but he had to work overtime tonight. Lin Shanshan said that she seemed to have a meeting about bidding for a certain piece of land.

Fang Xiao was just a personal secretary. She didn’t care about Dongfang Yunheng’s work matters. If Lin Shanshan said something, she would listen. She didn’t say anything and never asked anything.

Dongfang Yunheng’s meeting was held very late, and he didn’t get off work until about 10 pm. She stayed up until this time, so when she walked out of the Dongfang Group’s building, the street was already deserted.

Wu Jianping didn’t work overtime tonight, so it was impossible for him to send her home tonight. Dongfang Yunheng couldn’t drive her home either, because his Gu Chenchen was already waiting for him to go to the midnight movie with him.

Binhai was a first-tier city, and there were still overtime buses at more than ten o’clock in the evening, but it was relatively rare. She waited for more than ten minutes before one came, so she quickly got on the bus.

At this time, there were very few people in the bus compartment. The bus driver was a forty-something-year-old big brother. Maybe he was a local, or maybe he was a fan of Zhou Runfa and Zhao Yazhi. At this time, the theme song of the old version of Shanghai beach was playing in the bus compartment.

I love you and hate you, but you ask if you know it / it’s like the river never stops / it turns a thousand times and turns a thousand times / it still hasn’t calmed down the fight / it’s both happy and sad / even if I can't tell the difference between happiness and sadness / I still want to make a thousand waves / I have enough ups and downs in my heart. . .

She sat by the window of the car and looked out at the high and short buildings and some telephone poles that flashed by outside the window. The dim lights and the lonely and lonely street lights flashed past her eyes. It was like an old Shanghai movie.

Five years ago, she and he also loved to watch movies. They were so poor but so happy. One day, he borrowed a CD from God knows where. It was an old movie from the eighties, "Shanghai Beach" by Zhou Runhua and Zhao Yazhi.

At that time, he liked Xu Wenqiang the most. He even said that Xu Wenqiang was truly infatuated. Even before he died, he still talked about going to France, because his beloved Cheng Cheng was in France.

Thinking of this, her heart could not help but suffocate. In the end, Xu Wenqiang was not with his Cheng Cheng. ...

After the bus swayed for forty minutes, it finally arrived at the bus stop near the village in the city where she was. It was already past 11 o'clock in the evening. From this bus stop to the village in the city, the shortcut was nearly 600 meters. If she took the main road.. It was estimated to be more than a kilometer away.

This six hundred meter road was very remote because it had not been completely repaired. There were not even street lights, and there was no normal traffic. During the day, some people from the village would rush to and from work to take the bus on this road.

She mustered her courage and walked towards the village. Although there were no street lights, it was fortunate that there was a mysterious moon in the sky. A crescent moon shone down, and the light was hazy, so it was not completely impossible to see the road.

Just as she reached the turn, she suddenly heard footsteps behind her, So Meng turned her head, wanting to see who was still working so late like her.
