Chapter 1821 meeting an old friend again

That night, she went to the Times imperial court private room and accompanied the boss to entertain a client. Originally, this kind of thing was not up to her. There was a secretary or a team leader, but on this day, the secretary was sick and the team leader had something to do, and her spoken English was the best. Thus, she was forcefully dragged to the top.

The private room was filled with red wine and beautiful women, English and Chinese, and Japanese was shuttling between them. She was not good at such occasions, but when the boss finished his business talk and talked wine and beautiful women with the client, she found an excuse to walk out. She thought of taking a breath in the corridor.

The corridor was very dark, and there was a small orange searchlight on the wall. Even the exquisite and cold glass tiles were slightly warm. She stood by the window and stared blankly at the city with the flashing neon lights.

Someone walked past her, and a faint smell drifted in with the wind in the air. It was a little familiar, but she did not turn around, treating it as an illusion. After all, that perfume could not only be sold to one person.

The person's footsteps stopped after a few steps, and then a low and hoarse voice came from behind, "Fang Xiao? Are You Fang Xiao? "

This time, not only was the smell familiar, but even the voice was so familiar. When the footsteps approached her, she turned around and raised her head. As expected, the person standing in front of her was the familiar yet unfamiliar person — Dongfang Yunheng!

Fang Xiao was almost instantly stunned. When she came to Binhai, she had thought that she might meet Dongfang Yunheng because he was in this city, one of the thousands of people in this city.

But then she thought that this city was so big and had so many people, and the circle she lived in and the circle he lived in were one in the sky and one in the earth. In fact, it was not so easy to meet him unless he specifically came to find her.

After she left the western district, she had lived in Hui city for more than a month, but Dongfang Yunheng didn't find her. From this, it could be seen that he wouldn't come to pester her anymore.

"Fang Xiao, why are you here?" Dongfang Yunheng's voice pulled her back from her thoughts. The moment she looked up again, he was already in front of her.

Almost instinctively, she dodged to the side and distanced herself from him. Then, she quickly used her hand to adjust the glasses on the bridge of her nose. Just as she was about to speak, someone called her at the door of the private room not far away.

"Fang Xiao, let's go," the general manager's voice came from the door of the private room. "Hurry up and pay the bill. "

“Oh, ” she replied and quickly ran toward the private room, no longer paying attention to Dongfang Yunheng who was standing behind her with a deep frown.

After settling the bill, she walked out of the Royal Court with the general manager. The general manager and his group were still going to Karaoke. Fang Xiao found an excuse for her sore throat and did not follow them. Instead, she hailed a taxi and went back.

The Royal Court was a little far from her dormitory. She sat in the front passenger seat and looked out of the window at a traffic light junction. When she noticed that the car behind the car next to her looked familiar, her heart immediately skipped a beat. Just as she was about to stick her head out to take a closer look, the taxi quickly started.

Fortunately, in the remaining time, she had looked out of the window more than once, but she did not see the car again. Only then did her slightly panicked heart finally calm down.

The dormitory of a foreign-funded company was in an old neighborhood, which was actually considered a suburb. It was said that all the employees of the foreign-funded company agreed to this. Because the rent here was cheap, the price of an apartment in the downtown area.. This place could be rented two to three times.

Chapter 1822: You should have seen

Because the apartment was not expensive, and because the distance to work was a little far, the boss of the foreign company was very generous. Each employee had a 20 square meter apartment with a kitchen, bathroom, and balcony as a dormitory.

Because it was a little late, Fang Xiao immediately went to the bathroom to take a shower after returning to the dormitory. Because she had drunk two glasses of red wine in the evening for social events, she was slightly intoxicated. When she took a shower, her head was a little dizzy, and her face was still burning hot.

After taking a shower, she heard a knock on the door when she was still washing clothes. She did not care because the person next door was a colleague, so she walked out of the bathroom and naturally opened the door.

When she found Dongfang Yunheng standing outside the door, she quickly pushed the door with her hand and tried to shut him out. Unfortunately, her strength was not his match, so she was forced in by him in the end.

“What on Earth do you want to do?” Fang Xiao’s tone was very displeased. She was very dissatisfied with his rude and rude way of forcing his way in, and her face was full of warmth and anger.

Dongfang Yunheng was slightly stunned. Seeing her angry face, he said in a low voice after a long while, “actually, it’s nothing. I just want to... come and see you. “

“You’ve already seen it.” Fang Xiao suppressed the anger in her heart. If she had not considered the fact that her colleagues lived next door and that she did not want to disturb her colleagues in the middle of the night, she would definitely have used a broom to chase him away.

“Yes, I’ve already seen it.” He looked at her and nodded. His face revealed a faint mocking expression. “I’ve seen how well you’ve lived after you left me. I’ve seen the life of your rich and noble wife. I’ve seen...”

When he said this, he could not help but laugh. The mocking expression on his face became even more intense. “I’ve seen your so-called future. So it turns out that you only want this kind of future. Why didn’t you say so earlier? Could it be that I, Dongfang Yunheng, am so stupid that I can’t even give you this kind of future?”

Fang Xiao stood there. Every word he said was like a sharp blade piercing into her chest. Five years ago, it turned out that he remembered every word she said to him five years ago. It turned out that he had come to look for her time and time again. It was not that he still had lingering feelings for her, it was not that he still remembered her well-being, but..

It was that he wanted to see her make a fool of herself, to see her end, to see the so-called life of a rich and noble lady that she had lived after abandoning him all those years ago!

She thought of that snowy evening five years ago. She thought of how she had walked alone for a long, long time five years ago. She thought of the pain of crying blood five years ago. She thought of... ..

She actually could not continue thinking about it. She had once loved the poor Xi Lingheng, but the man in front of her was not Xi Lingheng after all. Half a year ago, when he chased her out of Jiangnan’s famous city and threw her on the street in the pouring rain.. The contract he left for her clearly stated that Xi Lingheng was dead.

Yes, Xi Lingheng was dead. The Xi Lingheng who loved her and doted on her was already dead. Now, she had to face this Dongfang Yunheng who pestered her and wanted to see her end as a joke!

“since you’ve already seen it, then, are you satisfied with what you’ve seen?” Fang Xiao finally came to her senses. She looked at the man in front of her with an indifferent face. Even her tone was no longer warm and angry. It was as if she was talking to a stranger.

His heart trembled slightly. He was satisfied. How could he not be satisfied?

Seeing that she was not living well, seeing that she was so down and out, and even seeing that she had lost an eye, he should be quite satisfied!

Chapter 1823, are you satisfied

But, why was his heart still in such pain? But, why did he feel like he had lost his precious treasure again when he could no longer find her by the western coast?

Fang Xiao walked over, pulled open the door, and gestured for him to leave quickly. “Mr. Dongfang, it’s getting late. Can you please leave? It’s the middle of the night, I don’t want a strange man to stay in my room.”

“Okay.” He did not continue to pester her. He just looked at her in her conservative pajamas. Perhaps it was because she did not have a coat that was cold, but her body was actually trembling.

He promised that he would, but he did not move a step. It was obvious that he had no intention of leaving. His eyes were still staring at her without blinking.

Fang Xiao was finally angry. Her voice could not help but raise two decibels. "Mr. Dongfang, do you want to leave? If not, I will call the building's security. "

Dongfang Yunheng did not expect Fang Xiao to be so angry. He looked at the corridor outside, and it seemed like passersby were turning their heads to this side. So he quickly said in a low voice, "okay, I will leave, okay? "

Fang Xiao's face was ice-cold. She stared at him and did not say anything more. However, it was clear from her eyes that she was chasing him away.

In the end, he was still tactful. He did not stand there shamelessly and did not move. Instead, he turned around and walked out of the door. However, when he reached the door, he turned around and shouted something at her.

"Bang! " The sound of Fang Xiao closing the door heavily shut him and the sentence.

Fang Xiao thought that Dongfang Yunheng would not come looking for her anymore because she felt that she had nothing to do with him. He did not owe her anything, and she did not owe him anything.

Now, she and he were one in the sky and the other on the ground. He was flying freely in the sky, while she was rolling in the mud. who had ever seen an eagle always thinking about the loach in the mud?

However, this thought only lasted for one day. When she got off work the next night, she took the bus back to her dormitory. When she used the key to open her dormitory door, she was stunned by the furnishings in the room.

The dormitory, which was originally more than 20 square meters, used to have a 1.2-meter single bed that was relatively empty. Her bed was not even placed against the wall.

But now, that bed was leaning against the wall, and her simple linen closet had disappeared. It had been replaced by a wooden closet with sliding doors, and the space between the bed and the wooden closet was empty. There was actually a simple Linen Double Sofa and a small glass coffee table.

And next to the bed, there was a small, almost child-sized computer desk with a bookcase squeezed in. It really took up the little space.

She rubbed her eyes, thinking that she had opened the wrong door, so she quickly pushed it out and looked up at the door number. It was indeed her dormitory door number.

With a lot of doubt in her heart, she walked in again. The bathroom door was opened, and Dongfang Yunheng walked out wearing a casual nightgown.

She woke up from her shock and couldn't help but roar angrily, "Hey, Dongfang Yunheng, what do you mean? This is my dormitory! "

"I know. " He was indifferent to her anger and sat down on the Double Sofa. He picked up a can of coffee from the coffee table, opened it and drank it.

Chapter 1824 The agreement had not expired

“You still came here knowing that?” Fang Xiao was so angry that she almost vomited blood. What did this man mean? He just couldn’t bear to see her life a little better, could he?

“I remember that you and I signed a one-year contract to sell our bodies.” As he spoke, he picked up the briefcase beside him and took out a document that she had signed and handed it to her.

“You...” Fang Xiao stared at the document. There was indeed her and his signature on it, but what exactly was going on? Didn’t he give her a copy half a year ago??

“We signed two copies back then.” He seemed to know the doubts in her heart, so he crossed his legs and explained calmly to her, “the copy that was given back to you was originally yours, but isn’t my copy still in my hands?”

“But...” Fang Xiao clenched the agreement in her hands tightly. She gritted her teeth and after a while, she said, “but you wrote in that agreement back then...”

“Xi Lingheng is dead,” he continued her words and said calmly, “Miss Fang, look carefully. I signed this one with Dongfang Yunheng. I didn’t write that Dongfang Yunheng is dead.”

Fang Xiao stared at the agreement in her hands. When she sold her body, she did sign two agreements. One was signed by Xi Lingheng, and the other was blank.

She had mistakenly thought that the one Xi Lingheng wanted didn’t need his signature as long as she signed it, but who knew that... Dongfang Yunheng was too disgusting ...

“What do you mean by this now?” It took her a long time to understand. Her eyes quickly scanned through the room, and she had a vague ominous feeling.

“Of course I’m following the agreement.” Dongfang Yunheng yawned and said lazily, “wasn’t it written in the agreement ‘I didn’t provide you with a place to live. So, in order not to affect your work and earn money, I forced myself to move to your place.’”

“You...” Fang Xiao was so angry that she almost vomited blood, but there was nothing she could do. Who asked this damn agreement to be limited to a year?

“Don’t you you you.” Dongfang Yunheng was clearly a little impatient with her being frozen here. He couldn’t help but wave his hand and said, “why aren’t you taking a shower? I’m a Germaphobe, so don’t be so close to me when you sleep at night.”

“What If... I don’t want to fulfill this agreement?” Fang Xiao still stood there without moving. Never in her wildest dreams did she expect that this bastard Dongfang Yunheng would actually be so shameless as to force her into a dead end ...

“If you don’t want to fulfill the agreement, then pay me double the money.” Dongfang Yunheng shrugged his shoulders, looking as if he was eager for her to break the agreement. He pointed at the agreement with his finger and said, “didn’t it say that whoever breaks the agreement will pay the other party double the money?”

Fang Xiao couldn't help but suck in a breath of cold air. She was already so poor that she had no money. Now, she didn't even have 10,000 yuan in her bankbook, let alone a million yuan.

Seeing Fang Xiao make a sound, Dongfang Yunheng said slowly, "actually, the agreement between you and I only has less than a month left. Do you think you need to pay 1,000,000 yuan for these three months? "

Fang Xiao immediately did not make a sound. The Difference Between Three Months and 1,000,000 yuan was something that even a fool could calculate, not to mention that she was not a fool?

"When this agreement expires, the two of us will no longer have anything to do with each other, right? " She finally accepted her fate and asked. She did not want to continue arguing with him because she definitely could not outargue him.

Chapter 1825: He squeezed into his life

"Of course. " He raised his thick eyebrows and looked at her from top to bottom. Then he said indifferently, "Don't tell me Miss Fang still thinks that she is so charming that I can't bear to leave you? "

Fang Xiao immediately turned around and walked to the wardrobe. Since there were less than three months left, she could only bite the bullet and swallow the blood. She would just endure these three months.

He could live here if he liked. As long as a rich young master like him did not mind the cramped space, she believed that he would not come again in a few days if he was not used to living here.

Two-thirds of the things in Fang Xiao's room were Dongfang Yunheng's. When she took her pajamas and walked into the bathroom, she realized that two-thirds of the bathroom was occupied by him. On the sink.. Men used shampoo, shampoo, facial cleanser, shaving cream, and so on. His towel was hanging carelessly beside her towel, looking completely like a male host.

What was even more outrageous was that in the plastic basket beside her, there were clothes that he had just changed into. It was obvious that he wanted her to help him wash them later.

She was so angry that she pulled out his clothes and threw them on the ground. She stomped on them with her feet as hard as she could. It took her a long time to vent her anger. However, after she took a shower, she found that the clothes were covered with her footprints. She felt extremely uncomfortable. Tears rolled down from her eyes that were not blind.

In the end, she picked up his clothes and threw them into the sink. She put a lot of soap powder with her clothes and rubbed them with her hands. It was as if she was rubbing the man who was pestering her.

By the time she went to the bathroom and washed their clothes and came out with a pair of glasses, the room was already dark, and there was already a slight sound of breathing coming from the small bed.

She secretly breathed a sigh of relief and quickly picked up the clothes in the basin and tiptoed past the bed. She went to the balcony, found a clothes hanger, and hung their clothes.

She closed the balcony door, walked into the room in the dark, and climbed up the bed because he had taken over the side of the bed like a boss, and the other side of the bed was against the wall.

She climbed to the side of the pillow, lifted a corner of the quilt, and climbed in. Her body carefully leaned against the wall. She told him not to get close to him, so she did not dare to get close to him. She could not wait to get as far away from him as possible.

In fact, when she was washing the clothes, it was not that she had not calculated where she would sleep tonight. She had thought of sleeping on the floor, but there was not enough space on the floor for one person to lie down. She had thought of sleeping on the SOFA, and that small two-seater SOFA would probably be crowded with two adults Not to mention sleeping.

Of course, all of these could be made do. The most important thing was that she only had a bed sheet, a quilt, and even a pillow. Now, all of them were occupied by her former financial backer, no, it was still her financial backer now.

The bed was not big, only 1.2 meters wide. However, the other person was tall and strong, so lying on the bed took up more than half of the space. Therefore, she leaned against the wall and used a small bag bear that she had brought from Huicheng as a pillow She could still feel the breath of a person half a foot away from her.

Fortunately, he was already asleep, so she felt a little relieved. So she leaned sideways, took off her glasses from the bridge of her nose, put them under the small bear, and slowly closed her eyes.

But just as she relaxed her body and mind, he, who was sleeping, squeezed over. She moved more and more toward the wall, trying to squeeze herself into the wall.

Chapter 1826: the Rights of the financier

However, the wall was the wall. She could not squeeze in at all. In the end, she was still tightly squeezed by him. Her back was inevitably leaning against his chest, and it was tightly pressed against him.

“What do you want to do?” She growled in the dark, but her voice was obviously trembling in fear.

He reached out and pulled her into his embrace. An ambiguous chuckle came from beside her ear. “Fang Xiao, you are a woman who has been married before. Don’t tell me that you don’t know what men and women do in bed?”

Fang Xiao immediately fell silent. She had indeed been married before, but she had no experience in such matters. Her only experience was when she was drugged by Du Caiwei, but she could not remember that time at all.

He thought that her silence was because she was shy, so he turned her body around and made her face him instead of her back. He lowered his head and searched for her face in the darkness with his Thin Lips.

Fang Xiao was so nervous that she was trembling. She knew that he had forcefully and domineeringly moved to her place, so she would not be able to escape this hurdle. Moreover, he had spent 500,000 yuan to buy her. It seemed that he had not even enjoyed the rights of a financial backer.

Therefore, now that he had come to ask for her as a Sugar Daddy, she could not refuse. She could not say no because she had signed the contract of selling her body back then.

She thought that he was searching for her lips in the darkness, so she quickly pursed her lips tightly and bit her teeth tightly. His thin lips landed on her forehead and then slowly slid down. Finally, he stopped on her eyes that only had eyes but could not move like a dry well and kissed her deeply. ...

Fang Xiao's instinctive fear, an unprecedented fear, attacked her in an instant. Although she had been raped once in the Windsor Hotel Room, she was controlled by drugs that time. The whole process was blurry to her and she did not remember anything at all.

Now, she was so clear. Dongfang Yunheng was hugging her tightly, and his thin lips were sucking hard on her dry eyes, as if he was trying to suck the dry well out of its spring.

She struggled hard and could not help but push his head away. She did not want him to kiss her eye. That would only make her more pessimistic and desperate. She even thought that she had entered a pitch-black world where she could no longer see the light.

He was obviously dissatisfied with her resistance and struggle, but his thin lips had already let go of her eye. It slid down the bridge of her small and slightly straight nose and landed on her pink lips. He kissed her hard, almost persistently.

She pursed her lips and gritted her teeth. Under his intense attack, she seemed to be utterly defeated. He had actually broken through her in just a few seconds... ..

Although the lights in the room were not turned on, the street lights outside shone in through the not-so-dark curtains. There was still a faint dim light, which made the room seem even more ambiguous.

Fang Xiao continued to struggle and resist, trying to break free from his embrace. Unfortunately, he had no intention of letting go of her... ..

Fang Xiao's mouth was gagged by his mouth, and it became difficult for her to breathe. The only thought in her mind was to stop him, because his big hand was actually reaching into her nightgown. Fang Xiao's nerves instantly tensed up. Her entire body suddenly stiffened.

So, in a panic, she immediately reached out her hand and grabbed his wrist in the darkness. Her voice trembled as she begged in a low voice, "no... I don't want... "
