

Divorce 1871

Chapter 1871: I believe

She hurriedly ran forward. In fact, she hadn't prepared anything. She could only rub her hands together and say to Qiu Yitang, "well... have a safe trip. Let's keep in touch if you have time! "

She thought that perhaps there was no other fiancée and wife in this world who were as unfamiliar as the two of them. Even when they saw each other off at the airport, they didn't say anything affectionate. The words they said were extremely polite, but in fact, they were extremely unfamiliar.

Qiu Yitang nodded politely and then asked without any trace, "Fang Xiao, you said that your friend wanted your main room to look like a main room. What do you think the main room should look like? "

"Look like a main wife?" Fang Xiao tilted her head and thought for a moment. Then, she jokingly said, "of course, the main wife can not tolerate the existence of a mistress. So, Qiu Yitang, you have to think twice when looking for a mistress. Otherwise, if I find out about it, I might get rid of you and the mistress together. "

"If you didn't talk like that at the airport, I wouldn't be so determined to think that the mastermind was you." Qiu Yitang saw that Fang Xiao finally remembered, so he couldn't help but say with difficulty.

Fang Xiao only felt amused when she heard Qiu Yitang's words. She coldly said, "Qiu Yitang, although we were engaged at that time, we weren't familiar with each other. We didn't understand each other. You asked me what the main wife should be like. If I didn't answer like that, how would I answer? Could it be that I told you that you could do whatever you wanted outside? I wouldn't care if you were looking for a woman outside?"

Qiu Yitang was instinctively stunned because he didn't think about this question at that time. At that time, his heart was only filled with the tragedy that happened that night, and his heart was already certain that Fang Xiao had done it. He thought that she was ruthless and merciless in cleaning up the woman beside him. Therefore, a casual sentence from her could connect him to the incident that night.

"okay, Qiu Yitang, you've asked me all the questions you wanted to ask, and I've answered all the questions I should have answered," Fang Xiao said and took a deep breath. She looked up at the man in front of her. Then, she said indifferently, "I know you won't believe me, and I don't ask you to believe me. If you still believe that I did that thing, if you think that I've only met with the pornographic photos, had a miscarriage of a bastard child, had a label on my back that says that I'm a ruined woman, and that losing an eye isn't enough to make you feel that you've already avenged the woman you love, then you can continue to think of ways to take revenge on me. "

"Fang Xiao, it's not like that." Qiu Yitang could not help but cry out in pain. He lowered his eyes and stared at the woman standing in front of him. His pitch-black eyes were filled with pain and regret. "Fang Xiao, I believe it. I really believe it. It's just that back then... I was so confused..."

"Humph, are you confused?" Fang Xiao found Qiu Yitang's words funny. She could not help but snort coldly. She took two steps back and put some distance between them. Then, she said indifferently, "actually, when you called back then, you should have asked me directly if I had done anything to Du Caiwei. Or, when you were at the airport, you could have told me about it and asked me if I had done it... “

“I didn’t dare to ask at that time, ” Qiu Yitang quickly concluded Fang Xiao’s words Then, he instinctively defended himself, “Fang Xiao, at that time, I was about to leave the country, and my father and your father were working together. My father would definitely help the Fang Corporation. Caiwei was left alone in Hui city. I’m afraid that if I told you directly, once I leave Hui city... “. ..

Chapter 1872: You did the right thing

“You’re worried that if you leave, I’ll do something even more vicious to her?” Fang Xiao finally understood. She took a deep breath and said indifferently, “It seems that the two of us are indeed not suitable to be married as a couple because our thoughts and styles are worlds apart. “

“Fang Xiao, it’s not like that. ” Qiu Yitang heard Fang Xiao say this and became a little anxious again. He could not help but quickly say, “Fang Xiao, I misunderstood you at that time. I didn’t confront you face to face because... “

“President Qiu, I’ve already answered everything that I should have said and answered. As for other things, I think there’s nothing more to talk about between us. ” Fang Xiao took a deep breath as she said this Then, she smiled bitterly and said, “of course, if you still want to find me entangled in that matter, then I suggest you call the police. No, call the police and expose the scene of your beloved woman having sex with those men. Then... “. “You’d better find a private detective and find those few people. Then, with your current power, President Qiu, wouldn’t it be a piece of cake to deal with a few kidnappers? “

After saying that, Fang Xiao turned around and was about to leave, but Qiu Yitang grabbed her wrist again. Fang Xiao felt extremely annoyed and couldn’t help but growl, “President Qiu, what do you mean? ”

“Fang Xiao, I want to... apologize to you, ” Qiu Yitang said in a slightly hurried tone, “last year’s pornographic photos... “

“There’s no need to apologize. I also know that the pornographic photos were arranged by you and Du Caiwei, ” Fang Xiao said coldly Her cold gaze landed on Qiu Yitang’s face. “CEO Qiu, I used to think that Du Caiwei was the one who set me up that night. Now that you’ve stopped me, I finally understand that Du Caiwei wasn’t the only one who set me up. Of course, your explanation tonight also made me understand another truth. That is, you really loved Du Caiwei deeply and truly. In order to help her take revenge, you actually used the same method to take revenge on me. Now, do you want to explain to me that, compared to what happened to du Caiwei five years ago, you’ve already been very kind to me by preparing a bed for me at Windsor Hotel. It’s already very kind of you to not let me be taken turns by a few men in the open-air dam. As for... “

Fang Xiao paused, took a deep breath, and clenched her other hand into a fist under her sleeve After a while, she mustered up her courage and said, “as for the slap you gave me at the Gu family’s banquet and knocked out the bastard in my stomach, to be honest, I’m very grateful to you. Thank you for helping me get rid of the bastard in my stomach... “

“Fang Xiao, it’s not like that.” Hearing Fang Xiao’s words, Qiu Yitang’s self-reproach and discomfort intensified, and cold sweat dripped faintly from his forehead His voice was slightly trembling as he said, “Fang Xiao, I know. I was wrong. I did those things...”

“You’ve always done those things very well.” Fang Xiao quickly interrupted Qiu Yitang’s words Then, she coldly said, “for the sake of your beloved woman to restore her Du family, you thought of ways to bring down our Fang family. In order to help your beloved woman get justice, in order to help your beloved woman get revenge, your actions are worthy of praise. This is what a man who loves his woman deeply should do. You’re very affectionate. At the same time, you’re also very great.”

Chapter 1873. She was going to resign

“Fang Xiao, it’s not like that. I didn’t mean that,” Qiu Yitang said painfully. He stared at Fang Xiao and said in a trembling voice, “Fang Xiao, I know I’m wrong. Now, I’m going to...”

“President Qiu, I don’t have the time or mood to listen to your plans,” Fang Xiao interrupted Qiu Yitang again Then she said coldly, “it’s getting late. I’m going back to the dormitory. Can you please move aside “If you really have a shred of conscience left, please stay away from US siblings. We can’t enjoy your kindness, and we really can’t bear your disaster anymore.”

After saying this, Fang Xiao used all her strength to shake off Qiu Yitang’s hand that was holding her wrist.

Qiu Yitang looked at Fang Xiao who was running towards the dormitory and watched her leave without looking back. He just stood there and watched her back gradually disappear from his sight.

He finally figured out what had happened five years ago, and finally understood that he had wronged her. Now, he wanted to ask for her forgiveness and atone for his sins, but she would never give him a chance.

Fang Xiao originally did not intend to leave this company. To be honest, this company was not bad. Whether it was the working environment or the treatment, it was very good. She even thought of working in this company forever.

However, Qiu Yitang’s appearance and Qiu Yitang’s pestering made her feel satisfied with this company. Therefore, that night, she thought about it and finally decided to resign and leave.

She called Liu Yijun and said that she wanted to resign. Liu Yijun was shocked and quickly asked her what was going on. She then told her the truth about Qiu Yitang’s situation.

After hearing her words, Liu Yijun could not persuade her to stay in this foreign-funded company. However, she also advised her to think it through because it was almost August here. With another batch of university graduates coming out of society, the competition for positions would be even fiercer It was very difficult to find another job like this.

Fang Xiao knew that it was very difficult, but she still did not want to be pestered by Qiu Yitang. Although she did not understand why Qiu Yitang kept pestering her, because she and Qiu Yitang really had nothing to do with each other anymore.

She handed in her resignation the next morning, which shocked the manager very much. He quickly asked her why she wanted to resign, whether she was dissatisfied with the company's treatment or something?

She immediately said No. The reason for her resignation was very simple. She had a retarded brother. Recently, her brother was not in a good mood, and there was a lot of overtime work in the company. She did not have time to accompany her brother, so she wanted to change to a job that did not involve much overtime work.

The general manager said that since she did not like to work overtime, then in the future, she would try her best to call her as little as possible when she had social engagements. As for the salary, our company's original salary increase was only three months later. Then, we will give you a little special. We will give you a raise in two months What do you think?

Fang Xiao still shook her head. She said that it was not a problem of a raise in salary, and it was not just a problem of overtime work. Her brother's situation was a little serious, and he needed to look for her during the day, so she temporarily did not plan to go to work.

Since Fang Xiao insisted on resigning, the manager could not persuade her to stay. He only said that if she wanted to return to the company in the future, the company would naturally welcome her. Then, he asked her to hand over her job to her new successor.

Chapter 1874-do you still want your things

Fang Xiao had only been working in this company for two months, and the colleagues in this foreign-funded company all used English names, so they did not have much contact in private. Even if they were to leave, they would simply greet each other in English.

Because of her good oral English, Fang Xiao was responsible for communicating with foreign businessmen by phone, so the people who were close to her were actually the general manager's secretary and her direct boss.

Her direct boss felt that it was a pity for her to leave, saying that her work efficiency was very good and that she really could not bear to part with anything. Of course, Fang Xiao knew that these were just words on the surface.

She used two days to transfer her work clearly and then went to the finance department to collect her salary. At the same time, the personnel department informed her that she had to move out of the dormitory within two days because her new colleagues would move into the dormitory.

Fang Xiao didn't have many things on her own. She planned to temporarily move to Liu Yijun's place for a few days. At the same time, she also had to communicate with Fang Chen's school to see Fang Chen's development before deciding whether to continue staying in Bincheng.

She didn't have many things, but her dormitory had a lot of things because most of them were from that crazy Dongfang Yunheng. He hadn't come to her dormitory ever since he sent her to Jiangnan's famous city that night.

Fang Xiao had no choice but to call Dongfang Yunheng. In fact, she almost never called him because he was usually the one who came to look for her, and she didn't need to look for him.

Fortunately, her phone usually didn't have a lot of call records, so even if she couldn't remember Dongfang Yunheng's number, she could still find his phone number in the call records.

After she dialed Dongfang Yunheng's phone number, it was picked up in a few seconds. Dongfang Yunheng's voice sounded pleasantly surprised. "Xiao Xiao, you called me? "

"I resigned. The company requested that I move out of the dormitory." Fang Xiao directly ignored Dongfang Yunheng's surprise and said lightly, "do you still want these things that you put in my dormitory? If you want them, come and move them. If you don't, I'll just throw them away. "

There was a long period of silence from the phone. Just when Fang Xiao thought that Dongfang Yunheng had already hung up the phone, his low voice sounded again. "Of course I want them. When are you moving? "

"Alright, I got it. I'll come and move them today." After Dongfang Yunheng said this on the other end of the phone, he immediately hung up the phone. It was obvious that he did not intend to say another word to Fang Xiao.

Fang Xiao did not bother about these things. She and Dongfang Yunheng had a contractual relationship to begin with. Since he had not come over in the past few days, he must have been apologizing to Gu Chenchen. She only hoped that the remaining two months would pass smoothly.

Dongfang Yunheng said that he would come over today to move his things. Then, she did not need to bother about his things. She just needed to pack up her things and move them away.

Fang Xiao originally wanted to move to Liu Yijun's place first. Moreover, she had already agreed with Liu Yijun last night. However, before she could pack up her things, Dongfang Yunheng had already arrived.

"Pack up my things," Dongfang Yunheng said with a slightly unhappy frown when he saw the woman who was busy packing up her things.

"I want to move to my friend's place," Fang Xiao explained indifferently. She did not pack up his things because she was afraid that she would mix up their things.

Chapter 1875, then work for me

"Why move to your friend's place? Why don't you just move to my place?" Dongfang Yunheng was very dissatisfied with her words. Without waiting for her reply, he lightly reminded her, "I remember that our agreement hasn't expired yet. "

Fang Xiao only felt a little uncomfortable. What she was afraid of really came true. Thus, she pondered for a moment and said, "you mean you want me to move to a famous city in Jiangnan? "

"Isn't a famous city in Jiangnan good?" Dongfang Yunheng's brows slightly sank. Then, he continued to ask, "Oh right, I let you stay in a famous city in Jiangnan that night. Why did you leave when you arrived? "

“President Dongfang, that place is the love nest of you and the woman you love. With my status, how could I have the nerve to take over a magpie’s nest?” Fang Xiao said faintly. Wasn’t she embarrassed enough to be stopped by Gu Chenchen that night?

“Love Nest?” Dongfang Yunheng’s heart skipped a beat instinctively. That place belonged to him alone. Other than Fang Xiao, he had never brought a second woman there. What did she mean by that? Could it be that she met someone that night?

“Then we won’t move to a famous Jiangnan city.” He didn’t pursue her because he knew that even if he did, based on her personality, she might not say anything.

“I still want to...”

“Don’t think about it. quickly pack up our things.” Dongfang Yunheng quickly interrupted Fang Xiao’s words, and then said indifferently, “why think so much? Can’t we just have a place for you to live?”

Fang Xiao immediately didn’t say anything. Dongfang Yunheng was her financier, and she couldn’t resist the power of the financier, even though the 500,000 that she sold her body for didn’t save her father’s life.

Dongfang Yunheng had a lot of things, and there were many scattered things. Fang Xiao even packed up for a long time, but the big items he bought couldn’t be taken away, and could only be left for the people who would live in this dormitory in the future.

Fang Xiao was still thinking about where Dongfang Yunheng would let her move to. When Dongfang Yunheng’s car arrived, she found out that it was actually on the 39th floor of the Yunxiao Pavilion, in his room that was comparable to the presidential suite.

“From now on, you will live here.” Dongfang Yunheng threw the luggage bag in his hand on the floor of the living room and sat down on the Sofa. He looked at the woman who had followed him in and said, “don’t look for a job for the time being. We have some things to be busy with.”

“How can I earn money if I don’t look for a job?” Fang Xiao could not help but smile when she heard Dongfang Yunheng’s words. Then, she said indifferently, “how can I compare with President Dongfang? My younger brother is still waiting for money in school. The salary I earned two months ago is not enough to pay my younger brother for the next semester’s expenses.”

“Then you can work at my place,” Dongfang Yunheng interrupted her impatiently. He said a little unhappily, “I originally wanted to hire an hourly worker to manage my apartment. Now that you’re here, I’ve fired the hourly worker. I’ll give you the money to hire an hourly worker in the future. This is considered a job. What do you think?”

“This...” Fang Xiao thought for a moment and then asked faintly, “Um, how much do you pay for a part-time worker per month?”

Dongfang Yunheng was really going to be angered to death by her. Could it be that he would give her less money? He could give her as much as she wanted to use. Why did she have to be so serious.

“It would cost more than a thousand yuan to hire a part-time worker to clean my apartment per month, ” Yunheng guessed and answered. In fact, he didn’t know how much it would cost because it was Wu Jianping who handled such small matters for him.

Chapter 1876 hourly wage

“Then I’d better look for another job, ” Fang Xiao rejected without thinking. How could a thousand yuan a month be enough for her and her brother, Fang Chen?

Moreover, she had to pay for the next semester’s fees in September. Yesterday, when she went to visit Fang Chen at school, the Dean also said that Fang Chen was talented in sports. If she wanted her brother to develop in this area.. She had to pay more money for him to participate in the interest class’s training. She wanted to see if he had the chance to leave this special school’s team and join some normal people’s competition group.

Of course, she hoped that her brother would be like forrest gump, because he had the talent in sports and had also walked a path. But the key was that paying more money was a difficult problem, because she had not even earned enough money for the next semester.

Fang Chen’s current school had already given him a certain amount of concessions and preferential treatment because of his specialty in sports. But even so, a semester was still a little more than 20,000 yuan, and her two-month salary in a foreign company was only 10,000 yuan Usually, she still needed to spend some money to eat or something. So, adding up her previous salary from Lily Company and her salary from walking on the beach, all of them added up to only 14,000 yuan She was still 7,000 to 8,000 yuan away from 20,000 yuan.

When Dongfang Yunheng heard that Fang Xiao was looking for another job, he was so angry that he was speechless. He had never met a woman who was more stubborn than her. If she just told him that she needed money, would he not give it to her?

In the end, of course, Fang Xiao did not look for another job because Dongfang Yunheng gave her a bunch of keys. He said that the guards of the few places he often stayed in outside would clean up and give it to her instead of looking for hourly workers The hourly workers in these few places combined had a salary of more than eight thousand a month.

Fang Xiao no longer insisted. Since it was a part-time job to earn money, although it was a part-time job, it was also a type of work. As long as she used her own Labor to exchange for pay, she felt that it was glorious, and there was no distinction between noble and lowly jobs.

In fact, Fang Xiao had been to a few of Dongfang Yunheng’s places before. The villa near Lake Villa was the place that he had forcefully brought her to when he first met her at the Royal Junjue nightclub, as well as the famous Jiangnan city and the suite at Yunxiao pavilion.

The cleaning fee for the three houses was 8,200 yuan. This did not give her any preferential treatment because Dongfang Yunheng’s assistant, Wu Jianping, had brought over the bills paid to the hourly workers to calculate for Fang Xiao to see.

Dongfang Yunheng claimed to be a Germaphobe, so even if no one lived in his place, he still had to clean it frequently. He could not bear the slightest bit of dust on the furniture.

Fang Xiao did not know when his Germaphobe was formed because six years ago, Xi Lingheng did not have a Germaphobe. The apartment he rented was like a Doghouse, and even his smelly socks were thrown everywhere.

Of the three places in Dongfang Yunheng, Fang Xiao came to clean them in two days. Because Jiangnan famous city and Yunxiao pavilion were both suites, although the area was large, it was not particularly difficult to clean if there were no people living there, so she did not waste much time.

She lived in Yunxiao pavilion, so she used almost all her time to clean here. Usually, she finished cleaning in half an hour after dinner.

On the other hand, Linhu villa was a villa with a single door and courtyard. The courtyard was very large, and there were all kinds of expensive trees and flowers in it, so it took a lot of effort to clean it. It usually took more than half a day.

Chapter 1877: She had already thought About It

Fang Xiao would be cleaning the famous Jiangnan City today and Linhu villa the next day. Because she was fond of flowers and trees, she had to water the flowers and trees when she was in Linhu villa. Occasionally, she would also trim the flowers and trees.

In fact, this kind of work was not considered tiring. If Dongfang Yunheng did not return to the Heavenly Cloud pavilion for dinner, this man would have fallen in love with her after she moved to the Heavenly Cloud pavilion. He even asked her to cook for him.

Originally, this was not part of her job scope. It was only because she came back late that day at the lakeside villa and there was a traffic jam on the road. When she returned home, it was already past eight o'clock in the evening.

At that time, it was her first time cleaning the lakeside villa, so she had no choice but to do it all day. She had not even eaten lunch. When she returned to the Heavenly Cloud pavilion, she was famished. At that time, she had bought half a catty of eggs, a handful of noodles, and two tomatoes at the roadside when she was transferring to the bus.

When Dongfang Yunheng returned, she was eating the burnt noodles with tomatoes that she had cooked herself. Dongfang Yunheng saw that she was eating well and could not help but say that he was not full from the social events outside and asked her to cook a bowl of noodles for him.

At that time, she was kind-hearted and thought that it was just a bowl of noodles. It wasn't a big deal, so she agreed and immediately went to the kitchen to cook a bowl of noodles for him with the remaining eggs, tomatoes, and noodles.

It was that time when she had cooked a bowl of noodles. Dongfang Yunheng didn't know if his nerves were acting up, but he had been coming back from work early in the past few days. Sometimes, she was cooking, and sometimes, she was preparing to cook.

Therefore, in such a situation, she couldn't cook alone. It was just that the vegetables she bought herself were very cheap. Fortunately, his eldest young master wasn't particularly picky, so every time she cooked, he could make do with it.

Fang Xiao originally thought that she and Dongfang Yunheng would spend the remaining month or so working as part-time workers and prostitute for him.

As for where she would go after this month or so, she had actually already thought about it. Because the city was not suitable for her, she decided to let Fang Chen go to Bincheng's special school alone, and she estimated that she would go to a remote place to work. For example, a suburban nursery or other places.

Recently, when she was free, she had been looking for such jobs on the Internet. Through the information on the Internet, she learned that there was a huge nursery at the border of Bincheng and d city, and some of the flowers and plants planted there were said to be at the exit. She had already sent a copy of her information over.

She had originally thought that she and Qiu Yitang would never see each other again because her living space was only that small. She was just going back and forth between Dongfang Yunheng's three properties, so she did not need to go to more places. And it was not so easy for Qiu Yitang to find her.

Moreover, there was actually no so-called relationship between her and Qiu Yitang. The reason why Qiu Yitang was still pestering her was because he suddenly realized his conscience and felt that he had wronged her, so he wanted to make up for it.

Of course, he might not necessarily have realized his conscience. Perhaps he felt that she still had some secrets of the Fang clan, and felt that she hadn't finished excavating the last bit of the Fang Clan's resources, so he continued to pester her.

However, no matter what kind of motive Qiu Yitang had for pestering her, she would no longer pay attention to people like Qiu Yitang. As the saying goes, if you can't afford to offend, you can hide. Therefore, she tried her best to avoid him.

Chapter 1878: her brother's birthday

It was August 19th, her brother Fang Chen's birthday. She had already arranged her work two days in advance. She was just waiting for the day to be free to pick Fang Chen up from the special school. Then, the siblings would go out for dinner together.

Although Fang Chen's iq was low and it was impossible for him to do accounting, his memory was not bad. Moreover, he had learned a lot of words at the special school and could write letters recently.

Yesterday afternoon, Fang Chen had called her and said that today was his birthday. He wanted to celebrate his birthday with his sister and asked Fang Xiao to pick him up from school today.

Half a month had passed in the blink of an eye since Fang Xiao had gone to watch Fang Chen's basketball game. She had not gone to see her brother again, so she had finished her work this morning and left in a hurry.

She had originally thought that she could play with Fang Chen for a day, but when she rushed to the special school, the basketball coach told her that Fang Chen would be participating in training at night. Because there was a bigger game a week later, Fang Chen could go out during the day. However, she had to return to school before four in the afternoon.

Therefore, Fang Xiao could only sigh. Her brother's 15th birthday, his parents were long gone, and she was the only sister. She wanted to spend a good birthday with him, but because of training, she could only play for half a day.

Fang Chen was already very tall, but his iq and personality were still like that of a child. Therefore, for this birthday, his biggest wish was to buy a birthday cake, and it was an ice cream birthday cake.

Regarding this, Fang Xiao generously agreed. Fang Chen usually ate in the school cafeteria, and almost never ate outside. Although the food in the cafeteria was not bad, anything eaten for a long time would be disgusting.

When Fang Xiao rushed to the special school, it was more than 10 o'clock in the morning. Fang Chen was particularly excited and waited for her at the school gate early. Because it was summer, he stretched out his hand and wore a short-sleeved Jersey, looking particularly energetic.

Fang Chen was very tall. Fang Xiao stood beside him and looked a little petite, but Fang Chen did not feel Fang Xiao's awkwardness at all. Like a child, he grabbed Fang Xiao's hand and cheerfully called her sister.

Fang Xiao took her brother to take the bus. The siblings were handsome and beautiful. Standing in the crowded bus, they stood out from the crowd. Many people could not help but look at the two of them.

BINCHENG's special school was a little far from the city. Moreover, because Fang Chen wanted to eat ice cream and birthday cake, they had to go to Bincheng's most famous department store, the Sun Department Store. That place had the world-famous haagen-dazs ice cream cake.

From the special school to the Sun Department Store, they had to transfer to the bus twice. Fortunately, there were not many people taking the bus at noon. Other than the first bus, which had no seats, the siblings had taken the seats on the next two buses.

By the time the siblings arrived at the sun department store, it was already 11:30 p.m. . Fortunately, it was not a weekend. There were not many people at the Sun Department Store at noon. There were also very few people at the haagen-dazs ice cream shop at this time. There were actually seats available.

Fang Xiao Brought Fang Chen in and asked for a pound of haagen-dazs ice cream birthday cake. The price was not cheap. Fortunately, the two of them did not eat much, only about 200 yuan.

The ice cream cake had to be made on the spot, so they had to wait for more than half an hour. Fang Xiao and Fang Chen had nothing to do anyway, so the siblings sat on their seats. Fang Xiao took out the fairy tale book she had brought and started reading it to Fang Chen.

Chapter 1879: brother-in-law is here

The storybook that Fang Xiao brought was a brave boy. She was reading it to Fang Chen beside her in a low voice when she heard a slightly familiar voice, "is the ice cream cake I ordered ready? "

She raised her head almost instinctively, and a slightly familiar figure appeared in her line of sight. She almost instinctively froze, because she did not expect to meet Dongfang Yunheng's mother, Mrs. Dongfang, in this place.

Although she had only met Dongfang Yunheng's mother twice, once in New Jersey five years ago in the United States, and the other time at Uncle Gu Chenchen's family dinner last year, but these two times.. It was enough for her to recognize her with such a back view.

She immediately turned her head back and sat slightly in Fang Chen's direction. She lowered her head in Fang Chen's direction and stopped reading fairy tales, because she was worried that Mrs. Dongfang would look in her direction when she heard her voice.

Fortunately, she did not. The shop assistant over there answered Mrs. Dongfang's words and seemed to have made it. Then, when she handed the cake to her, she wished her a happy meal while also welcoming her next visit.

Fang Xiao kept her head down and did not even dare to breathe loudly. It was not until the sound of high heels disappeared from the entrance of haagen-dazs ice cream shop that she finally dared to let out a long breath and raise her head.

The ice cream birthday cake was served half an hour later. It was only a pound and very small. However, the words "happy birthday, Fang Chen" written in white chocolate were very clear and could be seen at a glance.

Fang Chen was as excited as a child. He shouted that he wanted to light candles and sing a birthday song. Fang Xiao could not persuade him, so she called the waiter over and asked him to help turn off the lights on their seats for two minutes. She wanted to celebrate her brother's birthday.

The shop assistant was very enthusiastic. She immediately turned off the lights on their seats. Then, two shop assistants came over. Fang Xiao Sang Fang Chen's birthday song together and wished him a happy birthday.

There were two small number candles jumping on the cake. One was the number 1, and the other was the number 5. Together, they meant 15, which meant Fang Chen's 15th birthday.

Fang Chen was so happy that he immediately wanted to share the birthday cake with the two shop assistants. The shop assistants immediately declined and said they wished them a happy birthday before leaving.

Because it was Fang Chen's birthday, he insisted on cutting the birthday cake himself. Fang Xiao allowed him to do so, so he took a plastic knife and cut it. Fortunately, it was easy to cut the cake under the cake. In fact, he only cut the birthday cake in half.

"sister, eat the cake." Fang Chen placed the cake on the paper plate in front of Fang Xiao. Fang Xiao picked up the cake and first used a fork to fork a piece to Fang Chen's mouth. She watched Fang Chen eat happily.

Fang Chen followed her lead and immediately fork a piece of cake from his plate to Fang Xiao's mouth. Fang Xiao immediately opened her mouth and ate it in one bite.

The siblings happily fed each other the cake. Just as they were enjoying their meal, Fang Chen raised his head and saw a person standing next to them. He couldn't help but call out excitedly, "brother-in-law! "

Fang Xiao was stunned by Fang Chen calling him brother-in-law. After a while, she turned around and realized that Qiu Yitang was standing next to them, and he was holding a large transformer in his hand.

"brother-in-law, are you giving this transformer to me?" Fang Chen put down the plate in his hand. He didn't care about the melted ice cream in his hand and immediately reached out to take the large transformer in Qiu Yitang's hand.

"Here, happy birthday, Chen Chen!" Qiu Yitang had already handed the transformer to Fang Chen as he spoke, and Fang Xiao was standing in the middle.

Fang Xiao reacted the moment Fang Chen caught the transformer. She quickly stretched out her hand and snatched the transformer away, then stuffed it into Qiu Yitang's hand.

"Qiu Yitang, thank you for your kindness, but we poor people can't afford your gift. You should take it back and give it to the woman you love. No, save it for the woman you love to give birth to your child in the future." Fang Xiao's tone was indifferent and distant. However, there was an unusual firmness that could not be questioned.

"Fang Xiao, this gift is not for you, but for Fang Chen." Qiu Yitang saw Fang Xiao's attitude. He could not help but explain in a low voice, "today is Fang Chen's 15th birthday. He has wanted a transformer for a long time. I'm just..."

"How do you know that Fang Chen has wanted a transformer for a long time?" Fang Xiao immediately interrupted Qiu Yitang's words. Her face immediately darkened and she could not help but ask coldly, "when did you get together with Fang Chen?"

"brother-in-law came to see me twice at school," Fang Chen answered before Qiu Yitang did, and added happily, "brother-in-law always brings gifts for Chen Chen. "

Hearing Fang Chen's words, Fang Xiao's heart was burning with anger. She reached out to grab Fang Chen's hand and walked out of the haagen-dazs ice cream shop, because it was definitely not good to quarrel in the human world shop.

Qiu Yitang was slightly stunned. He looked at the transformer in his hand, and then walked out. He thought that Fang Xiao must have misunderstood him again, thinking that he was going to find Fang Chen to do something.

"Chen Chen, he is not your brother-in-law." In the Sun Department Store Square, Fang Xiao pointed at Qiu Yitang and said to her brother, "remember, you don't have a brother-in-law now. "

"But..." Fang Chen scratched his head with his hand. He thought for a moment and then asked, "I remember that my sister said that she had a brother-in-law a long time ago. I think I went to his house?"

“My brother-in-law died a long time ago.” Fang Xiao knew that she couldn’t explain it to her brother in more detail, so she found the simplest way. Then she pointed at Qiu Yitang and said, “in short, Chen Chen, you have to remember that this person is not your brother-in-law. He is a liar and a great evil man. He is...”

Fang Xiao could not continue speaking until here. She thought of all the things she had done with Qiu Yitang, the things he had done to her and the Fang family, and the fact that he still did not intend to let her and her brother off. Her heart hurt so much that she could not speak.

“Ah, he is a liar and a great evil man?” When Fang Chen heard Fang Xiao say this and saw her sister’s pained face, he immediately understood and could not help but ask, “then isn’t he a great devil?”

“Yes, he is a great devil.” Fang Xiao followed her brother’s words and pulled his hand. As she walked towards the bus stop, she whispered to him, “Chen Chen, in the future, when this person comes to visit you at the special school, ignore him. Later, I will go to the security room at the entrance of your school and inform them not to inform you when this person comes to visit you in the future.”

“Oh.” Fang Chen lowered her head sadly. After a long while, she whispered again, “but, he also gave me a gift twice. I...”

“throw away the gifts. Don’t accept them.” Fang Xiao quickly cut off her brother’s words. Seeing Fang Chen’s sad face, she paused for a moment. Then, she used her hand to hold his hand and said, “Chen Chen, in the future, I will buy a lot of gifts for you. When I earn a lot of money, I will buy them for Chen Chen, okay?”
